BOOKS

The United States has become the greatest nation of readers in the world. We read more newspapers and magazines than all the rest of the world put together, and now we are becoming the greatest book readers. Only Germany and Denmark print more books in proportion to population. And we are reading books of real value. The most popular book of the day is the most powerful argument against war ever penned. It is called in its English translation "All Quiet on the Western Front." Its author, Erich Maria Remarque, served in the trenches with the German army. In America, England, France, as well as in Germany, it has outsold the most popular novels ever published. Next in popularity is a biography, "Henry VIII," by Francis Hackett.

TAFT

On the night of November 3rd, 1908, the telegraph operator at a temporary instrument set up on the back verandah of Charles B. Taft's home in Cincinnati received a dispatch reading "Bryan concedes Taft's election." He rushed into the great art gallery and shouted the news to the little group assembled there. Alice Roosevelt Longworth ran the full length of the big room, threw her arms around the neck of the president-elect and gave him a resounding smack. Her kiss was the first congratulatory gesture of the evening.

Everybody was invited to drink to the health of the host's distinguished brother. Will Taft hesitated. Then:

"I'll take water, Charlie," he said. "I think the President of the United States ought to set the example of temperance."

That was many years before Prohibition, but everybody present agreed and applauded the spirit which moved the new President. From then until the end of his term in the White House Mr. Taft never took a drink except an occasional glass of wine at state banquets.

CHURCHES

The Federated Council of Churches of Christ in America has for its purpose the effort to bring all of the various Christian denominations into co-operation for social service and to make common cause against the pagan spirit which denies the value of spiritual things. Against this materialism it is making surprising headway. Great leaders in business and industry and in the professions are joining the movement and pledging themselves to the maintenance of Christian standards in their business relations.

Sectarian lines are disappearing. The movement for the union of the Protestant Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal and Presbyterian churches into one great denomination is making headway. The Congregational and Christian (Disciples) churches have already united. All the signs of the times indicate an approaching great spiritual revival, with the various sects making common cause against the pagan materialism which has been infecting the youth of America ever since the war.

OFFICIALS OF COUNTY SEEK RE-ELECTION

Sheriff Willis, Tom Casbeer and Geo. Russell Make Announcement

ONE CONTEST IN CO

Race For Assessor Is Only Spice In Program To Date

The Crockett County political pot was brought to a sudden boil this week with simultaneous announcements from three county officers for re-election to their respective posts.

They are Sheriff W. S. Willis, County Treasurer Tom Casbeer and County and District Clerk George Russell.

All of these officers are so far unopposed in their race for re-election, but are throwing their hats into the ring at this time to let their friends know they are in the race for the nominations at the coming Democratic primary July 26.

Both Sheriff Willis and County Clerk Russell are rounding out their first terms in their respective offices, while Mr. Casbeer is seeking re-election to his thirteenth term in that office.

Sheriff Willis was elected to that office two years ago, defeating W. H. Augustine, who held the post eight years. He has been a resident of Crockett County for nearly seven years, being in the employ of the maintenance department of the State Highway Commission before accepting a position as maintenance superintendent of county roads under the County Commissioners Court, in which capacity he served for several years before being elected sheriff.

Mr. Willis offers his candidacy for re-election on the record he has made in the office during the last two years. He has held the office just long enough to become thoroughly acquainted with its requirements and says that if he is re-elected he will be better able to serve the people of this county as their sheriff through the experience he has gained in his first term.

"I may not have pleased everybody, that's a hard thing to do," Mr. Willis said, "but I have done the best I could to administer the office the way I thought it should be done and that policy will be continued as long as I am sheriff of this county."

Mr. Russell, like Sheriff Willis, is basing his candidacy for re-election on his first term's record in office.

"My records in the clerk's office speak for themselves," Mr. Russell said. "County and district records are open to every voter in the county and I invite them to inspect these records if they so choose."

Mr. Russell is a native of Crockett County, having been reared and educated here. His experience in the office of district and county clerk covers a period of five years. He was for three years chief deputy under Clerk Tom Nolen, handling during that period all classes of duties that come to this official. He was no novice in the office, then, when he was elected two years ago in his race against E. B. Baggett, Jr., incumbent. He solicits the support of the voters on his record in office and his knowledge of its duties through five years experience.

Next to County Judge Chas. E. Davidson, County Treasurer Tom Casbeer is the oldest county official in point of service. He has held that office continuously for twenty-four years, being re-elected without opposition except on three occasions. He is an old timer here, coming to this section before Crockett County was organized. He has been a deputy sheriff under the various sheriffs of Crockett County for the last fourteen years, in addition to the office of

Vargas Held On Shooting Charge

Mexican Injured Saturday Night In Affray Here

Santiago Vargas, local Mexican, was released under $500 bond Sunday following a shooting affray in the Mexican suburb of Ozona Saturday night which resulted in the wounding of Anton Leguirre.

Leguirre suffered a bullet wound in the shoulder from a pistol alleged to have been fired by Vargas following an argument. Trouble between the two Mexicans is said to have been of long standing. A brother of the wounded man was recently placed under peace bond following an alleged attack on Vargas.

Vargas faces a charge of assault with intent to murder, which will be investigated by the grand jury convening April 7.

Ed. Yarbrough For Dist. Atty.

Appointee Asks Election To Succeed Self In 112th District

Ed Yarbrough, now serving as district attorney for the 112th Judicial District, announces his candidacy for election to this office, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held July 26, this year.

He was appointed district attorney by Governor Moody to serve until election and qualification of his successor and he desires to succeed himself by election to the office.

The legislature created the 112th Judicial District last year, which is composed of Upton, Crockett, Pecos, Sutton and Kimble Counties. The law creating the district went into effect on the 18th day of last October when Mr. Yarbrough was appointed. He took the oath of office on the 21st day of October and has been actively engaged in the discharge of the duties of the office since that time.

He says that by the time his present term of office expires, under the Governor's appointment, that he will have served only a little more than one year and will then be well enough acquainted with the people and officers of the district to render good and efficient service and he is asking the voters to elect him to this office and give him a fair trial.

Mr. Yarbrough has practiced law in West Texas for the past several years but this is the first time that he has ever held a county or State office. He says that he is not a politician and that he does not know many political tricks, and if elected to the office of district attorney it will be because the voters have confidence in his ability as a lawyer and as a man who will do the square thing by all with whom he comes in contact as district attorney. He says that he will present the law and the facts in each and every case as he finds them to be and the poorest man will receive the same kind of treatment as the richest, at his hands.

This is a large district and voters live far apart but Mr. Yarbrough says that he expects to meet each voter personally before the election. He asks the voters to investigate his standing as a citizen and as a lawyer and then if they believe that he is qualified to fill the place he will appreciate their support and influence, and any assistance given him in his campaign for this important office will be greatly appreciated.

"If the people of Crockett County haven't found out all there is to be known about me in twenty-four years they'll never find out," was Mr. Casbeer's comment on his official announcement for re-election to his thirteenth term.

Baker-Hemphill Hold Style Show

French Opening Fashion Show At City Auditorium March 28

"For the first time West Texas women will have an opportunity of viewing a French opening as held in Paris, with the announcement Saturday that Baker-Hemphill Company is staging a fashion extravaganza in the city auditorium, Friday afternoon and night March 28th.

Because of their sensational success in staging "Around the Clock" last year and the enthusiasm displayed by women following that event, Baker-Hemphill decided to go the limit this season by staging an event that has played in only two Texas cities, and that is sponsored annually by the leading fashion stores in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, and other large cities of the East, as a means of showing the outstanding fashions of the hour.

Over sixty original French dresses imported from France by the local store's representatives from the last Paris Openings will be shown together with an American replica of each model. The dresses and gowns are the outstanding successes from such internationally famous Paris couturiers as Chanel, Jenny, Lanvin, Paquin, Patou, Vionnet, Worth, Regny, Premit, Loeffel, Lelong, and Louisblouanger, and are the very smartest fashions for spring and summer.

Never before has such an array of imported original French dresses been shown in West Texas, and each dress will be shown with the correct hat and accessories. The audience will be furnished with a program giving the number, designer and price of each dress and the replica will be shown at the same time as the original so that comparisons can be drawn. The original dresses have been brought into the United States under bond and only replicas can be sold.

The mannequins themselves are natives of France, and have been selected to model these gowns because of their charm and poise. The twelve are famous in the world's dress salons.

Baker-Hemphill will make special arrangement for seating out-of-town visitors this season and definite announcement as to seating arrangements will be announced in a few days. Vaudeville sketches will be given between promenades and music will be furnished by Keating's Serenaders.

CLEAN-UP MAY CONTINUE FOR SEVERAL DAYS

Four Trucks, Twelve Men At Work Hauling Away Trash

MAKE THORO JOB

Continue As Long As Any Trash Remains, President Says

With four trucks and twelve men employed at the job of cleaning up Ozona, the Woman's Club and the County Commissioners are making good their announced intention of making this one of the most thorough clean-ups ever staged here.

The campaign, which got under way Monday morning, will be continued as long as there is trash or rubbish in the town, according to Mrs. Lee Childress, president of the Woman's Club.

It was expected that the drive could be completed in a week, but even with the trucks and men available, it is now believed that it will be necessary to continue the work a few days into next week before the town is completely covered.

Through the co-operation of county officials in the work, the huge quantities of trash that are being hauled to the dump ground each day is being disposed of in such manner that it is not making the dump ground a greater eyesore than formerly. County crews made a driveway through the dump ground to the rear of the plot and the trash that is being hauled there during this campaign is being hauled well into the area and fired, all inflammable matter being disposed of by fire.

Woman's Club committees in charge of the clean-up work are anxious to have reports of any trash collection that are missed by the trucks. If the trucks have been in your neighborhood and missed your accumulation, call the supervisor in charge of your section and report this fact.

Good Citizenship Medal To Student

Sons American Revolution Award To Be Made Here

The final decision will be made by a committee of teachers and the superintendent, from the nominees as chosen by each class.

2. Co-operation as evidenced by the record in respect for authority, respect for property, respect for the rights of others, and courtesy.
3. Leadership, as evidenced by what the pupil has done to make the school a better school.

Once again the voters of Crockett County are called upon to make their decision on this question of whether or not this county shall issue bonds in the sum of $375,000 for the purpose of matching state and federal funds toward the construction of $1,500,000 worth of good roads in Crockett County.

This question will face the voters a third time on April 12. This time the decision of the voters will be final, in the opinion of leaders of the good roads movement who have spared no pains in getting the legal tangles encountered in the two former efforts straightened out. This time a two-thirds majority vote in favor of the issuance of these bonds will mean that Crockett County will get the good roads she has tried so long to provide for. This time, those who have had charge of the preparation of the papers declare, the issue will go through without a hitch of any kind.

It is the hope of this paper and those who have the good of the county at heart, that the majority piled up in the coming election on April 12 will be greater than that on December 16, when voters of the county approved the issue by a majority of 9 to 1. There should not be a single opposing vote in the next election. An overwhelming majority should be accepted as the ruling decision. If, however, there are still those who do not see the merit in this proposition, it is their privilege and duty to cast a ballot in the coming election, and it is to be hoped that every voter in the county will register his opinion on the question, whether for or against it. The point is, that this is a question of too much importance to stay away from the polls and "let George do it."

Tons and tons of rubbish are being hauled out of Ozona and to the dump ground. The 1930 clean-up campaign seems destined to fulfill the hopes of the Woman's Club to make this the most thorough clean-up ever. The club is to be complimented on its efficient handling of the project.

Ben Ingham, County Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, who is in a Temple sanitarium recovering from a serious X-Ray burn, has an ambition which he hopes to realize before his term as commissioner expires.

That ambition is to beautify the public grounds of the county in Ozona. One of these is already under consideration at the hands of the Commissioners Court, that of putting a retaining wall from the courthouse to the Methodist and Baptist churches on either side and filling in with dirt. The other is to make a beauty spot out of the park.

Mr. Ingham sees a vision of these two projects completed. The courthouse grounds with flowers and shrubs decorating the hillside on both sides of the courthouse and the city park laid out with flower beds, flowering shrubs and decorative plants, cut up with flag walks, rustic benches, possibly a fountain, etc. If this dream of Commissioner Ingham's is realized it will make Ozona one of the prettiest towns in the state and these downtown beauty spots will remain a monument to a progressive and aesthetic county governing body. And incidentally, Mr. Ingham's dream coincides exactly with that which this editor has cherished since he first laid eyes on that city park.

Chevrolet announces

A NEW

SERVICE POLICY

The Chevrolet Motor Company and its dealers are pleased to announce a new service policy—one of the most liberal ever offered on a low-priced automobile.

Put into force as a written agreement given to the purchaser by the Chevrolet dealer when the car is delivered—it offers the following provisions:

- 1 Every Chevrolet owner receives his car from the dealer in perfect condition—thoroughly lubricated, properly adjusted, and ready to operate efficiently from the first mile of ownership.
- 2 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free inspection and adjustment of his car at the end of the first 500 miles of usage.
- 3 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free inspection of his car every 1000 miles thereafter, so long as the car is in operation.
- 4 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free replacement of any part which may prove defective in workmanship or material, within the terms of Chevrolet's standard warranty. This includes both parts and labor.
- 5 Provision number 4 will be carried out by any Chevrolet dealer in the United States. As a result, the Chevrolet owner may travel to any part of the country, with assurance that the guarantee on materials and workmanship will remain in force.

This new policy constitutes proof of Chevrolet's high quality—for such liberal provisions could only be made in connection with a car built of fine materials to exacting standards of workmanship.

Back of this policy, and assuring its successful operation, is one of the most complete and efficient service organizations in the world.

There are more than 10,000 Authorized Chevrolet Dealer Service Stations in the United States alone. Each employs skilled mechanics thoroughly trained at Chevrolet Service Schools. Each has specially designed tools and machinery developed exclusively for Chevrolet service work. And each has on hand, at all times, an adequate stock of genuine Chevrolet replacement parts.

Chevrolet's flat-rate charges, including both parts and labor, are the lowest in the industry on many service operations!

In considering the purchase of a low-priced automobile, think what this service means—in terms of lasting satisfaction, as well as in increased economy.

GUNMAN'S BLUFF

Edgar Wallace

COPYRIGHT BY EDGAR WALLACE

It was a telegram addressed to Margaret Maddison:

You can hardly expect me to come back to you. In a few months I will furnish you with sufficient evidence to enable you to secure a divorce. I am not entirely without money, therefore, I am not entirely without pleasant consolations. "That's that," she said. Her tone was light, but there was an agitation in her heart which she had not imagined possible.

It was signed "Luke" and had been handed in at Paris at eight-thirty that morning.

Consolations! And this was Luke Maddison, the idealist—a vulgar philanderer, who had fled to—consolations!

"I'm rather surprised that you get this," said Danton gravely. "I shouldn't have thought he would have troubled to wire."

A few days later, on the center page of the Post-Herald Margaret saw the photograph of a haggard and unshaven man. It had evidently been taken in a hospital bed. His eyes were closed; the photograph just showed the edge of the sheet a few inches under his chin.

"Do You Know This Man?" demanded the headline.

Margaret opened a drawer of her desk, took out a folded sheet of paper and handed it to Morrell.

She glanced at the letter-press, and saw that it had reference to a murder that had been committed in South London, and that he whose picture was shown had been present and had only escaped death by the narrowest of margins. Not even his dearest friend would have recognized Luke Maddison from the photograph had not been taken until the eleventh day of his detention in hospital, and it had been taken in a very poor light.

They put Luke Maddison in a private ward, and one morning they left a little temperature chart within his view, and he saw that his name was Smith.

"How long have I been Smith?" His voice was extraordinarily strong, remembering that only a few days before he had not been able to speak above a whisper.

The good-natured nurse grinned cheerfully.

"If we don't know people's names we call them Smith—preferably Bill," she said. "But you're going to be good, aren't you, and tell us yours?"

He shook his head.

"No, I don't think so. Smith is a very good name, borne by some very nice people. If my name had been Smith, I might have been a better man," he added whimsically.

Since they had moved him into the private ward the burly-looking policeman who had loomed out of his dreams, and seemed part of them, had been taken away. That day they thought he was dying a police magistrate had been summoned to take his deposition; but he had told nothing which was of the slightest consequence or value. Moreover, he had heard one detective say to another that he would not be of the slightest value as a witness at the inquest. So he could afford to lie and watch the hours pass, and the pale light of the sun move across the green wall and night come and the lights.

He did not care really what happened after. It was his sixteenth or seventeenth day in bed—he was not sure which—when the sister came in.

"A friend of yours wishes to see you," she said. "He says he knows you."

Luke frowned.

"A friend?" he repeated. "I'm sure he's mistaken me for somebody else."

"No, he particularly asked for you. He said the man who was stabbed; of course, I didn't tell him your name was Smith, because it isn't."

"Oh, yes, it is, sister—I'm profoundly curious; let him come in."

The man who came in he had never seen before. His shabbiness was relieved by a collar of such surprising whiteness that Luke guessed it had been bought for the occasion, as also had the violent necktie. He was a man with a very small face, sharp-featured; his heavily lidded eyes glanced furtively left and right before he came stealthily to the bed.

"All right, sister." His voice was high and husky (Luke remembered that Lewing's voice was that way, and wondered if this was a relative).

"Is this your friend?" asked the nurse.

The man nodded.

"That's him all right, miss." The nurse disappeared, and the man bent over the bed. He smelt musty and unsavory, as though his clothes had been stored in a damp place.

"Joe says that as you didn't squeak he's going to make things right for you."

"Didn't what?" asked Luke.

"Squeak. Don't be funny! When you come out, see him." He slipped a dirty piece of paper under the pillow, and Luke heard a well-remembered rustle. "There's a fiver there for you. Joe says he'll look after you."

"God bless him!" said Luke soberly, "for if ever there was a man who wanted looking after, it's me!"

He left the hospital on a sunny afternoon, and could walk out with out assistance, for he had carried no baggage. He was strong enough to walk, for he had taken an appreciable amount of exercise on the terrace of the hospital; but he had lost weight and his clothes hung on him loosely. The mysterious man had told him to go to Mrs. Fraser, at 339 Ginnet Street.

He pushed open the door, a cracked bell clanged, and after a while there emerged through a door leading to the shop parlor a sharp-featured woman with brassy hair, who greeted him with all the superficial unfriendliness which he discovered was the normal attitude of the small tradesman in this neighborhood.

"I am Mrs. Fraser," she said.

"I was told to call and see you," he began, when she interrupted him quickly.

"Are you the man from the hospital—Smith?"

Luke smiled and nodded. She lifted the flap of the counter.

"Come in, will you?" Her tone was respectful, almost fawning. "I thought you wasn't coming out

him quickly.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF CROCKETT COUNTY—GREETING:

You are hereby Commanded to summon Joseph Baumgartner and the unknown heirs of Joseph Baumgartner by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County. If there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Crockett County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Ozona, Texas, on the 1st Monday in April, A. D. 1930, the same being the 7th day of April, A. D. 1930, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 7th day of February, A. D. 1930, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 503, wherein Thomas T. Holloway and Thomas Jones, Independent Executors of the Estate of E. M. Powell, deceased, are Plaintiffs, and Joseph Baumgartner and the unknown heirs of Joseph Baumgartner are Defendants, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action being as follows:

That on the first day of February, 1930, Plaintiffs, as such Executors, were lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land situated in Crockett County, Texas, being all of the North half of survey 37, block GH, GC&SF Ky. Co. land containing 320 acres, described as follows: Beginning at a rock mound at NW corner of survey 37, this block for SE corner of this tract; thence West 1900 vrs. to SE corner of Sur. 45 this block; thence North 950 vrs. to NW corner of original survey 37; thence East 1900 vrs. to stake and mound in W line of survey 26 this block; thence S 950 vrs. to Beginning, patented to E. M. Powell by the State of Texas, April 9th, 1885, by letter patents Nos. 247 Vol. 88; that on the day and year aforesaid Defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiffs therefrom and unlawfully withheld from them the possession thereof, to their damage in the sum of $5000.00; that the reasonable annual rental value of said land and premises is $200.00; They show further in this relation that on or about the 23rd day of July, 1888, E. M. Powell conveyed the aforesaid lands to Joseph Baumgartner, who executed his certain promissory vendor's lien notes in consideration thereof; that in the conveyance from Powell to Baumgartner the superior title and Vendor's lien was retained to secure the payment of the aforesaid notes and indebtedness. That thereafter, more than forty years ago, the said Joseph Baumgartner defaulted in the payment of the consideration for said lands and the above described notes, wholly failed and refused to liquidate and pay off the same, and abandoned the lands so conveyed to him and left the State, without any provision for the payment of the consideration for said land, without the knowledge or consent of the said E. M. Powell. That because of the default and abandonment by such purchaser E. M. Powell re-entered and retook possession of said land cancelling and annulling at the same time the Executory purchase and sale to said Joseph Baumgartner; that in addition to the superior title and vendor's lien, said Joseph Baumgartner executed deed of trust on said land to H. W. Baylor, Trustee for use and benefit of E. M. Powell the legal holder and owner of said indebtedness; that he made default in the terms and conditions of said deed of trust, and by reason thereof said E. M. Powell was compelled and did cancel and annul said conveyance aforesaid, and retook possession of said land and has been in peaceable continuous use and possession under title and the cancellation of said contract of purchase and sale, continuously for more than thirty years, that by reason thereof defendants lost all right, interest and title in said land; that plaintiffs have been in peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of said land, cultivating, using and enjoying the same under deeds duly registered, and paying taxes thereon as they accrued for a period of more than five years preceding January 1st, 1930, and before the commencement of this suit; that they have been in continuous, peaceable and adverse possession of said land claiming, cultivating, using and enjoying the same without adverse claim by any one for a period of more than ten years prior to the commencement of this suit; that all of said land has at all said time been enclosed within an enclosure of less than five thousand acres by fence; that plaintiffs and those whom under they claim title have been in possession of said land peaceably under adverse claim of right, in good faith under a chain of title from the State of Texas, with all the muniments of title duly recorded in Crockett County, Texas, for more than twenty-five years prior to the filing of this suit or the accrual of any cause of action to defendants, claiming same adversely in fee simple without adverse claim by any one; that by reason of all of said facts plaintiffs claim said land by the five, ten and twenty-five years STATUTES OF LIMITATION.

Wherefore, they pray that the defendants be cited to appear and answer and upon trial, they have judgment for the title and possession of said lands, for writ of restitution, for cancellation of any claims of the defendants of cloud upon their title, for cancellation of the aforesaid conveyance from E. M. Powell to Joseph Baumgartner, and the record thereof in Crockett County, as a cloud upon their title, for writ of possession costs of suit, and general and equitable relief.

Herein Fail Not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Ozona, Texas,

On this 25th day of February A. D. 1930.

WHEREAS, there has been filed in the Commissioners Court of Crockett County, Texas, a petition for an Election signed by P. L. Childress and more than one hundred other property tax-paying voters, residents of Crockett County, Texas, reading as follows: "PETITION FOR ELECTION Ozona, Texas March 10, 1930.

TO THE HONORABLE COMMISSIONERS COURT OF CROCKETT COUNTY, TEXAS:

We the undersigned, resident property tax-paying voters of Crockett County, Texas, hereby respectfully petition your Honorable Body to order an Election to be held in said Crockett County, to determine whether or not the bonds of said County shall be issued in an amount of Three Hundred Seventy-five Thousand ($375,000.00) dollars, for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, in connection with State or Federal aid or both on Highway 27 and the Ozona and Barnhart road in this county, and at such Election to have submitted to the resident property tax paying voters of said county, the question whether or not taxes shall be levied on all taxable property of said Crockett County, subject to taxation for the purpose of paying interest on said Bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity, specifying in your order the amount of Bonds proposed to be issued and that they be issued in denominations of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) each and also specifying in said order that said bonds shall bear five per cent interest per annum, payable semi-annually, and mature thirty years after their date, with option of paying one or more of said denominations at any interest payment date five years after the date of said bonds."

and it appearing that under the law it is mandatory on this Court to order such election, it is therefore ordered that an election be held throughout Crockett County, in the several election precincts thereof on the 12th day of April, A.D. 1930, to determine whether or not bonds of said County shall be issued in an amount of Three Hundred Seventy-five Thousand ($375,000.00) dollars to be used in connection with State or Federal aid or both, for the purpose of construction and operation of a macadamized, graveled or paved road through said Crockett County, (this court having this day passed an order designating Highway No. 27 and the Ozona-Barnhart Road as the Highways on which the funds derived from said bonds shall be expended), such bonds to be issued in denominations of One Thousand ($1,000.00) dollars each and bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually and to mature thirty years after their date, with option of paying one or more of said denominations at any interest payment date five years after the date of said bonds; and that ad valorem taxes are to be levied annually on all taxable property within said county sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund to pay such bonds at the maturity thereof. Such election to be held and returns made as in general elections and notice of the election shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in Crockett County, for three successive weeks and in addition thereto for three weeks prior to said election notices shall be posted at least four public places in Crockett County, one of which shall be at the Court House door thereof. All qualified voters who are property tax paying may vote at said election. All voters desiring to support the proposition shall have written or printed upon their ballot the words "for the issuance of bonds" and those opposed, the words "against the issuance of bonds."

It is further ordered that the foregoing be published in the Ozona Stockman for three successive weeks.

She led the way into a frowsy little parlor and closed the door communicating with the shop care fully.

"It's lucky I had the room done up for you today," she said. "I'm a rare one for getting things done in time. Will you come this way, Mr. What's-your-name?"

"Curiosity impelled him to follow her. At the first sight of that dingy shop he had been tempted to find a new foothold to life; but now he went after the woman almost gaily. For that was the ineradicable weakness of Luke Madison; a consuming curiosity as to what would happen next.

At some time or other there had been built a small annex to the house; the floors were firmer, the doors seemed heavier. She opened one of these and showed him into a room, the comfort of which was rather staggering. He expected to see something particularly uninviting, and it is possible that, had this been the case, he would have declined the lodging and gone elsewhere. But the bed was neat, the sheets spotless; the furniture, though plain, was ample, and a small fire burned in the grate. "To air the room," she explained, almost apologetically, and led him to understand that this luxury was impermanent.

Danty looked at Margaret in horrified amazement. His consternation was almost comic.

ey he gave you?" he stammered.

"Why shouldn't I? I have enough to live on," she said. "Mr. Stiles, as trustee of the fund, is making me a sufficient allowance."

He could only gaze at her, dumb founded. All his fine schemes had been blown away as a feather of steam is blown by a gale. She saved him the trouble of speaking and gave him time to recover himself, for she went on:

"Luke has never been in Paris since he went away—some interested person must have sent that wire. I almost feel as though I willed it to be sent, to give me some excuse for the terrible way I treated Luke." She smiled. "I should be awfully uncomfortable if I thought my money made any difference to you in your scheme, Danton. Happily, you're a rich man."

Danty nodded slowly. He had that morning received a warning from his banker, for he had been spending money and losing large sums at his favorite gaming house in the faith that his financial position would soon be unassailable.

With an effort he recovered his balance and forced his voice into a tone of indifference.

"I'm not sure that you're wise. Did you consult your lawyer?"

She shook her head.

"In matters of conscience one does not consult lawyers," she said quietly.

It was difficult enough to make intelligent conversation. Her attitude was a dead wall built across his easy path, and at the moment it seemed unscalable. He had to play for time now; his native cunning told him that so long as he had her on his side there was no reason why he should lose hope.

He had dreamed of hundreds of thousands; there still was an odd thousand or two for the picking and possibly a greater haul if he played the game shrewdly.

"When do you expect to leave for Ronda?"

"In two days' time," she said quickly—so quickly that he realized she had worked it out to the hour. "As soon as I am certain that Luke is in Ronda I shall go to him."

"Exactly what will you say to him?"

He could not resist asking this question, though he realized even as he spoke the words that he was guilty of a tactical error.

He saw her stiffen; that cold look came back to the beautiful eyes.

"That is entirely a matter between Luke and me," she said. "I have made this mess, I am afraid, and I must get out of it."

In his desperation he blundered again.

"You owe something to Rex's memory," he said. "I don't know what you're feeling about Luke, but there's a fact that can't be blinked. Luke could have saved your brother's life; instead, when he found he was ruined, he hounded him still further into the mire. His god is money—"

COMPARE VALUES BEFORE YOU BUY AN AUTOMOBILE

Low charges for distribution of the new Ford save you at least $50 to $75 in addition to the many savings in making the car

THESE are days when every dollar counts. The period of reckless spending is over. People are going back to the good old-fashioned principles of thrift and economy. Value is again being carefully considered.

Nowhere is this more important than in the selection of an automobile. For the purchase of a car represents a considerable investment. It should not be decided on hurriedly, but only after analyzing every important factor that concerns cost, value and performance. The time to do this is before buying—not afterward when it is too late.

ON THE basis of cost, performance and the actual comparative worth of every part, the new Ford is a value far above the price you pay. It is made of better materials and with greater care and accuracy because of the recognized efficiency and economy of Ford manufacturing methods.

The value of these methods is known and understood by millions of people. It is not generally realized, however, that these same principles of efficiency and economy are applied also to every step in the distribution of the Ford car. The low cost of selling, financing time payments, etc., means a direct saving to you of at least $50 to $75 in addition to the money saved by Ford economies in making the car. Here are three reasons why this is so.

(1) The Ford dealer does business on a smaller margin of profit because of the greater number of cars he sells. His discount or commission is the lowest of any automobile dealer. The difference in your favor, ranging from 25% to nearly 50%, comes right off the price you pay for the car.

(2) The Ford charges for financing are low.

(3) No expensive extra equipment is needed when you buy a Ford. The car leaves the factory ready for use. The f.o.b. price includes a Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield and an extra steel-spoke wheel, in addition to four Houdaille double-acting shock absorbers and fully enclosed four-wheel brakes. Any accessories you may wish for your individual taste are sold considerably below the usual prices. None of these charges for selling, financing or accessories is marked up or increased to cover a high trade-in allowance on a used car.

Get all the facts, therefore, before you buy and figure out just what you are getting for your automobile dollars. Go beyond the f.o.b. price and find out how much more you pay the dealer than the dealer pays at the factory. Analyze the used-car allowance. Compare all charges—item for item—value for value.

WHEN you do this you will have a new appreciation of what the Ford Motor Company and Ford dealers are doing to keep down the cost of Ford cars. You will also know why it is possible to put so much real value into the new Ford and still retain the low price. The money you pay goes for value in the car. It is not wasted in excessive costs in manufacturing or selling.

METHODIST NOTES

Last Sunday we preached the first of a series of sermons on the Apostles Creed. Next Sunday will be following up the same line. The subject will be "The Christ of God." The one following will be "Jesus, the Son of Mary." All who are interested in some of the fundamentals around which the church has been built will be interested in this series of sermons.

The sermon next Sunday morning will be on the subject concerning which the first great controversy of the church took place. We believe that one of the cardinal truths was saved for the church. If you are really interested in the foundation of the church this sermon and the others following will help you. We will in the near future preach on the Holy Catholic Church, which statement is so badly misunderstood by those who have not followed the history of the church.

Sunday School at 9:45. We have the class that will just suit you. There will not be preaching services Sunday night; but we invite all our folks to attend the services at the Baptist Church and hear Dr. Morrow's address.

Murphy Visits Ozona In Interest Of His Race For Congress

E. E. (Pat) Murphy, San Angelo Attorney and Candidate for Congress to succeed Hon. C. B. Hudspeth, spent Saturday visiting friends and making new acquaintances in Ozona. Mr. Murphy was enroute home from a trip through the Western end of the big Congressional District.

He stated that he had perfected organizations to support his candidacy in every county in the District and had visited in practically every county during the past sixty days. He will return to Crockett County within a few weeks on a speaking tour of the District at which time he will discuss the issue before the people. His platform, published in The Stockman in January, contained a plank favoring a protective tariff on Sheep and Goats, Wool and Mohair, cattle, hides etc.

Mr. Murphy is a native of West Texas and has been a member of the San Angelo Bar since 1915. He has often visited in Ozona and has many friends here, who feel that he is the proper man for Congress because he is a native of the ranch country.
