DEVELOPMENT IN THIS TERRITORY

Large Oil Companies Planning to Engage in Development Work in This Field

The Iatan-Westbrook Section there are now eight producing oil wells in the Westbrook-Iatan field. Some are big producers, they are proving that there is a big oil field somewhere in this district, as a result of their supply.

The Morrison well No. 2 continues to produce about 165 barrels of oil daily on the pump.

The T. & P. No. 2 is making from 175 barrels per day on the pump.

The Le Sure No. 1 is estimated to be producing around 175 barrels since it was cleaned out and placed on pump.

Murphy No. 1 is good for 100 barrels since it was shot in the upper sand. It was put on the pump.

No. 1 has resumed drilling at a slight showing of oil was to be expected at this test Wednesday.

The Bead No. 1 of the Standard Oil Company, located in the western part of this county, which had been pending the arrival of a cable, was resumed Thursday. A production of 180 feet was to be understood so that six and five eighths inches could be set at 3320 feet on the water.

As soon as the water has been cut this company will make rapid progress.

The Coleman well No. 1 is now producing 2500 feet. An oil bearing sand was drilled thru at 2525 feet and associates are now rigging up on the Zilpha Morrison No. 1 well drill deeper.

Contract has been awarded by the Texas Co. for the cleaning and drilling deeper. Foster well No. 1.

The work of clearing away the derrick at Baggett No. 1, the derrick is going forward so a derrick can be erected and this well drilled deeper.

The work of cleaning out the well No. 1 is now going forward in the direction of Fred Carey.

The Magnolia Co.'s Foster No. 1, 2 miles south of Iatan is drilling 2500; we are not informed as to the exact depth.

The California Company's test is going forward steadily but no information is being given out relative to this well.

Work has been erected on Sec. 28, block 28, in Mitchell County, this well is known as Baggett No. 1.

Associates are also getting ready to make a test on section 21 of the same block.

Associates are to drill well on section 2, block 28.

The No. 1 of the Fensland Petroleum Co. penetrated a good sand zone 2500 feet last Saturday but will be sent on downward.

The second sand which in the opinion of all men is the sand in which production is going to be found in this territory.

A Sloan is rigging up Zilpha Morrison No. 1 to drill this well deeper. Some oil has already been produced in this well but the owners are satisfied with the present showing and are out after the big pay.

Cushing Test Showing Good. Information in the Eaders-Cushing, while changing somewhat, is favorable and oil men are of opinion that the drill should be paid before going much deeper.

Favorable showing last week encountered in a sandy brown formation of twenty feet thickness, then a darker formation, and black bituminous shale was encountered and this looks like the formation is showing promise to loosen up a little. Here-on account of the hardness of the sand only three or four feet could be made lower but the drillers are making from seven to eight feet lower. The drill has passed through two feet of this favorable sand. The total depth of this well is 4195 feet.

The Eaders of Boston, Mass., again are carefully supervising operations on this test as he believes it is a good producer.

The Cushing Ranch Drill. The second test, the Cushing No. 1 has been delayed this time by crabs, but now that a formation has been encountered along this line will be drilled. The drillers struck this sand about 850 feet and as line was not encountered in the Eaders-Cushing test until they neared the 1500 foot mark, they consider the outlook for encountering shallow oil much more favorable in this test.

Standard Makes Offer of $2,000,000

The following item from the Pictorial Oil News of Oct. 25 will prove of interest to everyone interested in oil development in this section:

"An offer of $2,000,000 has been made by the Standard Oil Company (Cal.) through its subsidiary company, the California Oil Company, for the Mitchell County, Texas, properties of the Underwriters Producing and Refining company, according to reports at Oklahoma City, Okla.

The Underwriters concern control approximately 10,000 acres of leases in the western portion of Mitchell County and one producing well which was completed several months ago for around 200 barrels. The company is capitalized at $1,000,000 and maintains headquarters in Oklahoma City.

"The Standard of California, thru its subsidiary, owns several thousand acres of leases in Mitchell and adjoining counties.

Tidal Oil Company Securing Acreage.

From the county clerk of Glasscock County it is learned that the Tidal Oil Company, one of the big Standard subsidiaries, home office Tulsa, Okla., a company that has recently opened up an office in Dallas, recently purchased a lease for oil and gas on thirteen sections in a solid body situated five or six miles east of Garden City in Glasscock County.

This company had their geologists in and out of Big Spring for several weeks during the summer, gathering their own data as to the geology of the Big Spring field. In addition to the Glasscock County acreage, they have bought some leases south of the Iatan tank in eastern Howard County.

We are glad to welcome this company to this field.

At McDowell No. 4

The work of fishing for casing in the McDowell well No. 4 was proceeding satisfactorily at last reports with prospects of successfully cleaning this well shortly.

M. McDonald of Houston, receiver, for the General Oil Company, was here the first of the week to investigate developments and is especially favorably impressed with this section.

Deltor Demonstrator

Mrs. Irene M. Corbin a representative of the Butterick Pattern Company of New York City conducted interesting demonstrations at the store of J. & W. Fisher, Thursday and Friday, October 26th and 27th.

Mrs. Corbin's visit here was for the purpose of demonstrating the merits of Deltor System—the system which enables you to save material in making all articles of clothing. A Deltor System guide is enclosed with each Butterick pattern giving complete instructions as to the proper method of cutting the cloth to save the material.

Many women of our city and county attended the demonstration during the two days and found it an interesting as well as a profitable visit. The members of the Domestic Science department of the Big Spring High School, numbering approximately one hundred attended the demonstration at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning.

Elks Party November 30th

The Elks Party will be held at B. P. O. E. Hall on Thanksgiving Day, November 30th, instead of on the evening of Friday, November 10th, as had been planned.

According to present plans the party will be on the order of an open-house affair, from 3 o'clock in the afternoon to a late hour that night.

All kinds of games will be in order and a general good time is anticipated.

All Elks are urged to make arrangements to attend. This occasion will be for Elks and members of their families.

T. & P. Ry. to Spend $1,000,000

Receivers for the Texas and Pacific railway on Wednesday were authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission to assume obligation and liability for $810,000 of the 5 per cent equipment trust certificates to be issued by the Commercial Trust Co. of Philadelphia and sold at not less than 97.5 per cent.

With the proceeds these certificates and with other funds, new equipment to a total of about $1,000,000 will be purchased for the railroad.

Mrs. Bernard Fisher left Wednesday evening for Dallas to meet her mother, Mrs. Julius Eckhouse of La Fayette, Ind., who is enroute to Big Spring for a visit. They will spend several days visiting friends in Dallas.

OPERATE REAL ESTATE DEPT

Chase Oil Association, Inc., to Launch Campaign to Bring Homeowners to West Texas

When the Chase Oil Association was incorporated provision was made in the charter for a real estate department in addition to their oil development operations; and due to the continued demand that the real estate department be put in operation, this firm has decided to immediately establish the real estate department of their firm.

The great flood of inquiries being received as to West Texas agricultural lands from all parts of the country has convinced them that folks want to come to West Texas; and in establishing this real estate department, which will in no way conflict with their oil operations, their hope is to be in a position to make it easy for buyer and seller to get together.

Their complete equipment and extensive connections are going to make it easy for them to get in touch with vast numbers of people who might desire to come to West Texas to make their homes.

They are now listing lands for sale and as soon as they secure a sufficient number they are going to launch an extensive advertising campaign thru-out the North and East.

Their headquarters will be maintained at their office at Boston, Mass., and at their Big Spring office in the Chamber of Commerce building here.

Lucien Wells Ranch On Market

A portion of the famous Lucien Wells Ranch owned by W. P. Edwards and located twenty miles south of Big Spring is to be cut up into farms and placed on the market at once.

Mr. Edwards states that this land is far too valuable as agricultural land to hold for cattle raising—and raising registered cattle at that. There are eight hundred acres planted to cotton on this ranch which will produce five eighths of a bale per acre.

Mr. Edwards is going to subdivide 6400 acres of this ranch into tracts of from 80 acres up and is going to sell same to practical farmers at a reasonable price—giving them ten years in which to pay the deferred payments drawing eight per cent.

Real Estate Transactions

The T. H. Johnson Land Co. report the following sales of West Texas land the past week:

E. C. Witt purchased 160 acres of land adjoining his farm, fourteen miles northwest of Big Spring from J. W. Shnell of Sawtelle, California.

Jess Arnett purchased of M. W. Clark of El Paso, three hundred and twenty acres of land, located 4 1/2 miles south of Big Spring. This was an all cash deal. Mr. Johnson reports making the two deals listed above in about fifteen minutes.

R. L. Price sold to L. S. Bell of Brooklyn, N. Y., six hundred and forty acres of land in Glasscock County. This land adjoins Mr. Bell's ranch.

Up in the Air

It looks as though the lawyers and district judges are going to keep the folks from holding an election Nov. 7th for here it is November 3rd and the election judges are unable to tell whether or not to have Earle B. Mayfield's name printed on the ballot. They are liable to be in contempt if they do or if they don't, so there you are. If they wait until this question is decided in the courts it may be too late to have the tickets printed correctly and distributed to the various voting places.

East Third Street Closed for Present.

East Third Street has been blocked from the Cole Hotel to the east line of the city limits so it can be gravelled and put in first class condition.

As it is impossible to properly build roads while they are being traversed it has been ordered by Mayor pro tem T. H. Johnson that traffic on this street be prohibited until the graveling has been completed. A $5.00 fine will be assessed against anyone violating this order.

DEMOCRATS ATTENTION

Do not be deceived or misled by the last minute political scheme of our opponents. Mr. Mayfield has fairly fought for and won the Democratic nomination. We are pledged to vote for him. If his name does not appear on ticket WRITE it there.

Alexander-Cunningham Wedding

A wedding pretty in its simplicity was solemnized at 6:15 o'clock Thursday evening, October 19th, when Miss Olney Cunningham, daughter of Dr. H. C. Cunningham of Roganville, became the bride of Dr. Charles Brown Alexander, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Alexander of Coleman, with marriage services read by Rev. W. R. Johnson, minister of First Presbyterian Church.

The church was tastefully decorated with tropical plants, with vases of cut flowers arranged on the chancel and altar. The processional and recessional marches were rendered by Mrs. R. M. Martin at the organ.

The bride entered with the groom. She was beautiful in her traveling suit of dark blue Polart twill, with metal trimmings, with facing of American Beauty duvetine. She wore a picture hat of black and accessories to match. She carried an arm bouquet of bride roses in shower effect, tied with streamers of white satin.

Both the young people are prominent in a large circle of friends. The bride is a graduate of the University of Texas and a member of the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. She has been a member of the faculty of Ball High School for the past few years and for the past year has been head of the history department. During her stay here she has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sherrard.

Dr. Alexander is a graduate of the University of Texas and received his degree in the Medical College of the University with the class of 1921. During the past year he has been active interne at the John Sealy Hospital. He is a member of the Alpha Mu Pi Omega Fraternity. The wedding yesterday is the culmination of a romance, which began when both were attending the University of Texas at Austin.

The young couple departed yesterday for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home near Beaumont—Galveston News.

The bride has a host of friends in Big Spring, having visited her aunt, Mrs. L. S. McDowell, here for several summers past. All join in wishing for the happy couple an ideal wedded life.

Hill-Williamson

At the home of Rev. E. N. Strother, pastor of the Baptist Church, early Tuesday morning, October 31st, the ceremony was performed which united in marriage Donald Hill and Miss Willie Belle Williamson.

The bride is one of Big Spring's well known young ladies who is esteemed and admired by a large circle of friends. The groom is bookkeeper at the Planters Gin Company, and since coming to our city has won the esteem of all with whom he has come in contact.

We join many friends in extending to these worthy young people best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

Armistice Dance

A big dance will be given in Big Spring on the eve of Armistice Day, Friday November 10th, by Bob Miller's Orchestra as a benefit for the members of the Federated Shop Crafts now out on strike.

The public is cordially invited to attend this dance which will be held in the K. of P. Hall. An admission of one dollar will be charged and it is hoped that all who can will purchase a ticket and thus aid the men who need your good will and cooperation.

Remember the time, place, and object and arrange to come as a jolly time is assured one and all.

Bishop Temple to be Here Sunday

Bishop E. A. Temple of Amarillo will be in Big Spring Sunday, November 5th, and will conduct Confirmation Services at the Episcopal Church.

Bishop Temple will deliver a sermon at the church at 11 o'clock and everyone in the city is extended a cordial invitation to attend. He is a forceful and entertaining speaker and those who have heard his sermons on previous visits to our city will be delighted at this opportunity to again hear him.

Remember you will be cordially welcomed.

Provide Mail Receptacle at Your Home

Postoffice department advice that after November 15th no mail will be delivered by City carriers where a mail box or door slot is not provided.

Those who wish mail delivered by carriers will please take note and provide proper receptacle at their home.

Tom Good was here Thursday from his ranch in Dawson County to receive 1500 head of calves he purchased in the Midland section some months since.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The 6th Annual Red Cross Roll Call Campaign Will be Held in Big Spring November 11-30

Charles R. Forbes, Director of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau, is calling on all those interested in work for the ex-service men of this country to fall in line behind the American Red Cross in its Sixth Annual Roll Call, Nov. 11 to 30. Colonel Roberts says in his appeal:

"We ex-service men think of the American Red Cross as an all-helpful mother and the Veterans' Bureau sees in that mother an always cooperating friend. Whether it be a matter of calling the Bureau's attention to an unawarded claim or an ill man needing hospitalization, or of tiding the sick veteran over the time which must elapse before government aid can be offered, the Red Cross is always on the job with expert service and the necessary goods.

"In the Bureau's 'Clean up' campaign when effort was made to locate every ex-service man no matter how remote his habitation or how limited his powers of comprehension, the Red Cross workers brought to light hundreds of claims which might otherwise have lain hidden until too late for the individual to make legal application. Taking good advantage of what some one has aptly termed her 'strategic position' the Red Cross service worker has penetrated the alleys of the city and the wilderness of the mountain in her search for the man who did not know that the government stood ready to help him.

"The Veterans' Bureau's problem is a big one and we need the Red Cross. Together, and with the help of all the other agencies and individuals eager to serve, we will surely give most practical expression of America's appreciation of the debt which the nation owes the man or woman who gave health and strength in his country's cause."

Poultry Exhibit November 19th

The prizes offered by W. K. Woodford for the best chickens secured from settings of eggs from his purebred flock of Anconas which were distributed through the Chamber of Commerce last Spring will be awarded in Big Spring, Saturday, Nov. 19th at 3 p. m. $5.00 will be paid for the best cockerel; $3.00 for the best exhibition pullet; and $2.00 for the best utility pullet.

All who secured eggs of Mr. Woodford are entitled to enter one or more chickens in this contest.

Bring them to the Chamber of Commerce, Saturday, November 19th.

The judging and awards will be made at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of that day.

Twenty-five settings were given away by Mr. Woodford under the agreement that he was to be given one pullet from the number hatched—not the best however—so save your best chicken or chickens to enter into the contest and bring in a pullet to repay your part of the bargain.

Mr. Woodford expects to distribute fifty dozen or more settings under the same plan next year.

Peddy to Speak Saturday

George Peddy, candidate for the United States Senate will speak at the courthouse in Big Spring at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, November 4th.

While his talk will be mainly to tell the history of the Ku Klux Klan and its efforts to assume control of the Government, as per announcement in ad and circulars, he will give many other sidelights on the campaign.

Peddy is a forceful speaker and is being accorded large and intensely interested audiences at every point at which he delivers an address.

Everyone is extended a cordial invitation to hear Mr. Peddy. Ladies are especially invited.

Stores to be Closed Saturday, Nov. 11

The banks and business houses of Big Spring will be closed all day on Saturday, November 11th in observance of Armistice Day, a national holiday and one we should celebrate with the same fervor we greeted this date in 1918.

It is fitting that it should come so near Thanksgiving Day, which date might well be changed to from the last Thursday in November to Nov. 11th.

On this day it might be well to remember the great debt we owe to those who gave up their lives that the rest of us might enjoy peace, prosperity and happiness.

Men on Strike Meeting at Marshall.

The rumors that rangers have broken up the meetings of the men on strike at Marshall, Texas, are not correct. A few days after Governor Neff issued his proclamation declaring the Open Port Law extended over the entire city of Marshall, the Captain of rangers published in the papers that the men would not be allowed to hold meetings in the City Hall; and upon assembling at the hall the following morning, the rangers informed the men that they would not be allowed to hold meetings there as they had taken full charge of the building. An appeal was immediately made to District Judge for an injunction restraining the rangers from interfering in any way with such meetings and there was immediately granted a restraining order prohibiting the rangers from interfering with the meetings.

Due to Marshall being the main shops of the T. & P. Ry. the railroad officials are concentrating their main efforts against the strikers at that point but they are not making much headway; the longer the strike continues the more determined the men are to keep up the fight for justice.

One of the favorite "gags" is to inform members of the shop crafts at one point that the men are breaking ranks and all are returning to work at some other point. But the men are not being fooled by this dope and the sooner the rail heads recognize this the sooner will there be a settlement.

A. R. Wetzel Sr. Claimed by Death.

Many friends in this city will learn with deep regret of the death of Albert Ross Wetzel Sr. which occurred at 3:45 p. m. Saturday October 28th at Terrell, Texas. He had been ill the past two years and had been under treatment at Terrell the past nineteen months.

Mr. Wetzel was born in McKinney, Texas, March 3, 1856, and before coming to Big Spring, resided a number of years in Sweetwater and Roby where he had a large circle of friends. He moved to Big Spring in 1900 and was an upright and progressive citizen, a good friend and neighbor and a man who always followed the teachings of the Golden Rule in the dealings with his fellowman. He was a generous and wholesouled gentleman and many hearts are saddened by his death.

Funeral services were conducted in Sweetwater Monday, the remains being laid beside those of his first wife.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Bettie E. Gillespie of this city, two sons Albert Ross Wetzel of Fort Worth and Dr. A. L. Wetzel of this city who were with deceased when the final summons came. He is also survived by a brother, W. D. Wetzel of Roby and a half brother, Arthur Bula of New Mexico.

We join a host of friends in this city, as well as friends at Sweetwater, Roby and McKinney in extending to the bereaved our deepest sympathy in this, their hour of deep sorrow.

Electric Service to C. & S. Addition.

There was rejoicing in thirteen homes in the Cole & Strayhorn addition to our city Tuesday night when the West Texas Electric Company, having completed the extension of their power and light lines to that portion of the city turned on the electric juice to furnish light and power for use in the homes.

The citizens of that section of Big Spring have worked faithfully and unceasingly for the extension of the electric service and they are certainly rejoicing since their efforts were crowned with success and they are now able to add this modern convenience.

New Manager for Magnolia Oil Co.

C. S. Dunagan is now local manager of the Magnolia Petroleum Company's oil station in this city, having succeeded Paul Cunningham who resigned his position October 23rd.

Mr. Dunagan came to this city from Midland and has been an employe of the Magnolia Oil Company the past thirteen years. Mr. Dunagan in addition to being experienced in the oil business, is courteous and obliging and our folks will find him ready and willing to give them a square deal.

Banks Closed November 7th and 11th

The banks of this city will be closed Tuesday and Saturday of next week. Tuesday, November 7th is election day and Saturday, November 11th is Armistice Day.

Keep this in mind and if you have business to transact at the banks arrange it so you will not delay same and find you have picked a day on which the bank will be closed.

C. E. Maule, representing the Texas Oil Company in the matter of securing leases for oil development, was called to district headquarters at Parks, Texas, last week.

History Made When Camera Clicked This Picture.

Thomas A. Edison made a pilgrimage to Schenectady, N. Y. last week, the first in 25 years. He was met there by Dr. Chas. P. Steinmetz, the only man in the world his equal in electrical knowledge. Photo shows Edison examining parts of the new and porcelain insulators shattered by Steinmetz a few moments before with his newest invention—a lightning making machine. It is the first picture of the two great inventors together. It is to be preserved. Edison is now 75 years old and Steinmetz is 57.

"Newberryism" Law in Texas Stringent

The injunction suit in district court at Corsicana, by which it is sought to bar Erle B. Mayfield's name from the ballot for the Nov. 7 election, is based on the Texas "corrupt practices" act. This act is designed to prevent Newberryism in Texas. It limits the expenditures which legally may be made to promote or defeat the candidacy of persons seeking public office in the ordinary primary elections.

It provides for designation of campaign managers and assistants, and designates the purposes for which money can be spent both by the candidates themselves and their managers.

These purposes include traveling expenses, ballot fees, hire of clerks and stenographers and mailing of campaign literature; telephone, telegraph, postage, freight and express charges; printing and stationery, obtaining lists of voters; headquarters or office rent; publicity; holding public meetings.

Expenditures made or authorized by the candidate or his managers are limited to $10,000 in senatorial races, four-fifths of which may be used for the first primary and one fifth for run off primaries.

It is specified this amount shall include apportionments to counties by assistant campaign managers.

No county campaign manager, it is stipulated, shall spend in excess of $500 in his own county.

Citizens in any locality are authorized to raise not more than $50 to cover the cost of any meeting in such locality. Sworn statements regarding use of such funds are required to be filed with the county clerk within 24 hours after the meeting.

The law requires campaign managers to keep accurate records of receipts and disbursements, preserving them for 12 months for inspection by opposing candidates and qualified voters.

Sworn reports are required, listing receipts and disbursements, including money borrowed and liabilities incurred and names of persons contributing or lending money.

The penalty for violation of the law is a fine or jail sentence. Any candidate who knowingly violates the law forfeits his right to have his name placed on the ballot.

How Does This Sound?

During the course of his address at the Democratic rally at Dallas, Saturday night, Erle B. Mayfield is said to have referred to "one Hawkins Scarborough, a disgrace to the judiciary of this State, who ought to be impeached."

There were cries from the crowd of: "Let the Klan have him." "Let the Ku Klux Klan get to him."

And Mayfield is said to have replied: "They came very near to getting him down at Corsicana. I'd just like to have this Judge Hawkins Scarborough tell the people of Texas just what the Ku Klux Klan said to him."

H. C. Wallace Called to His Reward

It is a high tribute paid to a man when the world stops long enough to take note of his departure. But that is what the world—that part of it which knew him, and with which he was concerned—did for Mr. H. C. Wallace, when the school suspended and all the places of business closed during the entire forenoon Wednesday that all might attend the funeral and perform the last sad rites over his remains.

Many men have come and gone in Kyle, in the forty-one years of its existence as a town, but no one has perhaps come so near having the absolute confidence and respect and love of all who knew him as did Mr. Wallace. It can truly be said of him he was "the friend of every man, and every man his friend."

The funeral was one of the largest ever witnessed in Kyle. The service was held at 9:30 at the Methodist Church, of which deceased was a charter member, and which was organized in about 1882. The service was conducted by his pastor Rev. R. W. Fisher, assisted by Rev. J. M. Alexander of San Antonio and Rev. S. B. Beall of Lockhart, both former pastors of this church, and very close friends of Mr. Wallace. All spoke in very high praise of the life and character of this good man, especially mentioning the fact of his loyalty to his pastor and his absolute dependability in all church work.

The pall bearers were B. Reagan of San Marcos, Tom Richardson, J. P. Kercheville, Carroll Donaldson, W. M. Stephenson and T. F. Harwell.

At the grave the Kyle Masonic lodge, to which Mr. Wallace had belonged many years, took charge of the remains and gave them burial with the honors of the order.

Many beautiful flowers, emblems of the purity of his character, and tokens of the high regard in which he was held, were placed by loving hands upon his grave.

And so we buried our friend and brother. And as we lowered his lifeless body into the "narrow house," the "windowless palace of rest," as we repeated the last solemn words, "Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust," over his open grave; as we heard the preacher say, "The dust has returned to the earth as it was, and the spirit unto God who gave it," the community heart was grieved as it has seldom, if ever, been grieved before. But our grief was tempered with the positive knowledge of the fact that our brother had gone to take possession of the mansion prepared for him, eternal in the heavens.

Hiram Craig Wallace was born on a farm in Lexington County, Mo., April 20, 1841, and lived on that farm until his enlistment in the Confederate army in September, 1861. He served in the army until the close of the war in the Spring of 1865.

He joined the Methodist Church when fourteen years old and remained a consistent member to the time of his death.

In March, 1867, Mr. Wallace came to Texas, settling first at Columbus, where he remained until November, 1873, when he moved to Schuilenberg, January, 18, 1874, he was married to Miss Julia L. Frierson, who survives him. In February, 1880, they moved to Rockdale, and in May 1881 to Kyle, which was then a new town, where he established a lumber yard the first in the town. And here he has lived continuously since, with the exception of six years, from 1907 to 1913, which he spent at Big Spring.

Mr. Wallace was always a very active, energetic business man, even up to the close of his life, for he was only sick a few days before his death, and when the end came—suddenly, for no one expected it then—the doctor told us what the disease was, but we knew he was just worn out, the Master had come and taken him away, from his labors.

The thirty five years this good man spent in Kyle have been years of service for both in time and money he was liberal to a fault. While in the later years as the infirmities of age crept upon him, he was unable to be the factor in the community and its affairs he had formerly been, yet his service, taken as a whole, was equal to that of any other man, and much greater than most of them. He was always loyal to his community and her interests; loyal to his friends, loyal to his family, to his church and to his God—loyal to the right always, his life was a benediction to all who came within the scope of his influence.

There was never any attempt at "parade" or "show" about him. He never "let his left hand know what his right hand did." He was a "doer of the Word, and not a hearer only." His faith in God was unbounded. What- ever trial or trouble came to him he knew that "Behind the dim unknown Standeth God within the shadow Keeping watch above his own." and he never faltered.

"Notwithstanding death has established his empire over all the works of nature, yet thru some unaccountable infatuation we forget that we are born to die." Not so with Brother Wallace. His whole life had been such

The New Near East Emergency

It is a number of years now since Americans, along with their benevo-lences to the distressed in all other quarters of the world, began to be asked for a special measure of generosity toward the Armenians. It may be that in some citizens impatience will be caused because, to former calls, a new call in behalf of that same portion of Asia and in behalf of that same people has lately been added.
But if there is impatience on the part of a few who do not appreciate the facts, President Harding, in a letter given to the public, says that already from East, North, South and West evidences have been coming to him of a deep seated desire on the part of our people that an opportunity may be afforded in a new Armenian emergency "to crystallize a widespread sympathy into a life saving service."

Even the most vivid press accounts of the retreat of the Greek Army in Asia Minor have conveyed only an inadequate impression as to the Christian populations left to the mercy of the Turks. In burned Smyrna alone,
"a vast sepulchre of ashes" one witness speaks of the "sight of 200,000 people, mostly women and children, being penned up and burning and those escaping being driven to a barren, devasted country for starvation." But Smyrna is only one place in which suffering is so unusual as to bring profound depression to more fortunate beholders. Along the shores of the Aegean Sea or on adjacent islands, it is said that "more than a half million refugees are absolutely foodless, shel-terless, helpless, hopeless."

As, almost exactly two years ago now, the Literary Digest took the initiative in organizing means of relief for meeting a crisis in the Near East, so now that publication is bringing to the public's attention the facts showing the even greater need of the present and in appealing to the country for funds. It must be remembered these Armenian and kindred peoples are the victims of the terrors and deaths of two wars. They had not had time to emerge from the cruel conditions in which they were left by the great European struggle when they were overwhelmed by the even greater horrors of the Turk-Greek war. Americans can remember many situations abroad so distressful as to appeal strongly to sympathies, but perhaps there has been nowhere a situation so appealing as the present one. Machinery by which generosity may promptly be made effective has already been created. Time being a most important factor in relief measures, the Literary Digest, in addition to its contribution of $10,000, borrowed $176,000 which has now been laid out in saving the starving. From eight great benevolent organizations of the country
President Harding has named a special committee with ex-postmaster general
Hays as chairman.

Checks may be sent to the Near East Relief, Cleveland H. Dodge, treasurer, 151 Fifth Avenue, New York or to the American Red Cross, Elliot
Wadsworth, treasurer, Washington, D.
C.

Toll of the Highway

In spite of all the warnings and all the moralizing, carelessness and reckless driving continue to exact a terrible toll of death on the highway. This is particularly the case on Sundays when more than the usual number of automobiles are in operation and when we seem to have more than the ordinary quota of inexperienced drivers.
The great need is to educate the people to the danger that confronts them by some striking illustrations. In mills and factories safety devices are saving many lives, but for some reason it seems to be difficult to keep down the number of accidents on the highways. One of the reasons for this is that the congestion in the large cities grows greater year by year, while the number of vehicles increases at the same time.

It cannot be said that the police are indifferent, because they are constantly engaged in improving the traffic rules. One of the troubles no doubt is the tendency to haste on the part of everybody, in machines and afoot.

The "Stop, Look and Listen" signs at railway crossings did a great deal of good in their way and in their day.
Possibly some clever person will invent a caption that will be just as effective for automobilists on the public highways.—Lubbock Avalanche.

When the norther blew in last Sunday afternoon it seemed a safe bet that we were in for quite a chilly spell—and when showers appeared about 10 o'clock Sunday night even the cleverest of our weather sharks admitted they were not expecting a rain at this stage of the game.

Storage of Soft Coal

Pointing out the danger of spontaneous combustion in soft coal Mr. McNew, local agent of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, yesterday called attention to the necessity for unusual care in storing this kind of fuel.

"Because of the fuel shortage," Mr. McNew said, "large quantities of soft coal are being stored by mercantile establishments and industries. The hazard can be reduced by proper selection of the grades and sizes of soft coal, and the exercise of proper precautions in its handling and storage."

"Where large quantities of soft coal are stored in the open it should be in separate piles, so that a fire starting will not spread through the entire supply, and the affected pile can be extinguished or moved. Where the coal is stored in basements the Fuel Administration suggests the following precautions:

"1. Coal the size of a walnut or larger is well adapted for storing. Mine run, slack or screenings, on account of fine coal and dust, are not suited for storage in a basement.

"2. Never place coal near a hot pipe, against a hot furnace or any other hot surface.

"3. Do not mix ashes with the coal, as there may be live coals in the ashes.

"4. If coal must be wet down, wet only the portion that is to be used immediately.

"5. It is very important that pieces of waste, oily rags, sticks, paper and other rubbish should not be mixed, or allowed to come in contact with the coal.

"6. Special attention should be paid to the proper cleaning of flues and chimneys regularly."

Boys, here's a bit of wholesome philosophy given in rhyme by Rudyard Kipling. Read it over several times and get it fixed firmly in your memory:

"I took the job without askings;
I went to work and stuck,
Taking chances they wouldn't,
And now they're calling it luck."

They Hate Us, But—

Eastern seaboard newspapers are filled with interviews of returning Americans who say in Europe America is the most hated nation in the world.

However that doesn't stop Americans from plying their European relief work to the extent of about $100,000,000 per year.

The Near East debacle will call for an expenditure of something like $25,000,000 this winter by charitable organizations alone, according to Red Cross and Near East relief officials.

When news of the Smyrna disaster reached the United States, the Red Cross cabled $100,000 to Admiral Bristol, without a moment's hesitation. Russian relief last year called for more than $50,000,000 of American funds.

Another enormous sum was needed to feed the children of Poland, Austria, Hungary and other Central European countries.

Many folks are saying that while Uncle Sam may be storing up treasures for himself in heaven, he is getting precious little appreciation from foreign quarters here below. But those who are engaged in this work are angered by this attitude.

The say, and rightly, that when scores of thousands of helpless victims of the blunders and villainy of those who would govern them are perishing, many of them children and mere babes in arms, it is no time to heed the revilings of those who think they hate us.—Fort Worth Press.

Low Finance

The world's greatest gold supply is ours—America's.

"Three billion five hundred million!" What a pile of glittering shekels it must make! More than half of the gold in the whole world! And the world owing us still more!

Americans also own 80,000,000,000 marks. Their par value would be about $20,000,000,000. However, at financial bargain counters, we picked them up for a mere $904,000,000. Today they are worth $56,000,000. We only lost $850,000,000, or about eight dollars per person.

"Never touched me," someone says. "I didn't buy marks." Wrong again, mister. This flyer in gold, and the one in marks, said to be the greatest financial bubble of all times, touches everyone in the land.

What really purchased both gold and marks was the produce of our farms, mines, or factories, plus our labors.

Today, like old Midas, we are gold poor. Our $3,500,000,000 is idle, a drug to our trade. Our sales of marks are useless and of steadily decreasing value. We've been guilty of rather low finance.—Fort Worth Press.

Presbyterian Sunday School Party
Among the numerous social affairs of the Halloween season the party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barnett at their delightful home, stands out as a red letter occasion.

The array of spooks, ghosts, and witches that gathered at the church in the twilight was enough to intimidate the volunteer drivers of the several cars, who had come for the purpose of conveying the crowd to the Barnett home. On arriving at their destination they were introduced into a seeming witches paradise with jack o' lanterns grinning welcome from every corner. The rooms were all decorated in the season's most resplendent colors.

A real witch arrived during the course of affairs on her historic broomstick and brought terror to not a few childish hearts, and later, after much dark magic the fortunes of the assembly were brewed in her black kettle and distributed with much merriment.

After many delightful games in which old and young took a joyous part, delicious refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cakes and hot chocolate were served. The dining room table was gorgeously beautiful with its flowers and color scheme.

The occasion will long be remembered for its pleasing hospitality and jolly good time.

Halloween Party

A Halloween party was given Tuesday evening October 31st, at the First Baptist Church, for the members of the Junior Department and their little friends. The basement was gaily decorated in the favored colors of black and orange, with jack o' lanterns to light the mystic scene, where wierd black cats, owls and witches were everywhere in evidence.

At the appointed hour of 7 o'clock, hosts of boys and girls arrived—all masked—some being attired in attractive Halloween costumes, while others were shrouded as ghosts and several little girls were dainty in fairy costumes. A veritable fairy land it seemed, with all its merriment and enchantment. The grand march inaugurated the pleasures of the evening. Mrs. Gary appointed judges to select the three best costumes which resulted in the honors being conferred upon Reba Lynch, 1st; Johophine Tripp, 2nd; and Son Winslow, 3rd. Apples, furnished much amusement in tubs and on strings to be "bobbed" for by enthusiastic youngsters. Pinning the pumpkin to the witches' broom handle proved to be another favorite sport; this contest being won by Katherine Bettle Mrs. Gary, who is such a splendid leader in our Junior work, called on the children for readings, recitations, songs, etc, which were enjoyed by every one. Mary Belle Menger's attractive, cunning little speeches, met with hearty approval. Although young in years, she is very responsive. Brother Strother held the undivided attention of the children when he told of some of the Halloween pranks of the Seniors.

Dainty refreshments of sandwiches, chocolate and apples were served by the Junior teachers: Misses Lillian Frances Gary, and Viola Price. Good byes were said with the hopes that another party would soon follow.

A Hallow'en Affair

The Whatsoever Circle of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church entertained the Dorcas and King's Daughters at a Hallow'en party Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James T. Brooks. The home was glowing with a dim light which seemed to radiate from a full harvest moon around which bats were flitting and under whose rays one felt the spirits of their ancient Druidic ancestors who upon this date, offered with much dark ceremony propitiatory sacrifices to their gods.

The house appeared to be headquarters for all the ghostly creatures who are free to roam the earth for this lone night of all the year.

A very sprightly witch presided over an immense golden pumpkin and after mysterious rites, forked out messages from the spirit world in a most up to date manner.

The pantomime behind a white sheet over a doorway set to giddy music was a revelation. We evidently have some screen stars incognito in our midst. If you have never tried to go through a hoop in record time—especially if you haven't been reducing lately—it would be useless for the writer to try to explain the excitement of the game.

The conversational bee in which pumpkin seeds were forfeits left some with much depleted bags.

Delicious refreshments of chicken salad, crackers, doughnuts and tea were served. After much merriment and sweet music, the guests departed with many pleasant memories that will not soon be forgotten.

The Mission Study class will meet next Monday at 8:30 at the church. The lesson will be the first chapter of "Unfinished Tasks." You are cordially invited to attend whether you have a book or not. It promises to be instructive and entertaining.

Misses Maud Carter and Lula Jenkins entertained the C. E. of the Christian Church at the home of the former on last Friday evening. The house was decorated beautifully with the Hallow'en colors, with lights dimly glowing from grinning Jack o' lanterns. An immense pumpkin adorned the center of the table, from the depth of which mysterious messages, relating to the future, were stirred out by a very witchy looking creature. After many and varied games interspersed with gay music, the assembly of ghostly spirits gathered around the dining table, which was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and imbibed hot chocolate to the accompaniment of black and yellow cakes.

Rummage Sale

The rummage sale given under the management of the City Federation last Friday and Saturday was quite successful about $35.00 being realized.

Much credit is due to the activity of President Morgan, who proved to be an able linguist as well as saleslady and was on the job both days, being assisted by different members of the Federation.

The Federation wishes to thank the firm of J. & W. Fisher for the floor space allowed, and for their courteous treatment during the sale, and also all who contributed articles and assisted in any way. It is planned to have another in the spring.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Big Spring Wins From Lamesa

In a hotly contested game of football here last Friday the Jayhawks defeated the Lamesa team by a 12 to 0 score. The Lamesa team showed up much stronger than was expected of them; showing a fighting spirit during the entire game that more than once kept the local team from scoring, when in scoring distance. Both sides fought stubbornly after failing to make the necessary gains for downs.

Big Spring made their first touchdown at the middle of the first quarter. After consistent gains by Cardwell and Nall, Nall carried the ball across. The second touchdown occurred in the second quarter. Nall again carried the ball over, O'Barr first carrying it to the 7 yard line. For the rest of the game neither side was able to produce the punch to carry the ball over.

Lamesa was able to make only 3 first downs during the game to about twelve for Big Spring. McFarland and Cash were the outstanding players for Lamesa; Nall and Cardwell showed some good stuff, gaining good distance every time they carried the ball.

The game was played before a small crowd. Nor as many being present as was expected. Friday the Jayhawks go to Odessa for their next game.

On Nov. 11 Armistice Day Big Spring will meet the fast Roscoe team on the local gridiron.

Pep Squad Notes

The Pep Squad girls entertained at the home of Mrs. W. C. Barnett Saturday night. The rooms were artistically decorated in Hallow'en colors and confetti and balloons added to the pleasure of the evening. The proceeds went to the Athletic Association, amounting to $30.00. We wish to thank everyone for their interest and especially do we wish to thank the hostess, Miss Mott and Miss Wolf.

The Pep Squad girls' tag day proved to be a success and we wish to thank each person who helped us out by buying a tag. The proceeds also went to the Athletic Association.

Basketball Notes

On account of lack of funds the Basketball girls were unable to have their game with Lamesa last Friday. The girls will go to Lamesa Friday to play that team, and we are positive that they will play their best in the first game of the season, and defeat Lamesa's team by a large score.

Mr. Flaniken gave a report about Miss Denton's room at Central ward. He said he enjoyed a visit to their room October 31st. They gave a program and among the interesting things given was a few things on fire prevention.

Hallow'en Dinner Party

Joe F. Flock was host to a party of his young friends last Saturday evening at a 6 o'clock dinner at the Busy Bee Restaurant, and the occasion proved one of especial delight.

This was a Hallow'en occasion and the decorations were especially appropriate. The center piece was a large pumpkin surmounted by a beautiful doll as queen of the Fairies and witches were perched around the rim of the pumpkin. Miniature black cats served as place cards while beautiful little Hallow'en baskets of candy served as favors. The following constituted the menu: oyster cocktail, baked chicken with dressing, creamed potatoes, creamed peas, cranberry sauce, tomato and lettuce salad, celery, hot rolls, ice cream and cake.

The following feel under obligations to Mr. Flock for this enjoyed occasion: Misses Dorothy Ellington, Grace Taylor, Helen Hatch, Virginia Kiltney, Winona Taylor, Mammie Hair, Imogene Price, Elizabeth Northington, Mary Hazel Hathcock, Ada Lingo, and Louis Biles, Alfred Lacey, Bobbie Hatch, Jack Hodges and Pat Blalack.

It is going to mean prosperity for the farmer when he can make cotton his surplus crop. A well known farmer of Marshall this week sold 353 bales of his 1921 cotton for 23 cents a pound, bringing a total of $40,700. It paid the Marshall man to be in a position to market his cotton when prices were right rather than be forced to dump it on the market for any old price they can get.

Striking New Red Cross Poster

Riveting the attention of the beholder on the fact that the American Red Cross is chartered by Congress as an official volunteer relief organization the dome of the Capitol at Washington, upon which is superimposed a large Red Cross, is the central figure of a new poster for the Annual Red Cross Roll Call. The poster, which has been pronounced one of the most striking of innumerable representations of the famous dome, is the work of Franklin Booth, a New York artist of wide renown. It will be displayed throughout the country during the Roll Call period, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, when the Red Cross membership for 1923 will be enrolled.

Junior Red Cross Praised for Work Influencing Peace

The advancing standard of the Junior American Red Cross made two outstanding gains during the last year—one in the field of domestic activity, which is rapidly linking up the schools with the Junior program, the other a gain of a dozen countries in Europe pledged to organize Juniors on the lines of the American organization. For this accomplishment the American Juniors earned the hearty endorsement of the League of Red Cross Societies for its "creation of an international spirit of human solidarity among young people with a view to preparation of a new civilization for peace."

The forthcoming annual report of the American Red Cross for the year ended June 30, 1922, will show 24,528 schools enrolled, with a total of 4,483,845 pupils wearing the "I Serve" button of the American Junior Red Cross—the badge of unselfish service earned by each individual member through personal sacrifice.

In international school correspondence 736 classes and schools engaged in friendly communication with 623 schools in European countries, 90 schools in United States territories, 13 in South Africa and 10 in a miscellaneous list of foreign countries. The work in foreign fields in establishing playgrounds, school libraries, sewing and manual training classes, homes for war orphans, school reconstruction in devastated areas, encouraging community gardens and many other activities was financed through the National Children's Fund raised by the Juniors at a cost of $838,237.40. During the year $56,922.79 was contributed toward the fund, in which on July 1 there was a balance of $201,861.58.

Greatest Mother Summons Her Children

An allegorical concept of the Red Cross as a peace-time ideal is employed by the American Red Cross in a new and striking poster for its Annual Red Cross Roll Call. Spread out before the heroic size figure is the outline of the United States with a Red Cross superimposed upon it while around its borders are sketched scenes depicting the chief activities of the Red Cross today—service to disabled veterans of the World War, disaster relief and promotion of the public health. The poster is the work of Franklin Booth, a New York artist and will be displayed throughout the country during the enrollment of the Red Cross membership for 1923.

Ray Allen Manager of Rix's 4th House

Jed Rix went to Tahoka Tuesday to look after the interest of the newly established branch house there. The success of the branch recently established at Lamesa inspired Mr. Rix to reach out into the other territory, and indeed Tahoka is gaining another good one in having a house of Rix locate there.

Ray W. Allen, well known in Lubbock, one of the local boys who graduated from the Lubbock High School about three years ago, since which time he has been active in the business life of the city, will have charge of this branch. He is a live wire, young, active and knows how to use his head, which after all is sufficient qualifications for any business man, added to which he is one of the most congenial of the young generation of Lubbock, and we are sure that he will make many friends at Tahoka.

We are in hopes that, if it is at all possible, Rix will mean as much to Tahoka as that name has meant to Lubbock, for at the approach of every civic problem, the entire Rix force is soon at work, and the influence of that house on these problems is easily seen.

It has been but a few years since Mr. Rix came to Lubbock, but in that time he has been enabled to do a good many things for the town which marks him well as a booster and builder, and it is with much pleasure that we learn he is becoming interested in Tahoka.

As one portion of the great South Plains prosper, so shall prosperity be known in other portions, and knowing as we do that the House of Rix is backed by a powerful boosting spirit, we feel that Tahoka is taking another step forward in that house having a branch established there, as well as in the company itself, and are glad of this development.

The many friends of Mr. Allen are glad to know that he is to play an important place in the Tahoka branch, and are wishing for him all the success that may be reasonably expected. The Rix Company has now four houses, at Big Spring, Lubbock, Lamesa and Tahoka. The company managers are to be congratulated for having selected such wide awake towns for the location of their stores.—Lubbock Avalanche.

"Why Not"

"Oh Mary, where are you going so early on a Sunday evening?" called Helen to her best chum as the latter was starting from her home.

"Why I'm going to the Endeavor. Don't you want to come along?" replied Mary.

"Aw no, I don't want to go and I can't see why you do. Have you ever gone before?"

"No, I've never been but I had a long talk with Mittie Owen the other day. You know she's the president of the society. She told me a good deal about the work of the Endeavor, what they do and everything and Helen, they have regular parties and have just as good times as anybody."

"How came you to know about their parties?" asked Helen interestedly.

"Oh, I went to one of their parties the other night at Maud Carter's and do you know I was surprised. They act just like real folks, and they treat you as if you were one of them. Mittie tells me they have these parties real often."

"Parties real often, the Endeavorers?" asked Helen, amazed.

"Sure, why not? Aw, run get your hat and let's go."

"Alright, I believe I'll go and see," said Helen. And presently they were walking down the street to the Christian Church, between Third and Fourth streets.

Why not be like Helen and come and see what we are doing before you put your veto on us. Don't get the idea that we are a sour, glum-faced lot of folks because we are working for the Lord. And don't, I pray, get the idea, that because a few who have their name on the roll, gibe and cut up during service that we are like that. A true Endeavorer is like neither of these. A true Endeavorer is always happy and cheerful, looking on the bright side of life, seeing the good in even the bad, ready with a smile, and a glad handshake to a visitor or whoever he chances to come in contact in every way. He is always ready to do the bidding of his Lord and Master, whatever it may be. Are you a true Endeavorer? If not why aren't you?

If you have never been to any of our services why not come next Sunday at 6:30. Visitors always welcome, but hope that you will come and work with us.

Don't forget choir practice every Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Mr. Dubberly is helping us. Why don't you come and help us too. If you can only holler, don't come for we have all the hollering we need. Of course you don't have to have a voice like a prima donna. If you can sing come. If you only holler come but please look on.

Halloween Party for Endeavor.

On Friday evening Oct. 27 Miss Maud Carter entertained the Christian Endeavorers with a Halloween party at her home. The house was decorated with the regular Halloween colors, black and orange, a large paper covered pumpkin was a very attractive feature in which were concealed a fortune for all those presents. These sounded very funny when read aloud later. If all these fortunes come true there will be a goodly number of broken hearts, old maids, maybe some rash deed or other caused by a rival and whatnot in the Endeavor henceforth. But don't expect too much of them. Old fashioned games which we had learned in our childhood were played and enjoyed. Girls and boys alike winked shamelessly at each other when we were playing "winkem." But no one thought anything of it. Many interesting and sometimes otherwise, things were found out about our different members. How did we find out? We asked the all wise bottle as we spun it. We also met the "Jones family." They would be rather an interesting family if they weren't such mimics. Quite a few of us were initiated into "The Town Club." Rather an interesting club after you get in. But getting in.

Did you ask who was there? Everybody from the Witch of Endor to Ballet Dancers and Charlie Chaplin. Even Christopher was there. There were so many different spirits abroad that really we felt as though it were really Hallowe'en.

After a rather exciting ride with the witches around the moon we came back to earth and were served with delicious cake and chocolate. As the hour was growing late we bade Maud a goodnight and told her what a good time we had had and wishing deep in our hearts that Hallowe'en came every day and twice on Sunday.

Watch the little folks speed home for Kellogg's Corn Flakes

"Mudder, I always wins the race when I carry home Kellogg's Corn Flakes. I can't hardly wait till I have some quick, mudder!"

It's great to see child-enthusiasm for Kellogg's; great to see every one in the family enjoy their crisp crunchiness and wonderful flavor! To sit down before a heaping bowlful of these joyous oven-browned "sweet-hearts-of-the-corn" and some milk or cream—and fresh fruit, if it's handy—is just about the very last word in appetizing appeal! And, your good taste will prove that!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes ought to be superior—they are the original Corn Flakes! Kellogg's are never tough or leathery; never hard to eat; never a disappointment!

Be certain to get Kellogg's—the delicious kind of Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package—because none are genuine without the signature of W. K. Kellogg, the originator of Toasted Corn Flakes.

LAND FOR SALE.

BEST STOCK FARM IN HOWARD COUNTY, ONE MILE FROM GOOD SCHOOL, PLENTY OF WATER, GOOD GRASS; 130 ACRES RICH LAND IN CULTIVATION; OTHER IMPROVEMENTS.

See Dr. G. T. Hall.

Why They Are Coming to West Texas

A gentleman recently here from Milam County to invest in Howard County lands told why he was quitting his old home and coming to West Texas. He stated that he planted ninety acres to cotton this year and might have secured two bales had he gone to the trouble and expense of gathering his crop. Last season he made six bales on about the same acreage and the year previous about thirteen bales. Four years ago he secured over eighty bales of cotton off the same field. The year of the big yield he was offered $250 per acre for his farm but refused to sell. When he decided to sell this year he considered he was lucky to secure $134 per acre which was about $25 above what his neighbors were being able to secure. His farm happened to be located in between two farms owned by a Swede who didn't want an undesirable neighbor to secure it and hence his willingness to pay more than the market price.

He was indeed pleased to find such fine crops in West Texas and pronounced lands here one of the best investments a man could make.

Burglar Visits Grand Leader

The Grand Leader was burglarized sometime Sunday night and a considerable quantity of clothing stolen, but the proprietor, Victor Mellinger, was not aware of his loss until the thief was arrested and a portion of the stolen goods recovered at Sweetwater.

Officers at Sweetwater became suspicious when they found a stranger attempting to sell some of the goods and when they accused him of the theft he acknowledged the fact. Some of the clothing had the Grand Leader brand on same and was readily identified.

The burglar had forced an entrance to the basement beneath the Palace Restaurant which basement extends beneath the building occupied by the Grand Leader.

While there does not seem to have been as much damage to property Tuesday night, due to Halloween pranksters as in previous years, yet there was some, and it is to be regretted that those who take advantage of Halloween to damage property can not be caught and made to pay for the damage they do.

The work of graveling Third St. in this city was started this week. This street is a link in the Bankhead National Highway and the work of grading and graveling same is under the supervision of the Highway Department.

De Molay Dance

The members of the Big Spring Chapter of De Molay entertained with the first annual Halloween dance at the K. of P. Hall in this city Tuesday night, October 31st. The Halloween effect was carried out in decorations, programs, etc., and the occasion was one of complete pleasure for the twenty one couples taking part in the dancing as well as for those who were present as spectators. Bob Miller's orchestra furnished delightful music.

Just before the dance started at 9 p. m. at the hour when lights are extinguished in the orphanages throughout the land, the members of the De Molay recited their daily prayer for the members of the De Molay throughout the U. S. and for the orphan children in the orphanages and especially those at the Masonic Orphanage at Fort Worth, led by their Chaplain.

The Way It Goes

After drilling on Jones well No. 1 of the Maxwell-Johnson Co., had been suspended five weeks because there was no water available for drilling purposes, and there seemed little hope of a heavy rainfall to furnish the water, the officials of the company decided to try drilling a well and within three days a fine well of water was secured at 296 feet. This well is just beneath the walking beam and the pump is connected to same, so that while the drill is pounding away the pump is bringing up not only enough to supply all water needed for drilling operations but an additional amount to supply water for a large bunch of cattle on the Jones ranch.

Why Aliens Should be Registered

Shortly after uncovering the nucleus to a world-wide plot for revolution, with headquarters in this country, and many "ed" workers engaged therein, William J. Burns, chief of the national Bureau of Investigation, said:

"There is no objection, of course, to people coming to our shores from foreign lands if they follow peaceful pursuits, but we need more stringent laws to deal with radical agitators. Under the provisions of the bill fostered by Mr. Davis, registration would drive undesirables out of our country. An examination, fair and thorough, would deal a severe blow to radical agitators who try to sow seeds of dissension. Although the facilities at our command are being applied effectively at the present time, the plan embodied in the proposed law would greatly facilitate our work."

Many officials in the Government who have hitherto looked with doubt upon the plan to make America's welcome to the foreigner less cordial, are coming to agree with the Department of Labor that there is nothing in the proposed registration of aliens which is either a hardship upon the registrars, or a great tax upon the Government. It is pointed out that a nation wide registration of the young men of the country was accomplished in one day for the purposes of raising a draft army, and without any great expense. The men who registered, it is noted, did not protest or regard it as other than a patriotic duty.

The law compelling registration of all aliens, and supervision over their activities, will not only, if passed, serve to keep "red" agitators out of the country, but will enable the Government to keep absolute check upon those who remain here without being interested enough to become citizens, and those who make a whole hearted effort to become real Americans.

Houston's Fair Bars W. T. Exhibit.

Stamford, Texas, Oct. 31.—The All-West Texas Chamber of Commerce exhibit will not be shown at the South Texas Fair at Houston this fall, according to advice given out here today. Last fall the West Texas exhibit won first prize of $200 over competitors representing other sections of the state.

The Houston Fair management declined to allot space for a West Texas exhibit due, it is understood, to the protests of competitive territories. The West Texas exhibit has been so signal in its winning achievements of recent years that other sections do not like to go up against the gaff, to use a common pit phrase.

Cotton Receipts

Our farmers are now on the last lap in harvesting cotton with about 3000 bales yet to be picked. With fine weather holding forth it would not require a great while to clean up. More than 8000 bales have been received at Big Spring up to date and in the neighborhood of 2300 bales at Coahoma. Cotton has been bringing from 24 to 24 1/2 cents here the past two days.

Rook Club Meeting

The members of the Rook club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. V. H. Flewelen, Thursday afternoon. Eight tables of players took part in the intensely interesting games and enjoyed the delicious refreshments which were served at the close of play. Mrs. Jno. Clarke made club high score and Mrs. C. W. Davis made visitor's high score.

D. V. Poston of Valley Mills and G. C. Poston of Fort Worth who were here to look after large land holdings in Glasscock County left Thursday evening for their homes.

Secure a ticket for the Armistice dance and thus aid the members of the Federated Ship Crafts. The dance will be held at K. of P. Hall Friday night, November 10th.

Floy Neal of Lorena arrived Thursday for a visit with Del Hatch and family.

The People That Want Your Business

Labor Board Faces Attack

Events of the past have served to make more difficult of accomplishment the determination of President Harding to save the railroad labor board from abolition at the hands of congress this winter.

The board's action in officially denouncing the principle of the "living wage" as put forth by the railroad brotherhoods, and its refusal to use that principle as the basis for a new, all around wage boost to rail workers, has renewed and strengthened the demand that the board be wiped out.

The fresh resentment against the board is not confined to labor supporters in congress. In other ranks, the board's statement attacking the "living wage" theory was characterized as an "unnecessary" and "bunglesome" affair and one that constitutes new evidence of the fact that the labor board is serving no useful function and should be abolished.

Methodist Notes

Quite a large number were present at S. S. last Sunday to enjoy the parables and song of the Prodigal Son. We are to have another similar special about Thanksgiving. Three new teachers have been added to our ranks: Mrs. McClesky, Mrs. Geo. Smith, and Mrs. Mabel Moss Gary. Our attendance is steadily growing.

Bro. Hardy left Monday for the annual conference at Quannah. Mr. Manuel will speak in his stead Sunday. Come and hear him.

Interest in the Bible drill is growing. From being 20 behind, the winners are now 15 ahead. Don't miss a meeting, anyone. Monday at 8 at the church the W. M. Auxiliary holds its business meeting. Every member and officer urged to attend. The last seven missio Prophets are to be read in advance.

Halloween at the "Y"

The Intermediate League of the Methodist Church, some fifty or sixty strong, had a wonderful time Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. Miss Jewell Thompson, League superintendent, and her highly efficient committee on decorations, had created a marvellous effect of witchery in the main auditorium. Black cats, goblins, jack-o'-lanterns, and witches leered in fantastic shape on every side. Early in the evening the leaguers began coming, all in Halloween's masquerade. Games occupied the pleasant hours, and only closing time put a stop to the merriment. Delicious refreshments of pimento sandwiches cut in jack-o' lantern shapes and cocoa were served. It was a wonderful party the Intermediates declare.

Carnival Special Wrecked

Three dead, four seriously injured, and two slightly hurt, was the human toll taken in a rear end wreck early Tuesday morning when the fast Sunset Express New Orleans-San Francisco Southern Pacific passenger train tore into the Wortham Carnival Special 35 car train enroute from New Orleans to New Iberia, Ill.

The locomotive of the passenger train plowed through two of the sleepers on the rear end of the circus train before it was brought to a standstill.

We are unable at this time to guess whether the U. S. Senatorial race, Nov. 7th, is to be decided by an injunction or a mandamus.

Epworth League Entertainment

The Senior League of the Methodist Church met Tuesday night at the Fiesman home on Jack street. From the moment of entrance, one knew the witches had been at work, not only by "pricking thumbs," but the sight of enchantment that met the eye.

Coming thru the "Hall of Mystery" one met several shocks to inspire awe. Then the other two rooms were all alive with typical Halloween decorations. The most interesting feature of the evening perhaps was the fortune booth, where the witch drew from her cauldron the fortunes tied in black and yellow for every boy and girl present. About forty leaguers were present, and had a long, jolly, spooky time under the supervision of Mrs. Flowellen, who is League superintendent. Everyone was in costume which added to the interest. Refreshments carrying out the Halloween idea were served, and favors of mints in the form of Jack-o'-lantern faces in witches' hats were given all present. This party was voted the best, perhaps, of a long line of parties that the League has had from time to time.

Susanna Wesley's Entertain

At the home of Mrs. W. G. Allen on Main street, Tuesday afternoon, the Susanna Wesley Class of the Methodist Church held their class party.

Very "spooky" indeed was the atmosphere of the whole house. An old witch riding a broom took charge of the guests on entering and games followed in quick succession, while the merry hours sped.

About forty members were present, and the latest mascot of the class, Joe Robert Myers, made his first visit to their midst.

Delicious refreshments of chicken sandwiches, coffee and potato pie were served. The pies were in the shape of small jack-o' lanterns. Every one had a delightful time.

Hunting Party Lose Stimulant

A hunting party consisting of several prominent citizens of Eastland, enroute for a hunting trip in the Guadalupe Mountains, were arrested here Saturday evening for violating the prohibition law. As five pints of whiskey was found in their automobile a charge of unlawfully transporting liquor was filed against them. The liquor was confiscated and the men proceeded on their way after making bond in the sum of five hundred dollars each.

NO. 7

Words Often Mistaken
 It is not fair to lose one's temper. The appropriate reason one is angry is that things that hurt oneself or one's adversaries and to those for fatal thrusts by calling names is a substitute for logic and an open to the charge of arguments and so must be avoided.
 A story which has been going on of the civic clubs of Fort Worth has the effect that a young man what to do if he was where the facts were the law weak. "Lay emphasis on the law," said the older perhaps the judge will ask another question: "The facts are weak and the law is strong." Then argue law and slide over the facts,"
 "I have neither the facts with me in this case," said the veteran lawyer. "In that case," he said, "holier like Hell."
 "I do not want to be an advocate. It merely wants facts of political matters as they do, in the friendliest manner to see the campaign and the standard of Texas and violent criticism of the courts of this state, for the highest office of the people of Texas, at least one attorney who is a member of the courts and up to the law, as was uttered in the night, is surely not a member of those gentlemen. It is most destructive of law and the fact that the proceedings were to a high degree a broad assumption to the court acted in any way then according to the law and conscience as it is. The highest tribunal of the state held the proceedings as to their effect on the name of Mr. Mayfield's name on the net result of the little in favor of those who are smalling the courts. Why a system that has spoken in hardly believe that Mr. who has announced his withdrawal from the Klan long ago, although admitting attending several meetings since, could have meant what he said when he "dared" Judge Scarborough to tell what the Klan told him. The Klan has repeatedly denied that it was trying to exercise any undue or unlawful influence on the courts. Mr. Mayfield's heated words would seem to affirm such influence. But we trust, and believe, that those words were not considered and that they convey a meaning not intended. So also we hope of the words of criticism of the Peddy war record spoken by another speaker. One need not be an advocate of Mr. Peddy to protest against such a reflection of any former service man. Surely the Democratic party of Texas has arguments that will appeal to the intelligence and good sense of the voters. Up to the present, since the primaries, its public campaigning has been carried on in order and dignity. Let us hope that excitement and fever heat will not spoil that record in the last few critical days before election.—FORN WORKS RECORD.

Worth While Work

Work, well done, is a balm to the troubled heart. But work in the abstract is much too great a subject to deal with in an impersonal manner. All work is worth while if it accomplishes something in a concrete way. But the work I have most in mind is the work for the betterment of the community in which one lives.
 We work for a livelihood first—our homes, our children—but the world will not be improved, so long as we do only that. It is when we see ourselves as part of the whole, having a desire to give of our best, to make our niche a little more charming, a place of happiness and peace to each individual, then our work will be worth while.

The small towns are surfeited with people of talent, who declare there is no way for them to express themselves, or have any real advantages. Hence, they go to the city, perhaps leaving the family behind while the talented in selfish ambition, try to carve out a career. Many are worthy of careers, but many more could do so much for the people at home by giving of their talent in helping to awaken others to an appreciation of the real and beautiful in art, in music, and the drama. Every community needs the aid of the few who are able to be teachers and guides, and the spirit of cooperation to forward all movements toward its uplift.—E. B. W.

A Typical Open Shop

The following item from the Michigan Tradesman, a newspaper supported by the business men of the Wolverine state, is a fair example of what the "open shoppers" regard as a sane, conservative discussion of industrial problems:

"The Tradesmen deplored the appointment of Mr. Daugherty as Attorney General, but when a man has the courage to defy 3,000,000 red-handed murderers who have taken the ironclad oath of trades unionism and secures an injunction based solely on the murderous actions of union shopmen, thereby stopping the strike immediately and staying the hands of the miserable creatures who were applying the torch of incendiarism and the daggers of assassination at the behest of union leaders, any cheap politician who criticizes such an action in order to curry favor with union assassins ought to be kicked out of Congress and be made to wear the mark of Cain on his brow so long as he is permitted to breathe the air of a free country.

"It will be free as soon as unionism is stamped out, root and branch." If there are 3,000,000 red-handed murderers wandering around loose in this country, what are Attorney General Daugherty and his high priced secret service force doing?

If members of organized labor are "applying the torches of incendiarism and the daggers of assassination," isn't it a little peculiar that, according to the most reliable statistics available, there are three times as many former bank officials as former trades union officials in our penal institutions?—Labor.

Roads Hit Hard, Reports Show

Reports of car loadings and equipment shortage now being made by the railroads reveal the full effect of the shopmen's strike.

During the week ending October 7 freight loadings decreased 30,212 cars from the preceding week and 43,497 cars from the corresponding week of 1920. This is in sharp contrast with previous reports made by the American Railway Association, a propaganda bureau maintained by the carriers for the purpose of misleading the public as to actual conditions.

From the beginning of the strike up to the latest report the association reported weekly large increases of car loadings, the effect as well as the object of the reports being to convince the public that the strike was having no adverse influence upon railroad operation.

Propaganda chickens, however, are now coming home to roost. The cars were loaded by the public; it was the duty of the railroads to move them, and here they failed.

No report was made of car movement. The result is that thousands of loaded cars are now anchored on sidings and will there remain until the roads secure efficient locomotives to move them.

The situation is more clearly developed by the American Railway Association's latest report on car shortage, placed at 141,252 on October 8. It contrasts with a surplus of 137,730 cars for the same month of last year. This means that shippers are now demanding cars that are not available, while a year ago the supply was greater than the demand.

When the coal strike was settled thousands of cars were loaded that the railroads were unable to move. The tracks in the coal regions are packed solidly with coal awaiting movement. Until they are transported to destination and unloaded shippers will appear in vain for empty cars, and succeeding reports will show a further decrease in car loadings.

Having placed embargoes on many commodities, the railroads are freed of much embarrassment and are able to minimize car loading and shortage conditions. Shippers are not asking for cars for merchandise that the railroads will not handle.

Transportation experts declare that business is being seriously hampered by inability of the railroads to move freight. In some of the sections of the country the year's work of farmers will be almost a total loss because of their inability to get their produce to markets.

"Lawlessness" of Labor

It is about time to call a halt on certain politicians who are running around the country making speeches in which they proclaim their undying love for organized labor, but—

"Organized labor must not be permitted to run the country without regard to the interests of the 95 per cent of our citizens who do not belong to the unions";

"Organized labor has a right to strike but has no right to prevent other men taking the places of 'the strikers'";

"Organized labor must curb the spirit of lawlessness within the unions or it will be destroyed."

These men are not friends of labor. THEY ARE ENEMIES OF LABOR. They profess friendship for the workers merely to give their slanderous charges greater weight.

Organized labor is seeking no special privileges. It asks nothing for itself that it is not willing to concede to others.

It is not true that organized labor constitutes only 5 per cent of the population. There are about 110,000,000 people in this country, and approximately 5,000,000 belong to labor unions. With the members of their families these trades-unionists make nearly a fifth of the population.

What do they demand that runs counter to the interests of their fellow citizens?

The right to quit work and to prevent men taking their places?

No responsible representative of organized labor has ever set up such a claim, and yet probably no lie affecting our industrial relations has ever been so persistently repeated.

The law says that a striker shall have the right to attempt to peacefully persuade a fellow worker not to take his place. If the striker resorts to violence in any form, of course he immediately becomes subject to the criminal law, and all the strikebreaker has to do is to call a policeman.

This is so elemental that it seems almost silly to be putting it down on paper, but, unfortunately, there are those who believe that when union men quit their jobs they retain the right to stand around with guns and clubs in their hands for the purpose of assaulting those who would take their places.

Are labor unions dominated by the lawless element?

Here is one answer: Attorney General Daugherty told the newspapers that he took to Chicago two carloads of evidence showing all kinds of crimes committed by the striking shopmen.

The charges ran all the way from petty larceny to first-degree murder. Five thousand detectives had worked on the cases at a cost of millions to the government.

More than six weeks have elapsed since the Attorney General made that claim but NOT ONE STRIKING SHOPMAN HAS BEEN INDICTED FOR A SERIOUS OFFENSE, and no leader of the strikers has been arraigned on any charge.

If the Attorney General had any evidence which would stand up in court, does any sane man or woman imagine he would hesitate to order arrests?—Labor.

National Educational Week, Dec. 3-9.

The United States Bureau of Education, with the American Legion and the National Education Association, will promote a third national week for education, Dec. 3-9 inclusive. President Harding has assured me that he will issue a proclamation at the proper time. The President's proclamation will probably come early in November. The Governors of all the states have been invited to issue proclamations.

The purpose of this week is to center attention upon the needs of our schools. There are certain phases of education which, it is generally agreed, require emphasis from a national standpoint. Among these are Americanization; better trained and better paid teachers; more adequately equipped buildings (over two-thirds of the school houses in the United States are still one-room schools); eradication of illiteracy; improvement of rural schools; and physical education and hygiene.

In order that these phases of education may be made prominent in the observance of American Education Week, it has been agreed to designate certain days in the week for calling particular attention to some of these outstanding needs. Therefore, it has been decided that Sunday school be observed as God and Country day; Monday, Citizenship day; Tuesday, Patriotism day; Wednesday, School and Teacher day; Thursday, Illiteracy day; Friday, Equality and Opportunity day; and Saturday, Physical Education day.

More than one hundred of the outstanding national organizations of America have been invited to join in the observance of this week.

To Drill for Oil in This Section

The Fidelity Oil Company of New Jersey has opened general headquarters in Fort Worth from where all company operations will be directed in the future. The Fidelity has been operating in the Texas oil fields for several years but until recently operations have been directed out of the New Jersey headquarters. The company has taken offices on the fourteenth floor of the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank building.

The Fidelity has the lease on about 30,000 acres of land in Reagan, Glasscock and Sterling counties on which developments are to be started within a very short time. Several wells are to be drilled on this acreage. The acreage lies along the Marathon Fold and several geologists have made careful surveys of the acreage and report good structure. The Fidelity already has production in the Breckenridge field in Stephens County and in the Eldorado field of Arkansas.

Arthur Foran, controller of customs in New York City is chairman of the board of directors of the Fidelity Company. The president of the company is George K. Large. Edward B. Allen is vice president and Judiah Higgins of Flemington, N. J., is secretary and treasurer. D. A. Hoover of Fort Worth is on the board of directors of the company.

The vice president of the company, Captain Allen, who is in charge of the local office is well known in Fort Worth. During the late war he was located here, having charge of the purchase of horses and mules for the Government. He has also acted as judge in a number of horse show events in the livestock arena here.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Railroad Consolidations

Keep your eye on the consolidation schemes which the railroads are endeavoring to put through the Interstate Commerce Commission. There are several Senegambians in that woodpile.

Consolidation is the second act in the great drama of private management.

First was the guaranty period after the railroads were returned to their owners. That guaranty has already cost the government $720,000,000, and freight rates have been increased $1,000,000,000, to say nothing of the $300,000,000 revolving fund from which the government has been advancing money to the roads.

The third act will be "valuation"—the process by which the roads hope, through the Interstate Commerce Commission, to put the seal of official approval on at least 7 billion dollars of watered stock. But that is another story, which will be told in LABOR at a later date.

Because of these big schemes the railroads are vitally interested in the make-up of the Interstate Commerce Commission. They are counting on President Harding giving them a commission that will give them what they want.

Keep an eye on the appointments to the Interstate Commerce Commission which are made during the next few months.—Labor.

Armistice Day

We sometimes hear complaints against the custom of national memorial days, made by those short sighted, materially minded people who arrogate to themselves the word "practical," but who in the most far reaching sense of that word, are the least practical of citizens. Such days, they complain, are a waste of public time; and are meaningless displays of public sentiment, hypocritically or superstitiously observed. Fortunately the direction of nations is not in the hands of such blind guides, men who can see nothing beyond the day's work, and the lay's profit. Wiser heads have managed, from generation to generation, to gain control of our destinies. Such men have always realized one cardinal defect of human nature—the shortness of its memory for the great moments of achievement and warning. A great object is achieved, a great danger is passed. In the hour of triumph and escape, men rend the skies with jublations, crowd them with flags, irradiate them with bonfires. Never was such a moment. Left to themselves, however, a week or two would suffice for the achievement to become a commonplace, the danger to be forgotten. But, those wiser, far seeing ones, as they look on at "the tumult and the shouting," perceive the eternal significance of such moments. Great moments of achieved freedom. For these there must be consecrated monuments, commemorative days forever set apart. lest men should, through forgetfulness, fall into bondage again. Heroes, saints, fighters, workers, dreamers, the dauntless martyrs for ideas, for these it is not merely well, but necessary, that there should be abiding memorials, by which men looking up from the dusty preoccupations of their daily tasks shall be sharply and inspiringly recalled to that something in our lives which we call the soul.

The world has recently gone thru one of the gravest crises in its history. But already, like men who have survived a tidal wave that has laid their city in ruins, we have begun to minimize the danger that threatened us. It is past and gone, and once more we return to our work and our play. The dead that died for us sleep, and the grass grows.

Yet, as the sea but waits its hour to sweep once more against our careless walls, so the danger that was will surely menace us again, unless we make sure that its lesson shall never be forgotten, and so school our minds against it that not only shall it never again catch us unawares, but that it shall in time be wiped out from the category of permitted things.

Armistice Day has been decreed that it shall keep alive in a symbol, from year to year, the memory of the horror of the cruelest and foulest war ever fought, the memory of the vast gladness that swept the world as its night-mare came to an end, the memory of the universal resolution that no such infamy should ever stain the human record again.

In the past war has been regarded as a necessity, the only method of deciding conflicting issues between races and nations, and its evils have been systematically concealed beneath the various bedazzlements of its fictitious glory, so that we forget.

But the time has come for us to see the monster as it is. Whatever be the matters in dispute between nations, it is now realized as imperative that some other way of deciding them must be found. Differences must inevitably arise, but the sword shall no longer deal with them. Surely, if slowly, a League of Commonsense has been forming among the most advanced peoples of the earth which condemns war as obsolete as it is criminal.

In this work the Brotherhood of Elks has an unrivaled opportunity, if for no other reason than that its roll-call includes members of all creeds, bound together in mutual friendship and understanding. As those dwell together in unity and cordial fraternity they can not but serve as an inspiring object lesson of harmony to the world at large. With such broader human understanding and sympathy as is the bedrock of Elk doctrine, War must be come unthinkable, and, therefore, impossible.—Elks Magazine.

How Wisdom will Win

WISDOM to its amazement Wall Street woke up one morning recently to find Henry Ford the richest man in the world. What amazed them most was that he had grown rich in spite of them. It was when Wall Street refused to help Ford, when it looked upon him as a questionable risk and offered eleven per cent. Now Ford is propping up Wall Street with a loan of $200,000,000. With finer spirit he is letting them have it at four per cent. Mr. Ford made his mammoth fortune in a clean and splendid way. It is no crime to be rich. It is ethically wrong to acquire the greatest fortune ever gained that fortune by helping men in need of helping them. John D. Rockefeller acquired a great fortune. Much of his fortune was made by the most despicable practices. He brazenly defied the laws of the land. He was not a man-helper. To gain his own wealth he would cruelly crush. His ambition was to be a commodity. He bought up hundreds of patents and suppressed them because they economized on the consumer on oil consumption. Ford created something. He made an instrument that consumes more Rockefeller gasoline than all oil-consuming devices known before. By his inventive mathematical and mechanical genius Mr. Ford caused an enormous increase in the Rockefeller wealth. Compared to him John D. was a one-cylinder affair. Rockefeller is not a loved name. He is not respected. He is a very old man now. His face is crisscrossed with lines. Years ago a troubled conscience took him and he set out to square himself. It is possible for a man to do that—that is, if our Christian faith is practicable. Polluted water will run itself pure; so will tainted money. Rockefeller began his substantial philanthropies by the endowment of a theological school in Rochester, New York. Then he hurried a great university into one city and a hospital into another. Since then he has been bolstering up weak colleges, creating great pedagogical and research foundations, and splendidly subsidizing a benignant life-reaction work through bacteriological laboratories, hospitals and feeding stations the wide world over. With all his undeniable iniquities, the Rockefeller who is trying to save life all around the world and after saving it to lift it up to higher and finer altitudes, is the Rockefeller who is going to live. What will Henry Ford do with all his fabulous wealth? Unlike Rockefeller, he has not cramped his character to get his money. He is not burdened with Rockefeller's handicap. But with all Rockefeller's handicap, Rockefeller may yet overtake Ford in the enduring race, unless Ford does more wisely with his greater wealth. When wealth reaches beyond the proportions of supplying rational personal needs, it becomes not an asset but a responsibility. Henry Ford has proven himself to be 100% the right-minded fortune builder. Future generations will measure him not by his ability to acquire but by his power to serve through spending. The Rockefeller-Ford race for riches is over. Ford wins. Now the race for wise spending is on. In this great race wisdom will win.

poem

by UNCLE JOHN

If there's ever a pastime a feller holds dear, it's gatherin' nuts in the fall of the year. The forest, arrayed in its purple an' gold, appeals to the hearts of the young an' the old. . . . A nut that's resistless floats out from the trees, when the trophies drap down, at the toss of the breeze. O, there gatherin' 'ain't any pleasure that's any more dear, than gatherin' nuts—in the fall of the year. . . . The big, juicy shrapnel, from walnutty nuts—the shell-barks, a-shellin' the roisterer's tanks. . . . The hazel machine-guns, in hid-away dell, bombard the invaders with many a shell,—all, army maneuvers, with nothin' to fear—campaignin' fer nuts, in the fall of the year. . . . Then, forward,—with baskets an' gunnysacks, too,—charge on, past the medder—the fortress in view! We'll pillage the stronghold of kernel an' pod, and win, by the grace of a beautiful God. . . . Each brown-fingered trooper busts loose with a cheer, when we get after nuts, in the fall of the year.

Uncle John

An Appeal You Can't Ignore

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, ye have done it unto me."
There is no man or woman who reads these lines who would pass by a hungry cold, frightened, abandoned child in the street and say, "Oh, I can't be bothered."
No man or woman who reads these lines but would instantly share their dinner with a woman, gaunt with hunger, a pale sickly baby at her breast, an injured and helpless child at her feet.
The cry we hear, the sight we see, touches our hearts. The cry we hear, of the sights we are told about . . . they do not reach.
Five hundred thousand women and children and men . . . more babies than grown-ups, more women than men . . . raise thin arms and send a pitiful cry across the sea to us . . . to you and to you and to you . . . for help. Not theirs the cause of the disaster; theirs but the price to pay. Not theirs the glory of war; theirs but the bodies to suffer, the souls to cry in anguish at the pitiful childish wail for food that is not, for shelter that is not, for clothing that is not. Not theirs to understand why; theirs only to face the West, the great and glorious and prosperous and happy and safe and secure West . . . our West, our United States, and ask for aid.
The President of the United States has asked your aid. The Red Cross stretches out eager hands for your dollars, to use in aid. Your own chubby baby, healthy child, strong and well young son or daughter, is an appeal to you, that you pass these suffering ones of the Near East not by: that you do not say, "I can't be bothered," but that you put your ten pennies, or ten dollars, or whatever you can afford, in an envelope and send it to the nearest Red Cross headquarters, marked "For Near East Relief."
And no one will know about it, except you and God.

The conservative man is not necessarily an unprogressive, cautious or timid man. The conservative man usually is thoughtful and intelligent, refusing to follow will-o'-wisp ideas of foolish or scheming leaders.

Summed up, the character of conservatism is caution without timidity and a sincere respect for the world's experiences.

Respect for Law

"Whenever a newspaper ridicules a law, plays up a policy of contempt for law and its enforcement, and in its news and editorial columns fosters law breaking, that newspaper is doing more to destroy American institutions than a Federal judge can do to maintain them," declared Attorney General Daugherty in a recent speech.
No one will disagree with him. But there will be many who disagree with the implication some may find in this pronouncement, that disrespect for law is bred in the American press.
Without trying to place any blame where it belongs, attention of the thoughtful is drawn to two recent instances in which those who administer the law taught people to disrespect it.
In Wilkes-Barre, Pa., a man, charged with wife beating, was being tried before a magistrate. Becoming intensely incensed with the prisoner because of the character of the evidence given against him, the magistrate jumped over his desk, gave him a black eye, had him stand up and blacked the other eye, after which he fined him ten dollars.
There is here no sympathy for the wife beater. Doubtless he deserved more than he got. But he didn't deserve, in a court of law, anything but a calm, dispassionate, and judicial hearing. The law does not provide for magistrates doing their own eye blacking.
The governor of a middle western state commuted a death sentence to life imprisonment, first getting the convict in question to sign a paper agreeing that should he or his friends attempt to gain further clemency for him, the commutation will cease and he again face the death penalty. "Poetic justice," perhaps, but is there a law anywhere which permits an official with commuting power to bargain with convicts? And does it make for respect for law to deprive any convict of hope?
To most of us, law is impersonal; it is the law officer who makes the law live for us. As we respect him, we respect that for which he stands; as we may laugh at, or sneer at, or condemn him, so, unconsciously, do we wrongly but very humanly condemn the law.
W. J. Crawford reports a large window at his home broken by Halloween observers. Quite a few home owners report rock throwing to have been resorted to by unthinking who seem to consider this harmless sport. It is not going to be much sport for Mr. Crawford to have to "dig up" ten dollars or so to repair the damage these would be jokers caused.
Mr. and Mrs. Pete Warren left Monday night for Mineola where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Warren plans to engage in business there, having completed arrangements for establishing a racket store.

Big Campaign in West Texas

Mike Healy, leading independent in Borden-Mitchell County district. Iatan, Texas, Oct. 25.—A race for the next big gusher in West Texas is on. Mike Healy, prominent independent operation, has challenged the Standard Oil interests, represented by the Associated Oil of California, to a contest. The winner will get to the sands first and be able to acquire additional acreage in the field, which oil men say will rival Burkburnett.
Healy owns several thousand acres out of the Borden County holdings of the estate of Borden, the canned milk king. The Healy leases include one of the most pronounced oil structures ever found in this district. Material has all been assembled for the first well, and drilling soon will start. ### Eldredge Sworn In as U. S. Marshal Alva R. Eldredge of Fort Worth succeeded J. A. Baggett as federal marshal for the northern district of Texas November 1. He took his oath Wednesday.

No changes in headquarters or personnel of the marshal's office will be made till after Eldredge's confirmation by the senate, which convenes Nov. 27.
Eldredge points out that Fort Worth is centrally located and should have the marshal's office.
"To go to any town in the district," he said, "you have to pass thru Fort Worth. Headquarters in Dallas only makes it about 31 extra miles to go."
Eldredge was looking things over at the federal building.
"It's queer," he reminisced. "Nineteen years ago when I was agent for the T. & P. at Midland and Baggett was sheriff at Big Spring Tom Green, then marshal, came to Midland with Hella Temple on a special train to make Baggett and me Shriners. Baggett succeeded Green and now I'm succeeding Baggett."
Eldredge is secretary and treasurer of the Union Transfer Company.
Miss Willie Sybert of Lamarsa visited Miss Marie Boswell here the forepart of this week.

$1,441,486 A YEAR'S DISASTER RELIEF COST

Red Cross Aided 145,000 Victims in United States—Losses Total $30,000,000.

Seventy-two disasters, with hundreds reported killed and injured, and more than 145,000 either homeless or requiring assistance, called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of $1,441,486.36 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, according to a statement based on the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. The greatest toll of life was taken by hurricane and tornado, while the overflowing of rivers, the breaking of dams and torrential rains drove the greatest number of people from their homes. The property loss was estimated at more than $30,000,000.

The year's disasters reported included twenty-six floods, nineteen tornadoes, fifteen fires, four epidemics, two theatre collapses, two shipwrecks (one an airship), and a bridge collapse, mine explosion, railway collision, and a drought. Of the floods in the United States that at San Antonio, Texas, caused the greatest property loss, $6,000,000 and the high mark of fatalities, 100, while the flood in the vicinity of Vicksburg and Natchez, Miss., forced 31,000 persons from their homes.

A National Calamity

In the Red Cross disaster relief records there will probably remain for many years one calamity which touched nearly every state with a sense of horror and of loss. This was the distressing collapse of the roof of the Knickerbocker Theatre in Washington, D. C., resulting in ninety-six deaths and 125 persons injured. Situated in the center of the beautiful Northwest residential section, this motion picture theatre was patronized by many persons of prominence both in the official and civil life of the National Capital, whose family and personal connections radiated out over the entire country. The horror was intensified by a terrific snowstorm which, though it retarded, did not block Red Cross relief.

Airship Crash Finds Aid at Hand

The crash and destruction of the U. S. Army's large airship Roma in Virginia last February with the loss of 24 officers and men and 11 injured was the first disaster of its kind to call for Red Cross relief in this country. The suddenness of the accident tested the preparedness of the organization and of the Chapter at Hampton, Va., but the response was immediate and relief furnished the survivors, also funds for the expenses of relatives of the dead, who came from long distances to claim their own.

In the year's overseas record for aid rendered by the Red Cross are two fires in the Philippines, one in Manila, which destroyed 1,000 homes, with a loss of $1,500,000 and 5,000 persons made homeless, the other at Tonic, which drove 3,000 from their dwellings. In medical relief that was quick and effective the smallpox epidemic in San Domingo, which had a total of 22,000 cases with 225 deaths in a single day, tested the readiness of the Red Cross for action, and the same can be said of the San Domingo hurricane, which killed 12 persons and reduced the homes of 182 persons to wreckage. A flood in San Salvador, with a death toll of 50 and 2,000 refugees, was also effectively handled by the local Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Relief Machinery Perfected

The year has seen the further perfection of disaster relief administrative measures in every field of American Red Cross activity, and that the work may be carried on to still greater accomplishments the American Red Cross is appealing for widespread renewal of membership during the annual Roll Call, to be conducted this year from Armistice Day (November 11) to, and including, Thanksgiving Day (November 30).

Red Cross Roll Call Heard World Around

The Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross for registration of the membership for 1923 will begin on Armistice Day, November 11, and close on Thanksgiving Day, November 30. The ground work for this stupendous task of re-enrolling the membership throughout the world has been laid in a plan for the first complete and comprehensive system of registration of the Red Cross membership in all its 3,300 active Chapters at home and abroad.

An important feature of the round-the-world Roll Call campaign will be a universal effort to re-enlist the service of war-time Red Cross workers in the peace program by their participation in the Roll Call. In this way the vast army of volunteers will once more affiliate with the work of the Red Cross in its manifold phases. Co-operation also has been assured by Government and private maritime interests in a deep-sea Roll Call that is designed to reach every member or potential member in every part of the world who may be en voyage or temporarily in any port.

Thousands of Chapters will adopt the home canvass plan of enrollment which originated in Pittsburgh, where last year it resulted in a membership increase of 50 per cent. All records in this year's campaign will be kept on standard size cards to be filed by each Chapter for future use.

Men Still Out Will Win, Says Jewell

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Hundreds of locked out railroad shopmen are being employed on lines where satisfactory settlements have been reached.

Instead of the men being starved into submission, they are moving to points where managements agree to the good old principle of a square deal.

With sixteen main lines entering Chicago signed up, and giving employment to practically all who apply, the strike lists here have been reduced to less than 5,000 as against about 85,000 at the peak.

"More than half the total number of strikers have now returned to work and the roads which settle get the benefit of practical and efficient railroad workers," said President B. M. Jewell of the Railway Employees Department. "If some of the 'hard-billed' roads do not settle soon they will lose all their experienced shopmen."

"They talk about building up new shop forces. Of course, this is possible, but it is a long and costly method of defeating the strikers. Experience proves that it requires from five to seven years to rebuild a new and efficient shop force on a railroad system. And while this is being done millions of dollars worth of equipment is wrecked and the loss in business is almost beyond estimation.

"As a matter of fact," continued Mr. Jewell, "the federated shop crafts are today in better position to continue the fight than at any time since it began on July 1.

"The specter of starvation no longer confronts the men. Those returning to work will contribute to a relief fund, and the strikers have been out long enough to become 'seasoned soldiers' in this great battle for economic rights.

"It is the hold-out roads who now suffer most, and their agony will continue to increase by reason of defective equipment and inability to procure efficient employes.

"They have apparently exhausted every resource at their command to defeat the shopmen, and find us waging a better fight now than last month or the month before. Organized shopmen have been in the industrial trenches and on the firing line too long to think of surrender. Any road that wants an honorable settlement can get it. Others will be responsible for continuance of this fight."

At this writing 102 roads have settled with the striking shopmen. During the past week the Grand Trunk Railway signed a system federation agreement and several thousand men on that line returned to work. Other important settlements were with the Pittsburgh & West Virginia and the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic.

Reports received at national strike headquarters here are that hundreds of strikebreakers quit last week on seven "diehard" roads when notices were posted that free board and lodging were to be discontinued, along with bonuses and other perquisites. The "company union" plan also struck a snag when pay envelopes came to the strikebreakers with "dues" deducted under a check-off system inaugurated by the company union roads. These dupes finally rebelled against paying "dues" to company officials. — Labor.

They report a most successful trip, but glad to be home more and report they are better satisfied than ever with their home town, Big Spring.

J. H. Smithwick of Brownwood with the railway shopmen returned to Big Spring on Saturday. Mr. Smithwick who is a shop worker and came out with the men at Brownwood on July 1st stated in an interview that the men at Brownwood are 100 per cent and are determined to stick it out until the railroads are reasonable.
