ABILENE AND OZONA TEAMS GO 22 INNINGS IN CLASSIC OF BASEBALL HERE SUNDAY

A baseball game like you read about but seldom see was the 22-inning classic through which the Ozona and Abilene league teams battled to a draw on the local diamond Sunday afternoon. A pitching duel deluxe, in which Slim Kinzy, new Giant hurling star, proved himself not only an ace, but one that gets better and better the longer he pitches.

Lefty Hanna, Abilene mound star, and Kinzy both pitched 20 of the 22 innings, allowing only twelve and eleven hits respectively in that long session.

Ozona scored first in the fourth inning when Jimmie Brown, who both scored one each again in the eighth and then Abilene crossed the plate in the nineteenth and it looked dark for the locals until Jess Wade, Giant second sacker, came to the plate and slammed out a home-run to again knot the count at three all, where it remained until the game was called by agreement.

Kinzy Warms Up
In the first nine innings of the game, Kinzy allowed eight hits. In the next nine innings he allowed but one safe bingle, and in the last two frames he yielded two, one a fluke that hit a glove on the base path in front of the shortstop and bounced over the fielder's head and the other a single in the 20th. He struck out 26 batters in the 20 innings. Only two Abilene runners touched first base in the second nine innings, Manny Gasser, catcher, being hit by a pitched ball and Brown rapping out a single in the 15th.

Hanna also pitched a wonderful game, allowing six hits in the first nine innings, four in the next and two in the last two frames. He was relieved by Ethelridge who held the Giants hitless in the last two innings. Kinzy was relieved by Duncan who allowed one hit in the last two innings.

A double-header bill was slated for Sunday between the Giants and the Gassers, but the 22-inning classic consumed the entire afternoon, 4 hours and 45 minutes to be exact. No game is counted in this, the opening of the second half of the league schedule, and both games of the scheduled double-header will have to be played at a later date.

Wanted: 80 Acres Of Land

AN EDITORIAL

They say that opportunity knocks but once and that the wise invite it in on the first knock.

Opportunity is knocking with insistence at Ozona's door now and although a group of citizens are making every effort to invite it in, they have so far been blocked at every turn.

Under the terms of the National Industrial Recovery Act, $3,000,000,000 are made available for public work projects to relieve unemployment over the nation. Coming under the head of eligible projects for financing from this fund are public parks and amusement grounds and the local committee, named by the Commissioners Court to administer such funds locally if available, have conceived the idea of providing an amusement park for Ozona.

The park as conceived by this committee would include a golf course, swimming pool, tennis courts, picnic grounds, baseball diamond etc. Planting of trees, landscaping and general beautification of the plot were to have been undertaken.

The project survey on this project has already been sent in to the state rehabilitation and relief commission and has been approved, along with surveys of other local projects which were to come under the terms of the act. Everything is ready to make formal application for the money for its construction except for one little detail—there is no place to put it.

There are 3,000 square miles of land, more or less, in Crockett County and nowhere within a reasonable distance of Ozona can eighty acres of it be bought, begged or stolen for a public amusement park.

A quarter-section of land at the north edge of the townsite of Ozona belonging to the Powell Estate was selected as a suitable site for the park and negotiations opened with the administrators of the estate for its purchase. The administrator showed a willingness to sell 80 acres of the land for park purposes provided it met with the approval of the leaseholder, T. A. Kincaid, and the project survey was sent in for the park with that site in view. Mr. Kincaid has told the committee, however, that the land will not be available for that purpose, at least not until his lease expires, and since that time an earnest search has been under way for another site, but as yet the search has been in vain.

The government's proposal under the recovery act is to make long-time loans at low interest rates for public works projects that will furnish work for unemployed and be of lasting benefit to communities. Further than that, the government proposes to make an outright grant or gift of 30 per cent of the total expenditure, the balance being loaned at advantageous terms.

The local committee proposed to take advantage of this proposal by securing a suitable site, build a concrete swimming pool and wading pool, drill wells to furnish water for it, set out trees for picnic sites, lay out and equip a golf course, build tennis courts, and possibly make other additions to make the park a recreation center for the town for all time to come, and at the same time furnish immediate employment to every unemployed person in the county. The project is to be self-liquidating, paying off its own loan, with the 30 per cent gift from the government making it that much more attractive.

That is the project as it is dreamed. But before it can become a reality, it must have a solid foundation. It can not be hung in the air—there must be solid ground to put it on. And on that point the whole proposition seems destined to failure.

Ozona needs such a recreation center possibly more than any town its size in Texas. It is 40 miles from a stream, has no recreation features whatever, and should seize on an opportunity of this kind with unanimous action. Those who are trying to bring about this lasting improvement for Ozona have no selfish axe to grind, no personal interest further than the desire for public improvement to the town and the personal desire to enjoy such facilities, and yet they have been forced to stand not too kindly rebuffs and on one occasion a downright personal insult because they had the audacity to ask for 80 acres of land, at a fair purchase price, upon which to locate such an improvement.

Is there not a landowner in Crockett County, owning land within four miles of Ozona, who is public spirited enough to sell 80 acres of it, at a fair price or a little better, upon which such a park as outlined can be located? The project is possible of accomplishment, is a bargain as the government offers it, will be an improvement that will be enjoyed by generations to come—but there must be a place to put it.

Another Ozona Couple Married In Carlsbad Mercury Reaches New High Level Of 110 In Sultry Dry Wed.

Another Ozona couple journeyed to Carlsbad, N. M., Sunday and returned man and wife.

Ben Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams, and Miss Grace Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Butler, left Ozona late Saturday night headed for Carlsbad. They were accompanied as far as Pecos City by the bride's brother-in-law, R. C. Moore, who left them there to go on to El Paso. The young couple were united in marriage by the Rev. H. G. Weldon, pastor of the Carlsbad Baptist Church at 7 o'clock Sunday morning. They returned to Ozona Monday afternoon and are making their home in an apartment across the draw.

A heat wave which has enveloped the southwest the past few days leveled down in all its fury on Ozona Wednesday, driving the mercury to a new high level for the summer.

The temperature readings made by Joe Oberkamp around noon Wednesday showed a new high of 110 degrees. The absence of the customary winds which moderate West Texas summer climate made the heat more oppressive than usual. Hopes ran high, however, that the hot, still weather would result in the badly needed rains throughout this area.

GUESTS OF LIONS

H. B. Tandy and Dr. Henry Schwartze, two new physicians who have located in Ozona, were guests of the Lions Club at its meeting Monday noon. Dr. Schwartze is associated with Dr. T. McIntire and Dr. Tandy is located in the Couch building, where he has outfitted office quarters.

Ozona Resident Is Poison Victim

Clements Wyatt Dies From Carbolic Acid In San Angelo

Clements Wyatt, 24, son of Mrs. Floyd Wyatt of Ozona, died about 9 o'clock Tuesday night in San Angelo while being rushed to a hospital for treatment for carbolic acid poisoning.

Wyatt and "Pinkie" Beall, local barber, had gone to San Angelo early this week. Mr. Wyatt planning to join a Cage Brothers construction crew engaged in road work near San Angelo. He had formerly worked for Cage Brothers in road work in this county, the family moving to Ozona when that work was in progress. The father, Floyd Wyatt, died suddenly in his tent at the camp last winter, presumably from acute indigestion.

Mr. Beal and Willie Witcher of Mertzson, another friend, were with Wyatt when he became violently ill from the poison at a residence in East Angelo. He was rushed to a hospital but died before the ambulance arrived there.

The body will probably be sent to Lampasas where the father is buried, for interment. Surviving are the mother, two brothers, Frank Baker's helper at the Flowers Bakery, and Lorraine, about 8 years old, and a sister, Wilena Wyatt, all of Ozona.

START WORK SOON ON GAS SYSTEM HERE

Fuel To Be Available For Local Consumption By Sept. 1

Natural gas will be available for local consumption in Ozona homes by September 1 and possibly sooner, it was announced here yesterday by H. H. Shaw and Harve Loomis, promoters of the Ozona Gas Company, which was recently incorporated for the distribution of natural gas in Ozona.

Work on the local distributing system will start early next week, the company officials announced while here Wednesday afternoon. M. G. Williams, another member of the firm, was not with Loomis and Shaw on their trip here this week but is expected to be here when the work is started next week.

Part of the materials and supplies for the local system have already arrived here and others are in transit. Two truck loads of meters were shipped in here last week and the necessary pipe for the mains and connections is on its way.

Gas has been contracted from the Stanolind well on the Massie estate and approximately 14 miles of pipeline will be laid to bring gas to Ozona. A complete local distributing system will be installed to serve practically every residence and business house in town, the company officials declared. Service will be available to at least a part of the town sometime in August, it is hoped, and the complete system will be in operation by September 1.

The rate for gas locally will be 80 per thousand feet, with a $2 minimum charge monthly. There will be no service charge as levied by some gas companies, making the local rate lower on minimum consumption than in San Angelo, the operators declared.

Mex Has Big Time On Money Collected For Slain Man's Funeral

At least one Mexican took a keen interest in funeral arrangements for Refugio Sanchez, who was fatally stabbed in the Mexican section of Ozona Sunday afternoon.

Armed with a subscription list, with the proper heading at the top stating that contributions were sought to defray burial expenses for the murdered man, this Mexican made a circle of the business section, picking up a quarter here, a half dollar there and lesser amounts between. The further he went the drunker he got and the more liberal with his money. He bought cigars for his friends, found a group of workers along the street paving projects in the city who complained about being out of money and fixed them up with a liberal hand-out.

It was a great spree while it lasted. But finally Sheriff Willis was informed of the goings-on and took a hand. By that time, the Mexican had become so liquored up that he fell from a high porch in little Mexico and suffered a deep gash on his forehead that required several stitches to close.

The dead man, meanwhile, had been accorded proper burial rites, a group of his fellows making up the necessary amount with which to bury him. But the benevolent soul was still taking up the collection and having a great time.

He spent the night in the county hoosegow and the next morning was fined on a drunkenness charge in justice court and after being released on bond was given the money that was left and his list and ordered to return the money to those from whom it was taken. And back over the trail he went, dishing up the quarters and halves and dimes.

MEXICAN HELD FOR MURDER OF ANOTHER HERE

Refugio Sanchez Dies From Knife Wounds; Tomas Mar Held

OLD FEUD BLAMED

Slayer Held Without Bond After Hearing In J. P. Court

Tomas Mar, about 45, is held in the Crockett County jail without bond to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of murder growing out of the knife slaying of Refugio Sanchez, 50, long time resident of Ozona, in the Mexican section of the city Sunday afternoon.

Sanchez died about two hours after being slashed across the chest, head, abdomen and hands at about 4:30 Sunday afternoon. The altercation took place in the draw just south of the Mexican school house.

An old feud was blamed by the killer for his act. According to his story to officers, he had fed and clothed Sanchez' wife after the latter had left her about five years ago and that the argument which led to the killing started over this affair. Sanchez had been away from Ozona about five years returning here just a few days ago. He was formerly a bootmaker in the boot shop operated here by the late Jack Piner.

Victim Invited Out

Sanchez was at the home of his step-son, Vicente Tobar, eating a watermelon with the family when Mar came along and was invited to partake of the watermelon, according to testimony of witnesses at the examining trial held before Justice of the Peace Bryan McDonald, Tobar and his wife led the two men together after the melon had been consumed, they told the court, and Mrs. Tobar testified to hearing Mar invite Sanchez into the draw for a talk. The men left the house and the next that was seen was the fight which resulted in the fatal stabbing. Eye witnesses to the slaying declared that Mar held Sanchez by the neck with one hand and slashed him repeatedly with a pocket knife held in the other hand. So rapid was the cutting done that one witness, who viewed the altercation from a distance of about 100 yards, declared that he thought one man was whipping the other with a quilt.

Sanchez suffered a gash about 10 inches long on his right side, the blade penetrating the right lung and two others on the left side, the lung and stomach being cut. Another gash over the right eye and numerous lesser slashes on the victim's hands were described to the court. Two step-sons, Vicente and Jose Tobar, are the only surviving relatives.

"Me No Fight"

After receiving his fatal injuries, Sanchez walked to the Mexican school, some 50 yards away, without assistance. He was brought to Dr. McIntire's office by witnesses to the tragedy, death overtaking him two hours later.

"Me no fight" were the dying words ascribed to Sanchez by Eugenio Ramirez in testimony at the examining trial Monday. Ramirez asked the dying man what the difficulty was about and the victim disclaimed any knowledge of the reason for the attack made on him, Ramirez told the court.

STREETS SURFACED

Asphalt surfacing of Ozona streets is being rapidly completed this week. The final coating of the center strip of Powell Avenue from the Old Spanish Trail South was laid this morning completing a paved strip from the baseball park to 15 miles north on the Barnhart road. The sides of the main street from the north edge of town to the OST were surfaced early in the week.

THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1933.

Every governmental official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it, showing where and how each dollar is spent. This is a fundamental principle of democratic government.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

Here's one for the taxpayer: The total of all appropriations made by the recent special session of Congress, including those which are classified as "capital expenditures," is in excess of $4,500,000,000.

One encouraging sign is that the extraordinary measures, while they appropriate definite amounts do not specify that they be entirely spent. In the $3,600,000,000 public works bill, for example, it is doubtful if more than a third of it can be used within a year.

Also encouraging is the outlook for tax revenues. For the first time since depression began the Government's internal revenue collections are exceeding those for the same period a year before.

Curiously enough, both the "common man" and the financiers have repudiated the capital gains and losses provision of the income tax law—but for definitely different reasons.

The World Economic Conference hasn't collapsed, but it's looking pretty sorry. It is, basically, an attempt to revive internationalism in a world which is now predominantly nationalistic.

IN FAIRNESS TO ALL

In view of our own choosing that we have adopted the code of rules announced last week concerning prompt payment of water bills. We have found it necessary to adopt these rules and to enforce them strictly, not only as a measure of self protection, but also in fairness to all customers alike. Delinquent accounts and their losses are charged to operating expenses and contribute to the increased cost of providing service. The prompt paying customer, then, is penalized on the same or lower for losses and added expense due to delinquencies.

Under the new rules just adopted, these unnecessary drains will be stopped. We have adopted this plan with a view to working a hardship on our customers, but for the sole purpose of operating on a business-like basis, fair to all. We will not allow losses and operating expense and to work toward ultimate success.

We Ask Your CO-OPERATION

It is our hope that the general public will be interested in this plan. We are not asking for a donation of money, but a rule that is only fair to all. We are asking for the best way we can to fair to all to be satisfied. The result is to all.

We will be happy to accept any application to you. We will be happy to accept any application to you. We will be happy to accept any application to you.

SOLICITATION OF FUNDS DECLARED UNAUTHORIZED

The following statement, prepared on behalf of residents of the Mexican section of Ozona, was submitted to The Stockman for the purpose of explaining the position of leaders of the settlement in the solicitation of funds last week for burial of Refugio Sanchez, stabbed to death here last Sunday:

"In the name of our community, we wish to make known our sincere gratefulness to all those persons who, acting honestly and sincerely, were kind enough to help on the funeral expenses of our fellow countryman who was slain recently.

"Juan W. Fernandez acted on his own accord in soliciting your aid and without consent. We had agreed to defray said expenses without calling on the county or business men and for these reasons we demanded that he return said contributions."

HERE FOR FUNERAL

Among out-of-town friends here last week for the funeral of Abe Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lee, who was killed in an airplane crash here the opening day of the celebration, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindley of Mertzon, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley White of Pandale, Mr. and Mrs. T. Modern Electric Refrigeration Will Plug These Budget Leaks!

You're throwing away 20 per cent of your food bill—if your home lacks modern refrigeration equipment—through losses in wasted food... spoiled food... and small-quantity high-price buying! This substantial sum will make the payments on a modern, efficient, money-saving Electric Refrigerator!

Food experts agree that in the average home an Electric Refrigerator will save at least one-fifth on the cost of your food. Half of that sum will be saved through the elimination of spoilage and the safe preservation of valuable left-overs. The other half will be realized through quantity buying at "week-end bargains" offered by your grocer. These important savings are possible with a modern Electric Refrigerator, because this invaluable "Electrical Servant" provides the proper temperatures for safe and healthful refrigeration... automatically!

Let a new Frigidaire earn its way in your home. You can pay as it saves—then bank the balance. Ask for a demonstration—and about present low prices and easy terms... TODAY!

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill!
