BOND REISSUE MAY RESULT IN HIGHWAY WORK

Juno Road Paving May Be Done By State If Plan Approved

RELEASE $104,000

Unused Part Of 1930 Issue May Be Assumed By State

Strong possibility of early action toward hard-surfacing of the extension south of Highway 163 from Ozona, the Ozona-Juno road, loomed this week with the launching of a plan for re-issuing of the $104,000 unused portion of this county's $375,000 road bond issue of 1930 on condition of approval of such a plan and assumption of the issue for 100 percent state aid under the road bond assumption act.

While other counties of the state are this year hurrying to vote additional bond issues for road building, conditioned on assumption by the state of the issues and their payment from the one cent gasoline tax under an act expected to be presented at the next legislature to put issues passed prior to January 1, 1941, under the act, Crockett county finds itself in the fortunate position of having $104,000 of its bonds outstanding, ready for assumption with approval of the issue by the attorney general.

A proposition made by a Dallas bond buying firm, McClung & Knickerbocker, Inc., and R. A. Underwood and Co., Inc., for purchase of the bonds at par and accrued interest conditioned on the attorney general's approval of the re-issue, the assumption 100 percent by the state and construction of the state highway in this county, was received and accepted by the Commissioners Court in session Monday.

George Russell, county and district clerk, made a trip to Austin last week to confer with Highway Department and District Road Bond Commission officials regarding the unused local issue, and was given virtual assurance that the entire plan would be approved and that the highway south from (Continued On Page Five)

Football Squad Honored At 1940 Annual Banquet

Fathers, Board Members Are Special Guests

Members of the 1940 Ozona High School football squad and their coach, Dan Patterson, were honored at the annual football banquet on the third floor of the High School building Tuesday evening, with the grid players' dads, members of the school board, men of the faculty, members of the Boy Scout committee and others as special guests of the occasion. About 70 were present.

The elaborate banquet was prepared and served by girls of the Ozona chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. The sixty-foot banquet table was set up in the hallway outside the home economics laboratories. The hallway was decorated overhead with crepe paper streamers and balloon footballs and the long table was elaborately decorated in the football motif and lighted with a continuous row of candles down the middle. Football stadia, elaborately detailed, formed center pieces near each end and in the center, small footballs with the names of the 1940 squad inscribed on each were placed along the table and the plate favors were small goal posts holding a football on which the name of each guest was printed, the goal posts (Continued On Page Five)

Ozona Boy, A & M Student, Given National Recognition

Ele Bright Baggett, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Baggett, Jr., of Ozona, and a senior this year at A & M College, has received one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a student while in college by being selected among those students who will be listed in the 1940-41 issue of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," according to an announcement received by the Stockman this week from publishers of the book at University, Alabama. The book is to be released in January or February.

The Who's Who Among Students is published through the cooperation of over 500 American Universities and colleges. It is the only means of national recognition for graduates which is devoid of politics, fees and dues. Several

$19,000 Ranch Program Funds For '40 Unused Report Here Shows 107 Participated: 1941 Work Started

Ranchmen of Crockett County failed to collect $19,492.62 of the government's allotted range improvement funds for this county during the 1940 period, a report prepared by Miss Kathryn Goodwin, secretary in the office of C. J. Van Zandt, county agent, and AAA headquarters in this county, this week shows.

Of 117 ranchmen who signed up for the program at the beginning of the year only 107 actually participated by doing one or more of the recognized improvement practices. Of the 107 participating however, 64 actually spent more than 100 percent of their allotments.

The county's total allotment for the year was $155,761.32, of which $136,368.70 was used, leaving an unearned balance of $19,492.62, or 12.5 percent of the county's total allotment. The 1940 program closed November 30 and the local office reports 96 percent of applications for payment submitted and money received on about half of the applications already in.

A recapitulation of the year's work under the program in this county shows a total of 1,708,160 acres signed up for participation, with 236,720 acres cleared of prickly pear, and 18,618 acres cleared of lechuguilla. Forty-five water wells were drilled for a combined depth of 16,601 feet; 24 dirt tanks were built with a total of 85,681 cubic yards of dirt moved, and 4 dams and 2 header tanks totalling 7,393 cubic yards. Nine hundred acres of cedar were cleared, 9,880 acres on which grazing was deferred, 100 acres cleared of golden rod, 3,685,384 feet of furrows run and 17,376 pounds of native grass seeds sown. Because of a reduction of participants the expense item for this county increased last year to 2.3 percent.

The 1941 program got under way December 1, it was announced. So far as is known now, there will be very little change in the program for next year. It was pointed out that all work must be reappraised before it can be started under the 1941 program. Inspections of all proposed dam and tank sites, wells, etc., must be made in advance of the start of work.

A meeting of the ranchmen has been set for Friday afternoon, December 13, at 2 o'clock for the purpose of electing the new county committee for next year. The meeting will be held in the district courtroom.

ELECTION SET FOR JAN. 11 ON QUESTION CREATION OF WATER-IMPROVEMENT DIST.

Opposition To Inclusion Of Sewer System In Plan Prompts Decision To Offer Separate Vote On Bonds For Two Plants

Property taxpaying voters residing in the area embraced in the town of Ozona will decide at the polls on January 11 whether or not confirmation is to be given creation of the Crockett County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, authority for which was given following a hearing before the board of Water Engineers at Austin Monday of last week.

The election date was fixed Monday night at the first meeting of the board of directors of the District who were nominated by the Board of Water Engineers, and who are serving in that capacity until the election of January 11, when voters will decide not only on the question of confirmation of the district but will select a board of directors to serve in the event of its confirmation. Names of the Water Board's nominees will appear on the ballot, with blank spaces in which voters may write in other names they might favor for the posts.

Apparent widespread opposition to inclusion of the county-owned sewer system in the proposal, which contemplates ultimately to purchase the Ozona water works system from the proceeds of an $85,000 issue of revenue bonds, has led to a decision to present the issue of the water works system and the sewer system in two elections, it was announced this week. The separation of the questions will come in the vote on issuing the necessary bonds for the purchase of the systems. The district proposes to buy the water works system at $50,000 and spend an additional $25,000 on improving the plant. The county Commissioners have given an option to purchase the sewer system at $10,000.

The local board has more than enough volunteers to fill its quota for the January call. Ten volunteers are now awaiting an opportunity to start their year of training.

Conoco Spuds For 7th Test In Todd Field

No. 6 Completed For 259 Barrels Daily On Pump

Continental and others spudded their 7th test in the Todd ranch Strawn lime producing area Friday of last week. It was Conoco and others No. 7 Todd, 1,980 feet from the south, 660 feet from the west line of section 29-WX-GC&SF, a west offset to the same operator's No. 2-B Todd, the discovery deep producer, and an east offset to Amerada No. 1 Todd, also a producer.

Continental and others No. 6 Todd, sixth producer in the field, and a quarter mile south extension to the pool, has been completed on the pump for 86.40 barrels of 41.6 gravity oil in eight hours, a daily rate of 259.20 barrels. It is 660 feet from the north and east lines of section 32-WX-GC&SF.

The latest producing well in the Noelke field in western Crockett county, J. Silas Pittman, George Atkins, Clay Taylor and Porter Johnson's No. 1 W. T. Noelke, was shut in for storage after making a 12-minute head Sunday and five minutes later began flowing again. It was shut in after flowing 15 minutes. The flow was through 7-inch casing cemented at 1,210 feet. Location is 2,310 feet from the south, 990 feet from the east line of section 30-GG-HE&WT.

Four Men May Be Called From Here In January Draft

Volunteers Sufficient To Make Up Quota; Skip Dec. Call

Crockett county Selective Service Board may be called upon for a quota of four men for the January draft call for men to serve a one-year training period with Uncle Sam's army, according to preliminary notice received this week by the board offices here.

The December call for draftees was passed up, presumably to allow more time to complete housing facilities to receive the recruits. Bulletins received from the state draft headquarters indicate that four times as many men will be called in the January draft as were called up in the first quota, which was one from this county. The call date has been announced as January 13.

The local board has more than enough volunteers to fill its quota for the January call. Ten volunteers are now awaiting an opportunity to start their year of training.

Following the election on confirmation of the district, if such creation is approved, the directors will hold an exclusion hearing, the purpose of which is to give property owners an opportunity to present petitions for exclusion of certain (Continued On Page Five)

Sureties on a $5,000 bond furnished by Tom Casbeer, county treasurer, were W. E. West, Jones Miller and J. W. Owens. N. W. Graham, county attorney, furnished $2,500 bonds with J. W. Owens, Charlie Black and E. R. Kinser as sureties. Each of the four county commissioners furnished $8,000 bonds as commissioners and $1,000 as road overseers. The Five Leading Fire Hazards

According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, if people would inform themselves about the five leading fire hazards, which are responsible for the majority of our fires, the number of fires in this country could be reduced by a tremendous percentage.

First and foremost of the hazards is carelessness with matches and smoking materials. And this is also one of the easiest hazards to eliminate. Be absolutely certain that all such materials are extinguished before discarding, and even then don't throw them into waste paper baskets. Keep plenty of ashtrays handy. Store your matches where they are beyond the reach of children. And never smoke in bed.

Heating plants are another prolific source of fire—and they contribute a hazard which is at its worst this time of year. Chimneys and flues should be checked and cleaned each year. Flue linings of clay are essential to maximum safety. Sagging or rusted stovepipes should be repaired, and smokepipes should be a safe distance from combustibles.

Over heating of stoves and furnaces is always a danger. Never force the fire—if your heating plant is not working satisfactorily, call in an expert.

Misuse of electricity is still another main cause of fire. Use standard fuses of the correct size only, and never use a coin as a substitute. Disconnect all heat-producing appliances when leaving home. Have exposed wiring inspected and if necessary repaired by a qualified electrician—not by an amateur.

Spontaneous ignition is one of fire's many allies. It isn't as mysterious as it sounds. Oily and paint-stained rags or mops are among the worst offenders, and should always be kept in tightly closed metal containers. And even papers and similar rubbish have been known to burst into flame spontaneously. Keep all rooms free of disorderly debris—and don't forget the attic, basement and closets.

A cause of many deaths and serious injuries is home cleaning with benzene, naphtha, gasoline and similar explosive liquids. Send your cleaning out—that's both the cheapest and safest way in the long run.

Here are rules that will prevent most fires. Preserve them and observe them—and the chances will be long against fire paying a disastrous visit to your home.

Oil taxes for the past 18 years have averaged three times the earnings of the oil companies.

The Lure Of Death

The defeatists in the United States have been raising their voices again. They seem to believe that we have reached a state of "economic maturity"—in plainer words, economic senility.

The whole world, their argument runs, has been tending toward some form of dictatorship. No nation has been immune from the trend. Democracy after democracy has collapsed, from weakness within or attack from without. Therefore, they reason, this country must eventually fall into line. The forces of state socialism are too powerful to withstand. And the wisest policy is to swallow the medicine now, and make necessary readjustments to conform to the new and revolutionary "world order."

That is an insidious argument baseless and fallacious. This country has not reached economic senility. It has met great crises in the past. It has survived storms which threatened to destroy it. It has won through, not by shelving democracy, but by making democracy work harder. It has kept always to the principle that strength comes out of freedom, not out of slavery. It has known that wealth and power are better created by free men, working under a free system which makes the welfare and happiness of the individual the nation's first concern. What has state socialism ever accomplished? The world has watched it in many forms for long years—in Russia, in Italy, in Germany. Has it made the common man and woman happier and more secure? Has it raised the standard of living? Has it produced abundance and wealth for all? Has it advanced the causes of art and culture? Has it made for great progress in the fields of science and medicine? Has it given the people freer, fuller lives? To all these questions there is but one answer, and that is NO! In the lands where socialism and dictatorship rule, the people fear to speak their executed. Disease increases. Malnutrition is commonplace. Men work long hours under inhuman conditions for pay barely sufficient to keep their families alive. Only the ruling class is rich—only the ruling class lives well—only the ruling class has inalienable rights.

It is the first duty of those who believe in this country, in this system which we call democracy, to oppose socialism in any and all forms. When socialism takes command, real progress ends. When men are enslaved, they are no better than dumb brutes, responding mechanically to the whips of the masters. Socialism, as we see it in the modern world, means death to all that men have fought and bled for during a thousand years of history—a thousand years of striving toward light and freedom.

It is said that when one Mose Jackson was run over by an automobile, a friend who had witnessed the accident took Mose to see an attorney.

"Oh," said the attorney, when he heard the story, "I suppose what you want is damages."

"No, suh, 55 retorted Mose. "Ah, got plenty of damages. What Ah wants is repairs."

Toasts were in order. The toastmaster arose, to introduce a prominent elderly speaker, and said:

"Gentleman, you have just been giving your attention to a turkey stuffed with sage. Now will you give your attention to a sage stuffed with turkey?"

Texas oilmen last year discovered two and one-fourth times as much oil as they produced.

Some folks still can't believe their eyes

GOING over Buick dealers' reports on our 1941 models, we find an unusual thing happening.

Time and again cars come in for the usual inspections with an extra note of instructions—"Please check the gas gauge needle."

Even after hundreds of miles, people mistrust their eyes when they see its snail-like pace from the Full mark toward Empty—they don't see how it's possible for a car as big as Buick to go so far on so little.

But it does—and for good reasons.

The whole FIREBALL engine was designed and built to get the most good out of modern gasolines.

And the simple secret of Compound Carburetion is that it keeps your engine running on its most frugal diet for all normal driving—and provides full feed only when you need, want and call for the lift of extra wallop.

Meantime even the gears are helping save money—for the regular high gear in a Buick gives you the economy of the so-called "gas-saving" top speeds you hear boosted so enthusiastically.

The big thing is, of course, that this is no small car that's setting these economy figures. There are all the room, size, impressiveness, comfort and downright thrilling performance you expect from a Buick.

But we assure you that it isn't because the needle's out of kilter that it goes down so slowly. It's simply because it's in a FIREBALL Buick.

Hawaiian Theme Used At Luncheon For Woman's Club

Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. Victor Pierce, Mrs. Carl Colwick and Mrs. Evert White were hostesses to members of the Ozona Woman's Club and guests at a luncheon at the Bean home Tuesday.

Hawaii having been a study topic for the club the past few months, a Hawaiian setting was arranged for the affair. The table covers were colorful with center pieces arranged for tropical fruits. Clever Hawaiian menus served as place cards.

Misses Frances, Louise and Doris Bean and Barbara White, dressed as Hula girls, greeted the guests and placed a lei around the neck of each as she arrived, signifying the friendliness of the natives. Appropriate phonograph records furnished music.

After the Hawaiian feast, Mrs. White discussed Hawaiian mores. Mrs. Elizabeth Fussell gave a report on the state convention, a report spiced with wit and enjoyed by the membership.

A Christmas program led by Mrs. Joe Oberkamp followed. Each member answered roll call with a holiday custom and its origin. Gifts from the Christmas tree were distributed and every one joined in singing carols, with Mrs. Johnnie Henderson leading.

The following were present: Mesdames W. R. Baggett, Hubert Baker, A. E. Deland, J. W. Henderson, A. C. Hoover, B. B. Ingham, Joe Oberkamp, Hillery Phillips, Stephen Perner, I. G. Rape, M. Johnson, W. E. Smith, P. T. Robison, Clyde Childers, Eugene Slater, J. D. Moss, Miss Fussell and the hostesses.

the church is spent.

A regular business session will be held next week by the society, with Mrs. Bryan McDonald leading the devotional exercises. A meeting of the executive board of the Society will be held at 2 o'clock the same afternoon.

Present for yesterday's meeting were Mrs. J. A. Fussell, Mrs. Eugene Slater, Mrs. R. A. Harrell, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. Bill Littleton, Mrs. Strick Harvick, Mrs. Hudson Mayes, Mrs. H. B. ### Bond Reissue---

Ozoma would be paved by the State Highway Department out of the bond fund surplus which will be earmarked to retire the bonds. Lockett Shelton, representing the Dallas bond firm, is also conferring with state officials and is expected to be here next Saturday with the final answer on the proposal.

After this county had voted $175,000 issue in 1930 to build the east and west highway through the county and the highway north to Barnhart, the state assumed construction of state highways and $104,000 of the local issue was retired from their sale. Although these bonds have been paid off with the principal, it is the understanding of local officials that they are still effective and can be reissued at the county's discretion. If such is the opinion of the attorney general, the issue will be eligible for 100 percent assumption by the state for payment and the money will be released for highway construction in this county.

The bond assumption fund, supported by a one-cent tax on gasoline, has built up a huge surplus and succeeding legislatures have each toyed with various plans for cutting down the surplus. The last legislature worked out a plan for returning the money to the counties on a formula which takes into consideration population, miles of roads, area and gasoline tax paid. This county's part in that reimbursement program last year was $6,000.

There are strong indications that additional bond issues passed up to January 1, 1941, will be made eligible for assumption by the fund when the next legislature meets and some $15,000,000 in additional issues have been passed by counties over the state this year, all conditioned on such assumption. If this action is taken the surplus will be wiped out. However, the $104,000 outstanding issue from this county will receive priority. In fact, it is estimated that it can be cleared within the next two weeks and the work opened for start of construction work on the Juno highway.

all without cost to Crockett county.

rising from mint cups.

The menu consisted of grapefruit cocktail, barbecued chicken, creamed potatoes, buttered peas, lettuce and tomato salad, cranberry sauce, pickles, rolls, apple pie with cheese and coffee.

Dinner music was provided by Helen Mayes, Mary Faye Lucas, Mary Elizabeth Gray, Susie Hokit, and Gem Ella Dudley, and special musical numbers included a vocal solo by Mrs. Sellers Moore, a violin solo by Miss Ruth Graydon and a trombone solo by Cyril Pingelton.

C. S. Denham, superintendent, acted as toastmaster and introduced Coach Patterson who expressed appreciation for the loyalty of his boys and for the cooperation of the dads and the citizenship in general. Coach Patterson then introduced boys of the squad, who in turn introduced their guests. Members of the school board, Scoutmaster Caruthers and members of the Scout committee and other guests were then introduced. Scott Peters spoke briefly on behalf of the school board as did Judge Charles E. Davidson.

Dr. W. H. Elkins, president of San Angelo Junior College, was the principal speaker of the evening. Dr. Elkins, a former football star at the University of Texas, and a graduate of Oxford University in England where he received the Ph. D. degree, declared himself still an ardent football enthusiast: after viewing it from all angles, as a player, as a coach and from the school administrative angle.

Athletics of all kinds, the speaker declared, are designed to develop and augment other educational methods, all with the aim of developing all qualities and talents an individual possesses. Football, especially, he said, teaches an individual to "go hard" when the going gets rough and that lesson learned will be of great benefit in life as well as on the football field.

tain lands or properties from the proposed district. This hearing, set for January 13, will finally determine the boundaries of the district. Exclusion petitions must be presented 10 days before dates of the hearing, to be held at the courthouse.

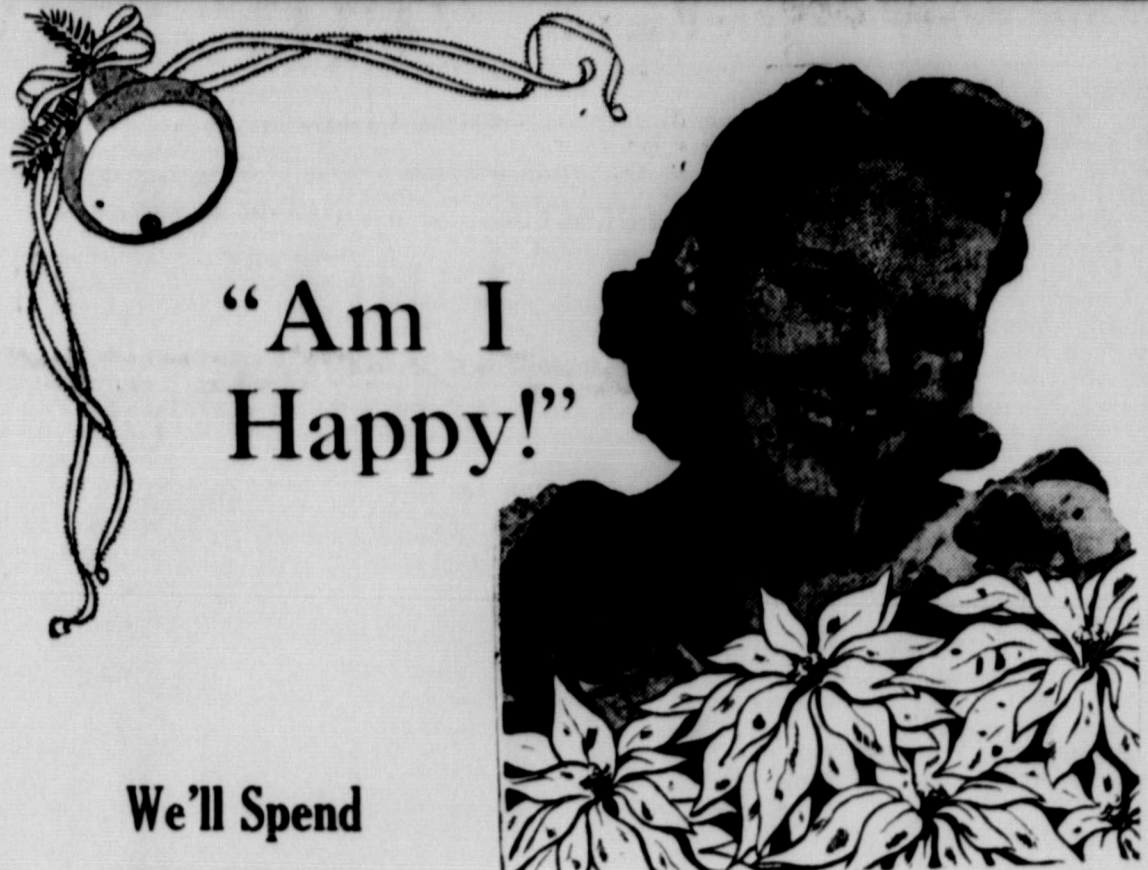

Election officials named for the January 11 election include E. B. Baggett, Jr., presiding judge; R. A. Harrell, assistant judge; Mrs. A. E. Deland and Mrs. Lowell Littleton, clerks.

Only duly qualified electors who own taxable property in the district and who have rendered such property for taxation are eligible to vote in this or subsequent elections. The question will be submitted on the ballot in the following terms: "For Confirmation of the District," and "Against the District." On the ballot also will be the names of the five directors nominated by the Board of Water Engineers and blank lines corresponding to each name on which voters may register a free choice.

At the Monday night meeting of the board, J. W. North was elected president of the Board, and J. D. Kirby, secretary. Other members of the board are Pleas Childress, Boyd Clayton and Hillery Phillips.

It is estimated that approximately 30 days will have elapsed after exclusion hearing, presuming that the district will be approved January 11, before the question of bond issues will be presented to the voters. The question of issuing revenue bonds for buying and improving the water works system and buying the sewer system then will be submitted separately. The ballot form on these questions will be approximately as follows: "For the issuance of Water Works Revenue Bonds and Pledging the Net Revenue for Payment Thereof," and "Against" with the same language, and for the sewer bond, "For the Issuance of Sewer System Revenue Bonds and Pledging the Net Revenue for Payment Thereof," and "Against" with the same language.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Kincaid, Jr., and son, Tom returned last weekend from a holiday visit with Mrs. Kincaid's parents in Dublin.

A NOTE OF APPRECIATION by ArmentROUT

As the Ozona footballers received their sweaters, whether reserve or first team, they had a peculiar air of quietness about them. The seniors, especially, know that these were the last high school football sweaters that would be awarded them for all time to come.

The team, tearing hurriedly into the packages, removed the awards carefully; the coach did the same. "The jackets," explained Coach Patterson, "are not awards to signify how many games the team won, but to signify how hard the team tried."

Every one of the boys who received sweaters thinks that his sweater is the prettiest and best thing that he owns. He wears it with a smile of superiority; he looks at it with a gleam of admiration. The jackets have horsehide sleeves and purple wool backs and fronts. A large "O" encircled in gold, decorates the upper left-hand side of the jackets.

Some of the boys have asked me to express their appreciations for these awards. So we, the football team of 1940, wish to extend our appreciation to the superintendent of schools, Mr. C. S. Denham, Coach Dan Patterson, the Ozona School Board, and any one else who helped to secure these beautiful sweaters.

THE LION'S ROAR

Published Weekly by the Student Body of Ozona High School

SPORTS by Trout

The Ozona Lions started their basketball machine rolling Monday, December 2. Starting the Lions on what is hoped as another good season, Coach Dan Patterson football coach, sent the anxious basket larrupers through several elementary routines the first day that the Lions came out. (The training, of course, will become harder and tougher throughout the season).

The Lions, who have won the Ranch District ever year since this "round-robin" has been started, seemed a bit rusty and over-anxious. This is to be expected, however.

About twenty boys started slipping on basketball togs at the first of the season. This number has steadily increased.

Lettermen back from last year's squad are as follows: Wilson, forward; Leatherwood, guard; Hannah, guard; ArmentROUT, forward; and Williams, forward. Other newcomers are as follows: Bill Carson, Tom Ed Montgomery, L. B. Cox, N. J. Wardlaw, Louis Wardlaw, Wayne West, Charles McDonald, Joe Chapman, Bland Tandy, Stanley Lemmons, Mervin McLaughlin, Calvin Williams, Lorain Wyatt, Roy Coates, and Leslie Nance.

The complete basketball schedule hasn't been completed yet; however, the Lion's first game will be with Barnhart in Ozona, December 11.

This game will not be the first game for Barnhart. They have played Sherwood and the Barnhart town team, beating Sherwood 62-14 and losing to the town team 60-12.

Echoes From The Library by Florence Luther

If you are collecting stamps, read "So You're Collecting Stamps." "So You're Collecting Stamps" is a guide for those who are beginning a collection containing sketches by the author, Hahn, Mannel, and photographs by R. B. Anderson.

Its practical contents contains the following: Starting a Collection; Album, Hinges, Tonges, etc.; Telling Stamps Apart; What to Collect; Stamps Magazine; Clubs and Exhibitions; Topical Collecting; Precancells; Revenues and Sidelines; Postal Markings; and Engraving Stamps. For fiction of the Northwest, read the novel, "Wild Geese Calling," novel of the northwest and of a youth with the call of new places in his blood, and a wife who is always ready to go along. From a Washington lumber camp to Seattle, then on to Alaska and the interior they went, pulled on by a zest for the frontiers, a love of the unknown, an urge to conquer.

This will appeal to those who enjoy either western or adventure stories or a good historical novel of the not too distant past.

Miss North Sponsor Of Assembly Program

Miss North is the sponsor of "The Tree," a Christmas play which is to be presented the Thursday before the Christmas holidays begin. The theme of the play is about some children who think they're too old to believe in Christmas and the traditional tree, Santa Claus and all the trimmings. The eight characters are James Davies, a middle-aged business man, father of the five young people in the play, played by Harold Keeton; Maude Davies, his wife, played by Norma Lovelace; Kay Davies, their daughter, a freshman at State College, a typical co-ed, played by Frances Bean; Dick Davies, Kay's collegiate brother, the usual type of freshman, played by Pee Wee Smith; Virginia Davies, a younger sister, a pert high school girl; Margaret Russell takes care of this part; Ned Davies, a high school brother, rather brusque in a boyish way; Bland Tandy plays this part; Buddy Davies, "the kid brot," in the seventh grade played by Tom Ed Montgomery, and Molly Pendleton, Kay's chum, home from the university.

The play is a one-act play and will provide plenty of entertainment at assembly for the students of the high school as well as for the students of the elementary

EX WHO MADE 'GOOD'

MILES PIERCE

Miles Pierce, ex-editor of the Lion's Roar, and one of Ozona High Schools most faithful and outstanding students, left for college Sept. 14. He is attending the North Texas Agricultural College in Arlington, Texas. The town is between Ft. Worth and Dallas. The school has an enrollment of about 1700; 1400 of these are boys while only 300 are girls. "Boys do the girls have fun," says Miles to his mother.

Miles is taking a general academic course, which consists of math, Spanish, English, animal husbandry, band, chemistry, and military science.

The first nine weeks he was on the honor roll, which requires a "B" average. He also received an honor pin for having no demerits. This fact within itself shows that our own Ozona High School ex is keeping up his old order of putting first things first.

Animal Husbandry is Miles' new subject and one in which he is evidently discovering new fields, for in the beginning of his study of "Pigs" he wrote home: "I don't know the feet from the tail."

Chemistry is Miles' favorite subject, in which he made an "A."

Every Thursday afternoon Miles takes band for three hours.

He is in charge of three cornets. Miles was solo cornet player in the Ozona High School band.

There is one phase of the military training that Miles gets at Arlington that might be hard to take for most boys but he takes it as part of the order and as a requirement to a better record and just goes ahead and polishes the upper classmen's shoes and keeps their rooms spick and span.

Miles recently broadcast over the Texas Quality Network with a group from Arlington.

Freshman Pierce will continue to arise at 6:00 A. M. for calisthenics and full days of work through the spring term and hopes to be at home on the ranch with his parents for a well-earned and deserved rest this summer.

INVITATIONS SELECTED BY SENIOR CLASS

The senior class met in the general science room at eleven o'clock on Thursday, December 6, to select their graduation invitations for the year 1940-41.

Mr. Ezell, the salesman who has sold the last three senior classes in Ozona their invitations, showed his samples to the members of the class. They were especially interested in three different samples. They decided to order the sample that carried a picture of the high school building. The engraving and the front are plain, with a gold seal bearing the letter "O." There is a picture of their mascot, a lion, the wording "Class of Nineteen Forty-One" appears below.

BAND PRESENTS ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

The Ozona high school band, directed by Mr. Cyril Pingelton, played a number of pieces during the assembly hour Thursday, December 5, in the high school auditorium.

The band opened the program with the selection, "Quincy," by Richards. Numbers that followed were "Southern Cross," by Yoder, Yoder's "Mary Had A Flock of Sheep," and a solo entitled "Old English Folk Dances" played by Dick Lee McDonald.

The band also played a group of Christmas carols, some of which were "Noel," "Little Town of Bethlehem," "Silent Night," "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," and "Jingle Bells."

The concluding number was "God Bless America," which was sung by the audience and led by Mary Elizabeth Gray.

This was the second appearance of the band in assembly this term.

THE Prowler

By Gem Ella Dudley

I wonder who swiped George's olives at Press Club? Mary and Sug wouldn't know anything about it, of course, would you, girls?

Ethel, what's wrong with you, can't you like it—Our Love Affair is a pretty song, you know.

Won't people ever grow up? Writing romantic notes or just plain love letters and signing someone else's name.

Bobby, when you make an apology to me, don't turn around and do something worse—your second apology may not be accepted.

Wayne, how much is eight plus one? It couldn't be nine, could it? Faye and Adele go by George's Central Standard Time.

Boys of the junior class, please have pity on Adele. When you don't know your English, ask Miss Terry.

Frances and Pee Wee had a battle royal. Reason: Each said his car had the most advantages. Who won?

Joe B. and Pee Wee were looking for "them" Sunday night. Bill informed them that "them" would be his if he found "them" first. Pee Wee informed me, Shorty had a date with his girl. How about that, Mary?

Kent sounds like the name of a handsome man. Could you tell us anything about this, Virginia?

Coach, is Mr. Sikes beating your time? (Mr. Sikes and Coach's wife were seen together at the football game Saturday.)

Herndon's new name is "Bowling Herndon." Reason: He's almost a champion bowler. What about that, Rozelle?

There's a time and place for everything, and dear teacher thinks that the Press Club is no place for a good time. However, Faye and Adele seem to think it is—more power to you, gals.

Does anyone know a guy by the name of Paul Mayes? He lives in Del Rio and used to be someone's boy friend. Norma, do you know who that someone is?

He's in the army! He's in the army now! Claudie, does that song interest you? Francis sounds like a girl's name to me, but it isn't, is it, Claudie?

Eddie (the guy that helps me get the low-down on Claudie) escorted two charming young ladies to the Press Club meeting. Who were they? Sophs, speak up.

Mr. Pingelton and Mr. Sikes were gift shopping Tuesday night. David's a little young yet for football, don't you think, Mr. Sikes?

A senior in McCamey—Say, Melba, you seem to be doing ok. —Bring him around, won't you?

THIRD GRADE

The third grade children and Miss Neal went to visit the telephone office. Mrs. Runion told us all about it. Mrs. Butler was the operator for the day. She told us how to call one another. Then the one who didn't have telephones phoned someone in the room. Then we guessed a number between 25 and 100 and the number between was 46 and Don Cook was the one who guessed it. The second time we guessed at it, it was between 50 and 100 and the number was 60 and two people guessed it, and they were Mary K. Flowers and Fredda Surguy. Those children called their mothers. Mrs. Runion gave us some refreshments and the refreshments were ice cream sandwiches, I got a pink middle so I got another sandwich. It was my first pink middle sandwich. Then we all thanked Mrs. Runion for the refreshments and for showing us around. Billy Joe McDonald.

Patsy McDonald brought three bulbs to school, and put them in a bowl to grow. She brought them November 4, 1940. They are 26 inches high now and they have one blossom open, and others are

SENSES OWENS-MAYES

HEARD:

Vera starting a new romance at the show Saturday night. Nice going, Vera.

A new recreation for high school boys and girls to try out. It's a bowling alley, folks.

Margaret and Bill holding hands coming out of the band house.

Were you assisting her, or what, Bill?

Chewing gum behind L. B.'s ear. If you make a habit of that you will have to keep your ears clean, Bud.

L. B. pushing people around in order to get to have Margaret by himself. Mervin, we wouldn't feel bad about it.

Roy making eyes at Juanita in study hall. He works fast, Juanita. FELT:

A number of licks on the head. Priscilla delivered them from the drum-stick to Bland's head. Bland wouldn't give her the licks.

A little funny L. B. is afraid of losing to Virginia his first chair in the clarinet section.

Tears after Lila Lee turned Jim Ad down. Shame, shame, Lila, you little heart breaker.

Scared. That's not the unusual feeling to have when slipping in late at night, eh girls? Also relieved when the family didn't wake up.

Apprehensive. Everyone is wondering how his picture will turn out.

Puzzled. What is wrong when the taffy turns to sugar? Could it be the recipe? That problem had quite a few girls puzzled Friday night. Better luck next time, girls. SEEN:

Coach asking Florence if she made a habit of being late to school. She didn't get her hair combed.

A new nickname suggested for Joy. What is it? You tell 'em, Tom.

That someone let the air out of Herndon's tires. By the way, Rozelle, you are losing out. Mary Faye was with him.

Mr. Sikes telling the sophomores to stop giggling because they are no longer freshmen.

A certain boy looking around the show house for a certain freshman girl. Who was the certain girl, Georgia Nell?

Miss Kinney asking whether Roy yand Vernon were brothers?

There are some strange notes being passed around in our school. What about it, Lila?

A solo sung by Tom Ed, Wednesday night. Nice going, Tom.

Joy wanted to put something out the window and roll the window up on it, coming back from San Angelo Saturday. Wonder what it was, Joy?

Mary reminding Shorty she had a date with him.

Shorty telling people to read "The Prowler" and congratulate him. Why not put in a good word for the "Senses," Shorty?

George making eyes at Virginia. George, watch your step. I know several girls who won't like it.

MANY FANS ATTEND ELDORADO-STOCKTON TILT

Coach Dan Patterson went to Eldorado Saturday, December 7, to witness the Eldorado and Fort Stockton game. Much to Coach
Patterson's disappointment, the Eldorado Eagles defeated the Ft.
Stockton Panthers 20-0 (Ft. Stockton is Coach Patterson's home town). Coach Patterson stated:
"The reason for Ft. Stockton's defeat was that they didn't get started." He also stated: "They fumbled several times on the goal line." There were about 1800 fans to witness the game between these two all-district teams. Eldorado and
Ft. Stockton teams will attend the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas on New Year's Day.

Others who attended the game with Coach Patterson were Mrs.
Patterson, Mr. Sikes, and Mr. Mc-Cook.

Simpson was relating his experience in India. "I was taking my usual morning dip when I spotted three gladiators making for me so I had to swim for my life!"
"You mean 'navigators'—something like a crocodile?" interposed Johnson.
