Maintenance Of Ozona - Del Rio Road Is Sought

Crockett and Val Verde Delegations To Austin On January 23

A delegation of Crockett and Val Verde county officials and citizens will appear before the Texas Highway commission at its meeting in Austin Monday, January 23, for the purpose of presenting these counties' claim for state maintenance of the Ozona-Comstock road, designated a state highway two years ago.

A memorandum to the state highway commission asking that that body carry out its order for maintenance of the highway was passed by the commissioners court in session here this week and members of the court and interested citizens of this county, joined by county officials and citizens of Val Verde have asked the commission for a hearing at its meeting January 23.

The state highway commission passed an order in January, 1937, designating the Ozona-Comstock road as a state highway, an extension of highway 163 from Barnhart through Ozona to connect with highway 3 east and west through Comstock. The order provided for state maintenance of the route until such time as it may be paved and was conditioned on Crockett and Val Verde counties providing a 100-foot right-of-way without cost to the state.

Right-of-way has been secured by both counties and the state notified of their compliance, but to date the state has not taken over maintenance of the highway.

ONE THING and THEN ANOTHER

By FRED GIPSON

SAN ANGELO.—It's a clear, cold, moonlight night and a tinge of white frost is already fringing the straggling leaves that have fallen on the sidewalk since it was swept. I'm ambuling along, headed for my room, but taking time to kick at a leaf once in awhile like a man will who likes to kick leaves as he ambles along. It's Sunday night, and I hear preaching and singing going on inside the church I'm passing.

Just then, I happen to look up in a tree overhead. And there, sitting on a limb, framed by the rising moon back of him, is a big old possum. He's sitting just as still and looking toward the lighted church windows, like maybe he's wondering what on earth all the commotion is about on the inside.

And I just can't keep from stopping and thinking how natural that old possum looks sitting up in a tree like that and how many I've crawled up a tree after as a kid. Only, of course, I've never found one listening to preaching before.

Right off, then, my mind sets in to back-trail itself, hitting a fast pace over this and around that until it finally pulls up at a point where me and the Little Brother are just old knobby-kneed, overgrown boys with nothing on our minds but hound dogs and hunting.

And again, it's a cold, moonlight night, with frost tinging the leaves. And me and the Little Brother and one of the Gerisch boys are deep into the post-oak and blackjack country north of Mason. And the two old hounds are sitting back on their tails with their noses in the air and telling the whole cockeyed world, with great vigor, that they've put something up a tree. And the six spotted pups of my old bitch hound are all sitting on their tails and telling the same story. Only, of course, the pups are lying. This is their first hunt and they're just along and don't have

1938 Rainfall Is Above Average of Eight-Year Period

22.47 Inches Recorded Here; July Wettest With 7.49 Inches

Bountiful rains the first seven months of 1938, and especially the seventh, the month of July, accounted for 90 per cent of the year's rainfall, but in spite of a comparatively dry last half, the year brought a total of 22.47 inches of moisture to go well over the average for the area.

The year's fall was over 3 1/2 inches more than an eight-year average, according to rain records kept at the Joe Oberkampff store here, and was over three inches more than the fall for the year 1937, when 19.38 inches of moisture was recorded.

July was by far the wettest month of the year, a total of 7.49 inches of rain having been recorded here in that month. The month brought torrential downpours throughout this area, the falls being much heavier in parts of the county than in the town of Ozona. Three heavy rains were recorded during the month, with moisture of one-tenth to a third of an inch showing on the record on four other occasions.

January, 1938, was the next wettest month, a total of 4.97 being recorded for the year's opening month. February brought but a half inch, and March only .4. April brought 1.86 inches of moisture and a dust storm followed by a norther which turned trees, shrubs and flowers previously in full foliage or flower to burned, withered stubs.

May and June were fairly wet months, with 2.58 inches in May and 2.43 in June. But the months of August, September, October, November and December combined accounted for only 2.27 inches, with November failing to scratch the ledger with enough moisture to record.

An eight-year record on file at Oberkampff's shows the following annual rainfall record here: 1931—19 inches; 1932—27.6 inches; 1933—8.14 inches; 1934—10.9 inches; 1935—27.3 inches; 1936—15.84 inches; 1937—19.38 inches; 1938—22.47 inches.

Six Defendants Pay Fines In J. P. Court On Variety Charges

Justice of the Peace W. M. Johnson had a couple of busy days in the courtroom the first of the week as six defendants filed before him to plead guilty to a variety of charges.

E. B. McDougall of McCamey was fined $1 and costs, totalling $14, on a charge of overloading a truck, filed by a highway patrolman.

Leonard Armentrout paid a similar fine on a bogus check charge filed by Mrs. Ben Lemmons. Allie, Leonard and Jake Armentrout all paid fines of $1 and costs on charges of drunkenness and disturbing the peace. Complaint was signed by Mike Couch, operator of a grocery and filling station west of the draw, where the disturbance is alleged to have taken place.

J. D. Leary was taxed a similar fine on a charge of petty theft in connection with theft of a quantity of barbecued meat from a pit back of the Piggly Wiggly store.

Well Drilling Cut From Range Program In 1939

Only Material Change Made In New Year's Soil Program

Payment for drilling of water wells under the range improvement program for 1939 has been eliminated by action of AAA officials, according to telegraphic advice received here this week by C. J. Van Zandt, county agent.

Water wells have been included among range improvement practices approved by the government the past two years, allowance being made on the basis of depth. It was at first announced to be continued in 1939 and a number of Crockett county ranchers had planned to allot their 1939 allowance for this type of improvement, the agent said.

Elimination of water well drilling is the only major change in the program for the new year, the agent reports. All other approved practices are to be allowed in 1939 and many prickly pear, lechuguilla, and cedar eradication projects are already under way in this county. Tank building and contour ridging and terracing are also practices that are being carried out extensively in this county.

All applications for payments under the 1938 program have been mailed to state headquarters, Mr. Van Zandt reported this week, and checks in payments are expected within a few days.

Mrs. Randy Chandler of San Angelo is visiting Mrs. Carl Colwick on the ranch near here this week.

Bank Employes Get Promotions In New Election

Littleton Made Cashier, Peters Active Vice President

Long and faithful service to the bank was rewarded by promotions for two employes of the Ozona National Bank in the election of officers at the annual meeting of stockholders and directors of the institution Tuesday.

Lowell Littleton, who has served the bank as assistant cashier for the past eleven years, was elevated to the position of cashier succeeding Scott Peters, who was raised to the post of active vice president, and re-elected a member of the board of directors. Mr. Peters has been associated with the bank for 19 years, coming here in the early part of 1920 to become its cashier. The promotion will make no change in administrative duties of the officers, it was announced.

W. E. West was re-elected chairman of the board and W. W. West, his son, president. Roy Henderson was named vice president, Morris Talley, L. D. Kirby and Miss Dolley Coates were named assistant cashiers.

All directors of the bank were re-elected at the annual meeting of stockholders. The directorate includes J. M. Baggett, P. L. Childers, Jr., Roy Henderson, Scott Peters, Massie West, W. E. West, and W. W. West.

James B. Nevins, pictured, this week resigned as instructor in band at the Ozona high school, and left immediately to take a similar post in Slaton high school. Mr. Nevins successor will be named in the next few days.

Nevins Quits As Band Director; No Successor Named

Local Instructor Takes Post With Schools at Slaton, Texas

The resignation of James B. Nevins, instructor in band and director of the high school band here since the opening of schools in the fall, was accepted by the school board this week.

Mr. Nevins resigned his position here to accept a similar post in the Slaton high school at an advance in salary. He left Tuesday for Slaton to assume his new duties with the opening of the second semester. He was elected by the Slaton school board after the director here had resigned to accept a position in the Borger schools.

A successor to Mr. Nevins had not been named this week, according to C. S. Denham, superintendent. However, several applications are on file and it is likely that the post will be filled by early next week, it was indicated.

Under Mr. Nevins' direction, the Ozona school band has made remarkable progress since the opening of schools, having now a membership of more than fifty. This is the first year the course in band has been offered as an affiliated credit in the local schools, and the plan is proving a big advantage to pupils interested in a musical education.

Cut In Valuation Of Autos Ordered By Commissioners

Cars To Be Rendered This Year At 25% Red Book Rate

"Red Book" valuation on automobiles and trucks for purposes of taxation, values followed in this county last year to result in loud and long groaning from taxpayers, will be heartily slashed in the coming year under action taken by the Commissioners Court in session here this week.

The court, in setting rates of values to be placed on taxable property, set the values to be fixed on automobiles and trucks at 25 per cent of the "Red Book" rate.

This was the only change in valuations ordered by the court, others being set in accordance with the rates in effect in this county for many years. Land is valued for tax purposes at $1.25 an acre, cattle at $10 a head, sheep at $2.25 a head; goats at $1 a head, saddle horses at $20 a head, and stock horses at $5 a head.

Mrs. Hubert Baker visited with Mrs. C. M. Kenley in San Angelo the first part of the week.

Drouth-Breaking Rains Brighten Ranch Prospects

Slow-Falling Soaker Is Welcomed; Total Here .95 Inches

Ranchmen of Crockett county and West Texas in general got one big worry off their minds for a while this week when rain, the life blood of the ranch industry, came in bountiful quantities to give range lands the most thorough soaking they have had since midsummer last year.

The rains came just in time to save many operators heavy feed bills, anticipated as necessary before lambing in the spring to insure a lamb crop had the drouth continued much longer.

Coming on the heels of the Christmas rains, which ranged from a quarter to an inch over a wide territory in this vicinity, the rains this week, falling slowly and soaking into the ground thoroughly, added the necessary moisture to bring some green feed to parched ranges in a short time and to assure early growth of feed in the spring.

The first real drouth-breaker came Saturday night and Sunday when rain fell slowly to average about an inch over the entire county. The fall here was recorded at .93 of an inch. Warm weather continued through Monday and Tuesday night the rains set in again to fall throughout the night and all day Wednesday to bring an additional total .95 of an inch moisture to the ground.

Although the rains fell slowly and soaked into the ground, there was an excess and many water holes, tanks, etc., dried or nearly dry from the six months of dry weather, were refilled, and stockmen can now look forward to the new year with brighter prospects than in many months.

Another Wildcat Test Staked On Noelke Ranch

Hanson & Anderson Of Abilene To Go 2000 Feet Deep

Location for another wildcat test for oil in Crockett county was staked during the past week when Hanson & Anderson of Abilene made location for a 2,000-foot test on the W. T. Noelke ranch in the northwestern part of the county. It will be 330 feet from the north, 2310 from the east line of section 30, block GG, HE&WT Ry. Co. survey, 4 1/2 miles southeast of the Yates field in Pecos county.

The wildcat will be about two miles upstream from a core test being drilled on the Noelke ranch by Moore Bros. of Midland.

Humble Oil and Refining Co.'s deep test being drilled on the O. B. Trap Co. land four miles south of Ozona, was spudded this week. The derrick was completed and equipment moved in the past week. The well is scheduled to go to a depth of 8,000 and possibly 10,000 feet to test the Ordovician.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Pierce will leave Friday for a week's stay in Mineral Wells.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

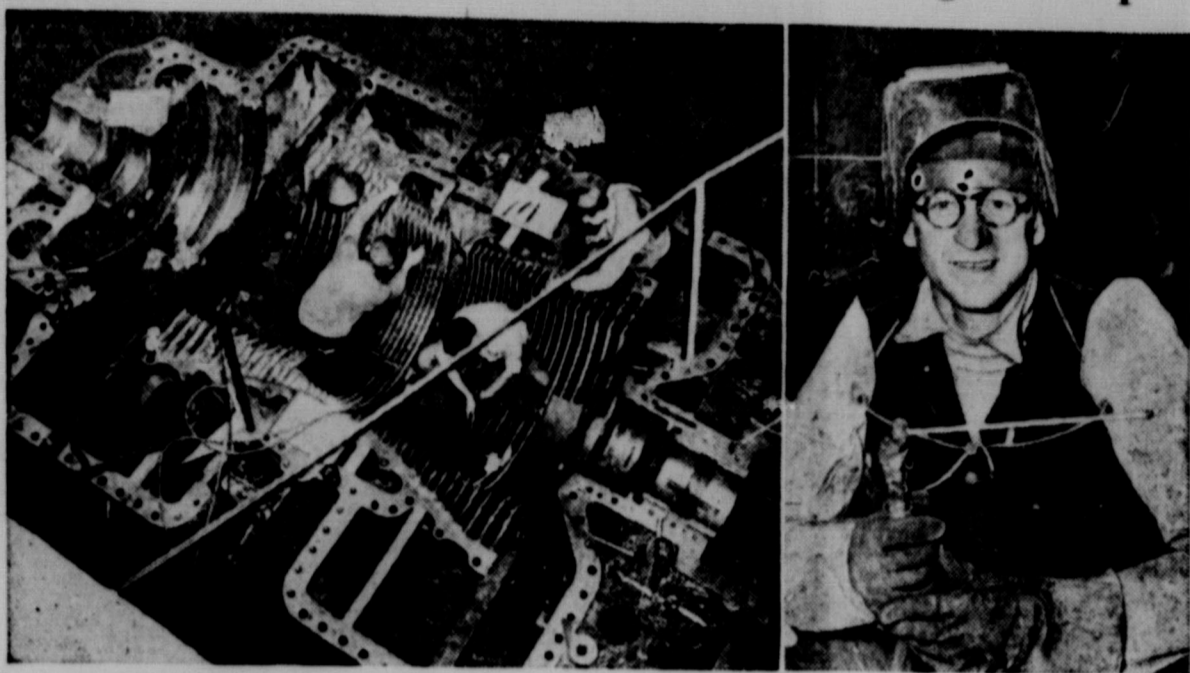

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—BUSINESS.—The New Year tumult and confusion of industry have recorded their predictions for 1939, and the business world settles down to these forecasts come true. It is tackling the job with a vengeance, too, as evidenced by a 20 per cent rise in steel production during the past week. This means the nation's mills are turning out twice as much steel a year ago. In the retailing field, surveys disclose that women are buying 10 per cent more dresses and suits than they did a year, with costume suits in vogue. Colors leading the parade during the first three months of the new year sales of bathtubs, ranges and other plumbing and heating equipment will run 25 per cent ahead of 1938, according to the estimates.

WASHINGTON.—On the surface of 30 per cent increase in national defense expenditures asked for in the new Roosevelt budget appears staggering. Transposed against the cost of war preparations in Germany, Italy and Russia, however, the recommended amount is relatively modest. In Germany's per capita cost of national defense approximated $17, Italy's $22, Russia's $17, and Uncle Sam's $7. If we spend, as the president suggests, $1,319,558,000 on national defense in the fiscal year 1940, our costs will rise from an average of $7 to $10 for each inhabitant. Looked at in still another way, the United States spent in 1936 about 10 per cent of its treasury receipts for national defense, whereas Italy used 25 per cent of her revenues for that purpose, Russia 22 per cent, and Germany 27 per cent. The increased outlay should be noted since 1936 the other countries mentioned have steadily increased the percentage of their income going into armaments.

U. S. GOES NUTTY—Peanuts can't be sold at the New York and San Francisco world fairs, according to recent reports by the fair authorities. But evidently they are sold in plenty of other places. The peanut industry brings to light some facts. For instance, in 1938 there were 1,887,000 acres in the U. S. planted to peanuts, and a total of 1,424,825,000 pounds were produced, or 11 pounds for each man, woman and child in the country and the largest yield on record. Value of the crop to the farmer was over $50,000,000. With the aid of modern chemical research, the lowly peanut has proven its usefulness in insulating material, as a base for fine face powder and as breakfast food, in addition to its more common appearance at circuses and ball games.

TRAVEL PICK-UP.—A sure harbinger of genuine business recovery is an improvement in vacation traffic. There's an old economic adage that when Mr. and Mrs. America begin to spend vacation money, prosperity cannot be far behind. Such a trend has been reported from Miami, Florida, where reports on early season arrival of visitors indicates a 10 per cent increase over last year. The visitors will spend some $27,000,000, it is estimated, compared with $25,000,000 in the 1937-38 season, the previous peak. To prepare for this onrush Miami and the metropolitan area spent $21,500,000 last year for building, including the erection of 11 new hotels, 2,000 private homes, 46 apartment houses, a huge ice skating rink, a midjet auto racing track, the metropolitan area's third horse racing track and its ninth golf

Kind Man Saves Cats Who Stalk Roosting Birds

MORAN, Texas.—A bird one day was flying around Moran looking for a place to roost. It spied the West Texas Utilities Company sub-station—not a very safe place for a bird to roost, but, to a bird, as good as any place. So it landed.

Other birds saw it there, and soon many birds were roosting on the steel framework of the sub-station.

What makes it a story is that the house cats around town got wind of this roosting place, cats having quite a fancy for birds.

But a substation, according to L. L. Walker, local manager for the utilities company here, is an even more unsafe place for cats than for birds. He bases his statement on the fact that in the course of time he found the remains of five cats in the sub-station, five bits of fur flying on the ground.

They, he relates, made the mistake of ignoring the "danger" sign and brushing against a 13,000-volt conductor.

To protect the cats who unwisely hunted the birds which roost in a sub-station, Mr. Walker installed "cold" wires around corner posts and blocked all entrances.

Now, he reports, the birds are roosting in peace. The cats? Well, maybe they are cussing the utilities.

UNCLAIMED BANK CASH TO PROFIT CONNECTICUT

HARTFORD, Conn.—Connecticut has a fund of nearly $200,000 which it is anxious and willing to distribute to owners of the money—if they can be located.

But more than 30 years have passed since the proprietors of the money have been heard from. And when the time period reaches 40 years, the money will all go into the general fund of the state for good.

Under state law, the Connecticut banks must turn over to the state treasurer's office unclaimed deposits which have been "inactive" for 30 years.

There are more than 4,500 accounts in Connecticut which have been "inactive" during the past 30 years.

any more idea than a bull bat what it's all about. But they aim to do their part to help out, so they point their noses at the moon and bawl, too. They think it's a heap of fun.

We set fire to the fallen top of a dead blackjack and get to looking, and pretty quick the Little Brother claims he sees a 'possum's eyes, shining like a couple of mesquite coals up in the top of the tree. So I grab hold of a bottom limb and start climbing up. But I don't get far, when the Gerisch kid sings out:

"It ain't no 'possum! It's a 'coon! 'N he's coming out!"

And, sure enough, out of the top of that tree jumps an old he-coon, big as a fattening hog. And he squalls when he quits the tree. And he squalls when he hits the ground. And the big dogs pile on him and then start helping him squall. And the fool pups—they don't know any better, and pile on, too. And then their squalls drown out all the rest.

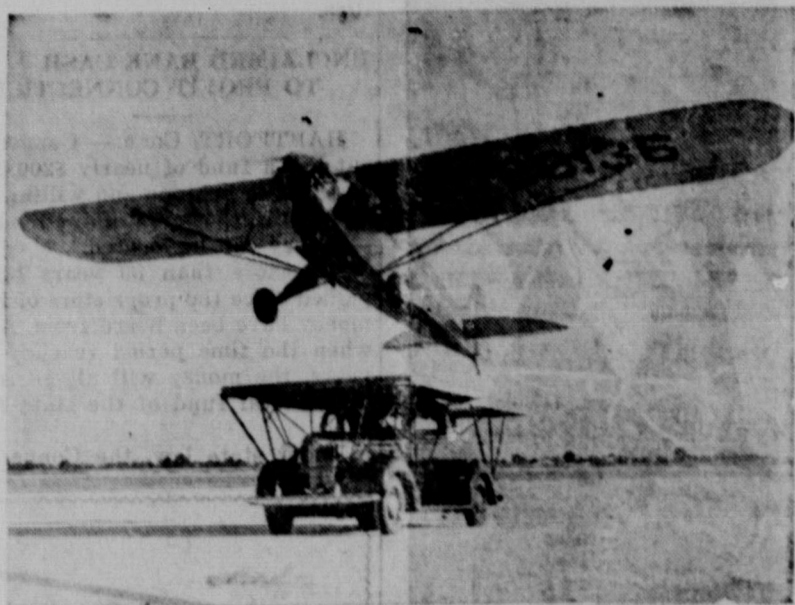

And a dead limb up in the tree breaks with me and I lose some hide and clothes on the way down, to land flat of my back right in the middle of the fight.

And a dog sets his hind foot in my mouth and shoves. And the 'coon sets a hind foot against my ear and pushes. And I roll over and try to get to my feet, but can't on account of the 'coons' hunting more altitude to do battle in and waltzes right up my backbone, clawing hunks of hide out of my back as he does it, and doesn't more than get perched on the back of my neck when one dog hits me from one side and another from the other side, and I'm knocked down under the scrap again, and the pups are gnawing my ankles and growling their worst.

Those pups are gritty little devils. Well, of course, I finally come out from under it, else I wouldn't be here writing this story. But then, what with all the leg-chewing and ear-biting and hide-shaking and squalling and twisting and clawing and squirming that's taking place, it looks n'gthy doubtful whether I'll ever get out all in one piece and live to amount to anything afterward.

That old he-coon's a salty devil. He whips out me and the old dogs and sends the pups yelling for cover, with their tails tucked tight between their hind legs. And by that time, he's plenty riled and has made up his mind to more blood and carnage and pitches into the Little Brother and the Gerisch boy, aiming to clean their paws, too, before leaving out. And the Little Brother gets excited and lams him over the head with an axe and that finishes the fight, but for having to pack home half the pups what are whimpering and bleeding, too.

Cute Trick, But Don't Try It!

Army, navy and marine corps pilots will participate in the eleventh annual All-American air maneuvers opened last Friday at Miami, Mass. flights from Mexico and Cuba, an industrial aircraft exhibit and stunt flying are features of the meet. turn up to travel.

About that time, I'm aware that the singing and praying is all over in the church and people are coming out to stand and stare at me while I stand and stare at the 'possum up in the tree while he's sitting and staring at them. So I amble on off down the sidewalk, kicking at the frost-tinged leaves.

SCW Girls Add To Honors Heaped On Little Davy O'Brien

DENTON, Jan. 11.—Short, stocky Davy O'Brien scored again this week as 2700 Texas girls decried the traditional feminine preference for tall, dark and handsome men to name him their favorite football star in the Southwestern conference. Third annual conference taken by students at Texas State College for Women gave Little Davy a strong lead over his closest runner-up, Dick Todd of A. and M.

Along with the rest of the nation, the girls seem to have a weakness for passing quarterbacks, and their first football hero was singing Sammy Baugh, now one of the highest paid professional players. Last year Joe Rountt, all-American left guard from A. and M., was selected, but this year they came back to T. C. U.

Davy and his coach, Dutch Meyer, will be invited to visit the campus for presentation of awards by the Lass-O, student weekly newspaper.

Women Help Choose Refrigerator Style

How the decisions of a "jury of women" passing on the styling of the new 1939 Servel Electrolux refrigerator aided in giving it even greater beauty than the models of previous years was told by Joe Oberkamp, where the new models are now on display.

As a way of determining just what the average housewife herself expects from a refrigerator both from the standpoint of beauty and service, Louis Ruthenburg, president of Servel, Inc., introduced several years ago the idea of empanelling juries of women to collaborate with the company as part of its policy to improve its product from year to year, it was stated. Thus, the role of these juries has been an important factor in giving to the refrigerator that liveliness in appearance which has led other women all over the country to call Servel Electrolux the best looking refrigerator of them all, the local dealer declared.

In describing the manner in which the juries of women are selected, how they deliberate, and how they come to their conclusions, Mr. Oberkamp stated: "A design is first created by a famous industrialist artist, from which a sample model is built. Then the jury, consisting of typical housewives who conduct their household either with or without a maid is formed.

"Looking in at one of these groups of homemakers that constitute a typical jury we would see them perhaps playing bridge preliminarily to beginning their functions as jurors. As many as thirty women are invited to the party. Two women at a time are asked to go to an adjoining room to inspect the new sample refrigerator

Sugar Cane Harvesting Is Modernized

Pretty Jeannette Peltier, Cajun miss of the Bayou Teche in the Evangeline country, Louisiana, helps her father get his sugar cane to the warehouse. In sharp contrast to the old manner of harvesting cane is the new Thomson machine. Screws straighten the cane so that rotating knives can lop off the tops. It then cuts the cane with a three-inch speed blade saw at its bottom. The tops of the cane are sent through the chute. The harvester cuts about 20 tons per hour.

SCOUTING

In Concho Valley Council

News Notes From Troops In West Texas Area

BALLINGER.—The second annual First Aid contest for the Ballinger district Boy Scouts was held at the city hall in Ballinger on Saturday morning, January 7. The contest was won by troop 30 of Ballinger, who will represent the Ballinger district at the area-wide competition to be held in Del Rio on January 28.

Executive Board Meeting. The executive board of the Concho Valley Council met in the St. Angelus hotel with representatives from several of the districts present. The audit for 1938 was presented and adopted. The audit showed the council to be operating within the budget.

The program for the annual meeting was presented and adopted. Field Executive L. M. R. Rogers was promoted to assistant executive. The council president was directed to appoint a delegation for the annual regional meeting tor along side of which is the model of the previous year.

"This two-by-two visit continues until the entire group has had an opportunity to pass upon the new sample after careful examination of all its new features in comparison with those of the other model. When every one at the party has seen the exhibit, a vote is taken to indicate their choice. If the vote is close, an entirely new jury is empanelled to give a final verdict."

on February 3 and 4.

Reports of district executive were made by Roy Aldwell of Sonora for the Ranch district; B. L. Hughes of Brady for the Brady district, and John Bishop of Mertzon for Irion county.

The applicants for the position of field executive to take the place formerly held by Fred Isely were reviewed, but no selection was made pending further information on some of the applicants.

Annual Banquet. The annual banquet for the Concho Valley Council has been scheduled for Friday, Jan. 20 at 6:30 p. m. in the St. Angelus hotel, San Angelo. The banquet will be preceded by a business meeting of the council where the officials will adopt the program and budget for 1939. The Scoutmasters and commissioners will exchange experiences in the Scout leaders' round table conducted by Area Commissioner Robert Carr.

Committees making preparation for the various phases of the banquet are: Program committee, H. C. Grafa, Dr. W. H. Elkins and Ed Blanton of San Angelo; Silver Beaver committee, Roy Aldwell, Sonora, B. L. Hughes, Brady, E. K. Fawcett Del Rio, George Baker, Fort Stockton and Houston Harte of San Angelo. ties visited by the national commander of the American Legion will act as Guards of Honor Aides to the commander and the other Legion officials during the activities, according to Ed Riedel, chairman civic service. The national commander will speak at San Angelo on Friday, January 13, and at Del Rio and Carrizo Springs on Saturday, Jan. 14. Scout leaders are busy selecting their best Scouts to take care of this affair.

STRONG MAN ACT COSTS AUSTRALIAN PHONE FIRM

BRISBANE.—The local telephone company is suffering a loss of property as the result of strong man staff that started when Count von Luckner, commander of a wartime sea raider, visited Australia and demonstrated his ability to tear a telephone book into many pieces.

Australians dislike having an inferiority complex forced upon them and started tearing the telephone books themselves. To date the telephone company has had to replace as high as 300 books in a single district.

POLE, HOOK BURGLAR FISHERS FOR HANDBAGS

MONTREAL.—One burglar in this city has added a pole and hook to his tools of trade.

The last three times one couple have had company for supper at their home, the guests' handbags disappeared from a bedroom adjoining the dining room. The windows of the house are about 1 1/2 stories above ground, there was no evidence that anyone had entered the room, and the manner in which thefts were carried out caused a mystery.

The mystery was cleared when the hook from the burglar's pole was found on the floor of the bedroom.

HABITS

We form our characters slowly. Neither a bad nor a good habit can be formed in a day, for habits are made up of many threads, each thread representing a small act, and they are all wound together into a cable, making one habit. And habits are as strong as the cable. The best way to guard one's self against bad habits is to form good ones in their places at the beginning; for once a bad habit is formed, it is very difficult to break it. A habit of courtesy is formed by one's being courteous at all times. Each day, habits govern our lives. We do things and act a certain way because we are in a habit of doing them that way. We might say that we are used to having a band lesson at 8 o'clock. It has become a habit, and we feel at loss without it. When we first return to school from our Christmas holidays, we found it hard to settle down to work. But after a few days, after we are again in the habit of going to school, we go along easier. Just things of the tremendous influence habits have on our lives.

IT IS HARD TO TELL WHO WAS SHOT

By Bernice Green
A duel was once fought in Texas, says "Facts and Fancies," between Alexander Shott and John Nott. Nott was shot and Shott was not, according to circumstantial evidence. But as many remarked, it was better to be Shott than Nott. There was a rumor that Nott was not shot, but Shott avowed that he shot Nott, which proves either that the shot Shott shot at Nott was not shot, or that Nott was shot notwithstanding. It was made to appear at the trial that he shot Shott shot Nott or, as accidents with firearms are frequent, it might have been possible that the shot Shott shot Shott himself and Shott would be shot and Nott would not. It appeared to some that the shot Shott shot, not Shott, but Nott and to others that Shott was shot by Nott. Anyway, it is hard to tell who was shot.

BIRTHDAYS FOR THIS WEEK

Those people celebrating a birthday this week were born to be travelers. In each life there will be some stage work. The celebrities have brilliant minds and will become great people if they will use their talents wisely. These pupils will probably follow the professions, becoming doctors or lawyers. The following people celebrate birthdays this week: Carl Thurman, Opal Outbrot, W. C. Stock and Billie Gene Linthicum.

Schedule For Second Semester Announced

School To Close May 19

As we draw near the end of the first semester of this school year, a busy second term faces us.

The first semester examinations begin Wednesday, January 11, and continue through the following Friday. Then we all shall have another chance to begin again, for the next Monday starts a new semester; and those who have failed during the first term can start afresh, striving a little harder to do their work more satisfactorily.

During the first part of the second semester, interested and capable students begin their Interscholastic League assignments. Work is continued through March 10, the date of the preliminaries. Those who win there continue until March 24, the date of the county meet, and so on through the district meet, which is set for April 14 and 15, regional meet, and finally state meet.

Our annual basketball tournament has been set for Jan. 27 and 28. Coach White reports that the tournament trophies have arrived and that basketball teams from approximately 30 towns have received invitations to our tournament. Our own team has a very busy schedule facing it, for it plays two league games a week and plans to compete in numerous basketball tournaments in neighboring towns.

March 2 is Independence Day. Since this day falls on Thursday, it is supposed that a holiday will be taken the following Friday.

The Manual Training and Home Economics departments will participate with the grade school in a school fair, and exhibit of the year's work, May 8.

The senior class will take their final examinations May 11 and 12. Sunday, May 14, is Baccalaureate Sunday; May 18 or 19, is the high school commencement, according to the date that the speaker finds most convenient to be present.

The regular final examinations will fall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 15, 16 and 17. The seventh grade commencement is May 17, and the report cards will be ready for the pupils at 8 o'clock on Friday morning.

Thus winds up another school year.

THE ADVENTURES OF OZZIE

His Bluff Is Called

The Prowler

Drake and Lemmons

Beecher has been having a little trouble lately. Have you seen it straightened out yet, Beecher?

Tommye, where were you on Friday night?

Ozona was well represented in the basketball game Saturday night in Sonora. I wonder if you went to see the ball game or something else could have been the reason?

Mary Bess, who was your first Sunday night?

Posey, did you have a real time Friday night?

These freshmen girls are small little children. They walk with the upper classmen get the grade Result: The freshmen girls are picked up by the boys and the upper classmen ride by themselves.

Betty Lou and Mary Bess were entertaining three friends for the new oil well the past weekend. Who were the boys, girls? They don't have any sisters about 16 do they?

Shorty and Ella really stepped out last week. What time did you step in?

J. K., who were you trying to make a date with last Friday night about 12:15 a. m.?

Mary Frances W., you have a very neat way of getting the car when you want it. How do you do it?

Mertis, do you like white cars? The reason I asked, was you seemed to be thrilled Saturday night riding in one.

Joe C., it was a good thing you came home when you did, because Frances B. was beginning to think you had forgotten all about Ozona.

Bernice, the girls might go one to Iraan, and you can see "HIT" them.

Toots got to go to the show, eat and drink all she wanted to Friday night. I bet its fun to win. What's the system, Toots?

THE VOICE OF EXPERIENCE

By A. SENIOR

Are you dressing for dinner? If he says "yes" then ask father, "Dinner coat, or tails?" And then you know whether to wear a day-cut dress, or a real evening one. One thing to remember is that it is entirely correct to ask a man these things. This might save the embarrassment on his part and yours, also. All such things should be thought about.

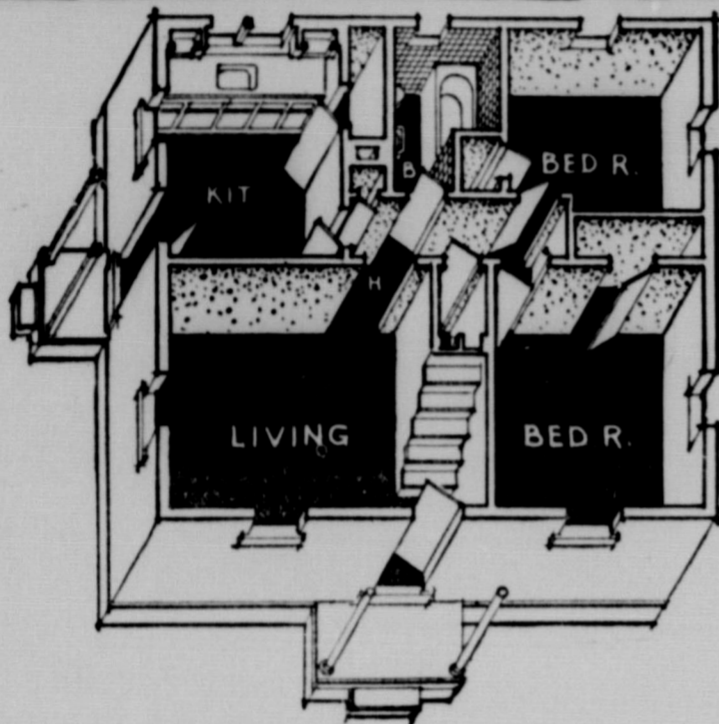

An Orchid To You

By Billie Jo West

An orchid to you basketball boys! You did unusually well on the games over the weekend. You may not be able to beat Eldorado (or Sonora) in football, but you can "lay them in the shade" in basketball.

Well-Planned Inexpensive Home

The Federal Housing Administration insured a mortgage for $2,500 on this cozy Connecticut home. Of frame clapboard, the home presents another example of a low-cost well-planned residence. The ample amortization period requires payments monthly of only $16.75. A high degree of privacy is afforded through the first-floor arrangement; easy access is possible to the bathroom from both bedrooms and living room.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q. We are planning to build a small house and don't want to build a basement immediately. However, we would like to fix the foundations so that one can be built later on. Can this be done satisfactorily?

A. It can be done, but there would not be much of a saving.

Q. How can I stop outside cellar doors from leaking?

A. The doors should fit well and should have a molding over the joint between the doors. Then a groove should be cut in the frame directly under the crack on the hinge side of the door to let any water that seeps through run out at the bottom of the frame. Even these precautions may not keep all water out. An absolutely water-tight cellar door is a rarity.

Q. Do storm vestibules really do enough good to make them pay?

A. Generally speaking, yes. If they are so built that the outside door can be closed before the inside door is opened, they do a great deal of good. The amount of heat loss through a front door is great and loss may be reduced by a vestibule.

Q. What size coal bin is required to hold 10 tons of coal?

A. A ton of coal will occupy about 45 cubic feet of space. Convenient storage of coal should be such that the depth is not over 4 1/2 feet; the size bin required for 10 tons would be 10 feet square.

Many Methods Available For Closet Lighting

Proper lighting for the closets in a home may be solved through selection from many available methods.

A ceiling light in a closet may have a pull chain or wall switch. There is always the danger, however, that this light may be forgotten and burn needlessly for hours. A switch outside the closet door may be equipped with a pilot light which glows red when the light in the closet is on.

A door switch which automatically turns the light in the closet on when the door is opened and turns it off when the door is closed is satisfactory.

Another arrangement is a light which burns for a stated time and then automatically turns off. This guards against wasted electricity.

stories and illustrations on methods and results in such activity. One magazine recently published a portfolio of such restored homes, one illustration showing a structure remodeled after 160 years of life.

Treatment of wings, gabled dormers, and porches, as well as the Victorian jig-saw elegance which sometimes left its mark on the homes, removed much of the undesirable appearance.

Nursery Annex Provides Space For Children

One of the most important rooms in a home for a family with children is the nursery. It should be light, airy, and designed so that it may be kept clean and satisfactory at all times.

A sleeping-porch annex to a nursery will increase greatly the health-promoting feature, as well as create welcome additional space. Such an addition should be plainly but cheerfully decorated. Walls done in light pastel paint or paper, woodwork painted deep cream, and a composition floor simulating natural-wood planking make an effective and efficient combination.

Wall-bracket lighting fixtures with shades will eliminate glare

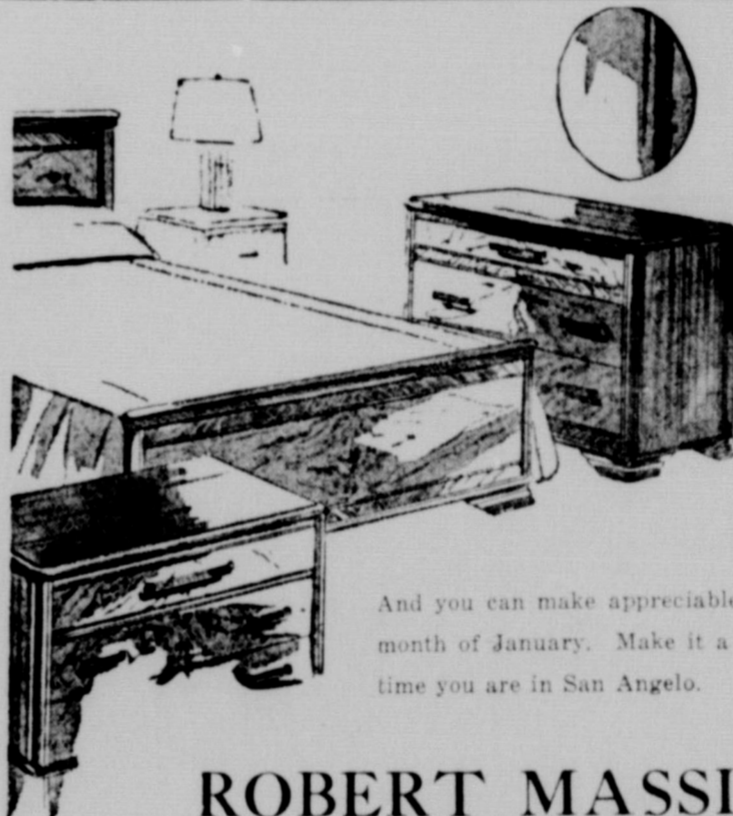

Three Factors Important To Low-Cost Home

Efficiency in planning, economic use of materials, and proper equipment are three important factors in the successful designing of a small low-priced dwelling, according to Federal Housing Administration officials.

It is suggested, where possible, that prospective home builders consult a competent architect and builder before embarking on the purchase of a home. In many cases disappointment may be avoided through such action.

In the small low-priced home every foot of needless space, every useless corner, every length of pipe, foot of lumber, and piece of brick that can be eliminated will mean economy. At the same time, efficiency and economy must not be obtained at the expense of substantial construction or by sacrificing the minimum standards of convenience and comfort.

Usually savings can be effected by making use of available standard materials, such as unit sizes of masonry, stock millwork, standard lengths of lumber and stock glass dimensions.

Johns-Manville Men Making Surveys Here For Home Insulation

A crew of experts on home insulation, representing the Johns-Manville Co., makers of Rock-Wool insulating material, are in Ozona for a stay of several weeks for the purpose of surveying insulation needs of Ozona homes and doing the insulation work.

The men H. E. Everitt, O. N. Leary and G. H. Tillinghast, all of the San Antonio retail and service branch of the company, arrived here early this week for the purpose of testing local interest in home insulating. They have made a number of surveys of homes and as soon as a few additional jobs are lined up, will bring full equipment here to do the work.

The rock wool insulation, an exclusive product of Johns-Manville, is blown into walls and attic by special machinery to form a four-inch blanket of fire-proof, non-conductive rock wool enclosing the house.

Joe Oberkampfs Buys Out Sonora Gas Distributors

Ozonan Is New Owner Of Ranchogas Co. Systems

A deal was completed last week by Joe Oberkampfs of Ozona for purchase of the Sonora firm known as Ranchogas Co., Inc., from its founders, E. D. Shurley, Sutton county ranchman, and Clayton Puckett, Pecos county rancher.

The deal includes tank systems at Sonora, Garden City, Sterling City, Eldorado, Rocksprings, Mertzon, Barnhart and Big Spring. It also includes a retail establishment in Sonora where gas appliances, stoves, refrigerators, washing machines, etc., are sold and where a service department is maintained. The Ranchogas Co., Inc., also operates plants in Alpine, Marfa and other towns west of the Pecos which were not included in the sale.

The newly acquired properties will be operated by Mr. Oberkampfs in connection with a similar business operated from his Ozona headquarters, with branches in most West Texas towns of the surrounding area.

The Sonora firm started operation in July, 1935, being established by the late J. J. Armour, formerly of Ozona and Del Rio. Mr. Armour later in the same year was joined by Messrs. Shurley and Puckett and the company was incorporated and removed from the Armour residence to a downtown business building where it is now located.

Doctors Lead Field In Feminine Preference

DENTON, Jan. 11.—Any 25-year-old young doctor about six feet tall and weighing around 180 pounds who would like a wave of immediate popularity should go immediately to the campus at Texas State College for Women, since the majority of girls there have judged such a person their ideal man for marriage.

Other specifications are that he must be a college graduate that he should have saved $1,000 before the fatal step, and that he should be making $25 a week at the very least. Lawyers, business men and engineers are runners-up in the collective TSCW preference, and 24, 26 and 23 are also considered acceptable ages. The girls themselves prefer to marry at the ages of 21, 23 or 20.

About one-third of the students plan to continue their professional work after marriage. All the girls want children, and the greatest number want four, with many voting for three and two.

Armstrong county was named for six Texas families of that name.

OUR PROFESSIONAL INTEGRITY

Is Represented in that Symbol

While Webster's Dictionary defines the symbol as a "Mark; used in a prescription to indicate that directions are to put on the medicine package," it has taken a different meaning in the eyes of the public. They have come to accept it as a mark indicating that only a person with professional training and great reliability shall compound the drugs called for in the prescription. We have adopted the last as our definition. Every prescription brought to our store will be filled according to the following precepts:

SAFE . . .
Only registered pharmacists fill your prescriptions . . . exercising the greatest possible care to compound them exactly as ordered by your doctor.

HONEST . . .
Only the highest quality chemicals will be used. Every care will be taken to see that these are fresh at all times. No substitutions will be permitted.

ECONOMICAL . . .
Only a price that is fair will be charged. Many prescriptions call for chemicals that are expensive and difficult to obtain . . . naturally they require a higher price. However, no prescription will be charged for at exorbitant rates.

We have appreciated the patronage of this community over the past years, and state this pledge to you as an indication of our future plans for the operation of this business.
