JAPAN'S NAVAL LOSSES . . .

The Japanese may not say much about it, but their losses at sea, since the present war began, must be giving the high command in Tokyo some anxious moments. Official summary shows that approximately 100,000 tons of Japanese shipping was destroyed in the recent raid on the Marshall and Gilbert islands.

STRUGGLE FOR OIL . . .

Oil, as every schoolboy knows, is the lifeblood of modern war. Until lately, that fact was a cause for rejoicing among the United Nations, which owned or controlled practically all the world's oil fields.

APPEASING VICHY . . .

The State Department may have information, unavailable to the public, that justifies its playing along with Vichy in face of reports that the Petain government is aiding the Nazi in Africa and the Japanese in Indo-China.

PAYROLL BOOST . . .

Time clocks for people who work in Washington might be a good thing, but if they were installed it's likely a commission with a full staff of employes would be appointed to observe their action.

HE HAS HIS OWN TROUBLES

THIS ARSENAL . . .

Much speculation and concern are expressed among us regarding the obvious lack of fighter planes and other armament in war-congested theaters of the Far and Middle East. Casual critics are vociferously wondering where the big output of lend-lease material has been going.

CURIOUS CIRCUMSTANCE . . .

"Curiously," says an American flyer shooting down Japanese planes over the Burma Road, "their bombers are faster than their pursuers." He adds, "That's probably because the bombers have American engines."

MERELY A BEGINNING . . .

The President's decision to put sixteen different Federal housing agencies together comes under the head of resettlement activities.

THRILLS, NOT FRILLS . . .

According to William F. McDermott, Plain Dealer columnist who has been surveying the Washington scene, the officer who prepares the War Department communiqués prides himself on his ability to "make 'em to the point" and without frills.

AUTO SCRAP DRIVE PUSHED

Movement of Southwestern auto "graveyards" to "get in the scrap" will be supervised by Thomas L. Mullican, region executive of the WPB's Bureau of Industrial Conservation, who has set up headquarters at Dallas.

CANS AVAILABLE FOR HOME USE

Tin cans of the home-canning type will be available in ample supplies for home and institutional canning, according to WPB announcement. The recent WPB order restricting sales of tin cans by manufacturers to commercial canners is not applicable to home canners.

AUTO QUOTAS ISSUED

Quotas under which Southwestern eligible buyers may secure certificates for purchase of new 1942 passenger automobiles during March, April and May have been issued by the OPA. The quotas, and reserves, include: Louisiana, 1403, and 127; Oklahoma, 1447, and 161; Texas, 5522, and 515.

WHAT REALLY COUNTS

"He may have a greasy hat and the seat of his pants may be shiny, but if his children have their noses flattened against the window pane a half hour before he is due home for supper, you can trust him with anything you have."

A Matter Of Comparison

"Hold on there!" said I to my daughter last Saturday morning when I saw her getting out the big yellow crock and the wooden spoon. "Millions on millions are on the march with fanatical zeal and ruthless determination to blot out forever the ways of freedom everywhere."

But when you compare it with what they ate before the war in other countries, we're still rolling in sugar. "Do you happen to know how much they did eat in those other countries?" I asked, pinning her down.

Rationing Plan For Trucks And Trailers Announced

WASHINGTON, March 11 — A rationing program for all types of new trucks, truck-tractors and trailers, to be administered jointly by the War Production Board and the Office of Defense Transportation, has been announced.

Approximately 196,000 trucks and trailers will be available under the plan for rationing during the next 22 months. The rationing, effective March 9, will permit gradual release of stocks of new trucks and trailers which have been "frozen" since the first of the year and will remain so until March 8, under an extension of the original freeze order.

Under rationing, vehicles required by the armed services and other designated war operations will be released under a general "governmental exemption permit." Outside the exempted categories, five usage classifications are established to indicate the order in which new trucks and trailers may be released. These usage classifications include: (1) municipal services, such as police, fire, garbage disposal, and mail, telephone and other communications services; (2) highway maintenance, transportation of materials and persons directly involved in the war effort; (3) transportation service for essential civilian needs, such as repair services, waste and scrap materials, and public and private schools; (4) retail delivery service; (5) vehicles used for non-essential functions. No encouragement is offered by WPB to persons who can qualify only under classifications 4 and 5.

Application forms will be available through truck and trailer sales agencies. When completed, these forms will be sent to Washington to receive, first, ODT approval, then WPB approval in the form of a "certificate of transfer." Such certificate will enable the buyer to purchase through any dealer. The Office of Price Administration, which is rationing passenger vehicles, has no part in the rationing of commercial vehicles.

"It is the obligation of government to act without fear or favor. On the labor issue government has acted with both fear and favor. Within the space of a single week we saw the government caught on both horns of its dilemma, first fearing to exercise its powers under the laws and then being all but impotent in the coal strike because it had abdicated power by law." — H. M. Wriston, President, Brown University.

First Bomb Shelter Luncheon in U. S.

A luncheon served on air line trays publicly opened the bomb shelter by a large rubber concern at Akron, Ohio. This is a shatterproof flexible structure of the type tested by the war department. It is made of strong corrugated plates forming a gas and water-tight cylinder, and is large enough to accommodate 50 people.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, March 11—Main manifestations of the business and industrial picture fall into a new alphabetical array, the "Four C's"—Conserve, Curtail, Convert and Co-operate. Lastest word on major industry conversions to war work comes from J. S. Knowlson, chief of WPB's Division of Industry Operations. He predicts American industry in general will be "well over the hump" in the conversion program by fall, with the auto industry leading the way—but warns there'll be "casualties." More than 70 firms in the office equipment field have been advised by WPB that they're expected to produce small guns, among other things, in place of their customary adding machines, cash registers and typewriters. (Thus the war takes the quotation marks off "typewriter," which used to be gangland slang for sub-machine gun).

CO-OPERATION, CONVERSION — You wouldn't think that carpets, peanut butter and bicycles would have much in common, would you? But in upstate New York they do, for Mohawk Carpet Mills, Beech-Nut Packing, and H. P. Snyder company (bikes), have pooled their extra manufacturing facilities in order to bid for effectively for government jobs to offset curtailments of their regular output. . . . A non-military, though war-caused, case of conversion is the decision of Libbey-Owens-Ford, largest makers of flat glass products, to enter the field of pre-fabricated housing — to cushion the decline in demand for glass caused by cessation of auto production which formerly took nearly half its glass output.

VANISHING VEHICLES

With public garages throughout the country hanging out the "no vacancies" sign and '42 state auto registration figures declining, the expected war-impelled retirement of thousands of family cars from the highways is becoming a reality. Those that are still rolling will need water and more loving care than the average driver has been wont to bestow. A "credo for wartime driving" drawn up by one manufacturer who has consistently emphasized frill-less economy in personal transportation puts into compact form the essential points to remember in making the thriftiest use of your car. You've heard most of them before, but it's still a good idea to "paste in your hat" these main pointers: Limit your driving to necessity trips only. Pool errands with your neighbors. Don't drive over 40. Avoid sudden stops. Keep car well oiled and greased. Don't race engine. Don't overcharge your battery. Check water, tires, cooling system, battery, frequently. Give your car a garage check-up monthly.

CURBS AND CEILINGS — Sharpening of curtailments, spreading of price ceilings, continue apace: No more crude rubber for girdles and garters, corsets and suspenders. . . . No more 12-gauge shotguns for sporting uses. . . . OPA calls for ceilings on coal rags, the new "Victory" bicycles guns, flashlights and dry-cell batteries; freezes fertilizer prices; extends policing of women's hosiery prices to cover the rayon variety. . . . Nationwide rationing of gasoline and oil appears inevitable. . . . Ships being diverted from the sugar trade may mean the weekly ration will be lower than first planned.

MORE ABOUT RUBBER—We'll have enough crude rubber during 1942 to meet all military and vital civilian needs, with a small carry-over at the end of the year—but then's when the pinch may begin. The fact that we must take into consideration the needs of our allies as well as our own is now cited as pointing to an even stricter conservation program than now prevails. Emphasizing this point, J. J. Newman, vice-president of the B. F. Goodrich company, last week told business and industrial leaders in the Los Angeles area that "we must realize that we will go into 1943 with a carry-over tonnage which cannot be made public but which I can say definitely will not be large enough, by itself, to permit continuance of our operations on even the present restricted basis." Best sources of information, Newman said, indicated that other countries in the United Nations pact are not so well prepared as we are in the matter of rubber. We'll have to be "miserly, indeed," in our use of rubber now in service, or face a very real deficit in 1943.

BITS O' BUSINESS — General shopping seems to be settling down, but there's quite a rush on for refrigerators, radios, washing-machines and ranges. Customers are less choosy about trade names, styles and sizes in these articles: one Detroit store ordered many factory rebuilt refrigerators, some models as early as 1930, and did a very brisk business. . . . General industrial production, bolstered by war goods output, hit all-time high of 170 for January (percentage of 1935-39 average), two points higher than December. . . . Michigan unemployment seems not as severe as was feared with stoppage of auto production—and C.I.O. says it expects "total absorption" of auto industry workers into war jobs by mid-September.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR — Synthetic golf balls, containing no natural rubber (though the actual ingredients are a closely-guarded secret) . . . Movie house refrigerator service, to keep groceries cool while shoppers see the matinee.

Dad criticized the sermon. Mother thought the organist made a lot of mistakes. Sister didn't like the choir's singing. But they all shut up when little Billy chipped in with the remark: "I think it was a darn good show for a nickel."

"What did you think of the big fight last night, Bill?" asked the sailor of his pal.

"Fight?" returned Bill, scornfully. "If the missus and me had put on a show like that on a Saturday night, the kids would 'ave boo'ed us."

One of my teachers used to say to his students, "Adversity, like night, reveals the stars." That is surely true!

So in days of fair weather when there is no illness, no depression, no adversity we very often miss the stars of heroism, sacrifice and noble character.

Paul once wrote his friends, "I would ye should understand, brethren, that the thing that happen unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel."

The most fruitful period in the life of ancient Israel, excepting the period of the lifetime of Jesus, was that time following the destruction of the temple and the transporting of the people to Babylon.

Prayer: "Help us, our Father, and help all who meet adversity to find strength in human hands and divine love.

Dangers Of Kite Flying Pointed Out To Children

It's kite-flying time again. And the West Texas Utilities, momentarily forgetting the many problems of war in many lands and the difficulties of maintaining good service in the face of war-time handicaps, is taking time out for a humanitarian war it has waged for long years in the past.

Among rules children should observe are these: Watch out when crossing streets with a kite in tow. Keep to the open spaces and away from wires of all types.

"Serious and even fatal accidents have resulted from kites coming in contact with high tension wires," cautioned W. R. Cabaness, W. T. U. local manager.

A SCORE FOR YOUTH

Adele Keeton

The other day I was reading a recent magazine. I found an editorial in this magazine which was very interesting to me.

When Japan attacked the United States, and then Germany and Italy declared war on this country, some self-styled patriots destroyed Japanese-made goods in stores.

Shortly afterward I read a dispatch that Tad Mukaihata, 17-year-old American-born son of Japanese parents, had just been elected president of the student body of Belmont High School, Los Angeles, Cal.

What does this mean? Fundamentally, I should say, it means are more intelligent, more tolerant, less hysterical, than the older people.

We should look forward with confidence to the time when these now young will be running this country.

Last week two white rabbits were purchased for the Kindergarten children. The children have named the rabbits Peter and Whitey.

Ozona High School Lions Band Gives Assembly Program

The largest number of visitors ever to attend a regular assembly were in the Auditorium Thursday afternoon to hear the band present its third program for the year.

The members of the Junior Band were honor guests and played three numbers, "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star," "The London Bridge Is Falling Down," and "Long, Long Ago."

The numbers played by the Senior Band were "140th Infantry," "Washington's Post March," "Them Basses" — featuring the bass section.

Upon the recommendation of the Band Mothers that the name of the Senior Band be changed to one that would be indicative of the organization's relationship with the rest of the school and school activities.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

Last week two white rabbits were purchased for the Kindergarten children. The children have named the rabbits Peter and Whitey.

The rabbits spent the week-end at the hotel in rooms 210 and 212. The teachers spent all the week-end petting and caring for the rabbits.

Timid Miss Kirbie, knowing how the rabbits felt, put them on the bed with her when the vacuum cleaner scared them.

All in all, the teachers are almost as proud of Peter and Whitey as the Kindergarten pupils are.

Future Homemakers Do Their Part In National Emergency By Furthering Cause Of Nutrition

Thirty-two thousand Future Homemakers of Texas have been mobilized for defense work for their nation, it was announced this week by Josephine Pazdral, State Supervisor of Homemaking Education.

In order to persuade and to teach children as well as adults the importance of a well-balanced diet, the Home Ec. IIIA Class have gone modern with an electric bulletin board showing the necessary food requirement.

The construction is of a 3-8 inch ply board painted in black and white. "Connect with Health" is the heading at the top which invites the adults and children to push buttons near the foods and words.

The mechanics of making the board were as follows. The push buttons were connected with a multiple wire system at the back with small bulbs. Colored pictures of various foods were used which against the neutral background make a pleasing contrast.

Schools Assume Vital Part In War Emergency

Never was there a time when the profession of education carried such a heavy responsibility; however, never was a time when there was a greater opportunity to serve the nation nor more significance placed on the contribution to make to the winning of the war.

It has been said that the American youth is far ahead of its elders in recognition of the fact that the country is at war. The statement is based on the fact that there has been an emphasis placed on technical courses in school.

The schools are assuming unusual responsibilities in their vital part in present war emergency in addition to their regular programs without abandoning or even seriously neglecting essential normal services.

There is a little more than eleven weeks left of this school term at Ozona High School, and the last holiday has come and gone.

The Red Cross First Aid course in Ozona offers such opportunity to the teachers of this system. Some of the schools cooperated with the government in the registration of the Selective Service, and in larger towns, the teachers are in charge of the rationing of sugar, etc. Defense lamps and bonds are being sold throughout the school.

The hope of America lies upon the trained intelligence; the schools are one of the nation's strongest arms of defense or attack.

Boys' Quartet

and has studied music in England, Germany, and Italy. He has traveled all over the world with his cowboy act and written many Western songs. The contest winning song "The Call to Arms" is a tune from this opera. The prize awarded $1,000, a contract to make a patriotic short for RKO, and royalties from the song which Kate Smith will henceforth use as her theme song. Bing Crosby will also sing it on his program.

The Rotarians enjoyed the quartet so much that they asked them to sing some Western songs while they played on the piano. They joined in on a few of the songs. After the meeting was over, Rex and the boys sang and talked, and Rex promised to send the boys copies of more songs he had written. He said he would also send them a picture of his horse and of his saddle valued at around $1,000.

Rex and his helper, Fex Lloyd, said that they would enjoy keeping in touch with the boys.

The quartet ended their program by singing "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

Since Red McWilliams, Billy Hannah, and Bill Carson are Seniors, Mr. Denham has asked that boys who are interested in singing meet with him in his office and try out for their positions. He said that he hoped that the quartet next year would be as good as the one we have had this year.

Lions Band To Be Represented In Sonora

The Lions Band of Ozona will attend a Band clinic at Sonora Saturday March 14, 1942. Mr. Pingleton, the band director, is planning on taking about 8 or 10 pupils.

Here is the approximate schedule:

- 9:00-10:00 Full band.
- 10:00-11:00 Sectional.
- 11:00-12:00 Marching instruction.
- 12:00-1:30 Lunch.
- 1:30-2:30 Solos.
- 2:30-4:30 Full band.

Mr. Howell, the Sonora Band director, will be in charge of the day's events. The director from the Abilene Christian College, Mr. Train, will be the technical adviser and director.

Mr. Pingleton will take the required overture, "Two Admirals," the selected overture, "Vogue," and "Americana," another overture. He will take two march warm-up marches, "140th Infantry" and "Washington Post" march.

Australians Prepare 'Welcome' for Japs

Australians, whose fighting men have fought in distant climes, know that the time has now come to defend their homeland. Air attacks on Darwin furnished all the proof needed to convince the "Aussies" of Jap intentions with regard to Australia. In this picture Anzac army men are setting up a field gun in a carefully camouflaged position near Darwin.

Side Glances on Texas History

TENDERFOOT
"Greenhorns," or "tenderfeet" have never had a very easy time of it in frontier territory. Not all of these newcomers have had the persistence and fortitude of Francis Richard Lubbock, who not only accepted with good grace the stiff "skinnings" some of the oldtimers took off him, but preserved in his determination to adjust himself to his new environment—so successfully that he later became governor of Texas.

In his memoirs, published posthumously in 1900, Lubbock described several of his "tenderfoot" experiences. This volume is a valuable source of Texas lore and history in the University of Texas Library's vast Texas Collection.

PIG IN A POKE

Lubbock, who came to Texas in 1837, set up his mercantile business in Houston. On the return leg of a business trip to Brazoria, he recounts, the first experience, which left him a wiser man, occurred.

"While traveling along the Brazos on the edge of the prairie I was joined by a party of men," he wrote. "After journeying together a few miles we reached a beautiful point of woods—majestic trees, lovely shade, and fine peach soil. I had but recently arrived in Texas, and everything looked charming to me," he confessed.

"I expressed myself as carried away with this piece of wild land, whereupon the party told me it was his; that he owned the point—a labor, 177 acres—known as Parker's Point; that he would sell it very cheap, and named as his price $1,000. He then told me his name, Davis Moore; that he was on his way to his father's place on

School To Go On War Time Schedule

Beginning Monday, March 16, the schools will change their schedule to Central War Time. Due to many complications Feb. 9, when War Time was started, the schools did not find it suitable to use the War Time. Before the days became longer, the pupils who come in from the country would have found it hard to get in on time as they would have had to leave before daylight. The lighting system in the grade school building was not satisfactory for starting school before it was daylight. The extra hour was not needed in the afternoon. Now there are certain tennis and football activities going on which can use this time. Beginning next Monday all of those not at school by 9:00 Central War Time will pay with 30 minutes after school.

get a cent of my money back. "I was brought up in Old South Carolina, where I had never heard of a man selling anything that he did not own," he added ruefully.

100 YEARS AGO IN TEXAS

"New from the West.—A report was brought to town on Sunday evening that a proclamation had been promulgated in Bexar, notifying the citizens of that place, that a body of 1,600 Mexican Troops would take possession of the city in the 4th inst., and in consequence, fifty or sixty families had removed to Gonzales from Bexar. A company from Gonzales set out for Bexar immediately after receiving the news, but were driven back. Col. Moore had made a call upon citizens of Fayette and the adjoining counties, and was preparing to march with a large body of volunteers to repel the enemy. We have heard alarming reports from Bexar, so frequently that we place little reliance upon this.

"As the force of the Mexicans that was represented to be marching upon Bexar, amounted to only 600 or 800 men, no fears are entertained for the safety of the city.

"Postscript.—Since the above was in type, an express has arrived from Austin, conveying the intelligence that the Mexicans appeared in such force at Bexar that the citizens concluded to abandon the city. They retired in good order, and fell back upon Gonzales, leaving the city in possession of the enemy.

"Orders have been received from the War Department for the brigade to be held in readiness to march at a moment's warning. The forces of the west are concentrating at Gonzales. We expect hourly intelligence from Austin with further particulars. We, however, are still of the opinion that the Mexican forces at Bexar are rancheros from the Rio Grande, and not the vanguard of an invading army. The force, however, much larger than was at first represented, and amounts to one or two thousand men. The citizens of the West are gathering in great numbers and expect fine sport in repelling the invaders."—Telegraph and Texas Register (Houston), March 9, 1842.

Ranchers Asked To Sign Application For AAA Work

Crockett County ranch operators who expect to participate in the 1942 range conservation program of the AAA are requested to call at once at the offices of the Crockett County Agricultural Conservation Assn. offices for the purpose of signing the blank request for participation in the 1942 program.

Forms for such application have been received, it was announced yesterday by Miss Betty Bratcher, administrative officer of the association, and are ready for signatures of operators. It is necessary for these application forms to be signed in order to receive payment for work, Miss Bratcher pointed out, although signing of such request does not bind the operator to carry out the practices listed.

School Program Geared To Nation's Victory Effort

Ozona schools are doing their part in the national war effort, and pupils are being encouraged in many practices recommended by the government as contributing to the victory program. Waste of all materials is being discouraged, paper being used on both sides, and electricity is being conserved, with "light wardens" being named for each room to see that lights are extinguished when not in use. These and other features of the defense cooperative program in schools was described by Supt. C. S. Denham. An air raid drill was conducted last week in response to suggestions from the State Department of Education and special classes in physical education, tumbling and gymnastics is being held after regular school hours. Spring football and tennis practice will start this week.

Royal Caswell, superintendent of the Texas-New Mexico Pipeline station near here, will teach a course in first aid this spring, with special attention to first aid practices most useful to high school students.

Church Rebuilding

ruins was made yesterday by members of the building committee and John A. Wilder, architect, and F. J. Von Rosenberg, contractor, both of San Angelo. Both men were pessimistic concerning the possibilities of obtaining the necessary materials, especially steel, to rebuild the church to its former proportions. However, the builders expressed the opinion that the walls left standing can be salvaged for the most part and had some suggestions to make concerning a possibility of certain changes in construction and design which would permit use of substitute materials which are available.

Continued study of the problem is to be made by the board, however, and all information available will be secured regarding materials and plans, with final determination of the procedure to be followed left to such findings.

Red Cross--

May of 1941 the quota was 12 bed shirts, 9 crocheted shawls, 34 sweaters, 10 beanies, and 5 mufflers. The latest quota to be completed and shipped was that for January 1942, consisting of 20 layettes, 20 men's pajamas, 44 girl's dresses, 60 sweaters and 20 knitted suits.

Mrs. Hugh Childress is chairman of the sewing division of the production program and Mrs. Roy Henderson is in charge of the knitting. Women who will assist in this work are asked to communicate with these women. Yarn for the knitted garments and the material for the boys' shorts have already been received and are ready for distribution, it was announced. The quota is expected to be completed and ready for shipment in May.

Ben Williams of Williams grocery is among the victims of measles this week.

Musical Material Sought For Use In Army, Navy Centers

Mrs. Bryan McDonald, local defense chairman from the Ozona Music Club, cooperating in the national Federation of Music Clubs drive to collect musical material for use in the army camps and naval bases of the national for the benefit of our armed forces, announces establishment of a receiving station at Baker's Food Store for material of this nature which Ozonans wish to contribute.

Particularly desired are phonograph records, sheet music, song books and musical instruments. Ozonans who have material of this kind which they will give for this purpose are urged to take it to the receiving station or communicate with Mrs. McDonald by telephone.

Slater To Speak To Assembly Group

Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor of the Methodist Church, will address the Ozona High School student body at the chapel hour in the auditorium this afternoon. The chapel program begins at 4 o'clock.

Members of the boys quartet, composed of Garrett McWilliams, Billy Hannah, Bill Carson and L. B. Cox, III, will sing.

THE BAPTIST HOUR

Now in the last month of a three month series of programs, The Baptist Hour is featuring Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, Third Street Baptist Church, St. Louis, Missouri, as the special speaker with a series of messages on The State. This is a very vital subject and will contain truths on this issue which Baptists have championed through the years. Dr. Johnson is one of the most able and popular speakers of the Baptist denomination and is recognized and heard gladly in both the Southern and Northern Baptist Conventions. The public is cordially invited to hear him on next Sunday morning at 7:30 over WFAA.

Gets High Post

Capt. Oliver Lyttleton, who became minister of state in the new British war cabinet. Lyttleton also succeeded Lord Beaverbrook as minister of production.

General Faculty Meeting Wednesday

Girls of the eighth grade home-making class were hostesses to the faculty of Ozona High School at a general faculty meeting held Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Estelle Carruth, teacher in the primary grades of the Latin-American school, gave a paper on "Teaching Primary Pupils in Latin-American School." Miss Elisabeth Biser spoke on improvement of spelling and modern methods of teaching spelling, declaring that all teachers in all grades should be spelling teachers.

Mrs. Welton Bunker underwent an operation in a San Antonio hospital Wednesday.

Hancock Named To Convention Post

Newspaper advertising for profit will be one of the major subjects discussed by several thousand cafe men of Texas during the Fifth Annual Convention of the State Restaurant Association of Texas, April 1, 2, and 3, according to Harry Akin of Austin, President of the organization. The same subject will be featured at local meetings of restaurant associations over the State during the month of April. Restaurant operations during the emergency, the effect of price controls, emergency mass feeding in case of disaster, plans for conserving food supplies, solving the problems of waste, labor scarcity and rising costs, will also be emphasized on the program.

Mr. Akin announced the appointment of J. I. Hancock, restaurant operator of Ozona, to the State Attendance Committee for the convention.

"Mother" James Suffers Injuries In Iraan Fall

Last Tuesday morning while attending a Baptist Workers Conference at Rankin, "Mother" James tripped and fell breaking a bone in her left wrist and suffering severe body bruises and lacerations. She was carried to the hospital at Iraan and treated. While in Iraan her son, Frank, came for her and she was brought home. She is confined to her bed at her home and is at present recovering as well as could be expected.

Sugar Rationing Registration Is Expected Soon

Sugar rationing, one of the necessities of war, is a week closer, and in the Southwest the planning machinery for registering every man, woman and child for ration books already is working. Almost any day now the Office of Price Administration in Washington is expected to designate a four-day period in which everyone is to register.

In the meantime, the region Price Administration Office in Dallas is making extensive plans for the registration to be carried out without undue confusion in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana. The three State Ration Administrators—Mark McGee of Texas, Bert McDonel of Oklahoma, and U. S. Goodman of Louisiana—met with region OPA officials in Dallas last week.

The registration will be conducted by elementary school teachers in every county, with representatives of families and individuals going to the school nearest them, provided the school is in the same county, to obtain their ration certificates. Registration forms and ration books already are in the hands of many County Clerks who have been asked to guard the supplies carefully until needed.
