Heart Disease Is Taxing Lives As Blood Pressure Problems

"Heart disease" that can cause heart attack, stroke or cardiac or kidney failure is taxing the lives of 10 million Texans. The most common is hypertension--commonly known as high blood pressure. Of even greater concern is the fact that one-half of these victims are unaware they have hypertension. This is because it manifests no unique symptoms to call attention to its presence. That is why so many people are unaware they have it. This is a disease because hypertension is detected by a simple blood pressure screen and many drugs have been developed that can control cases of hyperten-

Effort to find the approximately one million Texan expected to have uncontrolled hypertension and get them under effective treatment, the Gray County Heart Division of the American Heart Association is conducting a vigorous program of detecting hypertension among the public with blood pressure screen-

In addition, the Gray County Heart Division has announced a program of increased emphasis on educating the public about hypertension through a mass media and educational program in an effort to create public awareness about hypertension. Hypertension hits particularly hard at black Americans, male and female blacks have a greater mortality rate from hypertension in every age group than whites in the same category.

Recent studies have confirmed that treating even mild levels of blood pressure can be effective in treating heart attack and stroke to some earlier be-

What is important for everyone to remember is that high blood pressure is silent, it can be detected and controlled by a simple blood pressure screen. But, only a doctor can treat it. A program on hypertension was recently presented to the wives of the Gray County Heart Division by the Education Committee. A film on hypertension was shown and each participant blood pressure was taken. Nurses volunteer their time were Jesse Perry and Jean Johnson, members of the Gray County Heart Div.

W. Philip Gramm, a private economics professor on leave from A&M University, endorsed the Democratic Senate primary, challenging Senator Bentsen in the election.

Early in the third quarter Marty Dunniven intercepted a Bronco pass and raced 25 yards for the McLean touchdown. The extra kick by Morse Haynes was good and the gap narrowed to 17-10.

"...For Whatsoever is Not of Faith is Sin."

What is wrong with the use of mechanical instrumental music in Christian worship? Note the testimony of well known religious leaders:
MARTIN LUTHER: "The organ in the worship of God is a sign to Baal."
JOHN CALVIN: "Musical instruments in celebrating praises of God would be no more suitable than the lighting of incense, the lighting up of lamps, and the lighting of the other shadows of the law."
DAM CLARKE: "I am an old man, and an old minister, and I here declare that I never knew them (musical instruments) productive of any good in the worship of God, and have had reason to believe that they were productive of much evil. Music, as a science, I esteem and admire; but instruments of music in the house of God are to be abhorred."
JOHN WESLEY: "I have no opposition to the organ in the chapel provided it is neither seen nor heard."
CHARLES H. SPURGEON: One of the greatest Baptist preachers the world has known. He preached for twenty years in the Metropolitan Baptist Tabernacle in London, England, and mechanical instruments of music were used in his tabernacle. He said: "I will pray with the spirit and I will pray with the understanding also. I will as soon pray to God with machinery as to sing to God with machinery."
WILLIAM COLEMAN: Presbyterian scholar and author, who generally admitted that the primitive Christians employed no instrumental music in their religious worship. Neither Ambrose, no Basil, nor Chrysostom, in the encomiums which they severally pronounce upon music, make any mention of instrumental music. Basil remarks it as ministering only to the depraved passions of men. "Also, "It (instrumental music) tends to secularize the music of the church, and to encourage singing by a mechanical accompaniment."
What is wrong with the use of mechanical instrumental music in Christian worship?
It is not of faith. (Rom. 14:23) This is the foundation of the matter. We must recognize and respect the all-sufficiency of the word of God. We can only do in religious matters that which is divinely authorized. (2 Cor. 13:1) There can be no faith where there is no word of God. Without faith it is impossible for one to please God. (Eph. 2:8)
It does not meet the divine standard. The standard for acceptable worship is clearly set forth in John 4:23-24. Acceptable worship necessarily involves (a) the proper object, (b) the proper attitude, and (c) the proper authority. The authority of using the mechanical instrument in "proper worship" is highly questionable, but the fact remains that it is not authorized--it can not be used "in truth."
It is not in harmony with the basic thought--inherently involved in acceptable worship--of trying to please God. We must ever keep in our minds in relationship to worship: Who are we trying to please? ourselves? or, Him to whom worship is directed? The Greeks worshiped Zeua as it were. They made him---he was their creature. God made us. We are His creature. We must worship as He has directed us. In no other way can we please Him.
It is not the kind of music prescribed in Eph. 5:18-19. It is music grows out of one's being filled with the Spirit. (Col. 3:16) tells how one is filled with the Spirit. It is that filled with the Spirit can make the music here prescribed. It involves concern for each other. It involves "making." It involves the use of "psalms and hymns and spiritual songs." It involves the use of the voice. It involves "heart". It must be directed to the Lord, and it is not a mechanical accompaniment.

 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Insurance made news again, as the State Insurance Board hiked rates for homeowners coverage effective February 16.

Board staffers a week earlier recommended an average 17 per cent increase statewide in auto insurance premiums.

The Board-approved homeowners' rates will increase at an average of 8.3 per cent, fire insurance rates on homes 7.9 per cent for single-year policies and 14 per cent on three-year policies.

Rates were far less than those requested by the insurance industry.

Homeowners policy rates and extended coverage (storms, hail, riots, accidents, etc), vary by territories.

Homeowners' rates for average residences would increase as follows:

- Seacoast, 7.6 per cent.
- Central, 7.6 per cent.
- North-Northwest, 12 per cent.

Rate on a $35,000 brick veneer home in Galveston will go up from $940 to $1,021 for a three-year homeowners policy. The same type home in Houston would see a rate increase from $814 to $886, in Austin from $654 to $714 and in Lubbock from $1,137 to $1,283.

Amount of the annual increase on the same home would be $17 in Galveston, $24 in Houston, $20 in Austin and $49 in Lubbock.

VRA Study On

The House Elections Committee began a "major study of effects of the recently-extended and expanded Voting Rights Act on Texas.

The Committee will try to gauge impact of the law on local governments and recommend legislation needed to help smaller governmental units comply with complex VRA requirements.

All governmental units, under VRA, must submit to the U.S. Department of Justice any changes in their election laws, procedures or voting precinct boundaries dating back to Nov. 1, 1972, and in the future.

Elections Committee Chairman Rep. Luther Jones of El Paso said many small cities and other units don't have resources or required data to make full submissions and will have serious difficulty complying with requirements without assistance.

Lands Leased

Oil and gas exploration firms bid cash bonus payments of more than $3.4 million on 91,000 acres of state land at a recent lease sale.

Most bidding activity was concentrated on state submerged tracts located in Texas bays. More than $2.1 million of the total was put up for leases on 55,383 acres in the bay tracts.

Inexo Oil Company bid more than $600,000 for 13 tracts, Monsanto $377,609 for 11 tracts, Houston Oil and Minerals Corp. $338,381 for 11 tracts and Exxon, $200,004 for 12 tracts.

Highest single bonus bid of $117,936 was made by Kilroy Company of Texas for a Gulf of Mexico tract in Jefferson County.

Preparations For The Hunter

Preparing for the fall hunting season means getting into good physical condition as well as getting your equipment in shape, says a wildlife specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. All firearms should be cleaned, checked and sighted in. Knives, hand axes and bone saws should be sharpened and wearing apparel should be in good repair to add to the comfort of the hunt. Good footwear is essential. Exercising such as walking or jogging helps get the body in shape for hunting. Dieting off a few pounds will also help.

A city cannot, by ordinance, permit late drinking hours in private clubs but not in public places.

Names of research subjects in state mental science facilities do not have to be disclosed to legislators or the public.

Appointments

Gov. Dolph Briscoe named Ocie R. Jackson of Anahuac and Elvis L. Mason of Dallas to the Board of Regents of Lamar University for six-year terms. He reappointed Tolbert Thurman Crowder of Port Arthur.

Governor Briscoe appointed Franklin A. Jeffers of Amarillo and Robert Clyde Jones of San Antonio to the Texas Real Estate Commission for terms extending until October 5, 1981.

U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen named Austin attorney Joe M. Kilgore as chairman of his Senate Re-election committee. Walter M. Mischer of Houston will be campaign treasurer.

Visiting the Lloyd Hunts this week are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hunt and little daughter.

Arizona Recalled... Tommy Duniven-Sammy Williams

LUBBOCK--Sammy Williams and Tommy Duniven remember last year's Arizona - Texas Tech football game well, both were in a daze most of it.

Williams caught three passes in his first varsity action, and Duniven completed six before a severe back injury ruined his sophomore season.

"I don't really remember the Arizona game," says Williams, a 6-1 sophomore. "I was in a daze. I really didn't expect to play and was just standing there on the sideline. The next thing I know I'm in there."

The next thing Duniven knew, he was out of there. And he remembers.

"I remember the play like it happened yesterday," Duniven recalls. "We were driving down the field and I was working the option. I decided to keep the ball, was tackled and got speared in the back. I couldn't move well for four weeks. It was a big disappointment and it really messed up my career."

Duniven, the national hero against Texas, missed the entire SMU game and saw limited action against Rice and TCU. He played in only one play against Baylor and then sat out the season finale against Ark.

This fall he had to re-establish himself as starting Tech quarterback, which smacks of being as big a chore as following in the footsteps of your older brother, who just happens to be an All-Southwest Conference receiver.

Duniven had his best passing game since the Arizona injury last week against A&M, completing 10 of 17 passes for 148 yards. "We threw pretty well against Texas three weeks ago, but I guess you would have to say we had our best game passing against A&M," he says. "It's good to get back on the right track. The Arizona game this week is crucial to us. It'll be our biggest of the season."

Our passing game against A&M was symbolic of our season and our problems overall," Cropp says. "We finally put all three phases of our passing game together -- we had good protection, we ran good routes and our quarterbacks threw well. But we had breakdowns in other areas. If we ever put it all together we'll be tough

Texas Waterfowl Season Set

By J. D. Peer
I&E Field Officer

A daily bag limit of up to 10 ducks and reasonably longer waterfowl seasons on the High Plains of Texas were set by the Parks and Wildlife Commission in Austin.

The High Plains mallard management unit season is a straight 83 days, Oct. 28 to Jan. 18.

The 100-point system will again be used but bag and possession limits have some slight changes.

Canvasbacks and redhead ducks will again count 100 points per bird and there are not changes in 70-point duck which are mallard hens, wood ducks, and hooded mergansers.

The 10-point ducks which are very popular among waterfowlers include pintail gadwall, scaup, shoveler, all species of teal and mergansers except hooded species. This is down five points for each bird over last year.

All other ducks are designated 20-point value including the popular greenhead mallard in the High Plains management area.

If you hunt east of U. S. highway 81, check local waterfowl regulations for the different dates and bag limits.

Many hunters still do not understand the current point system being used, and the main point to remember is add the total duck points and if you are allowed one point, you are allowed one more duck of any point value including a canvasback or redhead.

The 93 season on geese west of U. S. highway is Oct. 18 - Jan. 18. Daily bag and possession limits in the western management area are two and four respectively with not more than one Ross' goose included.

Shooting hours during regular waterfowl season is one-half hour before sunrise to sunset daily.

A federal waterfowl stamp will be required by anyone

Young at Heart To Be Open Two Nights

The Young at Heart Club building will again be open on Friday and Saturdays this week. Games will be played and light refreshments will be served.

Those attending last Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Fulbright, Mr. and Mrs. Enloe Crisp, Oscar Tibbetts, Clyde Freeman, Mesdames Minnie Freeman, Ruby Hill, Ruby Boyd, Lena Bailey, Rut Ruth Kemp, Vela Corcoran, Myrtle McCoy, Bertha Smith, Ada Simmons and Isabel Petty.

The following were present on Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Enloe Crisp, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clawson, Ed Haynes, Clyde Freeman, Vela Corcoran, Lena Bailey, Minnie Freeman, Susie Watson, Bertha Smith, who was the hostess.

16 years of age or older taking or attempting to take waterfowl. These stamps can be purchased at most U. S. post offices. P&WD waterfowl biologists are predicting a good waterfowl season as the opening dates near. Reports from the meeting areas of northern U. S. and Canada indicate a good hatch of young ducks and geese.

The use of retrievers in finding downed ducks and geese will increase your chances for a full game bag. Many of the hunters are already building duck blinds around their favorite duck pond giving the waterfowl a chance to become accustomed to the structure.

New pamphlets listing all waterfowl seasons and regulations can be obtained at your nearest license vendor or P&WD office.

Estate Planning Seminar Announced

Taxes, gifts, wills, trusts--all important items relating to estate planning will be highlighted at a seminar at Texas A&M University, Dec. 15-16. Minimizing federal estate death taxes, transfer of property, tax evaluation of agricultural properties, the cost of probate and other key items will be discussed by attorneys, tax officials, trust officers and others, says an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Farmers, ranchers and other property owners as well as professional estate planners are encouraged to attend. County Extension agents have information for advance registration.

Young women were more likely to be single in 1974 than in 1960, says the Bureau of the Census. Half of American women between the ages of 18 and 24 were single in 1974, compared to 41 per cent in 1960.

MARKET REPORT

Pork supplies are at a 40-year low--with "features for the consumer practically non-existent with the exception of bacon and sausage, according to Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt.

Mrs. Clyatt is consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The A&M University System.
At other meat sections in Texas grocery stores this week, she advised consumers to check poultry prices.

Fryer chicken supplies are adequate--pricewise an excellent buy. Chicken hens are good values, and turkeys are featured in some markets this week.

Also, as large-size eggs become more abundant, their prices will drop.

Currently, best beef values are found on corned beef, ground beef, liver, stew meat and chuck a slight increase in beef supplies, which could result in slightly lower prices.

At fruit counters, grapes are in good supply with several varieties now available. The specialist said quality choices depend on freshness and brightness--with most quality grapes having a powdery or cloudy appearance to the skin, called bloom.

Vegetable economy includes broccoli, cauliflower, eggplant, rutaba-

Ag Trade Surplus Continues

Agriculture continues to carry the load as far as the United States' balance of trade is concerned. In fact, it's the only trade area operating "in the black," says an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The U.S. agricultural trade balance had a surplus of $11.7 billion in 1974 while the nonagricultural trade balance showed a deficit of $14.7 billion. Agricultural exports last year totaled $22 billion and for the gas and hard-shell squash, along with sweet potatoes and pumpkins--all of which Mrs. Clyatt termed good quality at reasonable prices.

Other economical choices include cabbage carrots, turnips and greens, mustard, green peppers and collard greens.

CONSUMER WATCH-WORD: Although Texas grapefruit is now available by the pound or by the bag, its quality will improve--and prices will trend downward--as the season progresses.
