NOTICE OF AN ELECTION

Be it remembered that on this 10th day of March A.D. 1930, the Honorable Commissioners Court of Crockett County met in regular session, present Hon. Chas. E. Davidson, County Judge, Max Schneemann, Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, J. W. Owens, Commissioner of Precinct No. 3, W. S. Willis, Sheriff, and George Russell, county clerk, whereupon the following business was transacted:

WHEREAS, there has been filed in the Commissioners Court of Crockett County, Texas, a petition for an Election signed by P. L. Childress and more than one hundred other property tax-paying voters, residents of Crockett County, Texas, reading as follows: "PETITION FOR ELECTION"

Ozona, Texas
March 10, 1930.

TO THE HONORABLE COMMISSIONERS COURT OF CROCKETT COUNTY, TEXAS:

We the undersigned, resident property tax-paying voters of Crockett County, Texas, hereby respectfully petition your Honorable Body to order an Election to be held in said Crockett County, to determine whether or not the bonds of said County shall be issued in an amount of Three Hundred Seventy-five Thousand ($375,000.00) dollars, for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, in connection with State or Federal aid or both on Highway 27 and the Ozona and Barnhart road in this county, and at such Election to have submitted to the resident property tax-paying voters of said county, the question whether or not taxes shall be levied on all taxable property of said Crockett County, subject to taxation for the purpose of paying interest on said Bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity, specifying in your order the amount of Bonds proposed to be issued and that they be issued in denominations of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) each and also specifying in said order that said bonds shall bear five per cent interest per annum, payable semi-annually, and mature thirty years after their date, with option of paying one or more of said denominations at any interest payment date five years after the date of said bonds."

and it appearing that under the law it is mandatory on this Court to order such election, it is therefore ordered that an election be held throughout Crockett County, in the several election precincts thereof on the 12th day of April, A.D. 1930, to determine whether or not bonds of said County shall be issued in an amount of Three Hundred Seventy-five Thousand ($375,000.00) dollars to be used in connection with State or Federal aid or both, for the purpose of construction and operation of a macadamized, graveled or paved road through said Crockett County, (this court having this day passed an order designating Highway No. 27 and the Ozona-Barnhart Road as the Highways on which the funds derived from said bonds shall be expended), such bonds to be issued in denominations of One Thousand ($1,000.00) dollars each and bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually and to mature thirty years after their date, with option of paying one or more of said denominations at any interest payment date five years after the date of said bonds; and that ad valorem taxes are to be levied annually on all taxable property within said county sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund to pay such bonds at the maturity thereof. Such election to be held and returns made as in general elections and notice of the election shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in Crockett County, for three successive weeks and in addition thereto for three weeks prior to said election notices shall be posted at least four public places in Crockett County, one of

$375,000 BOND ELECTION SET FOR APRIL 12

Commissioners Court Passes Order From Form Submitted

108 SIGN PETITION To Bring State And Federal Aid Build 82 Miles Roads

The third election call, giving the voters of Crockett County opportunity to decide whether or not $375,000 in bonds shall be voted for the purpose of matching state and federal aid to three times that amount for the purpose of constructing and maintaining roads in this county, was passed by the Commissioners Court Tuesday setting the election for Saturday, April 12.

The election call was passed by the court in response to a petition signed by 108 property tax-paying voters of the county requesting such action.

The proposed bond issue is to be divided into denominations of $1,000, to bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent and to mature in 30 years, with county retaining the option of paying one or more denominations after five years from date of bonds.

Although the election call states the purpose for which the bonds are being issued, the court in addition passed a supplemental order setting out specifically the purpose for which the proposed issue will be used. That order follows: "It is moved and carried that if the election for issuance of road bonds which has been called for the 12th day of April, 1930, carries that the monies derived from the sale of said bonds shall be used in connection with state and federal aid or both for the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads through Crockett County, Texas, along what is known as Highway No. 27, extending from the Sutton County line via Ozona to the Pecos River, and from said highway No. 27 at Ozona in a northerly direction toward Barnhart and to the Irion County line, along what is known or may be hereafter designated by the Commissioners Court as the Ozona-Barnhart road."

The election order passed by the court this week is the third such order passed by that body and the election April 12 will be the second election held in this county on this question. The first election was held December 16 when the voters of the county by a nine to one majority approved the $375,000 issue for the purpose stated. This issue was turned down by the attorney general's department on the ground that the election order did not state the rate of interest the bonds should bear and the maturity date.

A new petition was then drawn up and presented to the court, and acting on this petition the court set the second election date for February 15. Just before this election was held, however, it was discovered that the petition and order did not recite the specific purpose for which the bond money was to be used and upon petition of a group of citizens, the Commissioners Court rescinded its order calling the election and it was called off.

Following is a list of signatures attached to the petition which received the attention of the court this week:

Clean-Up Starts Monday Morning

Residents Urged To Gather All Trash For Trucks

Monday morning, March 17, Ozona's 1930 clean-up campaign, sponsored by the Ozona Woman's Club will get under way. Plans have been perfected by the Woman's Club for the direction of the clean-up and committees in charge hope to make this one of the most thorough campaigns ever accomplished here.

A systematic canvass of the city will be made by a group of trucks, hauling off all accumulated trash and rubbish free of charge to the residents. The county is financing the clean-up, with the Woman's Club committees in charge of different sections of the city.

A list of supervisors for the various sections of the town was published in last week's issue of The Stockman. These supervisors will advise residents in their respective sections of the town of the day on which the trucks will call and will be ready at all times to answer questions as to the movement of the trucks and to send trucks back to points where rubbish was missed on the first round.

Residents are urged to gather up all trash in piles or sacks or boxes and have it placed in a location convenient for the trucks. If this is done all trash will be hauled off free of charge. Residents are also urged to co-operate to the extent of having their premises cleaned up in general, all weeds, brush, etc. cleaned up and burned.

Excellent promise is given for a town baseball team this year, according to Jack Sharp, one of the prime movers of the practice, and prospective members of the team are enthusiastically in favor of organizing at once and getting a schedule lined up for the summer. Mr. Sharp said.

More than a dozen players have been out the last few afternoons for practice, it was declared, and some excellent material is showing up.

AGREEMENT OF HIGHWAY DEPT. IS CONFIRMED

Proposal Made To Local Committee Is Ratified

COPY MINUTE SENT Entry Give Official Confirmation Of Verbal Agreement

Official confirmation of the verbal agreement made by the State Highway Commission with a delegation representing Crockett County at a hearing last fall wherein the state highway department agreed to build a modern, hard-surfaced road over the Old Spanish Trail, Highway No. 27, from the Sutton County line to the Pecos River and the Ozona-Barnhart road from Ozona to the Irion County line, was given by the commission in a minute passed by that body on February 26.

A copy of the minute was quoted by Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, in a letter received last week by Judge Chas. E. Davidson, county judge of Crockett County. This official confirmation of the verbal agreement made with the Crockett County delegates, which included P. L. Childress, Scott Peters, Tom Smith and Lee Wilson, removes all doubt as to whether or not the department intends to carry out its agreement on the local road project.

The letter received by Judge Davidson from the state highway engineer is as follows:

March 1, 1930.
"Hon Chas. E. Davidson,
County Judge, Crockett County,
Ozona, Texas.

"Dear Sir:
"For your information we are quoting Minute passed by the State Highway Commission on February 26th, confirming agreement with representatives of your county in connection with improvement of highways in your county:

"In Crockett County the Commission hereby confirms agreement made with representatives of said County that with the furnishing by Crockett County of the sum of $375,000.00 for the construction of State Highway No. 27 and for the proposed designation from Ozona north to a connection with Highway No. 99, the State Highway Commission will undertake to construct these two roads. It is to be understood that Crockett County should add a sufficient amount to their bond issue to cover the cost of preparing necessary right-of-way, to have a minimum of 100 feet in width, and to be fenced throughout and on location approved by the State Highway Engineer. County is also advised to submit to this Department copy of their election order before it is called." (Min. 2549)

"Very truly yours,
Gibb Gilchrist,
State Highway Engineer.
By T. H. Webb, Assistant Highway Engineer."

The request that a copy of the petition and order be forwarded to the department has been complied with, according to leaders of the good roads movement, the copy being mailed last week. Officials declare that it will not be necessary to make any addition to the bond issue total for the purpose of purchasing right-of-way, funds being available from the 1930 automobile license fees and other funds sufficient to pay for all right-of-way that will be necessary.

Sympathy of the Commissioner's Court of Crockett County was extended B. B. Ingham, Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, who is in a Temple hospital being treated for X-Ray burns suffered in San Angelo, by action of the court in session this week. The court also extended sympathy to Fleet Coates, who was ill at his home here.

GUNMAN'S BLUFF

COPYRIGHT BY EDGAR WALLACE

SYNOPSIS

DEVIL—

Luke and Margaret are married; Luke transfers all his property to her and she later kicks him out, thinking to get revenge for her brother's death.

Opposite the Temple station he rested again. There was a narrow street running up to the Strand & Norfolk Street, wasn't it? And his lawyer had his office there. Why not see him and tell him all that had happened? It was the same thing to do. But then Luke Maddison realized that he was not sane. He was the maddest thing in the maddest world.

He went on toward Blackfriars and came to a halt before the tram station. There was a long queue of people waiting to board the cars which arrived empty and went rolling along the Embankment crowded with humanity. Husbands and wives, possibly young men going back to sweethearts who loved them; girls who had faith in some man or other and were ready to make every sacrifice for them. To Luke Maddison every car that drew away was laden with happy people, their day's work ended, the recreations and pleasures of the night before them.

Old men, young men; girls looking trim and smart; young men smoking big pipes, with newspapers under their arms; bespectacled students—they hypnotized him, these great blazing trams.

He was standing with his back to the parapet, his elbows resting on the stone.

"Are you looking for anybody?" The voice had authority, though it was quite kind. He looked up to meet the suspicious scrutiny of a City policeman. The City police do not like to see men lingering indecisively, one hand on the parapet, the swirling black waters below—especially a white-faced man with a tense face and an almost horrified stare.

"N-no," stammered Luke, "I'm just watching."

The policeman was looking at him curiously, as though he was trying to remember his face.

"I've seen you before somewhere haven't I?"

"I dare say," said Luke, and turned away abruptly.

He followed the homeward-wending crowd across Blackfriars Bridge. It was dark and cold, and he struggled into the overcoat he had been carrying on his arm. He remembered somewhere in the borough that he entered a little coffee-house, redolent of burning lard.

At eleven o'clock it began raining, a fine drizzle that very soon soaked through the light coat. He was walking aimlessly along York Road in the direction of Westminster. A man ahead of him was walking more slowly, a slouching man with his hands in his pockets and his coat collar turned up. Luke was wearing rubber-soled shoes, and came up to the walker before he was aware of his presence. He saw the night wanderer lurch sideways with a snarl, stoop forward as though he were going to run, and then something in Luke's face or appearance checked his flight.

"Hullo!" he said huskily. "Thought you was a busy."

Luke recognized him.

"You're Lewing, aren't you?"

The man peered into his face.

"Blimey, if it ain't Mr. What's your name?—Maddison! What you doing down here? You should have come and seen me down Tooley Street; this ain't my pitch."

Twice he looked back furtively over his shoulder.

"You thought I was a detective?"

The thin lips of the man twisted in a leer.

"That's what I said. No, I thought you was one of Connor's lot. They chased me out of Rotherhithe tonight, said I'd been nosin' 'em. That's why I'm around here. Connor's crowd always think that somebody's been nosin' if one of his gang's dragged."

"Nosin'? You mean spying?"

"Givin' 'em away to th' police," explained Mr. Lewing. "Connor's brother got caught the other night and they got a yarn down Tooley Street that I'd done it."

Luke began dimly to understand "Come down here."

The clawlike hands of Lewing caught him and dragged him down a narrow, ill-lit street.

"I'm nervous tonight," he said, and here he was speaking the truth, for his voice became a whimpering gasp. "You're a gentle man, Mr. Maddison. You'd help a pere feller to get away. You know what Connor is—he'd knife you for twopenny. Bumping off he calls it—he's an American; at least he's been in Sing Song . . . Sing, Sing, is it? Anyway, it's a stir. A couple of quid'd get me out of London."

"I haven't got a couple of pounds with me," said Luke.

He was already weary of the companionship, and, but for being in his present condition, would never have submitted to being dragged into this foul little street.

"Perhaps I can call at your office in the morning?" Lewing's voice betrayed his anxiety. And then, as he remembered: I gave that ten pounds to the Gunner—

"You gave nothing to the Gunner," said Luke coldly. "Mr. Bird told me all about you."

There was an embarrassed silence.

"Anyway, I'd like you to stay with me, sir," said the man. "I called you a busy now, and you look like a busy. If any o' them Connors, see me with a busy they'll—"

They had just turned the corner into an even narrower street, and Lewing stopped suddenly. Four dark shapes, two on the pavement and two in the roadway, confronted them. Luke surveyed them curiously. They all seemed to have caps drawn over their eyes; each man had both hands in his pockets.

"Here, what's the idea, Joe?" Lewing's voice was a whine. "This gentleman is taking me around—"

The leader of the four laughed harshly.

"You've got to have a busy with you, have you?" he said with an oath. "You ain't satisfied with nosin' on us Connors, but you got to carry Scotland Yard strapped under your arm. That's yours, Lewing!"

To Luke it only seemed that the man had edged a little closer to Lewing as he spoke. Lewing coughed and fell groggily against Luke.

"Get the busy," said a snarling voice.

Luke swung back but not quite in time. He saw the glitter of steel and felt as though a hot iron had been drawn across his breast; and then a curious weakness came on him, and he leaned back against the wall and gradually slipped into a sitting position. His last conscious impression was the clattering feet of running men; four dark shapes vanished into a greater darkness, and he was left alone, with something that sprawled across the pavement, staring with unseeing eyes at the flickering light of the street lamps.

It was the thirteenth day after the disappearance of Luke Maddison, and a day of fate for his wife, since it put a period to the long and agonizing hours of doubt and uncertainty, of self-reproach that at times approached self-loathing. Twice she had been on the point of acquainting the police, and twice had Danty stopped her.

It was a time of worry for Danty also, but from quite another cause.

What had puzzled, and to some degree comforted her, was the fact that Mr. Stiles, the manager of Maddison's Bank, had shown no particular anxiety. She guessed, or knew, that Luke had told him of her act, for when she offered her check it been almost peremptorily refused. What she did not realize was that in the days before she became a factor in Luke Maddison's life, and largely determined his actions, Luke was in the habit of disappearing into the blue Invariably it was from Spain that Stiles had received a postcard notifying him of the imminent return of his employer. The country had a fascination for Luke Maddison. He spoke the language like a native. He was one of the few Englishmen who understood and

Electrical Servants for Your Home

"The application of Electricity to household appliances has done more to raise the standard of home-life than any other single factor," is the opinion of a well known home economics authority. Just contrast the difference between the Modern, Electrically-equipped home of today, and homes of similar means a few years ago. No longer does the housewife grow old before her time . . . no longer does she slave and toil about her kitchen and household tasks . . . no longer is she shut off from the rest of the world because of lack of time to enjoy and appreciate the better things of life. Does your home reflect the spirit of this New Day? Are you receiving all the economical benefits possible through the intelligent application of electricity to your home? One of our Household Engineers will be glad to show you how cheaply you can secure the enormous advantages of "Complete Electrical Service."

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF CROCKETT COUNTY—GREETING:

You are hereby Comanded to summon Joseph Baumgartner and the unknown heirs of Joseph Baumgartner by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Crockett County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Ozona, Texas, on the 1st Monday in April, A. D. 1930, the same being the 7th day of April, A. D. 1930, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 7th day of February, A. D. 1930, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 503, wherein Thomas T. Holloway and

Thomas Jones, Independent Executors of the Estate of E. M. Powell, deceased, are Plaintiffs, and Joseph Baumgartner and the unknown heirs of Joseph Baumgartner are Defendants, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action being as follows:

That on the first day of February, 1930, Plaintiffs, as such Executors, were lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land situated in Crockett County, Texas, being all of the North half of survey 37, block GH, GC&SF Ry. Co. land containing 320 acres, described as follows: Beginning at a rock mound at NW corner of survey 37, this block for SE corner of this tract; thence West 1900 yds. to SE corner of Sur. 45 this block; thence North 950 yds. to NW corner of original survey 37; thence East 1900 yds. to stake and mound in W line of survey 26 this block; thence S 950 yds. to Beginning, patented to E. M. Powell by the State of Texas, April 9th, 1885, by letter patents Nos. 247 Vol. 88; that on the day and year aforesaid Defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiffs therefrom and unlawfully withheld from them the possession thereof, to their damage in the sum of $5000.00; that the reasonable annual rental value of said land and premises is $200.00; They show further in this relation that on or about the 23rd day of July, 1888, E. M. Powell conveyed the aforesaid lands to Joseph Baumgartner, who executed his certain promissory vendor's lien notes in consideration thereof; that in the conveyance from Powell to Baumgartner the superior title and Vendor's lien was retained to secure the payment of the aforesaid notes and indebtedness. That thereafter more than forty years ago, the said Joseph Baumgartner defaulted in the payment of the consideration for said lands and the above described notes, wholly failed and refused to liquidate and pay off the same, and abandoned the lands so conveyed to him and left the State, without any provision for the payment of the consideration for said land, without the knowledge or consent of the said E. M. Powell. That because of the default and abandonment by such purchaser E. M. Powell re-entered and retook possession of said land cancelling and annulling at the same time the Executory purchase and sale to said Joseph Baumgartner;

that in addition to the superior title and vendor's lien, said Joseph Baumgartner executed deed of trust on said land to H. W. Baylor Trustee for use and benefit of E. M. Powell the legal holder and owner of said indebtedness; that he made default in the terms and conditions of said deed of trust, and by reason thereof said E. M. Powell was compelled and did cancel and annul said conveyance aforesaid, and retook possession of said land and has been in peaceable continuous use and possession under title and the cancellation of said contract of purchase and sale, continuously for more than thirty years, that by reason thereof defendants lost all right, interest and title in said land; that plaintiffs have been in peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of said land, cultivating, using and enjoying the same under deeds duly registered, and paying taxes thereon as they accrued for a period of more than five years preceding January 1st, 1930, and before the commencement of this suit; that they have been in continuous, peaceable and adverse possession of said land claiming, cultivating, using and enjoying the same without adverse claim by any one for a period of more than ten years prior to the commencement of this suit; that all of said land has at all said time been enclosed within an enclosure of less than five thousand acres by fence; that plaintiffs and those whom under they claim title have been in possession of said land peaceably under adverse claim of right, in good faith under a chain of title from the State of Texas, with all the monuments of title duly recorded in Crockett County, Texas, for more than twenty-five years prior to the filing of this suit or the accrual of any cause of action to defendants, claiming same adversely in fee simple without adverse claim by any one; that by reason of all of said facts plaintiffs claim said land by the five, ten and twenty-five years STATUTES OF LIMITATION:

Wherefore, they pray that the defendants be cited to appear and answer and upon trial, they have judgment for the title and possession of said lands, for writ of restitution, for cancellation of any claims of the defendants of cloud upon their title, for cancellation of the aforesaid conveyance from E. M. Powell to Joseph Baumgartner, and the record thereof in Crockett County, as a cloud upon their title, for writ of possession costs of suit, and general and equitable relief.

Herein Fail Not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Ozona, Texas.

On this the 25th day of February A. D. 1930.

(SEAL) Geo. Russell Clerk, District Court, Crockett County, Texas.

Issued this 25th day of February, A. D. 1930.

THINK OF YOUR AUTOMOBILE IN TERMS OF TOMORROW

Ultimate cost is as important as first cost in the purchase of an automobile

WHEN you purchase an automobile you are making an investment of a considerable amount of money. It is essential, therefore, that you give careful thought to the best selection and know what you are getting for your automobile dollars.

The first cost is important because it may mean an immediate, satisfactory saving. Of equal importance is the ultimate cost after thousands of miles of service. This ultimate cost is the true measure of automobile value.

THE first cost of the new Ford is unusually low not only because of economies in manufacturing, but because the same principles that inspire these savings are extended to every other step that means greater service to the public. It is easy to see that economies in production would be of little value if they were sacrificed later through high charges for distribution, selling, financing and accessories.

The Ford dealer, therefore, does business on the same low-profit margin as the Ford Motor Company. His discount or commission is twenty-five to fifty per cent lower than that of any other automobile dealer. You gain because he makes a small profit on many sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales.

The difference in selling cost, combined with the low charges for financing and accessories, amounts to at least $50 to $75 on each car. This is as important as economies in production in keeping down the price you pay for the new Ford.

THE low ultimate cost of the new Ford is the result of sound design, quality of material and unusual care in manufacturing. Friction and wear are reduced by the accuracy with which each part is made and assembled.

These factors combine to decrease the cost of operation and add months and years to the useful life of the car. The good performance and low yearly depreciation of the new Ford are indicative of the enduring quality built into it at the factory.

SERVICE charges are on the same fair, economical basis as the making and selling of the car and replacement parts are always available at low prices through all Ford dealers. In two, three or five years, depending on how much you drive, the saving in operating and maintaining a new Ford will amount to even more than the saving on the first cost.

Think in terms of tomorrow, therefore, when you purchase an automobile. For tomorrow will reveal its true worth.
