Kitty's Korner

Due to the fact that the crickets ate this rather long and wordy column this week, and the writer of same has been so busy fighting crickets she has been unable to write another, it will not appear for this week only.

If the writer retains her sanity, while all about the crickets are driving people crazy, something might be on tap for next week.

Meanwhile, if any of you out there know how we can get rid of the little beasts, at least here in the office, please let us know. They have become addicted to the poison we have been spraying and are really rather thriving on it.

Tom was over at the Foodway Tuesday afternoon and Joe Galvan said the cricket plague was a sign of an early winter. I hope to goodness he's right, and I am praying for a freeze.

OZONA WOKE UP TO A PLAGUE OF CRICKETS for the second time in as many weeks Sunday morning. The downtown area was covered with the black insects, and streets and sidewalks were ankle-deep in dead ones. Here, the old Meisnecke building behind the Peco Taco is a good example of what the entire block looked like. This block seemed to be hardest hit, but the insects were all over town. Both spraying company crews were kept busy all week and by week's end they were not so numerous. However, we thought we were rid of them two weeks ago when they covered the town.

Dr. Jacoby Completes Army Service

Doctor (Captain) David J. Jacoby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete W. Jacoby, Ozona, Tex., completed a Medical Service Corps officer basic course at the Army's Academy of Health Sciences at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Ozona Lions Win Opener With Junction 26-0; Eldorado Next

The Ozona Lions looked outstanding in their first out of the season, taking a 25-0 victory from the Junction Eagles and holding the Eagle defense to 119 yards, total. It was the season opener for both teams, and the Lions were up and ready.

Eldorado will be the site for the Lions second pre-district game, tomorrow, Friday, night at 8 p.m. The Lions will be odds on favorites to take a second victory in a row against the Class A team.

In Junction, although neither team scored in the first quarter, the Lions got rolling in the second and turned it into a shut out.

After a drive downfield, Orlando DeHoyos scored from the one for the first TD. A kick for the PAT failed. The Lions scored twice in the third quarter as Gary Warren returned an interception 23 yards to score for the Lions and Blake Moody sprinted 61 yards for the third score of the night. John Galvan booted the PAT and the Lions led 19-0 going into the final period. Ozona closed the scoring with a 17-yard pass from Vaden Aldridge to Galvan in the fourth quarter. Galvan's kick failed this time and the scoring ended.

History Book Deadline Is Extended

The deadline for getting family stories in for the Crockett County History Book has been extended through September, due to the last minute rush to get stories in from former Ozonans who now live elsewhere, according to Mrs. Pleas Childress, chairman.

Mrs. Childress said stories and sales had been tremendous. Approximately 200 stories have been turned in with 35 memorial pages. Four persons are typing stories in the museum this week, readying the book for the printer.

Commissioners Pay Balance Due Contractor On Care Center

In regular session Monday, the Crockett County Commissioners Court made final settlement with the contractor for construction of the Crockett County Care Center and monthly bills were approved.

J. D. Burke & Sons, John D. and Mike Burke, appeared and presented their bill for the final payment on the construction of the center, as all construction has been completed. All deficiencies have been corrected with the exception of a vent which was left out of the kitchen. Burke assured the Court that the duct work was there and the vent will be installed next week.

Ozona FFA Chapter Elects Officers

The Ozona FFA chapter held a meeting in the Vo Ag Building September 2. The meeting, with 31 members present, was called to order by President Bill Bissett.

However, the utility bill, which was billed to Crockett County, for May and June had not been paid. Burke agreed to accept the $25,146.10 less the electric bill of $1,025.17 which would pay the electric bill to June 16. The balance of the June electric bill will be paid by the County.

County Agent Billy Reagor requested a new station wagon be purchased for his office by the county in the coming year. The request was taken under consideration.

Dudley McCary reported that the clinic building needs a new roof. No action was taken by the court. The court did authorize Dick Kirby to dispose of the remaining kitchen equipment in the hospital building, including stove, hood, dishwasher and ice chest.

POWER: Shield of The Republic

One of the most enlightening speeches on foreign policy to be delivered in recent days was given by Clare Boothe Luce before the Association of the United States Army, meeting in Honolulu. Its thesis: U.S. power is not adequate to U.S. foreign policy; therefore, that policy is insolvent.

The United States emerged from World War II as the unchallenged superpower of the world, explains the former Congresswoman from Connecticut and Ambassador to Italy. "In that extraordinary and unexpected hour of our elevation to the pinnacle of world power, all the nations of the world, with one exception — the USSR — looked to America for political guidance and economic aid," she says.

"Our country had everything it took to bring a century of peace to the suffering world," continues Mrs. Luce. "That is, everything but the one thing necessary — a firm grasp on the basic principle of a solvent foreign policy, which is that a balance between power and commitments must be not only attained, but maintained."

Mrs. Luce argues that a key reason for the declining relative power of the United States is that, "unable to see the relation of military power to peace, a democratic people are prone to believe that military power leads to war. They consequently cannot agree on a settled course of action in respect to their world neighbors."

Although she attributes this facet of the problem to the nature of a democracy, Mrs. Luce is optimistic about the possibility of reversing the trend. "The (democracy's) singular weakness — is offset by a singular strength — its enormous flexibility. This gives a democracy the stunning capacity to get back on the right track almost overnight, the minute the people understand that the country is on the wrong track."

"When we get it through our heads that what is now on the line is our own survival — which, God willing, we will do short of another Pearl Harbor — we have all that it takes to regain our lost preponderance of power. Time is growing short — very short — but it is not too late."

We join Mrs. Luce in a prayer that the American people and their leaders will in fact awaken to the extreme dangers of an insolvent foreign policy before it is too late to save either the Republic or its allies.

FREE ENTERPRISE AND THE BICENTENNIAL

A few grumblers, notably the People's Bicentennial Commission headed by Jeremy Rifkin, have been railing against commercial aspects of America's Bicentennial. "We think real revolutionaries ought to be in charge of celebrating the American Revolution," says Rifkin. "We want to democratize the economy just as the founders democratized the government."

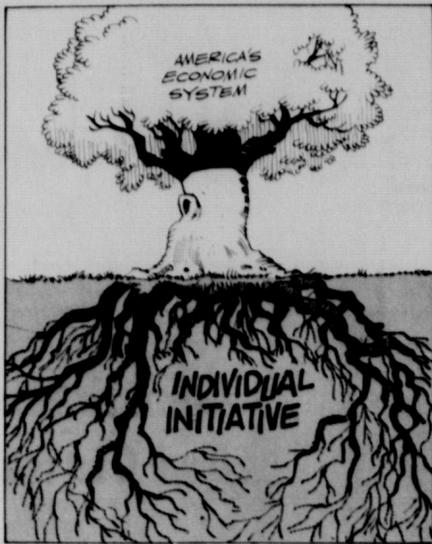

What Rifkin and his fellow radicals fail to realize, however, is that the founding fathers fought just as hard for freedom of enterprise as for freedom of the individual. And two centuries of experience have proved the worth of their great experiment: the American free enterprise system has blessed this country with greater abundance, more evenly distributed among its citizens, than any system in history.

Today's would-be revolutionaries — many of whom, like Rifkin, are Marxists parading in populist clothing — would like us to believe America's revolution was led by exploited laborers. Untrue. The leading lights of the Revolution, including Washington and Jefferson, were landowners with substantial holdings. They fought for freedom of the individual citizen in all its aspects, including enterprise. Indeed, in a world today turning increasingly socialist, it can be argued that free enterprise is still a revolutionary idea.

Although the Jeremy Rifkins would be the last to admit it, what they really are preaching is a brand of Big Brotherism that is totally alien to the ideals of the American Revolution. John W. Warner, head of the Congressionally-created American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, stated it this way in a recent interview with Scripps League Newspapers: "Those who criticize the commercial aspects of the Bicentennial are really pointing the finger at their fellow citizens and saying 'you lack the good judgment and common sense to know what it is you want to buy for your family. You lack the good sense to know what is junk and should remain on the shelf and be discarded. You're too damn dumb to know what is good for you, so I'll protect you from your own stupidity.'"

In the scheme of history, it is true that America's revolution is now far behind her. But what makes the Bicentennial so significant is that the system it created succeeded — and continues to succeed — beyond the wildest dreams of the founding fathers. And because of that fact, we predict that the voices of the naysayers in America will be drowned out as we celebrate the start of our third century.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Lyndell Williams

AUSTIN — Senate impeachment trial of 229th District Judge O.P. Carrillo has been postponed until September 29.

Senators agreed to the delay since Carrillo faces trial this week in a Corpus Christi federal court on an income tax indictment.

In opening preliminaries, the Senate resolved itself into a court of impeachment and adopted rules for the historic trial—third proceeding of the type in a century involving a Texas public official.

Carrillo's attorneys filed a 170-page answer to the House impeachment resolution of August 5, denying all 10 charges and challenging sufficiency of the allegations. The answer remains as pending business when senators return to Austin late this month to begin taking testimony.

The 51-year-old judge, whose district includes Duval, Jim Hogg and Starr counties, is accused of abusing judicial authority, political conspiracies and use of Duval County personnel and equipment for personal benefit.

Carrillo's motion to disqualify Atty Gen John Hill and his staff from assisting the House prosecutors was rejected 23-7.

Senators imposed on the prosecution a duty of proving its charges "beyond a reasonable doubt" to gain a two-thirds vote for removal of the judge, whose troubles date back to a break with the old George Parr political faction in Duval County.

Oil Theft Aired Texas and Louisiana met here last week to share information on reports of a widespread oil theft ring.

The thefts came to light with arrest of four men in Runnels County. Investigators have been trying to solve the reportedly organized plot to steal crude oil and sell it to refineries. Runnels County Sheriff Don Atkins said five men in Texas, New Jersey, Illinois and Louisiana are centers of the investigation.

A possible Oklahoma connection is also being explored.

Cost Revised Comptroller Bob Bullock, who once estimated the proposed new Texas constitution would cost a billion a year and possibly as much as $11 billion overall, reversed himself and said nobody really can tell.

"Only history can write the final cost report," Bullock said. "The ultimate monetary impact of the proposed constitution would depend on innumerable future decisions by elected representatives of the people in the city halls, county courthouses, school boards and legislature."

The new constitution will be voted on November 4. Bullock earlier pegged direct cost to state government at about $100 million a year. He had concluded the new constitution would permit levying another $53 million a year in new taxation on bank deposits, stocks and other intangible property.

Bob Krueger Reports U.S. Representative 21st District

Citizens everywhere recognize and rightly complain of waste in their government. One type of waste derives from unnecessary regulation. A second type, however, comes from the unwillingness of government agencies to abide by the laws they are to administer.

In recent weeks, the Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigation on which I serve has been studying the question of whether some few physicians paid by Medicaid funds have practiced unnecessary surgery. In studying this, our committee discovered that the administrators within the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare lack basic data and have not required adequate reporting from the state recipients of federal funds.

An HEW-funded report reveals that two states have never turned in cost statements on Medicaid funds expended and yet received federal dollars. In other words, the states have never turned in an itemized bill to the federal government and yet have had millions of dollars paid to them for their disbursement. Further, there are documented instances of hospitals that have been paid by state funds (which are matched by federal funds in the Medicaid program) without submitting their costs. There are ten states that have been found (after two reviews) not to be complying with utilization standards, and yet they have received full federal funding, contrary to specific instructions of the law passed by Congress.

Certainly the people have a fundamental right to see that their money is being spent as wisely and frugally as possible. When the administrator responsible for the Medicaid program pointed out to the new Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare that the Department was in violation of the law and should not be spending money without adequate accounting for it, the Secretary refused to reduce the federal matching contribution as the law requires. Instead, he ordered a "study", familiar words to us all.

Last year, expenditures in the Medicaid program increased 16% over the previous year. We expect a greater increase in 1975.

Public Notice

Crockett County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, P. O. Box 117, Ozona, Texas 76943, has applied to the Texas Water Quality Board for an amendment to Permit No. 10059 for a discharge not to exceed an average flow of 400,000 gallons per day of domestic sewage effluent from the District sewage treatment plant which is located approximately 0.75 mile south of the intersection of U. S. Highway 290 and State Highway 163 in Ozona, Crockett County, Texas. The treated domestic sewage effluent will be discharged into an unknown stream, thence into Johnson Draw, thence into the Devils River, thence into the Rio Grande River. A Hearing Commission of the Texas Water Quality Board will hold a public hearing on this application which has been fixed for 10:00 a.m., Oct. 16, 1975 Council Chamber City Hall City Hall Plaza San Angelo, Texas to receive evidence on the conditions, if any, under which the amended permit may be issued, and to determine whether State Certification in accordance with Section 401 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972 may be issued. Preliminary information available to the staff of the Texas Water Quality Board indicates that a waste discharge conforming to the conditions in the proposed permit would not unreasonably impair the quality of waters in the State.

The hearing may be continued from time to time and place to place, if necessary, to develop all relevant evidence bearing on the subject of the discharge. If available, may be obtained by writing the Texas Water Quality Board, P. O. Box 13246, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

That faint tinge of autumn you feel early mornings and after sunset, is a gentle reminder that our days are growing shorter.

We still have two months of good frost-free growing time for annual flowers and vegetables to mature and be enjoyed.

To have your hanging baskets looking their best before it's time to move them inside there are several suggestions that may help determine their needs.

Plants should get the amount of light they need. Ferns want indirect sunlight, while geraniums need several hours of full sunlight.

Because of greater air movement around the plants in hanging baskets the soil dries out more rapidly.

Keep plants groomed to encourage compact new growth and a profusion of bloom.

Keep dead flowers and discolored or damaged leaves removed at least once a week.

Watch for insect and disease problems. Use warm soapy water for mealybugs and scale insects.

Next month will feature a program on "Creating with Weathered Wood," and the "Autumn Garden Market," Oct. 29, plans to be announced later.

Other activities include the Christmas decorating home contest, observance of Arbor Day, spring flower show and sprint clean up.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. Ben Bohmfalk, Mrs. Ralph Jones and Mrs. L. L. Bryant.

Growing up 6 Ft. Look at your lanky, teen-age son! It's hard to believe that he once wore these shoes. It seems only yesterday that he was a baby, yet he himself is the best testimonial that the years have passed. Now he stands almost as tall as you. He is a fascinating maze of contradictions—an eager, lovable youngster one minute, a scowling, angry adolescent the next. It takes patience to understand a teen-ager—patience, and a lot of love. Though he strives to be adult, he is still a boy. Though he clings to childhood, he is almost "grown-up." You may not always be aware of it, but he still looks to you for many things. And he sees in you an example that he will, almost unconsciously, follow in many ways. Are you setting a good example? How about church, for instance? If you haven't been going lately, start again next Sunday for your son's sake, as well as your own. And don't forget to take him with you!

More and more men and women are adding an office-at-home--and whether it be a real work area for the man, or simply a place to write letters for the woman, or whatever--this area does NOT have to look make-shift and unattractive.

Incidentally, a helpful consideration in furnishing this area might be tax saving opportunities. While we don't profess to give accounting advice, we do suggest that you find out if you can claim tax deductions and depreciation on furniture in an office-at-home. There may also be money-saving possibilities in deducting part of the mortgage, rent and utilities. It's worth checking into.

Meantime, there are so many good ways you can decorate your office at home. There are beautiful writing tables that can double as both a desk, and as a decorator table at the same time; the same goes for an attractive chair that can be pulled up and used as a desk chair when needed, and then used for the living room when not in use by the desk. Some other furnishings to think about for your office at home are perhaps a small rug to decoratively define the area; the use of a table or desk lamp that is attractive in itself; a chest for storing things; a bookcase; appropriate pictures, and a decorative clock.

PUBLIC NOTICE
SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
(S. J. R. NO. 11)
SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to: Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an appropriation so the governor-elect may organize an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V, The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the voting and election provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections, is amended to:

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the VOTING AND ELECTION PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the education provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VII, Education, is amended to:

Provide that the Permanent and Available School Funds and the county public school funds are continued for the support of the free public schools. The State Board of Education is retained, and the Permanent and Available University Funds are continued for the benefit of The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the Fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. Authority to issue Permanent University Bonds is continued but the bonds may not exceed 30% of the Permanent University Fund.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the EDUCATION PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976, except Article VII, Section 9, which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the finance provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VIII, Finance, is amended to:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present dedication of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans' organizations, non-profit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the FINANCE PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the general provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article X, General Provisions, is amended to:

Provide the basic requirements relating to public officeholders such as the official oath and residency requirements. The provision defining the separate and community property of spouses is retained, and the protection of a homestead from forced sale is continued. The legislature is required to protect certain personal property from forced sale. Current wages for personal service are not subject to garnishment. A private corporation may not be chartered except under general law, and no bank may engage in business at more than one place in this state. The legislature must provide for the regulation of bank holding companies. The present system of local-option elections for the prohibition or sale of alcoholic beverages is continued. The legislature is required to prohibit lotteries and gift enterprises but may permit certain bingo games and raffles. The presently existing provisions for retirement benefits of teachers and other public employees are modified to allow the state to contribute more than 10% of the quality of the environment of the State of Texas to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the GENERAL PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the mode of amending provisions of the Texas Constitution. The proposed article will be the last article of the constitution. If only Proposition No. 8 is adopted, the article will replace Article XVII of the present constitution. If other propositions are adopted, the article will be appropriately renumbered to remain the last article of the constitution. If all propositions are adopted, the article will be Article XI. Article XVII, Mode of Amending the Constitution of the State, is amended to:

Establish a procedure for constitutional amendments requiring a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and majority approval by the voters. The calling of a limited or unlimited constitutional convention with voter approval is provided. The question of whether to call a constitutional convention must be submitted to the people every 30 years.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the MODE OF AMENDING PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

Reddy's helpful tips for your Home Laundry

- ★ Avoid wasting hot water while laundering. Use the cold and warm water setting as much as possible to cut down on the energy needed to heat water.
- ★ Use the water level control on your washer. You should use less hot water for small loads.
- ★ Follow detergent instructions carefully. Oversudsing makes your washing machine motor work harder than it needs to.
- ★ Clean the lint filter on your washer and dryer after each load to keep your machine running efficiently.

Alpha Alpha Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Tommy Wilson. Mrs. Terry McPherson called the meeting to order and Mrs. Joe Boy Chapman suggested a get acquainted Coke party sometime this month.

Mrs. Gary Vannoy, chairman, announced the annual spaghetti supper will be held October 3, following the homecoming game. Mrs. Chuck Morris, co-chairman, asked for suggestions and new ideas. The club voted to set the price for tickets at $1.75 for adults and 75¢ for children under 10 years.

Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. Alex Val Verde presented the program on "Woman, Her Heritage and Her Hope." The two led a group discussion on how the club could constructively change some of the social problems closest to the community.

Other members present were Mmes. Jack Bentley, Ray Boykin, Frank Hill, Jimmy Lott, Johnny Meyer, Ruben Pena-Alfaro, Lane Scott, Charles Spieker, Walter Spiller, Bob Wallace and Jim Williams.

Why Women Should Pay Social Security

A woman who is working asks, "Why should I pay Social Security taxes on my earnings? I can receive benefits on my husband's record even if I have never worked for a salary."

This woman is not considering the possibility that she may become disabled. If she is working to support herself or helping to support a family, her income usually stops when she becomes disabled until she is able to return to work. This is where the value of her Social Security taxes is realized.

Just as for male workers, if a female worker has a disabling condition that is expected to last 12 months or longer, she can apply for Social Security Disability Insurance Benefits on her own record. If she meets the disability requirements she and her minor children can receive benefits on her record regardless of her husband's income.

Texas Ag Products To Top $6 Billion

Despite poor cattle prices and a weak cotton market during the first half of the year, Texas farmers and ranchers are expected to market products totaling more than $6 billion for 1975.

The increase of some $200 million in cash receipts from agriculture over last year would bring the state total past the $6 billion mark for the second time. Cash receipts from agriculture totaled $6.5 billion in 1973.

Charles K. Baker, economist in marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, compiled the estimate for the state's gross agricultural income from projections by county Extension agents and Extension agricultural specialists for each of the major agricultural enterprises.

"The $6 billion total is expected to be fairly equally divided between crops and livestock," points out Baker. "Strong poultry and hog prices should keep cash receipts from livestock at about the same level as last year. However, money from crops should be up sharply this year due to strong prices for wheat, sorghum, sunflowers, fruits and vegetables."

The projected cash receipts from crops of more than $3 billion will be a new record for Texas. This takes into account an additional one million acres in cropland planted in 1975.

"Of course, cash receipts are only one side of the ledger," emphasizes the economist. "Farmers and ranchers are faced with an estimated 11 per cent increase in production costs over 1974. So, despite higher cash receipts, net income will probably remain near last year's level of $545 million."

Baker notes that agriculture's total impact on the Texas economy continues to grow and should be well over $22 billion for 1975.

Major increases in cash receipts from crops are indicated by these differences in 1974 totals and projections for 1975: wheat--$211,137,000; $390,000,000; sorghum--$753,811,000; $800,000,000; corn--$5,095,000; $9,000,000; peanuts--$66,510,000; $87,746,000; vegetables--$140,020,000; $190,659,000; pecans--$14,847,000; $24,000,000; grapefruit--$16,551,000; $25,477,000; and oranges--$9,093,000; $13,412,000.

As far as the livestock picture is concerned, the following major increases are projected: broilers--$140,502,000; $160,000,000; and hogs--$114,333,000; $145,500,000.

Mrs. M. E. Nicholas returns from Fort Worth and Dallas tonight after attending state committee meetings of the American Cancer Society in Dallas Tuesday and Wednesday, and undergoing medical tests.

She will also speak at the Tom Green County Unit Board meeting tonight, in San Angelo.

Mrs. Gertrude Perry, former Ozonan now of San Antonio, is in Ozona this week visiting friends and relatives.
