WELL KNOWN HERE — Frio-Tex Oil Co. Head Killed In Airliner Crash

One of the 84 persons who died when a Braniff International Electra turboprop airliner exploded in a thunderstorm and crashed to earth near Dawson in East Texas last Friday was John Ray Kubitz, 35, president of Frio-Tex Oil & Gas Co., a frequent visitor to Ozona and well known to many here. Frio-Tex Oil & Gas Co., is one of the major developers of the natural gas production areas south and southwest of Ozona.

Mr. Kubitz had boarded the plane at Houston after transacting business there and visiting with his parents at Baytown. He was on his way to Dallas for a conference with an associate in the company.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning from Colonial Hills Methodist Church in San Antonio, where he was a member, with interment in Mission Burial Park North. Survivors include the widow of San Antonio; three children, Scot, 8, Annette, 11, and Allison, 2; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kubitz of Baytown, and a sister, Mrs. Carol Ann McDonald of London, England.

Frio-Tex acquired the Hunt ranch production area and developed other acreage in the prolific gas fields south of Ozona. Mr. Kubitz was a frequent visitor to Ozona in connection with his company operations. John Bohannon is Frio-Tex operations superintendent here.

Kubitz was literally born into the oil business, having been born in an oil camp in south Bexar County where his father worked.

After graduation from South San High School, he attended Texas A&M, where he graduated in 1955.

Kubitz rose through the ranks quickly, gaining experience with Tidewater Oil Co. at Houston and later as vice president of Pauley Petroleum Co. in Los Angeles.

He moved back to San Antonio last June to assume the presidency of Frio-Tex and its sister firm, Suburban Natural Gas Processing Corp.

Tippett Field Gains Confirmer

The Tippett, West multipay field of Crockett County gained its sixth lower Wolfcamp oil producer and a 3/4 mile southwest extension to that pay with completion of Shell Oil Co., Midland, No. 1-36 A m a c k e r Trust, 10 miles south of McCamey, for a calculated, daily flowing potential of 528 barrels of 40 gravity oil, plus 9 barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio of 1.826-1.

Potential was based on an actual eight-hour flow of 176 barrels of oil and three barrels of water through a 19-64-inch choke and perforations at 5,326-376 feet and 5,550-564 feet, which had been acidized with 2,200 gallons.

It tested the Leonard through perforations at 4,646-658 feet, which had been acidized with 1,500 gallons, making 13 barrels of oil in one hour on a 20-64-inch choke.

It was drilled to 6,000 feet and plugged back to 5,643 feet. Casing (5 1/2-inch) was set at 5,700 feet.

Location is 8.882 feet from the northeast and 660 feet from the southeast lines of 36-31-H&TC.

Parks Commission Invites Ozonans To Deed Presentation

Mrs. R. A. Harrell, Chairman of the Crockett County Historical Survey Committee, received an invitation this week for her and her committee to be on hand for the quarterly meeting of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission being held in Austin today.

The invitation was extended in a letter from J. R. Singleton, Executive Director of the department.

One of the subjects on the commission meeting agenda will concern Fort Lancaster and Mrs. Harrell and her committee were invited to be on hand for the official presentation of the deed conveying the fort site to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission.

Local residents in the path of the hail considered themselves lucky, however, after reading about the severe hailstorm at Iran which is reported to have inflicted an estimated half million dollars in property damage on that Pecos county town.

15 Crockett 4-H Members Qualify For State Meet

Crockett County 4-H Club members won a first and two second places in district 4-H competition last Saturday at Odessa to bring a total of fifteen 4-H members qualifying for state 4-H contests at Texas A&M University in June.

Nine members qualified at Odessa when the county 4-H senior entry in Share-The-Fun won first place and the senior grass judging team won second place. Members of the district winning Share-The-Fun group were Mary Francis Martinez, Sylvia Vitela, Melissa Zapata, Socorro Rodriguez and Debbie Valadez. Grass team members were Don Edger- ten, Eugene Vinson, Jesse Deaton and Kathy Williams. Also placing second were the Junior Grass team of Craig Barber, Craig Tallaferra and Rodney Walker. Junior grass judges are not eligible for state competition.

Other district winners who will compete in the state 4-H contests are Emerencia Diaz and Mary Jane Martinez in the state 4-H food show and the district winning Quarter Horse Judging team of Nannette Bailey, Jim Bob Bailey, Cydnie Whitehead and Skookie Edgerter.

This is the largest group of 4-H members from the county ever to qualify for state competition at Texas A&M University during the State 4-H Round-up in June, according to county agent Pete W. Jacoby. A lot of hard work on part of the members and adult leaders who trained them is the contributing factor for this achievement, concluded Jacoby.

VIP Field Gains Sixth Producer From Clearfork

The V. I. P. (multipay Clearfork oil and gas) field of Crockett gained its sixth middle Clearfork oil producer and a location north extension to that pay with completion of Sunray DX Oil Co., Midland, No. 4 V. I. Pierce, 20 miles southwest of Ozona, for a daily pumping 33.17 barrels of 34.7 gravity oil, no water, with gas-oil ratio of 1.725-1.

Production was through perforations at 3,598-831 feet which had been acidized with 1,500 gallons and fractured with 50,000 gallons and 7,500 pounds of sand.

Drilled to 2,900 feet, with 4 1/2-inch casing set at 2,899 feet, it is plugged back to 2,868 feet.

Ozona Pounded By Hail Storm; Damage Is Light

Hail pounded Ozona with a vengeance Monday night, severely damaging trees, shrubs and demolishing small plants. Crockett Heights and the east side of Ozona suffered the major portion of the damage.

Although property damage was small in town, Crockett Heights sustained broken windows and considerable damage to automobiles and houses. Hail stones larger than golf balls fell in that area.

Rain, which began falling before the hail, amounted to 1.40 inches, according to the official gauge at the Water District office. Varying amounts fell on the surrounding area.

Local residents in the path of the hail considered themselves lucky, however, after reading about the severe hailstorm at Iran which is reported to have inflicted an estimated half million dollars in property damage on that Pecos county town.

Texaco Inc. staked a 6,675-foot Wolfcamp wildcat, No. 1 P. T. Robison, 7 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 3, block OP, GC&SF survey, 1 1/2 miles northeast of Ozona, half a mile north of the Ozona Canyon sand gas area and five-eighths of a mile southeast of Canyon oil production in the Northwest Ozona multipay area.

Run-Off Primary To Decide Demo Nominee In 3 Commissioner Races

There were no clear-cut victories in the three county commissioners' races which highlighted the Democratic Primary Saturday in Crockett County. All three posts must be decided in a second primary to be held June 1.

Republishes, Charles Applewhite and James Baggett both received the required number of votes in the Republican primary to have their names placed on the general election ballot in November for the commissioner posts in precincts 2 and 1.

Incumbent commissioner, Precinct 1, C. O. (Lefty) Walker, polled 127 votes to face Jesse C. Marley, who topped the ticket with 189 votes, in the run-off election. Sam Perner, the third candidate, received 82 votes.

Precinct 2 run-off for the commissioner's post will be between Mrs. Rex Halydier, the incumbent who polled 89 votes, and Bill Black, who had a total of 99 votes. Others in the race were J. P. Pogue with 44 votes and L. D. Kirby with 14.

Second primary candidates in the Precinct 3 commissioner's race are Jack Williams, who led the field with 140 votes Saturday and incumbent U. S. (Rusty) Smith with a total of 98 votes. Other candidates and vote totals include Mildred Goodson, 29; Ted Lewis, 91; Kenny McMullan, 39; G. H. (Junior) Whitley, 19 and Leonard Boyd, 28.

Although Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde carried Crockett County with 633 votes, in the governor's race, the second primary will pit Preston Smith against Don Yarborough for the Democratic nominee for governor. These two polled the highest number of votes in the field of ten candidates.

In the hotly contested race between Pete Snelson and Senator Doney B. Hardeman, Crockett County went along with the rest of the district and gave Snelson the majority of the vote, 644 to 486. This was a complete turn-about from the race between the two men two years ago, when Senator Hardeman carried the county by about the same number of votes.

On the three referendum proposition, Crockett County voters voted against liquor by the drink, for horse racing and against milk price fixing. Statewide, the liquor by the drink proposition was approved and the other two proposals failed.

Flying W remained undefeated in Little League play this week, defeating Ozona Oil 4-1 Thursday and edging by B&B Monday night 2-1. B&B is in second place with 2 wins and 1 loss.

In Thursday night play, Jeffery Stuart picked up the win for the Ranchers and Pete Martinez took the loss. The second game saw B&B Grocers taking a 16-11 win over Moore Oil. Melecio Martinez was the winning pitcher and collected 4 hits for the Grocers, 3 being home runs. Tony Conners took the loss for Moore Oil.

B&B and Flying W went into the game undefeated Monday night and it looked like a draw the first five innings. However, B&B scored in the top of the sixth and the Ranchers came back to score 2 in the last inning. Mike Mosley was the winning pitcher and Martinez the loser. The second game was called because of the storm.

In minor league play the Giants remained undefeated by defeating the Yankees 3-0 Friday and the Dodgers 4-3 Tuesday. The Astros are in second place, beating the Dodgers Friday 7-2 and the Yankees 10-9 Tuesday. The Yankees are 1-2 and the Dodgers are in the cellar with 0-3.

WHERE THE ANTELOPE PLAYED

Ozona's downtown park, now a manicured lawn, canopied with the tangled branches of huge pecan trees, was once fenced and furnished grazing for several head of antelope, pets of the populace and a point of interest for visitors. These pictures, owned by Mrs. A. O. Fields, show the antelope grazing in the park, the courthouse in the background in the lower picture. Note the size of the trees. The picture was made about 1915

THE DRIPPING HORN

That old saw about whose ox is being gored has passed into oblivion, it seems. What really matters today is whose horn is dripping the blood. Never has the double standard of political morality in America been so sickening as in recent months.

Let's take the matter of the Pueblo, for example. Can you imagine the performance we would be witnessing if it had been the present Greek regime, or Nasser's Egypt, that seized the ship? Suppose Franco had pirated the Pueblo? Picture the scene if it had been Chiang Kai-shek. The TV screens would have been filled with parades and placards, teach-ins and demonstrations. There would be no minute's peace until the dastardly act was atoned for.

But North Korea? Why that is one of the People's Democratic Republics. Bless you, and its piracy only means that the United States was guilty of provocation.

And what about the Tet New Year offensive in South Vietnam? For weeks the enemy virtually prepared for the national Holiday and moved solemnly that the losses it produced would be recognized by a placard appeared in the streets of U. S. cities to protest that treachery. The toll: Three-douzen South Vietnamese cities were sucked in a surprise attack, at least 2,500 civilians left homeless. Repeat. Those are the figures for civilians.

Did the great peace-loving liberal-left in the United States protest?

Not one peep. Not one angry word.

There comes to mind another era in our history when this elaborate mechanism for propaganda was set in motion. Many who are marching and protesting today are too young to remember Communist agitation for war against the hated Nazis was at white heat. Then, the Hitler-Stalin pact was announced. The silence was deafening. Speechless support took hold of the protesters and it ended only when Hitler's legions invaded the USSR. Only then

No Bowing To Mobs

Even as the "no-win" elements are opposed to the use of the massive force to achieve an American victory in Vietnam, they are opposed to the employment of adequate police measures to restore law and order to the cities of America.

Setting forth the "no-win" line on riots, Atty Gen. Ramsey Clark recently told the American Society of Newspaper Editors: "I do not believe that the use of deadly force by law enforcement officers is permissible except in self-defense or when it is necessary to protect the lives of others."

Mr. Clark's statement in effect was a reply to Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago who had criticized his own police force for not shooting of looters could lead to a "very dangerous escalation" of racial violence in the cities. His words must have had a sweet sound to the apostles of saret violence whose slogan is "burn, baby, burn". They have had the word from the chief law enforcement officer of the federal government that protecting the lives of looters and arsonists is more important than stopping barbaric outbreaks in America's towns and cities.

In effect saying that the lives of lawbreakers come ahead of defense of property or the prevention of disastrous fires, Mr. Clark turns his back on every principle of law and practice of law enforcement. Shooting of looters always has been standard practice in America. Moreover, police are regularly authorized to shoot burglars or other persons who resist arrest or who are fleeing from the scene of a crime and will not stop.

Are the police now to be deprived of that right? Are the police of America to be virtually disarmed? Mr. Clark's statement points to a wholly new attitude regarding crimes against property.

The illogic of Mr. Clark's statement is underscored by the fact that a property owner is fully entitled under the law to use firearms to protect his property. If a homeowner or the owner of a store is legally entitled to snoot a looter or an arsonist, why should a policeman not have that right?

Mr. Clark's statement carries the suggestion of a curious philosophy — the philosophy that property is not important. But ownership of property, in the American system, is a fundamental civil right. A home or a store is the product of an individual's enterprise or the labor and savings of a number of people. Life's struggle has gone into every private dwelling and business in this country. Society can't just say "sorry about that" when a home or store is gutted or burned. Local government must not say to the taxpayer, "The money and effort you have put into your property doesn't really have any value. We have to be concerned that no harm befalls the youngster with the Molotov cocktail or the citizen with an armload of stolen shirts." No, society can't operate on that philosophy and still be civilized.

What deserves defense is, first of all, the law-abiding citizen's life, and then the property of that type of good citizen. The law-breaker is entitled to only one thing from a responsible society — punishment for his misdeeds. And to be credible, local government has to be prepared to use adequate force against lawbreakers. In the case of riots, credibility requires the use of deadly force.

As for Mr. Clark's fear of "escalation," that fear is shameful. Is the United States to admit that it is afraid to enforce the law, afraid to take rioters in hand?

If that is the case, we are fast approaching a state of chaos in this country. We are virtually admitting that criminal elements have a veto on lawful government. A government that fears to crack down — and crack down hard — on rioters is a government that is about to fall and that is bowing to the dictates of street mobs.

Obviously, government — federal, state or local — must not bow to the mob. If confronted with rising violence, it must meet that violence with lawful force in whatever amount is needed. Otherwise, anarchy will prevail. No one's life, let alone his property, will be safe if Atty. Gen. Clark's policy prevails.

Wise and Otherwise

Wandering Reflections
By Dr. R. F. Curl

I have just spent two days in Dallas attending the United Conference of Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren churches. Since Mrs. Carl and I have some ten years of our life in that city, I always have an opportunity to re-examine Dallas as a dynamic growing center of population, business, education, art, and religion of all Texas can be.

Because the city is such a bastion of religion as a fitting site for this year of churches, although the EUB's, originally German-speaking branch of Methodism, are chiefly in the Central West and were far removed from the center of population. It boasts of the largest Methodist and Presbyterian churches in the nation and the population is predominantly of an evangelical religious faith.

Since the merging groups have already agreed in doctrine and church organization the Conference was free to consider current demands on it. To this end the 1,000 official delegates and the many thousands of invited visitors gave themselves for 12 to 15 hours a day for fourteen days. They take a vacation at a church meeting; they work hard and have no part in all.

Many things interested me in this meeting, but I mention just three. I was again impressed by the problem of the generation gap so prevalent and long in our times. It is hard for twenty to understand fifty and for sixty to understand twenty-five is hard.

Although I have been in Dallas, San Antonio, and El Paso, to say nothing of Houston and Austin, in recent months in not one of these cities did I observe so many hippies on the streets. These, to me, weird, young people with their long hair, beards, and beads appeared as innocent and simple as youth can be. I saw no sign of misbehavior on their part. But to an old man it looked like they were wasting their lives in idle street loafing. The beads, which I understand represent Peace, can never substitute for the grime, sweat and toil that will be necessary if peace ever comes to this world. The Biblical promise is not to bead-wearers but to doers. "Blessed are the peace makers."

In this generation gap it was noticeable that the young people about the Memorial Auditorium were not of the hippie stripe. While they were carrying placards and passing out literature for their causes, they were neatly dressed, orderly, and very much "establishment" type youth. But they were advocating peace, racial justice, and the other pet goals of the younger generation.

As a second observation, let me say that I was happy to see the open, frank way in which the Conference could discuss highly controversial current issues. The group was almost evenly divided between conservatives and liberals. You must remember that such a Methodist Conference is made up of an equal number of ministers and laymen, each group elected by their peers. Furthermore, on any issue a division may be called for by one-third of either group and then it takes a majority vote of both groups to pass a measure.

Some decisions I liked, some I did not. I find this usually true in any group in which I work. But let me assure you that only carefully defined and limited res-solutions were adopted on any subject. The resolutions only speak in an advisory capacity to Methodist members and become in no way a test of acceptability in the Church.

Even the resolution quite publicized in the press concerning the use of tobacco and liquor both by Methodist ministers and laymen in no way retreated from the Methodist principle of complete abstinence in the use of either of these.

The third observation is that only the future can tell what will come out of this new 12,250,000 member United Methodist Church found in America and on fifty-five mission fields. The test of the union lies in the work done in the merged church in the years to come.

CLASS — 1968

WILL OF THE SENIOR

Beverly Loudamy, our hard-working Basketball Manager, leaves all of her anazestic, tough-skin and other such equipment to Debra Arledge, and also Beverly leaves her one and only talent, mooching rides to the Village Drug at noon to her Jr. brother — Kirk Boyd.

Our Senior seamstress, Lupe Maldonado, leaves her needles, pins, scissors and straight seam-sewing talents to Theima Lara and Armandina Vargas.

Maryan Maney leaves her fabulous fingernails to Sandy Welch.

It's a sad fact, but true—we have a shy Senior boy. But to remedy his problem and believe me it is a problem, Joe Martinez leaves all of his shyness to Armando Tambunga and Armando Reina, who we think could use a little shyness.

Deborah Mills, our brilliant mathematical scholar, leaves her reputation as a great mathematician to Nannette Bailey whose talent in solving difficult math problems promises to be just as great as Deborah's have been.

Hot-rodder Calvin Montgomery leaves all of the speed from his falcon to Bobby Mayfield whose falcon could use a little speed.

Since Eleno Moran no longer needs his flirtatious ways he leaves them to Andres Galindo and Beto Vargas.

Tall, 6'1" David North has been kind enough to leave three inches to Dennis Clark who has so far not been so fortunate in this department. And because David is lucky enough to have a car stereo but not lucky enough to have a car, he leaves his stereo to Joe Bob Stephens for his fine red pickup.

Petite little Lorraine Payne leaves all of her gracefulness to Becky Cervantez and Christina Sanchez because after all what Junior girl couldn't use a little more gracefulness?

The future architect of OHS, Tony Sanchez, leaves all of his talent and ability in mechanical drawing to Evangelina Maldonado.

Meek and humble Gary Sutton leaves all of his modesty to Marlin Farris who we feel will be the one to fill the shoes of Sutton next year. Gary is also wills his ability to wrap Mr. Pelto and Mr. Leath around his little finger without them knowing it to Donald and David Huff who, together, should be able to do as well as Gary has.

The Seniors of 1968 are proud and honored to have the President of the N. T. A., Dwaln Vinson in their class. After deep thought as to what Jr. was deserving of this high and honorable office, Duwain has decided on Rodney Rutherford because of his enthusiasm, loyalty and outstanding participation in the club as a junior. Also a charter membership goes to Buddy Couch and a snuff can and congratulations to Terry Lindsey who has been named vice-president of the N. T. A. for next year.

Since OHS is losing their well-known Mullet-of-the-year Larry Don Webb, he wants to present a well-deserving prospect with this award — Charles Childress. Larry Don also wills his fantastic memory to Danny Mauness who never forgets anything.

The Senior Class has been well represented in the tennis club by Connie Williams. She is willing her secret serve to the greatest junior tennis pro ever-Gary Loudamy. To Gary, Connie also wishes the very best of luck in playing Junction — It seems Connie never had much.

Terry Dobbs, better known as big daddy dobbs, has agreed to give a few pounds here and there to Jussie Deaton who could use a few pounds everywhere.

There is one Senior girl who is loved and understood by every single member of OHS and this is Miss Patricia Lynn Walker who will fill the shoes of Sutton next year. Gary is also wills his ability to wrap Mr. Pelto and Mr. Leath around his little finger without them knowing it to Donald and David Huff who, together, should be able to do as well as Gary has.

Our fearless leader, Wesley West wills his talent of preparing fine and unusual assemblies to Randel Clepper. Each and every Wednesday this year we have had a fabulously entertaining assembly and we have Wesley to thank for it all.

Randel, you will have to try extremely hard if you hope to live up to Wesley's great work. Wesley also had a strong and healthy body which he is willing to Rodney Pagan who has been spending most of these last few months in Shannon Hospital. Rodney could your reason really be a good looking nurse?

We the Senior Class of 1968, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

TV Personality Visits In Ozona

Tom Lester, who plays the part of Eb, the tall, gangling farm hired hand on the television series "Green Acres", was an overnight visitor in Ozona last week.

Lester spent a night and most of the following day here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Littleton. The acquaintance came about through a former Ozona Baptist Pastor, the Rev. Blake Woolbright, who is pastor of a church in Hollywood where Lester is a member and a faithful worker among the church's young people. On his way to Mississippi, Lester routed his trip through Ozona.

"I have heard a lot about Ozona from Brother Woolbright," the youthful actor said. "It is everything Mr. Woolbright said about it. It is a beautiful little town and full of friendly people."

Lester accommodated a number of youngsters with autographs while visiting downtown. He said he plans to return and wants to meet some young people when he does. And, girls, he's single.

It was a wonderful experience for me and I enjoyed every minute of it. Naturally I was disappointed but not disgruntled. I don't think I lost any friends, may even have made some new ones. I congratulate the winners and may the best man win.

A MOTHER'S SECRETS

Mothers have secrets that they keep for their children... like the present Rick plans to give Dad on his birthday.

But mothers also have secrets of their own... dreams of what they hope their children will become.

And woven into the fabric of every mother's dream are threads of character, morality, courage, faith. The threads are there, but unseen—simply part of the finished design; a son or daughter to be proud of.

But in such dreams we should study the threads and realize the loom on which they must be woven. The qualities that give strength and beauty to a life come from thorough religious training!

So a mother's dream should not remain a secret. It must be her husband's dream, too. For together, with the guidance and help of the Church, they can provide the Christian home so necessary to the fulfillment of their hopes.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Madrigal Singers In Local Concert

The Reagan Madrigal Singers of Austin, sponsored by the Ozona Music Club, sang to a large and enthusiastic audience Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church.

It was a significant occasion, in that it initiated the 45th Annual National Music Week observance and signified the end of the 40th year of existence of the Ozona Music Club.

Mrs. Rudolph Osler, president of the club, read a letter from President Johnson praising the National Federation of Music Clubs.

The program presented by the Madrigals was broad and meaningful in its total texture and historical relationship. Both secular and sacred music was used to illustrate the development of the Madrigal from the Renaissance up to and including the compositions of this decade.

May 16 at 4:00 p. m. the Ozona Music Club will have installation of officers in the coffee room of the Ozona National Bank.

THANKS! I want to express my appreciation for the support I received in the May 4 primary. I will be grateful for your continued support in the coming runoff primary to the end that level-headed government in Crockett county may continue. As a member of the Crockett county commissioners Court, I have always sought the best interests of all the county in cooperation with other members of the court. I have made no idle promises that as one man on a four-man court I could not hope to fulfill. I have always advocated any project or move that I considered to the county's advantage but I have opposed give-aways and slovenly spending that might ultimately lead to higher taxes for the people. Mature judgment is needed in the administration of a $300,000 business such as in this county's business. I offer you that mature judgment and my pledge to continue to work for a conservative county government, dedicated to service to the people within limits of available funds and a constant watch to avoid the necessity of a raise in taxes on the people. Lower Leonard Well Finaled In Tippet Field

Lower Leonard production was extended one location southwest in the Tippet multipay field of Crockett County with completion of Standard Oil Co. of Texas, No. 6-38 H. H. Tippet, prospective Connell sand pay opener, 14 miles south of McCamey.

It was finaled for a daily flowing potential of 167 barrels of 41 gravity oil, plus 32 barrels of load water, with gas-oil ratio of 629-1. Production was through a 14-64-inch choke and perforations at 4,783-4,802 feet, which had been acidized with 3,000 gallons. Tubing pressure was 325 pounds.

Still earlier it tested the Connell, through perforations at 5,689-94 feet, making oil along with load water.

It tested the lower Wolfcamp unsuccessfully through perforations at 5,516 to 5,582 feet.

Slated as a 6,906-foot Ellenburger wildcat and rescheduled to 7,100 feet, it was drilled to 6,839 feet in the Ellenburger and recover-

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS
BY C. WILSON HARDER

In every time and every clime where there has been a democracy, or a pseudo-democratic form of government, politicians have always been taken with a grain of salt by the electorate. With few exceptions, this system has worked out quite well.

C. W. Harder

However, when politicians of one nation start conniving the politicians of another country, some quite silly situations can develop. Sometime ago, when Rhodesia made their own declaration of independence, the British Labor government's Prime Minister, Harold Wilson, got very stuffy about the matter. Although Rhodesia provides a vote for all citizens, regardless of color, as long as they meet certain minimum educational and economic qualifications, Wilson took the stand that if Rhodesia wanted to be independent it would have to guarantee a vote to everybody, presumably even to each of the several wives of many Bantu.

When Rhodesia failed to go along with this Wilson conned some nations in declaring an economic boycott of Rhodesia. The chief result is that the United States now buys needed chrome from Russia, instead of Rhodesia, even while the nation is presumably fighting the communists in Asia, who are, incidentally, supported morally, spiritually, and materialistically by the Kremlin.

In fact, Harold Wilson got so mad at the Republic of South Africa because it would not go along with the boycott that recently his government turned down a big manufacturing order from South Africa that presumably could have helped the badly hit British economy.

In the light of all this, a recent happening is most confusing. When Britain pulled out of Kenya, there were many British citizens of Indian extraction in the country, largely from Pakistan where thousands of soldiers have been drawn to die in British wars.

But it seems the African chiefs in Kenya want to get rid of the Indians largely because they operate most of the businesses in Kenya. So these British subjects have been moving to England.

So the Honorable Harold Wilson all of a sudden does a complete flip flop, and gets pushed through Parliament a law which bans the entry of any more British citizens from Kenya regardless of their British passports. It is estimated that there are some 100,000 of these people left stranded and at the tender mercies of the African leaders of Kenya who once organized Mau Mau atrocities.

Thus, once again, as so many times in the past, an avowed socialist has turned out to be a merciless despot. Fortunately, it seems the English people are not too easily deceived. Recently the London Sunday Times conducted a poll on who was, or is, the most villainous man in the 20th Century.

The results showed Hitler first choice, Charles DeGaulle, second, Joe Stalin third and Harold Wilson fourth.
