O'Donnell Man Establishes High Record In Sale Of Products

LAMESA, Jan. 7.—An unusual record in the sale of farm products during the year of 1929 was made by E. W. Hester, farmer near O'Donnell, Texas. Hester realized $3,501.31 during the twelve months on poultry, hogs, and dairy products, which is above the money he made on his cotton and feed crops during the year. By keeping an itemized account of each month he was able to see which of the twelve months were most profitable for him.

April was the outstanding month, according to his account, for in that month he made $691.90, of which amount $37.50 was realized in show winnings. April was a close second in the butter market. He made $119.25 from butter during that month.

July saw the largest earnings in butter, for during that month he sold $134.55 worth of butter at 45 per pound.

On his itemized account may be seen profit from butter, cream, eggs, hogs, cattle, poultry, beans, mules and show winnings. During the year he realized a total of $1,238.40 on butter and $1,262.90 on livestock.

The money he made during each month is given below: January $427.12; February, $140.64; March, $126.71; April, $691.90; May, $512.25; June, $97.80; July, $381.09; August, $131.36; September, $124.50; October, $93.75; November, $251.00; December, $518.49. He states that by keeping this record he can better his monthly incomes during the next year by observing which products sell most in each month.

Get Ready For Questions Of Federal Census Men During 1930

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—"Who's the head of the family?" and "are you a lady?" and "are you loafing or working?" are personal questions, but couched in diplomatic language ought not to be embarrassing, the census bureau has revealed in saying that substantially these inquiries will be made.

There is a penalty for refusing to answer. For some obscure reason, the radio industry will get a bounteous boost, since every person will be required, under penalty of prison or fine to say whether he owns a radio. The government however omitted the "if not, why not?"

There will be 24 points to the individual census report, and some of them are whopping points. It will take longer to answer them than to ask them.

"Can you speak English?" is a question to be asked foreign-born people. "No sabe" probably will be equivalent to "no."

Here are the questions:

1. What is your relationship to the head of the family, and who is the homemaker (housewife)?
2. Do you own or rent your home?
3. Value of home, if owned; monthly rental, if rented.
4. Do you own a radio set?
5. Does this family live on a farm?
6. Are you a man or a woman?
7. Are you white, black or otherwise?
8. Age at last birthday.
9. Married or single?

10. Age at first marriage?
11. Place of birth, state or country.
12. Where was your father born?
13. Where was your mother born?
14. Mother tongue of each foreign-born parent.
15. Can you read or write?
16. Did you attend school or college at any time prior to Sept. 1, 1929?
17. Year of immigration to U. S. if foreign born.
18. Whether naturalized, if foreign-born.
19. Whether able to speak English, if foreign-born.
20. Occupation of each gainful worker.
21. Industry in which he is employed.
22. Whether employer, employee, or working on own account.
23. Whether actually at work.
24. Whether a veteran of the U. S. military or naval forces; and if a veteran, of what war or expedition.

New Claimant For Ship Would Enter Fight State Court

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—A new claimant has appeared for the 100-acre strip of land in Sec. 34, Block 134 of Pecos county, over which the state, the California company and 34 others have eagerly fought before a jury for the past seven weeks. When the case is resumed Jan. 20, Atty. Guy H. Holcomb of Austin announced he will take steps to bring his client, F. K. Campbell of Dallas, into it as a party. Filing made by Campbell on the tract, worth millions of dollars, is the first filing, and under it he will claim the first right to leases on the land if the state recovers it, Mr. Holcomb said. Fred Turner, Jr., of Midland is now in the suit as intervener, claiming prior right to file on the portion of the section which Campbell's proceedings will claim.

Campbell first will seek to be made a party to the suit through voluntary action, but if this fails, will file a plea of intervention to cause his rights to be adjudicated, along with other involved in the tract.

Mr. Holcomb said his filing is on the western strip of the section, embracing present production and the most valuable part of his acreage. It was claimed Campbell's filing is first in point of time, that of Turner second, and filing of Bob Reed third.

Waterworks, Sewer Operation School To Be Held In Abilene

ABILENE, Jan. 7.—The twelfth annual short school for water and sewerage plant operators will be held here January 27 to 30, 1930. This school is sponsored by the State Department of Health in cooperation with the Texas Section of the Southwest Water Works Association. Every city is requested to send its water and sewerage plant operator and reservations should be made at once with L. A. Grimes, Abilene, Texas, director of the school or with the State Health Officer, Austin, Texas.

Senator Says Lobby For "People" Needed

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—A "people's lobby" at Austin, to combat the other lobbies which have been charged by Cong. Tom Garner with seeking to dominate the legislature, was suggested as a remedy by E. G. Senter, former state senator, candidate for governor, in a statement.

"No way has been found to abolish the lobby at Austin, and the only way to hog-tie it is to establish a people's lobby which will stay on the ground while the legislature is in session and publish the doings of the members to the world," Sen. Senter asserted.

Mr. Senter outlined his previous-announced campaign planks, including the readjustment of corporation taxes "to reach impressively the holding corporations," and an income tax on incomes above $5,000 a year. He opposed a statewide highway bond issue.

Mrs. Robert T. Piner spent Tuesday in Midland in the guest of friends.

NO "PEP," SLUGGISH

Constipation Troubles Relieved By Help of Thadford's Black-Draught, Says Tennessee Coal Miner.

Tracy City, Tenn.—"My work makes it necessary for me to use a medicine which will give quick relief from constipation and indigestion," says Mr. Lee Nunley, a well-known coal miner of this place.

"For forty years or more," he says, "I have taken Black-Draught for these troubles, and have always found it reliable. At times, I suffer from bad spells of indigestion, following constipation.

"Many years ago, a friend told me to try Black-Draught, as it was a vegetable remedy and would not harm my body, so that is how I came to use it. I make a tea of it, and take a sip of it after meals. I soon begin to feel better when I start this treatment.

"My work is very confining, and my color gets bad and I get sluggish. I lose my 'pep' and don't feel like going. After I take a course of Black-Draught I feel fine again."

Manufacture of Thadford's Black-Draught began nearly 100 years ago, and many people tell of having taken it all their lives when in need of a laxative or cathartic.

Beware of imitations and substitutes. See the yellow package bearing the name "Thadford's."

Red Letter Dates Of Election Year Soon To Be In Order

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—This state election year, ranking second only to the four-year presidential election, has many red-letter days in its political calendar, but the most important of all, the most significant in turning the trend of campaign affairs and possibly of governmental leadership, is yet to be fixed.

That is the day the Democratic party committee is to meet to decide the political fate of those Democrats who jumped the fence two years ago and made Texas a Republican-majority state for the first time since reconstruction days.

That meeting is to be held early in the year, on a date yet to be decided. It will mark the official opening of a political season of intense interest and probably of extreme bitterness.

The committee is required by law to meet June 9 to approve lists of names to go on the party ballot, but it is certain to meet much earlier to define party policy for the year.

The Hoover victory in Texas carried with it an incidental vote for governor that put Texas over the 100,000-vote limit and made necessary a Republican primary election this year. Republican and Democratic primaries will be held July 26. If necessary to hold second primaries for elimination between two highest candidates for any office, these will be held August 23.

Some of the dates in the year's political calendar so far fixed by law or otherwise include:

Jan. 20. Legislature meets.

Jan. 31. Last day for paying poll taxes.

Feb. 18. Legislature adjourns.

June 2. Final date for candidates for state and district offices to file names for primary ballots.

June 9. State executive committees meet and prepare primary ballots, select city for state conventions.

June 14. Final date for county and precinct candidates to file for places on ballots.

June 16. Executive committees in each county shall meet to prepare ballots.

June 23. Final date for candidates to pay primary assessments, June 28. First campaign expense reports due.

July 14. Ballot committee meets to arrange printing of ballots.

July 14. Second campaign expense reports due.

July 16. Absentee voting begins.

July 22. Voters in cities over 10,000, who have moved their residence since securing poll tax receipts, must register transfers.

July 26. Primary election day; precinct conventions held to elect delegates to county conventions.

August 2. County conventions elect delegates to state conventions; county executive committees canvass primary results.

August 8. Limit for filing final campaign expense statements.

August 11. State executive committee meets and canvasses results of primary; prepare ballots for second primary, if any.

August 23. Second primary; district conventions held to canvass returns of district races.

Sept. 1. State executive committee meets to declare result of second primary.

Sept. 2. State convention to adopt nominees of primaries and prepare party platform.

Nov. 4. General election day.

Nov. 14. Statements of expenses in general election campaign shall be filed by this date with county judges.

Former Resident Dies In California

NEW YORK—Peaches is to have a windfall eventually. Mrs. Browning's dowry interest in four buildings which her estranged husband is to sell has been appraised by a referee at $188,999.99. At present, she testified, her own property is worth $15,500, her income is $1,012 a year and she owes $7,800. She will receive the $188,999.99 when Browning dies, presumably.

Dick Hatch left Saturday evening for College Station, where he is a student in the Texas A. & M. College after spending the vacation period here with his parents.

Baker Tells of Big Change

ABILENE MAN SAYS WIFE HAS SUFFERED FOR THE LAST 7 YEARS WITH STOMACH TROUBLE. WAS LOSING WEIGHT, PRAISES ORGATONE.

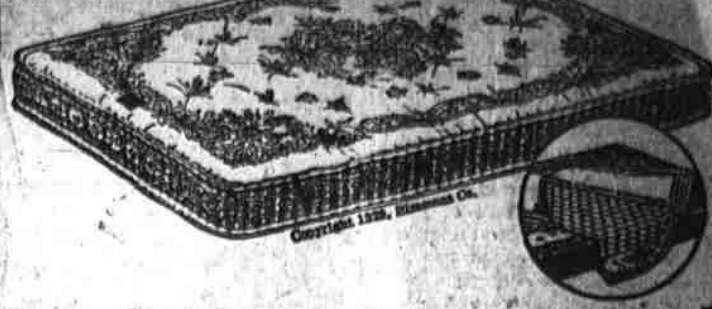

"My wife's wonderful improvement is due to Orgatone," said J. E. Baker, living on Rural Route 3, Abilene, Texas, in a conversation with an Orgatone representative a few days ago.

"For the last seven years my wife has suffered something awful with stomach trouble. Everything she ate would upset her, she would suffer from indigestion and would have pains and cramps. She was badly constipated and had headaches and pains in her back. She was losing weight and strength and she was very bilious and dizzy most all the time and was gradually growing weaker every day. She was badly constipated and had headaches and pains in her back. She was losing weight and strength and she was in a very bad condition.

"She has tried every kind of stomach medicine but nothing did her any good until we read of Orgatone and she began taking it. She now has a good appetite and eats just anything she wants and says she never feels a sign of gas, bloating or pains afterward. Her headaches and backache have left her and her nerves are in good shape and she sleeps fine every night. She is much stronger and has gained in weight several pounds. It has completely relieved her of constipation. Orgatone is the only medicine she has ever taken that did her any good and she says that she wouldn't be without it. I am glad of the opportunity to tell the public what Orgatone has done for my wife."

Rich Prize Is Stake Of Suit Sought By U. T.

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—An $11,500,000 oil and land prize that would nearly double the University of Texas oil endowment, is the stake of probable legislative or court proceedings which university regents and officials debate with Atty. Gen. Robert Lee Robbitt in a conference here.

Action to ask the Texas legislature to unimpeach some sort of adjustment between the public school fund and the university permanent fund to avoid the litigation was indicated. Regents have asked Gen. Robbitt to investigate and decide whether he will sue for the valuable oil land on behalf of the university.

And involved in the Cowden-Anderson tract, a strip south of Block 30 in Crane county, involving approximately 220 acres, and on which leases from the state public school fund now are owned by Landreth Petroleum company, the Texas company and others.

Regent Robert L. Holliday contends the strip, an alleged excess out of university lands, should go with the university property. The land office held that since the university had received all the land authorized by law, the excess was part of the unappropriated public school lands, and made its leases accordingly.

The leases were said to have sold for $5,000,000. In addition, 5,500,000 barrels of oil in said to have been taken from the tract already. More than 20 producing wells are involved.

Regent Edward Crane, other member of the university land leasing board, was here with Regent Holliday. Atty. John Boyle of San Antonio was here, probably to be special counsel for the state if litigation is entered.

Pres. H. Y. Benedict attended the conference with Gen. Robbitt.

Lindbergh Inspects Special Airplane

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7 (AP).—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was here Monday to inspect his new, secretly built monoplane, constructed to "stay up all night."

That was the way Lindbergh described it when asked the reason for its unusually large fuel tanks, which hold 450 gallons of gasoline. For want of a better name, the new plane has been dubbed "The Flying Gas Tank."

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh arrived yesterday from Kingman, Ariz., completing a leisurely transcontinental flight.

A. Y. Baker's Bank Sued On Road Fund

EDINBURG, Tex., Jan. 7 (AP).—The Edinburg State Bank and Trust company of which A. Y. Earnest asks return of $120,000 he claims to be due to the Hidalgo county road district number one, and allegedly wrongfully disbursed by the bank, which is depository for the funds.

The suit, filed for the March term of court, states that without authorization of commissioners court, officials of the bank turned over to P. S. Devise and others $150,000 debiting the account of the road district, which includes Edinburg, for that amount.

AUTOMOBILE INDUSTRY HAS LARGEST YEAR

Total Of 5,651,000 Cars And Trucks Produced For Increase Of 1,049,870 Over 1928

An artist's portrayal of figures in 1929 automobile production, showing largest totals ever reached in the United States.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP)—The automobile industry in 1929 produced 5,651,000 cars and trucks, having wholesale value of $3,483,900,000, according to preliminary figures announced today by Alfred Reeves, general manager of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

By DAVID J. WILKIE, (AP Staff Correspondent.)

That is the largest production ever achieved in a single year, and compares with a total production of 4,601,130 units in 1928 with a wholesale value of $3,152,786,880.

World registration of motor vehicles at the close of 1929 reached 34,700,000, of which 26,400,000, or 76 per cent, were registered in the United States.

The world registration in 1928 was 31,778,203, of which 24,493,124 were registered within the United States.

The motorist last year paid an average of $812 for his car, according to Mr. Reeves' figures.

In addition to the unprecedented production of new cars, the industry manufactured parts and accessories for replacements as well as service equipment having a wholesale value of $920,000,000 and turned out rubber tires for replacement valued at $600,000,000.

The motoring public, according to the statistics, paid a total of $925,000,000 in taxes on motor vehicles. Included in the levy was $415,000,000 on gasoline consumption. In 1928 the total taxation amounted to $807,887,967, including $304,871,766 on gasoline consumption.

A new high mark also was established in export business in 1929. Mr. Reeves reports. His figures show that 1,015,000 American-made motor vehicles were sold outside the United States last year and they, with parts and tires, had a value of $757,400,000. Only 710 vehicles were imported in 1929.

In 1928 825,113 units were exported, including those assembled abroad of American-made parts. The motoring public used 297,000,000 barrels of gasoline for the year.

Highway improvement work in 1929 brought the total of surfaced highway in the United States to 660,000 miles. The total miles of highway of all kinds aggregate 3,016,281.

The industry gave employment to 4,300,000 persons either directly or in allied lines.

Tactical Defense Against Fire In State Capitol Worked Out Long Ago By Austin Department

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—The national capital and White House both have been in flames in actual fact within the past two weeks, but the Texas capitol has burned several times in theory as the Austin fire department has fought out tactical defenses against a possible fire there.

With $50,000,000 of cash and bonds in the building, though secure in fireproof vaults, with the original Texas declaration of independence and other priceless documents and valuable papers, with records affecting the life of nearly a dozen people and the liberty of 5,900 more and tax obligations of 6,000,000 people, the capitol building is one against which carefully thought-out defense has been shaped.

If a fire should break out in the capitol, every man in the Austin fire department would have a clear-cut picture of his part in fighting it, a ready knowledge of just where he would move and what he would do, all planned out far in advance.

A similar tactical defense of the old land office building has been worked out, but the state executive mansion, classed in Austin records as a residence, has not been the subject of the fire department school of instruction in tactical defenses, as have the capitol and all principal business buildings.

The fire fighters are ready against the day of a possible fire in the capitol. Basement or dome, strategy and an intimate knowledge of the building and its equipment would enable the firemen to move quickly and in perfect order to combat it.

The type of defense would be shaped to meet the actual condition. As the old structure has burned in theory, as its picture was unfolded, on the stereopticon screen of the fire department school of instruction, each problem dealt with a particular kind of fire, in a particular part of the building.

Basement of the capitol, stored with irreplaceable records, has been a particular concern, because the building, with its high dome would "draw like a chimney." Every entrance, window, stair, compartment and hall of the basement has been sketched in the tactical defenses, and the fire fighters thoroughly acquainted with the whole picture.

The Austin fire department did meet the flames of the wooden old temporary capitol on Congress avenue, years ago. They arrived after the tinder-like structure was ablaze all over. They fought a hopeless battle. And Capt. Otto Erickmann of Engine company No. 2, Lavaca street station, was one of those who fought it.

If an alarm were to come into Chief John Woody's central station, reporting the capitol ablaze, the companies of central station would be in position at the building in something less than two minutes, and started upon the orderly tasks of beating the flames.

Capt. Platt with his pumper, would have a machine going that would force water under pressure to any part of the building. Capt. Hamilton and his truck crew would have the long extension ladders in place, by which firemen easily could get atop the capitol building except the pinnacle of the dome. Capt. Oertli's hose crew would have unreeled the hose and hooked up to fire-plugs in and out of the building. Capt. Johnson's No. 2 truck would be on the spot.

In the same two minutes, reports would go to other stations whether additional equipment was needed.

If the fire were serious, the entire equipment of the city could be massed within a few minutes. Each captain from each of the other stations would know, from the careful study in tactical training, just where to make his approach and every man would instinctively move to his post.

Along with the fire department, Austin police, who act in cooperation and accord with the department, would arrive at the same moment with the first fire equipment. Traffic would be diverted, crowds held back, and all the assistance which the situation might call for

Veteran Engineer Succumbs In Dallas

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 7 (AP)—Joseph Zingraff, 69, retired veteran railroad engineer, died at his home here Saturday. Funeral services will be held Monday.

Known throughout northern Texas as "Uncle Joe," Zingraff served for more than 20 years on the Missouri-Kansas-Texas and L. R. and N. C. railroads. For several years he was chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at Greenville, where he lived before coming to Dallas.

On the Wabash line he was called "Skyrocket Joe," because of his love for speed. An engineer at 19, he was the youngest man ever given that position by the Wabash, which he also served about 20 years.

The Pickwick Stages of Texas was authorized to lease to Longhorn Coaches, Inc., for a period of three years, a line interstate between Amarillo and the Texas-New Mexico state line on a route between Amarillo and Rotan, N. M.

LAREDO—Laredo Creamery Company & Walker Riverside Dairy Company, both of this city, now merged under name of Laredo Creamery, Inc.

would develop without a hitch. All of which has happened in theory to prevent, so far as good equipment, human ability and careful training was able, to keep it from happening in fact.

ECTOR TEST PRODUCES 727 BBLs.

SECOND DEEP LINE WELL IN COUNTY TESTED FOR 37 HOUR PERIOD

Producing at the rate of 30 barrels hourly, Penn Oil Company-Humble Oil & Refining Company's No. 1 York, second deep line producer in Ector county, gauged 727 barrels of high gravity crude oil in 37 hours ending Monday morning at 7 o'clock. It was learned in Big Spring Tuesday. From the total of 727 barrels in 37 hours, 469 barrels was produced in the first 24 hours of production.

Pay was topped last Saturday in No. 1 Kloh at 3,755 feet and drilled to 3,771 feet. Operators have indicated that the well will be deepened, but production, whether increased or not, will probably be pinched as the Gulf Pipe Line Company carrier attached to the well will take only 100 barrels daily from the lease.

No. 1 York is 330 feet from the north line and 2,640 feet from the west line of section 16, block 44, township 3 south, T. & P. Ry. Co. survey and is a south offset to Penn-Humble's No. 1 Kloh, the discovery producer. Three small producers drilled in Ector county by Texas and Cosden on the Connell ranch are about 2 1/2 miles southwest of Penn-Humble deep producer. Gulf production on the Waddell ranch in Crane county is 11 miles southeast and the Church-Fields pool of Crane county is 10 to 11 miles southeast of the Waddell producers.

First Flow 8 p. m. Saturday

No. 1 York began flowing at 8 o'clock Saturday night into a 1,000-barrel tank. Hourly gauges up to 10 o'clock Sunday morning were as follows, not including the first three hours: ending 12 midnight, 16.7 barrels; ending 1 a. m., 10.7 barrels; ending 2 a. m., 16.1 barrels; ending 3 a. m., 19.0 barrels; ending 4 a. m., 17.4 barrels; ending 5 a. m., 20.4 barrels; ending 6 a. m., 26.9 barrels; ending 7 a. m., 24.4 barrels; ending 8 a. m., nothing; ending 9 a. m., 12.0 barrels; ending 10 a. m., 34.9 barrels. Production up to 10 o'clock Sunday morning totaled 296 barrels, which would make production during the first three hours 103.2 barrels. Other reports gave production during the first 22 hours, ending at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, at 462 barrels. The well flowed by irregular heads.

No. 1 Kloh, the discovery well in the area, with elevation of 2,925 feet got the first line break at 3,250 feet and struck solid lime at 3,410 feet. It encountered the first oil at 3,715 feet and had main pay from 3,720-25 feet. Upon deepening to 3,740 feet, the completed depth an increase was obtained from 3,730-38 feet. On a quarter-inch choke the well made as high as 347 barrels during 24 hours ending Oct. 30, registering 500 pounds pressure, but shortly afterwards the choke was reduced to 1-8 inch and production was restricted to 125 barrels daily. Recently Gulf has been running only about 50 barrels daily from the well. It is understood that No. 1 York will be pinched to about the same production, or a total for the two wells of about 200 barrels.

Penn-Humble it is understood propose to start no other tests in the area until the completion of Landreth Production Corporation's No. 1-S University, about a quarter-mile southwest, which is expected to afford some indication of the direction in which the fluid may extend. Last reports, prior to that of fishing at 3,300 feet, was that drilling had reached 3,190 feet from the south line and 440 feet from the east line of section 2, block 35. TEXAS BANK BURGLARIZED

MONTGOMERY, Texas, Jan. 7 (AP)—Between $12,000 and $15,000 in cash was taken by burglars who dug into the vault of the First State Bank here today, rigged a block and tackle to load the safe into an automobile and drove away.

The robbers drove a hook into the wall of the bank on which to hang their block and tackle. T. L. Wilcox, cashier, discovered the robbery this morning.

"They got between $12,000 and $15,000 in cash and securities, the value of which are not known," said Mr. Wilcox.

The bandits, digging their way into the vault, tore away bricks to make an opening large enough for a man to enter.

Once inside they evidently packed up the safe, said Mr. Wilcox, and set up their block and tackle near the vault. Then they heaved on the ropes, he said, until they swung the safe clear. The safe then was dropped into the car, which was backed up close to the entrance.

Tracks of the car found were the only clues.

"The job evidently was pulled by professionals," said Wilcox. "They evidently worked coolly to swing the safe from the vault of their car."

Sheriff Ben Hicks of Montgomery county headed the investigation here. He asked the sheriff of Harris county and the Houston police to be on the lookout for three men believed to have headed toward Houston.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Jan. 7 (AP)—Three unmasked men held up the Fairfield National Bank, ten miles northwest of here, today and escaped with approximately $1,500. D. G. Gordon, cashier, and Robert Smith, owner of a store near the bank, exchanged shots with the men as they fled.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Jan. 7 (AP)—Having pleaded guilty of intoxication from confiscated liquor, ten coast guardsmen were on their boats today awaiting review of their sentences by Secretary Mellon.

Twenty-four coast guardsmen are accused of intoxication and 15 with pilfering liquor Dec. 29 when the Flor-Del-Mar, a smuggling craft, was captured in Long Island Sound and towed to New London. The stolen liquor was found in coast guard barracks and aboard coast guard boats.

A court martial heard ten pleas of guilty yesterday and was called into session again today to hear other cases.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, testified before the senate interstate commerce committee today that the merger of all British radio cable companies did not present the "lightest menace" to the American business in the same field.

Carlton's statement was directly opposite to previous testimony given before the committee by Owen D. Young, president of the Radio Corporation of America, who said congressional approval of mergers in American radio and cable companies was necessary if they were to be able to compete with foreign interests.

The committee is considering a bill by Chairman Couzens to create a new federal communications commission, and, in its present form, it would forbid mergers of radio and cable companies.

County Judges, Commissioners' Association Favors Fee Bill

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—The County Judges and Commissioners' association of Texas is on record as supporting Sen. Pink L. Parrish's county fee limit bill just as written, it was announced here by W. L. Hilliard, county commissioner of San Patricio county, legislative chairman of the state group.

This association opposed the action of the Texas County Officials' association in a meeting here which urged modification of the Parrish bill and unlimited fees in counties of 25,000 population and less, Mr. Hilliard announced. He asserted the county tax collectors were prime movers in the Officials' association action.

The Parrish bill fixes a maximum of $12,500 a year compensation for any county official. According to Sen. Parrish's report after a legislative investigation, many county officials receive $15,000 or $20,000 a year from fees.

A man giving his name as Joe Pain was held in the Howard county jail Tuesday accused of forging and attempting to forge another instrument on the Planters Gin Company.

A. Williams, Big Spring merchant, remembered an announcement that the check book of Planters Gin Company had been stolen Saturday night and that warning had been circulated to watch for possible forgeries. When the man held presented a check on Planters Gin Company in payment for merchandise, Mr. Williams notified the sheriff's department and Deputy D. D. Dunn placed the man under arrest.

The original check book stolen from the gin company was found in a local hotel room rented to Pain. Other checks had been filled out and one had been cashed with a local merchant in payment for a suit of clothes. Pain told officers he is 19 years old and that his home is in Clovis, N. Mex.

S. A. T. Planes Stopped By Fog

All S. A. T. plane service between El Paso and Fort Worth was cancelled Tuesday on account of the inclement weather, according to information given The Herald by Charles Smoot, new manager of the local airport.

Homer Rader flying a S. A. T. Fokker plane from El Paso, was forced to land in Midland on account of low visibility Tuesday.

Planes landing in Big Spring airport Monday were the two S. A. T. Fokker planes, which landed according to schedule at 10:20 o'clock this morning and 3:20 p. m. this afternoon. Pilots were Homer Rader and Bledsoe Payne. These planes are on the regular passenger run of the S. A. T. lines from El Paso and Fort Worth.

Mr. Smoot was called to Snyder Monday from the air in the search of a five-year-old boy who was lost. The child, however, was located by a posse of citizens who organized following the disappearance of the child.

Sharkey Refuses To Meet Griffiths In Miami Ring Card

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. (AP)—The second annual "Battle of the Pafms" at Miami, Feb. 27, may yet become an international struggle with Jack Sharkey, Boston gob, in one corner of the ring and Phil Scott, London's famous fireman, in the other.

Back from Boston and their vain efforts to induce Sharkey to meet Tuffy Griffith at Miami, Madison Square Garden officials have begun negotiations with Jimmy Johnston, Scott's pint-sized manager.

The Garden makes no secret of the fact that it would prefer Griffiths, as well as several others, to Scott, but Sharkey appears adamant on the subject of Tuffy, and Bruen despairs of bringing the Boston Gob around to the corporation's day of thinking.

Throughout the three weeks practice Coaches Stevens and Brown have been working their charges behind closed doors, but the public will have its first opportunity to watch the boys in action next Friday and Saturday nights when the faculty and Stanton Tigers, in the order mentioned, will be played.

Those who believe the faculty-Steer game is a tame affair and is considered a forerunner for what is to come later, are due for a surprise Friday night.

Little is known of Stanton's hoopsters, but with Briggs Irvin at the helm of athletic affairs and the result he is accustomed to obtain from his students, the Tigers are expected to present all the opposition Steers are capable of handling this early in the season.

The Howard county interscholastic league basketball tournament is scheduled in Big Spring Feb. 7 and 8, but due to the fact that Big Spring has a game scheduled with Abilene on the latter date, some other arrangement may be made.

The plan for selecting a county winner is to first hold an elimination contest between all rural schools of Howard county, the winner of which will play Coahoma for the right to meet Big Spring for the county title.

QUESTION OF HONOR by Ruth Cross

SYNOPSIS: A great railroad project through the Sierras and marriage to Anne Wilcox, New York society beauty, are the two great ambitions of Leon Morse. So he may woo her free from competition, the railroad financier takes Anne and her patrician aunt to his mountain lodge. Aunt Emily favors Morse because of his millions and has Anne's promise to marry him. Morse finds his railroad route blocked by an irrigation dam project. Failing in an effort to halt the dam construction, Morse calls on Scott Glenn, the young engineer in charge, who already has pledged Anne's interest. He finds him obdurate and determined. Bribery fails to shake Glenn, who tells him one man can fight as well as another.

A riot of motion and color greeted Anne in the dance hall.

Chapter 8 ANNE MAKES AN ENEMY

The dance at Burkhalter's was already in full swing when Anne and Douglas came in sight of the ranch-house on the following night. A riot of motion and color wavered across the bars of light made by the open windows. The soft rock and sway of youthful feet keeping time to an old country dance tune, the throb of fiddles and guitars, reached out instinctively into the night; above all, rang the stentorian cries of the leader calling out the figures. Anne and Douglas made their way through the crush of onlookers who thronged yard and porch towards a window near the back of the dancing room, where they could watch the scene without calling attention to themselves. Anne leaned against the window sill, absorbed in the picturesque and lively scene.

indignant protest as he became hopelessly entangled in his blanket. As they watched his head disappeared beneath his covering. Anne made a quick sign to Douglas to lift her. She leaned over the window sill, reached out and straightened the blanket, and quieted the youthful dissenter. "That's solving the servant problem with a vengeance, isn't it?" she said, laughing. "It's too bad Mr. Morse couldn't come tonight! That alone," she motioned toward the babies, "was worth travelling a long way to see."

"Oh, I don't know—about his coming—" Douglas' face was close to her's in the half darkness, she was aware he still held her arms after helping her down. "Leon Morse is all right for building railroads and piling up money, but when it comes to making life interesting for a beautiful and high spirited woman—he shrugged expressively. "At all events, his loss tonight is my gain!"

There was meaning enough in his tone—a meaning more unmisgiving in his warmer more ardent clasp on her arms. In his eyes, very close too, she watched the sudden flame of desire which she has seen so often. Never had that flame in a man's eyes seemed so distasteful to her as it did now. She released herself—slowly—and turned full towards him. "Did he tell you to say that?" she asked, her voice lightly ironic. "Why—I have no idea what you're talking about," Douglas stammered. He was as red as a schoolboy, and his usual poise was gone.

"I think you do," Anne returned still lightly. "If he did you can tell him for me that I may flirt with every other man in the world, but not with his confidential—man Friday!" Douglas winced. His face went from red to purple. He seemed on the point of replying, but checked himself. Anne sauntered casually toward the dance floor. He followed.

An unpleasant interval of silence was terminated by a strapping giant of a man, who dropped a great, hairy paw on Douglas's shoulder, and drew him to one side. Soon Douglas spoke to Anne. "I wonder if you will excuse me for a few moments?" I'll find you a seat near one of the windows—" fully, she knew that she had made an enemy of the attorney but—she had been one anyway—she might as well have him in the open and incidentally spare herself the disgust of his presumptuous love-making.

A tuneful melody brought couples hurrying back to the dance floor. Anne lost in the joyous abandon of the scene, her foot beating time, forgot Douglas, forgot herself everything.

Presently she became aware of a familiar face among the unfamiliar ones. It was the man she had twice seen before. "The most unpopular man in the Sierras!" Douglas' phrase leaped to her mind, and she certainly seemed to be, for people avoided him as though he were afflicted with cholera.

(Copyright, Ruth Cross.) The thought of another conquest stirred Anne as she watches Glenn. Continue the story tomorrow.

Pauls Valley Will Rebuild Fire Loss

PAULS VALLEY, Okla., Jan. 7 (AP)—While charred ruins smoldered where half a dozen prosperous enterprises were doing business Saturday, Pauls Valley merchants Monday planned to rebuild their establishments after the worst fire in the city's history. The blaze, which broke out early Sunday while a high wind was blowing and raged until nearly daylight, did damage estimated by the merchants at $150,000. The blaze was in the heart of the business district.

How They Grew Thin

You will be surprised, if you look around, at how many people have grown thin in late years. It is evident that some new method has come into very wide use. It has been found that a weak gland is a great cause of obesity. So modern physicians have been fighting that cause, without starvation diets. This right method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now in almost every circle the delightful results are apparent. A book in each box of Marmola tells you how and why it acts. The formula is given. Go try this remarkable, this natural means. Ask your druggist today for a $1 box of Marmola. You owe that to yourself. (Advertisement.)
