Quarantine Rule On Measles Made By Health Dept.

21 Days Out Of School Ruled For Sufferers From Disease

After practically the entire student body of Ozona's school system has had or been exposed to measles in the course of the present epidemic of what doctors describe for the most part as German measles, an interpretation of state Health Department quarantine laws requiring sufferers from the disease to remain away from school for a period of 21 days was made for members of the school board and faculty yesterday by Dr. G. L. Nesrsta, acting county health officer in the absence of Dr. H. B. Tandy.

Under the department's ruling, conveyed by Dr. Nesrsta in a letter to Supt. C. S. Denham, sufferers from the disease must be barred from school 21 days. Children who have had measles may continue in school even if there is a case of the disease in the home, and those who have not had the disease and who are exposed in their homes may go the first week after exposure, must remain away the second week, and may return after that period, if they do not contract the disease, upon certificate of the health officer.

That, in brief, is the text of the ruling as conveyed to the school board in a session here Wednesday afternoon. No action was taken by the board further than to order copies of the doctor's letter made and distributed among families of pupils, that parents might be advised of the ruling of health authorities on methods for control. March 31 Deadline For Applications For Soil Payment

Miss Betty Bratcher, secretary of the Crockett County Soil Conservation Association, calls attention to the fact that March 31, 1942, is the closing date for signing applications for payment for soil conservation work done under the AAA program during 1941.

Ranchmen of this county who have completed work in 1941 and who have not yet signed applications for payment are asked to call on the soil conservation office in the courthouse.

Matty Bell Lauds Athletic Program In War-Time U. S.

SMU Coach Speaker At Colorful Lion Football Banquet

School athletic programs have a definite place in the nation's war effort and will be continued in the opinion of Matty Bell, nationally renowned coach of Southern Methodist University football, who was the principal speaker at the "victory banquet" honoring the champion Ozona High School Lion gridder of the 1941 season and their parents Thursday evening at Hotel Ozona.

Coach Bell's talk was a mixture of patriotic appeal and football promotion. He declared that physical fitness is a prime requisite of an effective fighting force and that American schools and colleges were contributing to the national war effort in fitting young men physically through athletic programs.

C. S. Denham was master of ceremonies. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. Eugene Slater and Miss Hazel Kirbie entertained with several dialect readings. A highlight of the entertainment program was a group of songs by the school quartet composed of L. B. Cox, Billy Hannah, Garrett McWilliams and Neal Hannah, the latter substituting for Bill Carson, ill with measles. Coach Dan Patterson, face still crimson from good-natured ribbing in song by the quartet about an incident on the team's Sugar Bowl trip, introduced his former coach, Matty Bell.

Dinner music was furnished by Misses Ruth Graydon, Rebecca Anderson, Mary Elizabeth Gray, and Mary Perner, and Jimmie Pharr and Mervin McLaughlin. Tables were appropriately decorated with megaphones, pennants and football candles, and the ballroom carried pennants and the Lions' district and bi-district championship banners. Decorations were by girls of the H. E. department under Mrs. Marl Westerman.

JONES MILLER IMPROVED

Reports from his bedside yesterday indicated marked improvement in the condition of Jones Miller, pioneer Crockett County ranchman, who celebrated his 84th birthday on January 1 this year. Mr. Miller was taken to a San Angelo hospital late last week when he became ill suddenly. He was found to be suffering from pneumonia but responded to treatment and at last reports was declared to be out of danger.

$298,000 Bond Quota Reported For This County

Purchases In January At Average To Reach Year's Quota

Although no official notification has been received so far as is known here, press dispatches in recent days have indicated a government Defense Bond quota of approximately $298,000 for Crockett County citizens during the year 1942 in the nationwide drive for the sale of government bonds to help defray the cost of total war on the Axis powers.

Reports from the Ozona National Bank, chief source for sale of the bonds in this county, and the post office indicate that so far this month citizens of this county are voluntarily buying month by month at about the average that would send the year's total, if the average were maintained, to the quota figure.

Reports yesterday from the bank showed a total of $23,325 in bond sales so far this month, the figure representing the purchase price of the bonds. If quotas are figured on maturity value of bonds, one-third of the sale amount added to the above figure would put this county well over the top for the first month of the new year. Smaller amounts in bonds are purchased regularly through the postoffice.

Impressive Services Celebrate 50 Years Of Methodist Church

Fifty years of church growth and religious leadership in the community were celebrated by members of the Ozona Methodist Church and their friends in special fiftieth anniversary celebration services in the church Sunday.

Rev. J. H. Meredith of Harper, Texas, who served seven years as pastor of the local church, returned to preach the anniversary sermon on the occasion of observance of fifty years of church history. Rev. Meredith delivered a gripping sermon on the theme of the church's responsibilities in the past, present and future and renewing faith in its power to overcome the world's ills. A Litany of Commemoration was led by the Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor. Two of the church's charter members, the only living members of the group who composed the first congregation, were present for the anniversary service. They were Mrs. Charles E. Davidson and Frank Friend.

Following the morning service, members and friends gathered in the basement of the church for a barbecue dinner prepared by R. J. and Cleophas Cooke.

The day's observance was concluded with the evening services in which the pastor, Rev. Slater, looked into the future for the 50-year-old church in his anniversary sermon. Members of the city's other two churches joined with the Methodist congregation in the concluding service.

Tennessee Pastor Speaks Sunday On Radio Baptist Hour

Those interested in the Baptist Hour, presented each Sunday morning over WFAA, Dallas, will want to hear Dr. F. F. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Knoxville, Tennessee, February 1 to 15. Dr. Brown is speaking each morning on "The Church" which promises to be a very helpful series of sermons. Attention to the series was called by Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ozona.

On February 22, Dr. Pat N. Neff, president of Baylor University, will speak on "Christian Education." On the program with Dr. Neff will be the Baylor Acapella Choir. This will be a program which will be enjoyed by all those who are interested in the Christian education program.

First Aid Training Course Of Red Cross Opens Here Tonight

Between 50 and 100 persons are expected to be enrolled in the first session of the Red Cross First Aid training course which is scheduled to open tonight in the ballroom of Hotel Ozona beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. G. L. Nesrsta will have charge of the first session of the course, lecturing on the first lesson in the Red Cross outlined training course. Dr. Nesrsta and Dr. H. B. Tandy will alternate in teaching the 10-weeks course.

A similar course for people of the Latin-American community has been planned, the two doctors to alternate in its direction. The opening session was scheduled for last night, but Dr. Nesrsta was unable to be present and the opening was postponed until next Wednesday night. Sessions are to be at the Community Center.

Registration Of Voters Rises To Near 600 Mark

Only Two More Days Remain For Payment Of Poll Taxes

A near-deadline spurt in poll tax payments in this county during the past week sent total registration of voters to close to the 600 mark, according to totals this morning from the office of the county sheriff and tax collector.

A total of 571 voting poll tax receipts had been issued and exemptions of newly arrived 21-year-olds numbered 17.

Saturday of this week is the deadline for poll tax payments to qualify voters to cast their ballots in this year's expected spirited political contests, local, state and national. An anticipated total voting strength in excess of 800 leaves more than 200 registrations to be accomplished in the next two days. Collectors urged citizens who have not yet paid poll taxes to do so as soon as possible in order to avoid a last-minute rush.

Peters Chairman County Birthday Celebration Plan

Dance Friday Night To Benefit Infantile Paralysis Fight

Scott Peters, active vice president of the Ozona National Bank, heads the 1942 campaign for the celebration of the President's birthday in Crockett County. Acceptance of the county chairmanship was announced by George Waverley Briggs, Dallas, vice chairman in charge of state organization for the fight on infantile paralysis.

Ozona will have a part in the national campaign to stamp out this dread disease when a dance, sponsored by the Spur Club, will be given at the Hotel Ozona Friday evening for the benefit of the Fight Infantile Paralysis fund. Johnny Simmons and his 13-piece band of colored musicians from San Antonio will furnish music for this event and visitors from surrounding towns are expected to attend. Admission will be $1.50 per person, plus 10 per cent tax.

This year the campaign has been made doubly necessary due to the entrance of the United States into the world war. The health of the nation must be kept at a high level to make man power efficient and 100 per cent available. Organization of Infantile Paralysis Foundation chapters is being urged for every community to assist in administering the funds and caring for victims of the dread disease.

The celebration this year is being sponsored by President Roosevelt in the interest of stamping out (Continued on Last Page)

Federal Land Bank President Rotary Speaker

Sterling Evans Of Houston Explains System Of Land Loans

By a stroke of good fortune on the part of the program committee, members of the Ozona Rotary Club were privileged to hear at the club's luncheon Tuesday noon an address by Sterling Evans, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, in Ozona for the day attending a meeting of secretary-treasurers of National Farm Loan Associations in this area. Secretary-treasurers from five other towns in this area and the associations' field supervisor from San Angelo, here for the meeting, were guests of the club.

Mr. Evans outlined briefly the set-up of the Federal Land Bank system, its low-interest-rate service to farm and ranch land owners of the nation and the remarkable record piled up by the Texas branch bank in its financial operations through its 25 years of operation. Loans to landowners are made through local National Farm Loan Associations and the low interest rates provided through this channel have been of inestimable service to farmers and ranchmen of the state and nation.

N. W. Graham, secretary-treasurer of the Ozona National Farm Loan Association, which has made loans of near two million dollars in its 20 years of operation, introduced the visiting bank officials as program chairman for the club. The visitors included besides the Federal Land Bank president, V. L. Carothers of San Angelo, district supervisor for this district, L. W. Elliott of Sonora, F. O. Senter of Marfa, Lon Smart and J. M. Whitworth of Rocksprings, and Joe Schlegel of Fort Stockton.

Dog Owners Warned To Keep Animals Up

Gangs of dogs, running at large through the city, creating a nuisance to the populace both by day and night, brought a warning from the sheriff's department to dog owners this week.

Many complaints having been heard from residents who have been disturbed at night by the barking and fighting dog gangs, Mrs. W. S. Willis, Crockett County's woman sheriff, urged that owners of dogs see that the animals are securely tied or locked indoors. Unless the dogs are taken from the streets at once, it will be necessary for officers to destroy them, Mrs. Willis warned.

Start Construction Business Building

Foundation was poured this week for a new business building in Ozona, being built on the highway at the east end of Johnson draw bridge by H. H. Hughes of Odessa. The building is being erected on property owned by O. W. Smith, and location will be next door west from Rendall's Drive Inn.

Mr. Hughes has operated a grocery store in Odessa for a number of years and plans to open a similar business in Ozona as soon as the building is completed. The building is to be of rock veneer and concrete, 50x50 feet in size, with living quarters to the rear.

SYNTHETIC RUBBER

A $100,000,000 government program for production of synthetic rubber finally was announced by Federal Food Administrator Jesse Jones. He expects that the plants to be constructed for that program will be brought into operation by the middle of next year.

WORST DRAWBACK

Soon after he began to accumulate his fortune, Henry Ford discovered that great wealth has its disadvantages. When asked on one occasion what he considered the greatest drawback of wealth, he sighed deeply and said: "Well, for me, I guess it was when Mr. Ford stopped smoking."

OUR RISING SUN

PRODUCTION BOSS

For a long time Americans in the know about our huge war job have been asking for one-man control of production in Washington.

In the past the overlapping duties and divided responsibilities that existed between the various agencies charged with directing the war program produced a great deal of inefficiency. Manufacturers often had difficulty getting the go-ahead signal or work that they were prepared to do.

President Roosevelt's decision to create a War Production Board with Donald Nelson at its head should help to eliminate this confusion. With one man in control the entire program should move more swiftly than ever before.

AUTO-USE TAX

In normal times this levy would undoubtedly have been considered the crowning indignity of all the various and assorted tax-indignities that were ever heaped upon the motoring public.

PUBLIC WASTE MUST BE STOPPED

The most telling criticism of the newly proposed Federal budget deals with projected expenditures for non-war activities. The budget calls for a cut of about $1,000,000,000 a year in this direction.

WRONG SLANT

The Japanese have the "rising sun" for an emblem, but along and setting our feet alike and the Japanese confused. What they are seeing now isn't the kind they see on the Pacific horizon, but what they show on the Japan sea.

YOUR INCOME TAX

To make it easier for taxpayers to meet the increased taxes required by the National Defense Program, the Treasury Department is offering for sale two series of notes, both dated August 1, 1941, and maturing August 1, 1943.

In January of each year two new series will be provided so that a taxpayer can always purchase notes during the entire year in which he is receiving his income for use in payment of taxes due the following year.

All notes are sold at par and accrued interest. When presented in payment of income taxes they will be received at par and accrued interest up to and including the month in which such taxes are paid.

Complete information about these Treasury notes will be found in a Treasury Department Circular available at local banks, Federal Reserve Banks and branches, or Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

plans call for another bill to produce around $9,000,000,000 additional. Every possible source of revenue will be tapped to the limit.

We are still spending hundreds of millions each year for "relief" at a time when the national income, because of the war boom, is at record levels, and an acute labor shortage is imminent.

Congress must learn that the size of "spending as usual" must come to an end.

WIDE MORE TO COME

The annual report of the Federal Bureau of Investigation lists 3,845 three-wheel plants among the bureau's files, there is no evidence of monotonous standardization here.—Indianapolis News.

Greatest Schedule Changed

Manufacturers' prices on regular-sized economy cigarettes, frequently referred to as ten-cent brands, are raised from $5.05 to $5.15 per thousand by amendment to the highest schedule issued by the U. S. Office of Price Administration.

Consumers are not expected to be affected, since they are already paying retail prices for all six leading brands of "economy" cigarettes based on the $5.15 manufacturer quotation.

Down In Texas

By EDWIN TRAVIS

President Roosevelt's estimate of war expenditures for the new year impressed upon many Texas observers the necessity for State and local governments to economize and reduce their expenditures as early as possible.

It is obvious that the needs of the nation at war, as outlined by the President, cannot be answered adequately if the people's pocketbooks are tapped as usual for non-defense expenditures.

Despite gathering war clouds, taxes imposed by the several states made up 28 per cent of all taxes borne by the American people, as against 20 per cent in 1935.

Local taxes declined by comparison but still made up 34 per cent as compared with 38 per cent for Federal taxes.

Both Federal and State taxes have mounted greatly since 1940, at least so far as Texas is concerned. Federal taxes must now mount much higher. That is necessary if the nation is to emerge victorious from the present great war.

Several times efforts were made to amend the Constitution and enlarge the court's membership to enable it to catch up with its work. The result aimed at has been achieved through the establishment of a Commission of Appeals, the conferring of power on the court to simplify civil procedure and the abolition of the old three-month vacation.

Texas' tire rationing administration is made up wholly of unpaid workers. There is no money available for any part of the work.

Mark McGee of Fort Worth, former Adjutant General, is State Administrator. His first assistant is Doyle Settle of Lubbock, a former representative. Clinton Kersey of Bedford, Arthur Carr of West-Edford and Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo are among members of the present legislature who are helping out in the program.

As for the members of the 24 county boards, the clerks and stenographers in McGee's office are unpaid volunteers.

Carrier Pigeons Doing Their Part To Lick The Axis

AUSTIN—Even birds are joining Uncle Sam's army, and believe or not, they'll play a big part in winning the war, the Game Department revealed today.

There's no joke about this. The species referred to is the Antwerp Messenger Pigeon, commonly called the carrier pigeon.

In the Army Signal Corps they have what is known as a Pigeon Service, and one of the eight base lofts in the United States is located in Texas to serve the army Eighth Corps Area.

The Legislature last year passed a law making it illegal to kill or maim or molest any of these carrier pigeons in Texas. Game Wardens months ago were instructed to enforce this law diligently and all other peace officers have the right to enforce it.

To date the Game Department has no record of a single violation, but the Department today warned sportsmen to be on the alert and never take a shot at one of these birds. It may be bearing an important army message.

The question then bobs up, "How can I identify a carrier pigeon?" That's about as tough as the identification of ducks by inexperienced (or experienced) waterfowl hunters who are supposed to leave some species alone.

The carrier pigeon closely resembles the common domestic pigeon you see every day around town. Their coloration varies, just as does the coloration of the domestic pigeon. So you won't get any help at all there.

But they are a little smaller than the domestic pigeon, and more streamlined — built, say, like mourning doves. The carriers are larger than mourning doves, however.

Since carrier pigeons are thus virtually indistinguishable from domestic pigeons, the best thing to do in order to stay within the law and help out the army would seem to be to just let all pigeons alone. Don't kill any of them.

As for the carrier pigeons joining Uncle Sam's army, that's no joke either. Most people don't know it, but, the Game Department said, there are over 300 civilian lofts of these birds in 10 Texas cities, and each of these lofts has been registered for auxiliary service at the request of the War Department. They're "in the army now."

Texas' 1940 mineral production totaled $714,905,731, according to Dr. E. H. Sellards, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology. This represented a gain of $13,077,035 from 1939 totals.

D. A. Parker Takes To Air As Ground Training Complete

KELLY FIELD, Texas, Jan. 27—With his pre-flight training behind him David A. Parker, son of D. F. Parker, McCamey, Texas, left the Air Corps Replacement Training Center (Aircrew) at Kelly Field, Texas, this week to begin flight training.

He is a member of the first war time class to complete the basic military training and ground school instruction at this Replacement Center. The class was assigned to various primary flying schools located in the Gulf Coast Air Corps Training Center Area.

At the Replacement Center his training has all been on the drill field and in the classroom, but now he will have a chance to prove what he can do in the cockpit.

Tin Order Tightened
Tighter restrictions on tin deliveries to small users are contained in priority order, M-43. The amendment cuts from five to three tons the amount that may be delivered monthly to regular customers without specific Priorities authorization. It provides also that the customer cannot receive more than five tons of tin a month from all suppliers, and requires that he file with his purchase order a certificate of compliance.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Jan. 27—"BORROWED" SALES?—In spite of increasing "spottiness" in purchasing power due to dislocations, retail trade for the nation as a whole shows startling activity for January. Instead of the customary post-holiday slump, recent weeks have set all-time January highs—27, 32 and 45 per cent ahead of the record totals department stores chalked up a year ago. Such a spending pace brings little jubilation to retailers, who know it's mainly due to customers' anticipating future shortages, and future declines in quality of merchandise when the pinch of priorities and substitute materials begins to be reflected in new goods on the shelves. Thus the indications are that, in many lines of merchandise, the unusually good January business has been "borrowed" from the near future.

WASHINGTON — National income and industrial production, true to expectations, hit all-time peaks for 1941. Income was $92,200,000,000—about 16 billions higher than in 1940 and nearly nine billions ahead of that year to which financial highs always are compared, 1929. As a guard against over-enthusiasm at these statistics it may be mentioned that about one-third of the gain over 1940 was absorbed by higher prices, and that approximately 10 of those 92 billions went for munitions and things you can't eat or wear, etc. . . . The production index moved up from 139 to 168—meaning our industries produced one and two-thirds times as much as in the average year 1935-39. This 29-point gain was one of the largest ever recorded and, of course, the final 168 represents the highest rate of industrial production in American history.

BITS O' BUSINESS — The 10 per cent fare rise the I.C.C. is allowing the railroads will be particularly helpful to the New York Central, Pennsylvania Lines and the New York, New Haven and Hartford—roads getting the highest proportion of their revenues from passenger fares, partly on account of huge suburban traffic. At least two roads—the Chicago and Northwestern and the Boston and Maine—are installing bicycle racks at suburban stations for the use of commuters. . . . A power company in Marion, Ohio, is equipping its meter-readers with bicycles, and the Elkart (Indiana) Truth is doing the same for its reporters. . . . Carrier Corporation (air-conditioning) is devoting practically all its energies now to war output, but expects lessons learned under war-time stress to lead to many yet-undeveloped peacetime applications "after."

ARMY FOR INDUSTRY — This time 14 workers are needed at home to maintain every soldier at war. So America must train 3,000,000 civilians for war industries this year. A nation-wide training program, already 17 months old, has turned out 1,776,000 skilled craftsmen, and most vocational schools are now on a 24-hour basis. Most far-reaching, but probably least-known among training projects is the U. S. Office of Education's $15,000,000 program for "out-of-school" youth. Typical of the cooperation being given by private business firms is the class at Frankfort, Ky., operating in the Schenley company's machine shop under direction of its plant technicians. Here 30 youths are learning metal work, woodworking, elementary electricity and motor repair in a 120-hour course. Similar courses are being offered throughout the U. S. under direct supervision of state vocational educational boards. Greatest personnel needs are in shipbuilding, aircraft, ordnance, welding, machine work and instrument assembly.

STENO SUCCESS — Today's heavy demand for secretarial help makes timely a new book on keys to successful stenography. Prof. Fred E. Winger of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., built the book not on theory but on replies of business men to his queries, and he includes actual case histories of job failures. Such an approach is characteristic of the "functional" educational plan pioneered by President James M. Wood at Stephens, which for 20 years has emphasized training women to meet real-life problems of home, family and citizenship. Chief finding of the Winger book is that poor personality traits are far more frequently responsible for steno firings than sluggish shorthand or sloppy typing. In fact, his three-year survey turned up not one case where a girl was fired for inability to "hit 100 words a minute" in dictation or 60 in transcribing. The factors that did prove most im-

Farm Vehicles Are Eligible For Tires

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 28—Texas farmers are eligible to apply for tubes or tires for farm tractors, other farm implements or trucks which carry farm products and food to market, according to B. F. Vance, chairman, Texas USDA War Board.

Distribution of tires or tubes will be made through certificates issued by county rationing boards, the chairman said.

"The first step is to obtain an application form from local rationing boards and obtain a statement from the board's inspector that the tire or tube to be replaced cannot be repaired, recapped, retreaded, or otherwise made useable," Vance said.

When inspector's statements are secured, farmers are asked to explain to rationing boards the purpose for which the tire or tube is to be used.

"Tires or tubes may not be obtained for trucks which transport farm products to ultimate consumers, and cannot be obtained for any purpose unless they are to be mounted immediately," Vance explained.

If applicants meet standards of local tire rationing boards, a certificate will be issued which allows purchase from any dealer, provided the board has not already reached the monthly total of certificates which it may issue.

When inspector's statements are secured, farmers are asked to explain to rationing boards the purpose for which the tire or tube is to be used.

"Tires or tubes may not be obtained for trucks which transport farm products to ultimate consumers, and cannot be obtained for any purpose unless they are to be mounted immediately," Vance explained.

If applicants meet standards of local tire rationing boards, a certificate will be issued which allows purchase from any dealer, provided the board has not already reached the monthly total of certificates which it may issue.

POWER in a hurry!

UNCLE SAM's fast-moving ski troops put military power in the right place at the right time.

America's electric companies have done the same job with industrial power. They were ready when the crisis came!

They powered new plane plants, tank factories and shipyards almost overnight—and rushed reserve electric power to key points over carefully interconnected systems.

As the demand grew greater, they speeded new construction. Last year, alone, they installed over 2 1/2 million more horsepower—enough to light one-quarter of all the homes in America!

Good business management made this possible. The same companies, the same management, will go on increasing the production of power for protection—until skiing is a sport again, instead of a war maneuver!

Members and friends of our church thoroughly enjoyed our fiftieth anniversary celebration last Sunday. Brother Meredith helped us to a new faith in Him who overcame the world and to a devotion to the church. Our two living charter members, Mrs. Charles E. Davidson, Sr., and Mr. Frank Friend, were present for the services. The barbecue dinner was well up to Mr. Bob Cook's standard. Old friends and new ones were strengthened through the recollection of yesterday, and the memories of dear ones who have entered a brighter world. The natural and normal result of our celebration should be a greater effort on the part of each one to enshrine Christ in his own life. Let us be worthy of those who gave us the first fifty years of our church's history. We shall go forward into our second fifty years.

The Stockman Pulpit

By CLYDE CHILDERS
Baptist Minister

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.—Philippians 4:7.

There is a state of mind, known to religious men, but to no others, in which the will to assert ourselves and hold our own has been displaced by a willingness to close our mouths and be totally resigned to the will and purposes of God. In this condition of mind and heart what we dreaded most has become the habitation of our safety, and the hour of our death to our selfish desires has turned into our spiritual birthday. The time of tension in our soul is over, and that of happy relaxation, of an eternal present, with no discordant future to be anxious about, has arrived. Fear is not held in abeyance as it is by mere morality, it is positively expurgated and wasted away. On the Christian Front we realize that the great issues of life and death are not in our hands. But as we seek to do the will of our Father, and realize that everything else is beyond our power, there comes to us a sweet and satisfying peace of mind and heart. We take the one step and gladly trust the rest to God.

In this troubled world of our day the greatest enemy of all of us is a deadly fear of the things of today and the days to come. It is true of the statesman, the soldier, the business man, the scholar and the humblest among us. What all of us need for this day and every day is this peace of God.

There is no rest for man save in God, who made him and furnished in man a room that He would like to occupy. That room is man's heart. But, some one says, "how shall we rest in God and he in us?" By opening our hearts and giving ourselves wholly to Him. If we give ourselves by halves, we cannot find full rest and peace—there will ever be a lurking disquiet in that half which is withheld; and for this reason it is that so few Christians attain to a full, steadfast, unchanging peace—they do not give themselves up to God entirely.

May God grant that we will today turn the world loose as far as its conflicting desires are concerned and lay hold upon God that we may fully possess His "peace which passeth all understanding."

AN APOLOGY

Oil Industry Helped

All branches of the petroleum industry will receive priority assistance through Preference Rating Order P-98, issued recently by the Director of Priorities.

The order assigns various priority ratings from A-1-a to A-10 for deliveries of materials to be used for specified purposes in the production, refining, transportation and marketing of petroleum and petroleum products, and also assigns ratings for the production and certain types of transportation of natural gas.

Conservation Order M-68-c, however, forbids the construction of new facilities or improvement of existing facilities, including filling stations, for the marketing of petroleum or petroleum products, except when specific permission is granted by the Director of Priorities. Construction or improvement begun before the effective date of the order, January 13, which will be completed within 60 days may be carried out.

Conservation Order M-68, issued previously, has been amended to permit the completion of wells in process of drilling on December 23, 1941. Another amendment forbids the drilling of wells unless there has been a consolidation of all separate property interests within the 40-acre area surrounding the drilling operation.

Priority Rating Not Necessary To Buy Ranch Equipment

At the 26th Annual Conference of the Texas Sheep and Goats Raisers' Association, held in Austin, Texas, December 11, 12 and 13, officers of the Association requested that the OPM investigate the priority ratings for ranch equipment. This has been done and the information has been made available according to announcement by J. S. Hixson, secretary of the OPM.

According to B. F. Vance, State Director of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Defense Board, ranchmen do not need priority ratings to buy essential ranch equipment such as that ordinarily sold by local or available dealers. These dealers should have a priority rating on such materials especially if they are finding it difficult to get delivery on these goods. Priority ratings are issued upon application to the Office of Production Management, Washington, D. C. Ranchmen needing such equipment however, such as line track-type tractor, and other materials not ordinarily in stock by local dealers, must obtain a priority rating for this kind of machinery. These ratings are issued by the Office of Production Management, and should be obtained on the OPM Priorities Distribution application blank, known as OPM-1.

In order to coordinate the defense efforts of agriculture, the Department of Agriculture has organized State and County USDA Defense Boards over the entire state. The chairman of each county Agricultural Conservation Association is chairman of the County USDA Defense Board. Board members will be interested to know that the United States Department of Agriculture has notified the Association office that manufacturers of shearing equipment will receive due consideration in securing materials to meet requirements during the coming year. Such machinery will come under a Farm Machinery Equipment Rating Plan, recently approved by the OPM.

"In my opinion," says the secretary, "the recent announcement by Donald M. Nelson of the OPM that all U. S. war production efforts will probably bring about changes in securing priority ratings and there may be some delay in getting materials due to this change."

Raw Sugar Ceiling Adjusted

Effective Jan. 4, maximum prices of raw sugar were raised 25 cents per 100 pounds, duty paid, cost and freight basis at U. S. Gulf ports. This upward adjustment by the Office of Price Administration is in accordance with terms of arrangements just completed by this Government to purchase the entire 1942 Cuban crop of sugar.

Studies of refining costs and the amount of unsold raw sugar stocks in the hands of refiners are under way. Increases in the price of refined sugar will not necessarily correspond to the 25-point increase in the raw sugar ceiling, but will reflect the actual situation as to costs, the OPA said.

Narrowly Escapes Watery Grave

Robert S. Fennell Jr., left, and George Tavelle, both of Savannah, Ga., relate their experience to newspaper men at a hospital in Hoboken, N. J. They are the only known survivors of the steamer, City of Atlanta, which was sunk by a submarine off Cape Hatteras. The ill-fated vessel carried a crew of 47.

trolling the epidemic.
"We are not afraid of measles ourselves," the doctor's letter closed, "but the dangers of complications are so great that we feel it necessary to comply with the suggested regulations of Dr. George Cox, State Health Officer."
Protests from parents over enforced absences of children from school for a three-weeks period as an ineffective control measure when such children are free to attend picture shows, churches and congregate in downtown areas and mingle with school children after school hours, have been heard by the school board and faculty. For that reason, a definite rule was requested of health authorities and passed along by school officials to parents for their guidance in determining when children should be allowed to return to school after measles exposure or suffering the disease.

Spirited Sale Of Auto Tax Stamps Is Reported Here

It's a pleasure to lick a tax stamp when you reflect that by so doing you are helping to lick Hitler, and Mussolini and Tojo.
So think Crockett county auto owners, who are marching in numbers to the postoffice windows to purchase the new auto use tax stamps on sale by Uncle Sam for the five months period from February 1 to June 30, according to reports from Postmaster J. R. Kersey.
This county's first consignment of stamps numbered only 200 and they were "gobbled up" in short order, the postmaster declared. Another consignment of 550 has been received, which is expected to be about sufficient to take care of the present need, and these are being passed out rapidly at $2.09 each. A $5 stamp, good for 12 months will be sold in time for affixing with the beginning of the government fiscal year July 1.
A War Department report says that the wool from 26 sheep, or about 200 pounds, is required to outfit a soldier with overcoat, jackets, pants, underwear, socks and hats needed during his first year of service.
