

Bollworm Quarantine Is Lifted

HOME TOWN TALK

By Betty

Today we congratulate those two Home Town boys, Alfred and Dick Collins as they open a new sale in observance of the third anniversary of their launching into the retail drug business here. Their three stores are well and favorably known and their many friends wish them success in the future.

We were very glad to see the city commission adopt an ordinance keeping carnival companies outside the city limits. They are as leeches, drawing blood and never nourishing any community. An ordinance should be broadened to include other more or less limited shows, some of them often advertised as "free" attractions.

We hope a good, constitutional, reasonable ordinance will be passed to thoroughly regulate the holding of carnivals and the hauling into the city of large quantities of inferior merchandise which would be dumped onto the local market, temporarily demoralizing local retail trade besides eyeing the heavy consumers of "bargains."

The legitimate business which is being run here and which has been established in relation to the public and to competitors, having up their claims and advertising with the goods as advertised and with anything to help them get ahead.

It is the fly-by-night bird we should be.

Boll worm regulations will be lifted effective next Monday. Think goodness.

It is good news. The farmer will not be taxed approximately $2.00 for every bale he raises. That is something like five per cent of the total value of the bale and cost of picking, hauling, etc., has to be deducted too.

When the legislature convenes in January Howard and other counties that have been under such restrictions ought to put hands and feet on Austin with a small "army" and camp down there in the Capitol Dome until the governor has signed an appropriation bill providing remuneration to all farmers in the area for the losses incurred in meeting regulations for the past three seasons.

Very slight infestation ever was discovered, out here. We could have given up much cotton and getting the same price for it with out the restrictions.

But the federal and state in demagogues said the rules had to be invoked to protect the rest of the cotton belt. Then, by granny, the folks we helped protect ought to chip in on the cost, via federal and state appropriations.

FEDERAL FUND AWAITS TEXAS FOR HIGHWAYS

DALLAS, Nov. 13. (AP)—A special dispatch to the Dallas Times Herald today from Washington said that more than $100,000,000 was in the treasury there, ready to be spent on the construction of Texas highways when the state put up a matching fund.

The sum, $10,488,476.78, was made available through the determination of President Hoover to place federal aid allotments the fiscal year 1931-32 at the disposal of the various states at once, the dispatch said. It represents the aggregate federal aid allotment to Texas up to June 30, 1932.

It is the hope of President Hoover and other administration leaders that Texas and other states will take advantage of this offer and push road construction as a major means of aiding unemployment, the dispatch stated.

Aside from the Texas fund not yet called for $1,165,639.59 has been drawn from the federal treasury and is ready for expenditure upon Texas projects approved but not yet begun, which will cost $2,920,000. Federal aid highway construction aggregating $14,766,525 is under way in Texas. Of this amount, the federal government contributed $6,147,890.

NEW PASTORS SELECTED BY METHODISTS

SWEETWATER, Nov. 13. (AP)—A feature of the morning session of the second day of the annual Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, was a debate on the admission on trial of two preachers who did not have two years of work in an accredited college.

Nine pastors were admitted on trial and four were advanced to the second year class.

Bishop H. A. Boaz of Houston, asserted he wanted the conference to pay one hundred per cent of its benevolence. He paid tribute to the Oklahoma Pankhandle district, asserting it had collected more than 100 per cent. He advocated the pledging of benevolence early and the raising of at least half the amount by the district conference.

C. Q. Smith, hospitals secretary, reported that Southern Methodist hospitals had $475,000 charity work annually and that 3300 patients were treated last year.

Ginnings Are Held Below 13,000 By Adverse Weather

A rainy week which kept farmers out of the cotton field, kept the county's total ginnings below 13,000 the past week. All of the eleven Howard county gins reported a light business during the week on account of the rain.

Ginnings up to Thursday morning totaled 12,226 bales of standard size. Of this amount, 7,927 bales were reported by six Big Spring gins. Three gins at Comstock had handled 2,501 bales, with two at Knott having ginned 2,436 bales.

Since June 1 a total of 20,925 bales have been handled by the El Paso Compress, North Grove street. Of this amount approximately 50 per cent is local cotton.

The local office of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association reported the morning that 750 bales had been turned over to that organization on a 90 per cent advance basis. Although the office has been open three weeks, rainy weather has interfered with the business.

A large amount of the business coming to the coop is reported from Midland county and Achery. Officials of the association expressed themselves as satisfied with the showing made so far.

LAMESA, Nov. 13.—According to information given out here by officials of the local compress, it is estimated that more than 20,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in Dawson county. The compress has handled 17,000 bales up to Monday noon of this week. It is believed that two-thirds of the cotton has been ginned, which would give this county 30,000 bales production this season, though other estimates by business men and farmers place the total at 40,000 bales.

The rains this week have hampered the gathering of cotton and feed, but will be fine for winter wheat and barley, which has been sown for winter pasturing. It is estimated that the feed crop is only about half gathered. Enough feed is being made to supply the country's needs, and a surplus will be sold. Farmers are jubilant over the rains, as a good bottom season promised a good crop for another year.

W. H. Martin Is Ordained Priest In Service Here

In the prescribed ritual of the Protestant Episcopal church and with E. Cecil Seaman, D. D., bishop of North Texas, presiding, with three other clergymen assisting, William H. Martin, Big Spring, who has been in charge of the Episcopal missions here and in Midland and Lamesa, was ordained a Priest in services at St. Mary's Episcopal church here Wednesday morning.

A service, in which two young women were confirmed was held preceding the ordination ceremonies, which were followed by administration of Holy Communion.

Rev. Mr. Martin spent many years in the business world, having formerly been a banker. He renounced these things and began preparing for the ministry of his church. Unlike most candidates for the priesthood, Bishop Seaman declared in the ordination sermon, he had not attended a seminary but "you have perhaps done more reading in two years than you would have done in a seminary," he added.

Following the services a luncheon was tendered at the Settle's home by Mr. and Mrs. Martin and the visiting clergymen. Here a beautiful "gold cross" was presented by Rev. Martin by his congregation. The presentation was made by Rev. M. Willis P. Gerhart, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Abilene. Tolls were made by Rev. Mr. Alexander B. Hanson, Colorado, and Rev. Mr. Redner J. Moore of Lubbock.

Those attending the luncheon were Mesdames B. O. Jones, R. F. Schlegel, Shine Phillips, M. H. Bennett, Hanson, W. H. Martin, V. Van Gieson, Anson H. Wood, W. H. Leeper, John Clark, Carl S. Blomfield, W. A. Gilmour, Aaron Taylor, A. M. Rippes, Jimmy Redford, Jeanette Porter of Colorado, Garrett, Bruce Frazier, J. B. Yodine, Albert M. Fisher, Messrs Shine Phillips, B. J. Moore, Hanson, E. Cecil Seaman, W. H. Martin, C. P. Garrett, Anson H. Wood, C. S. Blomfield, W. A. Gilmour, Albert M. Fisher, Miss Alma Girard of Lubbock.

Following opening prayer by Bishop Seaman, the professional "X" by Christian Herald Co. was sung by the choir and congregation.

Bishop Seaman drew a clear, interesting picture of the ministry, its grades and duties in the ordination sermon.

Rev. Alexander B. Hanson, Colorado, presenting the candidate for the priesthood, in the approved manner addressed the bishop, in his clear, firm, Holy Table, dignified "Reverend Father in God, I present unto you this person present, to be admitted to the Order of Priesthood," to begin the formal part of the service.

All clergymen were fully vested. Bishop Seaman in the robes of Bishop Seaman, assisted by Rev. Mr. Gerhart as priest and Bachelor of Divinity and Rev. Hanson and Rev. Moore as priests.

Following presentation of the candidate the Litany was led by Rev. Mr. Moore. A hymn, "Approach My Soul The Mercy Seat" and doxology followed.

"Glory Be To Thee O Lord" and "Praise Be To Thee O Christ," chants were interspersed by the Gospel by Rev. Mr. Gerhart.

Prayer by the bishop and a hymn, "Come Holy Ghost" sung responsively preceded the bishop's prayer presaging the laying-on of hands by the bishop and clergy present.

Father Slays Children And Wounds Wife

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 13. (AP)—Three children were shot and killed today by their father, R. W. Playford, 55, a prominent Uniontown lawyer and banker, who then killed himself, apparently while suffering under the delusion that the family was facing poverty. Playford's wife was wounded probably fatally.

The dead, besides the father, are Nancy, 13; Margaret, 10; and Pauline, 8 Mrs. Playford, 43, before her marriage to Playford, was Nancy Stirling, member of a prominent Baltimore, Md., family.

A maid in the Playford home was the first to discover the victims. The girl, Viola White, said that she heard shots about 7 a. m., but believed the reports were caused by heating radiators in the house. A short time later, she said, she saw Playford leave the children's room and enter his own. She heard another shot, and upon investigating, found her employer's body on the floor.

All of the bodies except that of the man were in their beds. The children and Mrs. Playford apparently were sleeping when the shots were fired.

Bank Director Playford was a director of the Fayette Title and Trust company which merged recently with the National bank of Fayette county. He also was a director of the merged bank.

Friends of the family said Playford had said recently that he feared he would go insane because of business worries. He was quoted as saying that his family might have to go "to the poor house."

Despite these expressions of fear, Playford generally was regarded as still wealthy. Police said they believed his business worries had caused temporary insanity.

The condition of Mrs. Playford was such that physicians said she could not live. She was taken to a hospital, so critical was her wound. The oldest children, and Playford, apparently were killed instantly. The youngest child lived for a short time.

The body of Nancy, the oldest child, was found propped against her pillow, an open school book on her lap. She had been studying her school books when the father entered and fired a bullet into her head. A bed light was burning.

The Playfords lived in one of the most imposing residences in Uniontown, and Mrs. Playford was one of the leading women in the city's social circles. Playford was a layman in St. Peter's Episcopal church.

Pankhandle Man Found Wounded

BORGER, Texas, Nov. 13. (AP)—Residing an armed highwayman, Tolbert Goodwin, 30, salesman for the Ponca Wholesale Grocery Co., here, was wounded and robbed of approximately $1,000 by two men a mile and half south of here Tuesday night. It is said.

Goodwin had called on stores in Borger and had started on his home office with collections. Today he told authorities of his struggle with bandits and the second bandit who shot him.

"One of the men jumped on the running board just after I got out of the city limits," Goodwin said. "I could feel the impact, but was not sure there was anyone with me until the man crawled in to the seat, pointing a revolver at me. I let go of the steering wheel and started to struggle with him. While we were fighting the car ran into a ditch. I had the robber down and was just about to get the man when another man drove up in a car and, brushing over told me to stop. I did not stop and he shot me."

BAPTIST BODY TO RECOMMEND WACO FOR 1931

AMARILLO, Nov. 13. (AP)—The committee on "time, place and preacher" voted to recommend Waco as the site of the 1931 convention, but the report will not be submitted to the convention for ratification until tomorrow.

Action was deferred on adoption of a report of the committee appointed at the Beaumont convention last year to work out a Texas Baptist foundation that should have one of its chief functions the handling of all investments of all Texas Baptist institutions, including schools, hospitals, orphanage and executive board. On motion of Dr. F. S. Groner of Marshall it was decided to "hold the matter in abeyance until the next convention in order to allow more time to study the issues involved.

Dr. O. L. Haley of Nashville, representing the American Baptist Theological Seminary for negroes appealed for greater support of the movement to educate negroes for the ministry. He said the southern Baptists were sending only $25,000 annually for this purpose and said for lack of attention the negroes were drifting away. He said 5,000 of them had attended a meeting of Mohammedans in Chicago.

Dr. R. L. Davis of New Orleans spoke for the Baptist Bible Institute and Dr. W. T. Conner and Dr. L. R. Scarborough, president, appeared for the Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth. Dr. Scarborough said the Seminary must be endowed if it is to continue to be adequate to needs of the day.

An appeal will be made tonight for $200,000 to pay off the indebtedness of the Baptist college at Waco. Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of the institution and United States Senator Tom Connally of Marlin, will be the principal speakers.

Baylor must retire an indebtedness of $300,000 by December 31, in order to claim an endowment of $500,000 from the general education board of New York.

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the amount had been raised.

Medical Profession Represented On State Prison Board; Metcalfe Urges That Returns Be Certified

By The Political Analyst. AUSTIN, Nov. 13.—The medical profession is represented both in an individual sense and collectively, upon the state prison administration board, in the appointment of Dr. Holman Taylor, secretary of the State Medical Association. And the army spirit of executive efficiency in getting things done has also a loyal representative in the same man, since Dr. Taylor was an overseas colonel.

Mrs. Florence C. Fibere, club leader and sociologist, gives the board the benefit of a capable woman's viewpoint, as well as her appointment will be generally commended, not only by women but by all those who stress the humanitarian side of prison administration.

Through work done in Austin early this week, the legislature in January will have a better knowledge than ever before of actual workings of those large institutions in Austin, the insane hospital, and the schools for feeble-minded and the schools for special training of the state wards. Particularly the question of adequate housing at both the feeble-minded school and at the insane hospital, was studied.

Mrs. Helen Moore, legislator from Bay City, W. E. H. Beck, senator from De Kalb, E. B. Walsh, chairman of the board of control, resumed the first-hand study of the institutions, giving the first two days of the week to the Austin hospitals, schools and homes.

This season YOU CERTAINLY CAN AFFORD GOODYEAR'S

There never has been a time when the tire-buyer's money could buy as much as right now.

Rubber's cheap — and consequently tire prices are the lowest they've ever been.

People with an eye to values are seizing this chance and making the most of it.

They're buying Goodyear Tires — because right now they can buy them for as little as they used to pay for inferior or unknown tires.

Why are they singling out Goodyear Tires with especial insistence as against all others? Because Goodyear Tires are definitely superior in tread and carcass, the two main parts of a tire.

The Goodyear All-Weather Tread is superior in traction.

The Goodyear Supertwist Carcass is superior in vitality and long life.

You are not asked to accept these statements without inquiry.

Any Goodyear Dealer will be glad to demonstrate the facts. The facts certainly are: Goodyear Tires do give greater value.

As far back as 1916, it became a fact that more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind.

Every year since that time it has been increasingly true that more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind.

Today this preference for Goodyear runs into millions: millions more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind.

More Goodyear Tires than any other kind annually leave motor car factories on new cars—more Goodyear Tires go into service through the great Goodyear dealer organization — more Goodyear Tires are used by transcontinental, urban and interurban buses.

There can be only one conclusion: Goodyear Tires must be better—and at present prices they are a matchless bargain.

Now is the time to get yours.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. FLORENCE ROBINSON

Life as we see it is but a fleeting thing but the soul is immortal and best indeed is the life that points to higher ground, and causes us to look beyond this vale of tears to the beautiful home of the soul.

Such was Mrs. Robinson's life. She was one of God's noblest women. Her pure, Christian life was a beautiful example that shed its light of hope and cheer on all who came to know her. To know her was to love her. Possessing a brilliant and educated mind in all the higher arts, she naturally had a love for the beautiful. She was an educator of rare ability, an artist, a talented musician and singer. She made her home attractive and cheerful, with her flowers and sweet singing birds. She always met her friends with a cherry smile.

Cracks In the Dome

By THE POLITICAL ANALYST

Lieut. Gov. Edgar Witt has clarified the matter in which some of his hearers went away from a San Antonio meeting where he spoke with the impression that he had complained of lack of newspapers' cooperation on the constitutional amendments.

His criticism, as stated by him, was that the text of the constitutional amendments and the official notices was printed in small type stuck away inconspicuously. He says he believes his due to the legislature's having so sharply limited the amount to be paid for the official publication of the notices.

"I have no hesitancy in saying that but for the assistance of the newspapers, we could not have passed the amendments. I feel they are in a large measure due to the credit of the success of the campaign," Mr. Witt has just written.

In its recent hearing, the railroad commission produced expert testimony that when an oil field is allowed unrestricted flow, salt water is liable to come up rapidly and trap off oil into pockets where it cannot be recovered at all. Also that where the flow is held back the field lasts much longer and each well ultimately produces more oil than if turned loose.

Numbers of injunctions are pending against its production orders in several fields, including Darrat Creek. Now will salt water capture the fields while the legal battles are being fought out?

Evidently oil production has put a slight check on drilling wells in proven areas and has seriously hampered wildcatting. In October 210 producers were brought in, as compared with an average of 380 monthly for the year; but only 163 dry holes were completed, as compared with an average of 260 for each previous month of the year.

Congress avenue that leads up to the state capital will be the longest straight street in Texas if plans of civic betterment in the capital city prevail. To extend it without a curve 11 miles beyond the city limits to the county line toward San Antonio, cooperation of the state when the Post road is rebuilt is assured in the portion beyond the city limits.

Gov. Elect Ross S. Sterling complains that the job-hunters crowded upon him like a plague of locusts the day after the election. But they didn't wait until then by any means, as shown by his interview in Austin two weeks ago that they were even then pestering him seriously.

The matter of appointments is the least comforting of things a governor faces. There is satisfaction in appointing a friend or a competent person by placing him in high office. But there are dozens of good friends and capable people for each place. Each has hundreds of friends who will endorse, urge and recommend him. No matter how close the ties of friendship with the governor, he is debarred from selecting one, the one chosen usually feels he deserved it, and the other and their myriad friends all feel disappointed or hurt or mad.

Whatever Mr. Sterling's course in selecting his officials, it is now evident there will be a decisiveness and a finality about it—and not much politics. His emphatic notice that his friends aren't doing much good for those they seek to recommend and have honored indicates he is going to size up his appointees in his own way and make his choices without regard to political pressure or political expediency. One governor once announced in advance of an important appointment that he was not going to choose anyone who was an applicant, and the number of applications in that case was conspicuously small.

Interest is especially keen in the interstate commerce commission's hearing at Lubbock, Dec. 8 on the proposed 333-mile extension lines of the Texas Pacific and Northern. The decision is practically to say whether railroad-building, with pending projects disposed of is a closed book in Texas, or whether the companies that want to invest their own money take their own chances; and help develop the fast-advancing sections, will have a free hand in so doing.

Moody Reiterates Belief Railroad Projects Hold Much Of Solution For Unemployment Difficulties

Richland

AUSTIN, Nov. 13.—Texas needs, to solve its unemployment problem principally permission from the federal government for Texas railroads to spend their money in construction they want to start. This was Gov. Dan Moody's report to Col. Arthur Woods, unemployment relief chairman for Pres. Hoover, Gov. Moody said Monday.

Gov. Moody said he has told Col. Woods that the most extensive possible allotments of highway aid, and prompt decision of the interstate commerce commission of pending railroad applications are the only measures he knows of that Texas needs from the federal government.

He reiterated his former statement made when Col. Woods telephoned him from Washington, that there is some unemployment in Texas, but far less than the average for other states. Principal lack is in Texas business, he said, were the drought in a few counties, and the low price of cotton.

If the interstate commerce commission grants the pending railroad applications, it will provide extensive employment, particularly in the West Texas area where counties were affected by the drought, and in the Panhandle country, Gov. Moody said.

RESEDA, Calif.—A chicken ate a $1,900 diamond from Mrs. S. S. Long's ring when she was throwing corn to a flock of 250. COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

MISSED 2 GAMES IN HALF CENTURY; GETS IN FREE

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Michigan State has one staunch old football supporter who has missed but two home games since the Spartans began playing the fall classic back in the '80s.

Edward Redman, weather-beaten at 65, never pays for a home game. Every ticket seller on the campus knows his face, though few can tell his name.

He is not quite sure of the year but he says he missed two home football games back in 1912 or 1913. He was ill. He not only attends Saturday games, but is out for practice every day.

Redman retired last year after working on the college farm for 48 years.

CIVVIES FAIL TO STOP STAR DARTMOUTH KICKER

HANOVER, N. H. (AP)—Clothes may make the man, but "Air Mail" Bill Morton, Dartmouth's versatile quarterback, once proved that he needed no particular costume to prove himself a football player.

Morton, whose kicking, passing, blocking and running the ball has been one of the main factors of the Big Green's success this year, sat on the bench in civilian clothes when he injured several years ago while his team, New Rochelle high school, battled Yonkers high.

A chance for a field goal popped up for New Rochelle, but there was no capable kicker in the lineup. Morton was sent in every day clothes and all.

Yonkers protested, but "Air Mail" was permitted to kick. He booted the goal.

STRIBLING OR SHARKEY, CRIS TUFFY GRIFFITHS

CHICAGO, Nov. 13. (AP)—Tuffy Griffiths says he is eager to have a fling of fistcuffs with Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling.

Tuffy, a person of tender years but tough ring tactics, wants to battle the Boston heavyweight in a Christmas fund show early in December.

And, if he survives that, he would tangle with the perennially young Mr. Stribling.

A Stribling-Griffiths match could have been arranged for an indoor show here, but Jack O'Keefe, Tuffy's manager, objected. He thinks it is a "natural" for an outdoor entertainment.

WOLVERINES HONOR SMEAD

EAST LANSING, Mich., Nov. 13. (AP)—Harold Smead, Michigan State's wheelchair football captain, whose leg was amputated following a motorcycle accident last summer, has been presented with a Wolverine football blanket by the University of Michigan football squad.

TEXAS GIRL DROWNS

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 13. (AP)—Mrs. Margaret Kennedy, 18, of Amelia, Texas, was drowned today in the plunge of an automobile from a bridge here into 18 feet of water.

Her brother-in-law, Alfred L. Garren, chief petty officer in the navy, who was driving the car, attempted to drag the girl through a broken window but became exhausted. Garren said the car skidded on wet street car rails and crashed through the bridge railing.

Miss Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kennedy, of Amelia, came to Norfolk two weeks ago to visit her sister.

BATTERY STOLEN

Burglars who entered the Auto Battery Station, 306 West Third Street, sometime Wednesday night, obtained a battery and a pair of field glasses. No money was taken, it was said. Entrance to the building was gained through the front door. The robbery was discovered this morning.

BUCKLEY PAROLED WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—Bert B. Buckley, former state treasurer of Ohio, convicted on charges of bribery and conspiracy and sentenced to serve two years and six months in the penitentiary, today was granted a parole effective Nov. 20. He had one year yet to serve in the Atlanta penitentiary. Buckley was arrested in January, 1929, and charged with conspiracy to bribe John Eckhart, acting assistant prohibition director of the Ohio-Indiana district, to permit the shipping of beer from Cincinnati breweries. Governor Cooper threatened to impeach him before the legislature and he resigned as treasurer. Buckley contended his trouble was the result of connivance among political enemies.

BANK CLOSED

SHARON, Pa., Nov. 13. (AP)—The Dollar Title & Trust Co. bank, a state institution, was closed today and the cashier, Ralph E. Matthews, 34, was held for court on charges of embezzling $125,000 of the bank's funds.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 11, 1930. I have tried to live a Christian life since childhood. Am now 31 years old and afflicted by doubts and fears. What does it mean for me, a woman of average intelligence, of no special talents or influence to seek that the Kingdom of God?

Life's middle period brings its peculiar temptations and distractions. The heyday and rapture have slipped behind one. Youth's certainties have been doubted by the realization that some things one had hoped for can never be. The pot of gold is still ahead, if anywhere, but the rainbow retreats as one advances. Meanwhile the sun has swung beyond the meridian and slips toward the west.

Many of the best of men and women have confessed such feelings as depress you. That excellent saint, Jacob Boehme, called this experience "going under the cloud." Yet he could console himself and so can you. With the perfection of discipleship's joy in the past, at any rate, they were as rich as they are undeniable. Samuel Rutherford, another resplendent star of goodness, who still shines for many of us, declared the cloud would pass and the light shine out again. St. Francis, the beautiful figure of medieval Christianity, rejoiced in the shadow as on the rainbow. His lamp always burned brightly.

As for your more specific inquiry, I can only say that a person seeking first the Kingdom is confident that everything else subserves that as well. It is the reward. The rule and realm of the Eternal Father are secured in you when you can say, "He is my Lord, and whatever He would, I will do for Him." Do not count your gifts as trophies. Let all your words and deeds and thoughts will toward the moving's point before the rising dawn.

What are the things of the world in which a Christian may indulge?

Everything in the world and in yourself which you can offer to God's service and that of your fellow men. The late Professor James Denney, in a sermon on "The Cup of the Lord" said in effect that there are some things a Christian ought not to read, some places he ought not to frequent. But he did not particularize as to details because he felt these should be left to the conscience of the individual Christian.

St. Paul laid down the general rule: "Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons." Your spiritual intelligence should enable you to distinguish and keep separate these two. Specific prohibitions may prevail against flagrant sins, but the balance of your life is at your own discretion. Direct it by attention from whatever would your soul's susceptibilities to the pure and the true. Expand it by refraining from practices which may be harmful to your spiritual life, but are really of another in this connection read the fourteenth chapter of the Epistle to the Romans.

Above all, do not stamp your goodness on. Make your religion about as agreeable as an insurance policy. The marvels of God's great universe and man's glorious achievements are all yours to offer upon, and receive in the name of the Master, remembering that their glory and beauty are yours.

Eight Teams Of District Have Fights

Big Spring, Mineral Wells Idle This Week-End

Eight teams of District Two will be in action Saturday, with two taking the cure. Mineral Wells and Big Spring will let the week-end slide by without a game.

All of the alleged Big Four take on alleged members of the Little Six. Abilene, remembering the Bobcats of 1929, and remembering the Bobcats of 1930 as well, invade the sheep country where they will have one of the strongest tussles of the year. The Bobcats are primed to a nice finish for the game, and the Elephants from Mayhewland can expect to meet opposition. Great quantities of opposition.

Sweetwater, having won her first game in two years, takes off for Cisco in high spirits. Having created another seasonal upset by clouting the Big Spring Steers 13 to 6 without so much as giving the Steers a look in, the Mustangs wouldn't mind playing Breckenridge over again now.

Although the Lobos are favored to cop the contest, the Ponies are predicted to redeem themselves somewhat since they have finally crashed the win column at the expense of the Steers.

Unless Brownwood high school borrows a couple of dozen players from Howard Payne and Daniel Baker, the Breckenridge Buckaroos are expected to run up another of those top heavy tallies. The Lions will learn things about highly organized football teams Saturday afternoon.

The other game on tap is the

Cornhuskers Await Start Of Carnival

NORTON, Kas., Nov. 13 (AP)—

Rustling under Indian summer skies, long rows of tall Kansas corn are awaiting the signal that tomorrow will inaugurate the midwest's own athletic carnival.

Striving mightily with peg and hook, champion huskers of seven states, selected during a long series of elimination matches will battle for the honor of being named national champion.

Thousands of spectators are expected to view the onslaught on the all time husking record, set in 1925 by Elmer Williams, of Illinois. Williams was credited with tossing 55.5 bushels of corn in his wagon in 30 minutes.

The 35 bushels of grain did not represent his complete effort, however, as all contestants are scored on a basis of the corn torn from the stalk, minus deductions for ears missed and those not completely husked.

Preparations are being made in Norton to care for 25,000 visitors. It is expected, however, that those in attendance will be Ranger-Eastland affair at Eastland. Eastland, it will be recalled, is the team that held Abilene 6-6 and beat San Angelo 9-6. It is also the team that Big Spring defeated 60, with Rex Clark, Eastland flash, sitting on the bench.

The annual game between the two clubs is always interesting. They are good football rivals, and every once in a while Eastland crashes through. It was back in 1927 when the great Bull Johnson carried his teammates to a 7 to 0 victory over the Bulldogs. The Ranger-Eastland and the Abilene-San Angelo games should prove the most interesting of the week-end.

only a small part of the unseen audience which will hear the affair broadcast over a coast to coast hookup of the National Broadcasting Company.

Tomorrow's husking will be a suspenseful affair. The bands, recruited from northern Kansas and southeastern Nebraska, will encourage the contestants during the wild rush down the corn rows.

Due to late completion of state contests names of all those entered in the carnival of peg and hook have not been announced. Champions and runner-up from Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and Indiana are expected to participate.

The field selected for the "bang board battle" is located eight miles northwest of Norton. The heavy yields of white corn is expected to average 60 bushels to the acre.

MAIL CASE CALLED

FORT WORTH, Nov. 13 (AP)—Appearance before United States Commissioner Newam of four of six defendants involved in charges of using the mails to conduct a lottery, is expected this afternoon or Friday.

They are: W. G. Hutson, M. O. Robinson, M. D. Gardner and D. S. Turner, for whom warrants were issued Wednesday by Newam. The other two defendants, R. C. Parrish and A. W. Hutson, who Wednesday appeared before the commissioner, have posted bonds of $10,000.

The complaint against the six was filed by United States postal inspectors and charged use of the mails for conducting a lottery. The exact charge is that the defendants "engaged in conducting through the mails lotteries, gift enterprises, or schemes for the distribution of money by lot or chance," in violation of the United States penal code.

A school for apprentice pilots of motorless airplanes was inaugurated at Balma, France, a small village, recently.

THE WATER BUCKETS

The Big Spring Steers will have plenty of time to think over, ponder and reflect upon the unexpected happenings of the past two weeks. Their grid schedule calls for the next engagement with the Ranger Bulldogs—just a bunch of the district trying to get along and might have had it not been for Cisco. That fray, so the schedule reads, is Nov. 22. Incidentally it is the penultimate affair for the Steers and their final Class A game of the year. The clash with Harry Taylor's Colorado Wolves Thanksgiving Day when everyone eats turkey except sports writers.

Between now and the time for the final clash some way will be figured out whereby the Steers won't have to go into the game the underdogs. Unless one of the second string clubs take a razor at some of the Class B teams in this section this week-end, things will be as quiet out at Steer stadium as the time we dropped our watch in the soup.

The latest crack to be printed about Whataman Arthur Shires has a verbal barrage at a congressman. It seems that when Shires was living in Washington and doing little things for the Senators last season he was asked to dinner where a group of lobbyists, politicians, and perhaps statesmen were present. One of them didn't care about the Great Shires being there. "Say," remarked Shires, "some of these days you'll walk into a living room and knock a bulb out of me off the mantel."

The fact that the Steers dropped a brace of games in a row to owners and operators of the district cellar department has more than one head to thinking. Take the blonde-haired scribbler of the Concho river stronghold. It has started him thinking. Which is some accomplishment. He thinks perhaps that the Steers were indeed lucky to gain a 6-6 tie with his Angelo Bobcats back yonder a trio of weeks or thereabouts. We still contend otherwise. We probably always will. Cross bases his assertion on the showing made by the Bobcats against other eleven, comparing them with the showing made by the Steers against the same aggregation. The difference between San Angelo and Big Spring teams is wide. There is always something this writer has admired about the Bissett organization, and that is this: It doesn't make any difference which team is facing them, it's just another team. There is the greatest mental hazard removed.

When Cisco played San Angelo, the Bobcats were not stricken with an inferiority complex. There were 11 Bobcats and 11 Lobos, and the Bobcats might as well have been playing Whiffletree, Arkansas as for the difference it made. The same thing applies to the Abilene contest. In other words the Bobcats are fired with just enough egotism to do them good. The Steers played their best game against San Angelo. Why? Because they felt confident they had the best team and could win the game. Against Abilene and Cisco they were beaten two days before game time. Talking collectively, we contend that today Big Spring has a better team, considering the material, than San Angelo has. Yet, they have been hit squarely between the shoulder blades with a slump. A mean slump at that.

On Nov. 22 when Big Spring invades Ranger we would wager, if we were turned that way, that Esker Curtis and Tricky Ward can not scrape up a tackle to tackle line that will outweigh the Steer forward wall. Placing Pardue against Reeves at center, Hanshaw and Maxwell, tackles; Glover and Heblson, guards, and that aggregation will outweigh the Bulldogs. The old adage of "the bigger they come the harder they flop" doesn't apply any more. The thing is now.

who flipped the pass to Stafford that scored the Steers' first touchdown. The two appear about alike from the distant vista afforded by the press box.

The Southern Methodist Ponies are off for Baltimore and their bout with the Navy, favored to win by Eastern critics. The fact is a significant commentary on the amount of recognition agined by the Southwest Conference in the last two years.

The Baylor eleven will in position to do Texas Christian a big favor this week-end. By trimming the Arkansas Razorbacks at Fayetteville, the Bears could take a lot of pressure off the defending champions—enable them just to play 50-50 football the remainder of the way and still finish on top.

Morley Jennings Pleased With Showing Of Baylor Against Texas Contingent

Christians Ponder Over Statement Of Bruin Mentor As Clash With University Eleven Draws Near

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Nov. 13 (AP)—Meet the coach who thought his team played some exceedingly nice football, notwithstanding it caught a 14 to 0 beating.

He is Morley Jennings, whose Baylor Bears took the aforesaid jolt from the Texas Longhorns at Waco last Saturday. It seems Jennings had heard it insinuated that his boys did not perform quite as well as they might have.

"They were defeated by the most powerful football unit I have seen in the Southwest Conference in the five years I have been at Baylor," was his reply. "If Baylor had played the kind of football last year that it played Saturday, we would not have lost a conference game in 1929."

Strong words—those, calculated to give the champion Texas Christian eleven food for thought as it prepares to joust the Longhorns Saturday at Fort Worth.

Jennings further cited four Longhorn players as the most powerful quartet he had ever seen on the same team in the south-west. He referred to Stafford and Key of the backfield, Blanton at tackle and Howie, center.

While on the subject of that mighty Longhorn array, the writer will take the opportunity to amend an error appearing in his account of the Baylor-Texas tilt. He has learned it was Captain Dexter Sallee, not Ernie Key,

60 TALESMAN ORDERED FOR CONNER CASE

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 13 (AP)—Six deputy sheriffs were ordered into the street to bring into court an additional 60 talesmen after the original venire of 150 was exhausted in securing eight jurors to hear the trial of J. H. Conner on an indictment charging him with robbery by assault with firearms in 94th district court today.

The talesmen were expected to be in court when the afternoon session opened at 3:30 o'clock.

Louise Schlenker, defense counsel, indicated in questions to prospective jurors that Conner would not take the stand in his own defense. The defendant is charged with holding up a Clarence Saun ders store here May 10, 1930, when $200 was taken.

Conner is also charged by indictment with fraudulent acquisition of $75,000 by threatening to kill R. W. Morrison, local capitalist, and in three other counts with robbery by assault with firearms.

PROBE GUARD

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 13 (AP)—The testimony of James J. Barnes, trustee at the Bexar county jail, featured the preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Onion today of Bob Pipes, jail guard, on a charge of attempting to aid the escape from jail of J. H. Conner charged with extortion and robbery by assault with firearms.

Pipes, who has been employed a guard about four months, was released on bond of $1,000 set by Justice Onion after the hearing.

Barnes testified that Conner handed him a triangular wrapped package Sunday morning and told him Pipes had brought the "stuff." The conversation followed a previous request by Conner asking him to "put the stuff away somewhere when it came Barnes said.

HUNT FOR BODIES

EUREKA, Cal., Nov. 13. (AP)—Spurred by the criticism of Eureka's woman mayor, const guardsmen today intensified their search for bodies of the crew of the lumber schooner Brooklyn, torn to pieces by heavy seas as she steamed out of Humboldt harbor last Saturday.

The first body, that of George Vigdel, seaman, was recovered yesterday close to the whistling buoy near where the Brooklyn went down.

Accusing local coast guardsmen of inefficiency, Mrs. Emily Jones, mayor of Eureka, telegraphed const guard headquarters in San Francisco requesting an amphibian plane to carry on an independent search.

Fishing boats were permitted to resume East Mate Jogen M. Jones after he had drifted on a piece of wreckage for 70 hours.

Grave continued to receive but his feet were swollen and his knees were badly bruised from kneeling on the skiff's raft.

DOG FINDS BODIES

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13. (AP)—A small building howled and ran from house to house in the neighborhood of the Blaine avenue last night, finally attracting neighbors to a motor car parked at the curb.

They found Homer B. Arnes, 37, and Robert O'Connor, 32, both policemen, critically ill in the car, apparently from poisoning, and called police. Both died en route to a hospital.

A bottle containing a liquid police said smelled like alcohol was found in the car and an empty bottle was in the ground nearby.

Mrs. Arnes said she did not believe the deaths were intentional. Her husband, she said, liked to eat, drink and be merry too well to kill himself.

The dog which brought neighbors to the scene was Arnes' constant companion.
