Kitty's Korner By Kitty Montgomery

A group of devoted fans followed the Cubs and Lions to Eldorado last Thursday night and almost froze to death while watching the two teams chalk up their fourth victory in spite of the fact that they had to play in the cold as well as the wind.

However, things warmed up considerably on the Ozona side of the field when the fans realized how things were going. Nobody in the stands missed seeing one of the Eldorado crew deliberately grab the face mask of one of the Cubs and throw him to the ground head-first with the officials looking on. Bascomb Cox was in very good voice with the rest of the fans joining in. However, he didn't change things down in the field at all.

In spite of the fact that the opposing teams were given every opportunity to score, the Cubs and Lions held their scoreless and completely disproved the theory that good guys always finish last.

The following is a true story. Names of the characters will not be mentioned to save embarrassment for the mother and to avoid giving the child another complex, or vice-versa.

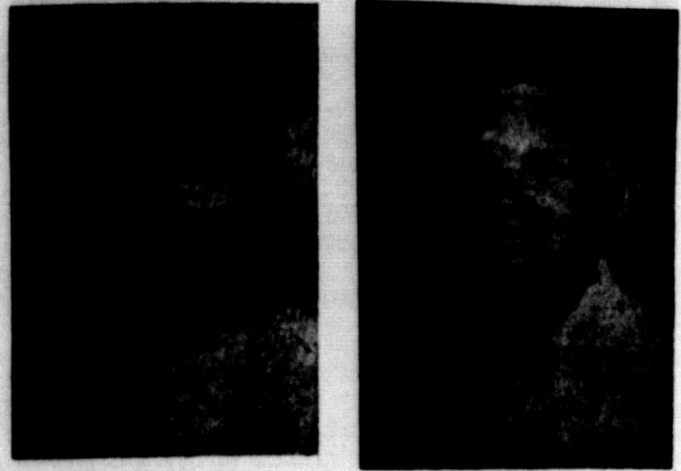

An eighth grade boy and his mother were discussing literature one night last week after football practice. Boy says, "Mother, my English teacher has lots of books in the back of the room and she said we could take any of them we liked home to read. She has several by that modern English author that you quote so often."

Mother looks puzzled. Boy says, "oh you know Mother, I can't think of his name but one of the titles is 'Lady's Name, it's pretty famous, I think.'"

The mother racks her brain for modern English author who has written something with a woman's name in the title and can't come up with the answer. Boy, disgusted with his mother's lack of knowledge, goes to his room with his book and a smug look on his face.

While the mother sits wondering how her physical fitness will ever get through English in college, indeed he ever gets to college, the boy returns. "I've got it Mother", he announces with a great deal of excitement, "the author is 'Lady's Name, it's pretty famous, I think.'"

Open house at junior high recently was really a great success. I don't know why hasn't been done before. Everyone seemed to enjoy it immensely. The crowd was a bit larger than the last PTA meeting too. I saw couples I had never seen out in public together before. I was amazed at the number of fathers present. After the teachers were introduced everyone went over to the junior high school building. All the fathers seemed to have something to discuss with Mrs. Oliver, the eighth grade English teacher and a petite blonde. They all lined up at the door. The mothers made their way upstairs to visit with Coach Mohler, new continued on Last Page)

Texas Deserves More Than Another 'Yes Man' In The Senate

After carefully examining the literature sent to my desk by both aspirants for the office of U. S. Senator from Texas, to be decided by Texans in the coming election, I have to go along with Democratic Leader of the Senate, Mike Mansfield, when he said of Senator Tower, "He has performed in a way which does credit to the Senate and himself."

I find that Senator Tower can stand on his record over the past six years. He has consistently voted in a manner representing the views of the majority of Texans. I find that he is vitally interested in expediting an honorable end to the war in Viet Nam. His concern lies with the lives of the American boys fighting there, rather than using the conflict as a political football. He passionately believes in the freedom of the individual to make his own choice, as shown when he had the determination to stand up and fight to defend section 14b of the Taft-Hartley law, preserving our state's Right-to-Work law and allowing a man to retain the right to either join or not join a labor union. At present he

Ozona Driller Is First Pre-Season Deer Casualty

B. G. Bilbrey, local oilfield driller, has the dubious honor of being Crockett County's first hunting casualty and is recuperating in the Crockett County Hospital from a gun-shot wound in the upper thigh.

In anticipation of the deer hunting season coming up Mr. Bilbrey was readying his 30-30 rifle for the hunt one night earlier this week when the gun jammed and in trying to get it loose, he accidentally shot himself in the fleshy part of the upper leg, narrowly missing the bone.

However, the accident didn't dim his enthusiasm in the least and he expects to be out of his hospital bed and ready when the first day of the deer hunting season dawns.

Cubs and Lions B Chalk Up Sixth Win At Eldorado

The Cubs and Lions B kept their unbeaten records intact Thursday night in Eldorado when the Cubs beat the Eagles 26-0 and the Lions took a 20-0 victory, over the Eagles the sixth straight victory for both teams and their second victory over the Eldorado duo. The first encounter ended with a 13-0 victory for the Cubs and 26-6 for the Lions.

Tonight the Cubs and Lions B will host Sonora. Earlier in the season both teams brought home victories from Sonora with the Cubs winning 20-0 and the Lions 16-6.

Thursday night Coach Wemack's Cubs took an easy win over the Eagles in spite of some severe penalties against the Cubs that put the Cub goal line at least twice in the game. The seemingly unwarranted penalties seemed to add fuel to the fired-up Cubs and each time they pushed their opponents back to mid-field where they took over on downs and completely dominated the ball both halves.

The Cubs first score came in the opening few minutes of the game when after holding Eldorado on downs the Cubs took over on their own 36 yard line and drove down to the Eagles 45 where Greg Stuart got loose and ran in for the touchdown. The try for conversion failed and it was the Cubs 6-0. The Cubs (Continued on Last Page)

Second-Slot Decider Probable In Friday Night Ozona-Rankin Clash

Graveside Services In Ozona Cemetery Today for Boyd Cox

After funeral services at 1 p. m. today from the Methodist Church in Rankin, graveside services will be held in Cedar Hill Cemetery in Ozona for Boyd R. Cox, 85, retired ranchman and oil man, who died Tuesday afternoon in the Rankin hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Cox was the husband of a native Ozonan, the former Lilly Perner sister of Mrs. W. R. Baggett, Mrs. Max Schneemann, Mrs. Roy Henderson and Mrs. Hugh Childress, Sr., and of Paul and Stephen Perner, all of Ozona.

Born Oct. 25 in 1881, in Bell County, Mr. Cox had been a West Texas resident most of his lifetime. He had resided in Rankin for the past 38 years. He was for many years livestock inspector for Upton county.

Surviving are the widow of Rankin; a brother, X. B. Cox Sr., of San Angelo; a sister, Mrs. Dove Slaven of San Antonio and several nieces and nephews.

Lions Breeze To Easy Victory At Sanderson

Ozona mauled the winless Sanderson Eagles last Friday night in Sanderson 48-0 as George Cox sputtered to 4 touchdowns while racking up 171 yards rushing in only 9 trips with the ball. After easily racing to a 39-0 advantage at halftime, Lion kicker Beto Ramos hit on 3 of 5 field goal attempts in an effort to hold the score down. Ramos' goals were from 27, 31, and 37 yards out.

The Lions first score came on the first play from scrimmage when Cox broke for 53 yards and the first score. The next time Ozona had the ball, on the first play again Cox went 46 yards for a score.

The third Ozona score came 7 minutes deep in the first quarter when Ramos went from the one. Just before the initial quarter ended, Cox got TD number 4 when he ran a pass interception back 43 yards. Following 3 of 5 1st quarters scores Ramos added the extra point. Sophomore Fleet Coates 29 yards for 6 points early in the second quarter, and (Continued on Last Page)

The Lions clash headon with the Rankin Red Devils tomorrow night when the big, experienced Red Devils invade Lion Stadium for what appears to be a battle for second in District 8A behind Sonora, who is apparently championship bound. Game time is 7:30 p. m.

Ranked second in pre-season polls, Rankin boasts 16 seniors on the squad with 9 scheduled to start against the Lions. The Red Devils forward wall is an all-senior line averaging over 180 lbs., the largest in the district.

Coach Sam Mosley's Lions themselves — although not starting a senior line — average 175 — and are ready physically.

son started, and the boys are ready to go," Mosley said of the Lion team. The Lions have been hampered all season with injuries.

Since the Sonora defeat, the Lions have racked up three straight wins, scoring 95 points against 7 for the opponents. A win over Rankin would give Ozona a 6-2 season record and an excellent shot at a second place finish in 8A. Following tomorrow's game, the Lions will have only Iran (there) and Eldorado (here) remaining on the 1966 schedule.

With seven games under the belts, the Lions have rushed for 1,822 yards (261 per game) and thrown for 220 yards (31 per game.) Leading the Lion rushers has been high scoring George Cox with 627 yards on 59 carries for a 10.6 average, higher than last year's average of 9.7. Thomas DeHoyos has rushed for 360 yards in 62 trips (5.8); Beto Ramos, 303 yards in 39 tries (6.2); Fleet Coates has 253 in 32 carries (7.6); and Jack Applewhite, 129 yards in 33 tries (3.9).

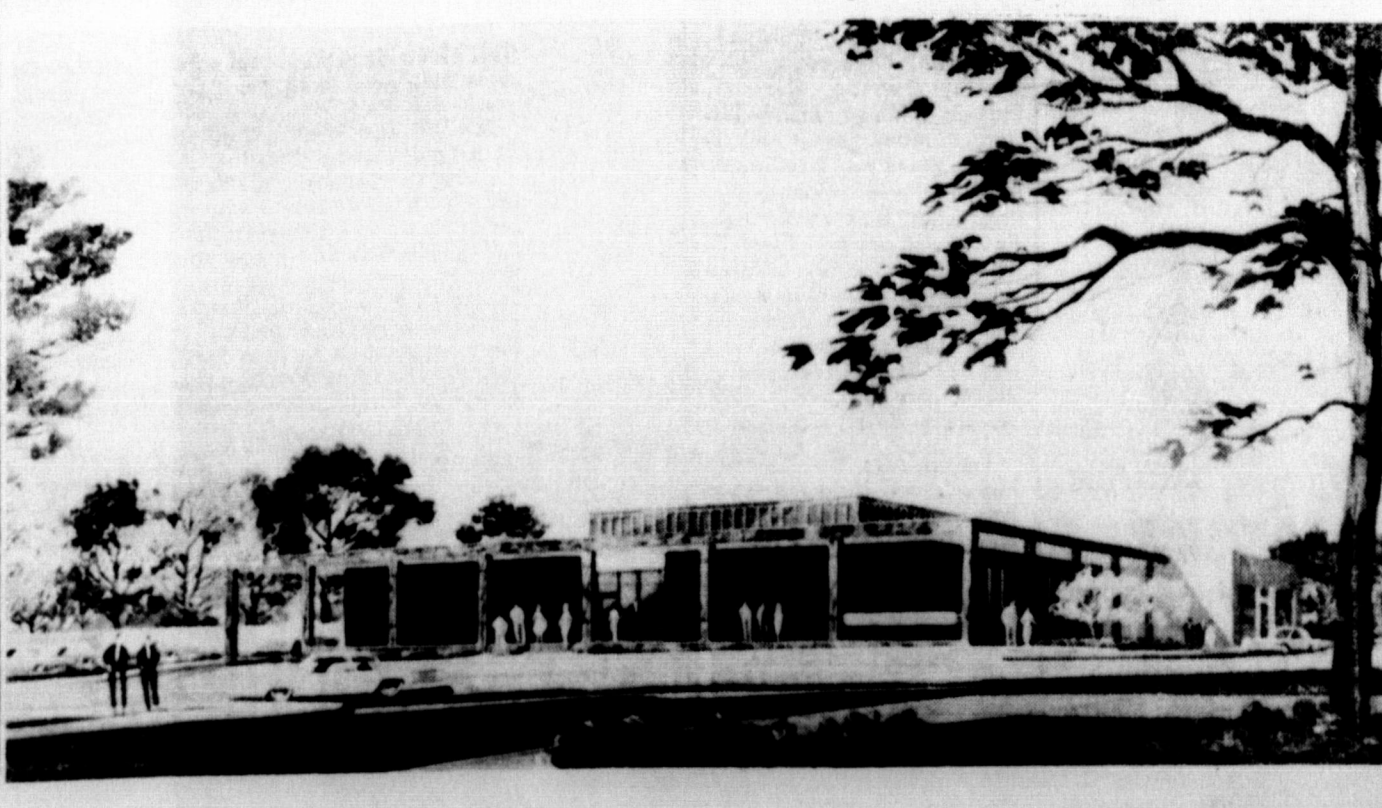

Cox leads the scoring with 60 points on 10 touchdowns while Ramos has 50 points on 5 TDs, 11 extra points, and 3 field goals. Coates, DeHoyos, Maney, T. DeHoyos, Randal Clepper, Oscar Flores, and Larry Kilgore each have a touchdown to their credit.

Grading of game films has revealed that linebacker Kilgore (54 tackles) and tackle Gary Sutton (53 tackles) lead the rugged Ozona defense. Other leading defensive men and tackle total include Flores (43); Applewhite, Johnny Barbee, Dwight Childress, and Wesley West (31 each); Ramos (25); J. DeHoyos (25); Coates (20); and Cox (18).

Against the heavy Rankin "11" Coach Mosley will start (offensively) Flores and Kilgore, ends; Sutton and West, tackles; Rex Bland and J. DeHoyos, guards; and Marlin Farris, center; Cox and Ramos, halfbacks; T. DeHoyos, fullback; and Clepper, quarterback.

Coming in on defensive will be Coates, Applewhite, and Childress.

Soon the New Look in Ozona Banking

Demolition of the two existing buildings now on the lot is expected to get under way soon to make room for the beautiful, modern banking home to be erected for the Ozona National Bank at the corner of Eleventh Street and Avenue D.

Above is the architect's drawing of the handsome building showing the east and north frontings. The parking lot and drive-in banking facilities will be at the south of the building, with entrances to the lobby on the east and north. The building shown adjoining the new bank is the present Stockman office building.

William E. Parrish of San Antonio is the architect. A big color drawing of the building is on display at the bank.

HAIDING THE ENEMY

Should "Americans" be permitted to send blood and money to the Viet Cong? That was the subject of hearings held last month in Washington by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

You remember what happened at the hearings. The Communists, their attorneys and their stooges organized raucous demonstrations in the hearing room and many were removed kicking and screaming by the U. S. Marshals.

Sworn testimony revealed that members and paid employees of the Progressive Labor Party, a group controlled by Red China, were the prime organizers of the campaigns to aid the Viet Cong and to prevent the movement of U. S. troops and supplies to Vietnam.

Congressman Pool, of Texas, has introduced a bill to outlaw such activities while the United States is involved in an armed conflict.

Spokesmen for the administration, including Deputy Attorney General Ramsey Clark, testified that existing laws cover these acts.

Carefully stir in:
2 eggs, well beaten

1/2 cup sharp cheese (grated)
1 tbsp. grated onion

Pour mixture into greased and floured 2-qt. casserole. Bake at 325 degrees about 45 minutes. Serve hot with meat and salad. Serves 8.

There are many recipes for green rice, but this is the fastest and easiest one I have found and the delightful part about it, it tastes just as good.

Northwest Ozona Field Area Gains Two New Producers

The Donham multipay gas field of Crockett County gained its second and third Grayburg producers with completion of two projects by Savage Oil Co., Midland, 15 miles northwest of Ozona.

The No. 1 Joe Bean-Shell Oil Co., one location east, was finalized for a calculated, absolute open flow of 430,000 cubic feet of gas per day through perforations at 1,118-84 feet.

Sited as a 1,600-foot San Andres lime wildcat, it was drilled to 1,334 feet, where 4 1/2-inch casing was set.

Location is 2,059 feet from the south and 467 feet from the west lines of 47-UV-GC&SF.

The No. 1 Southland Royalty, et al, one location north was finalized for a calculated, absolute open flow of 670,000 cubic feet of gas daily through perforations at 1,174-1,230 feet.

Location is 660 feet from the south and east lines of 56-UV-GC&SF.

had been acidized with 2,000 gallons and flushed with oil. Testing continued.

Humble Oil & Refining Co. will drill the No. 4-D Alma Cox as a 3/4-mile south and very slightly west stepout to the three-well Spraberry oil area of the Ozona, Northwest multipay field of Crockett County, three miles southwest of Ozona.

EDITORIAL

The United States is governed by adults; people twenty-one and over. Voting rights were set up for a purpose and should not be taken for granted. They were set up so that a person could choose leaders that best represent his ideas. We as young people must learn to recognize good qualities of a leader and practice them among ourselves.

Responsibility plays a big part in the world today. We should learn to accept small responsibilities while going through school. Sometime it is tempting to depend entirely too much on others that are known to be dependable.

Honesty is also a quality we must seek. It is often hard to find in some circumstances, but must be searched for continually. Do not give up.

As young people, we make many mistakes. It is our duty to recognize these mistakes, correct them, and never make the same one again! Experience should help all of us.

THE SINGING HEART

Have you ever met a singing heart?
 Upon a winter's day?
 A lilted heart so very light
 So tender, yet so gay?
 And as that singing heart went by
 You noticed something new
 Your heart which felt so very sad
 Was suddenly singing too?

TALK OF THE SCHOOL

What junior and senior girls pass time watching two ugly bugs fight?
 The Lions welcome two new students. Karen and Patsy Layland from Lovington, N. M.
 What's going on in short-hand? Seems the class roll gets smaller everyday. It is true Helen K. is scared of the chick of a typewriter?
 What is Jerry Lynn's new nickname?
 Gloria, what little songs did you make up to learn the vocabulary of "L'Allegro" and "El Pensero?"
 Patsy W. and Deborah M. did your little scheme backfire last Thursday afternoon? I guess it's true seniors are much wiser than juniors. Isn't that right Lenora F. and Kathy Mc?
 Hey Mr. Moody! How's life in grade school?
 We want to say hello to all the exes, and give a special hi to last year's "Lion's Roar" staff!
 Are the basketball girls really going through football fundamentals?
 OHS seems to have a quite a few absentees. Everybody, get well quick!
 Is it true Deborah M. has a fried freckle on her nose?

When Harry Armstrong was a struggling young tender, he became a sparring partner for the Heavyweight Champion, John L. Sullivan. Sullivan and Armstrong became very good friends. Armstrong, to express his happy feelings about life in the Sullivan camp, wrote a song especially for the camp. In no time, it became the theme song for the Sullivan camp and became popular over the nation. The song that made Armstrong famous was none other than "Sweet Adeline".

ALICE FROM DALLAS

By Joe Bob Stephens

I shall never forget the time I went to visit a friend in Dallas. When I arrived that afternoon, he told me he had fixed up a date for me. Rick didn't tell me much about my blind date except that she was the most talked about girl in Dallas. I didn't know he was talking about Alice from Dallas.

The next morning, we went to pick up the girls. First we picked up Rick's girl, and then we went to pick up Alice. When the door opened, I was never so shocked in all of my life. For there in the doorway stood the ugliest biggest, horriest girl I believe I have ever seen (and hope to ever see.) The only words I remember saying are "Excuse me, is Alice home?"

And then came the words I had hoped I wouldn't hear, "I'm Alice. At that very moment I realized what Rick meant when he said she was the most talked about girl in Dallas."

By this time I was so shocked I didn't know what to think. The best I can remember, she stood about six foot six (on her knees), and she had straight red hair that looked like she had tried to roll it on five gallon buckets. I let her go down the sidewalk first, because if she was to trip and fall, I didn't want to be in front of her.

Our plans called for a movie after lunch, but due to uncontrollable circumstances big Alice changed our plans. She was a great miniature golf fan, and she wanted to play a few rounds. There was never a more humorous sight than Alice trying to hit a golf ball with a three-foot golf club. By the time she finished one round of golf, it was six o'clock.

Alice could hardly wait until we got back to a restaurant. After a day like that with Alice from Dallas, I didn't feel like eating, so I just sat there watching my precious money go on its never ending journey in to the bottomless stomach of Old Iron Sides. By the time we talked her into stopping, she had consumed forty five pounds of beef steak, seventy five pounds of french fries, and eight loaves of bread. But that's not all, she also cherry pies and drank twenty gallons of tea.

I fell over in a dead faint when Alice said she had entered the beauty contest which was to be held that night. When I came to, Rick was sitting beside me in the city auditorium. All of the sudden the whole building began to shake with laughter for there on the stage stood Alice, and of all the things, she was modeling a homemade bikini. It was made out of a hammock and two beach umbrellas, (one was polka-dotted and the other one was striped.)

After we took Alice home, I had a friendly chat with Rick, and I caught the next plane home.

THERE GOES THE BELL!

The diller, the dollar, the ten o'clock scholar. Remember how the rhyme ended? Tardiness leads from bad to worse. The boy ended by sleeping until noon.

Often parents ask, "WHEN IS IT TIME TO BEGIN THE RELIGIOUS TRAINING OF OUR CHILD?" Here's a straight-forward answer: "THE MOMENT YOU BEGIN TO LOVE HIM!"

You see, God is love. And, in a home where God is loved, a child quickly begins to associate the love of his parents for him with this Other Love which is felt by those he loves. Then come Bible stories and pictures and a simple prayer to help him experience and express his growing faith. Soon he'll be starting Sunday School — but his religious training has already begun.

Our churches are helping tomorrow's parents equip themselves spiritually today. The couple planning marriage needs a mature religious faith. For when God has given us a little son or daughter . . . THERE GOES THE BELL!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
