Wilson Does Not Know What He May Have Done To Third

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17 (AP)—Otto Steve Wilson, 31-year-old janitor, was held incommunicado today in the mutilation slayings of two women while police attempted to determine if he had planned to lure a third woman to the same fate.

Detectives said they would question a woman who was seen chatting with Wilson at a bar shortly after the bodies of the two other women were discovered Wednesday. While talking to the third woman Wilson was handcuffed and arrested by a patrolman.

Capt. Thad Brown, head of the police homicide bureau, said Wilson, discharged navy pharmacist's mate, told him he "didn't know what I might have done to her." Her name was not disclosed.

Wilson's confession, said the authorities, disclosed that he choked 26-year-old Virgie Lee Griffin to death Tuesday evening and stayed up all night drinking whiskey and mutilating her body with a nine-inch knife. He said he went to see a horror movie starring Boris Karloff the next day then picked up 38-year-old Lillian Johnson in a bar, took her to a hotel room and mutilated her.

"Thanks to the Americans, nearly all the rescued men are recovering from their terrible experiences," said Sir James.

Homemade Handbags

In this year of leather shortages and luxury taxes, it's a smart girl who can make her own handbag to match her costume. Since the season's vogue run to pouches and small, boxy types, this project is easier than you think. Here are directions for making three handsome bags which will set you back little in either time or money. The fastening problem is solved with decorative buttons.

SLIPCOVER BAG

SLIPCOVER BAG

MATERIALS
1/4 yard fabric
2/3 yard soutache braid
2 button originals as big as a half dollar

DIRECTIONS

Use any discarded envelope purse of yesterday.
Cut piece of fabric for front of bag leaving half an inch extra for seams. Cut generously!
Cut piece of fabric for back of bag sufficiently long to cover flap. This flap covering can be stippled to the flap, or it can be made like a pocket and the flap of the bag slipped into it.
Cut piece for ruffle, three inches wide and 2 1/2 times as long as the space it fills.
Pin back and front into place on bag, sticking pins straight through so they look like birthday cake candles. Put ruffling stitch through ruffle. Pin ruffle into place, inch by inch, turning in bag covers as you go along. Sew.
For fastening, take a 24 inch length of soutache braid, and knot, tail, or "idiot's delight" a knob in center.
Sew the two loose ends side to side into long narrow braid. Sew this braid end to flap. Cover with a decorative button. Sew another button right below flap, being sure to make long, strong shank. By choosing dramatic, beautifully styled buttons, these serve as decoration as well as fastening.

HOLES PUNCHED FOR CORD HANDLE.

HALF MOON POUCH

CUT FABRIC IN THIS SHAPE.

SEW BUCKLE HERE.

VIEW OF BAG WHEN READY TO BUCKLE UP.

SIDE VIEW OF FINISHED BAG.

MATERIALS

One 22 inch square of felt
One 20 inch square of buckram
One 21 inch square of lining button originals
2 yards cord for drawstring

Directions
Cover one side of buckram with lining.
Center this square on felt and slip stitch the edges.
Notch felt at center of all four sides.
Punch two holes for drawstring at each of four bag points, spacing the holes 3/4 inches down from point and 1/2 inch distant from each side.

Now, fold the 4 points of the bag to the center so that the distance from fold to point is 3/4 inches. The sides will overlap 2 inches. Blindstitch under side of overlapping felt edges from corner to within 5 inches of point. Sew buttons on the overlap spacing them 2 and 5 inches from corner.

Thread cord for drawstring.

HALF MOON POUCH

MATERIALS
1/3 yard fabric
1/3 yard crinoline
1/3 yard lining
1 1/4-inch zipper
1 hook and eye type buckle

DIRECTIONS

This bag is 18" wide by 12 inches deep. Make your own pattern by cutting out of newspaper, a half circle, 18 inches in diameter and allow an extra three inches on the straight side. This makes the 18 by 12 dimensions.
Cut two pieces of fabric, two pieces of crinoline, two pieces of lining.

Put fabric and crinoline pieces together and sew around arc. Put in zipper, centering it on straight side of bag.

Sew around arc of lining. Fit and sew into bag.

Whip closed the 2-inch gap at far ends of zipper.

Now, fold each corner one inch in toward the zipper and sew flat on the seam, thus giving a "mitered" effect. Sew each buckle at the top points of arc.

West Ward P-TA Meeting Thursday

Norris Guest Speaker; Reports Are Made On State Convention

Mrs. C. R. Moad, president, presided when the West Ward Parent-Teacher association met Thursday afternoon at the school. It was voted that the P-T. A. would furnish all the first aid needs for the school, and a report was made concerning the school store that is operated by mothers who volunteer their services each school day from 9 to 9:30 a. m. and from 1 to 1:30 p. m. Candy and school supplies are sold to the students and this serves to help the P-T. A. finances.

H. D. Norris, district (F) executive of the Boy Scouts, was guest speaker and his topic was "Youth Problems." Stressing there was a need for playgrounds and recreational facilities under the supervision of adults, and the need for a junior college in Big Spring.

Mrs. Robert Hill gave a report on the state convention she attended as the representative of West Ward school. The organization voted to sell books at the First National Bank November 21st and November 28th. Mrs. Moad urged that the members make use of the new county library and Mrs. F. H. Hinkley's sixth grade pupils won the room count.

Refreshments were served to around 25 persons.

Say, this is certainly football weather and the game tonight between the Abilene Eagles and the Big Spring Steers should be witnessed by a large number of townspeople.

I enjoyed witnessing last night the largest announcement party that has been given in Big Spring since the war began. That food—can't find words to describe just how much there was but they had more left than I have seen at once in a long time. I tasted some champagne last night at the party and I must confess I can't tell the difference between the taste of champagne and ginger ale— they both tickle your nose, anyway now I can say that I know what it tastes like.

Just wonder how many of you have dropped your old costume jewelry in the collection boxes that are at the U. S. O., every church in town, Albert M. Fisher's store, Cunningham and Phillips Drug store, and the ward schools for the soldiers at McCloskey General Hospital to use in their rejuvenation project. The collection is sponsored by the Big Spring Credit Women's Breakfast club.

Luling Hero Says Lord Guided Him

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 17 (AP)—T-Sgt. James M. Logan of Luling, Tex., who explained his feats of daring on two battle fields by saying "The Lord had his hand on my shoulder," today wore the distinguished service cross beside the congressional medal of honor.

The 23-year-old sergeant, one of two American soldiers who hold both of the country's top decorations, made preparations to aid Lt. Col. H. Miller Almsworth, also of Luling, in opening the Sixth war loan drive at Dallas tomorrow. Monday the two men will open the Houston drive and Monday night they will appear on the program at Orange, opening the statewide drive.

Churchill Declares Moyné's Death Crime

LONDON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill called upon the Jews of Palestine today to cast out and crush the terrorist Stern gang and warned that continuance of its activities would menace the future of Zionism.

Denouncing the assassination of Lord Moyné, British resident minister for the Middle East as a "shameful crime which has shocked the world," the prime minister told commons:

"It has affected none more strongly than those like myself who in the past have been the constant architects of their future."

"If our dreams for Zionism are to end in the smoke of the assassin's pistol and our labors for its future produce only a new set of gangsters worthy of Nazi Germany, many like myself will have to reconsider the position we have maintained so consistently and so long in the past."

Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

Benjamin Franklin addressed that august assembly that had been assembled for the purpose of drafting and adopting a constitution for the United States in these words: "I have lived for a long time (81 years), and the longer I live the more convincing proof do I see of this truth, that God governs the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His assistance? We have been assured in the sacred writings that "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it!" I firmly believe this, and I also believe that without his concurring aid we shall proceed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel. I therefore beg leave to move that, henceforth, prayers imploring the assistance of heaven and its blessings on our deliberations be held in this assembly every morning before we proceed to business." Thus it was the constitution which makes our country great was conceived and born, cradled and nurtured in an atmosphere of prayer. The constitution was framed by men whose hands moved at the impulse of prayer.

Daniel Webster was one of the most profound thinkers and fluent writers and eloquent speakers ever produced by the new world, and it was he who said, "If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible, our country will go on prospering and to prosper; but if we and our posterity neglect its instructions and authority, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us and bury our glory in obscurity."

It was Calvin Coolidge who said, "It was because religion gave the people a new importance and a new glory that they demanded a new freedom and a new government. We cannot in our generation reject the cause and retain the result." The Christian religion gave us a new government and a new freedom. We cannot in our generation reject the cause... the religion—and retain the result—the new freedom and the new government. Vote for democracy by going to church Sunday.

Ratliff Chooses Texas, Arkansas And Aggies To Win Saturday Games

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Texas Christian's Horned Frogs are in the unique position of leading the Southwest conference football race but being underdogs in every game they play.

M. and Texas Tech. But the Frogs are still hale and hearty and haven't lost a game to a team in the Southwest.

Fully as important—at least for the teams involved—is the Rice-Texas A. and M. game at Houston. The Owls had expected to be leading the race today but stumbled up at Fayetteville Saturday and lost to Arkansas. Thus, they too must win tomorrow to remain in the battle for the conference championship.

Arkansas, which already had done better than any season since 1937, will journey to Dallas to play the fading Southern Methodist Mustangs. But winning that game, which Arkansas is generally expected to do, the Razorbacks can clinch a first-division berth and it would be within the realm of possibility to cop the championship.

There could be quite a jumble in the standings should Texas beat Texas Christian, Rice down A. and M. and Arkansas beat S. M. U. Some 40,000 fans are due to see the three games with the largest throng at Houston where 20,000 are expected to turn out. Your correspondent nit one of four last week but that's nothing new. Here are the stabs this week (anticipated attendance in parentheses):

Texas vs. Texas Christian at Fort Worth, 2:30 p. m. (15,000)—When we pick T. C. U. to win it loses and vice versa; here's good news for Horned Frog fans: Texas by two touchdowns.

Rice vs. Texas A. and M. at Houston, 3 p. m. (20,000)—Rice does it like T. C. U. to win it loses and vice versa; here's good news for Razorback fans: Texas A. and M. by a touchdown. Arkansas vs. Southern Methodist at Dallas, 2:30 p. m. (5,000)—It won't be a run-away because Arkansas doesn't play that kind of football, but the Razorbacks ought to win by two touchdowns.

Four Teams Are Undefeated In Schoolboy Race

By The Associated Press
The four remaining high school teams with untied and undefeated records met relatively weak opposition in games today and few fans gave serious thought to the possibility of any one of them coming out loser.

The four, Paschal (Fort Worth), Waco, Goose Creek and Austin, meet Arlington Heights (Fort Worth), Cleburne, Beaumont and Corpus Christi. On the basis of the season records, the big four should have little trouble.

Meanwhile, the feature battle of the state is scheduled at Longview where Marshall and Longview meet to settle the leadership of District 11.

Last night Amos Carter-Riverside, (Fort Worth) beat Masonic Home 6-0; North Dallas polished off Adamson (Dallas) 7-0 and Jeff Davis and San Jacinto played a scoreless tie.

Connally Requests Texas As Gateway

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Senator Connally (D-Texas) has requested the international aviation conference in Chicago to designate Houston, Texas, as an aerial gateway to Latin America in any plans involving air routes. In a telegram to conference officials yesterday, Connally said: "Houston and the entire gulf country do a large business with the Caribbean and Central and South America. It is highly desirable that an aviation outlet through that port be provided. Houston is one of the great modern ports of the nation and to ignore it and route all aviation through other points would be rank discrimination and would work a great hardship on the whole area."

FPC Grants Hearing

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Federal Power Commission has granted the Brazos river conservation and reclamation district, Mineral Wells, Tex., a new hearing in its effort to escape payment of $1,295.86 annual charges for 1943.

A rehearing will be held Feb. 6, 1945 to give the district further opportunity to state completely the grounds upon which it claims exemption from the payment of the annual charges, FPC said.

Normal Children Not Nuisance When Noisy

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17 (AP)—Normal, healthy children are not a nuisance when they make noise around the house, says Judge William V. Secher. Declining to evict a family from an apartment, the judge of first city court commented: "Children naturally are going to make noise. When I visit my grandchildren I have to dodge their bicycles, chairs and other objects—and they make plenty of noise."

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. Nov. 17 (AP)—Salvage collectors gathered up several neatly wrapped bundles of paper from a Chattanooga street corner. SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—From a bomber squadron in France, Corp. Doug Gary reports: "The world series was thicker than snow in the Rockies here. Everybody pulled for the Browns and when they won one the camp went wild and they all stayed up to listen to the remaining games (they started at 7:30 our time). . . . Several Frenchmen asked me about the outcome of the world series. . . . Seems that world series is correct. . . . Vivian Morrow of Utica, N. Y., broke a finger on her right hand playing softball but that doesn't keep her from bowling in three different leagues. She merely switched to left-handed bowling. . . . Last word on the Army-Notre Dame game (from scout Jack Lavelle): "They couldn't hit me; I was up in the upper stands."

Shorts and shells—
The Honolulu pro football club, which wants to get into one of the U. S. leagues, will include as many Hawaiian players as possible and Prexy Ralph Olson promises a troupe of hula girls and Hawaiian entertainers will accompany the team on its travels. . . .
Another good plan—
Military authorities in Bermuda have been trying to drum up an Army-Navy series (not just one game) during January, but when Coach Joe Manisell of the Bainbridge naval training center was invited to contribute himself and eight players to the Navy squad, the word went back that Joe couldn't be spared from his duties in the provost marshal's division for a month nor could the players get away for so long without replacements. . . . It would be swell for Bermuda's service men but tough on Bainbridge.

Dots all, brothers—
Since 1933, when Virginia's footballers sent word ahead that they were ready to "shoot the works" against Ohio State—and then lost 75-0—that expression hasn't been popular with the Cavaliers until this year. . . . So far three rivals, Hampden-Sydney, West Virginia and Richmond, have announced that they were gunning for Virginia. Scores: 37-0, 24-7 and 39-0. . . . Coach Frank Murray now is hoping for some kindly expressions of ill feeling from Yale.

Invaders Certain Of Win As They Play Underdogs

Abilene's upstart Eagles, who have flung a bold challenge to the faces of San Angelo's defending state champions for the District Three title, romp into Steer stadium tonight in what promises to be one of the fastest games on water this week-end. The Eagles come fresh from a 40-7 triumph over the Lamesa Tornados while the local Steers go on the field against the Abilene eleven in the last home game for the year the heavy underdog still smarting from a 9-53 defeat at the hands of the champion Bobcats last week.

Coach John Dibrell has been running his charges through stiff workouts all week before halted by rain Thursday and the Steers are in as fine shape as for any game this season. The invaders not only bring all pre-game pickings in their favor but also bring to town a line that stopped the Lubbock Westerners cold some few weeks after the Angelo upset by that team, and a forward wall that averages 168, compared to 165 for the locals. The backfield has even more of a weight advantage with 157 for the Abileneans while the locals muster the scales up to 148 in their four-man average.

Jim Harrison, high-scoring Abilene star, will be bidding for a chance to overcome a four-point lead held over him by the local star, Pete Cook. Harrison has romped across the goal for six touchdowns and 36 points while Cook has accounted for the same number of six-point tallies, but has added four extra points this season for a 40-point total. The game is likely to see each team trying to place their scorer in a position to hold his lead (in the case of the locals) and to prove to overcome the slight advantage.

Coach Jake Bentley of the Abilene aggregation has named ends Altus Buford and O. B. Stephens to captain the invaders for the evening's fracas. The Eagles will come into the fray minus the services of one player in Billy Murphy, star halfback, who has been missing action for two weeks with charleyhorse suffered some three weeks ago against the Midland Bulldogs.

On the other hand the Steers will be at full strength for the encounter, but this does not alter the strength of either team enough to cast any weight toward the chances of the locals taking the game. The Eagle coach has announced that Buford and Stephens would start at the end slots, while Kenneth Tate and Norman Daulton at tackles, Guy Daniels and Marion Grant at guards, Gus Vletas at center, Jim Harrison at fullback, H. D. Terry at tailback, Richard Dillingham and Earl Glen Rose at the halves.

Harrison is not slated as a starter but will probably see action before many minutes of playing time have elapsed. Dibrell has hopes of using his new offensive spread formation to good advantage against the visitors, as last week's game gave the Steers more familiarity with its complications and new twists after their T formation, and after being in combat once in full tonight against the Eagles. Lee Kusk will probably fill in at the end position some of the time with John Cooper replacing him at the guard slot and Kenneth Huett, starting end, removed from the game.

Starting for the locals will probably be Huett and Joe Cunningham at ends, I. B. Bryan and Gerald Harris at tackles, Rusk and Tommy Clinkscakes at guards, Ladd Smith at center, with Bo Hardy at the quarterback slot, Pete Cook running as fullback and Jackie Barron and Hugh Cochran at the halves.

Kickoff time is slated for 8:00 with tickets on sale today until 5 p. m. at the chamber of commerce, Big Spring Hardware and the high school. Ticket booths will open well before gametime out at the field.

The Elbow 4-H Club has met at the schoolhouse November 15th with County Agent Durward Lewter. James Caudle was elected president of the club and Larry Hilde was observed by the boys, and Miss Marjorie Smith, local teacher, was selected club sponsor.

Sliding Down The Sports Chute

with BILL

It's time again for more predictions and if I come out with the same percentage on this week's game as I did last Saturday, then I may as well give up the pigskin and quit trying. Last week's upsets really lowered my percentage of correct guesses, but as I have nothing to lose suppose that it will not matter too much. Some seven days ago I missed four of 13 guesses to get nine correct. This gives me a season's total of 31 of 47 and my hardest week is facing me. First let's take the high school football of the district:

Abilene-Big Spring: Again I will have to go against my home team and choose the invading Eagles to win. The locals will make one of the best showings they have made this year but it will not be enough to stop the Bobcat bound visitors. The weather will determine the score and if it is raining the scoring will be a lot lower than a dry night would show. In rain the locals might stage an upset, who knows?

Midland-Cisco: The Midland eleven whipped Big Spring 25-8 while the locals won over the Cisco eleven from District Nine 33-6. This means that the Bulldogs should win easily. I have no doubts that they will do just that. . . . by a comfortable margin.

San Angelo and other teams of the district do not play this week.

In the Southwest let's take a look and a guess. . . . and it will certainly be a guess as scores will prove nothing. Rice-A&M: The game is in Houston and on it rides the hopes of both team's title chances. The Owls and the Aggies must win to stay in the running for the pennant. Both have fine offenses and are ranked the top two in the league. Walmsley will probably spark the Houston eleven in a fine game but I'll take the Aggies to win.

TCU-Texas: The Frogs won last week against my predictions and have proved themselves to be far from out of the running. Again the two teams playing must each have a win to stay in the running, although TCU could still have a ghost of a chance if they lost. The Steers look the best but I'll play a hunch and take the Frogs.

Arkansas-SMU: The Mustangs have swapped places this year with the Forkers and have not won a conference game since the Razorbacks conference until their present state they will win another, although the Ponies will be my favorites tomorrow. They could and should win a close one. Arkansas has been lucky so far.

Texas Tech-New Mexico: The Raiders have finally come down to the home stretch and a few easier games after some of the stiffest competition in the country. They will take to the Lobos like ducks to water and run wild over them.

Other places across the nation I'll take Auburn over Georgia, Alabama to break Mississippi State, Cornell to top Dartmouth, Ohio State to shove Illinois, Tulane to take Clemson, Notre Dame to down Northwestern, Georgia Tech to trample LSU, Iowa Sea-hawks to bounce Missouri, Duke to top South Carolina, Army to run over Penn, Navy to take Purdue, and Oklahoma to take Kansas.

Nation Sends Gifts For Dying Boy's Sunday Christmas

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 17 (AP)—Santa Claus' pack bulged to overflowing today for a special visit to Cheyenne Sunday to the bedside of a little boy. St. Nick is making this trip early because three-year-old Forrest (Nubbins) Hoffman is so ill of an incurable bladder malady he may not live until Dec. 25. That's why Sunday will be Nubbins' Christmas. Nubbins' mother said the youngster has been given periodic doses of penicillin by his physician to keep down fever. All Cheyenne is hoping for a heavy fall of snow by Saturday night. Gifts, messages and Christmas trees continued to pour in at the home of Marshall Hoffman from all parts of a nation increasingly eager to help make this Nubbins' happiest day. The Hoffmans have little hope that their child will recover. The father said an operation last month established that "it's just a matter of waiting." They've put the thought aside for a while now. Sunday is Nubbins' Christmas—the biggest day of all.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have YOUR MONEY BACK.

Bombers Outweighed 17 Pounds To Man In Clash

When the Big Spring Bombardier School's Colored Bombers meet the Camp Hood Tank Destroyers from Gatesville Sunday afternoon in Steer Stadium the local representatives of negro football will be spotting the tough Hood eleven 17 pounds to the man in an overall weight advantage, with 13 pounds to the man on the line. The overall weight average for the Destroyers will be 175 while the Bombers boast but 158 pounds in their overall total per man. The enemy line will weigh 193 while the locals weigh 180 for each position.

The two teams battled it out last Sunday on the Hood field and ended in a scoreless deadlock. It was speed versus power and neither team could out-drive or outstep the other to gain a score. Local fans who attend the game at 3:00 Sunday will get a chance to see William Morrison, ex-negro college star, in action for the Destroyers. Morrison is a 6 foot 2 inch end who tips the scales at 190 pounds and who plays a lot of football for the big Destroyer team, and is the spark of their hefty forward wall.

Morrison, who shows he is not superstitious by wearing the numeral 13 on his jersey, was the fly in the ointment for the local offensive last week, breaking up Bomber plays with amazing consistency all afternoon, and displaying an amazing amount of speed and alertness for a man his size. Another star that will be displayed by the invaders will be Fullback McElwain. This big line-crasher will vie for individual honors with the local flashes and last week proved to be a quite capable ball carrier, smashing into the local line for consistent gains time and again.

The locals will display such talent as Clarence Dearmond, Paul Blanchard, "Jelly" Cummings, and Elmer Henderson in their end of play. Cummings is a 247 pound tackle who formerly starred for the Tyler College eleven some few years back and has proved to be quite a thorn in the side of opposing ball teams. Blanchard is the speed-merchant of the locals with Dearmond filling in ably at the ball carrying duties and also being the kicker for the local aggregation. Henderson, 203 pound coach and star, was shifted from the tackle spot to the fullback position last week and proved to be quite a plunger in his own right. He was used over the T formation last Sunday against this same eleven and averaged six yards for each time he carried the ball. He will vie with McElwain for the honors as best fullback on the field.

The game is under the sponsorship of the local American Legion post, with R. R. McEwen, commander, handling the official duties in preparation for the clash. Tickets are on sale at the chamber of commerce and at Hester's in the city and the Post Exchange offers ducaats for sale at the post. General admission tickets will go for 50 cents to soldiers and civilians alike while reserved seat tickets bring $1.00. The kickoff is slated for 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon.

Most of the hunters will concentrate in the Hill country arounds Kerrville, Mason, Compton, Fredericksburg and Junction, also the spot chosen by Governor Coke Stevenson and a group of friends who will stage their annual hunt there. It has been estimated that the deer in East and South Texas will be in good shape this year, as conditions have been excellent for their feed this year. This section of the state annually furnishes hunters with about 1,000 deer. Deer and turkey season, West of the Pecos will be open ONLY from November 20 until November 25 for hunters wishing to scout that section of the country for game.

Deer hunters who plan to go into action west of the Pecos are priming their guns and making equipment ready for the season will open November 20, and close five days later on the 25th. These dates are inclusive. This year, west of the Pecos, a hunter will be allowed to kill one white-tail buck and one black-tail buck, but he cannot legally kill two of either kind. If he gets a white-tail he is hunting for that kind is over but he may still kill one black-tail. If he gets the black-tail first, then he must confine his hunting to the aforementioned type. Up until this year the limit west of the Pecos has been two white-tails and one could not legally kill a black-tail on that side of the river. Two black-tails may now be shot east of the Pecos.

Deer hunters who plan to go into action west of the Pecos are priming their guns and making equipment ready for the season will open November 20, and close five days later on the 25th. These dates are inclusive. This year, west of the Pecos, a hunter will be allowed to kill one white-tail buck and one black-tail buck, but he cannot legally kill two of either kind. If he gets a white-tail he is hunting for that kind is over but he may still kill one black-tail. If he gets the black-tail first, then he must confine his hunting to the aforementioned type. Up until this year the limit west of the Pecos has been two white-tails and one could not legally kill a black-tail on that side of the river. Two black-tails may now be shot east of the Pecos.

Roosevelt Thanks Press For Cabinets

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt—saying he didn't know whether he was being sarcastic or ironical—smilingly thanked the newspapers and radio today for offering him at least five new cabinets.

He commented at his news conference when a reporter asked him about speculation that Postmaster General Frank C. Walker plans to resign.

Leaning back in his chair with a grin the president said: "Between the press and radio he has been offered five cabinets none of them with the same people on them. That's awfully good of the press and radio, he said, and then, as an after thought, he added he didn't know whether that was sarcasm or irony.

Public Lack Of War Consciousness Causing Shortage Of War Production

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—Hopes of a return to peacetime production are running aground on shortages of war goods, manpower troubles and what government officials term a lack of public war consciousness.

And republicans and democrats alike, although concerned by shortages that war mobilizer James F. Byrnes says could prolong hostilities unless quickly remedied, are pushing plans for a strong peace organization to follow the war.

The war production board, fearful that talking about reconversion makes people forget the war, may hold back disclosure of broad reconversion plans until Germany's collapse is assured. Mapping of its plans will continue quietly.

Byrnes last night threatened complete suspension of plans to resume limited civilian goods output unless the bottleneck in war production is smashed.

Stressing manpower troubles, Byrnes last night ascribed failure to meet some munitions goals to "the mistaken belief on the part of some people that the war is about over." Two hundred thousand and able bodied men could break the bottleneck, he said.

If it is not broken, the mobilization chief asserted he would "not hesitate to take more drastic action," in these forms:

First, suspend the "spot" authorization procedure for civilian goods manufacture in the two classes of cities having labor shortages; and second, "completely suspend resumption of the production of civilian supplies."

Republicans should take the lead in organizing a strong international peace organization, Senator Austin (R-Vt.) said today, remarking that the G. O. P. has "shed isolationism" as a policy.

The senate's foreign relations committee meets Wednesday to consider plans for hearings, probably next spring, if the organization's final form has been decided by then.

The game is expected to develop into a duel between Eddie Castelberry, flashy West Texas running star, and 18-year-old Paul Campbell, SPAAF passer who has completed better than fifty per cent of his tosses this year and has figured in all his team's scoring.

He was born in the British consulate at South Baku, Russia, of Irish - English parents, came to the United States in 1920, and for a time served as city editor of the Philadelphia Daily News.

He began his career on the airwaves in Philadelphia but kept his job as a rewrite man on his newspaper until he became a full time news commentator. They had two children but were divorced in 1941 and he married Paula Nicoll, a traffic manager for Mutual Broadcasting system.

Postwar Agriculture Must Have Production

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 17 (AP)—In the postwar period "The great problem for agriculture and the whole nation will be to match high agricultural production with equally great markets at fair prices," Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard said here last night.

In an address before a conference of national and state agricultural leaders, sponsored at Texas A. & M. College by the National Association of Manufacturers, Wickard stated:

"Let us assume, from here on, that we shall — or indeed we must — find — or create markets for all that farmers can produce. Can we measure the stake that American industry has in the prosperity of American agriculture.

"There is no single group in our economy which offers as big an outlet for the products of the factory and the plants of industry as the American farmers and their families."

DAYTON, O., Nov. 17 (AP)—Union-affiliated telephone operators walked out early today in a sudden protest against employment of out-of-town personnel and two hours later operators at Columbus and Toledo quit work in an expression of sympathy.

Paul Denning, commercial manager at Columbus, said at least 50 per cent of his long distance operators were absent at 9:30 a. m. and operators said they were accepting emergency calls only.

Miss Jeanette Reedy of Dayton, president of the Southwestern area council of the Ohio federation of telephone workers, an independent union, said about 600 of Dayton's operators were affected. There was no immediate count on the number out at Columbus.
