Five Hurt, Two Cars Wrecked In 290-West Crash

Four servicemen narrowly escaped fatal injury Saturday evening early in a two-vehicle accident 8 miles west of Ozona on Hwy. 290.

Joseph Bales of Gordon Valley, Calif., pulled out to pass a 1970 Volkswagen and collided almost head-on with a 1969 Ford Mustang driven by James Hawkins of Quantico, Va.

Hawkins swerved sharply to his right when he saw the other car, but could not avoid collision and his Mustang was almost cut in half by the impact. Both cars were totally wrecked.

Bales was the most seriously injured and is reported in fair condition in the intensive care ward of Shannon Hospital in San Angelo.

The other driver and two passengers, Jeffery Saxton, a passenger in the Volkswagen, and Jerry Grosecios, a passenger in the Mustang were hospitalized in Crockett County Hospital, Saxton, who suffered a broken hand was released Sunday afternoon and the other two men were released Monday afternoon.

Officer John Harris, DPS, investigated another accident Monday afternoon at the intersection of Hwy 163 and Hwy 290, involving two local girls, Karen Loudamy, driving a '64 Chevrolet was traveling west on Hwy 290 and preparing to turn right when she was struck in the rear by a station wagon driven by Beth Crowder.

Both cars were damaged, but neither driver nor several passengers in both cars were injured.

Officer Harris, who was not present at the scene, said he didn't intend to let the end without paying a fine bunch of hard-ship leaders, but it slipped up on us. How- ever, football is still a fun game.

Hunter Invasion Fills Hinterlands

Hunters began arriving in Ozona Friday and by the time the hunting season opened officially at sunrise Saturday morning, the woods were full of them. Deer are fat and plentiful this season and had been making themselves seen along the highways leading into town long before the season began.

Ozona's Chamber of Commerce office was deluged with hunters Friday and by noon only four listed places were left. By evening, workers were calling various ranches to place hunting parties. Hubert Baker, manager of the chamber of commerce reported that he placed the last two parties late Friday evening. All ranches leasing for hunting were full the first two days of the season, Baker said.

After a blustery wind all day Friday, the weather was perfect during the weekend for the host of hunters. They found deer plentiful and fat.

The first kill brought in to the chamber office was a 95-lb, 12 pointer, killed by a Fredrickburg man on the Joe Couch ranch west of Ozona. He came in with his trophy around 9:00 a.m. Saturday morning.

Bag limit for the November 14-January 3 season is three deer with no more than two bucks. Antlerless permits were issued on the basis of one to each 100 acres to the landowners, and they in turn dispatch permits to hunters.

Over the weekend 70 deer, 4 turkey and 3 javalina were processed at Cooke's Market, The Trading Post and Ozona Body Works. It was estimated that up to three times that many were killed.

In the chamber's hunting contest the 12-pointer holds the lead for the most points; the heaviest field-dressed deer so far is 116 pounds, and the widest rack this far in the season measures 16-5/8.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Jerry Davenport and Miss Varnelle Brooks.

An inspirational reading was given by Mrs. Joe Couch and Mrs. H. O. Hoover presented the program on "Parental Obligations to Teachers."

Other members present were Mrs. Tony Allen, Mrs. Bill Armstrong, Mrs. Bill Black, Mrs. Mike Clayton, Mrs. Buster Deaton, Mrs. Bruce Mayfield, Mrs. Frank McMullan, Jr., Mrs. Dan Pullen, Mrs. Nat Read, Mrs. Charles Spieker and a guest, Mrs. Jan Webb.

Glendale, Ariz. -- U. S. Air Force Senior Master Sergeant Don G. Kilgore, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kilgore of Ozona, has been decorated with the Bronze Star Medal at Luke AFB, Ariz., for meritorious achievement while engaged in military operations.

Sergeant Kilgore, a supply superintendent, was decorated for his outstanding professional skill, leadership and dedication to duty at Udorn Royal Thai AFB, Thailand.

He was presented the medal at Luke, where he is now assigned to a unit of the Aerospace Defense Command.

Thanksgiving Holidays Set

Ozona schools will be dismissed Wednesday afternoon for the Thanksgiving holiday. Classes at all schools will resume at the regular time the following Monday morning, Nov. 30.

Tickets On Sale Bi-District Game 5 Friday Friday

Tickets for the bi-district game between the Ozona Lions and the Alpine Bucks will be on sale at the football field beginning at 5 o'clock tomorrow, Friday, afternoon.

Letters went out to season ticket holders early this week offering them their regular season seats and most have been purchased. Prices for all tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Kick-off time is 7:30 and tickets will be sold at the two gates on the west side and the gate on the south by the field house.

Ozona won the toss and the right to play on its home field at a meeting in Fort Stockton Saturday.

The south parking lot will be reserved for visitors from Alpine as well as the visitors' stands on the east side of the field.

Cars may be parked on the inside of the field before 5 p.m. After this time all gates will be closed to automobiles.

The Tippet, West multipay field of Crockett County gained its ninth 5,050-foot Wolfcamp oil producer and a location northeast and northwest extension to that pay with dual completion of Gulf Oil Corp. No. 15-E-J. H. Tippet, Ellenburger producer nine miles northeast of McCamey, for a daily flowing potential of 156.67 barrels of 38.6 gravity oil, plus 6.53 barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio of 2,489-1.

Production was through a 17-64-inch choke and perforations at 5,152, 5,269, and 5,293 feet.

Beefing up the Buck line are Scott Williams, 235-pound tackle; Ray Hendryx, 215-pound center, and Guy Stillwell, 205-pound guard.

There are a few changes on defense, but for the most part the above boys play on both offense and defense. However, football fans feel that the Bucks will have their work cut out for them just to contain Ozona's running game. Also, it is the general opinion that the Lions have played a much tougher schedule than the Bucks with their offense improving with every game.

The Lion defensive line is exceptionally quick and alert and they give up yardage grudgingly. They are quick to read their opponent's plays and adjust accordingly. The Lion secondary has an impressive pass interception record, and this will have a tendency to make even the best of passers nervous.

Team records follow:

Lions Win District Title With 52-9 Blast of McCamey Badgers

The Ozona Lions advanced to the Class AA playoffs Friday night by virtue of a win over McCamey 52-9 in the final outing of the regular season.

Although the Lions tied for the district championship with Reagan County, they will advance due to a win over the Owls in their first district game of the season. Both teams were 4-1 in season play with Coahoma the only team to best the Lions in district play.

The Lions will host the Class 6-AA Alpine Bucks tomorrow night in the bi-district tilt. The Bucks are unbeaten for the season with the only blemish on their record a 14-14 tie with Jal, N.M.

During the first quarter at McCamey Friday night, it appeared that the Badgers were going to make a game of it. With the strong wind at their back, the Badgers quickly jumped out to a 3-0 lead when McCamey's Gary Bolen toed a 34-yard field goal to end a short drive on the Badger's first possession after recovering a Tambunga fumble on the 35 yard line. Ozona came back to march 76 yards in 12 plays to score with Tambunga going in from the 1 for the six points and David Pagan kicking the extra point.

McCamey made a quick comeback and with quarterback Kyle Bolen taking advantage of the wind at his back, passed the Badgers to another score. The PAT failed, but the Badgers led 9-7 at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter was all Ozona with the Lions racking up a big 28 points. Early in the second quarter the Lions marched 80 yards for a score with the fine Ozona line opening huge holes and Tambunga and Greg Stuart sharing the rushing load. Tambunga got the score from one yard out and Pagan added the PAT.

The Lions really came to life the final two minutes of the second quarter, scoring three quick scores.

Stuart sped down the left sideline for 33 yards and a quick score for the Lions. The PAT failed.

McCamey was forced to punt on their next possession and only managed a 6-yard boot into the wind. The Lions taking over on the 32 used only three plays to score with Tambunga again going in from the one. Pagan ran for the two points.

Two plays after the kickoff Mike Jenkins fell on a Badger fumble at the five and Tambunga ran it in for the score with no time showing on the clock. Pagan kicked the extra point, giving the Lions a 35-9 halftime lead.

Early in the second half, the Gerald Huff scored from the two yard line for the Lions, with Stuart and Tambunga sparking the 50-yard drive. Pagan's PAT made it 42-9 for the Lions.

Early in the fourth quarter, Jim Montgomery intercepted a Bolen pass at the McCamey 23 to set up another Lion score. Three plays later Tambunga scored from the seven and Pagan added the extra point.

With Two minutes to go in the game, Montgomery fired two quick passes to Randy Crawford to set up the final score in the game. Pagan ended the scoring with a 22 yard field goal.

The Lions, probably playing their finest defensive game of the season, held the McCamey

MARIJUANA IS DANGEROUS!

For a long time the "hop heads" have insisted that no physical danger is involved in smoking "pot," or marijuana. The truth is, up until now there had been very little hard information available, one way or the other, as to any lasting physical damage.

The short-range effects have been apparent: hallucinations, narrowed vision and distortion of time, loss of coordination, the lack of ability to concentrate and reason, confused associations, blurred speech, etc. But all of this, claim the apologists for "pot," is "no worse than" getting drunk on alcohol. But if getting high on marijuana is as bad as intoxication from booze, this alone should be sufficient condemnation. According to Dr. Hardin Jones, Prof. of Physiology and Medical Physics at the University of California in Berkeley, each year about 75,000 persons die because of alcohol (25,000 from accidents and 50,000 because they graduate to heavy use of alcohol and perish from liver disease). Additionally, says Dr. Jones, about 300,000 live but have alcohol-induced injuries.

An additional hazard of marijuana is that when a new and more powerful drug is introduced into a circle of "pot" smokers, the group will take up the new drug. The history of most hard drug addicts shows that they started with marijuana.

Now, however, scientists are turning up evidence about marijuana which should discourage any sane person from touching the stuff. Dr. Davis, Wade, Texas State Commissioner for mental health, reports that research is turning up definite evidence that marijuana causes permanent and irreversible brain damage. Dr. Wade told a conference of the Texas Association of Mental Health that "We are getting substantial research evidence to indicate that marijuana is causing brain damage—irreversible brain damage."

"This is organic cellular damage," Dr. Wade said. "First it causes personality alterations... a flattening of the personality, what we might call a decay of the moral fiber."

Such victims, he said, display apathy, a deterioration of personal appearance, a deterioration in behavior patterns; loss of motivation toward accomplishment; and a clumsy way of thinking.

Dr. Wade's chilling conclusion: "Persons who suffer such brain damage do not ever recover from it."

Investigation shows that most users of marijuana first do so for no better reason than that some person already using the drug asks another to "join the fun." There is only one answer to give to that invitation: "No, no, and a thousand times, no."

KREMLINIZED MUSIC

We have nothing against folk-singers as such. Most of these minstrels do right well by the old, nostalgic ballads that everyone loves. However, there is a new school of folk-singers that we can very well do without. These are out-and-out propagandists who use the folksong medium to put across versions of the Communist Party line.

It's easy to spot them, apart from their general appearance. They are people with a "message," insinuating certain points in the vocalizing and gee-tar plunking. The war in the faraway jungle is a wicked, wicked war and it's time we called for peace. Rich man hates poor and works him to death. White man hates black man and lynches him on a fiery cross. Black man will rise and wipe out exploiters. Generals and rich folks want to blow up the world with atomic bombs. Poor man does all the work, builds all the buildings and gets nothing in return—precisely the same stuff that's peddled, without music, in The Worker and other Communist hate sheets.

It is regrettable that the American public is silly enough to make the proletarian warblers rich by thronging to their hootenannies, by buying their records, which can be found in every record shop, and by not protesting when TV networks foist them off on viewers. But since the public tolerates these red-throated warblers, we'd like to offer a few suggestions to the folk-singers themselves—specifically, some new subjects for their repertory.

How about a song telling of some poor devil shot down by Communist guards as he tried to escape through the Berlin wall? And how about a few tear-jerkers about Communist slave labor camps? We'd like to recommend, too, a few ditties about the Hungarian Freedom Fighters and how they were slaughtered by Khrushchev's Mongolians. Surely these talented songbirds should be able to whip up a few verses about the poor wretches sent to the wall by Castro's execution squads. And we'd relish hearing a heart-throber describing kids in Saigon being blown to bits by Viet Cong grenades.

There's so much to sing about, if the wayward minstrels would only get out of their all-too-familiar groove. However, they aren't likely to, and so we'll make another suggestion: Why not get in character, throw away the gee-tars and use balalaikas? And give us the pitch in Russian?

SENSING the NEWS

By Anthony Harrigan

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Subsidizing Strikers

Many citizens are shocked and indignant at news that strikers at General Motors plants in Detroit and elsewhere are receiving public assistance in the form of federal food stamps. They see the handouts as subsidization of the United Auto Workers' destructive strike, which is doing immense damage to the nation's economy.

U. S. Rep. John Ashbrook (R-Ohio) has correctly pointed out that "giving food stamps to strikers just did not happen. It is the result of a specific vote by a majority of our elected legislators." In 1964, the Congress passed the Food Stamp Act, Public Law 88-525. Four years later, liberals in the Congress passed the Food Stamp Act, Public Law 88-525. Four years later, liberals in the Congress forced through a series of amendments, one of which authorized food stamps for strikers.

At the time, conservatives pointed out the unfairness of making food stamps available to strikers. A striker has a job; he simply chooses not to go to it. Rep. Charles Teague, a Republican member of Congress, said in 1968: "If we allow food stamps to strikers who may be trying to get their hourly wages raised from $3.75 to $4.00 per hour, we may be taking literally the food out of the mouths of people who are really in need."

Today, the taxpayers are paying heavily for the domination of Congress by a liberal coalition. In effect, the taxpayers are contributing to the UAW strike fund. Imagine the furor from unionists and liberals if the federal government gave a subsidy to non-unionized employees of G. M.

The irony involved in this subsidization is all the stronger in view of the disastrous effect of the UAW strike. Six weeks after the strike commenced, losses were colossal. The State of Michigan was losing $4 million a week because of the union action. Claims for unemployment insurance, which normally drop in the fall, were mounting.

Suppliers of steel and rubber for the auto industry were compelled to lay off thousands of workers. Railroads were depriv-ved of the heavy volume of traffic in automobiles moving to regional distributors. Secondary layoffs -- layoffs of persons employed in industries supplying the direct suppliers of G. M. -- were mounting by the end of October.

Paul W. McCracken, the President's chief economic adviser, warned that each week of the UAW strike cuts the Gross National Product by $1 billion. Earnings of many primary suppliers and secondary suppliers have been severely damaged by the irresponsible union action against the nation's largest corporation.

When the strike was called, the nation was already faced with a recession threat. President Nixon had made moves he thought would help develop an upturn in the economy. Then came the UAW strike, completely upsetting the President's timetable.

Why did the United Auto Workers' leadership order the strike when the economy was in trouble? Elections were looming ahead. Cynics might suspect that the UAW bosses were not unhappy at the idea of the economy taking another downturn before the elections -- a development which wouldn't exactly help the Nixon administration. The liberal power structure, of which the UAW is a key part, wants to sell the American people on the idea that a non-liberal administration can't run the country in an effective manner.

Be that as it may, the UAW strike has been a blow to every working American, including union members. The members of the UAW at other auto plants have been compelled to pay higher dues in order to swell the union coffers for the fight against G. M. One wonders how these UAW members like the extra assessment. Given the lack of democracy inside unions, it is clear that the protests from within won't be very loud.

Whatever the outcome of the current UAW strike, it is imperative that Congress make sure that nothing like it happens again. It is a terrible economic crime to have vast powers of disruption and paralysis concentrated in the hands of a handful of union bosses. It is equally outrageous that the taxpayers,

"No Pets Allowed"

When the Scotts rented a new apartment, they took it for granted that their dog Rover would be as welcome as they were. But soon after they moved in, the landlord called their attention to the "No Pets Allowed" clause in their lease.

Unwilling to give up either the dog or the apartment, the Scotts determined to fight. In a court hearing, they offered this argument to the judge:

"Rover happens to be a quiet, well-behaved animal who never bothers a soul and never does any damage. Of course, if he should cause trouble, we would gladly take full responsibility. But in the meantime, enforcing this no-pets rule against us would be arbitrary and unfair."

Nevertheless, the court held they would have to abide by the rule or move out. The judge said a landlord may reasonably be concerned not only about noise, and not only about damage, but also about the likelihood that other tenants might want to keep pets too.

Generally speaking, the law gives a landlord broad discretion with regard to pets on the premises. In fact, even if no restrictions are spelled out in the lease, he may still be able to take legal action.

Thus, another landlord won an eviction order against an elderly woman who harbored no less than 25 cats in her small apartment. Even though pets were not mentioned in the lease, the court said 25 cats were—simply as a matter of common sense—"23 cats too many."

On the other hand, a landlord may lose his enforcement rights by "going easy" on a tenant for a substantial period. In one case, a landlord tried to evict a tenant after permitting him to keep a parrot for almost four years.

In these circumstances, the landlord was held to have waived the rights he had under the lease. The court said that, even though the lease plainly said "No Pets Allowed," the landlord's inaction spoke louder than words.

Who are victimized by the strike have to help subsidize strikers with federal food stamps,

New bonus interest rate on U.S. Savings Bonds

Now all U. S. Savings Bonds pay 5% interest, PLUS a 1/2% bonus when held to maturity. This overall 5 1/2% interest payment means that now you get a little bit more money for your money.

Technically, here's how the bonus works:

- 1. The bonus interest rate applies to all new Bonds purchased since June 1, 1970, raising their rate from 5% to 5 1/2% when held to maturity. Series E Bonds, whose maturity remains at 5 years 10 months, with a first-year rate of 4%, will have the 1/2% increase added as a bonus at maturity. Series H Bonds, with a 10-year maturity and first-year rate of 4%, will receive the bonus in the form of increased semiannual interest checks for their last 5 years, to yield an average 5 1/2% for the 10-year period. 2. There is no reason to cash in Bonds you now hold. Yields on outstanding Bonds, prior to maturity, will be increased by 1/2% for semiannual interest periods beginning on or after June 1, 1970. For E Bonds, the increase will be payable at maturity; for H Bonds, through larger semiannual interest checks for their last 5 years.

3. For Bonds now in their extension period, yields will be increased by approximately 1/2% to next maturity, whenever redeemed. 4. Finally, all Bonds maturing on or after June 1, 1970 while the bonus is in effect, will receive a 5 1/2% yield until next maturity. Now, more than ever, it's to your advantage to buy U. S. Savings Bonds and hold them to maturity or beyond.

Sign up for Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or the Bonds-a-Month Plan where you bank.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Zotos and nine out of 10 professional chefs agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

Here's one of Mrs. Zotos' favorite recipes.

CHICKEN OREGANO

Mrs. Alex Zotos, 3622 Maple, Odessa

Quarter 2 fryers. Wash and dry; and squeeze juice of one lemon over pieces. Salt, pepper and paprika chicken on both sides. In large skillet melt 1 stick butter and quickly brown chicken pieces. Place in oblong pan. In butter left in pan add 1/2 cup red wine, 1/2 can tomato paste (3 oz.), 2 cups water, 1 tablespoon celery flakes, 2 cloves garlic. Bring to boil. Pour over chicken. Sprinkle about 2 1/2 teaspoons oregano over chicken. Bake covered for one hour at 350 degrees; uncover last 10 minutes for browning.

Meat and Rice Dressing

Saute 2 onions, chopped, in 1/2 stick butter; add 1 cup uncooked rice; saute together until golden. Add 1 1/2 lbs. ground round and brown. Add 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon cumin, pepper to taste, 2 1/2 teaspoons salt, add 1/2 cup sliced mushrooms, 2 1/2 cups water and 1/2 cup red wine. Cook until done about 20 minutes. When cooked toss in toasted pecans and almonds, if desired. Serve sauce from chicken over all.

Tips for Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club By Mrs. Bailey Post

Over our city many of the trees are at their peak of brilliant yellow and red fall colors. The early freeze curled the more tender leaves of the tall trees as they were just beginning to turn. The lanced-leaved sumac is the prettiest it has been for several years. And don't miss going by to see the handsome red oak in the Pogue yard on highway 163 and the Spanish oaks at the hospital.

In late November begin to plant Dutch bulbs every ten days for a succession of blooms by Easter, and continue through December. This is the ideal time in most sections to plant Tulip bulbs. Set them at an even depth of about six inches. They make a more attractive display if planted in groups or drifts rather than a straight row. Plant in deeply prepared and well drained soil. Bulbs will respond to good top soil mixed with compost, leaf mold, humas and 1/2 pound to 1 pound of Bone Meal to each square yard. Never use fresh manure near them. Keep in mind that bulbs root downward. The quality of the soil beneath them is more important than that of the soil above them. Pot amaryllis bulbs in pots for indoor blooms or plant outdoors for spring.

Don't forget your evergreen shrubs entering winter with insufficient moisture are more susceptible to damage from low temperature and drying winds. Hollies and pyracantha may drop their berries and camellias and azaleas their flower buds. To avoid damage, soak soil well to the root area. Now that outdoor chrysanthemums are at their gorgeous best, it is a good time to visit gardens, nurseries and public displays where they are grown, in order to become acquainted with the best and most useful varieties. After mums are killed by frost, cut them down in preparation for winter. Be sure that all are correctly labeled with names and colors.

Should you have any specific problems or questions on gardening, landscaping, ecology, or flower arranging, you will find excellent books in the adult library on these subjects.

life for modern man

The Bible

Through every generation — people have looked for peace and security. Hundreds of volumes have been written on the subject and thinkers and writers have devoted their lives to the search.

But of all these books, the Bible is most concerned with peace and security. "Fear not for I am with you; be not dismayed for I am your God."

No man-made philosophy can banish the worries and troubles of today's complex life. But in the gospel we find assurance of His care.

God loves us. When we go to Him in humility, He cleanses us of sin. Our minds are put at ease. Peace fills our souls.

Go then to the Book for modern man. Through study, prayer and worship we will find that peace which has been granted to millions — in every country — in every age. Discover anew the life for modern man.

Report Findings Of Mohair Market Survey In Europe

A special report on the findings of a European Mohair Market Survey just completed by representatives of the Mohair Council of America and the Texas Wool and Mohair Warehouse Association will be presented Dec. 3 in San Angelo.

Noel Fry of Del Rio, Mohair Council president, announced the meeting will be held at 9:30 a.m., Thursday, Dec. 3 in the Cotillion Room of the Town House Motor Hotel.

The survey, covering the use of American produced mohair in England, Ireland and Western Europe, was conducted by a four-man team, James T. Hunt of Sonora, Mohair Council secretary-treasurer, was team leader. Others in the group were Murph Compton of Menard, special representative of the Texas Wool and Mohair Warehouse Association; Ross McSwain of San Angelo, information director for the Mohair Council; and Larry L. Panasuk, marketing specialist with the Foreign Agriculture Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington.

The general meeting is expected to draw more than 200 persons, including mohair producers, warehousemen, buyers and other interested persons. Fry urges all mohair producers to attend this important meeting.

The four men compiled a vast amount of information on how American mohair is being utilized in the English and European markets. During the 30-day, 14,000 mile tour of seven countries the men had interviews with 97 persons involved in all phases of the mohair market, including greasy mohair dealers, scourers and carbonizers, combers and top-makers, spinners, weavers, product and market development personnel, exporters, cloth merchants, clothing and carpet manufacturing leaders and promotion, advertising and publicity people

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

A Turn in the Tide

As is well known to most Americans the current President of the United States is an avid sports fan.

And as is well known to followers of football there comes a time when coaches announce to their teams "Monday we are going back to fundamentals."

For a number of years the government has been primarily occupied with the affairs of big business, of labor, and various social issues, with small and independent business more or less subordinated to a minor role.

However, an apparent change in emphasis is being registered. In a meeting held solely for the purpose of discussing the problems of small business, Wilson Johnson, president of the National Federation of Independent Business, suggested some procedure be set up so that small business would have direct access to the White House.

The President not only agreed with this position, went even further in designating that the chairman of the prestigious Council of Economic Advisors hold quarterly meetings with representatives of small business.

The significance of this is of major import. The Council of Economic Advisors, as economic planners for the White House, occupy a distinctively unique position in policy-making that affects the course of American business.

Thus the decision of the President to involve in the problems of small business his closest advisors on economic affairs indicates beyond doubt that more and more attention is going to be placed on expanding domestic business activity to provide more jobs. In other words, the nation is turning back toward fundamentals.

Girl To Ride -

White Horse Riders
U In Macy Parade

Abilene, Texas -- Riding in Macy's Thanksgiving parade will be the famous White Horse Riders of Harrison University. The White Horse Riders will also have the famous "cowstep" maneuver, which will incorporate the eight White Horse Riders and sponsor Mrs. ...

The White Horse Riders are selected annually by a panel of judges on the basis of ability to saddle and horse and riding. Also, they must have a good general knowledge of riding. Personality and appearance are also considered.

Other member's of this year's White Horse Riders group are Cindi Wiley, freshman of Merkal; Paula Wooten, sophomore of Haskell; and Pan Brunson, senior of Wichita, Kan.

The unit was begun in the early 1930's by Gilbert Sandefer and "Sheriff" Will Watson. Since that time they have paraded in Washington, D. C., New York City, San Francisco, Chicago and throughout Texas.

Handy all through the house! Stor-All Boxes at the Ozona Stockman.

BIG THICKET FILM AVAILABLE TO GROUPS

Austin, Texas--If you've never set foot in the Big Thicket, you can now take a vicarious trip through that dense forest of Southeast Texas by means of a new motion picture.

The Texas State Historical Association, located at the University of Texas, has announced completion of a 52-minute color film about the Thicket that is available for free bookings to any interested group or organization.

"The Big Thicket--A Vanishing Wilderness" was made possible by a grant to the TSHA from the Moody Foundation of Galveston. Film production was by Jim Seymour Associates of Austin.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for all acts of kindness shown to us during the illness and loss of our loved one. A special thanks to the choir singers, two wonderful pastors, to Bub Jones, and to all who sent food and flowers. The many prayers and kind thoughts comforted us so much. May God bless each of you.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Lovella Dudley entertained the Friday Bridge Club last week in her home.

Winning high score was Mrs. Joe Pierce. Low went to Mrs. Stephen Perner and bingo to Mrs. Early Baggett, Mrs. W. E. Friend, Jr., and Mrs. Hudson Mayes.

Other players were Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. O. D. West, Mrs. Sherman Taylor, Mrs. S. M. Harvick, Mrs. Bailey Post, Mrs. Lee Childress and Mrs. Joe Davidson.

WE CONQUERED THE WIND TO BRING YOU BETTER TELEVISION Last Friday's big wind provided the test of a recently installed brace on our 400-foot television tower to prevent tower twist and fade out of television signals during heavy wind storms.

And the installation proved its worth. In one of the strongest winds seen here in many years, the tv signal remained steady on sets in Ozona homes served by the cable system. Heretofore, such a wind would have put the system out of operation for the duration of the blow.

The improvement, what is known as a star mount, has been installed in both Ozona and Big Lake towers which bring you microwave signals for transmission on the cable system. The big iron beam frame, 18 feet across and forming a three point star from each tower face, is mounted near the the top of the tower and guyed with six big guy wires.

This prevents both sway and twist of the tower. Microwave transmission being a line of sight travel, a deviation of only a fraction of an inch is 42 miles will completely lose the tv signal. With the new tower brace, the equipment remains accurately sighted and the signal remains steady.

big thing here in Ozona, we don't think it's too late by any means. The six girls who head up the cheering section this year have worked ever bit as hard as the team to win. They have burned the mid-night oil many a night getting the halls of OHS ready for the big game on Friday and with their many talents, they have contributed as much as anybody to the Lions' winning season. A big cheer for you too, Karen, Sharon, Suzy, Stacy, Georganne and Karen. You've also had a very successful season.

First public motion picture was shown in 1895 in Paris, Fr.
