Bonus, Royalty Dangled — Commissioners Court Ponders Lease Deal; Decide Wed.

The problem of whether to accept the bid of the Rodman Oil Co. of Odessa for oil, gas and mineral leases on lands owned by Crockett County for the purpose of pooling acreage in a unit with already drilled and with to be drilled.

The acreage involved includes ball park, known as Pool 1, and land adjoining it east and to the west and which includes the county barns and storage area, Little League park and a strip along the side of Fourteenth street, a total of approximately 40 acres, all lands owned county south of Fourteenth street, not including addition.

In addition, the bid is on all alleyways in Ozona north of Fourteenth street, the other lands owned county, including that on the courthouse and court annex are located, and the lands owned adjoining the west school teaching area, plus a few other lands owned by the county, for 105.51 additional acres.

The acreage total on lands described in a recent legal publication in this newspaper is 105.51 acres and Rodman and associates propose to pay the county $9,491.00 as bonus on the lease, plus the royalty share in royalty from any producing wells which the lands will be for drilling units.

The county understood and agreed to well may now or hereafter drilled on any lands described herein which, at this date, are within the townsite of Ozona, Texas.

The reassuring provision in the sample standard producers 88 with pooling agreement, which was submitted by Mr. Rodman's bid for the commissioners court's study. "We would like to point out that we have already drilled and completed a Canyon Sand gas well in the east half of Section 1, Block OP," Mr. Rodman pointed out in a letter accompanying his bid. "As you know, this well is located approximately 150 feet south of the city dump. Should we be awarded these leases, it is our intention to pool as much of this acreage as possible, in a unit with this well. We expect to start selling gas from this well in the near future."

The gas fields around Ozona are set up by the Railroad Commission for 320 acre units, or one gas well to each 320 acres of land. Proration allowable will be based on 320-acre units, less acreage resulting in lower allowable production. The well mentioned by Mr. Rodman, with which county land will be pooled, is so spaced that nearly all of the 40 acres south of Fourteenth street would be included in this unit and the county could share in the royalty payments from what is described as a prolific gas well in earlier reports.

Whether or not the balance of the county acreage will ever be pooled into a unit will depend on the ruling of the Railroad Commission. Mr. Rodman told the court. It will form a grid through privately owned lots and the Commission will have to rule on whether or not such acreage can be used for pooling purposes. However, Rodman has assured the court that he will lease such acreage and pay the bid price, whether or not it will ever benefit him for pooling with nearby wells.

Summed up, the court is faced

Teachers Complete Modern Math Course

Elementary, Junior High and a few high school teachers in the Ozona Public schools finished an extension course from the University of Texas in modern math this week with their last scheduled three-hour class at the high school cafeteria.

The class, which got underway last fall, has met every other Tuesday for the school term ending this week.

The course, which was designed for elementary teachers, was to acquaint teachers with changes in math or arithmetic text books coming year after next and to give teachers a much deeper understanding as to what the aims of the new program will be.

Some elements of the new math concepts of understanding are already in use in high school algebra and will be extended into elementary grades all over the state within the next 24 months.

By Margin Of Seven Votes, Crockett Voters Approve Ozona Civic Center

The Vote By Boxes:

| AGAINST | 42 | 22 | 64 | 17 | 1 | 2 | 15 | 10 | 173 |

Town vote, margin 30 for. Out of town margin 15 against. Absentee margin, 8 against.

By a thin margin of seven votes, Crockett county taxpaying voters Saturday approved the issuance of $125,000 in county bonds for the purpose of building a civic center in Ozona on land to be donated for the purpose by public spirited ranchman Dick Henderson.

A total of 353 voters went to the polls in a slow-moving election, an estimated less than half the voters eligible to cast a ballot on the issue.

Those who cast their ballots in the four boxes within the Ozona town limits favored the bond issue by a margin of 30 votes, while the three out-of-town boxes were opposed by a margin of 15. Of the 12 absentee ballots cast, 10 were against the issue and only two favored.

The vote will make possible the early construction of a civic center building which will be available for club meetings, conventions, entertainments, parties etc. One of the earliest convention uses foreseen for the new building will be the annual Spring Conference of the Sixth District P. T. A. to be held in Ozona next year. Facilities of the building will relieve the schools and churches from the burden of having to provide space for every sizable gathering of people for any purpose.

Completion of the building will be several months away. The procedures from here on will be in the hands of the Commissioners Court and lot of moves have to be made by that body before a contract can be awarded.

The court will probably canvass the election returns at its next meeting and declares the bonds approved. It will then start the processes by which the bonds are to be approved by the attorney general, and printed, then advertised for sale and bids taken on sale of the bonds.

Meanwhile employment of an architect, drawing and approving of plans and specifications and finally advertising for and receiving bids from contractors for the actual construction of the building will be pursued by the Commissioners Court. Construction can possibly begin sometime this summer.

Jack McDermitt, San Angelo architect, volunteered his services in assisting the steering committee in formulating tentative plans for the civic center building, arriving at cost estimates on which to base request for the bond election. Mr. McDermitt drew an outside elevation drawing and a floor plan sketch for use of the committee in its planning. Whether or not he is selected to draw final plans for the building will be up to the Commissioners Court.

Boys Invited To Meet To Form Pony League

All boys 13 through 16 years of age are invited to attend a meeting Tuesday night at Powell athletic field starting at 7 o'clock p. m.

Purpose of the meeting is to look over material and discuss plans for possible organization of a Pony League if enough boys of the age group are interested.

Plans for the league organization are being made by Ray Boyd and Byron Stuart and boys interested may contact either of these men before the meeting, or after, should it not be possible for them to attend the meeting.

Boyd and Stuart plan to canvass boys of the Pony and Teen League ages to see whether or not enough boys are interested in either or both age groups to form one or more teams. If teams can be formed, they plan to try to match games this summer with similar teams in area towns.

Financial Drive For Hiway Signs Launched By C. C.

$2,000 Goal Sought To Erect Signs Directing Thru Traffic

An ambitious program for erecting signs along US Highway 290 directing traffic east to the federal highway as the shortest and fastest route to Austin and points east, and smaller signs of direction and invitation to visit Ozona, is soon to be undertaken by Ozona and other towns along the highway under the leadership of Chambers of Commerce.

A meeting of interested members and citizens generally has been called by the Ozona Chamber of Commerce for 9:15 Friday morning at the Chamber office when plans will be made for a financial campaign and discussion of sign wording and location will follow.

Most important of the projects the one in which six towns along 290 are cooperating, is the construction of one large sign and two teaser signs urging "straight ahead" on U. S. 290 at the junction of State Highway 29 and 290 west of Sheffield.

Cost of this part of the program is estimated to be $2,500. Of this amount, Ozona, Sonora, Junction and Fredericksburg have pledged $500 each, with Sheffield and Harper agreeing to put up the additional $500.

Ozona Chamber plans to expand the sign idea and erect several other signs along highways in and out of Ozona. Signs extending a "Welcome" to Ozona and other proclaiming such advice as "Follow 290 All the Way to Ozona", or "Stay a Little Longer in Ozona", or "Welcome to Ozona Country", or "Ozona - Shortest Route to South Texas, the Valley, Old Mexico." Other signs would give the distance to Ozona in hours away so travelers might measure the time and plan to stop in Ozona.

Frank Hildebrand, from the state tourism bureau in Austin, told a local gathering that signs such as these suggested would be worth as much economically to a town as a $100,000 payroll.

A financial goal of $2,000 has been set by the chamber to finance its part of the U. S. Highway 290 cooperative sign and to secure the smaller signs referring to Ozona, which would be financed entirely with local contributed funds.

11 Athletes To Represent Ozona In Regional Meet

Coaches Chick Womack and Sonny Cleere will take eleven Ozona track men to Lubbock today to compete in the regional track meet which will be held in that city this weekend.

The Lions will probably be without the services of David Childress who qualified in the high hurdles and who was scheduled to run a leg of the mile relay.

The mile relay and the pole vault were the Lions' best hopes of sending a man to the state meet in Austin next week and at the moment neither possibility looks too bright even though Mahon has the ability if things break right for him.

Eldorado will rate a good chance of taking the regional title with their excellent 440 relay, mile relay and 100 and 220-dash entries.

Eldorado will rate particularly strong chances in the 220 and the 440 relay and could probably get points in the open 440 if they chose to enter.

Iraan, with four first places in the field events, could score some points but the presence of Howard Van Loon of Rotan just about precludes the chances of Rankin winning either the shot or the discus, though they could get second in both events if Jerry McDonald has as good a day as he had here at the district meet. Brave entries in the broad jump and the high jump are good but may not be good enough to qualify for the state meet.

If Childress does not enter track he will go to the golf team which won second in district. The Lion golfers have a good bit of ability but have not had the benefit of much work this spring with coach Brooks Dozier in the hospital.

The addition of Childress should strengthen the team which will be accompanied to Lubbock by Swede Peito.

15-Year-Old Is Sent To Boys Ranch After Theft Of Truck Here

A 15-year-old boy from another state, who told officers he was one of 15 children, in a family, was sent to the Boys Ranch near Amarillo after his arrest here last week charged with theft of a loaded milk truck from downtown Ozona.

The truck belonged to John W. Walker, Borden distributor here, and was later recovered about 35 miles west of Ozona where it had run out of gas. Pursuing officers nabbed the lad just before he was about to be picked up by a passing motorist who had stopped at his signal.

DOWN THE ROAD TO DISASTER

Considering the source, no one should have been surprised at Senator J. William Fulbright's Senate speech March 25 urging that we get on with our appeasement of Communism and forget the "myth" that Communism is a monolithic conspiracy to destroy the free world.

We can start, the Senator thinks, by accepting his notion that the USSR is no longer "totally and implacably hostile to the West," and "has shown a new willingness to enter mutually advantageous arrangements with the West, and thus far, at least, to honor them." We should strike a balance, in other words, between a few months of soft soap and nearly half a century of case-hardened perfidy.

We must also "overcome the myth that trade with Communist countries is a compact with the Devil," and also quit annoying our allies about boycotting Cuba. In fact, we should consider Cuba as Fidel Castro's and the hell with it — and with all the slaves behind the Iron Curtain, as well.

Apparently hearing no roars of displeasure from the White House, but on the contrary a cooling of agreement from Secretary of State Rusk — whose perch he may have designs on — Senator Fulbright has chosen to sound off again. Abandoning the sanctuary of the Senate for the lectern at Chapel Hill, N. C., he has now scolded us for our "morbid" concern over being buried by Khrushchev, for imposing some confidence in our military — even to the extent of thinking they know their business. He thought Congress was being pretty offhand about it, too. But, so far as our reports indicate, he did not discuss Secretary McNamara's attitude toward the military. We gather that the Senator thinks the troops should help President Johnson fight the "War on Poverty." And this, incidentally, they are going to do. Wait and see.

The second installment of the Fulbright "Road to Disaster" show seems to have been unfolded this week with announcement of the "agreement" between the U. S. and Russia to limit the production of nuclear materials. Seems the administration is hell bent on taking us down that road to total disarmament and helpless surrender before November.

It appears that there are those who are not impressed with President Johnson's frugality. Despite the prideful claim of paring White House kilowatts, chairman Harry F. Byrd of the Senate Finance Committee is on the fiscal warpath.

In an interview with Willard Edwards of the Chicago Tribune the Sentaors says that at the halfway point in his analysis of the first Johnson budget, he has found $4.8 billion in wasteful spending. He also said: "The danger of inflation has been enhanced by the tax cut. People are going to wake up to the fact that, instead of income tax refunds next year, they're going to owe the government more money."

And US News and World Report advises that government spending in the first three Johnson months, $24.3 billion exceeded that of the same period in any year in US history.

Oh well, there's still the telephone bill at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

HE WILL NOT "FADE AWAY"

General of the Army Douglas MacArthur will be remembered for the qualities and capabilities that placed him among the world's greatest military leaders and tacticians — and made him unique as the only American field commander in chief ever to be removed from command in the midst of a war he was fighting.

But he may be remembered even longer and more remorsefully for the foresight that was rejected by the fat cats in Washington who were, even then adjusting to a new US foreign policy of appeasement, made to order for us in London, Paris — and in Moscow.

In France in 1917 and 1918, where he rose from major to brigadier general, Douglas MacArthur won the accolade of "greatest frontline general" from Secretary of War Newton D. Baker. After his next war, he was described by Lord Alanbrooke, chairman of the British Chiefs of Staff as "the greatest general and best strategist that the war (WWII) has produced."

As the architect of modern, democratic, postwar Japan, the services of General MacArthur in reshaping a shattered enemy nation and setting it upon a constructive course — to which it has held — demonstrated a statesmanship and administrative and diplomatic genius no less inspiring than his gallantry in action. Undoubtedly the sense of history and of geopolitics he revealed in Tokyo, together with his soldier's conviction that: "In war there is no substitute for victory," prepared the way for his removal.

Everyone who was reading the newspapers in the days of the unequal Korean struggle recalls that General MacArthur, chafing under UN restrictions, sought vainly to be allowed to pursue the Red Chinese across the Yalu River into their "privileged sanctuary," and, with the aid of Chiang Kaishek's Nationalist troops subdue the military aspirations of Communist China.

As Douglas MacArthur died, Chiang's forces were still immobilized by US policy, and American soldiers were dying in South Vietnam, while the Red Chinese were sneering at Khrushchev's "peaceful coexistence" and demanding Western blood.

We mourn our loss — as we should have since April 11, 1951.

Disarmament is like a Hollywood party. No one wants to get there until the others have arrived." — Chewah (Wash.) Independent

NO CIVIL RIGHTS CAMOUFLAGE

What of those anticipated amendments to the Civil Rights bill — for which the Senate waits as we write? Whether there are 70, as Senate Minority Leader Dirksen (known to the press gallery as the "Wizard of Ooze") first promised, or merely the 15 he later said he would offer; whether in the promised rewriting, he seeks to water them down or oil them up, the purpose can only be appeasement.

But, whether the House-passed bill is as good as some insist, or as bad as seasoned Constitutional lawyers in both House and Senate have said, it is time to pause and reflect that there is no compromise with infinity.

From where we sit, we see nothing good in a bill that cynically and shamelessly exploits emotional and explosive issues as a cover for the executive power grab it really is. As six distinguished legislative experts, members of the House Judiciary Committee who declared this measure unconstitutional, said in their minority report, the Civil Rights bill "vests almost unlimited authority in the President and his appointees to do whatever they desire."

There is no virtue in a bill that masquerades as humanitarian when its true purpose is to regiment all Americans — of all colors, all creeds, all national origins. There is no point in modifying particular sections of this eleven "Title" omnibus to oblivion. To soften the seats will not change the destination. To vote for a bill because it is a little less bad than its original form sheds no luster on any Senator.

As the dissenters in the House Judiciary Committee have said: "In all the years Congress has pondered the equities of civil rights legislation, no committee has ever suggested for the executive such totality of power as is embodied in this package of legislation. Grant it, and our fire-ball of liberty will spin into darkness, suffocate. For our Republic cannot live without breath and the breath of our Republic is personal liberty and personal responsibility."

As the rose is beyond man's perfuming, and the lily above gilding, so is the Civil Rights bill beyond deodorizing. The only course for the patriots of the Senate is to talk it to death.

WORKING
GOD

Every gardener knows human ingenuity cannot be substituted for the miracle of growth. God's secret is God's!

But he knows, too, that wild growth means wilderness. Only cultivation makes a garden.

So he works with God. And the result is beauty, fruitfulness, abundance.

What the man with the green thumb practices in his back yard, the Church inspires across the whole expanse of human effort . . . the cultivation of souls . . . the realization of our spiritual potential. Working with God!

What do YOU think life is meant to be?

Wilderness? Or the Garden of God?

Join us at Church next Sunday!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Ozona High School can be proud of its achievement in its extra-curricular activities. This week-end, over 60 students will travel to Lubbock to represent Ozona in regional competition; in contests varying from agriculture to athletic events. These students will compose five separate teams which include track, golf, volleyball, FFA, and literary events. Several students are members of more than one team and will compete in several different events in Lubbock.

To achieve the distinction of qualifying for the regional meet in these various events, students are required to work diligently and prepare themselves toward this goal; also, not to be forgotten is the invaluable assistance rendered by the coaches and teachers of OHS. Truly, Ozona can be proud of its school, its students, and its teachers.

Screwworm Discovery In Val Verde County Brings Quick Action

Discovery of a screwworm case in Val Verde County, on Hudson county, has prompted eradication workers to issue an urgent appeal to livestock producers in this and adjacent counties to inspect their animals, treat infestations and wounds, collect samples from infested wounds, and report them to the County Agent immediately.

Eradication Program officials have moved quickly to prevent additional cases from developing and spreading to other parts of the county or State. Livestock in the infested area are being sprayed by inspectors at Program expense, and sterile flies are being dispersed by airplane near the infested premise.

County Agent Pete W. Jacoby has urged livestock producers throughout the county to be alert for infestations. When an infestation is located, producers should collect 10 or more of the larvae from deep within the center of the wound and place them in a collection kit or a bottle of water or alcohol. This sample should immediately be taken to the County Agent or vocational agriculture teacher or mailed direct to Box 969, Mission, Texas.

TEXAS HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT EXPANDS ANTI-LITTER CAMPAIGN

The Texas Highway Department has added two new methods to its continuing anti-litter campaign: a cartoon character printed on its Official Highway Travel Map and revised highway signs reminding drivers they can be fined from $10 to $200 for littering. The cartoon character, "The Litter Longhorn," pleads with the public to "Help Stomp Out Litter." The sign emphasizes that it is against the state law to litter. In 1962 the Highway Department had to spend $1.4 million to pick up litter, an increase of about a hundred thousand dollars over 1961.

McLendon Says Rights Bill Would Deny Many Rights Of Citizens

Gordon McLendon concentrated his fire on the pending civil rights bill in the waning days of his campaign for the Demo nomination for U. S. Senator.

He followed a schedule designed to reach, through personal contact and communications media, the greatest possible number of voters before the May 2 primary. His itinerary calls for thousands of miles of travel in all sections of the State by plane and helicopter.

"My opposition to the bill being debated in the Senate actually is a crusade for civil rights," he declared. "I'm not in favor of denying any of our citizens the rights granted them by the Constitution, but I am against the passage of this bill because certain sections of it threaten the civil rights of all citizens. Those provisions would deny everyone, regardless of race or national origin, the rights of trial by jury and deprive us all of control over our property

Ellenburger Discovery Indicated In Crockett

An Ellenburger discovery was indicated in Crockett County with the recovery of oil and gas on a drillstem test at Broseco Corp., Fort Worth, No. 1 J. W. Robbins, in Nancy E. Everett survey No. 24, Abst. 5478, unidentified prospect, 8 1/2 miles southeast of McCamey and four miles northeast of the Tippet multipay field.

Recovery was 1,400 feet of gas in the drillpipe, 280 feet of 30 gravity oil, 180 feet of oil-and-gas-cut mud, and 220 feet of drilling mud, no water, on the 3 1/2-hour test taken between 8,200-72 feet.

Flowing pressure was 201-273 pounds; one hour initial and final shut-in pressure was 3,556 and 2,558 pounds, respectively.

The prospect, slated for 8,500 feet, was bottomed at 8,302 feet, taking another drillstem test.

Earlier it flowed gas at the maximum daily rate of 121,000 cubic feet and fluid, 85 per cent oil and 15 per cent salt water at the hourly rate of 40 barrels on a drillstem test between 6,746-61 feet in the detrial, previously identified as Devonian.

Comet...World's 100,000-Mile Durability Champion

At Daytona, a team of four specially equipped '64 Comets each traveled day and night 100,000 miles at over 105 miles per hour — an unequalled feat of stamina and durability.

In Africa, Comet showed its stamina again in "the wildest ride on earth" — the monsoon-swept East African Safari Rally. 94 cars started. Only 21 finished the run — two of them were Comets.

Leads the sales success parade!

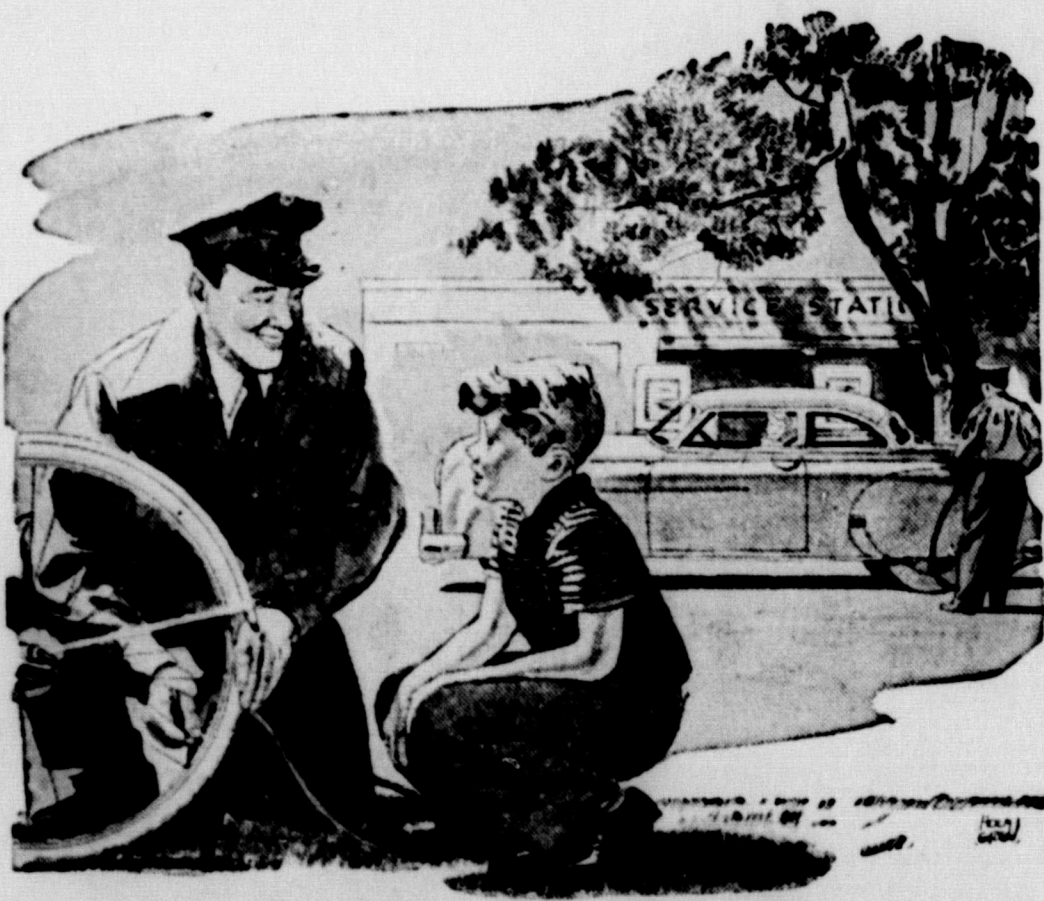

Is it any surprise that Comet sales are up to almost double last year's? Comet proves what it can do. After 100,000 miles at Daytona, another 31,000 and is still going strong. Then rally-equipped Comets slogged through 3,188 miles of African mud, rocks and jungle — the first to carry America's colors in the world's toughest car event. Want more reasons? Just take a look at this new Comet. Husky, racy, beautiful, and built, really built. Make tracks for a Comet at your Mercury dealer's.

Eldorado Wins First Ozona Second In Dist. 8A Literary Meet Here

The district 8-A literary meet was staged in Ozona for the first time in a good number of years last week with the host Ozona team finishing second in the day's proceedings.

Eldorado, a school which, along with Rankin, has been entering large teams each year, finished well ahead of the pack with a point total of 157 compared to Ozona's 97 and 86 for Big Lake.

Keith Mitchell led the small Ozona team which made up lack of size with a great deal of ability and along with Joel Huff, Susan Lewis, Cathy Miller, Janice Walker, Janet McAllister, Dude Melton, Richard Ross and Linda Leath ran up a lot of points in comparison to the number of entries other schools made.

The meet was staged principally in the educational wing of First Baptist Church, with over 200 visiting students taking part in the numerous events which ranged from 5th and 6th grade story telling to ready writing.

The Ozona team scored first places in science, extemporaneous speaking for boys, argumentative speech, declamation for girls, second places in ready writing, extemporaneous speaking for boy and a third place in extemporaneous speaking for girls.

Despite the number of entries, the meet rolled along smoothly as its directors J. A. Pelto and Hack Leath and their staff ran the contests off on time.

Judges for the event came from Howard Payne at Brownwood and were Dr. and Mrs. McDonald H. Held, a brother and sister in law of John Held, and Dr. Alex Reeve, both of the speech and drama department of Howard Payne College.

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS

WTU is proud to be a part of your community

PAYROLLS

... sparkplug for economic growth

Payrolls pay off when new manufacturing industry begins operation in a town. Memphis, population 3500, is a good example. Pictured above is the Hall Plant, a unit of Burlington Industries, famous textile manufacturers. It brought a payroll to this Texas Panhandle town for more than 100 employees, mostly women, and has become an important addition to the local economy.

National studies show that payrolls, which come from 100 basic new jobs in a community, add 100 more homes such as the total electric Gold Medallion home pictured left... increase retail sales by $331,000 annually... create three new retail establishments... bring 359 new people including 91 school children... and add 97 more car registrations.

This is another PATTERN FOR PROGRESS.

American industry is on the move... expanding, relocating, and establishing new product facilities all over the Nation. Here is another opportunity for communities to seek new manufacturing payrolls. WTU suggests that every community give serious consideration to this opportunity, since payrolls are, as we have seen, a sparkplug for economic development and growth.

Winning three classes in the Mobil Economy Run is easy if you have a great transmission.

Table with 3 columns: CLASS C*, CLASS D*, CLASS G*. Rows list Buick models and their miles per gallon. Buick Special V-6 (25.29), Buick Special V-8 (23.74), Buick LeSabre (21.36) are circled.

Buick has a great transmission.

An automobile transmission, we grant you, isn't the most soul-stirring subject on earth. Nothing to look at either.

But if you'd like for your next new car to give you a better break on performance and gasoline mileage, something happened last week to be your guide.

The Los Angeles to New York Mobil Economy Run proved one thing for sure. There's a quite a difference in the transmissions of new cars.

Three out of four for Buick

The long-time champion in the transmission league—Buick—walked off with the 1964 economy pennant. No other single make of car won as many events as Buick. Four entries, three winners.

The winning Special carried the new Super Turbine 300 automatic transmission; the LeSabre was equipped with the Super Turbine 400 (both optional at extra cost). They're the latest in a long line of Buick transmissions well known for their smoothness and absence of "shift feel". The Super Turbine is a refined and improved torque converter type to help you safely pass cars and trucks as well as gas stations. You'll hear a lot about it in the next couple of years as this modern kind of transmission is adopted by more and more car builders.

What about engines?

Of course, an efficient transmission gets more efficient when teamed up with a lean, agile engine. The winning Buick power plants were our new V-6 and V-8.

The 300 cubic inch V-8 in the winning Buick Special (the lowest priced of all Buicks) and the Buick LeSabre (the lowest priced big Buick) is like a well-conditioned fighter. All muscle, no fat. Weighs in at far less than other V-8's of similar punch. It took every other V-8 in the Economy Run.

Your type of driving—regular gas The Run was through cities and towns, across super highways, in traffic, out of traffic. This was not race track driving or proving ground driving. This was your kind of driving—even though you can't expect to get as good mileage as these expert drivers in their finely tuned production cars. The distance was 3,243 miles, about what most families log in four months. All three Buicks used regular gas. So the Economy Run is not just a cross country tour for the Mobil people and a few car buffs. It's a reliable test of a car's power team and what it's able to squeeze out of its fuel.

We don't expect everybody to rush out this week-end to buy a new Buick just because we won a few economy trophies. There are so many other good reasons for leaning to Buick that economy usually gets second billing. There's styling, naturally. An unusually great ride. Extraordinary engineering and workmanship. And very young performance. Small wonder Buick sales are running at 11.5% over last year.

But it's nice to get economy as a plus in a Buick. Beyond the dollars saved on gasoline, there's a certain pride in knowing you have a car that's built to get the most out of every tank of gasoline.

with the problem of deciding whether or not to accept a $9,491 bonus for the lease, plus a possible interest in a producing gas well, plus the prospect of possible inclusion of more of its lands in still other wells which are to be drilled near the townsite.

The court has been informed that the wells with which the county acreage (and some of the privately owned lands within the city) is to be pooled, are to be drilled whether or not the townsite acres, including county lands, are included in the unit. The oil company's interest is in getting the full allowable for production from each well, and the 320-acre unit must be complete to get such full allowable.

The Commissioners and Judge Brock Jones will appreciate the opinions of citizens to help them in reaching a decision. On the face of it, it appears that refusing to make the lease would not stop the drilling of wells near town, and would sacrifice the $9,000-bonus and possible royalty income. There may be some bugs somewhere but they are not presently visible.

Joe Couch, Crockett ranchman suffered scratches and bruises when he was forced to bail out of his Scout pickup Tuesday when the vehicle plunged into a caliche pit after going out of control with a stuck accelerator. The pickup did not turn over and was not extensively damaged, and Couch's injuries were not serious.

Regional Meet —

Big Lake won the district title by a rather comfortable margin, but had the home links advantage, and that they will not have at Lubbock. It is, of course, doubtful if the home advantage could have accounted for as much difference as there was between the two clubs at the district level meeting and it will take a good bit of improvement over that performance for the team to even place at the Lubbock meet.

Making the trip to Lubbock on the track team will be Mike Walters, Joel Huff, Rodney Stewart, Beto Ramoz, Darrel Maney, Billy Carson, Scott Mahon, Leroy Cooper, Bob Amthor, George Cox and David Childress.

The golf team will carry Geo. Kyle, David Jacoby, Doug Moore and David Childress, with Wyn Saunders the alternate.
