Navy Relief Drive Goes Over Top In County

Over $200 Subscribed Here For Relief Of Navy Families

In a drive which was concluded in whirlwind fashion, Crockett county went well over the top in the Navy Relief Society drive, according to a report made by L. B. Townsend, county chairman, this week.

The campaign in this county resulted in a total of $215 for the relief of Navy families, the amount considerably oversubscribing the county's quota. The drive was conducted by Mr. Townsend as chairman and R. P. Reese, ex-Navy man.

Attorney General Gerald C. Townsend, chairman of the Texas Citizens Committee for the Navy Relief Society, wired his congratulations to local workers as follows: "Hearty congratulations to you and your workers in filling the Navy Relief Society quota for Crockett County and to the people of your county for their generous response to this appeal. Each one of you who has contributed in any way to the success of your drive is the Navy's deepest thanks as well as my personal appreciation for a job well done. Best regards."

The list of contributors to this worthy cause contained the names of 57 individuals and organizations. The list is as follows:

He has practiced law at Fort Stockton since that time.

After serving four years as county attorney, Mr. Johnson resumed private practice, and has had varied experience in both civil and criminal practice. He has been active in the civic affairs of his community and home county, and is now serving his second term as mayor of Fort Stockton. In that capacity he has had a prominent part in the location there of the Pacific Air School, Ltd., United States Army Primary Training School now under construction.

Rotary Plans Ladies Night At Community House

Latin-American Groups To Provide Program Mon. Night

Ladies night will be observed by the Ozona Rotary Club Monday night of next week, the meeting to take the place of the regular Tuesday luncheon for that week.

The affair at which Rotary Annas are to be honored will be held at the Latin-American Community Center, with a group of Latin-American youths providing the evening's program. Dinner will be provided by the Latin-American Mothers' Club.

The program will feature Los Troubadores, a choral club directed by Mrs. H. B. Tandy, a group of young Latin-American musical students of Mrs. Neal Hannah and other Latin-American youths in a series of Mexican folk dance numbers, directed by Miss Frances Sprawls.

Reports from the 129th district Rotary Conference last week in Austin were heard by local Rotary members at the club's luncheon Tuesday. Reports on the interesting conference sessions were made by N. W. Graham, Lee Wilson and T. A. Kincaid, Jr., President Scott Peters, who also attended the Conference, was absent, being in Dallas on business the first of this week.

USO Follows American Troops To Firing Line

New Drive Chairman Discloses Expansion Of Service Centers

AUSTIN—President Roosevelt's revelation that "hundreds of thousands of American troops are operating in areas thousands of miles from home" makes possible the disclosure that the USO has been establishing a center a day during recent weeks, Harry C. Wiess, state USO chairman, said today.

"The USO goes with the army to its expeditionary bases in every land," the chairman explained, "so during the spring months it has expanded both its operations and its planned operations greatly."

Mr. Wiess, who heads the Texas war fund campaign opening May 11, used this method to demonstrate the need for every Texas county to exceed its quota in the campaign.

"As American soldiers expand their operations to new continents, so must the USO, the citizens way of providing recreation and comforts for the men in service, grow with them," he declared.

"Many USO centers are already operating in Texas, and more are to be built at the dozens of new training centers already authorized," Mr. Wiess pointed out. "Through USO Texas can demonstrate its hospitality to the thousands of men from other states coming here for their training. We must do well over our $1,110,000 quota."

225,000 Pounds Spring Wool Sold Here At 42 Cents

Tom Parker Buys Clips Of 20 Growers; Carson Wool At 44c

Sale of 225,000 pounds of 1942 spring wool, eight months length, at 42 cents a pound was announced this week by Melvin Brown of the Ozona Wool and Mohair Co. The buyer was Tom Parker for Emory and Conant.

Delivery of the lot was under way this week, with some 130,000 pounds already shipped, Mr. Brown said. Clips from around 20 growers were included in the sale.

The season's top price for eight months wool was set this week by a Crockett County grower, Ira Carson, whose 25,000 pound clip of eight-months wool was sold from the West Texas Wool and Mohair Assn. warehouse in Mertzon at 44 cents a pound. Sumner Wills, buying for the Davis Wool Co., was the buyer.

Scrap Saved From Japs Sold; Proceeds Go To Navy Relief

While many, too many, Americans were dazzled by high prices offered by the Japs for American scrap iron before Pearl Harbor, at least one American, W. R. Baggett of Ozona, declined to sell his scrap on that basis.

And now, when America needs every pound of scrap to scrap the Japs, this Ozonan had some to offer. And he did offer it—he gathered nearly 10,000 pounds and brought it to town and sold it.

But that's not the end of the story. He received approximately $40 for the lot. With the check in hand he went to the local chairman of the Navy Relief Society drive, L. B. Townsend, endorsed the $40 check and handed it over to this worthy cause. Hats off to another real, patriotic American!

Mrs. Bob Murchison of Fort Stockton spent the week-end here visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Perner.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

May 1, 1942

TO THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS:

This week a new campaign for the sale of War Bonds and Savings Stamps is under way throughout the Nation. It is the War Bond Quota Campaign.

It is urgently necessary that you double the rate at which you are now buying War Bonds and Stamps. This will mean the sale direct to individual Americans of War Bonds and Stamps to the amount of not less than one billion dollars every month.

One billion dollars a month is the National quota. It is equal to one-tenth the combined incomes of all Americans.

This money is needed to buy the tools of war for your fighting forces. It will not pay for all of them. Our war expenditures now are at the rate of about FOUR BILLION a month, and they are growing daily. But a billion dollars a month direct from the people will make all-out production possible. Without it we cannot do our best; without it we cannot put forth our full effort.

It is desperately needed for another reason. We can't fight a war and at the same time live and spend as usual. There are not enough goods to go around — the things we buy with money. If we go on spending at the 1941 scale, we'll be robbing the fighting men to add to our own comfort or pleasure. We'll be driving up the cost of living for all of us. We'll be imposing dire hardships on our neighbors.

What is asked of you is ten per cent of your earnings — a little for Liberty. It is not a tax; it is not even a contribution; it is a loan at interest, for your use and protection later.

Your Government asks you to cut down your expenditures, TO SAVE — your boys on the firing line and in the training camps, through your Government, ask you to save so that they may have what they need to win THIS WAR for you — America asks you to save; to SAVE TO WIN THE WAR; to buy War Bonds and Stamps up to not less than ten per cent of your income.

Is Liberty worth 10%? Is Democracy worth 10%? Is America worth 10%? I think I know your answer.

Sincerely,

W. M. C. Morganthau

The above letter was sent to this newspaper by Secretary Morganthau in Washington. We publish it in the interest of the War Bond Quota Campaign and earnestly recommend that all our readers do their share in the tremendous job ahead of financing the War effort.

2496 Register In Sugar Ration First Three Days

Last Chance for Ration Books At Final Session Today

With universal good cheer, Ozonans this week marched to the school registration centers to sign up for their first War ration books — the little book of stamps that entitle them to purchase one pound of sugar every two weeks for each person in the household.

Registrars reported without exception a spirit of complete cooperation, of willingness to accept the ration program without a hint of grumbling, and an eagerness to make full accounting of sugar stocks on hand, even though it meant losing stamps from ration books, and in some cases, even forstalling issuance of a book.

In the first three days of the registration period—which ends with today's final sign-up session—a total of 2,496 application blanks had been signed up here. Of this number, 1,022 were issued from the Latin-American school, registration center for the Latin-American settlement, and 1,474 from the high school, according to a tabulation made by Supt. C. S. Denham, administrator of the sugar rationing registration program.

Out of the 2,496 registrants, only 32 had such excess quantities of sugar on hand to preclude issuance of ration books, the administrator reported. Families with more than six pounds of sugar per person on hand could not be issued ration books, but filled out application blanks and will receive the ration books as soon as their stocks of sugar are used up at the rate of a half pound a week per person.

Today is the last day for registration for sugar ration books. The final sessions will be held from 1 to 3 o'clock this afternoon (Thursday), for the American population in the High School gymnasium and for the Latin-American group in the Latin-American school building. With Monday a school holiday to clear the decks for the rationing registration, a crew of more than 40 registrars worked through the day signing up the sugar users. On that day a total of 1,877 application blanks were filled out, 1,102 at the high school and 775 at the Latin-American school.

For the last three days of the four-day period, the afternoon hours from 1 to 3 are assigned for registration. Tuesday's total enrollment was 560, 231 in the high school center and 129 at the Latin-American school. On Wednesday, 259 signed up, 141 at the high school and 118 at the Latin-American school.

"Considering the magnitude of the undertaking, I believe that this group of registrars has done a magnificent job," Mr. Denham declared. "There was seldom a time when the waiting line contained more than six or seven persons and the registering was done with as much efficiency and dispatch as was possible. I am deeply grateful to all who assisted and are assisting in the registration and for the splendid spirit of cooperation on the part of all the people."

Assisting in the registration were the following:

Misses Rebecca Anderson, Elizabeth Biser, Margaret Butler, Catherine Chapman, Marzee Hammons, Margaret Hill, Hazel Kirbie, Margaret Meyers, Eleanor Neal, Zelma Scott, Frances Sprawls, Georgia Williams, Betty Bratcher, Doris Bunker, Elizabeth Coose, Leta Powell, Wayne Augustine and Kaela Cox, Mrs. C. S. Denham, Mrs. R. H. Garner, Mrs. Al Nimmo, Joe Ripple, Mrs. Marl Westerman, Dr. John A. Sherburne, Mrs. Clyde Childers, Mrs. Evert White, Clyde Childers, Mrs. Al Fields, Mrs. E. B. MORALE ON CORREGIDOR

It isn't often the War Department deviates from its sober, impersonal communiques to pay tribute to its soldiers. It did so in making public a dispatch from Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright's headquarters on Corregidor.

A congressman who fears to touch anything even moderately hot can't be expected to wrestle with one of those incendiary bombs that may fall from the sky.

This democracy our young men are fighting for and preparing to fight for is much more than a form of government, naturally. It is a concept that embraces many precious rights and values, some of which are mentioned in the Declaration of Independence.

Side Glances on Texas History

By Charles O. Hucker, University of Texas Library

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS

Privacy was not one of the conveniences afforded by the rigors of early Texas society, but it must have been somewhat of a shock to the fastidious Count de Saligny, charge d'affaires from France, to have his room at a wayside Texas inn entered unceremoniously by a "Yankee" and to be forced to share his bed with an utter stranger!

This anecdote is related by Mrs. M. C. Houston, or Houston, an English woman, who with her husband made a visit to Texas in 1843. Her account of the trip, "A Yacht Voyage to Texas," is one of the valuable items in the University of Texas Library's 30,000-volume Texas Collection.

"The traveler in Texas must set out prepared for every species of discomfort," Mrs. Houston wrote. "his bed, if he should happen to procure one, will be disputed, or, if he should happen to prefer a compromise, perhaps shared, by some other traveler."

"The late Charge d' Affaires of his French Majesty, chanced to be traveling up the country, in this primitive republic. He was fresh from the luxuries and agremens of a Paris life, not among the least of which may be reckoned the comfortable beds which are everywhere to be enjoyed."

"On arriving at one of the halting places at night, he retired to what he doubtless imagined would be a solitary couch; and though the winds of heaven were whistling through his log-built chamber, and the bright stars peeping through the roof, the fatigue of the journey soon closed his eyes in slumber. He had not, however, slept many minutes, when he was awoke by the entrance of a most formidable looking individual."

"It was a stout Kentuckian, duly armed with bowie knife and pistols, and who, while in the act of disencumbering himself of his upper garments, said, in a coarse, but not unfriendly voice, 'Well, stranger, I guess I'll take the inside of

741 Get Degrees From A & M At May 15 Commencement

COLLEGE STATION—The total of 741 candidates for degrees to be conferred at Texas A&M College Friday evening, May 15, shows a slight decrease over the 763 who received degrees last June, but the decrease is less than was to be expected under the present working conditions. Acting Registrar H. L. Heaton, explained.

With the college the leader in producing commissioned officers for the United States Army, many who might have gone to military service earlier remained to complete the work toward their degree and commission.

Of the graduating class of 741, a total of 565 will be commissioned as second lieutenants on Saturday morning, May 16, and are expected to go to active duty within two months of that date. Many will go right from the final review to duty.

Local boys among the candidates this year and the degree to be conferred include: W. H. Bunger, Jr., Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Administration.

BUSINESS PROBLEM

A clothing merchant's son asked him to define ethics. "Well, I will show you," said the father. "Suppose a lady comes into the store, buys a lot of goods and pays me ten dollars too much when she goes out. Then ethics comes in. Should I or should I not tell my partner?"

Industrial research has developed three new lead-base alloys that can be used in place of tin, thus saving about 20,000 tons of the now precious metal every year.

THIS BUSINESS OF Living BY SUSAN THAYER

As In Pioneer Days

That little stone crock or used coffee can or empty mayonnaise jar found on the shelf of practically every kitchen in the United States represents a problem few housewives have been able to solve. These are the containers used for bacon grease. You know the difficulty! That rich, heavy grease—no woman with a spark of thrift in her makeup can bear to throw it away. Besides, where can she throw it?

But why on earth should any American woman treasure the drippings from bacon as housewives would in Europe or Asia? For generations this has been a land of plenty, with pure, white lard and snowy vegetable shortening available at prices the average housewife can well afford.

To be sure, your great grandmother—and mine—hung on to every bit of grease left from their cooking. If it couldn't be used as food, it went into the soap kettle, where they made the crude, yellow soap that kept the clothes and houses and faces of those long-gone generations clean and shining—a soap very different from the gentle, fragrant bars modern industry gives us today! Perhaps some of the satisfaction these antipastresses of ours felt over a plentiful supply of grease in a pioneer world has been handed down "unto the fourth and fifth generations"—although a great food industry, modern manufacturing methods, and swift, sure transportation have made for us a very different world, where grease has been nothing but a nuisance.

But today things are beginning to be different. The grim necessities of total war have made kitchen grease, so long despised by rich America, valuable once more. Before very long, I've been told, the War Production Board will actually start a grease-saving campaign! Not for the sake of adding to our food supply, which will be adequate no matter how long the war continues, but for the sake of increasing our supply of glycerine, needed in the manufacture of explosives. The plan is to salvage all the millions of pounds of glycerine that have been going into garbage cans.

I think most of us will be glad to be asked to save our kitchen grease, clean it, and deliver it to some convenient collecting depot. We're all so eager to do everything we can to help win this war—even homey, small things like saving grease. Besides, think of the satisfaction of having a worth-while use for this by-product of cooking which makes us like to save—a hang-over from our less abundant, pre-industrial days.

Tokyo Raids Bring New Hope To United Nations; Believed Forerunner Of More Attacks On Vulnerable Industries

The daring daylight air raids on the principal Japanese cities brought new hope, new resolve, to the United Nations. For the first time, the war has been taken right home to the heart of the enemy. The Japanese people have had a taste of what death and destruction from the skies is. And, vitally important, these raids are the forerunners of great things to come.

Many experts are convinced that Japan's weakest point is her industrial areas. They are concentrated in a relatively small number of localities. Her cities' suburbs are spotted with vital air-raft, munitions and other war plants. Out of those plants come supplies which make it possible for her to maintain her ever-lengthening lines of conquest. Out her shipyards come the ships to place the vessels sunk or put out of action by United Nations' war-planes. Destroy a large part of these industrial installations—and Japan's capacity to wage war and consolidate her victories will be ended.

At the same time, there is considerable misunderstanding in this country as to Japan's vulnerability to incendiary attacks. Many people believe that Japanese cities consist of nothing but tiny pagoda and wood homes and buildings which would burst into flame at the touch of a match. That is true in many Japanese residential areas. It is definitely not true of industrial plants. They are as well built as any in this country. They are made of steel and concrete, precisely as ours, and they are built with an eye to the possibility of attack from the air. And they are protected with heavy concentrations of anti-aircraft and other planes.

On top of that, it is probable that no people on earth is better schooled in fire defense than the Japanese. For many years, the government has made this kind of instruction obligatory, and very elaborate preparations have been made to prevent conflagrations. Tremendous sums have been spent on fire-fighting equipment. Japan has had many great fires in the past, the bulk of them caused by earthquakes, and the experience learned has been aggressively put to use.

To materially harm the Japanese effort, therefore, will be a hard, slow and costly job. It will require tremendous numbers of heavy bombers, and vast amounts of high explosive and incendiary bombs. It is likely that the first incendiary raids were in the nature of "sneakers," to give an idea of what can be done in the future.

What are the best bases for United Nations' raids on Japan? There are several answers to that. It is possible for the largest four-engine bombers to make the flight from Australia or Alaska, but they would have to materially reduce their bomb load in order to carry sufficient gas. Further, long over-water flight are risky and costly. It is said that we still have fields in some of the Philippines Islands, and they, of course, provide ideal points for operations. The distance is very short and maximum bomb loads could be carried. There are many points in China which are equally good. To use Chinese bases, however, will mean that great quantities of supplies and men must be transported across the Pacific.

Many believe that Japan and Asia will be at war within a matter of months. If that happens, the United Nations will have access to excellent, fully-developed bases in the Vladivostok and other areas. Here, again, the flight to Japan proper is a short one. Lastly, it is perfectly possible to bomb Japan from carriers off the coast. The carriers can leave soon as the planes depart, and the planes, after unloading their bombs can fly on and land in China

Good word came today for thousands of young men who have been torn between their desire to "Keep 'Em Flying" and their desire to finish their last year or last two years or so at college.

On one hand they have wanted to join our vanguard of heroes who are now battling in Burma and Australia. On the other hand, War Department officials, College presidents, and Army officers have urged that they continue and finish their school year.

To meet the situation, the War Department has authorized men in college who are eligible to take the examinations for Aviation Cadets—that is, men of 18 to 26 years inclusive—to enlist in the Air Forces Enlisted Reserve for the purpose of future appointment as Aviation Cadet.

The young man in college who does this will have his "place reserved" when he is needed for training. In the meantime he will continue his work in college, knowing that if he can get a few more months in trigonometry or calculus, he will make a better Navigator; if he finishes his advanced French and German, he may be better fitted for making his wants known on the day when he

The same rules pertain to Enlisted Reserve Corps as to other Aviation Cadets. A man must be 18 to 26 inclusive, must pass a mental screening test which is really an intelligence and aptitude test; must pass a physical exami-

He is then enlisted in the Enlisted Reserve Corps to be called when needed with the understanding that if the war conditions permit, he will be deferred one year or two years or whatever time is necessary to complete his college work, provided he has completed, or nearly completed his Freshman work when he enlists.

...after 10 years of something for nothing!

JIMMIE, too young to know about the newfangled theories of the past 10 years wherein you get something for nothing, is simply amazed at getting even double for his money.

A double-decker brings a "Gee-Whiz!" and bulging eyes.

And Jimmie is right. The war is disproving all the socialistic theories of the last decade. The country is paying in blood for the sweat and toil it failed to expend in honest work during a period when political hoodlumbing and perpetual emotion substituted for labor to make our nation strong and virile.

The awakening is painful. Today we are straining every ounce of energy in the wartime effort while proving the old theories wrong... working night and day to get something for nothing! Today we know that PRODUCTION, not reduction, makes a people strong, a nation free. We are paying dearly for producing too little, too late!

Ample ELECTRIC POWER Vital FOR VICTORY

We will win, of course. No other country can compare with America's potential war production. No other has the men, the machines—or the electric power.

America's electric companies, under trained and experienced business men, are supplying power for the vast wartime industries where it's needed when it's needed... a supply that is greater than the combined total of all the enemy nations.

While most everything else has gone up, electric rates remain the lowest in history. In fact, like Jimmie, you are getting a double-decker... double for your money. The average price of electric service today is about half of what it was just 15 years ago.

It's true, maybe, that your bill hasn't been cut in half. The answer is, of course, that you use more and better lights, more new and useful appliances. But right now for two nickels a day a majority of West Texas homes operate lights, radio, cleaner, toaster, washer and refrigerator.

No, you don't get "something for nothing." But the electric nickel buys just about the world's biggest double-decker!

$681 Judgment In $140,000 Suit Against Utilities

Union Suit For Employees Decided By Federal Court

In a $140,000 law suit entered in Federal Court at San Angelo by representatives of 87 former and some present employees of the West Texas Utilities, Federal Judge William H. Atwell awarded a total of $681.33, with payment to be doubled, to eight men, all of whom were at one time employed in the Lake Pauline generating plant at Quanah, as overtime pay under the 40-hour week labor law. Judge Atwell's decision was rendered on April 29.

Only two of such eight workers are now with the company, it was announced.

The company employed approximately 1,200 people last year.

Seventy-nine of those involved in the representatives' suit, the court ruled, were not entitled to any additional pay. Many of them are former employees and no longer connected with the company, it was said.

Basis for the suit was the contention that the company is engaged in interstate commerce inasmuch as the Quanah power plant generates some electric power which, in turn, is purchased by an Oklahoma agency. All power supplied by WTU to the agency is to be for war production work, it was said.

A statement by Price Campbell, president of the West Texas Utilities, said that the company was fully aware that it was not engaged in interstate commerce as a whole and had not anticipated any differential on the part of the 40-hour labor law on the small amount of electric power generated at Quanah and purchased for use elsewhere.

The company, it was learned, has been operating and handling its 24-hour-a-day service and maintenance problems so that workers employed on an hourly basis receive pay and hours of duty equivalent to the 40-hour labor law requirements since December 15, 1940.

An electric signal hook-up has recently been perfected which warns the pilot when an airplane is flying through an atmosphere where ice may form on the wings.

Methodists Continue Building Talks At Conferences This Week

Discussion of building plans will be resumed by the congregation of the Ozona Methodist Church at a quarterly conference to be held Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock and at a second church conference to be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Both meetings are to be in the high school auditorium.

The district superintendent, Rev. Harold G. Cook, will be here for the conferences.

THE METHODIST CHURCH Eugene Slater, Minister Calendar of Services

Quarterly Conference, Friday night, May 8, 8:30 p. m. (High Schools auditorium).

Sunday School (for children and Young People), 9:45 a. m. (High School Auditorium).

Church Conference 10:00 a. m., Sunday, May 10, 1942 (High School Auditorium).

Evening Service 8:30 p. m. (Methodist night at Baptist Church).

The members of the church are urged to attend the quarterly conference Friday night at 8:30, and the church conference Sunday morning at 10:00. Both of these meetings will be held in the High School Auditorium, and our District Superintendent, Dr. Harold G. Cooke, will preside. We hope to be able to reach some decision regarding our building enterprise.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH Clyde Childers, Pastor Schedule of services:

9:40 Sunday School.
10:50 Morning Worship.
8:30 Evening Worship.

Tuesday—
8:30 Brotherhood.

Wednesday—
3:00 W.M.S. meets at church for Bible Study.

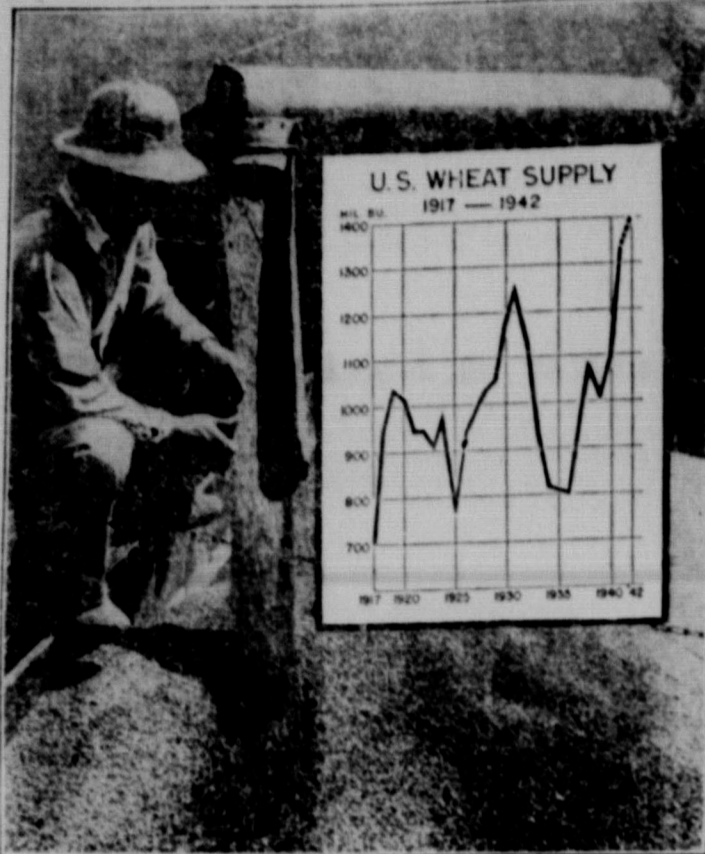

8:15 Mid-Week Worship.
9:00 Choir Practice.

It is altogether appropriate that as we approach another observance of Mother's Day that we should make our plans to be in our places for regular worship. The best way to honor Mother is to attend and participate in the services of the church which she loved and taught us to love.

In the regular worship service of next Sunday evening we will hear Rev. Slater as our Methodist friends have charge of the service.

If you have no church home you will find a cordial welcome to our services on next Sunday.

U. S. Wheat Bins Are Full

World War II finds the United States well supplied with wheat, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. As the chart indicates, the supply is double that of 1917 when America entered the first World War. It is estimated that on July 1, the Nation's supply will be nearly 1 1/2 billion bushels, enough for two years of domestic use. Instead of plowing up new land and expanding wheat acreage, farmers are able to use land, labor, and equipment in turning out other war commodities more vitally needed—such as dairy, poultry, and meat products, vegetables, and oil crops.

Mrs. Mary Perner Presents Communion Service To Church

Mrs. Mary Perner has presented a beautiful Communion Service to the Ozona Methodist Church to replace the service destroyed in the fire which gutted the church building here March 8.

The gift was dedicated at last Sunday's service by appropriate words from the pastor, Rev. Eugene Slater, and in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. This service is both beautiful and durable and will be upon the Communion Table of the Methodist Church for a long time to come.

New Officers Of Parent-Teachers To Be Installed Monday

HERE ARE THE FACTS

SOUTHWEST HAS HIGHEST INFANT DEATH RATE IN THE UNITED STATES

Labeling the Southwest as "the most dangerous part of the United States in which to be born," Mrs. Margaret Sanger this week appealed to citizens of Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas to initiate community programs that will reduce the infant mortality rate in those three states.

"Figures just released by the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor show that while the infant mortality rate for the country as a whole was only 47 per thousand in 1940, the rate for New Mexico was 99.6 per thousand, for Arizona, 84 per thousand, and for Texas, 69 per thousand," Mrs. Sanger reported. "In Minnesota and Oregon the rate was only 33 per thousand; in Connecticut 34 per thousand.

"We who live in the Southwest should be ashamed to have the world know that it is twice to three times as dangerous for a baby to be born here as in Minnesota, Oregon, or Connecticut," Mrs. Sanger declared.

"The shocking thing about the fact that as many as one in ten of our children die at birth or in the first year of life is that half to two-thirds of these deaths could be prevented.

"There is no question but what the high infant death rate in some sections of the Southwest is due to the fact that the mothers who are least able to bear children have the most. Afflicted with tuberculosis or other disabling diseases, living in overcrowded homes, badly undernourished, they have neither the strength to bear a healthy child nor the means to give it decent care after it is born. Birth control information should be made available to these women, just as it is available to women who can afford to pay for the advice of a private physician," Mrs. Sanger said.

Mrs. Sanger, for many years a winter resident of the Southwest, is honorary chairman of the Planned Parenthood Federation of America. Recognized as the founder of the birth control movement in the United States, she established the first birth control clinic in the United States twenty-five years ago. She has seen the work grow until there are now 612 birth control centers in the country. Although the movement encountered considerable opposition at the start it now has the support of leading religious, health, medical, and civic organizations. A recent Gallup poll indicated that 77% of the people of the United States favor the spread of birth control knowledge.

Mahon Resigns As Water Works Manager; Buddy Moore Named

To fill the vacancy, the board has selected Buddy Moore, who until recently operated a filling station here and has been associated with his brother, Kirby Moore, in operation of the local wholesale branch of the Humble Oil & Refining Co. Mr. and Mrs. Mahon plan to remain here until about June 1 after which he expects to go into some type of war work.

Friday, May 1, the Sophomore class had their annual picnic. They left from the school about 1:30 in the afternoon in a pickup and several cars. They went to the Colwick ranch eight miles north of town. When they first arrived they went swimming, after swimming about an hour and half they went to the lawn and they enjoyed games of various sports and tumbling about on the grass. Later they were served a delicious supper. Everyone had a very wonderful time and, tired but happy, they came back to town about eight.

ONE GOAL: VICTORY!

By the new building stop order, the order streamlining women's fashions, and by other limitations, the WPB continues to emphasize that we have just one project now—and that project is to produce, to smash our enemies beneath the metals and materials we are transforming into weapons.

Last month, we spent more than three billion dollars on the war program, and of that amount, more than two and a half billion went into munitions and war construction.

MORE METALS CONTROLLED

Effective May 1, cigaret manufacturers are forbidden to use lead foil for cigaret packaging. Lead also is prohibited in buttons, costume jewelry, novelties and trophies.

The world's total stock of radium, valued at $18,000,000, amounts to about two pounds.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, May 4—FROZEN MARK-UP—The "time lag" between wholesale and retail prices is what will cause most of the consternation and hardship retailers will experience under the OPA general price regulation order. Example: In March—the month whose price top is used as the limit in future prices—a haberdasher was selling a certain shirt for $1.50, having bought them for $12 a dozen, wholesale. Now he has to keep on selling a certain shirt at $1.50, although in the meantime the wholesale price has gone up to $16 a dozen. Multiply that circumstance by just about every item that a store carries and you can begin to imagine the scope of adjustments and retrenchments that the over-all price ceiling makes necessary. . . . Despite the severity of the pinch, the order was generally received without grumbling—a tribute to the country's appreciation of the need for checking the Cost-of-Living spiral.

SLOW CURVE — It's by far the most sweeping order of its kind ever issued in this country, and because it includes almost all foods, one might assume that the food price situation had been getting desperate. Actually, federal reports show that retail food prices this spring have averaged lower than during a comparable period of World War I. During the three-and-a-half years since Hitler's "peaceful" penetration of Czechoslovakia, the retail price index for all foods has risen less than half as much as it did in the corresponding period after the Austria-Serbia war declaration in 1914. Specifically, food prices rose 50.9 per cent between July 1914 and March 1918—compared to only 20.8 per cent between July 1938 and March 1942. As a result, the index for all foods in March of this year stood about 12 per cent below the corresponding month of 1918. Reasons: OPA restrictions have acted as a brake; chain store retailing and farmer-producer organizations have helped put food distribution on a more efficient basis today; prices were higher to begin with in 1914 than at the start of the current war.

TIP-OFFS ON THE TIMES — Conversion brought sharp reduction in earnings for General Motors in first quarter of 1942, a 64 per cent drop in net earnings available for dividends contrasting with a 62 per cent rise in the concern's war production. . . . Engineering students at Purdue University, 275 of them, are turning out war goods on a regular subcontract for a big manufacturing concern. On the student-training facilities. The young men work part-time, but the total operation amounts to a 75-man full-time shop still undefined, but oil industry officials now think the ration may, after all, be not higher than five gallons per week per car. . . . National City Bank of New York figures the net incomes of 150 manufacturing companies for the first quarter of 1942 averaged 16 per cent below the similar period of 1941, 29 per cent below the final quarter of that year. Increased taxes and war-curtailed production were, naturally, the chief factors cited.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR — Removable wooden wheels on 1934 auto trailers. . . . Window screens woven from nylon (after the war) instead of copper. . . . Weston Smith of Financial World, reporting on new wrinkles, says an inventor has been granted a patent for making women's full-fashioned stockings with the seam in front instead of in back—it's claimed to have a slenderizing effect and be easier to keep seams straight, but sounds as though it'd be pretty hard to get used to. . . . A bicycle with spring-driven motor, wound up by cranking the pedals, and equipped with three speeds. . . . A combination first aid kit and automatic pencil—the barrel of the pencil containing iodine, bandage, tweezers.

QUOTE-OF-THE-WEEK — In announcing the price-freezing order, Administrator Leon Henderson made clear both the government's aims and the public's obligations. Excerpts worth remembering: "It is the immediate purpose of this regulation to guarantee to the American people that their living costs will remain stable. . . . During the next few weeks the public should be tolerant. It will take time for sellers to adjust their operations to the regulation. It will take time for the government to adjust its own machinery. People should not harbor petty suspicion or make unfounded complaints against their suppliers. Let us all work together on this in a spirit of mutual trust and goodwill."

WARTIME MISFITS . . .

If we have to have a scarcity of metals, we hope the first result is an acute shortage of tin horn sports.—St. Petersburg Times.

OLD, BAD IDEA . . .

One wit write that the best way to save rubber these days is to take corners at high speeds, thus keeping two wheels off the ground.—Sanford Herald.

National Hospital Day this year is dedicated especially in honor of the brave doctors and nurses who are with our armed forces on the firing line. "And all for a sixty-cent Telephone call. Boy! I was worried about that pending order in the next town. I couldn't be in two places at once. Lucky I thought of telephoning, for the Telephone sure pulled that order right 'out of the fire' and made this month a honey."

Many a salesman could boost his earnings by using Long Distance telephone calls to sell out-of-town customers. Try it awhile, you'll find the cost surprisingly low and the results surprisingly high. Long Distance is Sure . . . Quick . . . Inexpensive.

to visit their home hospitals on May 12 and see how the various hospital organizations are doing their part to aid America's war effort.

"The hospitals of Texas are being called upon to perform a great and patriotic duty in war time," Mr. McBee says. "They are providing their share of doctors and nurses for the armed forces but despite this drain put upon them they are carrying on efficiently in behalf of the civilian population. On Hospital Day we should think of the heroism of the nurses and the doctors on the firing line. Many of them are Texans—Remember those brave nurses in Bataan, caring for the wounded, although wounded themselves, when the Japanese bombed filled hospitals in the jungle. National Hospital Day honors those gallant nurses, true to the tradition of Florence Nightingale. All Texans should observe this day by visiting their home town hospitals."

PADLOCK NEGRO CAFE

An establishment operated here by Henry Daugherty, colored, was ordered padlocked for 12 months and its owner fined $100 and sentenced to 3 days in jail when a district court jury last week decided for the state in a suit for permanent injunctive restraining operation of the place for alleged liquor law violations. A temporary injunction was issued on petition of the attorney general's department following a recent liquor law violation and the action this week made the injunction permanent. Fine and jail sentence was passed for violation of the temporary injunction.
