Kitty's Korner

Your paper was dated October 25, 1869 last week. I think you have some edition or something else, they were all dated the way I could tell you we missed it while proofing or that there was a change in the typesetting equipment, but that can't be true. Actually I did it on purpose just to get all of you out there on your toes. And by the way, you were.

Well, tomorrow night is the night for Ozona football. The law of average is the Lions, also the stars tonight. I freely predict the Lions will upset the Sonora Broncos this year. Some of the bookies in town are taking the Lions giving 14 points, so I'm the only one who knows the Lions are going to win. Even though the game is nothing in district this is the big one and fans would consider season a big success if the only win of the season. If our most widely daily picks the Bronco to win all the way as a Lion victory is as in the bag. Game is 8 o'clock. You'll hate yourself if you miss it.

Speaking of football, if you want to know more about the game and the players, join us at the high school auditorium every Friday night. Coach Sewell is an interesting runner on the previous game answers all questions. As such an enthusiastic booster you sort of expect the Lions to come on win during the film of game you know very well. All our high school coaches are new and the Friday night sessions will give you an opportunity to be acquainted.

We have a budding celebration in our midst. Brad Hoover, 13-year-old son of Grand Armond Hoover, has moved word from Tin Pan City, Inc. music recording publishing company, of New York that a song he has written has been published. As soon as they receive the approval, it will be recorded and copyrighted. You hear "The Garden of the Purple Sand" on television, radio or a juke box sometime in the future. You know who wrote it. Incidentally, his entire family was surprised. He sent a song in without telling.

You can stay out of the Friday night and Thursday night if you want your brood to the Be-Bama Phi spaghetti supper and the Garden Club's annual tasting supper. Both will be held at the Civic Center.

You can fill your family with steaming plates of spaghetti and salad Friday night before the ball game. The cost of cooking is home.

Next Thursday night you will fill them up from around the table. By the way, you get a generous amount of everything, your family is spilling over. The Garden Club has changed the name of their annual Tasting Tea to Spaghetti Supper in order to encourage the men and boys to be on hand.

Graveside Rites Here Sunday For WC Montgomery

Graveside services for W. C. (Billy) Montgomery, son of a pioneer Crockett County ranching family, were held Saturday afternoon in Houston.

Mr. Montgomery died early Friday morning in a Houston hospital after an illness. He was born in Ozona Sept. 1, 1911. He attended Ozona schools and was a graduate of the University of Texas. He was married to Frances Burleson in San Angelo, May 7, 1933. They made their home in Houston where Mr. Montgomery was vice-president of the Texas Pipeline Co. They were frequent visitors to their ranch southwest of Ozona.

He lived in Houston the past 33 years and received his company's 35-year service pin this year.

Survivors include his wife, three sons, William Montgomery, Robert Montgomery and John Montgomery, all of Houston; one sister, Mrs. Embury Hunt of Temple, and two grandchildren.

Mobil Unit Of Cancer Society To Be In Ozona Oct. 20

The Crockett County Unit of the American Cancer Society met Monday night in its first business meeting since it was organized.

It was announced that a mobile unit for the Society will be in Ozona October 20. The van will be in various places over the town and will show slides discouraging smoking. The public is invited to visit the unit.

The local chapter decided to hold an "IQ" day the Friday after the visit of the unit. All those who have given up smoking will be presented with the Society's "IQ" button.

A program was presented by Jeff Miller of San Angelo, a film strip on the severe cancer warning signals. Rev. John Berkley closed the meeting with prayer.

Garden Club's Tasting Supper Set For Oct. 9

The annual tasting supper, sponsored by the Ozona Garden Club, will be held next Thursday, Oct. 9, at the Civic Center between the hours of 5 and 7 p. m. All tickets will be $1 this year and the public is invited.

Around 50 varied dishes will be offered. There will be salads, casseroles, desserts and breads. Mrs. Charles Williams is overall chairman for the event this year.

Plates will be fixed to carry out for those who are unable to attend.

This event is the only fund-raising project of the year for the club. Proceeds this year will be used to landscape the entrance to Memorial Park.

MARKER DEDICATED — Crockett County Judge Bernice Bailey Jones delivered the dedicatory address Sunday when the Historical Marker on the Junior High School building was dedicated, along with others on the Crockett Hotel and near the site of Howard's Well in southwest Crockett County. A program, sponsored by the County Historical Survey Committee, was held in the high school auditorium preceding the dedications.

County's Early History Recalled As Markers Dedicated For Three Historic Sites In Sunday Program

An interesting program was presented by the Crockett County Historical Survey Committee Sunday afternoon in the high school auditorium prior to the dedication of three historical markers in the area.

Mrs. R. A. Harrell, chairman of the committee, spoke to guests and introduced Mrs. Ira Carson, who narrated early day Crockett County history while showing slides. Beautiful color slides of covered wagons, stage coaches, Longhorns, cattle and old buildings brought the past alive for the audience. Many interesting sites of the area were shown, including the oak tree where the county was organized.

Mrs. Carson told tales of Edward's Well, one of the marker dedication sites, along with showing early day slides of the other two sites, the Crockett Hotel and the Junior High School building.

Arthur Kyle gave an interesting talk about the construction of the Junior High School building. His father, Walter Kyle, helped build the building, which was the latest thing in high schools at that time. He showed some tools his father used for rock cutting and laying when he asked how many present graduated from high school in the old building, hands went up all over the auditorium.

Judge Charles E. Davidson was responsible for the building of the school and he was discussed by various members of the audience, including his daughter, Mrs. Frank McMullan. Several stories were told about the county's first judge, his loyalty to the county and his dedication to education.

The group adjourned to the school building, where Judge Bernice Bailey Jones

Sutton Making Mark At Baylor

Gary Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sutton, has been playing a lot of football this season for the Baylor Bears at the tackle slot.

Gary made all-conference with the Baylor freshman team last year and is back-up man for the senior tackle this year. Although Gary is only a sophomore, the general opinion is that he will have a starting position before the year is over.

Taxpaying Time, Voter Registration Began October 1

It's taxpaying time and voter registration time. Crockett county taxpayers became obligated for 1969 taxes which became payable yesterday and must be paid sometime between now and February 1, when interest and penalty apply.

Beginning at the same time, Texas voters may register to vote in 1970. Every person of voting age must register to become eligible to vote — there are no exemptions.

Crockett county tax totals were still in computerized state tax offices yesterday, and information on the total county, state and school taxes due were not available, but hopefully, will be in time for next week's Stockman.

Mother of Ozona Teacher Dies In Angelo Hospital

Funeral services for Mrs. Norbert Moeller, mother of Ozona high school English teacher Susanna Moeller, were held Sunday at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rowena with burial in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Mrs. Moeller, 43, died late Thursday afternoon in St. John's Hospital in San Angelo after a lengthy illness.

She was born in Moravia, Texas Dec. 20, 1926 and had lived in Rowena the past 23 years.

Other survivors include her husband and three sons, Galen Moeller, a student at St. Mary's University of San Antonio and David Moeller and Charles Moeller, both of the home.

Jr. High Cubs In Double Header At Big Lake Tonite

Ozona junior high Cubs will travel to Big Lake for a double-header tonight with the Big Lake seventh and eighth grades.

The Lions B team will host the McCamey B here at 6 p. m.

The three teams, playing here last Thursday night against the three Junction teams, lost all three games. These teams, like the varsity, have yet to pick up a win.

Lions Make Ready For First Home Game Fri. Night Against Sonora

Tomorrow night the Ozona Lions will host their traditional rival, the Sonora Broncos, in the first home game of the season. The game will be the highlight of the football season for the Lions and their fans. With the Broncos overrated in the football polls and the Lions underrated, the outcome should be a toss up.

Few Accidents, Little Damage In County Last Week

Only minor injuries resulted in three accidents investigated by Highway Patrolmen here during the past week.

A crash at the intersection of U. S. 290 and State Highway 163 in downtown Ozona Friday resulted in damage to both vehicles and slight injuries to Mrs. Cecilia Longoria. Mrs. Longoria's 1965 Chevrolet sedan was in collision with a 1959 Chevrolet pickup driven by James Ruthardt, local electrical contractor. The pickup was damaged an estimated $150 and the Chevrolet sedan about $225. Patrolman Orville Perry investigated the accident.

A Vancouver, Wash., man, Michael Brownell, escaped serious injury about 3:15 p. m. Monday when he lost control of his 1963 Ford sedan about 19 miles west of Ozona on U. S. 290. Brownell apparently went to sleep at the wheel and the car left the highway and bounced around in the bar ditch, finally coming to rest, still on its wheels, with about $850 worth of damage. Patrolman Perry was the investigating officer.

A downtown accident last week resulted in minor damage to a 1965 Chrysler driven by Mrs. Sherman Taylor and a 1961 Ford sedan driven by Elias Elizondo. The fender bender occurred on State Highway 163 in downtown Ozona.

The Lions will be out to get the Broncos and might very well come out on top. They have shown great improvement in every ball game and came close to upsetting the Coahoma Bulldogs last Friday night at Coahoma. Two scores in the first quarter sustained the Bulldogs throughout the entire game. The Lions outplayed the heavier, more experienced Bulldogs in the second half and held their own in the second quarter, but the Bulldogs picked up a 28-16 victory.

For the first time this season, the Lions, managed to pick up some yards in the air. They had 101 yd passing and 232 yds rushing for a total offense of 333 yds. This was about 100 yards more than they piled up in the Eldorado game and over 200 yards more than their total offense in the opener with Junction.

Coach Rip Sewell is well pleased with the improvement and says he expects the Lions to give a good account of themselves in their first appearance on the home field. While admitting that the Lions will take the field expecting a win, he cautioned that the Sonora squad had the same record, two losses and a win, last year when they went on to state. Last Friday night the Lions had Greg Stuart, Phillip Perner and David Williams on the injured list. Pete Perez started for Perner and Moose Coates took over the fullback slot in place of Stuart, both boys turning in good performances.

It looked like disaster for the Lions during the first quarter as the Bulldogs scored twice and picked up four extra points. The Lions offense couldn't get going and busted plays forced Jim Montgomery quarterback, to scramble for his life more times than not.

AN UNMENTIONED TAX LOOPHOLE

A tempest is swirling through Capitol corridors over what one Washington newsman dubbed the "only unmentioned tax loophole" — the tax-exempt status enjoyed by Big Labor.

Reported ready to step in to the eye of that tempest is a bipartisan group of Senate Finance Committee members including Paul Fannin (R-Ariz.), Carl Curtis (R-Neb.), Harry Byrd (D-Va.) and Senate "Watchdog" John Williams (R-Del.).

The Finance Committee is conducting hearings on the House-passed tax reform bill in the interest of tax justice the bill taxes investments made by churches and foundations and other tax-exempt organizations, hits the tax privileges enjoyed by the oil interests and imposes heavy penalties on any spending by private voluntary foundations for political purposes. Yet the highly favored tax status of unions is preserved.

As one might expect, nobody has yelled louder or longer than the AFL-CIO bosses about tax "loopholes." The AFL-CIO Executive Council even went so far as to urge the Senate to "guard against attempts by lobbyists to preserve and widen their special interest loopholes."

Some critics, including the National Right to Work Committee, are now asking: "What about Big Labor's own tax loopholes?" Labor unions are private, tax-exempt, have vast millions of dollars invested in unrelated businesses. One leading analyst estimates that half of organized labor's $3 billion annual income comes from investments in unrelated (and untaxed) business — and spends tens of millions of compulsory dues dollars annually for political purposes, in open violation of the Federal Corrupt Practices Act.

Why are they accorded special treatment in Congress? The reason could be the use of compulsory dues for political purposes. An estimated $60 million was poured out last year in a vain effort to defeat a presidential candidate the union bosses called a "disaster." The figure exceeds $200 million when you take into account state, local and municipal elections and the vast millions in indirect costs for such things as union staff time, "educational" pamphlets, telephone banks and computerized get-out-the-vote drives. Joseph Rauh told the Supreme Court when he was general counsel for the United Auto Workers: "When a union member pays his dues, he has paid for his political action."

Many members of Congress are indebted to labor bosses for the campaign support provided by union organizations financed through the involuntary contributions of wage earners who may be opposed to the candidates chosen by the union hierarchy. The National Right to Work Committee states its hope "that the Senate hearings will lead to the removal of the tax-exempt status of any private organization using compulsory dues dollars for political purposes. Such an action will rectify a basic injustice involving both labor law and tax law. It will contribute greatly to a fairer distribution of the tax load and will most certainly gain the applause of all fair-minded citizens by demonstrating that Congress is willing to deal equitably with even the most politically powerful special interest lobby."

We agree. And we hope that Congress musters the courage to do the job.

Washington News Letter

Congressman O. C. Fisher

Laws which when enacted often sound innocuous and desirable may turn out to be replete with booby traps and loopholes.

Here are two examples. Last July the Congress enacted the 136-page 1968 Housing Act, which was described by the Washington Post as a "housing bonanza" and by another as an "omnibus monstrosity." No one would dare estimate the ultimate cost to the taxpayers, but it clearly would be up in the billions. This Great Society answer to the nation's housing problems provided goodies galore for almost everyone except the poor taxpayer. Some of us opposed it, but to no avail.

Included were provisions which gave vast authority to HUD to help pay interest charges, rentals, taxes, etc. on behalf of those in low income brackets, related to their housing.

Under a home-purchase authority HUD recently announced plans to have 511 housing units constructed in San Antonio to sell for up to $17,500 each to those earning between $3,000 and $6,000 — with no more than 20% of the purchaser's monthly income to be paid on the purchase price. Uncle Sam is to pick up the balance, estimated at about $1,000 a year per unit, and the commitment is to continue for 25 years.

I have lodged a vigorous protest against this and any other similar projects wherever located. While there is need for better solutions to housing problems, the subsidy involved here is obviously exorbitant and is manifestly unfair to the taxpayers who must work for a living and help pay the bills. Why use a 5-ton truck to do the job of an ordinary pickup?

Another Example is Great Society's celebrated 1964 Civil Rights Act, of which the late Martin Luther King was one of the principal architects. It, too, was an omnibus hodge-podge of "goodies," designed to prevent racial strife and take care of about all the accumulated

Announce Free Hunts On Wildlife Management Areas

Austin — Deer and quail hunters who would like to participate in free two-day hunts on the State Wildlife Management Areas should write to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, Austin, Texas, for application cards.

Cards and complete information on the hunts will be mailed around Oct. 1 in plenty of time for them to be returned before the deadline at 5 p. m., Oct. 20. Drawings will be held at 2 p. m., Oct. 23 in the John H. Reagan Building, Austin.

Basically, hunts this year will be conducted as in the past. However, HB 130, passed by the 61st Legislature requires that "no person may receive a special permit for two (2) consecutive years unless all applications from persons who applied but did not receive a special permit in the preceding year are filled." Therefore, persons who received permits in 1968 will be considered last, if at all.

Department officials said the hunts are conducted as part of the wildlife research programs and do not necessarily indicate a high game population.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

By Sadie Tillman
 Sure, it takes a little more effort to stand up and yell your heart out at the pep rallies and games, but isn't it worth a little extra effort to show our football boys we care? Spirit should be shown in the student body to urge the football team on to victory. The football boys have to get stirred up to look forward to a game and fight as hard as they can to win.

The spirit stick is given to the class that shows the most spirit. If all classes would show the same amount of enthusiasm toward the football team, the spirit stick could be shared evenly among them. Each class should show so much spirit that the judges would really have a problem in choosing the best one!

The twirlers, cheerleaders, and band work hard to back the football team. All the student body has to do is YELL!!!

TEEN COUNCIL

By Diana Deaton
 The teen council is made up of three representatives from each class in high school. Representing each class are: Seniors, David Hoover, President; Diana Deaton, Secretary; and Tony Wheeler, Junior, Grace Ann Tabb, Will Colett, and Bill King; Sophomores Pam Bishop, Mary Jo Hyde, and Chuck Womack; Freshmen, Patti Schroeder, Jack Baggett, and Darolyn Wilson.

Purpose of the teen council is to organize activities for the High School kids, such as dances and Teen Night at the Civic Center.

The council is currently trying to set up a place for the kids to go all the time, a hangout. There is a need for this in town to keep the kids off the street more and out of trouble.

Mrs. Dockery, head of the Teen Council, David, and Diana spoke at the Woman's League last week in hopes they will take this as their project.

BAND NEWS

By Cynthia Harrell
 After attending a Texas A&I band workshop this summer, Mrs. Sanders decided to use new drill formations with the Ozona marching band this year.

Mr. Sanders said Tuesday that he was very pleased with the progress of the band. The new drill formations, "Patterns of Motion", will be a challenge for the band members. The first marching contest will be November 22. The marching band is composed of 6 flutes, 14 clarinets, 4 bass clarinets, 4 alto saxophones, 1 tenor saxophone, 1 baritone saxophone, 5 baritones, 11 cornets, 6 trombones, 1 bass, and 5 drummers. The band has better instrumentation this year as a result of the variety of instruments. More basses are needed, and he is recruiting some students for this section.

Some marches the band play are Alamo, Strategic Air Command, The Stripper, Birth of the Blues, Spanish Flea, Gentle on my Mind, Fowl Play, Tea for Two, and many others.

GOSSIP

It sure was nice to see Danny home for the weekend!!

Did Vickey, Connie, Cathy, Sherry, and Netta enjoy the river Sunday? There weren't many fish in the river.

Tommy Jenkins disturbed study hall Monday with his snoring.

It's good to have Gregory home again.
 If anyone finds a "sucker" at the cave, it belongs to Betsy and Suzy.

Did everyone notice the dead rabbit tied to the post at Montgomery's with a beer can in its hand?

COAHOMA GAME

By Karen Sewell
 The Ozona Lions were defeated Friday, September 26, by the Coahoma, Bulldogs, 28-16. When asked about the game, some of the Lions said the following:

David Sewell said, we're getting better, we played pretty good the second half. The first half wasn't worth the trip.

Mike Schneider, making a horrible face, said, Coahoma was as good as anybody we'll play this year, and since we beat them the second half, I think we'll have a pretty good season.

We could have won it — it should have been the other way around, said Curtis Weant.

SPEECH DEPARTMENT

By Cynthia Harrell

New teaching methods used by Mr. Thomas Guntherberg are creating interest in the Ozona speech classes this year.

Tapes by famous actors and actresses help him stress the importance of acting techniques, and preparation for a part. The speech I classes are learning various speech methods. The students are perfecting these methods so they may enter UIL contests later this year. Persuasive speaking and phonetics are being stressed now.

The speech II class is learning various acting methods. Shakespeare's Twelfth Night will be the class's first acting venture. Mr. Guntherberg taught at college for two years, 6 months at Abilene's Cooper High, and has taught here the last 2 years. He thinks comedies are harder to do than tragedies because "comedy is an art form in which people expect to laugh, and since humor is spontaneous, written humor often falls short of this mark."

ASSEMBLY

By Cynthia Harrell
 In recognition of the History Appreciation Month, Mrs. Ira Carson showed slides and narrated on Wednesday at assembly.

Pat Fitzhugh gave the vocation, and David P. introduced Mrs. Carson. Mrs. Carson told how Colonel Hayes and Chihuahua trails, nestoga wagons, The Ford's Well and Excelsior Waterholes served as main waterings for Hayes and his followers. Water holes thought to have been sure near it.

On April 20, 1872, 160 massacred sixteen people. Gonzales, head of the wagon train, was burned by the Indians. The wagon of the wagons hid in a cave west of town. (Continued on Page 1) hunted years to find this silver treasure until finally the cave was sealed off.

Pictures of Fort Lancaster, which was established in 1855, were shown. Restoration of the fort (now a state park) began last Tuesday. Buffalos, camels, and longhorn cattle once roamed near this fort.

Crockett County was established on July 22, 1891, under the oak tree by the Baptist parsonage with Mr. Charles E. Davidson, a believer in higher education, serving as the judge. Schools were built, and Miss Alma Smith received the first high school diploma in 1896. The school year lasted only six months. Saloons were built in 1892, but in 1903 the county was voted dry. The Court house was built in 1902. The bank (a joint project between the Masonic Lodge and bank officials) was erected in 1903. The upper half of the bank was owned by the Masonic Lodge, and the lower half of the building was owned by the bankers. Mrs. Carson then told how the ranches were named for their brands. The brands served as identification for livestock and everything else in the house. The first church (Methodist) was built in 1898; later the Baptist, Church of Christ, and Catholic churches were erected. Surreys with fringe on the top were a status symbol. In 1908, automobiles came to Ozona. Going ten miles per hour gave the pioneers a thrill.

FASHION SCOPE

By Anna Mae Payne

The beginning of the season will probably bring the desire to make something new more prominently in focus. The layered look is the going thing this season in sportswear, with skirts, vests, shirts, tunics, and sleeveless jackets, piled one on top of the other. The jumpers also are going to be popular this season, worn with shirts or sweaters.

The colors this fall are going to be bright, yellow gold, electric blue, and true red. The autumn colors will consist mostly of spice, bronze gold, and emerald green.

Grandma's Shoes

I don't remember which I found first, Grandma's shoes or her letters. I do recall, that as I lifted things from her battered trunk, it seemed as though time had slipped backward. Suddenly, the lady in the faded family tintype became real to me.

Nicely polished and laced, her tiny shoes revealed that she was a petite person, neat and particular. A faded nosegay indicated a sentimental heart. "My dear son," her letters began, and as I read her words to that long-ago boy, my Dad, the reality of her love seemed present in the sun-drenched room. Outside the dusty window, a bee buzzed, and in that quiet moment I became acquainted with her personality.

Often, God reveals Himself to us in just such a way. By the beauty of His world, in the truths within His Bible, through the ministry of His Church, He discloses the fullness of His love.

Attend your church. Through worship and prayer, enlarge your understanding of God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A lot of cars cost more. But few if any are really that much more car. Which explains why more and more of the smart money is coming to Caprice. Look what you get: A big substantial 18-foot-long prestige car with a new 350-cubic-inch V8 engine, power disc brakes, Astro Ventilation, wheel covers, deep twist carpeting, posh appointments. A remarkably roomy car, with a ride so smooth and silent you'll feel like Mr. Big himself. Tell you what, though. If you absolutely insist on a more expensive car, we won't stand in your way. Go ahead and order air conditioning. Order stereo. Order tinted glass, power windows, 6-way power seat, our new Headlight Delay system. Your Chevrolet dealer will happily help. See him real soon. Putting you first, keeps us first.

If you spend more for a car, you must want to spend more for a car.
