probably in a large part to blame for the fall off, even though other factors may have been involved.
Mason won its way into the finals, but not with ease as they edged Menard 40 to 39, sneaked by Big Lake 35 to 31, came from behind to beat Ozona 40 to 37 and then had to go an extra period to down Junction 53 to 50.
Host Ozona opened its bid with

James McCown stole the show with a 31 point production that came close to tipping the scales in A-

The district 8 title favorites downed San Angelo 'B' 50 to 42

Sunday, Jan. 31st, Is Deadline For Poll Tax; Near 400 Unpaid Here

An estimated nearly 400 otherwise eligible voters of Crockett county have failed to this time to pay their poll taxes to qualify for the right to vote in the important election year of 1960.
Sunday, January 31, is the deadline for paying poll taxes and earning the right to vote. To this morning, 872 poll tax receipts had been issued in the tax collector's office here.
The collector's office will be open all day Saturday and Mrs.
Gertrude Perry, chief deputy, announced that she will be in the office from 1 to 5 p. m. Sunday to accommodate last-minute poll tax payers. Payment or applications must be in the office before midnight Sunday or postmarked before midnight January 31 to qualify.

Flu-Weakened Lion Cagers Drop Close Contest to Sonora

Coach, Three Regular Miss 48-44 Game On
Sonora Court
By Ernie Boyd
The Ozona Lions dropped a hard played 48 to 44 decision to the Sonora Broncos in Sonora Tuesday night as a fourth period rally fell just short of pulling the game out of the fire.
The loss to Sonora in Sonora was the first in eleven years and doubtless the flu had much to do with this year's loss. Coach Brooks Dozier and three regulars missed the trip due to illness but even with that Coach H. O. Hoover and his hustling team almost pulled the game out of the fire.
Wayne Albers led the Lion attack and the scoring in the game with 14 points, closely followed by Johnny Jones who had eleven points, and Carl Montgomery with nine.
Gene Brohead proved to be the big thorn in the Lions' side as he led the victors with 13 points and did a fine job of rebounding.
Scoring was light in the first half as the Broncos pulled out of a 16-all tie to lead at the half by a 22 to 16 margin but a fourth period spurt by the Lions closed the margin to 42 to 45 and it looked like the Lions had a chance until several foul shots and a Sonora stall iced the game away.
The loss left the Lions with a one won and two lost district mark with an open date coming up this Friday.
In the B game, Sonora came from behind after four of Ozona starters fouled out to win a high scoring 66 to 58 contest. Ozona held a rather commanding lead until the third period when fouls began to send regulars to the bench. A total of 58 fouls were called in the contest even though particular rough play was noted.
Hal Long led the Cub attack until fouls sent him to the bench in the third period along with Mike Styles, Mark Baggett and Robert Montgomery.

H. C. Collett In Race For Prec. 3 Commission Post

Business Man, Resident Here Six Years,
Asks Voter Support
H. C. Collett, Ozona businessman, resident here six years and a West Texan all his life, this week announced his candidacy for Crockett County Commissioner from Precinct 3, subject to action of the Democratic primary.
Mr. Collett was reared in San Angelo and attended schools in that city. He spent the first twenty years of his married life in the ranching business, serving as foreman of the Bar S ranch near Barnhart and later of the Jack Mansfield ranch near Eagle Pass. While working as foreman for Charlie Cannon ranch near Sheffield, he leased the nearby Holmes ranch which he stocked and operated for several years. He sold out in the ranch business in 1941 and bought a general mercantile and feed business in Sheffield which he operated until six years ago when he moved to Ozona.
For the first four years here,
Mr. Collett operated the Texaco station at Johnson draw bridge and two years ago opened his present business, Collett's Trading Post a sporting goods and gift store in downtown Ozona.
Mr. and Mrs. Collett have six children, all married, 16 grand children and one great grandchild.
"I feel that I am thoroughly familiar with the needs and wishes of the people of Crockett county so far as they will come within the province of the Commissioners Court and if I am elected, I pledge my best efforts and whatever time is required to a thorough study of all questions relating to affairs of the county and to whatever action I think will be in the best interests of the county." Mr. Collett said in connection with his announcement as a candidate. "We plan to make our home here the rest of our lives and certainly the best interests of the people of Crockett county will continue to be our interest."

Local Need Cited
As Incentive For
Polio Fund Giving
Heavy Case Load Has Left Local Chapter
Deep In Debt
Waiting fire sirens at 7 o'clock tonight will not mean a fire, but the kickoff of the annual Mothers March on Polio, set to begin at that hour. Turn on your porch light when you hear the fire siren and be ready to make a generous contribution to the March of Dimes.
Because the local chapter needs are so grave, special emphasis is to be placed on annual "Mothers March on Polio" set for tonight (Thursday), drive leaders said this week.
Mrs. James Childress, chairman of the Mother March, Mrs. Jerry Hayes, March of Dimes drive chairman, and Mrs. Jack Wilkins local chapter chairman, all emphasized the local chapter needs, as well as the National organization, as the incentive for an all-out local effort to make this year's campaign an outstanding success.
That the local Foundation chapter faces an indebtedness of $2,930 was revealed by Mrs. Wilkins the chapter chairman. Of this amount $2,230 is owed to the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation and $700 to the Robert B. Green Memorial Hospital in San Antonio for treatment of polio patients from Crockett county. A nine-months-old Ozona baby, totally paralyzed from polio, has just been admitted to Gonzales for treatment.
A corps of canvassing mothers ed by the National Foundation but a generous contribution by local citizens in this year fund drive is desperately needed to meet the chapter's responsibilities, Mrs.
Wilkins said.
O corps of canvassing mothers will take to assigned streets of the city tonight calling for contributions to the polio fund. They will be looking for burning porch lights as your signal for them to stop for your contribution. Won't you turn on that porch light — and give generously?

Who Served Nine
In Office In
Race
Earnest, who served county as sheriff, tax collector for more years, this week announcandidacy for another term in the office.
Earnest was appointed sherff to serve out the last 14 months of the five term of Bruce Harp, who resigned the office in November, 1957, to return to the oil terms.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest returned to the first of the year from Houston where Mr. Earnest had operated a service station the past year.
"We have never had any other candidate than maintain our home in Ozona and to return here to make our home permanently," Mr.
Earnest said.
"In making my candidacy for sheriff solely on my service to you in that office, I have no criticism of anybody. I feel that it being my intention to run on my own merits, not on the basis of anybody. I feel that through knowledge of the office and of the desires of the people of the county and if I am alected by the voters and re-elected, I will devote my entire life to putting that knowledge to the best interests of the county. I will appreciate the consideration of the coming primary

SHINING EXAMPLES

While the broadcasting industry is taking stock of itself, the aftermath of Congressional investigation and the stepped-up interest of both the FCC and the FTC, certainly those producers and sponsors who are making a continuing effort to bring us artistic, high-level entertainment and information programs are entitled to both our attention and our praise.

Two such series that come to mind are in the "Hall of Fame" drama series presented by Hallmark cards, soon to begin its tenth consecutive year, and Prudential Life Insurance Company's Sunday night educational documentary "The Twentieth Century", which will be continued through 1960.

In its February 3rd production of Shakespeare's "The Tempest", Hall of Fame re-affirms its confidence in the intelligence and good taste of the American public and in Prudential's "living history" series, "The Dust Bowl", February 7, revives a gripping chapter in the lives of indomitable Americans who stayed with their land through the dark, choking, terrifying days when it seemed their world was blowing away.

"Tempest" is the sixth Shakespearean presentation under Hallmark sponsorship which has also included two plays of George Bernard Shaw, an Ibsen drama, a Gilbert and Sullivan opera, such modern epics as "Green Pastures" and "Cradle Song" and the premiere of the Menotti opera "A-mahal and the Night Visitor" which was followed by four repeat performances.

Among the Prudential TV triumphs are such memorable productions as "Suicide Run to Murnansk," "The Fall of China," "Crisis at Munich", "The Week that Shook the World," "Dirigible" and "Sabotage."

And just in case the experts are mystified at the way these two television features have remained on the air while so many other ambitious series have come and gone, the answers may be too simple and obvious. It could be these sponsors put dignity, good taste and good sense ahead of other considerations — even rating points. In fact, one is record as saying that he would rather "have eight million satisfied viewers than 28 million unhappy ones." And both, by their constancy, have proved they believe the public has better than a 12-year-old intellect.

We mention these things in fairness to a sorely beset industry — and in the pious hope that other broadcasters may rescue television from the ruinous policy of catering to the public from the bottom up instead of from the top down.

Frenchmen Must Turn In 100 tired, old francs for one of the new, "hard" francs that again, after 40 years, is up to par — 20 cents. We are at the halfway point in our inflation, would have to give two present dollars for one 100 cent dollar of 20 years ago. Where will we be in 1980? The thought should jolt us.

Report to the People
Congressman J.T. RUTHERFORD

106 PAGE BOOK of rather reading, about twice as bulky average mail order house, has suddenly become a "seller" on Capitol Hill and in Congressional families. It would be President Eisenhower's new budget for fiscal year in which he asks Congress to approve and appropriate expenditures totaling $79.8 billion.

The general details, major requests and odd features budget were revealed at a press conference at which charts and experts were called in to explain the contents. It remains for the Members to vote on the budget and the item. Since the appropriations bills come to us as that fashion, rather than as a budgetary sum, we must make ourselves with all possible haste.

mates, still find that the "surplus" had vanished into thin air.

THE PRESIDENT'S new $79.8 billion budget may accurately be called the "spendingest" in history, in terms of domestic (non-Defense) expenditures. It is the 4th largest total budget in our history, exceeded only by the FY 1944 and FY 1945 budgets at the height of World War II, and in peacetime only by Mr. Eisenhower's FY 1959 expenditures. It shows that the cost of carrying the national debt is over $9.5 billion per year, and if you want to get an idea of the direction government is taking, just consider that the interest charge alone is more than a billion dollars above the total federal expenditures at the height of the "New Deal" in 1936!

Of every dollar contained in the new budget, 54 cents will go for major national security (which includes military functions, foreign aid, atomic energy and stockpiling of strategic materials); 11 cents will go for interest on the national debt; 7 cents for Veterans expenditures and 7 cents for Agriculture, while "all other" programs total 16 cents of the budget dollar.

On the matter of incoming revenue — or taxes — 52 cents of every dollar is scheduled to come from individual income taxes; 28 cents from corporate taxes; 11 cents from excise taxes and 9 cents from all other receipts.

I will go into detail on the various budgetary items from time to time in subsequent Reports, since the budget is, after all, the foundation stone of the Congress' activities. Naturally, allocations for various appropriations will be increased here and cut there, as is always the case. Last year, in the final analysis, Congress reduced the President's money requests. With the Members of Congress digging up from their own pocketbooks the money to pay their own income taxes at about the same time we will be passing judgements on budget items. I am hopeful of wise and prudent actions as concerns the public funds.

YOU WILL PARDON me, I hope, if I take a moment to talk about a new "asset" in the J. T. Rutherford household.

I refer with understandable pride to the arrival on Monday, January 18th of a new little girl in our family.

The little Miss weighed in at nine pounds, five ounces and has been named Jane Ellen. Mother and daughter are doing very well, thank you, and all things considered, so is the proud father.

Now, if we can just balance OUR budget . . .

"Now Sir, what do you think about John Kennedy?"

"Well uh, never thought much about it, but 'I'm pretty sure he's a rich Republican governor thats running for President."

"And you, Madam, what do you think about Kennedy?"

"Oh, he's alright, I guess. But I'm not sure that I'd want a Texan for President."

These people were not trying to be funny. Answers and many more like them were given in a recent survey on the knowledge of Presidential candidates. Men and women from all fifty states were interviewed.

Take heed Americans! What's your I. Q. on the Presidential nominees for 1960? Have you been weighed and found wanting?

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Have you ever heard the expression, "man's best friend" Many people may think that this phrase is talking about a dog, but according to the famous doctor, Jonah Sulk, man's best friend is chewing gum.

Elasticity is one of the main traits of a good friend. Chewing gum is surely that. It has often been compared to A-1 prime rubber in automobile tires.

Chewing gum has many uses. It can be used as an adhesive bandage in time of accident. It is the main outlet for most peoples energy.

Teeth play on important part in the life of most people and chewing gum is one of the major factors in the health of them. It will be left unsaid what effect chewing gum has on the health of teeth, but it is usually plainly visible.

For the dog lovers of the country, we apologize for borrowing your phrase, but it is for the betterment of teeth and chewing gum manufacture's pocket books everywhere.

THINGS WE COULD DO WITHOUT

I suppose everyone has their "pet peeves", or things that they could do without. Many times the 'things' which we dislike is necessary, but that does not necessarily make it wanted.

Here is a list compiled by several industrious students and teachers of things that we think the school would be better off without. pop test, Freshmen (this entry submitted by an unprejudiced upperclassman), sports (this suggestion was made by one of our English teachers), the flu (a suggestion unanimously agreed upon by everyone) parking areas which are painted bright red (guess who submitted this one).

These are just a few of the complaints submitted by readers of this newspaper.

Oh, wait, here is one more complaint, it says "I can do without stupid articles like the one above" Oh well, that's the way it goes.

How many dreams will 43 billion dollars buy?

As of today, on the 18th Anniversary of U. S. Savings Bonds, Americans have more money tucked away in U. S. Savings Bonds than ever before in history.

43 BILLION DOLLARS' WORTH

There are people who look at this simply as one huge block of money. Others think of it in terms of belief in America—nearly 43 billion dollars' worth. Still others see a neat row of figures on a page, adding up to eleven figures at the bottom.

you'll find there is no safer, easier way to save for it than by buying U.S. Savings Bonds.

Buy them automatically, through Payroll Savings. You'll be surprised how fast they add up!

Buy them regularly at your bank. (Nice thing about Bonds: you can buy them wherever you are—cash them at any bank.)

But we like to think of it in terms of dreams...

Thanks to Bonds, a mother's dream of medical school for her son is coming true in New York. A young couple has the down payment for a home in Minnesota. A farmer is ready to buy more land in Colorado. A girl is becoming a nurse in Alabama. There's a new car in a family's garage out in Montana. A retired Indiana couple is planning to go South. A salesman in California is starting his own business.

An investment in dreams—and security, too.

So many of our dreams depend on peace, it's good to know every dollar you put into Bonds helps strengthen America's Peace Power. Peace costs money: for military and industrial strength to keep the peace; science and education to help make peace lasting; and economic strength to keep our country sound. So—the dollars you save help make your dreams come true... while they help protect your family's future!

These are just a few of the nearly 43 billion dollars' worth of dreams wrapped up in U.S. Savings Bonds today. Dreams coming true because someone wanted them enough to buy—and hang on to—Bonds.

What's your dream?

What do you want, that's so important you're willing to work and save for it? Whatever you want,

What are your dreams?

Was there ever a better time to start doing something about them? Or a sounder, surer way to do it?

Notes From The County Agent's Office
By Pete W. Jacoby

NOTES FROM THE AGENT

Harlan E. Smith, extension plant pathologist, of Texas A&M College discusses two common plant diseases found in all parts of Texas.

Crown gall disease occurs in all areas of Texas, but is more of a problem in areas of limited rainfall. Many people discover the disease on bead shrubs or trees when replanting. Galls up to the size of walnuts or larger are present on roots or at the stem at the ground line. Affected plants lack vigor and may die during a period of several months or years. A die-back condition of limbs may be present before the trees or shrubs die.

The disease is caused by a certain species of bacterium. The disease occurs frequently on apple, blackberry, camellia, catalpa, cottonwood, euonymus, gardenia, hibiscus, ligustrum, peach, poplar, rose and many others.

Chemicals and cultural practices are used to cure or prevent crown gall. County agents can supply additional information on the disease.

Lichens frequently occur on trunks and branches of trees, especially in the Gulf Coast area. They are also found in river bottoms areas where there is poor air drainage. Lichens are not a disease; however presence on weakened or dying shade trees leads many people to mistakenly believe they are the cause of the trouble. Lichens attach themselves to the dead part or bark of trees. Each lichen is a combination of a fungus and alga. The fungus and alga are each dependent on the other and cannot live separately. Lichens grow equally well on rocks, fence posts, rotting logs and other objects.

A common form of lichen is the grayish-green paperlike growth that occurs on the bark of pecan trees. This irregularly shaped growth may be anywhere from almost an inch to several inches across. Its edges are usually lobed and curled upward.

They can be controlled by regularly spraying with bordeaux mixture, fixed copper or other copper containing fungicides.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

Stockman's Austin Bureau
Austin, Texas — With the filing deadline (Feb. 1) drawing near, the political ring is filling with hats — most of them familiar to Texas voters.

Since there's to be no wholesale re-shuffling among top state offices, liveliest interest is focused on legislative campaigns. Texas Legislative Service's compilation on legislative races indicates about six of the senators running for re-election have opposition or prospects of opposition. Usually the opponents include a representative from the senator's district.

New faces have entered the races in more than 50 of the House districts. In 19 of these the present representative is not a candidate for re-election. Besides the usual preponderance of lawyers, there are a number of school teachers and former school teachers among the newcomers.

Campaign platforms rest mainly on these issues:
(1) Betterment of schools and improvement of teachers' salaries.
(2) Revamping or doing away with the new merit-plan auto insurance rates.
(3) Providing medical payments for persons on the welfare rolls and raising old age pensions.
(4) Enacting stiffer highway safety laws.
(5) Developing a comprehensive statewide water program.
(6) Solving the state's fiscal problems. This is generally covered in some broad, fairly vague statement, such as "modernizing the Enough's Enough — Presidents of Texas' tax-supported colleges and universities have come out against adding any more schools to the state's higher education system.

Their reasons: (1) we've got enough already and (2) there isn't enough state money to go around. University of Houston is seeking admission. Its case will be heard by the Commission on Higher Education in April. Commission will report to the Legislature, which makes final decision, in 1961.

Women Play Key Role In 'Dimes' Research

Growing a killer virus in a laboratory test tube to see what makes it tick may not seem like an ideal pastime for women. Yet in recent years an increasing number of women have attained top-rank recognition as medical research scientists, many of them under grants supplied by The National Foundation with New March of Dimes funds.

L. to r., Drs. Hattie Alexander, Isabel Morgan Mountain and Katherine Sprunt.

The researches of these women have enlarged the body of new medical information and helped solve a wide variety of health problems. Not least among these was the conquest of a virus that killed and crippled its victims in wave after wave of epidemics—polio.

Pioneer in Protection
Dr. Isabel Morgan Mountain is one of the most famous of these women scientists. As a member of the Johns Hopkins research group some years ago, she won medical recognition for demonstrating that animals could be protected against polio by a vaccine. This was a giant step toward the development of the Salk vaccine for humans, which—like Dr. Mountain's work—was done under grants financed by the March of Dimes.

Dr. Mountain's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Hunt Morgan, were both well-known geneticists. Her father won a Nobel Prize in 1933 as the originator of the gene theory of heredity. Dr. Mountain, who is married to a prominent surgeon in New York, is included in the Polio Hall of Fame at the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation.

Sister Mary Celeste Frey, M.D.

has been collaborating with husband, Dr. Joseph L. Melnick, who is conducting experimental studies in the Sabin live-virus anti-polio vaccine which, like the Salk vaccine, was developed under March of Dimes funds.

These projects are aimed primarily against three major crippling diseases: birth defects, arthritis and polio. But every new discovery made by these women and other scientists with New March of Dimes support adds to the great body of our medical knowledge and contributes to man's health and well-being.

MOTHERS' DOOR COUNT TOPS MARCH OF DIMES

The 1960 New March of Dimes campaign for funds to support research, patient aid and the training of experts in the three health areas of birth defects, arthritis and polio is climaxed by a Mothers' March of two million volunteers. The Marching Mothers are also conducting a nationwide "door count" at some 30 million homes to collect facts concerning the problems of crippling diseases in their communities. The local New March of Dimes office has also appealed to all donors who have not already done so to send in their contributions in the "matter appeal" envelopes distributed at the beginning of the year.

If your doctor prescribed one ice cream soda a day for 10 days to get you out of a sick bed, you'd take your "medicine" gladly... with little thought to its cost. When figured on the basis of the quantity of medicine the doctor asks you to take every 24 hours, today's prescription rarely costs you more than a daily ice cream soda. But it does something no ice cream soda can do. It cures disease.

Chevrolet speaks of the Sixties like no other car—with a broad accent on spaciousness, stirring new concepts in styling and strong emphasis on spirit and thrift.

Step inside this superlative '60 and look at the world of room around you: head room, hip room, shoulder-squaring room. Note how Chevrolet's engineers have further flattened and narrowed the transmission tunnel to give the middle man more foot room. Chevrolet's greater roominess is inside where you want it—not outside in useless body overhang.

You'll find economy teamed with performance in a new standard V8, engineered to deliver up to 16% more miles for every gallon, or the strapping Hi-Thrift 6.

And riding comfort in the new one is a never-ending treat, thanks to Full Coil spring suspension. There are also thicker, newly designed body mounts that filter noise and vibration to the vanishing point, more rigid frame and many other engineering advances.

But you'll have to drive the Sixty sinner yourself—that's the clincher.
