PISTOLS

The Massachusetts legislature is considering a bill to prohibit the manufacture of pistols within the state.

Nowhere else in the world are pistols sold so freely as in this country. And nowhere else in the world are there so many murders. Rifles and shotguns are used for sport. Pistols are made for shooting only one kind of game. Think that over. The only purpose for which a pistol is made or used is to kill human beings!

The knowledge that one carries a pistol invites attack. Most shootings arise from the fear that the other fellow will shoot first. The unarmed man is less likely to be shot than is the gun-toter.

IRISH

Wherever you go you can find folk of Irish descent. And wherever you find them you will find them with a finger in the political pie. Politics and fighting seem to be gifts with which every Irishman is born. One of the greatest leaders of the American Revolution was General Sullivan. A McMahon was a Marshal of France and afterwards President of the French Republic. Admiral O'Higgins is one of Chile's national heroes. O'Reilly street in Havana is named for a Cuban patriot of Irish descent. One of the members of the French cabinet which took office in February is named Hennessey. Tradition has it that the Obregons of Mexico were really O'Briens. Three Presidents of the United States have been of Irish stock. Men of practically unmixt Irish descent control the government of New York City and Boston and of many other American cities.

The secret seems to be in the Irishman's innate ability to adapt himself to his surroundings, a quality which many other races seem to lack.

CHINA

The North China Republic seems to be on the way to firm establishment on the basis of democracy as we understand it. That part of China has been free from war since 1928. The name of the old city of Peking has been changed to Peiping, which means "City of Peace." The leaders of the Nationalist party have inaugurated an educational program looking toward the establishment of a constitutional, representative government.

It may take China a hundred years, and probably will, to lift its people to the levels of civilization as we understand it, but the present movement is the most hopeful of any which have been undertaken.

SALVATION

Fifty years ago, on March 10, 1880, six young women dressed in strangelooking blue bonnets with red ribbons across them and wearing blue capes lined with scarlet, landed at Castle Garden. They were the advance guard of the Salvation Army, sent across the Atlantic by General William Booth, that inspired son of a Jewish pawn broker, to carry his militant Christianity, with the aid of the bass drum and the cornet, into the slums of America.

They and their successors have reached down to levels which the churches had never plumbed and lifted thousands of hopeless, weak and miserable human beings into a new life of faith, hope and courage.

No other organization or sect so endeared itself to our soldiers in France as did the Salvationists, with their human, simple, selfless helpfulness. No other religious organization today holds the respect of all intelligent church people as

EGG HUNT TO BE STAGED BY LIONS EASTER

Committees Named To Arrange Event For Ozona Children

TO BE CITY-WIDE

Every Child In City Invited To Participate

The rabbits will lay eggs by the hundreds for Ozona children this Easter if plans worked out by the Lions Club at its regular meeting Monday are carried out.

A city-wide Easter Egg hunt is to be staged by the Lions on Easter Sunday afternoon. The hunt will likely be staged on the flat just west of the Mike Couch grocery and along the draw.

It was at first planned to stage the egg hunt in the city park, but objection was made to this on the ground that the space was too small for the purpose.

Between 300 and 400 Ozona children are expected to take part in this big Easter Egg hunt. Enough eggs will be provided by the Lions Club to furnish plenty of surprises for all who take part.

Two committees were appointed at the club meeting Monday to be in charge of arrangements, one committee composed of Hugh Childress, Jr., and Richard Flowers to get the eggs and another composed of A. W. Jones, chairman, I. G. Rape, Claude Denham, John L. Bishop and Glenn Rutledge was named to see after hiding the eggs and conducting the hunt.

the Salvation Army does. It has proved itself the friend of the poor and unfortunate. Its leaders and members have justified their faith by their works.

CORPORATIONS

The business corporation, the shareholders in which have no liability for the company's debts beyond the amount of their investment, is only 100 years old. In 1930 the Commonwealth of Massachusetts enacted the first law permitting manufacturers to incorporate. Today more than nine-tenths of the nation's business, aside from farming, is done by or through corporations.

Corporate farming is the next step. Farmers are learning about corporations and corporate management through their selling cooperatives. In several sections corporations are operating farms successfully.

The most important thing we have learned about business corporations in 100 years is that their success depends almost entirely on their management. They do not run themselves. And the success of corporate farming will depend entirely upon the management of the farming corporations.

Barnhart Man Hurt In Blast

Hervery Gardenhire To Hospital After Explosion Monday

Hervery Gardenhire, 24, truck driver for the Texas Company oil station at Barnhart, was taken to a San Angelo hospital Monday afternoon suffering from severe burns about the face and body resulting from the explosion of a 5-50-gallon gasoline tank on the Joe Pierce ranch about 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Gardenhire was attempting to solder a hole in the big tank preparatory to installing in when the explosion occurred. He was using a blow-torch and it is thought the wind blew the torch over, the flame going into the bung of the tank and igniting gasoline fumes left in the tank when it was drained.

All of Gardenhire's clothing from his waist up was stripped from his body and torn into small bits. He was badly burned about the chest, arms and face. Two Mexicans, who were near the scene of the explosion, rushed to the injured man's aid. Mr. Pierce and J. B. Westfall, manager of the Texas Company station in Barnhart, who was in Ozona at the time, were notified by telephone and went to the Pierce ranch in Mr. Pierce's car, only 25 minutes being required for the 35-mile run.

Gardenhire was placed in a car and rushed to the San Angelo hospital where his condition Tuesday morning was described as serious. He is expected to recover, however.

Consolidation Of Schools Approved

Unanimous Vote In 2 Districts For Consolidation

Consolidation of the Ozona School District No. 1 and the Graham School District No. 2 for school purposes was unanimously approved by the voters of Crockett County at an election held in the two districts last Saturday.

There were a total of 64 votes cast for the consolidation in the Ozona box and 18 for the proposition in the Owens box in the No. 2 district, according to returns in the office of the County Clerk George Russell.

Consolidation of the two districts makes Crockett County as a whole the common school district. Trustees from the newly consolidated district No. 2 will be elected to sit with the board already in existence here.

Junction Man Opposes Appointee For Prosecutor's Post

Weaver H. Baker of Junction, prominent Kimble County ranchman and attorney, was in Ozona Thursday morning to announce his candidacy to the people of Crockett County for the office of district attorney of the 112th Judicial District, subject to the Democratic primaries.

He was county attorney of Kimble County eighteen months, until December 1920, when he was named County Judge, which office he held four years.

High School Nine Defeats R. Springs In 15-16 Swatfest

Rallying in the last half of the ninth inning to break a 15-15 tie, the Ozona High School Lions Saturday defeated the Rocksprings High School nine 16 to 15 on the local diamond in the first game of the baseball season for the locals.

The game was more or less loosely played on both sides, but the Ozona lads showed excellent promise of developing a snappy team before the season is far advanced. Roger Dudley pitched an excellent game for the locals, with Bill Friend receiving behind the plate.

Rusty Smith In Assessor Race

Three-Cornered Contest Develops For County Office

A three-cornered race for the office of county tax assessor of Crockett County developed this week with the official entry of Rusty Smith into the running.

Rusty Smith and W. M. Johnigan are opposing O. W. Smith in his race for re-election to the office of tax assessor, an office he has held ten years. O. W. Smith and Mr. Johnigan having previously announced their candidacy for the office.

The latest entrant, unlike his two opponents, has never held a public office. He has been a resident of Crockett County eleven years and is well known throughout the county.

"I'm just a poor boy trying to get along," was Rusty's description of the basis for his candidacy in this race. "I have been in Crockett County long enough to know nearly everybody in the county and to know property values in the county. I believe I am qualified to fill the office and I will do the best I can to discharge the duties of the office if I am elected."

For the last five years he has been engaged in the general practice of law with the firm of Stevenson, Baker & Knetch of Junction and Seguin, the firm being composed of Coke Stevenson and Mr. Baker of Junction, and Fred Knetch of Seguin.

At one time Mr. Baker received the endorsement of approximately 10,000 persons in around ten West Texas counties for appointment to the State Highway Commission. He is popular throughout the dis-

Clean-Up Drive Concluded Tues.

Tons Of Trash Hauled To Dump During Two Weeks Campaign

This year's annual clean-up drive, sponsored by the Ozona Woman's Club and financed by the county, came to a successful conclusion Wednesday after more than two weeks of intensive work on the part of the citizenship and a fleet of four trucks and twelve men employed by the county in hauling away the year's accumulation of trash.

Many tons of rubbish, including cans, trash, old automobiles, junk iron and litter of all kinds were hauled out of Ozona to the dump ground during the period of the clean-up. Splendid co-operation on the part of residents of the town and business men resulted in one of the most thorough clean-ups ever staged here. Vacant lots, back yards and "catch-all corners" in various parts of the city were given a thorough cleaning. All public places were clean-up and the town as a whole has improved 100 per cent in appearance since the opening of the drive.

"Please convey an expression of appreciation on the part of myself and members of the Woman's Club to the people of Ozona for their co-operation toward making this clean-up drive the success it was," Mrs. Lee Childress, president of the Woman's Club, told the Stockman Wednesday after announcing close of the campaign. "The people have done everything possible to make the clean-up as thorough as possible and it was only with such co-operation that such result could have been attained.

"Especially do we want to thank members of the County Commissioners Court and county officials for their part in the clean-up. Of course the Woman's Club feels it had a part in the drive by reason of the fact that it assumed active direction of the activities, but the town owes most to the county government for the success of the drive. The county paid all expenses of the hauling and cleaning and on the part of myself, the Woman's Club and the people of Ozona, I want to again thank these officials for their co-operation."

Baseball League May Be Organized

Local Club Formed; To Broach League Plan To Nearby Towns

Organization of an independent baseball league, with some half dozen towns in this section proposed as members, may be the result of a movement started by members of the local diamond squad at an organization meeting here Tuesday night.

At this meeting, held in the Ozona Tailor Shop, Frank Russell was elected field captain of the team, Jake Young was chosen business manager and Jack Sharp team manager.

Mr. Sharp made a tour of towns proposed for the independent league recently and reported sentiment in favor of such a plan. Sonora, Eldorado, Junction, Menard and possibly Big Lake, Texon and Iraan are towns suggested for membership in the proposed league. If such an organization can be formed, a definite schedule covering a period of four months will be worked out by league heads and followed through the season. Negotiations will be started immediately by the local team looking toward organization of the league at once, it was announced.

Meanwhile, efforts are being made by Manager Sharp to match a game for the locals with some team in this section. The locals have been at practice about two weeks and a practice game, match locally last Sunday, showed most of the material in good condition for a match.

BARNHART RD. DESIGNATED BY HIGHWAY DEPT.

State Highway Conditioned On Right-of-Way & Building

CONNECTS 27 & 99

Designation Made By Commission At Meeting March 19

Designation of the Ozona-Barnhart road from its intersection with Highway No. 27, the Old Spanish Trail, in Ozona to its intersection with Highway No. 99 in the town of Barnhart, was made by the state Highway Commission at a meeting on March 19, according to official notification of such action received Monday by County Judge Chas. E. Davidson.

The designation is conditioned upon "the counties (Crockett and Irion) furnishing the required right-of-way and their pro rata share of the cost of construction of this highway."

The official notification of designation of this road as a state highway came in a letter to Judge Davidson from Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer. Such designation is another action on the part of the highway commission toward carrying out its agreement made with a group of local citizens in a hearing before the present bond issue movement was put under way in this county. At this hearing the highway commission agreed to designate the Ozona-Barnhart road and to build $1,500,000 worth of good roads in Crockett County, the Old Spanish Trail from the Sutton County line to the Pecos River and the Barnhart road from here to the Irion County line, and maintain these highways if Crockett County would put up $375,000.

Official confirmation of this agreement, reduced to writing in minutes of the Commission sessions, was received recently by Judge Davidson, the minute entered on this topic covering the agreement as reported by the local committee on its return.

The letter from the state highway engineer, a copy of which also went to the county judge of Irion County, follows:

"March 22, 1930.
"Designation
Crockett and Irion Counties
Hon. Chas. E. Davidson,
County Judge, Crockett County,
Ozona, Texas.
Hon. R. J. Atkinson,
County Judge, Irion County,
Sherwood, Texas.

"Dear Sir:

"The following motion was passed by the State Highway Commission on March 19th, designating a State highway from a point on Highway No. 27 at or near the Town of Ozona to a point on Highway No. 99 in Irion County, at or near the Town of Barnhart: "It is ordered by the Commission that a State Highway be designated from a point on Highway No. 27 at or near the town of Ozona in Crockett Co. to a point on Highway No. 99 in Irion County to or near the town of Barnhart. This designation is conditioned upon the counties furnishing the required right-of-way and their pro rata share of the cost of the construction of this highway." Min. 2673

"You will note that this designation is conditioned on your Counties furnishing necessary right-of-way and pro rata share of cost of construction."

"Very truly yours,
Gibb Gilchrist,
State Highway Engineer.

By T. H. Webb, Assistant Highway Engineer.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baggett and children are in Temple where the three children, Misses Beulah, Lillian and Polvy, will undergo operations and Mr. and Mrs. Baggett will receive medical treatment in a sanitarium there.

Notes By The Way
When a reader finds something in his newspaper about hormones and vitamins and calories and food units, so on, I advise him to read it, if its author is known as reputable. I believe in one learning everything he can about the care of the body and the maintenance of health. But I prefer to talk about the common, every-day things, believing that I shall be the better understood by a greater number of my people.

I recall a friend of mine who became a faddist; he was sure that people dressed too heavily in cold weather; he was absolutely certain that warm, comfortable clothing shortened life—and that folk "dug their graves with their teeth," and he himself went to the other extreme with even worse results to himself.

He ate only two meals a day—a light breakfast and a very heavy "dinner" any time between four and six o'clock p.m.; he went without an overcoat in the lowest temperatures; wore no vest; believed in all-the-year-around suitings.
He also believed that, with proper "physical culture" a man needn't ever be sick.

He took strenuous "exercises" and plenty of cold baths, and, up to a certain point, he seemed in wonderful vigor and endurance.
He was about sixty-two years old;
had retired from active duty.

He had quite a bit of hardening of the arteries, and was of spare build. His blood-pressure was slightly above normal for a man of his age, and my modest warnings he took as just so many words wasted, even though he regarded me as a very good physician, one of the few in whom he had confidence.

I was shocked at his sudden death in Lincoln, Nebraska, some time ago; a "stroke" of paralysis cut him down. Here was a man, who, with rational care of himself, might have been alive and well as I am—today. There is no argument in favor of the faddist, nor against right living. Our bodies must be kept comfortable at all times, especially those of fifty years and beyond.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Joe T. Davidson entertained with a birthday luncheon for Mrs.
Chas. E. Davidson, Sr., Thursday, March 20th. The guests were those available of Mrs. Davidson's girlhood friends. The "girls" presented to each other many forgotten and often embarrassing reminis-cences which in themselves made the affair a most successful event.
Pink and white perfected the color scheme. The beautiful center piece of pink sweet-peas, at the end of the luncheon, was dissected into individual corsages for each of the guests when they pulled dainty ribbons attached to their place cards. A delicious menu consisting of shrimp cocktail, a plate of chicken-a-la-king in patty shells, fruit salad, hot rolls and strawberry shortcake was served to the following guests: Mesdames Dixie Davidson, Sr., Elgia Bunger, Hattie North, Jennie Schwalbe, Nell Childress, Lizzie Perner, Nan Grimmer, Maggie Seahorn and from San Angelo, Addie Clayton and Ollie Friend.

GUNMAN'S BLUFF

By Edger Wallace
COPYRIGHT BY EDGAR WALLACE

"Yet he gave me everything," she said quietly, "and when I refused him money, he went away without a word. Don't you realize, Danton, that had he gone to his lawyer, had he gone to the courts—had he done anything—I must have given him back his money, not because he had any legal right to it but because I would not have dared to face a public inquiry. He may have been mean, he may have been cruel, but I cannot right one wrong with another. That is the consideration which made me give back the money to Mr. Stiles," she went on in a voice less tense, more agreeable, almost friendly. "We shall have to thresh out this business of Rex—it's very ugly and hurtful, and I can't think of it calmly even now. Luke may have some explanation; there may be a very excellent reason why he refused any further help to poor Rex. At any rate, it's my job to find the truth."

He was almost livid with a fury he could hardly disguise. His lips curled in a sneer.

"It seems to me that the result of your reconciliation—I suppose that's what it is coming to—will leave me in the lurch and put me wrong with everybody. Financially, it may ruin me. Luke had a big influence in the City, and even now the mere suggestion that I was antagonistic to him is making a big difference."

To his surprise she laughed.

"Danton," she said, almost gaily "you're making me feel a pig! You don't imagine I would allow a friend of Rex's to suffer because of the help he tried to give me?"

Danton Morrell was puzzled. Why was she so cheerful? And then he remembered—she would be in Ronda in a few days, would be united with her husband. The thought made him wince; he was beginning to understand how big a place this girl had made for herself in his life. It was not like Danton Morrell to allow any woman a foothold in the cold thing he called a heart; but insensibly, and for some reason which he could not understand, she whom he had intended as a dupe had become a factor. It was almost unbelievable.

And with this came another realization that momentarily left him aghast. She was in love with her husband!

He had opened his lips to speak when there came a discreet knock at the door and the maid entered.

"There's a gentleman wishes to see you, madam—a Mr. Haynes."

Had Margaret been looking at him, she would have seen Danton's face go pale.

"He says he knows Mr. Maddison slightly," the girl went on, "and he wants particularly to see you."

Danty gaped at her.

"You didn't tell him I was here did you?" he began, and saw the look of astonishment in Margaret's face.

"Do you know him?"

He nodded and glanced significantly at the girl.

"Just wait a moment outside, will you?" she said, and when the door was closed: "Who is he?"

"He's a man I don't wish to see, and a man I don't think you ought to see. He's a criminal, the fellow who was arrested that night at the Carlton. If you take my advice you'll send him away."

She hesitated.

"If he knows Luke—" she began.

"He doesn't—that's just a trick to see you. He'll probably want money, and he's a pretty dangerous man."

"Then you'd better be here when he comes," she said, and saw by his consternation that this was not an acceptable suggestion. "I'd better see him," she said. "Will you wait in the little drawing room?"

Margaret in that mood he could not combat; he agreed sulkily to her suggestion and was in the little drawing room when he heard the quick step of the Gunner pass the closed door.

Margaret was unprepared for the type that came into the drawing room. The tanned, hawk face had a strength and a certain refinement which she had not expected.

"Are you Mrs. Maddison?" he drawled, and she inclined her head slightly. "My name's Haynes—The police know me as Gunner Haynes. I am a jewel thief among other things," he said.

His tone was as calm as though he were announcing himself the member of an honorable guild.

"I met your husband once; he tried to do me a service—I should like to do him one, Mrs. Maddison. Again she nodded.

"Mr. Danton Morrell is a friend of yours, isn't he?" he asked.

"Yes," she said coldly. "Why?"

She saw his lips twitch.

"I was wondering . . . Mrs. Maddison, would you think I was impertinent if I asked you why your husband left you?"

Her steady eyes met his.

"Do you think you would be?" she asked quietly, and saw that faint smile of his.

"I should be a little worse than impertinent. And yet, Mrs. Maddison, I have a very deep regard for your husband's affairs. I have many bad qualities, but disloyalty is not one of them. Your husband went out of his way to warn me, at a moment when he knew the police were coming to arrest me. If ever there was a white and wholesome man, that man is Luke Maddison. I ought not to have asked you the question and I could not very well expect a satisfactory answer. The only thing I am anxious to know is this: have you any idea where your husband is?"

"Do you wish to find him?" she challenged.

He shook his head.

"No, but I'd like to know exactly where he is. I have a very special reason for asking this. Is he in London?"

She shook her head.

"He's in Spain at the moment, but I'm afraid I cannot give you the address."

"Mr. Morrell—is he in Spain? Parlon me, Mrs. Maddison, but if I have a reason for asking you the one question, I have a doubly important reason for asking the other. Morrell is the kind of man that no decent woman should know—"

She walked to the table and pressed the little onyx bell push.

This time he smiled.

"That means you're going to turn me out, and I don't blame you. I'm afraid I've blundered this interview, which I intended should be very discreet and diplomatic. I particularly wished to know where Mr. Maddison was—"

"I have told you," she said as the maid appeared in the doorway.

"As far as Danty Morrell is concerned—" he began.

Her hand pointed to the door.

"I am not prepared to discuss my friends—even with the criminal acquaintances of my husband," she said, and she heard him chuckling as he went down the stairs as

More Available Labor

Wherever the electric transmission line extends, there is instantly available an army of servants to shoulder the burden of human labor.

Housework, farm chores, commercial activities and industrial operations are thus speeded and made easier. The productivity of electric servants is greater than human labor on the farm and ranch, in the home and in the factory.

By thus increasing the productive power of its customers, the West Texas Utilities Company is contributing to the prosperity of the area which it serves and adding to the material comfort of the people.

Body Of Man Found In Pecos

New Murder Mystery Develops, Shot Thru Back

FORT STOCKTON, March 26.—Another murder mystery was uncovered by Pecos County officials late Tuesday afternoon when the body of a white man, about 45 years of age, was found in the Pecos River near Imperial in this county, about 150 yards above the bridge where the bodies of a white woman about 35, and a 12-year-old girl were found a month ago. The body of the man was brought to Fort Stockton late Tuesday night.

He had been shot through the heart from the back, the bullet entering the back on the left side, passing directly through the heart and coming out through the left breast. The body was stripped of clothing and no clothes of any kind have been found near the scene. The man has gray eyes, is of brunette type with hair turning gray and dark beard. The face was close-shaved and the hair was neatly trimmed.

Sheriff W. P. Rooney and Deputy C. I. Miller and local Texas

Rangers who are investigating the murder, say the man had not been dead more than 24 hours. Local doctors say the body is in a fair state of preservation and that it could not have been in the water more than two days. A small pit scar on the left cheek and a large scar on the left side of the neck are the only marks on the body that might lead to identification. It is being held in a local mortuary. Inquest will be conducted by Coroner E. C. Dyche tomorrow.

The Young Women's Missionary Society met Wednesday with Mrs. Evert White as hostess at the home of Mrs. N. W. Graham. Rev. J. H. Meredith conducted the study course. It was decided to hold a social meeting April 23 at the Methodist Church in which each member of the organization will bring a gift to her secret sister with the givers name inside. The committee in charge of the refreshments and arrangements for this party is: Miss Hester Burger, Mrs. Warren Clayton, Mrs. T. A. Kincaid, Jr. It was also determined that the society should meet every Wednesday. They will study the fourth chapter of the study course for next Wednesday.

As far ahead of Single balloons as Cords were ahead of Fabric tires

There's No Other Tire Like It!

MORE than a balloon—A DUAL-Balloon—and an "8," too. Not just an 8-ply tire but an 8-ply base carcass—and extra plies of RUBBER.

Note these points of difference:

(1) The fullest advantage of extreme low pressure—the lowest ever made possible in tires—and this without the slightest penalty of premature wear.

(2) Twice the mileage you have ever had from any tire—and double the comfort.

(3) Single balloons depend on air alone to take the road shocks. The Dual-Balloon uses both air and rubber.

Shock Absorbers Built In!

Low air pressure alone is not enough protection. It rebounds when you hit a rough spot and makes you leave the seat.

The special built-in shock absorbers of thick, extra-soft rubber plies in the Dual-Balloon take the rebound out of rough going. They absorb the shock inside. Gone forever are the discomforts of bouncing, galloping miles. Gone too, the shimmy and wobble. A bigger, softer tire—yet stronger and more firm. No more side-roll! Take the sharpest turns at highest speed.

Top Quality Throughout the General Line Guarantees the Most for Your Money

Equip Now At Lowest Level Prices!

Grade rubber cost is up 20%. But tire prices remain at the old level. Your cost for quality is lower today than you have paid for ordinary brands. Buy the quality now that will last through the next high price period.

Whether your car requires the DUAL-Balloon or the General Center Grip tread—whether you trade in for 4-ply, 6-ply or 8-ply Generals you are assured the right equipment for greatest saving, safety and all around satisfaction.

No matter how new or old your car or tires may be, come in and let us show you how easily you can equip with Generals.

The "Just a Little Late Club"

When I was a commuter I sometimes went to the station early to watch the other commuters running for the trains.

I came to know many of them by sight.

There were ladies and old men, infrequent visitors to the city, who arrived long before train-time.

There were business men, who arrived one minute ahead.

And—just as the gate was about to close—there would come piling across the station the members of the Just a Little Late Club.

I used to sympathize with them at first, supposing them to be unfortunates who had missed a car or lost their watches.

But after two years of watching I knew different.

The membership of the Just a Little Late Club does not change from day to day. Membership is not a misfortune; it is a habit. And one of the most exasperating habits in the world.

I was lunching with a friend the other day when a "captain of industry" passed us. He began work twenty years ago as an office boy, and today heads one of the great manufacturing concerns of his city.

"A wonderful fellow," said my friend. "Last year I had a long series of negotiations with him about the formation of a new company. It was necessary for us to meet practically every day for nearly three months. In all that time he was never late but twice, and then only for a few minutes. And each time he sent word to me from his office telling me that he would be late."

J. P. Morgan figured that every hour of his time was worth $1,000 and he had no patience with men who were late for appointments, or who, when they came to see him, did not give him his money's worth in exchange for the time they took.

"It is not necessary for me to live," said Pompey. "But it is necessary that I be at a certain point at a certain time."

And Lord Nelson said: "I owe all my success in life to having been a quarter of an hour before my time."

I hold up the record of these famous men, in the faint hope that it may do some good.

And yet, the hope is very faint. The habit of unpromptness is very tenacious.

If I am fortunate enough to be inside when the pearly gates are closed on the judgment-day, I shall know what to expect.

Five minutes later there will be a terrific battering on the gate. St. Peter may be surprised, but I shall not be.

When the gates swing open again, there they will be—some of the most lovable and exasperating people who ever lived—panting, apologetic, explanatory to the last.

Miss Helen Montgomery entertained the members of the Las Amigas Club and a number of guests with a delicious Mexican luncheon at her home last Saturday. Miss Beulah Baggett won high score prize for the club and Miss Hester Bunker high guest prize. Miss Mary Childress was given low. Besides the members the following guests were present: Misses Gracia Swanson, Hester Bunker, Mary Augustine, Mary Kincaid, Mary Childress, Mrs. Ralph Meinecke and Mrs. Royal Johnson.

Mrs. Royal S. Johnson of Dallas is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Word.

Mrs. John L. Bishop left last week for an extended visit with relatives in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Adams were in from their ranch west of Fort Stockton for a week-end visit with friends and relatives.

Herbert Kittle is reported seriously ill this week.

R. J. Cooke was confined to his home several days last week on account of illness. He was able to be out again Monday.

Will Miller, H. O. Word and George Harrell attended the state Odd Fellows convention in Abilene last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Augustine are in Ozona this week from their ranch west of Sheffield.

L. S. Turner of San Angelo has accepted a position as plumber at the J. T. Keeton shop.

Dr. Morrow Speaks To Big Crowd Here

18th Amendment Called Greatest Human Welfare Movement

Dr. George W. Morrow of Detroit, Michigan, National lecturer for the Anti Saloon League, spoke here at the First Baptist Church, Sunday night, under the auspices of the Anti Saloon League of Texas. He had a big audience and much interest was manifest. He said in part:

"The 18th Amendment is the greatest human welfare movement of the country. Looked at from every angle this cannot be gainsaid. Lloyd George, the great war premier of Great Britain, after visiting America went back home and told the people that 75 per cent of the great industrial heads of this country are in favor of prohibition and his people must realize that a drunken England cannot long compete with a sober America."

"The claim of the enemies of prohibition that it has caused 'disrespect for law' is as absurd as to claim that the 'Ten Commandments have caused disrespect for religion.'

"The wets are complaining that the law is not being enforced. One may well ask, 'did this class of violators ever obey any law?'

"In 1929 the Federal courts convicted 50,000 bootleggers and other prohibition violators, and that was 75 per cent of the cases brought before them. In 80 of your smaller counties of Texas, last year, the county officers brought into court 1595 prohibition violators and the courts convicted 1188 of them; which was a pretty good showing for those Texas counties.

Of 10,000 prisoners in the Federal prisons of the country, there are 2700 there for violating the narcotic laws, but only 1800 for violating the prohibitory laws. There are 1300 there for violating the Interstate Automobile Theft Law, but no one is arguing for the repeal of the narcotic law, nor the interstate automobile laws.

We have had only ten years of Prohibition. The Liquor Traffic had its day of 100 years. Our appeal to America is to give prohibition ITS CHANCE.

Mrs. George Davis and daughters, Misses Eva and Mildred Davis, went to San Angelo Saturday where Miss Mildred boarded a train for Abilene to resume her studies in Simmons University.

Mrs. F. A. Kincaid, Jr., returned Monday from Dublin where she was called on account of the serious illness of her grandmother.

though at a very good joke.

Margaret walked slowly along the asphalt path. As she did so she saw a car coming slowly along the tan on the other side of the road. It was an electric brougham containing two people; a beautiful-looking girl, fashionably dressed; by her side, his face half hidden under a broad-brimmed Stetson hat, a bearded man of striking appearance. Ahead of her was walking a stout-looking man, and by his side a rather pretty girl. As she overtook them she heard the stout man say:

"Take a look at that swell woman! That's Jean Gurley—the biggest crook in London, my dear."

Those ahead of her she recognized as the Sparrow and his companion, and, not wishing to be seen by them, sat down on a garden seat, her eyes following curiously the electric brougham. She saw the machine turn at the Marble Arch and come slowly along by the side of the curb, and she watched with a detached interest the beautiful girl and the bearded man, whose head was turned toward his companion. As they passed she heard the man say:

"This is all very mysterious. What does it mean?"

In an instant she was on her feet pale and shaking; she had recognized the voice of the bearded man. It was her husband!

In the interest of his new, strange life, Luke found it fairly easy to forget. The spirit of adventure was on him. Margaret belonged to a dim, almost unbelievable part. She was of the substance of dreams.

He went gaily to a rendezvous with a fair-haired girl on the following afternoon, and was delighted to find how springy was his step. He had hardly taken his place in front of the Guards Memorial when he saw an electric brougham approach and, catching the girl's signal, stepped to the side of the road as the car stopped.

She was in excellent spirits. "It's a great idea to let yourself be seen in a certain kind of car," she said. "You don't know what I mean? I'll bet you don't."

They crossed into Hyde Park, made a slow progress near the edge of the sidewalk, and he found himself enjoying the novel experience. She was very pretty, though older than he had thought.

"Do you see that fat man over there? That's the Sparrow. You want to keep away from him."

He started at the name.

He saw Mr. Bied. He was walking with a very pretty girl, but the woman who was at the moment seating herself on one of the park benches he did not recognize.
As the brougham turned and came back on the other side of the road, she said suddenly:

"There will be a car waiting near the Cavalry Barracks. I hope you can drive?"
"Another car?" he asked in astonishment.
She nodded.
"I want to try you out."
He laughed.
"All this is very mysterious," he said.
The car was waiting for them.

a closed light car of English make. There was nobody in attendance, but without hesitation she stopped the brougham and gave the driver instructions.
"Here it is," she said. "Get in."
Luke sank into the driver's seat and put his foot on the self-starter, and she came in after him, slamming the little door behind her.

dict, is himself a ranchman and thoroughly conversant with ranch conditions, a lawyer with many years experience, and declares that his candidacy for the office of district attorney is submitted on the proposition that he can and will perform the duties of the office to the satisfaction of the constituency of the 112th judicial district.

Mr. Baker is a former newspaper man, having owned the Junction Eagle until recently. He is a member of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, served two years in the United States Cavalry during the World War and solicits the vote and influence of the people of this district on the basis of his qualification to fill the office satisfactorily.

Mr. Baker is opposing Ed Yarbrough of McCamey, who now holds the office of district attorney under appointment from Governor Moody upon the recent creation of the 112th district, and who is a candidate for re-election.

Highway Laws Are Discussed By Lion Speakers Monday

Requirements of state laws governing state highways constituted the topic of discussion at the regular Lions Club luncheon Monday. Various phases of highway laws were discussed by different speakers, special topics being assigned at the previous session by President M. M. Fulmer.

"Facts Every Motorist Should Know" was the topic discussed by John L. Bishop. This topic dealt with the more familiar requirements of the laws governing motorists, including the payment of licenses, speed limit, cut-outs, etc. "Facts Every Truck Owner Should Know" was discussed by Richard Flowers, who gave a summary of the more important requirements of the truck laws which might affect movement of livestock and wool and operation of privately owned trucks.

"Shooting on Highways" was the topic assigned Ben Lemmons, who called attention to the heavy penalty attached to violation of the laws against shooting on public highways or roads. "Dump Grounds along State Highways" was discussed by A. W. Jones. Mr. Jones again called attention to the unsightly dump ground east of this city and expressed the hope that the people of Ozona would devise some means of correcting this evil before state and federal authorities compelled them to do so.

The recently enacted law governing transportation of livestock by motor vehicle was outlined by Ira Carson, who explained the requirement for a permit to move livestock by truck and pointed out the penalty attached to violation of the law.

Miss Hester Bunger entertained the Sunflower Club and a number of guests with a delightful bridge party at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Massie West was awarded high score for the club, green glass sherbert bowls, Miss Helen Montgomery won high guest prize a piece of lingerie, and Mrs. Marshall Montgomery won the cut prize. An appealing dessert course consisting of green mousse and pink whipped cream was served.

Those present were: Mesdames Massie West, Warren Clayton, Marbury Morrison, Hillery Phillips, Ralph Meinecke, Frank McMullen, Joe T. Davidson, Evert White, T. A. Kincaid, Jr., Welton Bunker, J. W. North, Harry J. Friend, Jr., Clay Adams, Walter Augustine, Sherman Taylor, Marshall Montgomery, Mrs. W. E. Smith, and

Misses Mary Kincaid, Tessie Kyle, Maxine Roth, Gracia Swanson, Lucile and Eleanor Ingham, Mary Childress, Mildred North, Helen Montgomery and Beth Davidson.

Wrestling Bout Is Postponed To Next Wednesday Evening

Unfavorable weather caused postponement of the scheduled finish wrestling match between Cyclone Pierce and Lee Myers at the Ozona Athletic Club, open air arena at the Mike Couch grocery, Wednesday night.

Tot Gritmer, local promoter, announced that the match would be held next Wednesday night, weather permitting.

One of the preliminaries, a 4-round boxing exhibition between "Battling" John Daniels and "Slugger" Arthur Brown, colored, was held in the Ozona Recreation Club quarters in the rear of the Sanitary Barber Shop, Daniels knocking out Brown in the first round. A small crowd witnessed the brief bout and small change donations pitched into the ring formed the pot for the fighters.

Ninety Industrial Concerns Established In West Texas In 1929

Nearly 90 industrial enterprises were established in West Texas during 1929, according to a report compiled by the Industrial Department of the West Texas Utilities Company over the 45 counties they serve. This Department is maintained to aid Chambers of Commerce and other organizations in locating industries in West Texas.

The report consisted of major industrial concerns such as carbon black plants, gins, airports, hotels, produce companies, supply companies, compresses and other productive concerns which, though just beginning business activities during 1929, have materially added to West Texas progress. The location of these business enterprises has not only gone a great way in adding to the creative or manufacturing volume of West Texas but has also served to relieve the general unemployment condition. The new concerns have given employment to nearly 2,100 persons. This averages approximately 25 employees per concern.

Mrs. Albert Bailey and children and Mrs. Worth Odom and children were here from their ranches in Pecos County to spend the week-end.
