Nearly 60,000 Head Of Crockett Lambs Are Sold

Group Of Buyers Take First Big Chunk Of 1942 Crop

First big movement of the 1942 Crockett county lamb crop is under way as a result of the visit here in recent days of a group of buyers, who left with contracts calling for nearly 60,000 head of lambs and 10,000 head of old ewes.

Delivery of the lambs and ewes is already under way and will continue to mid-September.

Prices were 10½ cents a pound for mutton lambs and 11 cents for ewe lambs, Barnhart delivery. Old ewe prices were $5 a head, and $3 for broken mouths.

Jess Elrod and Al Dumain were the biggest buyers. Other outside buyers who were active in contracting Crockett lambs were Amos Womble, Curtis Poyner, Walter Kothmann of Menard and Beldose Livestock Co.

Jess Elrod bought lambs from ranches of Floyd Pender, T. A. Kincaid, Jr., Paul Berner, Steve Berner, Joe Pierce, III, Hugh Childress, Sr., J. C. Montgomery, Lee Childress, James Childress, Philip Lee Childress, Boyd Clayton, J. W. Henderson, Dock Lee and R. L. Flowers.

Dumain purchased some 20,000 head, including those of Ralph Watson Hillery Phillips, Mrs. W. P. Seahorn, Charlie Davidson, Mrs. C. E. Davidson, and Vic Pierce.

Otho Drake from San Angelo purchased 10,000 head of old ewes in this county at $5 and $3 a head. Sellers were Massie West, Ira Carson, Boyd Clayton, Wayne West, Max Schneemann and Sherman Taylor.

Walter Kothmann of Menard last week bought 2,000 mutton lambs from J. C. Montgomery at 10½ cents, delivery this week. Sam Roberts, buyer for Bledose Livestock Co., bought 1,500 head of mixed lambs from George Montgomery. Mr. Montgomery also sold about 3,000 head to a Panhandle buyer.

Curtis Poyner bought 6,000 head of lambs from Miller Bros. and around 2,000 each from Lee Childress and P. T. Robison.

Crockett August War Bond Quota Set At $21,500

Reduction Of $5,000 From July; $4,800 Sold To Date

Crockett county's August war bond quota has been fixed by the Treasury Department at $21,500, a reduction of $5,000 from the quota set for this county in July. Sales fell short of the $26,600 quota for July, but Scott Peters, county war bond sales chairman, believes that the county will have little trouble in meeting the new quota for August. Up to Wednesday afternoon, a total of $4,800 worth of securities had been sold at the Ozona National Bank and the chairman hopes to have half of the quota sold by the end of this week.

Texas has a quota of $27,500,000 for the month, while the total August quota for the nation is $815,000,000.

Crockett's quota is considerably in excess of those assigned counties of comparable population in this area, as was the case in July, but until last month the county has consistently oversubscribed its quota by wide margins and with lambs and wool beginning to move, likely will make up for July's shortage in oversubscribing the August allotment. Sutton county's quota was announced as $10,700, Schleicher's at $8,300; Terrell's, $12,500; Irion's, $3,000; Edwards, $3,600; Kimble, $13,200; Menard, $2,500; Pecos, $27,700; Reagan, $15,500; Upton, $19,100. Tom Green county had the highest quota of this area, $275,800.

TO NEW CHARGE—Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor of Ozona Methodist Church six years, will leave early in September to take up his duties as pastor of Woodlawn Methodist Church in San Antonio.

Slater To Post As Pastor San Antonio Church

Pastor Here 6 Years To Take Up Work Sept. 6 At Woodlawn

Rev. Eugene Slater, nearing the end of his sixth year as pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church, has been appointed to the pastorate of the Woodlawn Methodist Church, one of the largest churches in San Antonio, it was announced this week by local church officials.

Church officials, in a special meeting Monday night, released Rev. Slater so that he might accept the appointment to the San Antonio church and discussed plans for securing his successor. Appointment of a successor to the local pastorate will be left to the District superintendent and the Bishop in conference with local church officers.

Rev. Slater succeeds in the Woodlawn church the Rev. Edwin C. Calhoun, who has enlisted as a chaplain in the United States Army and is now in a chaplain's school at Harvard University. The Slaters have won a place in the affections of the people of Ozona, not only among the membership of the church but among people of all the other churches and outside the church membership. Genuine regret at their going is expressed on every hand, but since Rev. Slater's capabilities recommend him to advance to larger fields, his friends are happy at the opportunity afforded him.

Rev. Slater was one of the prime movers in the organization of the Ozona Rotary Club, is a charter member of that organization, and Rotary has designated its meeting on Tuesday, September 1, as "Gene Slater Day" and an appropriate program will be arranged for the occasion.

Mrs. Bright Baggett has returned from Temple where she went for medical attention.

Rev. R. A. Taylor, Former Ozona Methodist Pastor Now Chaplain In U. S. Army, Eager To Leave Louisiana Camp For Foreign Service

Rev. Raymond A. Taylor, former pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church, and professor in the University of San Antonio until recently, has enlisted as a chaplain in the United States Army and is stationed at Camp Livingston in Louisiana.

In a letter to Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor of the local church, Chaplain Taylor says that he is enjoying his new work but is "eager to get across." The former Ozona pastor is assigned to the 29th Evacuation Hospital, a unit which has not yet been created except for the officers' staff. "Being with an evacuation hospital means that I am almost sure to see foreign duty as soon as the unit is trained," Chaplain Taylor wrote, "unless they take the men and leave the officers here to train another unit. That happens, but frankly I hope it won't happen

Lightning Sets Six Simultaneous Fires Near Ozona

Four To Five Sections Estimated Burned In Wednesday Blazes

Lightning, which accompanied a futile threat of rain late Wednesday afternoon, set six simultaneous fires about six miles east of Ozona on the Charlie Davidson and George Harrell ranches, and scores of volunteer fighters, plus the city's two tank pumpers battled for several hours to bring the scattered fire under control.

Estimates last night placed the burned over country at in the neighborhood of five sections as a result of the weather freak.

The first bolt of lightning to set the grass blaze was seen from atop the waterworks hill here by Buddy Moore, water works manager. He saw the bolt streak straight from the shower cloud to the ground and seconds later saw smoke rising from the spot. He reported the fire immediately and the fire department and volunteers raced to the scene to find a half dozen fires raging.

The fire yesterday was the eighth in the last few weeks to be discovered in the divide area. Some suspicion of incendiary origin has been held in some of the earlier blazes which started at frequent intervals on the Charlie Davidson ranch along the highway, but no definite clue has yet been uncovered.

Mother Of Late W. S. Willis Died In Gatesville

Mrs. A. F. Willis, 81, mother of the late W. S. Willis, Crockett County sheriff, who died last year, died July 30 at the home of a son in Gatesville where she had made her home in recent years. Her husband died seven years ago in Pendleton, the family home.

Mrs. Willis' body was taken to Pendleton, where funeral services were held Saturday, August 1. Mrs. W. S. Willis, widow of the Crockett sheriff and now serving out his unexpired term, was ill in a San Angelo hospital and unable to attend the funeral services.

Sutton Sheriff Quits Run-Off Race

B. W. Hutcherson, Sutton county sheriff for many years, has withdrawn from the run-off race for the office, according to announcement from Sonora yesterday.

Sheriff Hutcherson was second man in the first primary. Leo Brown, clerk of the Sutton County Selective Service Board, was high man in the first primary and will be unopposed for nomination in the second primary. C. W. Taylor was third man in the race.

Mrs. Walter Cook, who makes her home here with her daughter, Mrs. Babe Phillips, is visiting this week with a sister, Mrs. B. C. Harrison in Mineral Wells.

Mrs. Lee Wilson To Take Over Hotel Ozona Management

Mrs. Lee Wilson will take over management of the Hotel Ozona beginning next Saturday, August 15, it was announced this week.

Mrs. Wilson will succeed Mrs. Conley Cox, who took over management of the hotel when Jimmy Blaycock gave up his lease to move to Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox will leave soon for California where Mr. Cox is to be engaged in war work.

Second Songfest Scheduled Friday Night At 8:30

Special Program Is Arranged For Community Event

With the initial success scored by the newly inaugurated weekly sing-song, the first of which was held last Friday night on the school lawn, a big crowd of Ozonians is expected to gather at 8:30 Friday evening for the second program and songfest.

This week's sing-song is to be under the direction of Hubert Baker, who has arranged a unique program of novelties in addition to the group song numbers. The time has been set up from 9 o'clock, the hour fixed last week, to 8:30. Citizens are urged to be on time and all to gather on the lawn instead of sitting in cars so that all may join in the singing and program. It is suggested that cushions or chairs be brought along for greater comfort.

Emphasis was placed on the campaign for old phonograph records, which is being made part of the weekly sing-songs. Every person in Ozona who has a phonograph record which he will donate for use of recreation centers for men in the U. S. armed services is urged to turn it in at the sing-song. A total of 23 records was collected last Friday night and promoters hope to raise the total to 50 this week.

As a special feature of this week's sing-song, Director Baker has arranged an old-fashioned medicine show, with typical music to be provided by George Senne on the fiddle and Baker with his banjo. A particularly efficacious brand of "medicine" guaranteed to cure anything from fallen arches to dandruff, will be offered an anxious audience.

Station Of U. S. Border Patrol Established Here

Officers Lindsey And Brandon Assigned; More May Come

Establishment of a local station of the U. S. Border Patrol service was effected this week by C. W. McBee, assistant chief of the Del Rio sub-district office of the Border Patrol, who came here to arrange for housing of two patrol inspectors who are to be stationed here.

The two men, Patrol Inspectors Paul H. Lindsey and A. B. Brandon, will make their homes in Ozona, moving their families here immediately. Two additional inspectors may be stationed here at a later date, it was announced by Inspector McBee.

The inland station is being established for a better patrol of roads leading from the border, it was announced. Crossings along the Mexican border are well patrolled, but by establishing patrol stations further inland, officers can keep a closer watch on all roads feeding from the border area. The Ozona patrol station is to be a permanent one, the inspector announced.

Mrs. W. T. Armstrong and sons, Bob and Mack, from Corpus Christi, visited Mrs. Armstrong's mother, Mrs. W. S. Willis, while the latter was a patient in a San Angelo hospital last week.

Clint Owens, Early-Day Crockett County Resident and Founder of Pioneer Family, Dead; Funeral Services Here Wednesday

Father Of J. W. And Tom Owens Died Tuesday In Angelo

Clint Owens, 89, one of the thinning rank of pioneers of Crockett County, those sturdy men and women who braved the privations of the early West to create the livestock empire we know today, died early Tuesday morning in a San Angelo hospital and was buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery here after graveside rites Wednesday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the Robt. Massie Co. funeral home in San Angelo at 2 o'clock and the procession arrived here shortly after 5. Joe Oberkamp's was in charge of arrangements.

Head of a large family whose name is destined to remain long in the pages of West Texas history, Mr. Owens and the late Mrs. Owens came to Crockett County in 1890, a year before the county was organized, to engage in ranching. Mrs. Owens died here in December, 1938.

Mr. Owens had been retired from the ranching business for several years, having first partitioned a part of his large ranch holdings among his children and later sold the balance of the land to members of the family, but until his health began to fail a few months ago, he remained active and still intensely interested in his two loves, his family and the ranching business. He had made his home the last few years with his youngest son, Bob, who ranches near Fort Stockton.

Mr. Owens was born July 4, 1853, in northern Illinois. He was married to Miss Ansie Belle Carter in Hamilton County, Texas, February 10, 1876. When Mrs. Owens died here in 1938, it marked the end of a partnership of 62 years. When the Owens came to this section, they started with a lease on a section of open range at 2 cents an acre, lived in a tent, and from that modest start built up holdings until when he retired, Mr. Owens owned one of the area's outstanding ranches of 26 sections.

Surviving are the ten children, six sons and four daughters. They are J. W. and Tom Owens of Ozona, Bob of Fort Stockton, Clint, Jr., of Sheffield, Bode of Barnhart, Mitchell of Rankin, Mrs. Earnest Sprague of Best, Mrs. T. E. Autery of Sheffield, Mrs. H. A. Porter of Austin and Mrs. D. L. McCauley of Muskogee, Okla.

Pallbearers were Tom Harris, Max Schneemann, Houston Smith, John Bailey, Fleet Coates, and Rob Miller of Ozona, Boyd Cox and Tom Richardson of Rankin, and N. D. Blackstone of San Angelo.

Champion Calf Roping Contest At Midland Sept. 13

Mansfield And Burke to Compete for $2,000 Purse And Crown

MIDLAND — The official calf roping championship of the world and a purse of $2,000 will be at stake when Toots Mansfield of Bandera, Texas, and Clyde Burk of Comanche, Oklahoma, meet in a matched calf roping contest at Midland on Sunday, September 13. The event is sponsored by Midland Fair, Inc.

Fifty per cent of the net proceeds will be donated to the Army Emergency relief fund.

Mansfield has held the calf roping championship of the world for three consecutive years, the only man to hold that distinction. Burk, one of the world's top-notch ropers, twice has been world's champion. The contest between the two outstanding ropers was matched at the recent Cheyenne, Wyo., rodeo. The contestants will rope 12 calves each.

Other special matches will pit (Continued On Last Page)

War conditions have created a grave situation for the merchants and business firms of small communities throughout the nation, especially those where no war training centers are located.

In critical times such as these it behooves residents of small towns to take some thought of the future of their town.

In the face of such conditions, small town residents should consider the fate of their communities. Community cooperation must be the watchword if small towns are to survive a long war.

Because they are taxing residents of your own community, local business firms have always had first claim on your patronage. Now more than ever they need your 100 per cent support.

GONE WITH THE WIND

We think it's carrying military censorship too far when WPB bans the manufacture of weather-vanes.

SECOND-FRONT CLAMOR

It is not conceivable that our leaders, troubled by the shortage in shipping, still fail to realize the desire of the people to avert a Russian collapse? Is it not possible that, overwhelmed by the inevitable sacrifices which a second front would require, they shrink from possible defeat?

OUR "FIFTH FREEDOM"

It takes critical times like these to make us realize what our American way of life really consists of and what it would mean if we lost it.

A unique advertising campaign launched a few weeks ago shows the way the wind is blowing today. A well-known food manufacturer took four pages in a home economics journal to sell home economics teachers, not his food, but free enterprise.

"The American way of life is based on four fundamental principles: freedom of speech, freedom of religious belief, freedom of the press, and freedom to choose the form and personnel of government.

"These are the ideals of democracy. To make them work for the benefit of the people called for a fifth freedom—freedom of enterprise.

"From our very start as a nation this fifth freedom has been recognized as a vitalizer and nourisher of all we hold dear. It is the freedom that has built the best way of life ever known, on the best set of principles ever adopted.

"This fifth freedom was born of foresight, initiative and hard work. It has been sustained by fair competition, backed by skills develop-

WHAT'S COOKIN'?

GETTING IN THE SCRAP

As furnaces are roaring to produce more steel for tanks, planes, and aircraft carriers, Uncle Sam's scrap pile is rapidly diminishing.

And Uncle Sam isn't the only one who is feeling this shortage. Hitler is also having trouble keeping Axis furnaces fed with scrap. But what a difference between his way and the American way of collecting it!

We don't do things that way in this country. The War Production Board is organizing a vast scrap drive on a voluntary basis, and industry, through the American Industries Salvage Committee and other groups, is cooperating to assist the efforts of WPB.

A case in point is the "modern, efficient alloy steel plant," as dedicated by the War Production Board recently, which was built of used materials and contains equipment made solely from scrap material.

through scientific and practical research.

"This freedom has built up the nation's outstanding industries which today defend our prosperity, which supply so large a part of the people's everyday needs, and which give to millions of workers an equal opportunity to enjoy the benefits and blessings of liberty."

terial from three cities and two states.

Cost of the plant is said by the WPB to represent the "lowest capital investment per net ton of output during the emergency."

This is just one of many instances of industries that have gone all-out on their own initiative, digging up obsolete machinery, looking in every corner, and even combing the sweepings from factory floors, so that they might show Hitler who is really "in the scrap."

Side Glances on Texas History

By Charles O. Hucker, University of Texas Library

"BECAUSE HERE I AM FREE"

Of the vast majority of Texas Germans no doubt can be raised as to their loyalty and devotion to this country. Their settlements in Texas are almost as old as those of the Anglo-Americans who fought for Texas liberty, and their own emigration to this continent and to Texas came about through the very desire for freedom that prompted the early settlement of the Thirteen Colonies, the American Revolution and the Texas Revolution.

A pointed conversation that reveals the motivation of these early German settlers who came to

THIS BUSINESS OF Living

Man... The Newcomer

"Fiddlesticks," said Great Aunt Matilda, throwing down the morning paper. "All this talk about how wonderful women are to come into industry makes me tired. Women have been in industry since the dawn of time. It's the man who's the newcomer!"

"But, Aunt Matilda," I began in surprise. She didn't wait for me to finish but continued: "Who do you think made the first cloth and preserved the first food? Men? I should say not! They were out hunting and fishing. It was the women folks who gathered and preserved the fresh fruits, nuts and roots of the forest. It was women who salted down the first meat. It was women, too, you remember, who spun the yarn and then wove it into garments for all the family."

"But when machines were invented and most of this work was taken out of the home to be done in the factory..." I began again.

"Women were still the dominating factor. It was the women who used the majority of the products turned out by those factories and so their judgment determined what products should persist and what ones should be discarded."

"So you think women are just getting back to one of their original jobs when they go to work in plants and factories today?"

"Certainly. Women are, by their very nature, creators and they take to modern machine work just as easily as they did to the hand production of a century and a half ago."

"But they used to do this productive work in the peace and quiet of their homes," I reminded her.

"Peace and quiet!" she exclaimed. "With a half dozen or more children playing around and the dinner cooking in pots hung in the fireplace, and the washing to do by hand with home-made soap!"

"Um..." I replied. "I see what you mean... Then you think the women of today who keep their own houses and do their jobs at the factories actually have an easier time than our great grandmothers who ran their own one-woman factories at home?"

"I certainly do. Look at the array of machines modern industry has given her to help with her housework... and as for the factory, her hours are limited, and the pay is sure and good. In the old days she might produce for the whole family but she had to ask her husband for every cent she spent!"

"No," she said, picking up the paper, "women will be making things as long as the world goes on, and modern machines have done more for each one of us than they have for any man on the face of this troubled globe!"

Texas in 1844 with Prince Solms, and during the next few years to settle in and around New Braunfels, is related by Frederick Law Olmsted, who in 1857 published "A Journey Through Texas." A copy of this book, which once belonged to Sir Swante Palm, Swedish consul and earliest large donor to the University of Texas Library, is found in the University's extensive Texas Collection.

"CONTENTED PROSPERITY"

After somewhat unfortunate colonization experiences, during which the Mainzer Adels Verein, or colonizing association, had neglected to provide either food or shelter for the 2,000 families joining in the venture, and they spent "months camped in sand-holes, huts or tents; the only food procurable was beef," the German emigrants had brought their native thrift, industry and tidiness to bear in their new homes.

By the time of Olmsted's visit to Texas in 1855, "the wretchedness is already forgotten," he wrote. "Now, after seven years, I do not know a prettier picture of contented prosperity than we witnessed at Neu-Braunfels. A satisfied smile, in fact, beamed on almost every German face we saw in Texas."

Spending the night at the home of a comfortably-situated German farmer, Olmsted engaged in the following conversation with the son of the house:

"Are you glad you left Germany?" I asked the young man.

"O, yes; very glad; a thousand times better here."

"You can have more comfort here?"

"Oh, no; not so much. It is hard for a young man, he can have so little pleasure. These American gentlemen, here in Texas, they do not know any pleasure. They have no pleasure as in Germany."

"Why, then, do you like it better to be here?"

"Because here I am free. In Germany I cannot say at all how I shall be governed. They govern the people with soldiers. They tried to make me a soldier, too, but I run away."

"In Germany, too, I suppose you had to work very hard."

"Oh, we work harder here; but, by-and-by, when we get fixed, then we will not have to work hard then, it will be very easy. In three years I go back to Germany."

Dog Takes 900-Mile Hike To Find Master

KANSAS CITY, Kan.—Tuffy, a 5-year-old black and white setter, is back at the John Clark home after a 900-mile hike from Bremont, Robertson County, Texas.

How she did it is a mystery to Clark.

The dog dashed up to Clark Sunday night as he stood talking to a friend. He first pushed her away, but she crawled back and the friend remarked:

"That looks like your old dog." "Impossible," said Clark. "I left my dog at the home of my cousin, Joseph Polka, at Bremont two years ago."

But he carried the dog into the house, and to his amazement, discovered it was Tuffy. His wife and daughter verified the fact and so did the tail-wagging Tuffy, beside herself with delight.

Tuffy's feet were raw and her coat matted with mud and cockle-burs. How long she was on the trip and her route were mysteries.

I left a sweetheart there. I marry her and come back and have her my home.

"But they will arrest you because you ran away and did not serve as a soldier."

"Ah, no; for then I shall be a citizen!"

"Did you give notice, when you first arrived, of your intention, then?"

"Oh, yes."

"Do most of the Germans do so?"

"Those that have good sense—all."

Gov't. Offers Free Training For War Jobs

Crafts Taught Workers In State, Federal Operated Schools

Free training is now available for both men and women wishing to prepare for war industry jobs at good wages, according to L. L. Ruttle, manager of the San Angelo office of the United States employment Service. He urged that Ozona people wanting to enter National Defense Training school contact him as soon as possible, since there are many openings in the schools which must be filled at once.

The training courses offered in these schools, which are operated jointly by the state and federal governments, are designed to prepare workers for jobs in aircraft, shipbuilding, munitions and other essential war industries in which there is an extremely heavy demand for workers of certain types. Thousands of graduates from these free schools already have found good-paying jobs in these industries through the United States Employment Service. It is almost impossible to obtain such jobs without training.

Machine Shop, Aircraft Engine Mechanic, Aircraft Sheet Metal (including Riveting), are the courses offered. The training is open to men between the ages of 18 and 65 years, and to women between the ages of 18 and 45. There is an increasingly good market with our plants for women workers, many thousands of whom will be hired in Texas plants during the next few months.

Mr. Ruttle stressed the fact that the training is entirely free; that the only cost to a trainee is that he must support himself while in school. Even this can be avoided in the case of many younger trainees, who may be assigned to National Youth Administration war work centers where they will be boarded and paid a small wage while attending the training.

The training period runs from six to 12 weeks, according to the subject and the rapidity with which each trainee can learn. The schools are operated on a 24-hour basis so that all equipment is in constant use and trainees can attend during the hours of their own choice.

Any one in or near Ozona who is interested in training, Mr. Ruttle said, should contact him for further information. He may be located at the United States Employment Service office at 7 North Chadbourne Street, San Angelo, or write Post Office Box 610, San Angelo, Texas.

Waitress Gives Last 15 Cents To Stranger Who Returns $100 Bill

HOUSTON—Mary had worked as a waitress for two weeks and it was her first job. It was a job, that was all, but the work was pleasant and she liked the people who came into the coffee shop to eat.

Wednesday a man came in and ordered lunch. He looked just about the same as any businessman. Only when he was half through with his lunch he confided in Mary that he had no money and couldn't pay for his lunch. He appealed to her to lend him some money.

"I only have 15 cents," she said. "But I'll give you that much" . . . and she went to her purse and gave him the money. He seemed grateful for her faith in him, for he had promised to repay her some day.

When he started to leave, he leaned across the counter to thank her and handed her a crisp $100 bill in appreciation for her kindness.

10-FOOT RATTLESNAKE KILLED AT COMSTOCK

DEL RIO—What is believed to have been the largest rattlesnake killed in this section in its history was killed recently by Ricardo Soria at Comstock. The rattler measured 10 feet, 4 3/4 inches.

Soria was aroused in the middle of the night by the barking of his dog. He found the diamond back 20 feet from the house. All but two of the rattles were missing, Soria said.

Army Flyer, High In Air, Bitten By Snake

MELBOURNE, Australia. — Snake-bitten 3,000 feet in the air, U. S. Army Lieut. Robert Vaught, 24, of Johnson City, Tenn., gave his report on a perilous adventure aloft and aground:

While flying 75 miles from his base, Vaught noticed a peculiarly marked snake near his left foot. He put the plane into a slip to try to slide the snake into a corner, but when he touched the rudder bar the snake struck him twice.

Vaught then seized the snake and threw it out.

Almost immediately he began to feel so ill that he made a forced landing in a dry swamp. After fainting several times, he dragged himself to a water hole, where he put a tourniquet on his badly-swollen leg and made a mud pack which relieved the pain somewhat. He thought of scarifying the wounds, but decided it was too late to do any good.

During the afternoon he sighted another plane and radioed for help.

That night he had to fire his machine guns to drive off wild buffaloes that threatened to damage the plane.

"A WAR MESSAGE TO THE BANKS OF AMERICA"

"The success of one of the most vital of our country's war efforts is in your hands.

"To date, your unstinted contributions to the United States War Savings Bond program have been magnificent. You have been doing a proud job. What you did even before the outbreak of war has become one of the finest testimonials to our Democratic Way.

"That over 14,000 commercial and savings banks—without a cent of compensation—voluntarily launched a great and successful drive to sell War Savings Bonds is a glowing tribute to the quality of the patriotism of America's financial institutions."

H. Morgenthau, Jr. Secretary of the Treasury

The above message was recently sent to all banks. We appreciate this official recognition of the war work being done by America's banks.

"For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved." John 3:17.

The major note of Christianity is a note of redemption and not condemnation. It is true that the Master did say some hard things about the religious leaders of his people for He saw that they would not enter into His Kingdom and that they actually stood in the way of others. The truer mission of our Lord, however, is revealed in his treatment of the woman for whose social sin the people were about to stone her to death. Do you remember those words of Jesus to her: "I do not condemn you; go and sin no more."

Our text declares that God sent Jesus into the world that through Him we might be saved. The truth is that as we stand before Him we are conscious of our imperfections; we know our failings, and our sins stick out like a sore thumb. But He does not leave us there. He is our Saviour. He inspires us to worthier life; He absolves our guilty feelings; He cleans our minds of selfishness; He shows us a duty; He gives us strength; He makes us want to do what is right. He does not condemn us; He saves us.

Here is an illustration of the text from the life of a schoolboy. The boy enters high school with very little understanding of what high school is all about. His superintendent and teachers do not condemn him for his lack of knowledge. They say to him: "We are here to help you; to share in your educational process; to help you acquire some knowledge of the past, and to develop your mind and personality that you may take a place of responsibility among your fellows." The school does not condemn the boy; it seeks to save him from ignorance and mediocrity. So Christ, in a far fuller and richer sense that this illustration suggests, comes to each one of us not to condemn us but to save us from all that would destroy us.

Our church must say something to us from time to time by way of condemnation. It must point out the sins that destroy our lives and make our earth desolate. If the church be true to her deepest mission, however, it must preach the gospel of redemption as the ultimate activity of God. And it is possible for the church to so embody within its life the Person of Christ that men will find hope, confidence and salvation for their troubled lives.

Prayer: As we look into our own lives, our Father, we confess that we are unworthy, and we wonder that Thou dost not condemn us. Then we remember that Thou dost love us, and that Thy purpose is to redeem us from all that destroys us. Help us to look to Jesus for our salvation, and may we permit Him to lead us into the way everlasting. Amen.

Drivers Are Reminded Nov. 1st Is Deadline For License Renewals

All automobile drivers who have not renewed their driver's licenses must do so by Nov. 1 and failure to do so will subject the driver to severe penalties. State highway patrolmen and driver's license examiners have warned.

Only about one-half of the state's 2,000,000 drivers have renewed their licenses, it is said.

To renew a license, a driver must obtain an application blank, fill it in and mail it to the department of public safety at Austin with a fee of 50 cents. This procedure applies only to those who now hold licenses. All those now holding licenses can obtain renewals without the necessity of taking the regular examination and road test. But those who have lost their licenses, who are making application for the first time or who hold a license from another state, must take the examination and road test. The driver's license examiner for this county is located at the courthouse on the first and third Wednesdays in each month.

Our Vacation Bible School is now in progress and to date, Wednesday, we have 41 enrolled and 37 average attendance. We are hoping that our enrollment will reach at least 55 and our average attendance 45. If you have children in your home between the ages of 4 and 13 we will be happy to have them in our school.

As we look forward to the opening of school again we are formulating plans for the best possible program for our church in these trying days. Your church will try to shed the light of Christ upon these present conditions and point you to Him who is our sole comfort for every hour.

Next Sunday evening will be "Methodist night" again with Rev. Eugene Slater bringing the message. We regret that this good friend and faithful fellow pastor is so soon to leave a field where he has labored for so long. Let us show our appreciation for his faithful service among us by hearing him in our church this Sunday and again on August 30th.

THE STATE OF TEXAS TO: SEPRIANO SALINAS
GREETING:

You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 21st day of September, A. D. 1942, at or before 10 o'clock A. M., before the Honorable District Court of Crockett County, at the Court House in Ozona, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 2nd day of Jan., 1941. The file number of said suit being No. 782.

The name of the parties in said suit are: Felicitas Rivera Salinas as Plaintiff, and Sepriano Salinas as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: That on or about November 19, 1933, she was lawfully married to the Defendant in Ozona, Texas, and that she continued to live with him as his wife until about September 18, 1938, when by reason of the cruel and harsh treatment and improper conduct of the Defendant toward this Plaintiff, she was forced and compelled to abandon him, since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife.

Plaintiff alleges that during all of the time she was married to the Defendant and lived with him as aforesaid, that she was a kind and affectionate wife, and did her best to make him happy and make their marriage a success, but the Defendant unmindful of his marital vows, immediately after their marriage, began a course of unkind, harsh, cruel and tyrannical treatment toward this Plaintiff which continued until the Plaintiff was forced and compelled to abandon the Defendant as aforesaid. Plaintiff states that the Defendant drank all of the time, and all the money he made was spent on liquor, that he did not support this Plaintiff and that she had to work all the time in the vineyards in California to support herself and that the Defendant spent all he made on liquor; that he stayed drunk all the time when he could get the money to buy whiskey; Plaintiff further states that every time he became drunk he would curse and abuse this Plaintiff, curse her before her friends, tell false things on her, and that while he did not beat this Plaintiff, yet, he would grab her by the hair of the head and swing her clear off the ground, and Plaintiff says that she stood this conduct for five year and that when she could stand it no longer, she abandoned him.

Plaintiff alleges that the Defendant's action and conduct towards her generally are of such a nature as to render their further living together as husband and wife, insupportable, the premises considered.

4. Plaintiff further alleges that there are no children born to them out of this marriage and that they have no community property.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays the Court that the Defendant be cited to appear and answer herein as required by law and for judgment dissolving the marriage relations and that she be given a divorce from the Defendant, for cost of suit and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity, that she may be justly entitled to.

Issued this the 5th day of August, 1942.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Ozona, Texas, this the 5th day of August, A. D. 1942.

'Come Back to AFL'

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, shows in Chicago, where heads of the AFL and CIO discussed prospects of labor peace at the behest of President Roosevelt. Green asked the CIO to return to the AFL.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 20th day of July, 1942. The file number of said suit being No. 793.

The names of the parties in said suit are: Verda Doran as Plaintiff, and Elmer Doran as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit:

That on or about the 15th day of October, 1931, Plaintiff and Defendant were married in Ozona, Crockett County, Texas, and that they continued to live together as husband and wife, until on or about the 20th day of July, 1939, when the Defendant, without any just cause, permanently abandoned this Plaintiff and that since said date, they have not lived together as husband and wife; Plaintiff further states that during said three years in which she has been abandoned by her said husband that she has had to wholly support herself and child and that he has neglected and refused to contribute to their support.

Plaintiff alleges that there is no community property belonging to Plaintiff and Defendant. Plaintiff further alleges that one child, a girl, now ten years of age, named Elenor Doran, was born to this marriage, and Plaintiff prays the Court that Defendant be compelled to contribute a reasonable amount to the support of said child; and that the sum of $10.00 per month would be given the care and custody of said child, which she has had since its said father, the Defendant, abandoned it.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays

the Court that the Defendant be cited to appear and answer herein, and that she have a judgment dissolving said marriage relations, for cost of suit, for the care and custody of her said child, Elenor Doran, for judgment against said Defendant, for a reasonable amount for the support of said child, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity that she may be justly entitled.

Issued this the 29th day of July, 1942.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Ozona, Texas, this the 29th day of July, A. D. 1942.

Effie Mae Petriny, Niece Of Mrs. S. M. Phillips, Weds Dick Prassel In San Antonio

The following account of the wedding of Miss Effie Mae Petriny, a niece of Mrs. S. B. Phillips of Ozona and a frequent visitor here, to Dick Prassel, is taken from the Sunday issue of the San Antonio Express:

Miss Effie Mae Petriny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Petriny, became the bride of Dick Prassel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Prassel, in a candlelight ceremony at 8:30 p. m. Saturday in the Baptist Temple with the Rev. Clyde V. Hickerson officiating.

White gladioli, asters, stephanotis and tall candelabras formed a background for the wedding party. Lt. James C. Lindsey sang, and was accompanied by Mrs. Eunice Wade Pieper at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Arthur Byrd Phillips, of Ozona. She wore a gown of silk brocade made with a deep off-the-shoulder yoke of marquisette. The yoke and fitted bodice were outlined with a cording of the brocade. The long fitted sleeves formed a point over her hands. Her veil was family heirloom of rose-point lace laid on imported bridal illusion, and belonged to her cousin, Mrs. Clay Addison Adams, of Fort Stockton. The veil was caught to a halo of illusion and orange blossoms and it extended beyond the long train of her gown. She carried a small white Bible, belonging to her mother. It was topped with white stephanotis, gardenias and sweetheart roses.

Mrs. James C. Lindsey was the matron of honor. She was gowned in deep rose taffeta, made with a sweetheart neckline, snug-fitting bodice and a full bouffant skirt. Her poke-bonnet was of deep rose silk net and taffeta, and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and purple gladioli.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Ken Clover of Pleasanton, Miss Margaret Ott, of Austin, Mrs. Alton Walker, Miss Margery Brunne-mann, Mrs. Slayden Edwards and Miss Alice Been. Miss Brunne-mann, Mrs. Edwards and Miss Ott wore identical dresses of orchid taffeta with bouffant skirts, snug bodices and sweetheart necklines. Their hats were of silk net and matching orchid taffeta and they carried shower bouquets of pale orchid gladioli. Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Clover and Miss Been wore similar dresses of yellow taffeta. Their poke bonnets were of yellow net and taffeta and they carried shower bouquets of purple gladioli. The flower girls were little Miss Jane Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Addison Adams, cousins of the bride, of Fort Stockton, and little Miss Jo Ann Lindsey, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. James C. Lindsey. They wore identical dresses of new green silk net over taffeta. The sweetheart necklines were accentuated by a cording of the net, and the fitted bodices were joined with a cording of the net to the full skirts. They wore poke bonnets of deep rose silk net and matching taffeta.

Wayne Parker was the best man, and the groomsmen were Nat Prassel, Alton Walker, Jack Stackpole, Lester E. Harrell, Jr., L. S. Miller and Clyde Stevenson. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The lawn was illuminated by hurricane lamps on tall wrought iron holders, and colored paper lanterns.

Flowering shrubs, gladioli and palms formed a background for the receiving line. The table holding the wedding cake was laid with a pink damask cloth and centered with a ring-shaped wedding cake. At either end of the long table were punch bowls.

Serving the cake were Mesdames Cliff Brown, Jack High and Cecil Champion. Assisting in serving at the punch bowls were Mesdames Le Roy Cameron, L. J. Miller, Chester Davis, Crockett Thigpen, C. Melvin Colvin, Clarence Hubbley, Jr., Andy Patton, J. D. Feltham, and Miss Jamie Dennis. Mrs. Willis Jetton presided at the guest book.

For going-away the bride wore a dove grey silk crepe dress with grey alligator accessories. Her hat was a Milgrim model of plum red gloves. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Byrd Phillips, Mrs. S. B. Phillips and Mrs. W. C. Phillips and Kenneth of Ozona, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nussbaumer of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Adams of Ft. Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gidley, Mrs. Margaret Blatherwick, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lee Been, Mr. Autrey Been, all of Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hayes and Mrs. James O. Sullivan of Austin.

Fish Are Biting Down On The Coast, But It Takes Proof Of Citizenship To Go Get 'Em

ROCKPORT — Fish are biting down at this vacation spot on the Texas coast. Big speckled trout, fighting reds and silvery tarpon are ready to take your hook, but this great American sport is reserved for United States Citizens only.

Before you can go out after the big ones, or little ones for that matter, in a boat you must prove to Uncle Sam that you are a citizen. To do this you must secure a United States Coast Guard identification card, which is simple and easy to get once you establish your identity according to Coast Guard regulations.

The Coast Guard Station is located in the Rockport Pilot building where necessary pictures are obtainable. Four pictures, 1 3/4x 1 3/8 inches, full face, without hat or glasses are required. The cost of pictures is one dollar. There will be no delay in obtaining identification cards if persons coming to the Rockport Station bring one of the following with them:

1. Birth Certificate, or
2. An honorable discharge from one of the armed services, or
3. Establish American citizenship by affidavit of birthplace and date. This affidavit must be sworn to before a notary public by three persons having knowledge of their birth, or
4. Naturalization papers.

These are new regulations issued by the U. S. Coast Guard and supercede all previous regulations as to means of obtaining identification cards. The identification card requirement is being enforced by Coast Guard patrol boats both in the bays and the gulf.

There are no restrictions, other than the identification card, on fishing in the waters of Aransas and Copano Bays.

WOOL GROWERS HELPED

In order to cooperate with domestic wool growers and assure them of a fair price and a stable market, the Army soon will place orders for cloth in quantities that will use the bulk of the wool clip now available. As a result of the orders being placed now, instead of waiting until later when normal buying would be done, growers will be in a position to plan ahead and increase their wool production.

Mrs. W. S. Willis, Crockett County woman sheriff, returned Monday from San Angelo where she recently underwent an operation.

A WEEK OF THE WAR

SUMMARIZING INFORMATION ON THE IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS OF THE WEEK MADE AVAILABLE THROUGH MONDAY OF THIS WEEK

Admiral William D. Leahy, the President's Chief of Staff, in a radio broadcast August 9, marking the first anniversary of the Atlantic Charter, said "This war will probably be long. It will be the toughest, hardest, most merciless war we have ever fought. It calls for the united power of every American, in uniform and out of uniform, or the firing line and on the production line. I have no doubt of America's decision."

President Roosevelt, in a message read on the broadcast, said "great progress" has been made in the battle of production, but "in terms of what will be required to defeat our enemies we have only just begun to get into our stride." Elmer Davis, Director of the Office of War Information, said America's conversion job has largely been completed; the emphasis now must be transferred from finished goods to the raw materials from which they are made. "We will get them—by full use of existing facilities, and by tapping new, or marginal, or abandoned sources of supply. We will develop new processes, eliminate waste, and work for full salvage by every citizen," Mr. Davis said.

Vice Chairman Batt of the War Production Board, on the same radio program, said the public must see to it that all waste and scrap metal is collected and "sent to the mills—quickly. There is plenty of iron and steel scrap... that must get back to the furnaces if the steel needed for the war is to be produced. You and I can help by keeping our eyes open."

In a general review of the war situation, the Office of War Information said June production of military planes fell slightly behind schedule, despite the fact that the U. S. made more planes than any other country in the world. The same was true of tanks, of most types of artillery, and of naval vessels, the OWI said. Because of enemy submarine activity, the Office said, it probably will be well into 1943 before we equal merchant shipping as of December 7, 1941.

The WPB announced inauguration of the White House announced six of the eight Nazi saboteurs landed in this country by submarine were executed in the District of Columbia jail August 8. The sentences of the other two were commuted by the President to life and to 30 years imprisonment, "because of their assistance to the Government of the United States in the apprehension and conviction of the others." The First Grand Air Support Command in New York City announced the discovery by Army fliers of ingeniously contrived markers, aimed directly at eastern airfields and airplane factories. The markers, invisible from the ground, were eradicated and the danger to the war bases averted, the announcement said. "Proper action" was taken against the persons who built the markers.

Mrs. Faye Drake is back from Denton where she has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Friend, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Kirby spent several days this week on a vacation trip to San Antonio.

"Midland Citizens to Wage War on Rats Election Day" says headline in San Angelo's great daily Sounds like a good idea and an appropriate time—if we could just agree which ones are the rats.

shortages of labor. The workers will be recruited only after the farmer and the Employment Service have been unable to obtain workers locally. The workers must be paid the prevailing wage, to be determined by the Farm Security Administration, but in no case less than 30 cents an hour. If the workers come from a distance farmers must pay transportation costs up to 200 miles and FSA will pay for additional mileage. The workers must be properly housed and work guaranteed for at least three-fourths of the time they are in the area.

The OWI reported an arrangement has been concluded between the U. S. and Mexico making possible temporary migration of Mexican farm workers into this country to help combat the seasonal farm labor shortage, especially in the Southwest.

The Army announced formation of two completely airborne divisions, consisting of about 8,000 men each, to be stationed initially at Camp Claiborne, Louisiana. The War Department said more than 7,000 volunteer officer candidates (men classified as 3-A who volunteer for officer training) have been inducted into service. The Department said in a short time it will place orders for large quantities of wool cloth which will call for most of the domestic wool clip now available.

The President said the Committee's finding will "form a basis for future action not only with respect to synthetic rubber, but also such matters as nationwide gas rationing and motor transportation." The OPA said it is planning a universal ration book to be put into the hands of every American, as part of its machinery to handle rationing of many commodities which do not require rationing at present. The Office said traveling salesmen will not be permitted more than a B ration book in addition to their A books.

Agriculture Secretary Wickard announced the Farm Security Administration and the U. S. Employment Service will recruit additional workers for farmers in areas where there are seasonal

Specialist To Assist In Promoting Mohair Marketing Plan

COOLEGE STATION — Appointment of Walter Garth, Jr., of Sanford, Maine, as specialist in mohair and wool has been announced by Director H. H. Williamson of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. He is employed jointly on a full time basis by the Extension Service and the Texas Mohair Grading committee. He will work with W. R. Nisbet, extension sheep and goat specialist, toward establishing mohair grades and assisting growers in perfecting an action program. With Nisbet, he met with the grading committee at Rock-springs on August 7 to lay plans for the season's work. Buster Halbert of Sonora is chairman of the committee.

The angora goat raisers of Texas, producers of mohair, for several seasons have been developing a program designed to promote grading and marketing of mohair on its merits. Producers employed Garth to conduct grading in the fall of 1940, and again in the spring and fall of 1941, but hereafter he will devote his full time to mohair and wool marketing work.

"Approximately 17,000,000 lbs. of mohair—mostly grown in Texas—normally finds its way into clothing, upholstery, drapery, carpets, and other fabrics yearly," Nisbet said in indicating the scope of Garth's work. "Mohair is a textile fibre of superior qualities, and its production should remain the basis of an important industry in Texas.

"An aggressive marketing program is essential to safeguarding its present position, as well as to finding new uses for the fibre."

Historian Says Alamo No Military Error But Big Factor In Texas Victory And An Inspiration To Texas Fighting Men Since

AUSTIN — The ill-fated Alamo was no "military mistake," but an "act of mighty human effort and one of undying glory" that has fired Texas men of arms since 1836 and will continue to spur them on to fearless achievement on the battlefields of World War II.

Thus predicts Charlie Jeffries of Winkler, writing in the June issue of the Southwestern Historical Quarterly, published at the University of Texas.

Jeffries points out that the battle of the Alamo delayed Santa Anna's invasion for three weeks, thus giving the Texian forces time to rally; that it gave the Mexican commander an incautious over-confidence; that it cost him 1,000 men whose strength might have made a different story at San Jacinto.

But "its greatest effect has been on Texas men under arms," Jeffries believes, citing the decisive Battle of San Jacinto, fought with the battle cry "Remember the Alamo" on the lips of the Texian soldiers; Terry's Texas Rangers and Hood's Brigade in the War

Between the States; Roosevelt's Rough Riders, trained under the shadow of the Alamo for the war with Spain; the famous 36th and 90 divisions in World War I who "were always ready to go forward when the order was given; they never lost one inch of ground they had taken."

"And now we are in it again," he concluded. Already Texas men have been called on to shoulder arms and fall in ranks. When the baptism of fire comes, can they stand it? The chances are they can. They will be properly imbued for the ordeal. As they have shown on men of the Lone Star land for a hundred years, the lights of the Alamo will shine on them too."

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 — TAX TRENDS—Congressmen in Washington last week turned their attention to the problem of collecting money, as committees began to narrow down their findings into a complete tax bill for all of us to meet next year. Estimates are that total federal revenue will top 23 billion dollars in 1943, compared with about 13 this year... and it looks as though a number of reforms in the method of collection stand a better chance of being enacted than for several years past... Beardsley Ruml, treasurer of R. H. Macy & Co., suggested that income taxes be collected in the same year in which the income is earned. In other words, says he, collect taxes "as we go" in 1943, week by week, and in order to make such payments possible, completely cancel the taxes on 1942 income that would otherwise start falling due March 15, 1943... John Witherspoon, president of the National Association of Life Underwriters, also advanced a thought which seemed to meet widespread approval on Capitol Hill. He proposed that individuals be permitted to deduct, within limits, a fixed percentage of their taxable income to meet life insurance premiums, pay old debts and buy government bonds, just as they are now permitted to make deductions for contributions to charity. This suggestion was endorsed by Senator George, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, as "sensibly sound."

BITS O' BUSINESS — Dollar volume of department store sales for the country as a whole were down six per cent last week from the same week of 1941. With prices this year considerably higher than last, this means that quantities of goods bought by consumers were much smaller... The Department of Commerce finds that Americans are saving money at an annual rate of nearly 24 billions of dollars, which is more than twice the 11 billions salted away in 1941... During the month of June, a new high mark for employment in the steel industry was set. To be exact, 659,000 workers were turning out this vital war material. The National Safety Council reports that the 1941 accident toll in the country was 102,500 killed and 9,300,000 injured, which is considerably higher than the previous year. And, says the Council, 97 per cent of these accidents could have been prevented.

FRESH VITAMIN BOOM — An adequate supply of vitamins is as necessary to winning the war as an adequate supply of shells, military experts and nutritionists agree. And Americans are getting their vitamins the preferred way — fresh fruits and vegetables — recent figures show. With demand greatly stimulated by government emphasis on the nation's need for vitamin-rich foods, growers in nine major southern producing states have boosted sales of fresh fruits and vegetables through the commission company 16 per cent in a year, and other states show increases of as much as 1-0 per cent.

HAT TRICK — Some of the things that are being done to speed America's almost unbelievable war production job constitute pulling fighting rabbits out of the industrial hat. Sometimes basic conceptions are being short-circuited for the duration. Take a minimum. The industry was economically based on a plentiful supply of cheap electric power. In building aluminum plants in war times one of the major problems in finding available hydro-electric power or in obtaining steam generating equipment, which may take many months; another is in getting mercury-arc rectifiers to change the current off the lines from alternating to direct. At a huge new plant the Aluminum Company of America is building for the government in Arkansas, a clever engineer saved months of waiting by hooking up 78 gas-powered engines, readily available, to a battery of generators. The cost of the power was greater than it would have been from the steam generators which would have taken so long to get, but because it was direct current produced at point of use, the expensive rectifiers were unnecessary, power was produced at cost comparable to steam, and the aluminum program sailed ahead on time.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR — Men's "straw" hats for next summer woven of cotton yarns to simulate straws... Plan of OPA's Rolf Nugent to "buy now, take post-war delivery" — particularly applicable to automobiles, radios, refrigerators, typewriters... Bricks made out of powdered milk... Dry ice is now being considered as an aid in killing insects. By packing it with the insecticide in a small squirt gun, the spray is ejected with much greater force than can be obtained by hand. Also the carbon dioxide gas given off as the dry ice melts adds to the toxic effect of the spray... Monsanto Chemical Company has found a new and easier way to "polish up the handle of the big front door"—they find that ferric sulfate has many advantages over other chemicals previously used to put the shine on brass... Metal backed maps, provided with magnetic markers, enable users to change the positions of pins without leaving unsightly marks of former locations.

War Glider Points To Air Passenger And Freight Train Of The Future

NEW YORK (IPS) — The glider has been developed by American industry to the point where it is equal in performance to those being built in Germany which has long specialized in the art. When the shipping shortage became more acute, the Army announced its determination to take part of the load in airplanes. It ordered and programmed thousands of cargo planes. Now it is ordering thousands of cargo gliders, and a big glider program is under way for the training of pilots.

While cargo is now the issue, combat troops can use the same type of glider. Big jobs may be made (gliders use nearly all non-strategic materials; mild steel, wood) capable of carrying the load of a large two-engined commercial plane. Such a craft would have room for several squads of troops and all the trappings of war.

Development of the glider for aerial transport of troops and equipment may pave the way for a

OPA On Guard Against Chislers

The Office of Price Administration is continuing its battle to keep the cost of living down and to prevent evasion of the price ceiling regulations.

In the last week the OPA warned bedding manufacturers and dealers that they must stop combination sales forcing purchasers to buy unwanted merchandise to get an article which could be bought as a separate unit last March. In other words, no one can insist on your purchasing a bedroom suite to obtain a bed-spring.

Other important developments of the price week were the placing of a ceiling on lamb, and the ruling that from now on, milk and cream in bottles or paper containers cannot cost more than it did last March and that persons selling drinks in paper cups or containers must stop charging a separate price for the cups if they did not charge for them last March.

far-reaching revolution in commercial air transport. The glider may make possible an aerial freight and passenger train of the future, permitting slashing reduction in the cost of carrying air-borne commerce. A given aircraft-engine horsepower will haul far more load in towed gliders than it will haul in one powered plane. Reliable engineers claim a ratio of four-to-one is not extravagant.

Experts say glider trains cannot yet cross oceans; they are slow, and must follow fuel trains. But they can range the United States, the Caribbean, South America, and might reach Russia via Alaska.

The glider is not just an airplane without a motor; it is the closest approach to a bird that aeronautical engineers have been able to devise. It can come down wherever there are 50 feet of flat ground. It lands on skids instead of wheels, thus stopping quickly.

Wooden-soled shoes, designed to conserve war essential leather, are now being produced by a Midwest shoe manufacturer. Hard maple and sugar pine are the woods used.

In less than two years, one war material manufacturer has placed 3,800 subcontracts with 725 companies in 151 cities.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49a, requiring all bills passed by the Legislature on and after January 1, 1945, appropriating money for any purpose, to be sent to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for his approval, and fixing the duties of the Comptroller with reference thereto; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by the General Revenue Fund on September 1, 1943; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof; and providing for the necessary appropriation to defray necessary expenses for the submission of this amendment.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, immediately after Section 49, a section to be known as Section 49a, to read as follows:

"Section 49a. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts in advance of each Regular Session of the Legislature to prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature upon its convening a statement under oath showing fully the financial condition of the State Treasury at the close of the last fiscal period and an estimate of the probable receipts and disbursements for the then current fiscal year. There shall also be contained in said statement an itemized estimate of the anticipated revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received by and for the State from all sources showing the fund accounts to be credited during the succeeding biennium and said statement shall contain such other information as may be required by law. Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any Special Session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes.

"From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid. From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such finding thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation.

"For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by said fund on September 1, 1943, provided such bonds shall not draw interest in excess of two (2) per cent per annum and shall mature within twenty (20) years from date."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas, at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas by amending Section 33 of Article 16, of the Constitution of Texas so as to permit the accounting officers of this State to draw pay warrants for salaries to officers of the United States Army or Navy who are assigned to duties in State Institutions of higher education.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 33 of Article 16, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 33. The accounting officers of this State shall neither draw nor pay a warrant upon the Treasury in favor of any person, for salary or compensation as agent, officer or appointee, who holds at the same time any other office or position of honor, trust or profit, under this State or the United States, except as prescribed in this Constitution. Provided, that this restriction as to the drawing and paying of warrants upon the Treasury shall not apply to officers of the National Guard of Texas, the National Guard Reserve, the Officers Reserve Corps of the United States, nor to enlisted men of the National Guard, the National Guard Reserve, and the Organized Reserves of the United States, nor to retired officers of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, and retired warrant officers and retired enlisted men of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, nor to officers of the United States Army or Navy who are assigned to duties in State Institutions of higher education."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the third day of November, 1942, at which all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"For the Constitutional Amendment permitting the accounting officers of this State to draw and pay warrants for salaries to officers of the United States Army or Navy who are assigned to duties in State Institutions of higher education."

"Against the Constitutional Amendment permitting the accounting officers of this State to draw and pay warrants for salaries to officers of the United States Army or Navy who are assigned to duties in State Institutions of higher education."

Each voter shall scratch out one of said clauses on the ballots, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed amendment.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State, and the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated from any funds in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated to defray the expenses of printing said proclamation and of holding said election.

proposing an Amendment to Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the lending of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) of the Permanent School Fund for the construction of a State office building or buildings; providing for repayment to the Permanent School Fund; providing for the submission of this Amendment to the voters of this State; and providing for the necessary proclamation and expense of publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 49-b, which shall read as follows:

"Section 49-b. The Legislature may provide by law for the issuance of not more than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas to the Permanent School Fund for the construction in the City of Austin of a State office building or buildings, and the State Board of Education is hereby directed to invest not more than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) of the Permanent School Fund therein. Such bonds shall be executed on behalf of the State of Texas by the Governor and Comptroller, and shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed three (3) per cent per annum, payable annually; they shall be of such denomination as may be prescribed by law, and shall be payable in not to exceed twenty-five (25) equal installments beginning one (1) year from date of issuance; and the State Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to set aside into a special fund annually at the beginning of each fiscal year until all of said bonds shall have been paid off and discharged, a sufficient amount of the first moneys coming into the Treasury for the use and benefit of the General Revenue Fund not otherwise heretofore obligated to the payment of bonds and interest, a sufficient amount to pay the interest becoming due and the bonds maturing during such fiscal year. From said Fund, the Treasurer shall pay the interest on said bonds as it comes due, to the credit of the Available School Fund; and shall pay off said bonds as they become due and deposit the amounts so paid to the credit of the Permanent School Fund. The power hereby granted to issue bonds is expressly limited to the amount stated and to five (5) years from and after the adoption of this grant by the people."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at an election to be held on the third day of November, 1942, at which election all voters favoring such proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the investment of not more than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) of the Permanent School Fund in bonds of the State of Texas to be issued for the construction of a State office building or buildings and providing for the repayment of the said sum of money to the Permanent School Fund."

Those voters opposing said Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the investment of not more than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) of the Permanent School Fund in bonds of the State of Texas to be issued for the construction of a State office building or buildings and providing for the repayment of the said sum of money to the Permanent School Fund."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Sec. 4. The sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of said publication and election.

proposing an Amendment to Article V of the Constitution of Texas by providing that the Legislature shall have the power by local or general law, in counties having a population in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) inhabitants to create other courts having exclusive jurisdiction or concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in civil, criminal or probate matters; fixing the time for an election therefor; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for a proclamation of such election and the advertisement thereof; and making an appropriation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 22-a and reading as follows: "Section 22-a. The Legislature shall have the power, by local or general law (without the necessity of advertising any such local law), in counties having a population in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) inhabitants according to the then last Federal Census, to create other courts having either exclusive jurisdiction or concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in civil, criminal or probate matters."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at a special election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, at which time all voters favoring such proposed Amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the following:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution, providing that the Legislature may in certain counties create other courts having either exclusive jurisdiction or concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in civil, criminal or probate matters."

Those voters opposed to such Amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the following:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution, providing that the Legislature may in certain counties create other courts having either exclusive jurisdiction or concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in civil, criminal or probate matters."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the Amendment, the same shall become part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have it published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of this State.

Sec. 4. The sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of said publication and election.

RANCH RECORDS

Are More Important

Today Than Ever

Government regulations and new war tax programs make it more important today than ever before that every business keep accurate records of its operations.

The ranch business is no exception. Your government must necessarily levy stiff taxes to finance the gigantic war effort now under way, and tax agents are going to be stricter in demanding compliance with all regulations. Records of all operations are going to be increasingly important in proving up your income tax returns.

It is not too late now to bring your records up to date covering this year's business with the Stockman's RANCH RECORD BOOK. Your cancelled checks or your present records can be transcribed to this handy record book, together with your income and inventory records and you can have your entire record in a simplified form contained in one volume.
