Kitty's Korner

By Kitty Montgomery

The nursing home issue has come up again, and anyone interested may meet with the Commissioners Court Monday for a general outline of the situation as it stands.

It seems we can afford almost anything for our youngsters in this community, but very little is done for our elderly, and this is a shame. We will all arrive at that time in life, if we live long enough and we should all be vitally interested.

There is certainly reason for cynicism, and I am the last one who would wish to see us go into another county venture that would prove a financial disaster. However, with a doctor who seems to be fairly well established and who fits well into the community, and an improvement in the financial condition of the local hospital which has been such a financial drain on the community in the past, I feel we should seriously consider the need for this facility for our elderly.

If we can have a nursing home with more patients than office personnel, there seems to be no reason why it should not pay for itself, or very nearly so. We too often see county facilities turned into political pork barrels, and this naturally leads to a tongue-in-cheek attitude on the part of the tax-paying public. However, while we are clucking over the political aspect, our elderly who need nursing home care are being carted out of town. Many of whom, have been productive, tax-paying citizens of the county for all of their lives. And this is a moral outrage for Crockett County and its citizens.

Neither do I think we must have a hospital district to get this project underway. We are one town in one county with one county government, and we seem to be well-equipped to take care of the matter without creating another taxing district. Of course, we are aware that taxes will go up if a bond issue for the nursing home passes, but not nearly as "up" as they would go if we stumble into the creation of a hospital district, and if you check this out you will find it's more truth than poetry. There must be some reason communities all over the country are holding elections to dissolve hospital districts.

But back to the point, our old people need a place to go when they become unable to care for themselves and it is up to us to provide this. I personally think the ideal way to do it is through private enterprise, but nobody is jumping on that bandwagon these days, and those who

PREVIEW OF NEW HIGHWAY WEST OF TOWN - Ozona may be seen in the background of this shot of the five miles of Interstate 10 which is under construction west of Ozona. Much of the construction has been completed, but daily blasts remind Ozonans that work is still going on. This is only one section of the coast to coast highway, which when completed will stretch from Florida to California. When this section is completed, it will bring the new highway .8 of a mile from downtown Ozona. The only other part of the highway in use in the county is the section east of Ozona to the Sutton Co. line. (David Wallace Photo)

Two Crockett 4-Hers Are State Winners

Two Crockett County 4-H'ers, a brother and sister, have been named state winners, according to the state 4-H Club office.

Peter Zapata, 15, was named state winner in the 4-H Bicycle program and Elizabeth Zapata, 17, was named as one of the four state winners in the National 4-H Conference program. Both 4-H members are children of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Zapata.

Peter will receive a $50 U. S. Savings Bond from the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. Peter's 4-H record has been sent to Chicago for sectional judging in which winners will receive a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress.

Elizabeth will be awarded a trip to Washington, D. C. to attend the National 4-H Conference, April 22-27. Her trip will be sponsored by Penzoll United, Inc.

Both 4-H members have compiled outstanding 4-H records. Elizabeth has won county and district food shows twice, allowing her to compete in the State 4-H Food Show two years. Last year she won the state award in the 4-H Health program and a trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago. She was county winner of the 1972 4-H Dress Review.

Elizabeth, in nine years of 4-H work, has won many other 4-H awards. She is an active junior 4-H leader and has served as president and vice-president of the Tejas 4-H Club. She has completed projects in ten demonstration areas of 4-H club work.

Peter has been in 4-H seven years and is a member of the Lamazona 4-H club. He has had a project in bicycling for three years. In that time, he has earned money to buy his own ten-speed bicycle. Peter has served as junior leader for the 4-H bicycle club and as reporter-secretary for his local 4-H club. He also has served on the district 4-H council.

Other projects which Peter has completed include conservation, leadership, foods, health, safety, citizenship, dog care, recreation and yard beautification. He was a member of the district winning Share-the-Fun Act that competed at the State 4-H Roundup this year.

Gary Boyd Rodeo Scholarship Fund Set Up At A.S.U.

A rodeo scholarship fund has been made available at Angelo State University.

The Gary Boyd Rodeo Scholarship Fund was set up by Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Boyd of Ozona, recently with a donation of $1,000. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd are the parents of Gary Boyd who was killed in a car wreck in the spring semester of 1971.

Young Boyd was a member of the ASU Rodeo Association, the Concho Aggies, and served on the University judging team.

According to Craig Davies, president of the Angelo State University Rodeo Association, the initial amount will probably be broken into four $250 scholarships. The scholarship is open to anyone who qualifies for a collegiate rodeo scholarship.

Donations are also being accepted to be added to the fund for future scholarships. Anyone wishing to donate money as a living memorial, may make their donations to the Gary Boyd Memorial Scholarship. Checks or money orders should be sent to the Special Services office of Angelo State University.

Rev. Eddie Taylor, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church for the past few months, has resigned and will move with his family to Hefflin, La.

Rev. Taylor, his wife, June, and two daughters will move to their new home in Hefflin this week.

Rev. Taylor and his family came here from Gustine.

Commissioners Court Is Urged To Respond To Nursing Home Need

Around 25 Ozona citizens met with the Commissioners Court Monday to determine the status of plans for the nursing home which were tabled when Dr. Louis Cole left Ozona without a doctor several months ago.

Since that time Dr. W. R. Johnson has moved to Ozona and established a good medical practice. The hospital seems to be well on its way to financial recovery, and many Ozonans feel the nursing home should be on the priority list for the commissioners court and hospital officials.

John Berkley, pastor of the Ozona United Methodist Church, acted as spokesman for the group. The commissioners were absent, but Judge Williams and other court officials were on hand to speak with members of the group.

Lions B Drops Close Game To Sonora, 13-14

The Ozona B team lost a close one to the Sonora B in Sonora Thursday night. The score was 14-13.

Romaldo Gervantez scored on a 5-yard run and kicked the PAT for the Lions. Craig Tallaferra scored again for the Lions in the final part of the game. The Lions went for two points, trying for the win but the conversion failed.

Outstanding defensive players for the Lions were Jimmy Tambunga, Robert Perez, Armando Reyes and Henry Fay. The Lion B will host the Big Lake B at Lion Stadium tonight.

embarrassment at the absence of the commissioners, explaining that the group attended a county judges and commissioners convention in Fort Worth last week and did not return to Ozona in time to hold court on the appointed second Monday of the month. He was most anxious to answer questions from the people present, and explained why plans for the facility were tabled when the town was left without a doctor.

He explained that the court had consulted with an Austin architect and had received completed plans for the nursing wing before work on the project came to a halt.

Sikes And Womack Attend Program At ASU Saturday

Supt. L. B. T. Sikes and junior high principal Charles R. Womack, were among 65 other area school administrators and their wives attending a program entitled, "Area School Administrators Evening" held Saturday on the Angelo State University campus Saturday.

The program was designed to acquaint the school officials with the various programs at the University and to give them a first-hand look at the new physical education facilities.

The evening's program included a coffee at the Houston Harte University Center, a buffet dinner served pool-side in the new physical education building and the football game between the Rams of ASU and the Bearcats of Sam Houston State.

When asked about the petition which had been circulated and presented to the court, he said the petition was on file with other work done on the facility. He assured the group that if enough interest was indicated, the court would call a bond election and get on with the wishes of the electorate.

He reminded the group that the plans, which called for a 20-bed facility were drawn at an estimated cost of between $435,000 and $750,000. Also, that the possibility of securing federal funds to help with the cost were nil.

The group, when asked if they preferred meeting with the entire court next month or at a called meeting Monday afternoon, indicated by a show of hands that they wanted to (Continued on last page)

County To Get $86,300 For Road Improvements

The Texas Highway Commission has approved the expenditure of $86,300 for improvements of State Highways and Farm to Market Roads in Crockett County during 1973.

District Engineer J. A. Snell of San Angelo said that a total of 25.1 miles of asphalt seal coat and bridge improvement work has been authorized in Crockett County under this annual program. Work will be under the supervision of James R. Evans, Maintenance Engineer, and is part of the Highway Commission's combined State Highway Safety and Betterment and Farm to Market Road Improvement Program for 1973.

NURSING HOME PLANNERS remain behind to hear a few words from hospital administrator Sonny Kirklen (out of picture) after last Monday's meeting between interested citizens and Judge Troy Williams. Around 25 Ozonans were on hand for the meeting. From left to right, Rev. John Berkley and Mrs. R. A. Harrell, who have spent much time on the project, and Judge Williams, who represented the court.

Mrs. Mitchell To Head Up Group For Sen. Tower

U. S. Senator John Tower announced today the appointments of 15 outstanding citizens to the Crockett County Steering Committee of Texans for Tower. Named as chairman was Mrs. Tom Mitchell of Ozona.

"We are delighted that so many Democrats and Independents are teaming up with us and putting the best interests of Texas and the United States above party labels," said Tower, who has 11 years' seniority in the Senate.

"Now, more than ever before, Texas needs a strong, effective voice on both sides of the aisle in the Senate," he declared. "I appreciate the efforts of these fine Texans, who realize the importance of having a Texas Senator who can work closely with the White House."

Named to the committee were: Ira Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Couch, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Harrell, John Held, Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Henderson, Gene Lilly, Jim Marks, Mrs. Tom Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Evert White, all of Ozona.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Elmore, former Ozonans. He is married to the former Suzanne Clark of Brownwood and they have two children, Delana and Charles. He surrendered to preach (Continued on last page)

THE NEED FOR DEFENSE

A nation's military establishment is not a luxury but a necessity. No nation with peaceful intentions requires or can justify a defense establishment which is larger than that which is necessary to meet the needs of her own security. But the adequacy or inadequacy of a nation's defenses is determined not by considerations of domestic priorities, but by the power relationships within which that nation must operate. And we must keep in mind that in the real world, no country can conduct an effective foreign policy without a military capability which is appropriate to its responsibilities.

In our case, our responsibilities since World War II have necessarily been international in scope as they have concerned themselves primarily with the need to contain the aggressive outward thrust of the Communist powers. These are responsibilities which we did not seek, but which we cannot escape as the only free world power capable of facing up to the Russian challenge.

Since the end of World War II, the unquestioned military might of the United States has been the foundation of the free world's security and independence. As a result of the Soviet Union's extraordinary expansion of every sector of its strategic and conventional arms, the military balance is now rapidly turning against the United States; and unless decisive steps are taken to reverse these trends, our security and that of the free world will be gravely threatened.

The recent interim agreement placing limitations on certain types of strategic offensive weapons will slow the rate at which the Soviet Union has been overtaking us in nuclear capabilities. This agreement will not however, eliminate the prospect that the Russians will in time achieve a decisive strategic superiority over us unless we launch immediately a vigorous program of weapons research, development and procurement within the limits permitted us by the SALT accord. To do less is to place the stability of the world and our own ultimate freedom at unnecessary risk.—Sen. James L. Buckley (C.-R.-N.Y.)

YOUR COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER

With more governmental powers centered in Washington, D.C. and the state capital to direct our businesses, help finance our schools, master-mind our public works and supervise our shopping, it becomes increasingly essential that citizens be well informed.

When proposed panaceas for solving economic and other problems are glibly voiced, we see our newspaper role as furnishing sound journalistic judgment and interpretive reporting to put the proposals in true perspective.

The political, economic and individual freedoms of the American people can be preserved only if the public is aware of the facts which bear on current issues.

This is where newspapers, especially community newspapers, serve a unique function. We provide the "grass-roots" reaction to events taking place in the state and the nation. We serve as a unique two-way communications medium between the people at home and their elected representatives.

This community newspaper provides the most complete local coverage of social, sports, educational and other news events in more detail than any other medium. We also try very hard to be the community's conscience.

HOW YOU CAN USE COLORS TO ADD DECORATING BEAUTY

Here are some various color ideas for you to think about.

For instance, you may add sunshine to an otherwise drab bedroom by using yellows and whites or other bright colors on the bedspreads, drapes, walls and lamps.

The transformation of a living room may take place simply by replacing your white lamp shades with a daring accent color.

If your room has too many neutral colors, pick up one or more of these colors and use in a large pattern on the fabric of your drapes or upholstery.

A small chair in bright red velvet, for example may make a great difference in the right spot in your bedroom or living room.

For contrast use warm colors (violet, red, orange, yellow) in a cool room, and cool colors (yellow-green, green, green-blue and blue) in a warm room.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club By Mrs. Bailey Post

October is clean-up month the garden. Now is the time clear away dead stems and wash from the flower garden vegetable patch. Debris until spring provides ideal deouts for over wintering pests and diseases.

Winter can be hard on your lawn. Take a few steps now to feed, remove thatch and patch up the bare spots. You will not only see your lawn through the cold weather, but also get it started for better growth. Treat the bare spots like a new lawn by preparing the soil correctly. Watering the newly planted areas is important and while doing this it is good idea to water the entire turf area to have it in the best shape possible before winter months set in. Keep leaves off the turf and do not let them accumulate, for they choke it off to the grass below, and you can end up with ugly brown spots in the spring. Mow grass until it stops growing, then do not mow it too short or the last time. However, do not leave it long enough to mat.

Your garden can put on a colorful show next spring if you take a little time to plan and plant some bulbs this fall. Some want to plant bulbs early so they will form a good root system before winter. Others wait until December, which gives later blooms in the spring. Bulbs are especially effective for small areas, borders, a corner, doorway planting, naturalistic setting, base of trees, a pocket of color and patio edging. Soil should be prepared to a full 6 to 8 inch depth so there will be the best conditions for bulb growth. Bulbs like good drainage and a soil not too heavy. Add peat moss or vermiculite to loosen. Fertilization is not too important. Many advise using bone meal in the soil at planting

Is weight control a problem at your house? Approximately 40% of the people in the U. S. above 40 years of age are believed to be obese. A person who exceeds his desirable weight by more than 20% is considered obese.

In general, the weight that is desirable for you when you are in your midtwenties is considered the best weight for later years, too. (Please note that the above statement says the "desirable weight" at age 25. You may have weighed more or less, or the desired amount.)

Try these helpful hints, to keep your weight under control. Weigh at the same time of day, and if possible on the same scale each time. Your weight may vary as much as 2 or 3 lbs. during a single day, depending on your water intake and loss and on the number of hours since the last meal. If you have a scale at home, the best time to weigh is when you first get up in the morning before you dress or eat. If you use scales away from home, try to use the same one each time you weigh, and weigh with the same kind of clothing.

Compare your weight with the desirable weight for your height and build, as well as with how much you weight last time.

What causes overweight? Overweight is caused by eating more food than the body needs for energy. Body functions-- digestion, heart beat, breathing--require energy. So does any physical work or play. The body uses energy in these ways.

time. Others use a light dressing of 5-10-5 chemical fertilizer, but do not use manure.

The less active we are the less energy we use. If the amount of food we eat gives us more energy than we need, we store the surplus in the form of fat.

Why do people overeat? Habit--As people grow older they continue to eat just as much as when they were younger and more active. Social Eating--In our culture, when you wish to be hospitable, you offer food or drink. Lack Of Knowledge--Some people do not know how many calories they are eating. If you know the calorie and nutritive value of foods you can get much better nutrition for less calories even when selecting lunch at a drive-in. Boredom--How many times have you eaten food you did not actually want just because you were bored? Frustration--If you have had a rough day you may try to relieve some of your frustration by eating. You may associate food with love and affection.

Perhaps when things went wrong when you were a child, your mother comforted you by giving you food--so as an adult you still eat when things are tough.

Here are two basic rules for weight control: Select a variety of foods like milk and milk products, fruits and vegetables, meats, and breads and cereals. A person needs protein, vitamins, minerals, and energy foods to keep healthy, but he should cut down on the total number of calories he eats.

At the same time he should become more active physically in order to burn up some of the energy he has stored as fat. Remember: No one food is fattening -- it is the total amount of food eaten daily that counts, together with the amount of energy used.

TOUCHDOWN

TOUCHDOWN... we all know the thrill that lifts us to our feet when OUR team scores. We cheer, we sing and shout. It takes teamwork to put a man over that goal line. The whole team must work together to move that ball down the field... "the right way." The guards and tackles must hold the line. The ends must be "on target" to receive passes. The quarterback must know his plays and execute them with speed and skill. Likewise, in the game of life we need wisdom and strength beyond our individual endeavor. It is essential to receive inspiration and help in order to achieve successfully our goals in life. Your church can provide that faith which leads to everlasting victory.

Grazing Use Factor In Life Of Plant

By - Clitis H. Sinclair, D. C. S., C. S.

The production, health and life of a grass plant depends on the degree of grazing use. We might compare a plant with an animal. If we put a steer in the food lot and feed him a "maintenance ration," he will not gain nor will he lose weight - he will stay just about the same. If we feed him a little more than a "maintenance ration," he will lose weight and if he is underfed long enough, he will starve to death.

A plant does the same thing as the steer. It has a "maintenance ration" too. If we leave only enough top growth for maintenance, the plant will just maintain its present size. If we leave a little more top growth, it will gain in size and productivity. But, again like the steer, if we leave less than a "maintenance ration" of top growth, the plant may stay alive a long time, but it will get gradually smaller and finally starve to death.

The amount of top growth needed to properly "feed" the plant varies somewhat with the kind of plant, the conditions under which it grows, the season it is grazed and several other factors. Most good forage plants, however, need about half their top growth to keep them healthy and productive. The other half can be safely harvested with animals. As a rule of thumb, then, we might say "take half and leave half," and we might continue and both halves will get bigger.

Healthy, vigorous, "well-fed" plants always grow larger than weak, "underfed" plants. And half of a large plant is always more than half of a small plant - and often more than all of a very small plant.

In the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District, Soil Conservation Service technicians are available to help landowners evaluate their grassland resources and to help them develop and carry out the kind of management plan best suited to their lands and to their objectives. The grassland operator needs to consider all alternatives in grassland management in planning for the best use of his grasslands for the long run.

If your six year old saw something like this, would he know how to phone for help?

It's too important a question to leave to chance. That's why we're running this ad. If there are any six- or seven-year-olds around your house, teach them how to report emergencies. Tell them to dial "0", give their name and tell our operator where they are and what's wrong. With older children, train them to dial emergency numbers direct, since that's the fastest way to call for help. But don't stop there. Copy down the emergency numbers listed on the inside front cover or first page of your telephone directory. Add your family doctor's number. And the number of the nearest hospital. Next, tack up the list near your phone. Then get your kids to memorize it, in case it gets lost. By the time they're through memorizing those numbers, they're going to have every grownup in the house knowing them, too. Which is also why we're running this ad.

DON'T TAKE RURAL TEXANS FOR A RIDE... AND DON'T TAKE US FOR GRANTED.

HERE'S WHAT NIXON IS DOING TO RURAL AMERICA

HERE'S WHAT McGOVERN IS DOING FOR RURAL AMERICA

WHEAT SCANDAL - Giant wheat exporters made huge profits at the expense of individual wheat farmers, many in Texas, on Soviet trade.

HIS STANDING - George McGovern has been elected time and again as a Democrat from a Republican farm state... because they know where he stands.

TAXES - Wall Street Journal says federal laws favor the corporation or investor who farms on the side for a tax write-off.

TAXES - His tax proposal would end the loopholes for tax-loss farming by giant corporations and the wealthy individuals who compete unfairly with family farmers. McGovern's proposal calls for the same tax on capital gains as on earnings.

FARM ISSUES - Under Nixon, parity dropped the lowest since 1933. Nixon held up payments of nearly $400 million for feed grains in 1970, forcing farmers to borrow at highest interest rates in history.

FARM ISSUES - He sponsored and co-sponsored: Meat Import Limitation Law; Dairy Import Act; Wheat, Feed Grain, and Soybean Emergency Reserve Bill; Rural Development, Rural Job Development, and Rural Telephone Acts; Farm Credit Act; and other pieces of important legislation.

CONGLOMERATE SCANDALS - Big Business first, the public second - that's the Republican philosophy. Anti-trust suit against ITT dropped at the same time ITT pledged $400,000 to finance Republican Convention.

HIS BELIEFS - George McGovern knows that the answers to many of our most pressing problems in America today can be found by developing genuine opportunities for everyone in our small towns and rural areas throughout the country.

Harry S. Truman said, 'The Republicans admire our government so much they want to buy it.'

Let's face it. The Republicans just haven't changed much since the days of our grandfathers. They still favor Big Business over the average working man and woman. And while they're taking us for a ride, they keep telling us what a 'dangerous radical' Senator McGovern is.

Let's not be taken for granted by the Nixon Republicans. Rural America has always fared best under a Democratic administration. If you want to stand up and do something good for rural America, the answer is to help put a Democrat in the White House. We need George McGovern... and George McGovern needs us.

That's what they said about Harry S. Truman.

meet with the court at the earliest possible time. It was agreed that the meeting would take place Monday at 2:30 in the District Courtroom. All those interested in the nursing home issue are urged to be present at that time.

Rev. Berkley said he felt the plans the court has presented were adequate for the time being, and expressed his appreciation for the work the court has done on the nursing home. He also expressed his appreciation to those present and asked that they return to the meeting Monday.

Mrs. R. A. Harrell, another active proponent for the nursing home, announced that a list of prospective patients for the facility has been made up and it contained names of 201 area people who needed nursing home care in some capacity. She also expressed appreciation to Judge Williams for meeting with the group.

Junior High Cubs Get Win and Loss

Coach Tommy Wilson's junior high Cubs won one and lost one here last Thursday night against the Sonora junior high. The Cub seventh graders lost their first game of the season 6-0, and the eighth graders picked up a 14-0 win.

Ronnie Schneider scored on a 5-yard pass play, and John Castro scored on a 35-yard pass play for the Cubs. Vaden Aldridge threw both touchdown passes.

The season standings for the Cubs are 3-1 for the seventh graders and 3-0-1 for the eighth graders. They will be in Big Lake tonight for a double header with the Big Lake junior high teams.

Lions Get Hard Earned Rest

The Ozona Lions are using this week to rest up and get ready for district play which opens next week in Big Lake. They have an open date tomorrow night after pouncing the Iran Braves 41-0 last Friday night in Iran.

The win over Iran ran the Lions winning streak to four in a row. They lost their season opener to Junction.

However, the Lions have shown strong offensive and defensive power since the first game of the season and should be considered top contenders for the District 7-AA crown.

Running backs Gerald Huff and Ruben Tumbunga are among the top scorers and ground gainers in the district and Tim Evans has broken loose for long ground gains and scores, along with David Sewell, who has scored from the quarterback position this year and toed all the extra points for the Lions.

Coahoma, last year's district champs, won their first game Friday night after dropping their first four games of this season. They were the pre-season pick of west Texas sports writers.

Reagan County, or the Big Lake Owls, have the same season standing as the Lions. However, they lost a cliff-hanger to the Sonora Broncos and the Lions knocked them off neatly.

McCamey seems to pose no threat this year as they are in a rebuilding phase and haven't seemed to be able to come up with a winning combination as yet. The real surprise in the District 7-AA is last year's cellar dweller, Stanton. They started out winning and have only lost to a powerful Rankin team 3-0. The Buffaloes could easily turn out to be the Lions toughest opponent.

The Crane Golden Cranes, who were a power for many years in Class AA football seem to pose no problem this year for the contenders for the title.

should know tell me there is no interest. I can't imagine this when the survey shows that there are 201 persons in the county who need nursing home care or will shortly. I haven't the time nor the means to check this out, but there should be some interested organization or person who does have.

We do seem to be pointed in the right direction and maybe Monday's meeting will bring something worthwhile.
