LIONS TACKLE TOUGH ELDORADO TEAM SATURDAY AFTER 13 TO 6 SET-BACK BY JUNCTION EAGLES

With the sting of a 13-6 defeat at Junction the previous Saturday still smarting, the Ozona High school Lions will invade the Eldorado High stronghold next Saturday afternoon for their second district conference game.

The Eldorado team is rated one of the strongest in the district. They went down before the Schleicher County boys week before last and they knocked off the Senora Bronchos 38 to 0 last week. Coach White of the Lions, however, has some tricky tricks up his sleeve in readiness for the Schleicher threat and Saturday's encounter promises to be one of the best games of the season. Eldorado is reported strong on open plays, passes and end runs, and have some ground-gaining spin plays and cut-backs. The locals are being drilled daily this week in readiness to meet this form of attack and are absorbing some offensive tactics calculated to upset the Eldorado defenders.

The 13-6 score in the Junction game does not give a true picture of the trend of play between the Eagles and the Lions. The locals were credited with 13 first downs to 8 for Junction and the Ozona line penetrated the 20-yard line five times while the Eagles were able to get past the 20-yard stripe only twice. These two penetrations were enough, however, for in each instance it was good for a touchdown, just one too many.

Off-side, clipping and roughing penalties and a few costly fumbles accounted for loss of the game by the locals. Junction scored its first touchdown in the first quarter and each team rung up a marker in the third. Ozona's scoring rally started from the Junction 40-yard line where the locals received a kick and marched the ball down on end runs and line plays to a touchdown. In the last quarter, the Lions had what seemed a certain touchdown to tie the score. The ball was on Junction's 50-yard line on the third down and goal to go when a pass back from center was fumbled and Junction recovered to kick out of danger.

Billy Keeling, Kerrville coach, was referee of the game. Local school officials were well pleased with his work in calling the game and declared it one of the fairest jobs of officiating they had ever witnessed.

Next Saturday's game at Eldorado has been called for 3 o'clock. A game between the second string squads from each school will be played beginning at 1 o'clock, with the first string game starting at 3.

Lemmons Opens Store In Anton

Local Merchant To Operate New Dry Goods Establishment

Ben Lemmons, proprietor of the Lemmons Dry Goods Company here, last week opened up a new dry goods store in Anton, Texas, near Lubbock. Mr. Lemmons has bought a new stock of goods for the store and augmented his purchases with new merchandise taken from excess stock of the local store, bought on their recent buying tour to the east.

Anton is located in a prosperous farming section and Mr. Lemmons has established his store in a building formerly occupied by a similar concern. The new store is enjoying splendid patronage. Mr. Lemmons reports, and he was given a hearty welcome to the town by fellow business men.

The Lemmons Dry Goods Company here is considered one of the town's greatest assets, making available first quality merchandise at prices as reasonable as those in cities and no doubt citizens of Anton will appreciate the new store and will continue to patronize it.

Revival Meeting To Close Sunday

Flowers Services Attract Large Crowds As End Nears

The Methodist revival, being conducted here by Evangelist and Mrs. R. L. Flowers, closes Sunday night. The meeting has been one of the most successful held at the Methodist church in some time. The last week of the meeting has been full of surprises. Special nights have attracted large crowds and favorable commend.

One of the great nights of the week was Men's night Wednesday night. Seldom in Ozona has there been seen such a crowd of men at church. There was more men present on men's night than there were women on Women's night. Tonight is high school night and the high school is planning to be present one hundred per cent. There will be reserved seats for the school. The subject discussed will be, "The sacred splendor of youth."

Friday night Mrs. R. L. Flowers will deliver her address, "The peril of Neglect." Ozona folk have never heard a woman who had a message that has so completely captured the people as Mrs. Flowers has. Her special women's lectures were heard by nearly every woman in the town. In these special services Mrs. Flowers discussed the Modern woman's problems. Today the house was filled to hear her last message of the series.

Mr. Flowers' messages have been very acceptable to the folk of the community. He has not been harsh but has delivered a same series of evangelistic appeals and messages. His young peoples meetings have attracted the young folk of Ozona in a great way. Day by day the young folk have crowded the basement of the church to hear The Flowers in their special series of meetings for the young folk.

Program for the remainder of the revival will be as follows:

Friday night, Mrs. Flowers will speak, Subject "The peril of neglect."

Saturday night, The subject will be "A false refuge."

Sunday morning, Evangelist Flowers will speak on "Gratitude"

Sunday night, Mrs. Flowers will speak, Subject "Your last call."

Livestock Men To Meet Friday

Ranchers To Oppose Removal Of R.A.C.C. Angelo Branch

A meeting of West Texas ranchers, business men and bankers has been called for 10 o'clock Friday morning on the roof garden of the St. Angelus Hotel in San Angelo for the purpose of discussing means of preventing removal of the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation branch from this section or to devise means of providing adequate and available federal loan facilities for livestock producers of the area.

The meeting was called by a group of 24 business men, bankers and livestock producers after a recent conference in San Angelo concerning an announcement of a proposal to discontinue the San Angelo branch and centralize the work of the corporation from a new organization at Houston to handle the work of agricultural finance in Texas. T. A. Kincaid, president of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas, and Scott Peters, cashier of the Ozona National Bank, were among the signers of the call for the conference.

It is said that the bulk of loans made by the various branches of the R.A.C.C. have been made in the livestock country, and that the availability of the branches in the producing areas has made this necessary financing possible. Removal of the institution to a distant city will seriously handicap operations and work a hardship on the industry, it is declared.

County Employees On NRA Schedule

Commissioners Adopt Hours And Wage Of Recovery Plan

Crockett County has gone NRA. By vote of the Commissioners Court, all county employees have been placed on the N.R.A. schedule of hours and wages. Hereafter, labor in the employ of the county will work not over 8 hours a day nor more than 40 hours a week. The wage scale as set out by the court will be 20 cents an hour for ordinary labor and a maximum of 30 cents an hour. The court's order called attention to the difficulty of keeping machinery in good condition when changing operators frequently, and ordered that the same two operators now employed be continued in that capacity.

Threat Of Feed Bills For Winter Banished By Rain

More than an inch of rain fell here during the past week-end to bring much needed relief from a threatened drought that had made the outlook of the ranching industry for the winter months one of gloom for the most part. A shower falling over a large area Thursday night of last week amounted to a half inch here and .85 of an inch was recorded at the Joe Oberkamp gauge in Saturday night's fall.

The rain was general throughout the territory and came in time to be of immense benefit to winter range for sheep and goats. Weeds and grass are already greening up and with the continued warm weather, ranchers will go into the winter with good feed.

FALLS FROM BLUFF

Stanley Jeffers, employed on the Roger Dudley ranch, suffered two broken ribs and a sprained ankle last week when he fell from the top of a 35-foot bluff on the Dudley ranch. Jeffers was standing on the edge of the bluff when rock and dirt caved from under his feet. He was brought to Ozona for treatment.

State Maintenance Juno Road Sought

Court Calls On Highway Dept. To Take Over South Road

Regular maintenance by the State Highway Department of the Ozona-Juno road, a continuation of State Highway No. 163, is being sought by the Commissioners Court of Crockett County in an order passed at its October session.

In its order, the court recited the fact that "from time to time the court has respectfully asked the State Highway Commission to take over the road—it being the mail route from Ozona to Comstock."

"We believe the state should take over this road," the court's memorial continued. "It is extending state highway No. 163 south to the north line of Val Verde County and with the co-operation of Val Verde County on to Comstock so that Highway 163 would extend almost due north and south from 99 at Barnhart to the border highway at Comstock. Crockett and Val Verde Counties have opened up this road and have made it one of the best in the state. It is fenced all the way and there are no high grades on it. Much of it has been graveled and calched and we believe Mr. Moursund or any other district engineer would make to the commission a favorable report on this request."

Red Cross Field Man Coming Wed.

C. E. Palmer To Confer With Local Committee On Roll Call

C. Edway Palmer, West Texas Red Cross field representative, is scheduled to be in Ozona next Wednesday for a conference with members of the local Red Cross executive committee relative to plans for the annual Red Cross Roll Call drive in November and relief work during the coming winter.

Mr. Palmer is making a tour of chapters in this area, assisting with the formation of plans for the Roll Call drives. The Roll Call opens officially on November 11 and continues until Thanksgiving. I. G. Rape is local Roll Call chairman and will organize his workers at an early date.

Stir Interest In Home Demonstration Work For Crockett

Miss Gertrude L. Blodgett, district agent, home demonstration work, sponsored by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the A. & M. College of Texas, with headquarters at A. & M., was a visitor to Ozona recently in the interest of a project for bringing a home demonstration agent to Crockett County.

Miss Blodgett was accompanied by agents from Sutton and Schleicher Counties, who brought a number of exhibits of the work of club women in those counties under the direction of the agents. This work, peculiar to the ranch country, is constructive undertakings on the part of the women in the livestock producing areas, and has resulted in considerable interest in club work in the neighboring counties, the agents said.

Employment of a demonstration agent is a co-operative undertaking on the part of the county, A. & M. College and the U. S. department of agriculture. Irion county is interested in sharing a part-time agent with Crockett County and this project was the occasion of the visit of the district agent here. Being unable to see members of the Commissioners Court, Miss Blodgett conferred with local club women with a view to determining local interest in the project and its feasibility.

RELIEF WORK PLACED UNDER COUNTY BOARD

Commissioners Appoint Group To Supervise Administration

DIRECTOR CHOSEN

R. O. Smith Employed To Supervise Work Relief For County

Administrative machinery for relief work in Crockett County during the coming winter was set in motion under appointment of the county Commissioners Court last week. A county administrative board, appointed by the court, met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of outlining relief plans, work projects and to select a county relief administrator to have charge of the direction of work relief projects, direct relief and to be responsible for the multiplicity of reports that must be made to the state Rehabilitation and Relief Board at Austin.

Royce Smith was chosen by the relief board as Crockett County relief director at a salary of $50 a month. The maximum salary allowed the director under the state and federal relief administration is $100 a month.

Members of the administrative board appointed by the Commissioners Court are M. M. Fulmer, chairman, J. H. Meredith, Hugh Childress, Jr., A. W. Jones and Evert White. This board will supervise expenditure of state and federal relief funds allotted to this county, the relief director handling details of the work under the supervision of the board.

R.F.C. funds allotted to this county during the past summer have been held in readiness for work relief projects as the need arises this winter, and this fund will be used in the various projects as they are carried out. Approval of a co-operative plan to use relief labor in canning meat for the Red Cross is now being sought of the Texas commission. The Red Cross canning was done by voluntary workers last year. Further street repair work may also be undertaken as projects for work relief.

Round Table Discussion—conducted by Mrs. Joe Pierce.

Business Session.
C. S. Denham in his discussion of "Why the school and home should cooperate" gave four reasons for home and school inter-relationship; namely, (1) because of what the school stands for, (2) because of what parents can give to the teacher, (3) because of the investment that has been made in education, and (4) because of seven objectives—health and safety, demand of fundamental processes, worthy home membership, vocational guidances, citizenship, leisure time, and ethical character. Mr. Denham discussed fully. He concluded by stating that if the venture of home and school co-operation were to be a success,

THE SPIRIT OF A TOWN

The quality and character of communities varies with the type of citizenry who make them up. Some towns are without much semblance of ordinary decency, the buildings and homes within them for the most part being shoddy and run-down, while the men and women who are seen sitting or walking about, (mostly just sitting), are about as agile and speedy in their perambulations as a glacier moving over a mountain area.

There are many such towns in the world—nearly all of them with rapidly decreasing populations. They have "gone to seed," and decades will pass before many of them reap a better crop.

Then there are other communities who reveal to the world varying degrees of progress and improvement, whose populations are correspondingly more animated, whose buildings and homes tell the cock-eyed world that: "Here, folks, is a place where life may be lived to its fullest. Come and live with us, enjoy yourselves, rear your families, and otherwise be of good cheer and enduring peace."

After all, it is the SPIRIT and the COOPERATION of a group of human beings who constitute what we call communities that determines the quality and the character of them. What people THINK, what they HOPE and YEARN for, what they are willing to SACRIFICE for are generally reflected in the physical property within their corporate limits. And these qualities are also reflected in the speedier and more progressive perambulations of people who can out-walk any glacier that ever thawed its way over the landscape.—Eccentric, Birmingham, Mich.

While flying over Hoover Dam on a recent air trip from Chicago to the Coast, Will Rogers dropped off his daily message to newspapers. One of his remarks was:

"Hope they don't irrigate more land so they can raise more things they can't sell, and will have to plow up more rows, kill more pigs to keep 'em from becoming hogs."

Our politicians still talk glibly of pouring new millions into irrigation schemes to make more farms out of waste land and deserts, thus boosting over-production of agricultural crops, which another group of politicians will expect the taxpayers to pay for, to bring about farm relief.

SCANDALS

By THE TOWN GOSSIP

Have you been to church? That's the question you hear most often on the streets these days. For the time being, the revival meeting being conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Flowers has even the Machine Gun Kelly case backed off the map as a topic of conversation in the city. Honest to goodness, folks, if you have not been fortunate enough to have heard these two evangelists you have missed something—T. G. gripped and made all manner of excuses for three days but the wife finally had her way and we were muzzled and led more or less gracefully down the aisle. For the first song or two we stood dejected and disgusted with our unhappy lot but when the choir began to sing "When the Roll is Called up Yonder" I just couldn't refrain from joining in the refrain. Since that time I have really enjoyed being there and feel that our community is extremely fortunate in having these two good people with us.

But with this kind of an atmosphere round town, T. G. who deals in gossip—salacious gossip preferred—has had quite some difficulty in picking up anything of a sordid nature about which to write. He has explained the situation to Mr. Flowers and Mr. Flowers has given this little episode concerning himself:

It seems that Mr. Flowers set out one evening to attend a party "by children for children." "Don't announce me," he said to the servant at the door. Leaving his hat and coat downstairs, he quietly opened the drawing room door, having been assured of the presence of company by a buzzing of voices within. Dropping on his hands and knees, he entered, trying to neigh like a horse and bleat like a goat. His performance was received by a dead silence and, looking up, he found himself in the company of people in formal dress, awaiting the summons to an 3 o'clock dinner. The children's party was next door.

T. G. asked a certain well known roughneck in town why he had not been coming to church. R. N.'s reply was—"Well, I'll tell you—the first time I went to church, they poured water in my face—and the second time they tied me to a woman from whom I've never been able to break loose. "And the next time," T. G. answered, "they'll throw dirt on you."

And Rev. Meredith tells us of the time he was appointed to break the news of a fatal accident to the widow of the victim. "I regret to inform you that your husband is in the arms of Abraham" was the preacher's rather euphonious way of expressing the sad fact.

"Well," she replied after thinking the matter over a moment, "I hope you are sure it's Abraham and not some woman."

The doctor keeps his wife well for nothing. The preacher keeps his wife good for nothing.

DOERS AND LEANERS

"WE'VE GOT TOO MANY LEANERS," states P. H. Joyce, president of the Chicago Great Western Railroad, recently. "Too many people in this country have not learned to sharpen their wits on the grindstone of necessity. NOBODY EVER GOT ANYWHERE BY WAITING. Doing something, even if you do it wrong is better than doing nothing at all.

I am reminded of a college president who says the trouble today is everybody is waiting, from college students to business executives. A lot of seniors are planning post-graduate courses for next year—to wait for better times and better chances for jobs. I'm telling my boys not to come back. I'm telling them to get out and hustle the way their fathers had to do."

That is the very essence of our troubles of today in the economic world. Too many people are waiting to be re-born with a silver spoon in their mouths. Too many young folks are just "resting up" till a good job shows up. Quite too many older ones finding a paternal government willing to give them aid, are sitting by, accepting a dole and living off others who are bearing thus a double burden—accepting aims when they should be ashamed to do so, and forming the fixed habit of becoming a "leaner."

The doers of today will rule the world tomorrow. —Republican-Leader, Salem, Ind.

WHAT DO YOU EXPECT FROM YOUR PAPER?

What do you expect from your newspaper? Well you expect more from your newspaper than you do from any other person or institution to which you pay the sum of $2.00 a year. You expect your newspaper to give you all the news for 52 weeks. That's why you pay $2.00 for it, but,

You expect your newspaper to take the lead in advocating changes for the betterment of the community.

You expect your newspaper to expose graft in public affairs, to forestall it by publishing itemized accounts of all public moneys spent.

You expect your newspaper to maintain a high standard of morality, supporting things that are right and condemning things that are wrong.

You expect your newspaper to maintain a high standard of enterprise, devoting column after column to propaganda, supporting the band, the baseball team, community celebrations, Boy Scouts, high school athletics, school programs, home talent plays and dozens of such causes and events.

You expect your paper to boost for good roads and protect your community's claim to its share of road improvements.

You expect your newspaper to build up confidence in your home financial institutions and protect home investors from making unwise investments of surplus funds, warning against fake salesmen and other financial pirates.

You expect your newspaper to combat the peddler nuisance. You expect your newspaper to establish friendly contact with the rural readers so as to induce them to make your town their town.

You expect your newspaper to give notice of all public meetings, public observances, conventions, etc.

You expect your newspaper to urge support of poor relief benefits, library drives, Red Cross drives, Christmas Seal drives, Legion and Auxiliary drives, poppy sales, forget-me-not sales, have-a-heart drives, etc.

You expect your newspaper to publish church notices, church programs, club news, farm bureau information, demonstration unit news, market news, weather news, bring you the market reports and cover all doings of the many semi-public organizations.

You expect your newspaper to support every meritorious organization effort for the city's good.

And you expect all this for $2.00 a year.

No, it can't be done for that. The money you, as a subscriber pay for this paper covers less than one-fourth the cost of publishing the paper. The other three-fourths must be paid by advertisers.

Since the advertisers pay a large share of the expense of publishing your newspaper, don't you think you owe them the duty to patronize them whenever they offer you equal or better values than non-advertisers?

And you, Mr. Advertiser, don't you think that in view of the many services which the newspaper performs, for which the news paper derives no compensation, but which mean more business and more profits to you, the newspaper deserves your advertising and printing business? Make your community newspaper your advertising and printing medium and you help build up the community. Send your advertising dollar away from home and you do just what you wouldn't want others to do to whom you look for your business. It is just as important that the advertising dollar remains in the community as it is for the grocery dollar and the clothing dollar and the rest of the commodity dollars that make your town prosperous to remain at home.—Advance-Press, Springfield, Minn.

Lynch Davidson Opposes Bonds

Amendment Voted By People On Misrepresentation

The following statement was issued by Lynch Davidson of Houston:

After its being voted upon I have opposed the $20,000,000 Bond Issue Amendment to the Constitution of Texas, and that it was being promoted and advocated by propaganda consisting mostly of professional politicians, office holders, workers and job seekers, more or less by the same means that tried to load this State with a $250,000,000.00 Road Issue.

The ink was hardly dry on the amendment before there appeared in the press of the State full proof and charge by the testimony of Westbrook before the State Investigating Committee, a report from which is here reprinted.

Westbrook admitted that he had relieved work up to now as inefficiently handled, contributed to thousands not entitled to it, admitted poll tax payments out of relief funds, admitted the use of POLITICAL INFLUENCE in relief work, acknowledged some cases of fraud and bribery, cited that some stores on local committees had had private accounts out of relief grants, and finally admitted the commission with his support had made itself a HUGE PROPAGANDA AGENCY FOR THE BOND ISSUE AMENDMENT WHICH HE HOPED TO ADMINISTER.

With its paid employees in every community in the State, the Association administered by Westbrook, with the assistance of office holders and politicians organized themselves into a Propaganda Agency for the Bond Issue Amendment which they hoped to administer. That is the substance and gist of Mr. Westbrook's testimony.

These facts have been generally known prior to election day, the Bond Issue Amendment would have been carried, and they could have been ascertained by any newspaper willing to search below the surface. The papers of Texas who advocated this $20,000,000 Bond Issue have people a poor service when they warrant their expenses could have been properly handled had they made even a partial survey of the situation.

The resultant facts as developed by the Westbrook Agency.

The $20,000,000 Bond Issue was voted by the people of Texas upon misrepresentation. Neither in law nor morals should they be bound. The only remedy lies in the hands of the Legislature. It should be to issue or make saleable bonds by legislative enactment, and give full well that the people would never have voted had they been truthfully informed.

Article 3, Section 51 of the Constitution, gives the Legislature the power to grant necessary relief and it can be done, without issuance of Bonds, under the distribution, and without the costly welfare work-

Health Dept. Warns Against Menace Of Scarlet Fever Spread

Austin, Texas, Oct. 18.—The State Department of Health has just issued a warning in regard to scarlet fever, as the number of cases usually increases during the fall months. Last year over twenty-six hundred cases were reported in Texas. The majority of deaths occur from October thru February.

Scarlet fever is a very contagious and serious disease. Grown people may catch scarlet fever, but children under 15 years are most likely to have it, if exposed. It is especially dangerous for children under 5 years, and for babies do not let your children take any chances with scarlet fever. Call the doctor as soon as the symptoms appear.

If your child is going to have scarlet fever, the first signs you may notice are that he seems tired, restless and out of sorts. Usually, there is a sore throat, chill, vomiting, or convulsion. The child has fever. His skin is dry and hot. His tongue is furred, and under this white covering, it is red and swollen. In ordinary cases, these early signs are followed in a day or two by a rash. Little flat red points, close together, appear first on the neck and chest. Soon the rash is over most of the body and brilliant in color. The doctor is required by law to report the case to the local health officer. Do your part by following carefully the quarantine instructions which the health officer will give you. Children who have had scarlet fever, or who have been exposed, must not return to school until permission is given by the health officer and physician. A severe or fatal case of scarlet fever may develop from contact with some one who has only a light attack.

Editor Who Wrote First and Second Chapter of Jim Expresses Opinion Of "Hooley," The Louisiana Crawfish

EDITOR'S NOTE—Editor W. F. Kellis of Sterling City, who wrote the "First and Second Chapter of Jim," two bits of unrivaled satire and a bold resume of the bolder record of Jim Ferguson in Texas politics, has turned his versatile pen on Senator Hooley Long of Louisiana. When Editor Kellis sees fit to unloose his big guns on crooked and low politicians, what he writes is worthy of reproduction and here is his chapter on Hooley:

Senator Huey (Hooley) Long, of Louisiana, who is supposed to represent that state in the United States Senate, has played more roles since he began his political career than perhaps, any other man who reflected his ugly disposition in the public mirror. Aside from being a natural born crook, if the public prints are to be credited, he has played the blackguard, the tough, roughneck, trouble maker, and has never ceased to be a blatant jackass on all occasions.

Without any intention of casting reflection on his maternal ancestors, yet, Hooley, by practice, has made himself a member of that family which chases cats, sucks eggs and sits upon his haunches and digs fleas with its hind feet. He demonstrated this fact the other day when he got drunk (they say he is that way during most of his working hours) went to a club dinner and proceeded to raise a rough house, and wound up his roughneck play by getting a bunch of 'knuckles in his eye when he mistook a man's leg for a telephone post after the custom of any other ill mannered cur.

Hooley Long is U. S. Senator from Louisiana, and while a senator is supposed to represent the sentiment of the decent element of his state, yet, I do not for a moment concede that Hooley represents only the wharf rat element of that fair state. Even a Louisiana cane-field nigger would consult the dignity of his sable person before he would be guilty of such a male canine act.

I have berated jimferguson because he has used Texas as a toilet, yet, jimferguson is a gentleman, a statesman and a scholar compared to Hooley Long. jimferguson in all his shady dealings, never one time played the cur, as Hooley did. Even if jimferguson did play crook as the public records show, he felt the toe of the boot of the Senate for his misconduct. He got his lesson. But Hooley, why, he is a U. S. Senator, you know. The U. S. Senate has so far condoned and overlooked Hooley's rough stupp.

No one in the Senate, so far as I know, has even lifted a finger against Hooley's dogfight ethics.

But Hooley's buzzardly career is fast nearing an end. A bunch of angry and disgusted women are out after Hooley's top-knot, and they are going to get it, too! These good women are tired of seeing this uncouth, pusillanimous buzzard puking in the face of the nation. They are disgusted at the sight of a gutless personell of the most dignified institution of the nation, allowing a reprobate like Hooley Long to smear his filth over the sacred and honorable traditions of that most august institution.

These women are reaching out after Hooley, and God pity the man who gets in their way. Already their brooms are soaked in hot water for cleaning the filth from the Senate. They will tie a can to the tail of this cur, pour hot water on his back and encourage his speed when he makes his run for the hiweeds. It is going to be fun when these women get in final action.

It is a shame that men will sit around and wait for the women to clean house. But when these women get in action, you ought to see how busy the men will get.

Louisiana will elect another Senator in the near future. He is not going to be a cur, either. He is not going to be drunk when he is supposed to be serving his people. They will at least replace Hooley with a gentleman—even if he is not a statesman.

Here's Proof of Attorney General Allred's Pudding

There is any doubt in the minds of Texans as to the ability of Attorney General James V. Allred to collect all bills, particularly those incurred when Mr. Allred hires an oil company into court, here is a photostat copy of the check for $1073.00 which was given in the judgment of the State of Texas against the Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas Co. It is the Attorney-General's Exhibit "A" for corporations who would step on Old Man Texas' toes.

Warn Cancer Victims Against Fake Cures Offered By Quacks

Austin, Tex., Oct. 17.—The increasing number of persons in Texas dying from cancer, justifies a warning at this time against cancer quacks and so-called cancer cures. While newspapers, as a rule, do not carry advertising of this type, there are many other ways by which misinformation can reach the public. Undoubtedly there are many persons who, being thus deluded from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims while others not having cancer, are fleeced out of much money for a cure," stated Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

"There are but two ways of treating a cancer. First, by surgery; and second, by the use of radium or X-ray. Treatment must be started early and in the hands of a competent surgeon. Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors and is used in nearly two-thirds of the cases. Frequently the two methods are combined. Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves, and diets are valueless.

"The great bulwark against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency and it is unfortunate that the majority of those with cancer do not seek medical advice until beyond a permanent cure. No hope should be placed in fake cancer prophets and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to your physician of any symptoms which may be suspected to be the beginning of cancer, should be relied upon. These symptoms are: Any unusual bleeding from any body opening, any lump in the breast or other part of the body, any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion. These conditions may not be cancer, but sometimes they are forerunners of the more common types of this disease. Where cancer is suspected, do not delay, but consult your physician at once."

Commercial Failures Show Sharp Decline in Texas During Sept.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 17.—Although liabilities were large the number of commercial failures in September was extremely small, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. There were only eighteen bankruptcies in September, against 33 in August and 47 in September, 1932. Liabilities of the firms, however, totaled $845,000, compared with $765,000 in August and $799,000 for September last year. Assets, on the other hand, were only $110-

000, as against $418,000 in August and $417,000 in September, 1932.

For the entire third quarter of the year the number of failures was 51 per cent less than for the corresponding period last year; total liabilities were 51 per cent

MEDICAL ADVICE

- If you want to ... keep the bowel action regular and comfortable ... make constipated stools as rare as colds ... avoid danger of bowel strain —use a liquid laxative

Can constipation be overcome? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" declare thousands who have followed their advice and know.

You are not apt to cure your constipation with salts, pills and tablets, or any habit-forming cathartics. But you can overcome this condition just by gentle regulation with a suitable liquid laxative.

Why Hospitals use a liquid laxative The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can be controlled. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Will not irritate kidneys.

The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, with no discomfort at the time, or afterward.

The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it!

In buying any laxative, read the label. It contains a full and complete list of ingredients. The name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is printed plainly on the label; fresh herbs, pure pepsin, active—only.

Texas Library Gets Copy First Edition Of King James Bible

Austin, Texas, Oct. 17.—What library authorities deem the greatest single book ever brought into the State has just been given to The University of Texas by Mrs. Miriam Lucher Stark of Orange, Texas. This is a first edition of the authorized translation of the Bible, familiarly known as the King James Translation, printed in 1611. Because of its influence upon the development of the English language and literature it has come to be called "the greatest book in the world."

In 1604 King James of England sought out the best scholars of his kingdom and entrusted to them the task of revising "the Bishop's Bible," the edition then in most common use. The result, after seven years of labor, was the most admirable translation of the Bible ever made in any language, the model by which the English tongue has developed. A perfect copy has long been unattainable. The Stark copy is an unusually good one, being the latest known. It was bought several weeks ago in England by Mrs. Stark, who is adding it to her collection already given to the University.

Mrs. Stark, mother of Regent H. J. Lucher Stark, has given to The University of Texas a collection of rare books and manuscripts valued at approximately three million dollars, and a fine arts museum of equal or greater value.

A fool may chance to put something into a wise man's head.

CONFIDENCE

That is what we have heard discussed many times in the past few years—CONFIDENCE.

We know there are many who have CONFIDENCE in what we tell them about our merchandise. They know—even when it means lost sales to us that what we tell them they can depend on.

That is why so many come seeking fresh eggs from us—or vegetables. We do not claim eggs to be FRESH unless we know whose flock of hens laid the eggs—and when we do not represent vegetables to you to be prime when they are so-so.

Mistakes are made—but we will go on record—that there are none to our knowledge which have not been corrected.

You may have confidence in our prices too. Not an item in the store but what bears its part of the profit. We sacrifice no fancy goods price and add it on a staple article—or vice versa. Changes come so rapid—up or down that you have no way of knowing what price is high—or low—from one day until the next—unless you ask. At the present—beans which were a few weeks ago 8½c a pound are selling today at 4½c. Tomorrow?
