READING AND WRITING By JOHN SELBY

"SALUTE TO YESTERDAY" by Gene Fowler (Harcourt, $2.50). Today the Hollywood-acclaimed author of "The Great Mouthpiece" and "Timber Line" introduces his first novel, so far as this department knows. Gene Fowler calls this strange and remarkable book "Salute to Yesterday." Perhaps he does not call it a novel; that may be his publisher's fault.

For in the accepted sense "Salute to Yesterday" is no more a novel than the editorial page feature of the Kansas City Star, for an example. Mr. Fowler has strung together a group of rollicking, roiling characters, has written a lot of incidents out of Denver's past around these gentry, and has glossed the whole with Fowlerisms. This produces a perfectly grand book which one puts down with the greatest regret, but not a novel. The best of Mr. Fowler's characters is right out of the movies, the better movies. He is the 75-year-old mining editor of a Denver paper who stalks the streets of that capital city believing atheistic principles and defiance of the town nabob, Colonel Steele. The movie would have deleted the atheistic principles, but have retained Capt. Trolley's picturesque garb, loud speech, sword cane, and loquaciousness. The sight of Captain Trolley parading the main street, attacking handbills into the decorations provided for the visiting Elks is glorious—the handbills invited all and sundry to see the unveiling of Trolley's epitaph in a local cemetery; the legend read, "There is no God." Colonel Steele is rather a stock villain mellowing in his eighth decade into a giver of chimes and so forth. There are many others, including a Greek monk who through odd circumstances reaches Colorado and a status as faith healer, wearing the while a bearskin coat stuck all over with celluloid campaign buttons. There is a broadminded professor from Chicago, named Thumb.

Adult Classes Aid In Cutting Down Illiteracy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Dr. L. R. Alderman, director of the Work Progress Administration's education division, said today the division's adult education classes are speeding up the decline of illiteracy in the south. The adult education classes in the south are part of an announced WPA effort to reduce the total illiterate population of the United States by 1,000,000 by 1938. The illiteracy total was 4,202,759, or 4.3 per cent, in the 1930 census. Dr. Alderman estimated that 700,000 of the 1,000,000 have been taught to read and write since the program began in 1933. A total of 160,455 has been set as the "quota" of 15 southern states in the attempt to reach the 1,000,000 mark. The "quota" assignments included: Arkansas, 6,916; Louisiana, 15,096; Mississippi, 14,269; Oklahoma, 3,550; Texas, 22,000.

"Optical Illusion" Is Required To Make Noses Look Straight

By MARY ELIZABETH FLUMMER. NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—Ninety-eight per cent of all women have a crooked nose, said Emile F. Martin today—a nose that "lists" slightly either to right or left. So, explained Martin, who is president of the New York State Hairdressers' association, "an optical illusion" is required to make the feminine nose look straight. The trick, he said, is to part the hair adeptly. If the nose veers to the right, hair is parted on the right by all means, sloping back to center.

Asked if men's noses have the same imperfection, Martin pondered, and said he didn't know.

"And So--Victoria" Is Praised By Literary Critic, John Selby

Evelyn Oppenheimer To Review Novel Here Monday. Praise for the current best-selling novel, "And So—Victoria," comes from one of the nation's best literary critics, John Selby, who writes for the Associated Press Feature Service. His daily stint, titled "Reading and Writing," appears in The Herald. "And So—Victoria" will be reviewed here next Monday evening by Miss Evelyn Oppenheimer of Dallas, who, due to several previous appearances in Big Spring, has a wide local following. Miss Oppenheimer will speak in the Settles hotel ballroom at 8 o'clock, under auspices of the 1930 Hyperion club, which has sponsored her previous appearances. Proceeds from the affair will go to the club's fund for children's books.

Selby, writing of the novel by Vaughan-Wilkins, says in part: "And So Victoria" is the perfect example of what can be accomplished by a writer of intelligence and ability who will frankly accept the convention of the theater when writing an historical romance.

In this case it is Vaughan Wilkins who is shrewd enough to do this, and the shrewdness is all the more remarkable because Mr. Wilkins has not previously written fiction. x x x Mr. Wilkins sets his stage exactly as a clever designer might. He prepares entrances like a dramatist, and he knows that for dramatic effectiveness a certain amount of exaggeration is essential. x x x The whole book has a quality of immediacy and a flash and go about it which make it almost unique in the fiction of the season.

Forsan Youth Knows What's Going On In Old England Through His 'Correspondence Friends'

Charles Dempsey, 17-year-old Forsan high school student, has developed an unusual hobby of acquiring foreign friends through correspondence.

It all came about a year ago when he answered an ad in the Christian Science Monitor. Result—four interesting friends in England who write him on the average of a letter every three weeks.

From them Charles has learned much pertinent information about England, its industries, customs, history and social system. His correspondence could hardly have been more timely, for through it he obtained a veritable "ringside" seat at the coronation of George VI.

Government Policies Blamed By Banker For 'Thinness'

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 14 (AP)—The present district slump in share prices has revealed "an impairment of efficiency" of the stock market which calls for "prompt correction." Witthrop W. Aldrich, New York banker, asserted today.

In a speech prepared for delivery before the Rochester chamber of commerce, Aldrich, who is chairman of the Chase National bank, said the "acute thinness" of the market was largely the cause of "extraordinary drastic and severe" price movements on even a moderate amount of selling. He attributed the thinness to "the cumulative effect of a variety of recent government policies," many of which, he contended, should be modified.

Among them he enumerated the capital gains tax, high and rigid margin requirements, the rule requiring officers of corporations and other "insiders" to hold stocks of their own concerns for at least six months before taking a profit and number of regulations of the securities exchange commission affecting dealers in securities.

Baron Kishichiro Okura and Vice Admiral Takuo Godoh, who are going to Italy and Germany, respectively, also were aboard. All plan to explain "Japan's position" in the far eastern situation.

Japan recently decided to present her own case before nations of the world through personal envoys.

Matsuoka said he wanted to "see the movie studios and the Harvard-Yale football game."

CONSERVATION DEPT. IS BEING TALKED

CASPER, Wyo., Oct. 14 (AP)—Four hundred reclamation men, some of them pioneers of water development in the west, saw today a changed national attitude toward their work reflected in the current movement to replace the federal interior department with a "department of conservation."

Col. T. A. Walters, first assistant secretary of the interior, told the National Reclamation Association last night "the time will come when leading minds of the east and west will join in changing the name x x x to the department of conservation and make its activities mean that in word as well as in action."

Secretary Ickes, in a message to the association's sixth annual convention, said he strongly supported the move.

East Texas Farmers In Session

Congressmen, Other Officials Talk On Legislation

TAYLOR, Oct. 14 (AP)—Nearly 1,000 Central and East Texas farmers today exchanged views with their congressmen on the farm program which the approaching session of congress will tackle.

The all-day agricultural meeting, sponsored by the East Texas chamber of commerce, drew as speakers Rep. Marvin Jones of Amarillo, chairman of the house agricultural committee; Rep. Richard M. Kleberg of Corpus Christi, member of the committee; and Rep. Nat Patton of Crockett.

J. E. McDonald, state agriculture commissioner, and several other farm leaders also were on the program. Hubert M. Harrison, manager of the East Texas chamber, called the session a "farm clinic."

"Texas representatives on the house agricultural committee want to know the views of farmers on the most important production control question," he said.

McDonald spoke on a domestic allotment plan, asserting it would satisfy the salient points in the president's agriculture program.

He said the cotton farmer should be given parity prices for his pro rata share of the production used by this nation and should be left free to grow a larger quantity and compete in the world markets if he desired.

Any crop reduction plan would fall, he said, unless it embraces a method of upholding prices. The cotton farmer's condition has become more serious this year, he said, because of increases in costs of things he has to buy and a big drop in cotton prices.

W. Wipprecht, 73-year-old farmer from Bryan, said a person should be allowed to produce cotton on a specified percentage of his total land in cultivation, not his former acreage. This, he said, would benefit the person who started diversifying before the government thought of it.

For Stabilized Farm Prices

CIO On Record In Favor Of Agriculture Aids

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 14 (AP)—The C. I. O. pledged itself today to support legislation to stabilize farm prices at not less than the cost of production.

Leaders of 32 unions affiliated with the Committee for Industrial Organization adopted unanimously a resolution which said the C. I. O. "recognizes the community of economic interest between the industrial workers and the farmers."

The John L. Lewis organization, meanwhile, set out today to justify its claim of being the dominant labor force by accepting the challenge of opponents to assume "union responsibility."

Adopting a permanent national policy for the first time, leaders of 32 affiliated C. I. O. unions unanimously approved a resolution yesterday to cooperate with employers in administration of collective bargaining agreements which, they said, must be written contracts.

OIL HEARING SET

AUSTIN, Oct. 14 (AP)—The railroad commission announced today a hearing on field rules for the Oilton field in Webb county would be held in Austin October 29.

It announced also an order for the Webster field in Galveston and Harris county prescribing wells may be drilled not nearer than 933 feet to any others on the same tract or 466 feet to any property line.

Dog Carries Money To Bank Daily

Glo-Glo Gets the Bank Book

And Earnestly Carries It

By the AP Feature Service

JEFFERSON, Ohio—The watch dog of Harry Sikes' treasury also is Sikes' bank messenger.

The money-minded canine is a cocker spaniel, four years old. Name is Glo-Glo. Every morning Glo-Glo carries Sikes' bank deposits to the bank. He's never missed yet — and nobody's ever robbed him.

Sikes puts bank book and all in to Glo-Glo's mouth and off trots the dog.

Sometimes he is able to reach the teller's hand at the regular window, by standing on his hind legs. But usually Glo-Glo, who gets special privileges, walks around behind the cages and puts the bank book into the hands of a certain teller.

LOCAL UNDERWRITERS HEAR STATE ASSN. PRESIDENT

O. D. Douglas, president of the Texas Association of Life Underwriters, outlined the elements required for success in the profession of life insurance writing as he spoke before a ladies night affair of the Big Spring Life Underwriters association.

The speaker, a prominent figure in the national as well as the state organization, challenged the underwriters to "throw yourself into your work; have ambition, enthusiasm, initiative, sincerity, confidence and work."

Right thinking and right planning, he said, were prerequisites to success. Underwriters must learn management, show the essential qualities of good personality, and exercise common sense for best results.

Douglas adjured his listeners to "work—work with and not against the laws of life. Watch the little things. Remember that you have to pay a price for success."

In this, their third home game of the season, the Bovines will be seeking their first victory of the season on their own stamping grounds and their second of the year over Oil Belt competition. Fifth place in the conference standings will be the reward of the winner. Both teams have won only one of three district games and a victory will pull either up to the 300 mark for the season.

91 Killed In Madrid Raid

Capital City In A Night Of Terror From Bombardment

MADRID, Oct. 14 (AP)—Heavy artillery killed or wounded 91 persons in a desecrating bombardment last night of this besieged city, once the proud capital of all Spain.

The number of casualties was given out in an official government report after a night of terror in which approximately 700 shells blasted the heart of the city.

Four of the shells hit Madrid's skyscraper—the telegraph building—since the July 21 war started has been struck 26 times.

The government said 30 persons had been killed and 60 injured during an insurgent airplane bombardment of Campa de Casca, in Asturias province of northwest Spain. Many others were reported killed in nearby Infesto, where 100 houses were destroyed.

The government said the insurgents had occupied three towns—San Martin de Bada, Torpe and Collaval de Bada on the northern Asturian front, and further south had advanced to Teanarubia, near the Leon province boundary.

GOLFERS HAVE 3 DAYS TO QUALIFY

Entries bring to 20 the number of golfers entered in the tournament.

TRAYNOR SIGNS TO MANAGE '38 PITTSBURGERS

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 14 (AP)—Harold J. (Doc) Traynor, an old Bucs fan himself, will guide the Pirate brig again next year.

Pres. William E. Benswanger of the steel city's baseball club announced today that Traynor had signed a contract to manage the National league entry in 1938.

Benswanger added: "In line with Pirate policy, the contract is for one year."

The team finished third this year.

Fans generally agreed that the long string of victories chalked up by the Bucs late in the season virtually clinched Traynor's job.

DALLAS, Oct. 14 (AP)—Motion picture film distributors have the right to contract with exhibitors, individually, for first-run pictures exclusively and the contract may fix the admission price, it was held here by Federal Judge W. H. Atwell. The court held also that the contract may stipulate the date or lapse of time under which such pictures may be shown in second-run houses. Copyrighted pictures may be held off the market for second runs as long as desired if there is not an agreement through a conspiracy.

The decree was entered in the government's suit against the Interstate Circuit and several major film distributors.

Two Sets Of Twins Upset Texas U., Confuse Faculty And Boy Friends

AUSTIN, Oct. 14 (UP)—The Stamm twins, four of them, are creating havoc on the University of Texas campus these days.

There happen to be four because Aurelia and Eliska, 19, look so much like Joy and Jocelyn, 16, that only intimates—and not all intimates—can tell one from the other. They look so much alike, that the Alpha Delta Pi sorority pledged them all at once to avoid confusion.

Boys, they confess, occasionally go out with the wrong sister without ever knowing it. When Aurelia, for instance, gets a chance to make two dates for the same hour, she merely passes one along to Eliska, Joy or Jocelyn. The boys never know the difference, and everybody is happy.

All four are trim brunettes, and pretty. They live together and wear the same kind of clothes even the same sizes. They are almost always together and even catch colds at the same time, Eliska said.

The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stamm of Rayne, La. Stamm is an oil-dealer. The older twins were graduated from high school three years ago, went two years together to Southwestern Louisiana Institute, and then were separated for the first time in their life.

Last year, Aurelia taught at Morse, La., and Eliska at Lake Arthur, 25 miles away. The distance was short, but neither enjoyed the separation.

When Joy and Jocelyn chose the University of Texas, the 19-year-olds came along to take some more education courses. The younger two are studying physical education.

When the four girls appeared on the campus the eye-rubbing started. Aurelia and Eliska were waved aside with "we've seen you, quit kidding" when they appeared for medical examinations. Joy and Jocelyn had been there a short time before!

The girls have an older brother and sister.

"It's fun being twins," they all admit, but the double-wink business does confuse things a bit. "All I can say," said Eliska, "is that I'm sorry for the Dionne quintets."

Prairie States Produce More Fine Stock

Kansas City Show, Opening Saturday, Reflects Boom

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 14 (UP)—The return of prosperity to the livestock industry will be celebrated at the 38th annual American Royal Exposition, which opens here Oct. 16.

Because of the strong comeback which the livestock industry has staged during the past year, the American Royal this year assumes a more significant position than ever before. The American Royal and the series of major expositions which follow in Omaha, Chicago, Denver, Los Angeles and Fort Worth have for many years been the measuring-stick of the industry's prosperity.

More than 1,800 head of purebred cattle, swine, sheep, draft horses and mules have been entered for competition, according to Andy M. Patterson, manager of the exposition. That number greatly exceeds expectations because many herds have been severely reduced as a result of high feed costs following the drought.

All Sections Represented

The 1,800 animals will represent breeders in 21 states in every section of the nation. Throughout the country, crops have been abundant, weather conditions favorable, and livestock generally in better condition than at this time last year.

Chief cause for optimism among breeders is the renewed demand among livestock farmers for purebred animals as foundation stock. During the depression years, when only the choicest meat animals on the public markets were eligible for premium prices, livestock producers became more conscious than ever before of the value of a blooded sire. This year at spring and fall livestock auctions throughout the middle west and southwest, prices in many instances surpassed pre-depression levels and approached war-time figures. The herds, which will be paraded before the judges in the royal arena, thus will have a greater total value than at any other royal in history.

Hereford Herds First

Greatest interest centers in the purebred cattle section. Hereford herds which dominate in the southwest, lead with 34 breeders entered. The other two beef breeds, Shorthorn and Aberdeen-Angus, each have 14 herds competing.

Chief contender for cattle honors will be the Harper & Turner herd from Sulphur, Okla. A new entrant in the purebred realm, the cattle are owned by a couple of young oil millionaires of Oklahoma City, who bought nearly all of the outstanding Herefords at the dispersion sale of the late Robert H. Hazlett herd near Eldorado, Kas., last June, supplementing an impressive array of animals procured from other leading breeders of the southwest.

Mrs. Mars Has Entries

Other leading Hereford exhibitors are Combs & Worley, Pampa, Tex.; Wyoming, Hereford Ranch, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Hebert, Chandler, Baker, Ore.; Hillendale Farms, Muscatine, Ia.; Jenny Wren Farms, Lawrence, Kas.; C. M. Largent & Sons, Merkel, Tex.; Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' Milky Way Farms, Putaski, Tenn., and Otto Fulscher, Holyoke, Colo.

Mathers Brothers, Mason City, Ill.; T. Worsey Jones, Shelbyville, Ind.; Sul-A-Bar Farms, Grain Valley, Mo., and Tomson Brothers, Wakarusa, Kas., are the outstanding Shorthorn contenders.

Names traditional with brilliant show ring performances make the Angus show loom as one of the best in history. Among the competitors will be S. C. Fullerton, Miami, Okla.; Congdon & Battles, Yakima, Wash.; Elliott Brown, Rose Hill, Ia.; J. Garrett Tolan, Pleasant Plains, Ill., and James B. Hollinger, Chapman, Kas.

Other sections of the show, fully as colorful and lacking only the numbers of the cattle division will be featured throughout the entire week. Entered from eight states are 20 sheep breeders, with eight swine producers from three states. The draft horse section has attracted 29 exhibitors from 11 states in the three sections for Percherons, Belgians and Clydesdales. Six exhibitors will display mules.

Alabama Industry Gains

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UP)—Employment rolls at the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad company, one of Alabama's largest industrial concerns, showed an increase of 37 per cent during the seven months of 1937.

Double and triple strands of pearls still are among the smartest accents for a dark afternoon frock.

Oil Men A Bit Worried Over Price Status

Consumption Down, But Production Remains High

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 14 (UP)—The oil industry was inclined to be a bit gloomy today but far from disheartened.

Of the factors contributing to some pessimism, the most pronounced was the condition of the crude market.

Latest estimates showed production curtailment in a period of declining consumption had failed to materialize as expected and around the oil offices today there was an unhappy talk that "there is soft crude in the mid-continent."

Another 25-cent reduction in the price of Pennsylvania crude, the second since September 1, certainly didn't help any, even if its effect merely was psychological. Nor yet did the bureau of mines report that stocks of crude increased 1,062,000 barrels during the week ending October 2.

The opinion of one authority that mid-continent oil men were "reassigned" to a crude cut was countered by another well-informed source who declared he had "heard nothing at all" to indicate such a possibility.

Seasonal Slump

Most operators taking a long range view of the situation called again for a readjustment of production. It generally was agreed the industry had gone into a seasonal slump but there was no real cause for alarm.

Distributors reported a distinct softening of the refined market, particularly for third grade gasoline. It was pointed out that this was a natural condition at this time of year when motorists switch to gasoline of higher volatility. The call for higher grade gasolines was steady.

Psychological factors adding to the gloom were concern over the conspiracy trial in Madison affecting a large section of the industry, the possibility of oil legislation on the depletion allowance and disbursement of pipelines in the special session of congress and the prospect of higher taxes on the industry in Texas.

Executives here—those who weren't at the Madison oil trials or the Houston oil-world exposition—agreed things could look better but still there was a lot of business for the industry to turn its hand to.

Well-kept nails, neat eyebrows and smoothly arranged hair are three marks of a well-groomed woman.

CHURCH UNION MOVE TAKEN BY GROUP AT CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14 (AP)—The Protestant Episcopal church pledged its cooperation today in a movement which some theologians hope eventually will unite the world in one Christian faith.
 First, it invited the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. to consider steps for achieving organic union, and Second, it endorsed the proposed world council of churches and agreed to send two delegates to a preliminary conference in Holland in May, 1938.

WORKS ON PROGRAM FOR CONGRESS

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Oct. 14 (AP)—In a tiny make-shift office in his mother's home, President Roosevelt had an opportunity today to give thought almost exclusively to the program he will lay before the special session of congress he called for next month.
 Official engagements were kept to a minimum.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the people of Big Spring for the kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father; also thank them for the beautiful flowers.
 Mrs. W. C. Richards and family.

ITALIAN OFFICERS REPORTED KILLED BY ETHIOPIANS

ROME, Oct. 14 (AP)—Forty-one Italian officers and 17 soldiers have been killed in attacks by "Ethiopian bandits," an official announcement said today.
 The announcement was the fascist government's reply to repeated rumors of Ethiopian massacres. It did not mention the number of native troops killed, but informed sources believed it may have been large.
 Ambulance for Clubman LORAIN, O. (UP)—The Lions club here decided that one of its members had missed too many of the club's meetings. So a yellow ambulance was dispatched to pick him up and bring him to the meeting.

Sunshine Fries Eggs And Makes Ice Cubes

EGGS A LA OLD SOL. Frying eggs is just so much sunshine in the life of inventor Otto H. Mohr. All he needs is a trying pan, his hydrogenproducing outfit shown here, a little sunlight, and, of course, the eggs.

In the cool shade below are some metallic fins attached to a positive plate. The two units together constitute a thermocouple and set up an electrical current because of their different temperatures. Mohr explains, "This current decomposes vapor from a tank of water. It is then a simple matter to liberate the oxygen and pipe the lighter hydrogen into a storage tank. The device works as long as the sun shines, storing up gas for use at night or on cloudy days."

Old Sol Does Work
The present hydrogen-producing outfit occupies less space than an office desk and Mohr says it produces enough fuel for the average family's cooking needs. It utilizes a well known laboratory fact—that water can be decomposed by electrical action. Such a process is standard at plants that supply tanks of oxygen for hospital use. Mohr's innovation is to create this electrical action by sunpower. Old Sol's rays strike a shear of wires arranged in a vacuum globe

Hollywood

Sights and Sounds
By Robbin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—Dorothy Arzner is getting sick and tired of being "Hollywood's only woman director." To women and girls everywhere she says in effect: "Come on in, the water's fine!"

Seriously, the slight, short-haired woman of the tailored suits and quite manner is convinced that the next few years will see many more women becoming movie directors.

"Directing motion pictures," she says, "offers a fascinating career to women who are willing to devote their entire attention to studying every phase of picture-making. Direction as a profession should appeal to talented women as greatly as the law, or medicine. The courses of preparation are correspondingly long, and the rewards well worth the effort."

Miss Arzner herself went through a seven-year apprenticeship as secretary, script clerk, cutter and writer before she was entrusted with her first film. That was 10 years ago. Since then she has been one of the colony's leading directors, and has commanded the film work of stars from Esther Ralston and Clara Bow to the present-day luminaries, Katherine Hepburn and Joan Crawford.

"There are no reasons why women should not succeed as producers and directors," she declares. "Many have earned distinction in other creative movie fields, as scenarists, costume designers, dance directors and film cutters."

Four Women Producers
Miss Arzner asks no concessions in working hours or conditions be-and attached to a negative electrical plate.

In the cool shade below are some metallic fins attached to a positive plate.

The two units together constitute a thermocouple and set up an electrical current because of their different temperatures. Mohr explains, "This current decomposes vapor from a tank of water. It is then a simple matter to liberate the oxygen and pipe the lighter hydrogen into a storage tank. The device works as long as the sun shines, storing up gas for use at night or on cloudy days."

Invented Sub Detector
Hydrogen is the gas that filled the ill-fated dirigible Hindenburg. For domestic or industrial uses, it is handled much like ordinary illuminating gas and burns with a blue, intensely hot flame.

University physicists who have heard of Mohr's experiments concede the principle of his thermocouple is sound, but question that enough electricity can be generated by solar heat to produce hydrogen in usable amounts.

Inventor Mohr is a former consulting engineer for the U. S. Bureau of Mines and holder of many patents.

His files are filled with correspondence from men high in technical and administrative fields. One, written by Franklin D. Roosevelt when he was assistant secretary of the navy, gratefully accepts Mohr's submarine detector for the use of Uncle Sam.

cause of her sex. When doing a man's job she expects to meet the same hardships and strenuous demands of the post.

She thinks it is encouraging that, while Hollywood has had only four women producers in its history, all four have reached executive rank in recent years. She refers to Frances Marion, the scenarist-producer; Dorothy Davenport Reid, widow of the silent film star Wallace Reid; Irene Schreck, who gained her executive training as secretary to a studio manager; and Fanchon (of Fanchon and Marco) who first directed dance numbers for films and now produces her own pictures.

Volume Higher On Seed Crushing

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—The census bureau reported today that cottonseed crushed in the two-month period, Aug. 1 to Sept. 30, totaled 972,619 tons, compared with 697,289 tons in the corresponding period a year ago.

Cottonseed on hand at mills Sept. 30 totaled 988,590 tons, compared with 834,834 a year ago.

Cottonseed products manufactured in the two-month period and on hand Sept. 30 were:

Crude oil produced, 282,117,467 pounds, compared with 206,643,382 in the corresponding period a year ago, and on hand, 108,070,190 pounds, compared with 93,181,542 a year ago.

Refined oil produced, 155,426,596 pounds, compared with 115,716,820, and on hand, 311,861,656 pounds, compared with 228,451,108.

Cake and meal produced 422,938 tons, compared with 311,173 and on hand 103,397 tons, compared with 125,212.

Hulls produced 258,175 tons, compared with 181,125, and on hand 96,389 tons, compared with 70,347.

SHE DOES A MAN'S JOB
Dorothy Arzner is tired of monopolizing the field as Hollywood's only woman director and wants more women to follow her example. Among the stars she directs is Françoise Toms (right).
