Draft Lottery Is Completed; List Awaited

Thomas Hernandez Holder of No. 158, First Number Up

"More thrilling than a horse race" was the way one potential draftee described the radio reporting of the national lottery held in Washington beginning at noon Tuesday and continuing for 18 hours in which the government determined by lot the order in which eligible men between the ages of 18 and 35 are to be called up for a year of compulsory military training, the first in the nation's peacetime history.

The first number pulled from the historic fish bowl which served in a similar capacity 23 years ago when America was preparing for its part in the first World War was in the bracket of Crockett county's serial numbers—158. It belonged in this county to a Latin-American citizen, Tomas Hernandez. The second number, drawn from the bowl which contained serial numbers up to 9,000, was also within the limits of the local registration, 192, and belonged in this county to Leslie Nance.

The next seventeen numbers drawn from the bowl were larger numbers than the largest serial number under the jurisdiction of this county board, but the nineteenth draw was number 105, belonging in this county to William Arthur Abbott.

Draft officials have estimated that the required number of draftees for the first call, sometime next month, will be secured from the first 25 numbers drawn in Tuesday's lottery. If that is true, and if no arbitrary quota is fixed for each draft board, these three registrants will be all that will be considered from the local board. And the qualifications of these will be determined from the questionnaires to be mailed out to registrants beginning as soon as the master list is received from Washington.

Voluntary enlistments will now be accepted, such volunteers being credited on each local board's quota. Three local registrants have indicated a desire to volunteer, draft board officials have indicated, and if these are accepted additional delay in calling men from this county will be possible.

Red Cross Roll Call Plans Being Formulated Here

Miss Mildred North To Act As Chairman Of 1940 Drive

The American Red Cross, confronted with increased demands of the current national defense program and growing needs for widening its regular domestic operations, on November 11 will embark on its greatest membership roll call since the days of the first World War, Rev. Eugene Slater, chairman of the Crockett County Red Cross chapter, declared today.

Red Cross officials here have set a goal of over 300 memberships as their share in strengthening the services of the organization locally and nationally.

Miss Mildred North has been named to head this year's roll call drive in Ozona as roll call chairman, Rev. Slater announced. A chapter rally will be called between now and the opening date of the drive to organize a corps of workers for a thorough canvass.

Appealing for greater membership, Rev. Slater declared the success of the national enrollment of members will hinge upon the individual success of chapters in attaining their membership goals. He urged every person who can to become a Red Cross member to insure the local chapter meeting (Continued on Last Page)

Fathers Of Scouts Called To Meeting Here Monday Night

In an effort to revive local interest in the Boy Scout program and to reorganize the local Scout troop, a mass meeting of fathers of Scouts has been called for next Monday evening starting at 7:30 by Ira Carson, local Boy Scout committee chairman.

The meeting is to be held in the Scout cabin and all men, and women, too, of the community are invited, especially parents with boys of Scout age, Mr. Carson said.

Paul Ireland, Boy Scout field executive for this district, will attend the meeting and discuss the problems confronting the local organization, it was announced.

Ozona Warehouse Cleaned Of Fall Wool Thru Sale

290,000 Pounds Sold At 30 Cents During Past Week

Riding the 1940 boom in wool prices, the last pound of 1940 fall wool moved out of the Crockett county warehouse during the past week in two sales at the current price of 30 cents per pound.

A total of approximately 290,000 pounds of wool moved in the sale, to bring an approximate $87,000 into the pockets of ranchers served by the local warehouse.

The first sale was the 60,000-pound John Mitchell clip sold Friday to Clyde Young, buyer for Winslow & Co. at 30 cents per pound. Shipment of this wool was in progress early this week.

The following day saw a sale of around 230,000 pounds of fall wool which cleaned out the warehouse's entire accumulation for this year. It was bought by Allen Emory, Jr., buying for his father's firm of Emory and Conant of Boston. The price again was 30 cents per pound. Shipment of the balance of wool from the Ozona warehouse is under way this week, the huge store house to be completely emptied except for small lots and one clip that was not for sale.

Ten-Day Revival Closed Sunday At Baptist Church

A very helpful and inspiring revival for all who attended was the way Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of the First Baptist church, described the ten-day meeting which closed with services at the local church Sunday night.

Preaching was done during the series of meetings by the Rev. N. E. McGuire of San Angelo. Song services were directed by the Rev. A. V. Bradley of Fort Worth. Rev. Childers preached the closing sermon Sunday evening, Rev. McGuire leaving for his home Sunday afternoon.

One addition to the church resulted from the revival, the pastor announced, the addition being by letter.

"Both Rev. McGuire and Rev. Bradley were leaders of exceptional ability, and I believe those who attended regularly realized a great deal of benefit from the series of meetings," Rev. Childers declared.

Bank To Close At Noon Saturdays To Comply With Laws

Notice is given to its customers this week by the Ozona National Bank that effective at once the bank will close at 12 o'clock noon each Saturday.

This action is taken in order that the bank might comply with the new Federal wages and hours law, which went into effect October 24. Under the terms of this law, firms engaged in interstate commerce are limited to 40 hours work each week for employees in certain classifications.

Local Machinery Set For General Election Tuesday

Spectacular Campaign May Bring Out Record Ballot

One of the most spectacular presidential campaigns in American history, with Wendell L. Willkie, Republican nominee, opposing the third term candidacy of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, is expected to bring out a record vote in the national election next Tuesday.

Crockett county's election machinery is in readiness for the balloting which will be in progress during the day throughout the nation and by which the American people will decide some of the gravest issues ever presented them in a general election. Ballots containing the nominees of five organized parties and blank tickets for "what-have-you" candidates have been printed and ready for distribution to election officials before the opening of the polls Tuesday morning.

E. B. Baggett, Jr., is to be judge of the election at the Ozona box. Election judges that customarily serve in the precinct boxes over the county are named for the same job in the general election.

Voters in Texas will decide from presidential electors to precinct officers, the complete slate of Democratic nominees being offered as candidates. The Republican ticket offers also a complete slate of presidential electors, and state candidates with the exception of the office of Commissioner of Agriculture. Other organized parties with a list of presidential electors and some with a scattering of candidates for other offices are the Socialist, Communist and Prohibition parties.

Four proposed constitutional amendments are also up for consideration. One is purely local in that it would permit Red River county to refund its indebtedness. Another would place the appointment of notaries public in the hands of the secretary of state rather than the legislature. The third would clarify the statutes concerning the status of certain municipal employees under the Civil Service law and the last would provide for direct appeal to the Supreme Court in instances involving constitutionality of certain laws and orders.

Willis Undergoes Second Operation For Leg Amputation

W. S. Willis, Crockett county's sheriff, underwent a second amputation operation in the Veterans' hospital at Legion, Texas, Tuesday morning, and reports reaching friends here following the operation indicated that his condition at present is satisfactory.

The first operation was performed about a month ago, Mr. Willis' left leg being removed just below the knee in an effort to control infection resulting from a circulatory disease. The infection continued after the operation and in Tuesday's operation the leg was removed at the hip. If satisfactory circulation can be re-established, Mr. Willis has an excellent chance for recovery, attending physicians said.

W. M. Johnigan, Ad Harvick, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunlap and Mrs. Hugh Gray are among Ozonans who visited Mr. Willis this week.

Mrs. Strick Harvick and Mrs. Vic Pierce left this morning for Arlington, Texas, where they will visit with Mrs. Pierce's son, Miles Pierce, student at NTAC in Arlington. From there Mrs. Harvick and Mrs. Pierce will go to Dallas and entrain for Columbia, Mo., to visit Mrs. Harvick's daughter, Miss Mary Louise Harvick, a student in Stephens College at Columbia.

Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ozona, and Mrs. Childers each will teach a class in the Training Union Study Course to be conducted at the Parks Heights Baptist church in San Angelo next week.

Rev. Childers will teach a course from the book "A Growing Christian" and Mrs. Childers will teach another group from the book "The People Called Baptists." The study course will continue four days, Monday through Thursday night, the Ozonans returning home Friday.

The San Angelo church will have a program of eight study courses during the four days. Rev. Lawrence Hays is pastor of the Park Heights church.

Madden Read left yesterday for Temple to be with his father, the Rev. Nat B. Read, who is in a Temple hospital. Rev. Read is to undergo an operation this week.

First Discount Month Brings In $57,000 In Taxes

Total Still Short of October Collections A Year Ago

Unless last minute discount-minded taxpayers flood the collector's office and the final day's mails bring an unusual number of payments, October's collections will fall short of last year's totals during the first month of the discount period, according to collection figures compiled late yesterday by Claude Russell, deputy collector here.

Total collections at the close of business yesterday amounted to approximately $57,000, the collector reported.

Tomorrow is the last day for the 3 per cent discount on 1940 taxes, the discount dropping the next day to 2 per cent, which discount rate will be in effect through the month of November. In December the discount will drop to 1 per cent and the first of January the full amount will have to be paid.

Last year's October collections totalled approximately $80,000. It was thought that the first month's total this year would approach that figure when the total tabulation is made.

Aid Asked In Red Cross War Relief Sewing Program

An appeal for assistance of all women of Ozona in the Red Cross garment making program for the relief of war sufferers in England was issued this week by Mrs. Hugh Childress, chairman of the sewing division of the production program.

Material has been received for the Crockett county chapter's quota of garments, Mrs. Childress announced, but in order that the quota may be supplied by the deadline additional help with the sewing will be necessary, Mrs. Childress said. The local chapter's quota has been fixed at 10 ladies' dresses, 25 children's dresses, 20 hospital shirts and 10 layettes. The garments must be completed before the last of December.

Mrs. Jimmy Blaylock, chairman of the committee on knitting, announced that additional knitters are needed at once to complete this phase of the program. The (Continued on Last Page)

Patriotic Theme Stressed In 6th Dist. Music Meet

Ozona Well Represented At Dist. Conclave In Angelo

With the Loyalty Crusade as its theme, the Sixth District, Texas Federation of Music clubs held one of its most enthusiastic conventions in San Angelo last week and members of the Ozona Music club and the Junior Choir played leading parts in the two-day program.

Fifteen senior clubs in the district were all represented, as were the two student clubs and 17 of the 20 junior clubs. Sweetwater was awarded the 1941 convention, with invitations extended also by Cisco and Eastland.

Mrs. H. B. Tandy of Ozona, Sixth District president, presided at business sessions of the convention and presented the six objectives of the district for the coming year. These objectives are:

That each club take an active interest in junior and student work, presenting at least one junior or student program during the year.

That each club have an active publicity chairman.

FIRST CHECKS FOR '40 RANGE WORK ARRIVE

24 Ranchers Receive $23,070 For Work Completed

NOV. 30 DEADLINE

Half Of Participants In County Yet To Complete Work

Twenty-four Crockett County ranchmen Tuesday received checks totalling $23,040.28, representing the first government pay-off in the 1940 range conservation program for this county.

The checks were in payment to the first group of ranchmen to complete approved practices under the range program for 100 per cent of their 1940 allotment. These early payments were authorized by the AAA this year on all ranches where 100 per cent of the year's allotment was used up in carrying out approved practices. Those who are using less than 100 per cent of their allotments will not be paid until after the close of the year's program.

The payments to this first group of ranchers to complete work averages $961.26 per ranch. Tom Smith, who was the first to sign up for the 1940 program at the offices of the local county agent at the opening of the year, was the first to receive his 1940 government check, the local AAA headquarters office reports.

Reports of a second group of participants who have completed 100 per cent of their allotments will be sent in to state headquarters from the local offices between now and the first of November. C. J. Van Zandt, county agent, reported. Checks are expected to be received in payment on these reports within twenty days from the date of mailing. About the same number of participating ranchmen, with approximately the same amount in payments, will be reported in the second group, the agent said.

Only one more month remains in which to complete range conservation practices to qualify for payment under the 1940 range program, County Agent Van Zandt warned. To date less than 50 per cent of this county's participating ranchmen have made their final reports to the local offices. Of course, much of the work is nearing completion, but the agent declared that it will be necessary for many to show an unusual burst of speed during the next month in order to complete the work in time to qualify for payment. He urges all ranchmen to speed up the work in order to be sure of qualifying before the deadline.

Around 115 ranchers are participating in this year's program in this county, and when all work is completed after November 30, checks totaling in the neighborhood of $100,000 will come from AAA in payment for practices carried out. As in previous years, prickly pear eradication will head the list of practices in this county. Other practices for which the government will pay and which are being carried out include drilling of water wells, building water storage tanks, lechuguilla and cedar eradication and some contour farming.

Our Way Of Life

It is becoming increasingly clear that the future of this nation depends upon getting the most out of our industrial enterprises, which constitute the greatest productive machine the world has ever known.

The American people have always prided themselves on their standard of living. And to improve that standard means that there must be more jobs, more wealth, more crops, more goods of all kinds. There is no substitute for production. There is no substitute for abundance. We have tried a policy of scarcity, and we have found it suicidal.

This country depends on private enterprise for its living, not on political or governmental enterprise. The hope of us all is twofold: for national safety, and for national prosperity. Those two goals can be achieved only if we give industry of all kinds every chance to expand, to build, to improve, to broaden its services to the country.

Above all, that involves an end to direct government competition with business. So far, that competition has been most notable in the field of power generation and distribution. Its cost to the taxpayers has run into the billions. And not a single thing has been produced which we did not already have, or could have had without cost to the taxpayers. The political power program has prevented the normal expansion of one of our greatest industries and has destroyed a great amount of potential employment.

American industry of all kinds is ready and eager to go forward to help prepare us against military aggression and economic disturbances alike. Industry asks no favors. It asks only for a decent opportunity to work without political persecution, and under fixed policies which let it know where it stands. The current world crisis, tragic as it is, will not be in vain if here in America it gives us a renewed understanding of the proper functions of government, and of the fact that our very existence as a free people depends upon the full functioning of a system based squarely on private enterprise.

Election Time Is Here

Election time's coming. On November the Fifth, all voters in the United States will have the privilege of registering their preference—deciding which one of several men will hold the office of president for the next four years.

Election Day is not the only special day in our American tradition. Not even Great Britain, with all its long history, has more occasions for genuine rejoicing, or for serious thankfulness that its ancestors were the men and women that they proved to be. But election Day is certainly of primary importance to us as individuals and as a society.

In only a few lands on this earth does the act of choosing the head of the state have any real meaning at the present time. Even in England, there is small time for the exercise of representative government during the war emergency. And on the continent of Europe, even when the rulers there decide to hold a parody of an election, it goes by a name unfamiliar to American ears—"plebiscite"—and there is only one candidate's name on the ballot.

We Americans will show our wisdom if we ponder these matters well.

Leader Or Master?

Your vote this coming election day will be the most important you have ever deposited in a ballot box.

With you, and with your fellow voters in country and city, will rest a multitude of grave decisions fateful for America. You will have just one chance to express your preference. That will be when you mark your ballot.

Whatever choice the majority makes will be the law of the land. All of us must and will abide by it.

We hope every citizen will vote. We hope every vote will be cast with a full understanding of the question to be determined on that Tuesday.

The ballots of American citizens, free and equal at the polls for a century and a half, will decide November 5 whether the American way of life shall be continued or changed.

With all the ups and downs we have shared in this nation, we think the American way is a good way, the best way. It has produced for the average American family three times as much of goods and welfare as the dictator states have produced.

This is no ordinary political fight between parties for the right to manage public affairs. It is a struggle between representative government as we have long known it in America, and the discredited totalitarian ways of Europe.

That is not too blunt. On one side are all the little dictators now functioning here. They are lined up together—Hague of New Jersey, Kelly of Chicago, Pendergast of Kansas City, Guffey of Pennsylvania. Side by side with them are the cunning Corcorans and Cohens and their kind who behind the scenes have maneuvered for seven and a half years under cover to enlarge executive power. At the head, after riding roughshod over the Chicago convention to perpetuate his power, stands their master.

Do Americans want a master? Is that your choice? Four years ago Mr. Roosevelt said that certain groups had in his first term met their match and in his second would meet their master. By "certain groups" he meant every one.

Steadily new powers have been built up in the executive hands. Not one of these has been returned at any time to Congress or to the people. Freedom of action has been limited by taxation, by regulation, by restriction. Behind the White House doors are more clubs of power that have not been used—powers over industry and thus over labor, both of which are linked with agriculture.

The people's decision will be final. If they want a master, Franklin D. Roosevelt is their man. He would probably be as kind and benevolent a master as any.

But once the people decide to have a master, there is no turning back nor fighting back. Except by revolution—difficult when facing bombers and tanks—they cannot hope to retrieve their powers and their liberties.

If we want to follow the ways of Europe, and live under some form of totalitarianism, we have that choice.

We can have the totalitarian way under Mr. Roosevelt.

Under Mr. Willkie we can regain representative government, the kind under which the nation has flourished. With it we can have the freedoms and liberties which are the essence of America.

Those who believe in the principles of either the Democratic or the Republican parties will alike cast their votes for Mr. Willkie. Anxious and willing for the mandate to be master is Mr. Roosevelt.

Prepared to be a leader and public servant is Wendell Willkie. The decision is yours to make on November 5.

Silver Dollar

The United States silver dollar of 1894 greatly prized by coin-collectors because of its extreme rarity, is worth $2,500. How much is a United States silver dollar of 1940 worth? By fiat of Congress it is worth $1-100 cents. Intrinsically, it is worth the amount of silver, approximately seven-ninths of an ounce, which it contains. Congress has fixed the Treasury price of newly mined domestic silver at 71.11 cents per ounce. At that rate, the 1940 silver dollar is worth 55.3 cents intrinsically. But that is solely because the "silver bloc" persuaded Congress to set an artificial price, a Federal bonus or subsidy, on such silver for the benefit of mine-owners and mine-workers in half a dozen Western states. The New York market price of silver—which is likewise the Treasury price for "foreign" silver—is 35 cents an ounce. On that basis the 1940 silver dollar is worth a little more than 27 cents.—Arkansas Gazette (Little Rock).

Unfair

The pamphlet attack on the ancestry of Mr. Willkie was an unfair and scurrilous thing. In this country we fight our battles fairly. There are issues enough to judge a candidate by without resorting to smearing. But, at the same time, while many are deploring the incident, let us hope that none of them had anything to do with the smearing of Roosevelt. In jokes, by innuendo and deliberate lies, he also has been attacked. And those attacks have been just as reprehensible as the attacks on Willkie. Let us hope that the Willkie pamphlet, which brought such foul tactics into the open, will make the rest of the campaign battle decent and more American.—Boston Post.

"Vox Populi, Vox Dei"

Next November 5, the American people will exercise the most vital of all rights—the right to vote. They will do it in absolute secrecy, without fear of coercion. And before the calendar moves forward to another day, the world will know whom the people have selected to head their government for the next four years.

In normal, uneventful times it is important that every accredited citizen vote. In these chaotic days we are living through, it is infinitely more important. In pitifully few great nations does the right of free and secret franchise still exist. In country after country the vote has been taken from the people, or has been turned into mockery. And in all the countries where that has happened the people have become the slaves of a small and ruthless ruling class—a new race of uncrowned emperors, whose answer to protest is death and torture and imprisonment. The ballot is any people's first and last line of defense against tyranny.

It is a tragic fact that here in our own country it is the common experience for millions of voters to deliberately disfranchise themselves, because they are unwilling to take the trouble to go to the polls. And when that is the case we have, in effect, government by the minority. The true feeling of the people can be known only if all the people are heard—and the ballot is the sounding board for the collective public vote. The citizen who does not vote is helping to break down democracy here, and is undermining the very foundation of the constitutional system.

Vote November 5. Vote for the men whom you think best qualified to have charge of government, national and local. That is your duty, and your responsibility. "Vox populi, vox dei," still holds true in the United States.—"The voice of the people, the voice of God."

Vote As Americans

Not since the Al Smith campaign of 1928 has there been so much speculation as to the influence of racial and religious groups upon the outcome of a national election in this country as there is today. Which presidential candidate, it is being asked, will have the Jewish vote, the German vote, the Italian vote, the Catholic vote? Anti-Semitism is not an issue in the present campaign. Neither is Catholicism. No one is proposing any plan that affects the welfare of persons of German or Italian ancestry in the United States. Yet these questions presuppose that American citizens are going to be controlled in their voting by consideration of race and religion. Nothing could be more harmful than the emergence in this country of such bloc votes; nothing better calculated to reproduce here the evils of intolerance so prevalent today in Europe. This election is to be decided by Americans on issues of national policy. There is plenty of room for honest differences of opinion among us on these issues. There is none for race and religious prejudice, operating either for or against a candidate.—Kansas City Star.

MRS. BILL BAGGETT ENTERTAINS TWO CLUBS

Mrs. Bill Baggett, Jr., was hostess to two bridge clubs in her home Friday morning. There were four tables. Mrs. Vic Montgomery was named as honoree and was presented with a gift. High score for Las Amigas club went to Mrs. Al Fields. High score for the other club went to Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson. Mr. Bing went to Mrs. Arthur Kyle and cut to Mrs. Arthur Phillips. The Halloween motif was carried out in tables and prize wrappings.

Guests were Mrs. Buddy Moore, Mrs. Bill Friend, Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson, Miss Lourine Townsend, Miss Catherine Childress, Mr. Eram Brown, Mrs. Vic Montgomery, Mrs. Jerry Pace, Mrs. R. L. Flowers, Mrs. A. O. Fields, Mr. Rex Russell, Mrs. Arthur Kyle, Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Mrs. Bill Littleton and Miss Wanda Wagon.

Mrs. Brown's colored cook went home every night the moment she had washed the dinner dishes, often forgot to come back in time to prepare breakfast the next morning.

"Sara," said Mrs. Brown one day, "every time you fail to come and get breakfast, I shall take off a quarter from your wages."

Sara silently consented, and the next few mornings she came early. But one morning she did not appear until 10 o'clock.

"Look here, Sara," complained Mrs. Brown, "I had to fix breakfast again this morning."

"Well," returned Sara indignantly, "Ain't Ah payin' yo' for it?"

Margaret Russell Sponsors Dance

Margaret Russell entertained with a dance Saturday night at Randall's Drive Inn. A nickelodian furnished music for the dancing, which began at eight and broke at ten-thirty.

Enjoying a jolly evening were Miss Jo Owens, Bobby Lemmons, Mrs. Chapman, Joe B. Chapman, Mrs. Williams, Tom Ed Montgomery, Jim Ad Harvick, "Shorty" Colquitt, Boochie Coates, Bland Perry, L. B. Cox, Mary Louise Turner, Joy Coates, and Margaret Russell.

The football boys of O. H. S. have received rewards in more ways than one for beating Monday Saturday.

After the game Mrs. Charlie Bates gave the team a barbecue supper at her house. Everyone ate until he could eat no more. It was very good supper.

Besides this supper, the boys got off light in practice last week. Monday, only the second stringers lined out. They had a light workout. The rest came out on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, although the rain caused them to stop on Thursday.

They had no workout Friday, with most of the boys going to Ozona Friday afternoon to see the Mason "Punchers" defeat the handicapped Sonora Bronchos 32-0. The Lions, who were to play the Mason "Punchers" Friday, have not lost any of their spirit.

They are looking forward to a "large" week-end with the Mason team in view and a trip to Austin, another "victory treat" promised for Saturday.

Two New Members Added To Rolls of Junior Woman's Club

Two new members were added to the roll when the Junior Woman's club met Thursday. Mrs. Buddy Moore and Mrs. I. Sellers Moore were elected to membership.

The club met in the home of Mrs. Arthur Phillips with Miss Selma Scott as assisting hostess.

During the business session which was presided over by Mrs. W. E. Friend Jr., the club discussed its project "The Modernization of the Telephone System in Ozona," and decided to make further efforts to reach its objective.

Plans were completed for sponsoring a dance November 5 at Hotel Ozona.

The program of the day was based on McCall's Magazine. Mrs. Doug Kirby was the leader. The merits of the department on "Style and Beauty," were listed by Mrs. Kirby. "News and Fiction" was the department discussed by Miss Wayne Augustine and "Homemaking" was the department chosen by Mrs. W. E. Friend, Jr., for her part on the program.

Two visitors, Mrs. Bud Kincaid and Miss Alena Kinney and twelve members were present for the meeting. Members other than those mentioned above were: Miss Wanda Watson, Mrs. Ele Hagelstein, Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt, Mrs. Walter Augustine, Mrs. Arthur Kyle and Mrs. Rex Russell.

F. D. R. "INSPECTIONS" DELAY PRODUCTION

At the Carnegie-Illinois steel plant near Pittsburgh, where the President spent 21 minutes, exhibits had been arranged along the route his limousine traveled through the various mills. On the exhibits were signs—"Cold Ingots," "Armour Plate," etc. Workers had spent the morning "softening up" an ingot so that the President might see a demonstration forging.

At the Mesta Machine Works in Pittsburgh, tiered platforms had been built so that employees of all three shifts might assemble and see Mr. Roosevelt pass through. Here he spent 16 minutes.

At the Watervliet Arsenal in New York, workmen put in two days unbolting machinery from the floor and moving it aside to make room for the President's car to roll down the main bay. Needless to say, defense production was at a standstill in this section of the arsenal on the day of the Presidential inspection. For two days afterward, the workmen were bolting the machinery back in place.—Wash. Daily News.

Ozona Witnesses Army-Navy Game

The greatest game in all football history took place Wednesday, October 23, at the football stadium between the two high school buildings. This game was between the Army and the Navy, and ended in a 26-26 tie.

The Army team was under the "experienced" nine of "Nat" Reed. The Navy was piloted by Bernard Lemmons. The "officials" were Guinn Caruthers, of Texas Uni Jack Coates, "Scooter" Smith, Arthur Rynnion, Sam Perner, Billy P. C. Perner, from Texas A. University at Austin, and L. B. Sykes of Texas A. and M., at College Station and M. was head linesman.

The starting line-up for the Army was Captain Reed, Ira Yancy, Don Cooke, Marshall Sweeten, Jean Hill, and Buddy Phillips. The Navy's line-up was like this: Captain Lemmons, James Speer, Billy Joe McDonald, Maurice Cox, Ed Mankin, Joe Bean, Joe Elliott, Ralph McCaleb, and J. B. Chapman.

At the half the two rival pep squads joined hands and did a "big" snake dance. The pep squad leaders were Lillian Schneeman, and Mary Kathryn Flowers. Outstanding players for the Army team were Benard Lemmons, Nat Reed and Ira Yancy. Powermen of the Navy crew were Benard Lemmons and Maurice.

This game was witnessed by approximately 400 people from the city of Ozona and its whereabouts. Only one accident happened and that occurred when Benard Lemmons, Navy captain, tried for an extra point. Captain received a painful bump on the head.

The one funny thing about this game was that there were no passes thrown and no punts attempted.

TOO OUTSPOKEN

Did I tell you about the awful fright I got on my wedding day? Shame on you. No man ought to speak that way about his wife.

Lions Witness Sonora-Mason Game

"The Lions are getting very anxious to win another ball game, but they are a little tired of losing them," said Coach Dan Patterson of O. H. S.

The boys had an open week-end Saturday, October 26. However, the old football spirit has gone so far as to drive the pigskin to Sonora. There they witnessed a one-sided battle fought by the Mason "Punchers" and the Sonora "Bronchos". The Mason gridders got off to an early start by making three touchdowns in the first quarter. The losing "Bronchos" couldn't shake the cowboys off at all.

The Mason club plays the Ozona crew in Mason Friday, November 1. Coach Patterson, who had assembled the boys in one group so as to discuss each error and each weakness with them, asked each player of the Ozona squad what he would do when a certain man moved over one way or another.

"They (Mason) have an extremely shifty backfield," remarked Patterson, "but their line is nothing to be proud of."

After the game next Friday between Mason and Ozona, the Ozona crew will journey on to Austin. There the boys will see S. M. U. and Texas play.

The Ozona crew should play a little harder ball game with the fact that a trip to Austin is ahead of them.

Bullfrog Lemmons, Boochie Coates, Pee Wee Smith, "Shorty" Colquitt, and Jim Ad Harvick are expected to play in the Mason-Ozona game in view of the fact that their injuries are perfectly healed.

Coates, suffered a side injury from the Iraan-Ozona game about a month ago. Colquitt broke two fingers in scrimmage last week. Lemmons suffered a severely sprained knee from the first game of the Ozona football season. Harvick recently broke his finger in practice.

A. M. Plans Military Field Day Feature For Arkansas Game

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Oct. 30.—Saturday, November 2, has been set aside at Texas A. & M. College as Military Field Day with the Texas Aggie-Arkansas Razor backs football game starting at 2:30 as the culminating event of a complete program of entertainment for visitors to the college.

All of the seven Reserve Officers Training Corps units at the college will participate in the day's activities which will tend to exhibit material used in training the 6543 Texas A. & M. College cadets in military science and tactics.

As a feature attraction the Orange high school Bengal Guards, musical and marching group of 125 girls, will take over the field between the halves and perform the maneuvers which have won them fame wherever they have appeared, including the last Sugar Bowl game, and in Chicago, Ill., this past month. For one time in Aggie history their band will remain in the stands and give the full period to the Orange girls.

All of the R. O. T. C. units will have displays on the parade ground, adjacent to the Y. M. C. A. Probably the most interesting to the visitors will be that of the Chemical Warfare Service which will include gas masks for them to try on and a sniff bottle containing tear gas so they can forever boast that they have been gassed. This unit also will display the type of mortar they use as well as smoke bombs and other paraphernalia of that arm of the service.

The Signal Corps will display a complete field telephone switchboard and wires to show how communications can be carried on in the field of battle. They also will show the new portable two-way short wave radio which is carried like a pack on the back of the soldiers.

The Engineers will show how barb-wire is strung, tools of their branch, their arms and the pack they carry, as their part. This is the branch of service which has to build roads and bridges and in many cases has to demolish the same arteries of traffic after their troops have passed by.

The display by the Coast Artillery Corps (Anti-Aircraft) will include one of the big anti-aircraft guns which will throw a shell over 5 miles into the air to ward off marauding aircraft. Other instruments of that branch of the armed service will also be on exhibit with cadets and regular army men present to answer any questions.

The Field Artillery will show both 155 and 75 mm. cannons with their attending equipment. Also included will be a reel cart to show how this branch works with the signal corps in maintaining communications behind the lines for control of barrage fire.

The Cavalry will show the types of equipment used by them and will have some horses and men on hand to demonstrate the use of mounted soldiers. Cavalrymen also will be used as mounted police to handle the crowds during the day.

The Infantry Regiment will be represented in the display by soldiers in full equipment, including the pack. Other members of the regiment will explain machine guns, their operation and show how quickly they can tear them down and re-assemble them.

In addition to those R. O. T. C.

units, the college airport just east of the main campus will show the work being done by Civil Aeronautic Authority in training future pilots for the Air Corps. It is hoped that several regular army planes can be flown over from Randolph or Kelly Field for the day and if they come they also will be landed on the college port.

All of the 24 tactical officers of the regular army on duty at the college will be in charge of the displays covering their particular branch of service and will be assisted by enlisted personnel from the regular army and members of the cadet corps in explaining the displays to the visitors.

Tactical officers and staff officers of the University of Arkansas cadet corps have been invited to attend and participate in the activities of the day. Arkansas is the only other school in the Southwest Conference which has an established R. O. T. C. unit.

Said the deaf old lady to the deaf old man, at a family reunion. "Do you remember how we used to play together when we were young, and how I used to spank you when you didn't behave?"

"Hey? Oh yes, you would hardly recognize the old place would you?"

Ernestine Watts, Former Ozona Girl Marries Odessa Man

At 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning, Oct. 20, Miss Ernestine Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Watts, of Abilene, became the bride of R. H. Frizzell, at the First Baptist church of Odessa with the Rev. John T. Kee and Rev. W. C. Harrison performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Clifford Watts, of Abilene. The wedding party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Yates Brown, of Midland.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Brown played "Always," and the accompaniment for Frank Spaulding's vocal numbers, "Because" and "O Promise Me."

The vows were exchanged beneath an arch of asparagus fern flanked by floor baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums intermingling with lace fern.

The bride wore a frock of soldier blue and black accessories. For something old she carried a Bible and lace point handkerchief that was carried by the groom's mother at her wedding December 9, 1914, for something new she wore a pearl necklace, the gift of Mrs. Dave Keller. The ring of a classmate, Mrs. Martin Baze, Jr., was her something borrowed. Her only flower was a gardenia corsage carried with the Bible.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Bob Steakley, wore orchid and grey jersey and accessories of black. A mustard colored jersey frock and black jersey was selected by the maid of honor, Miss Janice Watts, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids, Miss Katherine Frizzell, sister of the groom, and Miss Mardel Henderson wore tan jersey and prairie rose jersey with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Ozona high school and attended Sanford Brown college in St. Louis, Mo., and Draughon's business college in Abilene. For the past two years she has been employed by the Waddell Insurance agency.

Mr. Frizzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Frizzell of Olney, is a graduate of Olney high school and is employed by Basse and Dillard Drilling company of Odessa. He was attended by Sidney Bailey as best man and ushers were Robert Shuffler, R. E. Steakley and Jim Brom.

Immediately following the cerechurch dining room. Green tapers in crystal candleabra lighted the lace table. A wreath of pink dahlias and fern surrounded the bride's cake.

The couple left for a wedding trip to be spent in New Mexico, and on their return will be at home at 519 North McKinney, Odessa.

Ernestine lived in Ozona with her parents for seventeen years. She finished grammar school and high school in Ozona, graduating with the class of 1935.

Calendar of Services

- Evening Worship 7:30 p. m.
- Woman's Society of Christian Service, Wednesday, 3:00 p. m.
- Choir Rehearsal, Thursday 7:30 p. m.

The various organizations and services of this Church are designed to help people grow in the Christian life. That the church often fails in its high purpose those of us who love it most dearly admit readily. A part of the trouble is with the leadership of the Church. Another part of the trouble is with each one of us—we are all too forgetful of the noble vows that we assumed when we joined the Church; we are easily discouraged; we are too ready to see the evil in another while we overlook the good; and we run off too often after some fancy that promises a momentary thrill or two.

Surely there is someone who will read these lines and say, "Well, I am going to give my Church its maximum chance at me this year. I am going to attend regularly, support it with my money, give it my intelligent interest, and let it use my life in its ministry of practical help and good will."

We cordially invite our members and friends to share fully in the life and work of this Church.

All-Day Retreat Planned By Society For Week Of Prayer

WOMEN RALLY TO NATION'S DEFENSE IN RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICES

Training Courses Fit Them For Duties Vital in Present Emergency

WITH the call to the colors of more than a million of the nation's young men, American women everywhere ask how they can volunteer their services to aid in the emergency.

The American Red Cross, through its 2,700 Chapters and their branches, provides the answer. More than a half million women already have enrolled to give their time in Red Cross volunteer services, according to Mrs. Dwight F. Davis of Washington, D. C., Chairman of Red Cross Volunteer Special Services.

In order to prepare most efficiently for any emergency which may come, the Red Cross is extending its training courses through its Chapters. Women motorists are trained for the Red Cross Motor Corps; girls who wish to volunteer for office work, train for the Staff Assistance Corps; other thousands join the Canteen Corps; women and girls who wish to learn to protect the health of their families, take Top left, millions of garments and surgical dressings made for war victims by uniformed women; right, Nurse's Aides trained to serve in hospital clinics; Gray Ladies trained to give morale building services in military and civilian hospitals. All are volunteers who give time to this work of mercy every day.

Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick Courses; those who wish to learn how to aid the victim of an accident, enroll in the First Aid classes.

The Gray Lady Corps is composed of volunteers who require more specialized training and this is available only in those chapters near military hospitals. The Gray Ladies are the visitors in military and civilian hospitals giving those aids and comforts to sustain the morale of the sick. Nurse's

Aides are trained to assist doctors and expert registered nurses in clinics and hospitals and this training is limited at present to regions where there are many hospitals.

The Red Cross "preparedness for humanity" program is supported by the memberships of the American public and every patriotic man and woman is urged to join his local Red Cross Chapter during the Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

Rogers Memorial To Be Dedicated Ft. Worth Nov. 15

FORT WORTH, Texas.—Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher and benefactor, announced today he would officially dedicate the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum on the night of November 15th to climax the Will Rogers Day celebration and to present the Premier showing of the All-American Rodeo & Horse Show.

In dedicating this $2,000,000 Shrine to the memory of a great American cowboy, Mr. Carter will unveil a gift he is presenting to the city of Fort Worth and the citizens of the Southwest, destined to be admired and appreciated by every man, woman and child who sees it.

The gift is an oil painting of life size of Will Rogers astride his most beloved horse, "Soapsuds." This gigantic piece of art is valued at more than $100,000 and following its presentation to the Southwest by Mr. Carter, this masterpiece will be placed over the portal of the Coliseum to silently but vividly remind all those who enter the ever-presence of that great humorist and philosopher.

Publisher Carter took the lead to erect this most magnificent coliseum; he was one of the intimate friends of Rogers and subject of many of the great humorist's classics. He was even the employer to the son of Rogers and that son, Bill Rogers, newspaper man of Beverly Hills, has been invited to be an honored guest for this occasion. Mr. Carter's gift to the city is so realistic that nothing but "ah's" and "Oh's" describe the feeling of those who have glimpsed this painting. One critic so aptly described it "You expect Will Rogers to speak and Soapsuds to neigh the instant you see it."

Texas oil wells produced a daily average of 14 1-2 barrels each in 1939 compared with over 18 barrels in 1937.

discussed the three planes of music. Members of the chorus which sang on the Fine Arts program at the Sixth District convention in San Angelo last week sang the two numbers they gave at that program, "Cherry Ripe" by Horn-Page, and "O Morn of Beauty" by Sibelius-Matthews.

Present were Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt, Mrs. Buddy Moore, Mrs. H. B. Tandy, Mrs. S. M. Harvick, Mrs. Neal Hannah, Miss Eleanor Neal, Miss Frances Sprawls, Mrs. Vic Pierce, Mrs. Hillery Phillips, Mrs. R. J. Adams, Mrs. Ernest Dunlap, and Mrs. Perner and Mrs. Nesrsta.

MORE DUCKS THIS YEAR

Texans will have an opportunity to shoot at from 20 to 30 per cent more ducks this year than last, according to surveys by state and federal biologists. The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service biologists who travel the flyways from far north to as far south as Cuba estimate there will be from 20 to 30 per cent more migratory waterfowl in the Lone Star state this year.

There were a large number of ducks and geese in Texas, especially on the coast, last year, but poor hunting weather held down the total kill. Sportsmen are fervently hoping for colder weather this year.

Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Nesrsta returned the first of the week from San Angelo where Dr. Nesrsta underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis.

Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Childers and Mrs. Lowell Littleton spent Monday and Tuesday in San Antonio.

Better To Light A Candle

There's an old saying about the dark that takes on a new meaning now that such great darkness has descended upon the world.

"Better to light a candle," it says, "than to rail at the dark." Better to do the small things that you and I, as women can do in our own homes—our own communities—our own towns—than to sit and moan because we can't make a speech to the whole world or help draw up the laws in Washington.

Representative democracy, like any other desirable thing, begins at home. And that is where your influence is supreme; where you set the pattern and determine the atmosphere. Teach your children respect for other individuals and their opinions. Teach them the meaning of justice and tolerance and teach them discipline by insisting on obedience to reasonable authority. If this kind of teaching was given in several million homes the future of America would be assured.

And what can you do in your community. You can help to get people of all ages and outlooks and nationalities together in projects of community interest. You can learn to understand those whose background has been different from your own and thereby thwart the plans of those who hope to "divide and conquer." You can study the American way at your club meetings and read the Bill of Rights and the Constitution of the United States.

When they come to your town, you can urge motion picture theatres to show films that dramatize the American way of life. You can encourage radio programs that unfold the great history of this country and make clear the possibilities of its future. You can go to town meetings and councils, to Parent-Teacher Associations and women's club meetings.

Above all you can take your belief in democracy into the occupation of your day—as firm in your conviction of its importance as near days who looked into each day's sunset uncertain of what the sunrise would bring except that it would carry with it another day of freedom!

San Marcos Wool Scouring Plant to Install Mill

First Complete Wool Mill In Texas To Make Blankets

AUSTIN, Tex., October 30.—

The Texas industrialization movement received further impetus today with the announcement that the Cen-Tex Wool and Mohair Company of San Marcos will install a complete operating wool mill in connection with their wool scouring plant.

Cleve Rea and L. B. Rea, officers of the company, made a report to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel on the development. The Governor has been following the negotiations with much interest and his industrial staff here has been assisting in the project.

The Texas concern has purchased the entire plant of the Huntington Woolen Mills, Inc., of Huntington, Indiana, and the equipment will be moved to San Marcos immediately.

The Cen-Tex Company plans to make virgin all-wool blankets. The Indiana mill has a four-set equipment for manufacturing blankets, garments, and suiting. It turns out about 250 blankets a shift.

"This will be the first complete mill of its kind in Texas," the announcement said, "capable of handling raw wool through all the processes from sorting, grading, scouring, spinning, and weaving into cloth or woolens."

It is estimated that 52 persons will be employed in the mill on an eight-hour basis.

Captain H. M. Elder, procurement and planning officer of the Eighth Corps Area, United States Army, has surveyed the plant facilities. Interest has been expressed in having such a plant in this area in connection with the national defense program.

1940 RED CROSS POSTER

Pretty Martha Anderson, a Texas girl who has made a successful career as a model for photographers and artists in New York, posed for the 1940 Red Cross Poster, calling to all patriotic men and women to join the American Red Cross Chapter in their communities from November 11 to 30. Ray Morgan, a distinguished New York portrait and poster artist, created the design, which emphasizes the keynote that the Red Cross "serves humanity."

ed and oversubscribed, enabling the Red Cross to ship thousands of tons of food, clothing and medical supplies to the war zone where it has been most needed."

Differentiating from the needs of European war relief, the chairman stated that the Red Cross Roll Call is held each year to support the national and local Red Cross organizations in their domestic operations. Funds realized at Roll Call time, he explained, will not be used for war relief, but to enable the Red Cross to continue its day-to-day operations in disaster relief, first aid, life saving, nursing and its assistance to the United States Military and other programs.

A chorus from the Ozona Music Club presented two songs on the Fine Arts program Friday night and pupils of the seventh grade represented the Junior high choir on the fine arts program Saturday afternoon, presenting "Ballad for Americans" under direction of Mrs. I. Sellers Moore. This number made a tremendous hit with the audience and was an exemplification of the Loyalty Crusade being undertaken by the clubs. Also representing Ozona was a group of Latin-American Junior Club members, "Los Troubadores," who presented a program.

A highlight of the convention was an address by Mrs. R. E. Wendland of Temple, state president, at a luncheon at noon Saturday. Mrs. Wendland pointed out the economic, mental, social, moral and spiritual virtues of music. She told of the federal government's call to the National Federation of Music Clubs to uphold the spiritual life of America in these trying times, and of the adoption of the federation's theme for the year, "Building Up America's Cultural Deficiencies" as a result.

The club's principal objectives were outlined in a series of "Do's" presented by various chairmen during the convention sessions, including stressing folk music of America, studying Latin-American music, keeping in close touch with the legislatures, seeking to improve radio programs, stressing the patriotic pageant and music, and promoting music as a means of America's cultural development.

Mrs. Hillery Phillips, president, and Mrs. S. M. Harvink, delegate, were official representatives from the Ozona club. In addition, however, some dozen or more other members of the club, and twenty-five seventh grade pupils composing the chorus, teachers and visitors attended from here.
