Kitty's Korner

By Kitty Montgomery

We got a dandy new camera last week and were so delighted. Imagine our disappointment when we developed the film and got the same old pictures. This tends to prove my theory that picture quality is all in the hands that click the shutter. Of course, we were not familiar with it and managed to open it in the light and expose most of the film, that could be a factor. We had taken several pictures of the jail break, or should I say broken jail, but only managed to get one print that was remotely akin to the actual scene. If we use it, you may have to use your imagination, but with imagination you can easily see the hole in the wall (not to be confused with the vines that cover the top of the jail). You can also see the rocks that the fugitive pushed out of the wall at the bottom of the picture, if you have a good imagination that fits.

Luckily, Charles Edgerton got some good pictures of the 4-H Horse Show, so we aren't suffering from a complete lack this week.

We took several shots of the DPS helicopter used in the search for the escapee, but found nothing on the exposed film that looked anything like a helicopter. I try to keep these things in perspective and retain my sense of humor about the lack of talent I seem to have when you put a camera in my hands, but it isn't easy. If I took it seriously, I would probably commit suicide and heaven only knows how they would fill up this side of the paper.

Ever since June arrived, we've had a cold wind out of the north with lovely days and blanket-cold nights. For the past two mornings we have been forced to turn on the heat to thaw out. I am not complaining, you understand, just find it mighty peculiar. It was around 50 degrees yesterday morning and that is most unusual for this part of the country at this time of the year. I hope it lasts all summer long, but I'm not being optimistic.

I know several big strong boys who are hunting summer jobs. Every year at this time I become a sort of self-appointed employment agency so if you need summer help give me a call. They all want permanent jobs through the summer, but if you have enough to keep them busy for a day or two, I'm sure they could be persuaded.

My motto this summer is help keep the streets safe. Hire a boy and get him out of his car."

The low census figure caused no end of controversy around these parts. In 1960 we were in Class A scholastically or interscholastically whatever and now we have fewer people by over 1000 and we are in Class AA. However, it seems that they've set the limits somewhere in the years.

On the other hand people that moved out of the county since 1960, but we have several processing plants and we didn't have in 1960. Again, as one enumerator pointed out, the college were counted in the county where their parents were in 1960 and this year were counted in the county where they live (Continued on Last Page)

Red Cross $450 Short Of Quota; Local Need Great

The 1970 Crockett County Red Cross Drive is still $450 short of its quota this year. Lack of volunteers has slowed the house-to-house canvass and it has not been completed in most of the town.

Anyone who has been missed is urged to drop his donation by the bank or the water office. The local chapter of the Red Cross is more involved with local people than any other organization and to continue to serve the local area effectively, the quota must be met.

American Legion Post Organized At Friday Meet

Formal organization of an American Legion post, the first to be organized in this community in all the years since World War I, was completed at a meeting in the courthouse attended by 17 local veterans.

District Commander Austin S. White of Midland and Assistant District Commander Wagner from the same city were present to assist in the organization.

Claude (Hack) Leath was elected Post Commander. Other officers elected were: Celestino Fuentos, first Vice Commander; Lawrence Jones, second Vice Commander; Armando Reina, Finance Officer; Ed Collett, Sergeant at Arms; Romulo Vela, Chaplain; Roy Coates, Adjutant; and O. D. West, Historian.

The newly organized post will hold its first regular meeting Thursday evening, June 4, at 7:30 p. m. in the courthouse.

A membership drive is still under way. Any one who served in the armed forces or merchant marine during World War I, World War II, Korean or Vietnam Wars is eligible for membership.

No name has yet been selected for the post.

Sadie Hawkins Dance Saturday At Youth Center

A "Sadie Hawkins" dance will be held Saturday night at the Civic Center under the sponsorship of the Youth Center which also operates in the building. High school students and this year's graduates are invited from Ozona and area towns. Furnishing music for the dance will be "The Century's Turn" of Big Spring.

The dance will begin at 8 p. m. and end at 12 midnight. Charge for a couple will be $2 and for stag $1. There will be many added attractions in the Sadie Hawkins Day fashion, such as Marryin' Sam, the Wishin' well, etc. Guests are urged to dress in the true hillbilly fashion.

No alcoholic beverages will be permitted in the building nor in the parking lots.

CLOSED - Saturday and Sunday. Open Monday at 5:00 p. m. El Sombrero Cafe. 12-ltp

Possible Error Seen

Preliminary Census Count Shows Crockett County With Slight Loss

When the 1970 Census figures for Crockett County were released last week, the county had lost 458 people according to the preliminary count from San Angelo, since the 1960 count. In 1960 a total of 4209 were counted and the new figures show 3751.

Except for a slowing down of oil activity in the county in the last few months, since Congress reduced the depletion allowance, all indicators point to a possible error in the total count as announced in the preliminary figures. With the community activity level so far advanced from the 1960 period, informed sources feel that a drop in population to the figure indicated seems unreal.

At least one of the enumerators thought the figures for the county might have been entered incorrectly in the San Angelo office. According to her, a rough count had amounted to more than the total figure after one enumerator's report had been turned in. One thing the enumerators are all in agreement about is the fact that everyone was counted. The Crockett County group of census takers was commended by their crew chief for having the most complete and correct reports of any group working under her supervision, and all the women are sure they made a complete count in their areas. Storytime Hour To Begin June 16 At H. S. Library

Storytime Hour, sponsored annually by Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, will begin Tuesday from 10:00 until 11:00 a. m. throughout the summer.

The event is planned for children from ages 4 through 12, with three different reading groups. Time will also be provided for checking out books from the children's section of the library.

All children in this age group are urged to come and bring a friend.

Dr. Simon Opens 2 Weeks Medical Practice In Ozona

Dr. Ralph Simon of El Paso will open a medical practice in Ozona beginning tomorrow at 9 a. m. and be here for two weeks before returning to El Paso. Dr. Simon has been out of private practice for several years and wants the two-week period to decide whether or not he will return to practice. He formerly practiced medicine here before going into a specialized medical field.

According to a Chamber of Commerce newsletter, distributed last week, the directors of that organization voted, not as the Chamber of Commerce, but as private citizens, to guarantee Dr. Simon the money he had asked for the two-week period. The commissioners court had refused to guarantee the $2,500 sum for the two-week period without a commitment from the doctor during earlier negotiations, although a very attractive offer was made by the court for a firm commitment.

Medica Diversified, Inc., has taken over active management of the Crockett County Hospital and arrangements have been made with that organization for Dr. Simon to have full use of the hospital facilities during his two-week stay. He will be seeing and treating patients in offices formerly occupied by Dr. Randle Coker.

Mrs. Huey Ingram will serve as Dr. Simon's office nurse and receptionist.

Land title clouds wiped away, the way was cleared for delivery of a deed from Crockett county to the State of Texas of land in the south part of Ozona for use as a site for an area office and communications center for the Texas Department of Public Safety.

A plot 200x200 feet in the triangle formed by Highway 163 and Ave. E. formerly used by the State Highway Department maintenance division, has been donated by Crockett County to the State for use of the DPS as a site for the communications center and area offices soon to be built. Title to the land, deeded to Crockett County when the town was founded, has been cleared and the title and deed have been approved by the Attorney General.

Glenn McLaughlin, Chief of Staff Services for the Department of Public Safety in Austin, Jim Jordan from the Austin DPS office, and H. E. Herman, representative of the State Building Commission, were here Tuesday to examine the site for the office building, make topographic maps, locate water, electric and sewer connections and other information which will be needed in drawing up plans and specifications. The group came by plane piloted by Max Westerman.

Major E. K. Browning of Midland, DPS office, who was unable to be here for the Tuesday meeting, told The Stockman by long distance telephone, that the Department hopes to have the area offices ready by middle or late August. The installation will bring a complement of five communications people to man the facility, an area radio center which will use the commercial tower at Crockett Heights for its antenna from which the station will be able to reach patrol cars a distance of 50 miles or more and reach other stations several hundred miles away.

Flying W Rises From Cellar To 2nd Half Lead

Flying W Ranchers, who shared the cellar with B&B Grocers at the end of the first half of Little League play, have jumped out to the second half lead with two straight wins. Ozona Oil, first-half runners-up, are in the cellar with two losses, and first half champs, Moore Oils, share the middle with B&B Grocers with 1-1 records.

In the first game of the second half of play Monday night, Moore Oil beat Ozona Oil 9-5. Winning pitcher was Ricky Perry, who gave up 8 hits, and losing pitcher was Romaldo Cervantez, giving up 7 hits. Leading the hitting for Moore Oil were Orlando DeHoyos and Howard Huercoza with a hit each. Weant and Field led the loser's efforts.

Flying W Ranchers took a 13-3 win over B&B Grocers in the second game of the night. Ray Vargas was the winning pitcher and Rod Allee, the loser. Flying W collected 5 hits with no leading hitter and Vaden Aldridge got 2 of the Grocers' 3 hits.

Flying W squeaked by Moore Oil 8-7 in an exciting first game Monday night. Ray Vargas went to the mound for the winners and gave up only 3 hits. Tony Conner was the losing pitcher, giving up 6 hits. The (Continued on Last Page)

A SHAKEDOWN?

The so-called "Southern Christian Leadership Conference," under the leadership of the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy has again appealed for funds to boost the dwindling income of his organization. This time the demand is for a mere $1,200,000.

Whether Mr. Abernathy considers himself a ladies man, or whether because the female is alleged to be a soft touch for emotional appeals, the pitch was made before the First United Methodist Women's Assembly in Houston, Texas on May 11. As it turned out, the assembly did not have the power to appropriate church funds, but the promise was made that the request would be brought before the annual meeting of the Board of Missions of the Methodist denomination.

There are just one or two tiny, little things that bother us. In a press conference after the assembly, Abernathy said that "the vast majority of black Americans will follow nonviolent leadership within the system if it moves toward justice and brotherhood."

Does Mr. Abernathy mean to suggest that if our system moves in directions which are not in accord with his definition of "justice and brotherhood," that black America will be violent? And what did he mean by the use of the qualifying phrase, "within the system," — assuming that he meant the American system of seeking change within the law, by peaceful means. Did he mean to imply that if his demands are not met, he would go a route outside "the system," by illegal and violent means?

Editors, lawyers and wives are notoriously finicky about the precise meaning of words — but, as his statement stands, the demands by Mr. Abernathy strongly suggest a shakedown.

WHERE ELSE BUT IN AMERICA?

The Constitution of the United States declares that it is the right of everyone to peacefully petition the government for a redress of grievances. Hence the reputed heads of the criminal syndicate known as the Mafia were perfectly within their rights (and the law) when they picketed the FBI in Manhattan to protest the arrest of some of their relatives. But where else could it happen but in America?

It seems that Mr. Rocco Miraglia, 44, and Mr. Joseph Iannacci, 39, and Mr. Joseph Columbo, Jr., 23, were as-rested by the Bureau on charges of conspiring to melt down a hot half million dollars worth of U. S. coins and sell the silver obtained thereby. Somewhere or other that old fustbudget, J. Edgar Hoover, found an irritating statute in his dusty old law books that says it is wrong to do such things. And so it was that the coin collecting trio were inconvenienced by having to appear in Brooklyn, New York federal courthouse for arraignment.

It was at this point that Mr. Joseph Columbo, father of Joseph, Jr., and reputed head of the powerful Brooklyn branch of the Mafia, became indignant. His own son arrested! It was too much. And so Joe Columbo, Senior led the picket line with 40 other demonstrators for two hours in front of the FBI Manhattan headquarters. The marchers carried signs reading: "FBI Get Off Our Backs" and "Nixon is anti-Italian."

What a fantastic country we live in! It is high time for the carping critics to open their eyes, to see the wonders about them, and to recognize that nowhere in the world is mankind granted the measure of freedom we enjoy under our form of government.

Poisonous Plant Warning Issued By Soil Service

As if the West Texas ranchman didn't have enough worries already, the Soil Conservation Service calls attention to another poison plant which causes death among cattle — and probably sheep too.

The plant is tansymustard and is said to be common in western Texas and trans-Pecos region, and can be quite abundant during period of above average rainfall.

The plant is described as usually single-stemmed, covered with short grayish hairs and leafy throughout. The leaves are deeply divided into small segments. The small, yellowish flowers, which are borne in elongated clusters at the ends of stems, are typical of the mustard family. The fruit is a slender, round pod an inch or more long and contains small waxy seeds. The pod is borne on a relatively long stalk. When the tansymustard is abundant and other plants scare it may be eaten in large amount and cause poisoning trouble as long as it is in bloom.

Mustard poisoning is similar to "blind staggers" produced by selenium-bearing plants. Selenium, however has not been detected in dangerous amount in mustard. Poisoned animals first become unable to see, with either partial or total blindness. They often walk in circles or may stand and push against fences or other objects. Later on the animal loses the ability to eat or drink. Within a short time the animal becomes thin and weak and soon dies if it is neglected.

Special care may save some animals, the SCS bulletin says. Water should be supplied and if the animal can not swallow, the water must be poured directly into the stomach through a medium size hose. Some nourishment such as cottonseed meal might be mixed with the water if recovery is slow.

Lake Amistad Has Been Stocked With Four Million Fish

Del Rio — Lake Amistad, a new reservoir on the Rio Grande near Del Rio, has been stocked with nearly 4 million fish since impoundment four years ago.

George Henderson, a fisheries biologist and project leader for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, told a group of Department biologists in the annual Wildlife Restoration Function Staff Meeting that the stocking program has put an estimated total of 3,903,700 fish of several species in the 31,000-acre lake.

Henderson said the stocking total included more than 3 million black bass and lesser quantities of other species.

He said recent net surveys in the lake showed the average weight of bass at two pounds. Catfish are averaging 13 pounds in size, Henderson said.

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman Thursday, June 5, 1941

With contract awarded after advertising for bids, drilling is scheduled to start June 10 on a 12 1/2 inch well atop the water works hill seeking water in sufficient quantity for installation of a modern rotary type pump to provide ample water for the city water works system.

In one of the heaviest down pours seen here in many years, rain Tuesday morning, which lasted little over an hour, registered a total of 2.1 inches. Showers throughout the day brought the total to 3 inches.

Scott Peters, president of Ozona Rotary Club and active vice-president of Ozona National Bank, has been named Crockett County chairman of the USO drive here. Funds will provide recreational and welfare service to U. S. soldiers, sailors and marines outside training camps and bases.

Sepriano Gonzales of Fort Stockton was instantly killed Saturday night when a light pickup in which he and five other laborers were riding, crashed into a concrete bridge on the highway west of Ozona.

Twenty-two notaries public in Crockett County received commissions on June 1. The commissions are for a period of two years.

Members of Ozona's Rotary Club listened attentively during the club's program time Tuesday to some of the highlights in the early life of Crockett County's No. 1 citizen, Judge Chas. E. Davidson as told by himself.

Although still unconscious, Dick Lee McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McDonald, injured a week ago when a horse fell with him, is improving in a San Angelo hospital and attending physicians are confident of his recovery.

—29 years ago— Sale of 40,000 pounds of eight months wool at 40 cents and 7,000 pounds of last fall's clip at 36 cents was reported here this week by Melvin Brown, manager of the Ozona Wool & Mohair Co. warehouse.

—29 years ago— An effective remedy for screwworm, the most destructive insect pest to livestock known, was announced this week. The remedy consists of a correct compounding of the two principal materials, diphenylamine and benzol, at present advocated by the Department of Agriculture.

—29 years ago— Dr. J. A. Fussell, who has been under treatment in a San Angelo hospital for injuries suffered in an automobile accident east of Ozona several weeks ago, has returned to his home here.

—29 years ago— Miss Billie Jean Lanthicum was hostess to the Ace Bridge Club at her home here Saturday afternoon. Miss Jean Drake won the high score prize, Miss Mary Frances West, the traveling prize, and Miss Toots Smith the bingo.

—29 years ago— Mrs. Richard Flowers entertained the Junior Class of the Methodist Church Vacation Bible School when she honored her daughter, Mary Kathryn, on her tenth birthday.

—29 years ago— Mrs. Melvin Brown entertained the Sunflower Club with a bridge-breakfast at Hotel Ozona Tuesday morning. Mrs. H. B. Tandy won high score and Mrs. Evert White, second high. Mrs. Sherman Taylor won the bingo prize.

—29 years ago— Mr. and Mrs. Jones Miller, Mrs. Ben Lemmons, and Misses Lola Taylor and Dorothy Stone are leaving today for Mexico City where they will vacation for two weeks.

—29 years ago— Two Ozona men, Leo Williams and Arturo Ramirez, are scheduled to leave here by bus Saturday night to report to the induction center at Fort Bliss in El Paso.

—29 years ago— Frank James and C. S. Denham will represent Ozona's newly formed Rotary Club at the 1941 International

This is Jurisprudence?
It is written in Scripture "Before thee remove the mote from your neighbor's eye, cast out the beam from thine own."

And it now begins to appear that if Western civilization is to preserve the thousand year old system of Anglo-Naxon justice, it is time for the organized lawyers of the nation to take some stern action.

Many attorneys have been quite active in castigating the practice of journalism, and many have moved quite vocally into what is loosely termed "consumerism."

But the national and state bar associations have been, and are, most lax in maintaining the dignity of their profession.

It is one thing to fight for a client, but it is another thing to destroy the dignity and decorum of the courtroom, especially when one is an officer of the court, which all lawyers are in fact.

It is one thing to be vigilant to preserve justice for all men... it is another thing to arouse mob passions.

Deciding on guilt or innocence has long plagued the minds of civilized men. There was a time when "trial by fire" or "trial by combat" was the preferred method with the theory that God would make the innocent victorious. This was perhaps a hold over from ancient Greek when men believed the gods took an active part in all affairs of humans.

For it is not difficult to imagine what action these bodies would take against a ball player who clobbered an umpire.

Washington News Letter

Congressman O. C. Fisher

ALTHOUGH ALL U. S. TROOPS are to be out of Cambodia by June 30, certain Senators continue to belabor the issue. What those Senators overlook is that many American lives are involved in the planned withdrawal of U. S. forces from Vietnam; that unless properly carried out a retreat can become a disaster.

It was the view of the military that the massive Communist war - making buildup in the Cambodian sanctuaries simply had to be knocked out in order to protect our rear guard. Military experts insist that a successful retreat (from Vietnam) is a difficult and dangerous military maneuver, and in the process of carrying it out enemy attackers must be held at bay. Otherwise, we are told casualties would be sure to mount.

Moreover, the President and his military advisers feel that without knocking out the big supply dumps, enemy harassment would jeopardize the Vietnamization program - of training and equipping local forces to take the place of American troops as they are withdrawn.

cing troops in Cambodia for the limited time. This is by far, in my opinion the finest operation that has been conducted in several year in this war."

Now for a look at the results of the Cambodian action: Thus far (as of May 27) 8,171 Communists have been killed in the operation, and 1,777 detained, Enemy weapons captured, 11,845; Crew-served weapons captured, 2,031; Rice (tons) 4,778; Rocket rounds captured, 18,204; Mortar rounds captured, 29,537; Small-arms ammunition captured, 8,905,442; Land mines captured, 3,102; Bunkers destroyed 6,986; Vehicles destroyed or captured, 310.

There is simply no way of estimating the number of American lives that will be saved as a result of the destruction of the supply dumps in Cambodia. The military believe the number would be significant.

JIM WAS GRADUATED TODAY Mary and I sat on the bleachers overlooking the high school athletic field and watched him march in with his class. A bird glided overhead, and from far off, a dog's bark and children's voices mingled on the evening air. Behind circling hills, blue mountains made a stately backdrop. Jim avoided our glance, the habitual grin he's worn since babyhood melted for a moment in a gaze of earnest solemnity. His first big milestone had come, and I smiled to myself remembering his eagerness to embark upon the "world of tomorrow." I have no fears for his future... for Jim is a Christian. What a wonderful assurance it is to his mother and me to know that wherever he goes, whatever happens in that wonderful "world" ahead, the values and principles he has been taught will be there to guide and sustain him. How grateful we are to our church for the guidance and encouragement it has given us in the Christian education of our son!

You get an automobile so well built that its drive train and chassis are literally tuned to the bias-belted tires that are standard equipment. So that they'll last even longer and provide even greater traction.

One other point. Value also has to do with the man who sells and services the car you buy. Good service can help you maintain the value of your new car.

county where their school is located.

In our situation, I don't really know that it makes a lot of difference, except for civic pride. And too, if it's any consolation, Crane lost over 550 people; Reagan County, home of the Big Lake Owls, lost just a smitch under 600 people; Eldorado or Schleicher County, over 600 lost, and Sutton County or Sonora, a loss of over 600.

So considering, we did not do so badly. Also, these figures are preliminary figures and are not the final count by any means. Figures will be re-checked in Dallas and again in Washington before the count is official. Let us hope that the computers have been properly programmed or whatever they do to them to make them count correctly. If they use people, let us hope for the same. I don't know which is worse machine inefficiency or human inefficiency. However, we won't start on that or I'll be telling you some of my experiences with direct dialing and we have neither the time nor the space.

Census —

Ozona seems to be pretty well in line with the others who lost population as oil activity decreased.

On the other hand, estimating 3.5 people for every utility hook up, the county should have a population of around 4,200. The 3.5 average family ratio was arrived at years ago by some state or national agency and has been used by all cities to estimate population.
