Annual Fun-Night Program In Gym Tonight At 8:15

Gymnastics, Dancing, Band Featured; Benefit Boy Scouts

It's fun night tonight in the high school gymnasium. A community program of varied entertainment consisting of a band concert, gymnastics, a Colonial dance, break-down music and fun for everybody, is planned beginning at 8:15 in the high school gymnasium.

A nominal admission charge of 10 cents for students and 20 cents for adults will be made. The proceeds to go into the troop treasury of Boy Scout troop 53.

The evening's program will be opened by the high school band, carrying on without its director, Arnold Kleinschmidt, who reported this week to San Antonio to begin his training as an aviation cadet. Senior members of the band will take turns with the baton in directing the players in tonight's concert, which may be the last appearance of the band as such this year, since school authorities see little chance of a replacement for the director at this time of year.

Following the band numbers, gymnastic classes from junior high school and the high school will put on a demonstration, the junior high boys under the direction of R. H. Garner and the high school boys directed by Coach Elmo McCook. Boy Scouts will contribute a group of songs under the direction of L. B. Cox, III.

The fun-night program will be polished off with a performance by the ever-popular team of Baker and Senne, Hubert Baker with his guitar and banjo and George Senne with his fiddle.

Point Values Of Meats, Fats Are Announced

New Rationing Program To Become Effective Mon. Morning

Washington, March 24.—Point values that consumers will pay beginning next Monday morning, March 29, for meats, cheeses, fats and oils, and canned fish under the newest and largest wartime food rationing program were released Wednesday by the Office of Price Administration.

Examination of the "official table of consumer point values," which every seller of the newly rationed foods will be required to display in his store, discloses that meats-fats ratios are relatively more liberal than the rations of processed foods.

The weekly allotment of 16 points per person, represented by red stamps in War Ration Book No. 2, compares with an average weekly allotment of 12 points under the canned goods program. On a "per pound" basis, the point values of individual items under the meats-fats program are sharply lower.

Almost all popular meat cuts have point values of eight points a pound and less. Butter is assigned a value of eight points a pound and a similar value is given to all of the rationed cheeses. All canned fish is valued at seven points a pound.

OPA officials emphasized that while the first point values under the new program have been set with the most careful regard to supply and consumer preferences, it is not possible to gauge these and other factors in advance with absolute accuracy. Adjustments will be made whenever they are indicated to be necessary by actual operations under the program.

A list of the principal items on the official consumer point table in terms of points per pound follows:

Other members of the board who will hold office for another year are Scott Peters, George Bean and Madden Read.

Mexican Dinner, Program Enjoyed By Rotary Club

School Classes Entertain Service Club At Luncheon

A highlight in the Rotary year was a rare treat provided for the service club and its guests Tuesday by the schools, tapped off with a dinner of delicious Mexican food followed by a Latin-American program provided by the seventh grade classes in Spanish under the direction of Miss Zelma Scott.

Girls of the homemaking department under supervision of Mrs. Marl Westerman prepared and served the dinner in the department rooms, the menu consisting of typically Mexican foods well prepared and thoroughly enjoyed by the men. Girls of the department, dressed in Spanish costumes received their guests and served them in the department's dining room after which the men went to the auditorium for the program.

The program opened with the singing of "El Rancho Grande" by the seventh grade class, Miss Rebecca Anderson accompanying. Kerry Tandy introduced the program's theme with a discussion of "Why study Spanish?", pointing out the statewide move to teach the language in grade schools and explaining the need for Americans to learn the language of their neighbors to the South for a better understanding among peoples of the Americas.

A Spanish language playlet, "Los Pantalones de Enrique," (Henry's Pants) was enacted by a cast composed of Jane Augustine, Lillian Schneemann, Mary Kath-

Rev. A. C. Donath To Deliver Three Lectures Here

Angelo Pastor, Former Missionary To Nigeria Here Tuesday

Rev. A. C. Donath, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Angelo, and for seven years a missionary in Nigeria, in west Africa, will deliver three lectures in Ozona next Tuesday.

He will be a guest of the Ozona Rotary Club at its noon luncheon at Hotel Ozona and will be presented in a talk on his experiences in Africa. During his years as a missionary in Nigeria, Rev. Donath served principally in the field of publishing and evangelistic work.

In the afternoon the visitor will address the student body of Ozona schools in the auditorium, at which time he is expected to exhibit his collection of curios and souvenirs gathered during his stay in Africa.

In the evening, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, Rev. Donath will speak at the First Baptist Church on the subject of mission work in Africa. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to this service, the pastor, Rev. Clyde Childers, announced.

Scout Executive Confers With Local Leaders On Program

Joe O. Galbraith, Boy Scout field executive of the Concho valley Council, was in Ozona last Friday and Saturday on Cub and Scout business.

After conferring with Cub leaders, Rev. Clyde Childers, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cabaness, Mr. Galbraith assisted these leaders in formulating plans for the local training and program.

Friday night the Scout executive met with Scoutmaster Hubert Baker and Assistant Oscar Kost for a conference on the Scoutmaster training program. He also contacted leaders of Troop 63, the Latin-American troop, conferring with Scoutmaster Eugene Ramirez and Committeeman Ed Vitela on plans for summer camping.

Troop 53, now sponsored by the Ozona Rotary Club, is in the best condition since organization of Scouting here, Mr. Galbraith declared, and complimented local Scouters and the boys on the progress being made in the troop.

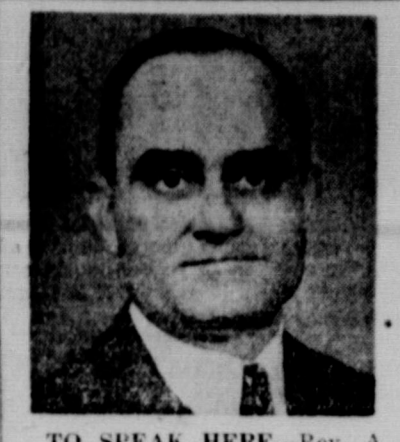

Band Director To Air Service; Group Carries On

Arnold Kleinschmidt, Ozona High School band director, left Monday night after receiving his call from the Army Air Corps to report for active service as an aviation cadet. Mr. Kleinschmidt enlisted for cadet training several months ago and has continued his position here pending his call to duty.

C. S. Denham, superintendent of schools, is pinch hitting with the band each morning at 8 o'clock in order to keep the group functioning at least through Thursday night of this week when they are scheduled to play at the annual Fun Night program in the gymnasium this evening at 8:15 o'clock.

The band is to be directed in its Fun Night program by its Senior members, each Senior taking turns with the baton through the evening's program.

The question of whether or not an effort will be made to continue the band through the balance of the present school year is being studied, Mr. Denham said, with strong possibility that the musical organization will be disbanded after tonight. Final announcement on the decision will be made at the Fun Night program.

TO SPEAK HERE—Rev. A. C. Donath, pastor of the First Baptist Church, San Angelo, and for seven years a missionary to Nigeria, in West Africa, will deliver three lectures here next Tuesday. He will speak at the Rotary luncheon at noon, at 2 p.m. to the high school students and at 8:15 p.m. at the Baptist Church.

2,000 Gals. Water Offered Free To Victory Gardeners

Water District Offers Attractive Plan To Encourage Planting

As an inducement to Ozonans to plant Victory Gardens this summer as a means of cooperating in the conservation of food supplies in the war program, directors of the Crockett County Water Control and Improvement District yesterday announced a plan under which victory gardeners will be entitled to 2,000 gallons of water each month free of charge provided they meet certain conditions.

The free water comes after the first 5,000 gallons is used. Under the present rates, the first 5,000 gallons cost $3.50 and gardeners now will be entitled to 7,000 gallons at the same price they previously paid for 5,000 gallons.

The only condition specified by the new plan is that the victory garden must be a minimum of 125 square feet in size. Thus a garden 10 by 12½ feet in size will qualify for the 2,000 extra gallons of water.

The new plan goes into effect immediately, or within the next few days when meters are read for March billing. The new rate, or the 2,000 gallons of free water, will be reflected in bills for water used in April, which customers will receive on May 1.

San Jacinto Day Observed By Schools With Holiday Apr. 23

San Jacinto Day, April 21, will be observed by Ozona schools with a holiday on Friday, April 23, it was announced this week by C. S. Denham, superintendent.

Since San Jacinto day falls on Wednesday this year, school authorities decided to observe the day with a holiday on Friday of the week, thus avoiding a break in the middle of the week's school work and providing an extra day for the normal week-end holiday. A San Jacinto Day program will be presented at the assembly hour on Thursday afternoon in the auditorium.

Marvin Porter Improving From Burns, Sister Reports

Mildred Porter, former Ozona school girl who is now living with her grandmother in Big Lake and attending school there, writes to report on the condition of her brother, Marvin Porter, who also formerly attended school here, and who was seriously burned recently while fighting a fire at Midland.

"Marvin is improving all except his hands," Mildred writes. "They have grafted skin from his leg to his hands and the doctor says they are drawing, but otherwise he is improving. He has lost 52 pounds." Porter and a companion were saturated with flaming gasoline when the fuel tank of a truck exploded while they were attempting to extinguish a blaze in the machine.

Half-Inch General Rain Falls Over Ranching Section

March Drouth-Breaker Is Welcomed By Ranch Industry

Old timers of West Texas will tell you that a drouth-breaking rain will never fall in March. But just that happened this week.

A general rain, averaging a half inch, fell over drouth-parched range lands of Crockett and surrounding area Tuesday night. Some ranchers in the county reported falls above a half inch, up to an inch and a little over.

With feed almost impossible to obtain, the rain was a life-saver for the ranch industry. With a new crop of lambs on the ground, the rain came in time to promote growth of weeds and grass to give the newcomers a good start, barring a return visit from cold weather before green feed can make its appearance. At any rate, the fall, temporarily at least, removed the awesome threat of drouth and produced broad smiles in the ranch land once again.

Restrictions On Meat Slaughtering To Be Explained

Meeting In AAA Office Saturday To Explain New Program

Betty Bratcher, County AAA Administrative Officer, will explain government restrictions on meat slaughtering to Crockett county meat slaughterers, dealers, and the local War Board at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, March 27th in the AAA Office. This session was called by the Crockett county USDA War Board as Secretary of Agriculture Wickard has placed upon them the responsibility of "fully acquainting all farmers, slaughterers, dealers and agents with the purposes and provisions of the order."

Meat permits to all Texas farmers in all areas and to local butchers and meat packers in small towns will be issued by county USDA war boards under the meat management program B. F. Vance, Chairman, USDA War Board, said this week.

Under the program, announced by Secretary Wickard, all persons who slaughter and sell meat must have permits by April 1.

Object of the national meat program is to control black market operations, to obtain adequate supplies of meat for direct war needs, and to secure the necessary control over the supply of meat so that it can be fairly distributed through consumer rationing.

Warn Motorists New License Must Be On April 1

Only 348 Plates Of All Classes Issued Up To Yesterday

Crockett county motorists were warned yesterday by Sheriff Frank James of the near deadline for the purchase of 1943 motor license plates.

The tiny plates, which this year are to be attached to the 1942 license tags, have been on sale since March 1, and up to yesterday only 348 licenses of all classes had been issued. Of this number 225 were passenger cars, 85 were farm plates, 35 commercial licenses and three trailers. Around twice that number is expected to be licensed.

The sheriff and tax collector also renewed the warning that all car owners must have certificates of title in their own name before new licenses can be issued. New licenses must be on all cars beginning April 1, it was pointed out.

Explodes Theory 1918 Treaty Cause Of Hitler's Rise

Seeger Dubs Prussian Militarists Curse Of German History

The German inspired idea that the so-called harsh terms of the Treaty of Versailles was largely responsible for the rise of Hitler and the German war makers, repeated for 25 years by well-meaning but misinformed Americans, was branded a "profound mistake" by Gerhart Seeger, fourth and last speaker in the 1943 Rotary-sponsored Institute of International Understanding, who spoke to a large audience Monday evening in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Seeger spoke with authority on his subject. He was a German citizen, prominent in German politics, having served as a member of the German Reichstag, a position he held at the time the present Hitler regime seized power, and was among the early victims of the Hitlerite wrath at native opposition and spent nine months in German prisons and concentration camps before escaping, finally to America to become an American citizen.

"There are some who say that the Treaty of Versailles was largely responsible for Hitler's rise to power," Mr. Seeger said. "That is a profound mistake." He then pointed to the principal provisions of the treaty and recounted the overthrow of each provision one by one. German reparations as demanded by the treaty were never paid by Germany, the original amount having been successively pared by negotiations until the entire demand was finally cancelled. Occupation of the Rhineland was terminated nine years before the end of the time specified by the treaty, and rearming of Germany, forbidden by the treaty, was actually encouraged and financed by the Allied powers, the speaker declared.

The government of the German Republic following the first world war was the first which ever wanted to dispose of Germany's curse of its history—the Prussian militarists, Mr. Seeger declared. But French generals, left to the

"ARE YOU CONTENT?"

"If you are content with the present situation and with the present results in industry, in agriculture, and in our civilian life," said Secretary of War Stimson, "then I suggest that you go to one of our great Army camps and see our boys in uniform working. I suggest that you read the detailed dispatches from Tunisia and the Southwest Pacific about the fighting efforts of our soldiers. I suggest that you compare your comforts in life with theirs, and then ask yourself again—Are you content?"

Few persons in civilian life can say they have yet made any all-out war effort. Too many are still more interested in planning personal and "social gains," first.

130,000,000 STRONG

In one way or another the war is creeping into every American home. The flower of our manhood is being drawn off to fight in distant lands. More and more of our people are going into our war plants to speed the production of necessary military equipment. We are tightening our belts and sharing a once ample larder with our fighting men and our allies. We are working at wartime speed and actively guarding the home front. We are buying war bonds and stamps heavily and paying the highest taxes ever known in this land.

But America is not making these sacrifices blindly. One hundred and thirty million people want the nation's war shackles removed when the fighting is over so they may again enjoy the fruits of their labors and abolish, for all time, the controls and the threats of regimentation under which they have been forced to live during this emergency. One hundred and thirty million U.S. citizens have an ear to the ground and an eye on the future.

NEWSPAPERS VITAL IN WAR EFFORT

Hailing the newspapers of the United States as "one of the most essential and vital factors in the winning of the war" Representative Halleck of Indiana recently assailed "bureaucratic" criticism of the press.

"They are self-anointed," he said, "but if I were to choose between the bureaucrats and the newspapers for a guardian of the rights of man, I would unhesitatingly choose the newspapers."

Recounting some of the things "our newspapers have been doing to step up our war effort and hasten the day of victory," Mr. Halleck added:

"To the inspiring records of the newspapers' contributions in bringing about husbanding of rubber tires and oil, in winning ready cooperation in the rationing of gasoline and food in promoting the sale of bonds, in recruiting, and in expediting the Selective Service operations, should be added their very important work in stepping up war production. Newspapers were quick to present the problem to the American people and have labored steadily to help government and suppliers set up an efficient program of production. Because of the news and feature matter run by the newspapers, workers have been made to see the importance of increasing their production and of finding their places in the production line.

"With the nation at war," Representative Halleck continued, "we should recognize the very definite and direct contribution that the press of the nation is making to the war effort. It is a contribution which should clearly indicate that the press must be classed as an essential industry and given consideration as such."

Executive Board Of Woman's Society Reviews Activities

The Executive Board of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met in the home of Mrs. John Bailey Wednesday for a regular quarterly meeting. Reports of officers were heard and plans for future work discussed. Mrs. Charles Williams, chairman of the social relations committee, called to the attention of the group the dire need of a health nurse for the Latin-American community. Miss Riddle has offered to let the Community Center be used as a health unit for the project.

Miss Riddle gave a report of the work at the Community Center, pointing out the progress that has been made to date and objectives yet to be accomplished. She expressed her appreciation for the assistance of many local people who have helped in the work. Mrs. Stephen Perner, in behalf of the society, presented Miss Riddle with a life membership as a token of their appreciation for her splendid work. Miss Riddle told of letters she has received from Latin-American boys in service, many of them expressing their appreciation for the preparation the Community Center had made for them in the new life.

Miss Riddle announced that at a Scoutmasters' training session in Sonora Tuesday, Sam Martinez, committeeman, and Gene Ramirez, Scoutmaster of Troop 63, were awarded the Scout Master Key for their outstanding service to Scouting over a period of five years.

Mrs. J. M. Baggett, society president, urged all members and other interested persons to save rummage and magazines for the Center. Those having such material are asked to call Mrs. Floyd Henderson.

Miss Margaret Rue announced that on April 2 at 8:15 p.m., the Mother's Club and little girls Tuesday Club would present a program in English to raise funds for materials. Admission will be 20 and 10 cents. Everyone welcome.

Following the Executive Board meeting a covered-dish luncheon was enjoyed by the following members: Mrs. J. M. Baggett, Mrs. Stephen Perner, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Mrs. Alvin Scheel, Mrs. Will Baggett, Mrs. E. B. Baggett, Miss Elizabeth Fussell, Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Mrs. Jennie Riddle, Miss Mary Riddle, Mrs. Alvin Harrell, Mrs. Joe Pierce, Mrs. Carl Colwick, Mrs. John Bailey and Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr.

In the afternoon an open forum was held to discuss the study on "Peace—Just and Durable," which has just been completed. The devotional was led by Mrs. Will Baggett on the subject, "No Duty Can Seem Lowly to Him Who Lives with Thee." She stated that the hope is for a time to come for a more just and equitable order, in which the work of men shall be esteemed above the things their toll produces, when the labor of men shall be so amply rewarded that they themselves shall not be deprived of the enjoyment of that which they create, and in which scientific knowledge and technical skill shall not serve the private gains of the few but higher interests and the welfare of all.

Mrs. Lawrence Brown led the forum on international relations. It was decided that those who desire would continue the study of international affairs and meet at some definite time to discuss new situations as they arise.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Charles Williams at 3 p.m. next Wednesday for a social hour, with Mrs. Williams and Miss Fussell as hostesses. All ladies of the church are invited.

Those other than the executive board members attending the afternoon meeting were Mrs. Bill Cooper, Mrs. Hillery Phillips, Mrs.

PROMPT HOME REPAIRS
SAVE Critical Materials

REMEMBER the old saw, "A stitch in time saves nine!" The modern version is, "Prompt repairs save critical materials."

One coat of outside paint now, may save three coats next year. Prompt repairs to a leaky roof may make reroofing unnecessary. Necessary maintenance work and sensible repairs made now will keep your home sound for the duration.

FOXWORTH-GALBRAITH Lumber Company

Electricity helps make his "tin hat" TOUGH!

No soldier in the world today has a better, tougher helmet than our own fighting men. It's made of manganese steel—the toughest, strongest protective steel that science and industry together can produce. And it's made in electric furnaces at 3,000 degrees Fahrenheit!

By helping make steel strong, electric power makes West Texas and Uncle Sam strong, too.

One big basic reason for Uncle Sam's matchless war production is America's abundant power supply, over 90 per cent of which is supplied by electric companies like the West Texas Utilities... operating under well-balanced business management and manned by men and women with training and experience in production problems.

This power was ready when war came because these men and women already had the "know-how" and the freedom to plan and create—the initiative to invent and improve—for everybody's benefit.

This, too, is why the average West Texas home today gets twice or three times as much electricity for its money as just ten or fifteen years ago!

It's the reason why electricity will be on the job to help rebuild a battered world—after we have won the victory and the peace.

THE EDITORS' THOUGHTS

Rozell Pharr-Florence Luther

Not much has been happening around the old alma mater this week. Everybody is devoting all spare time to playing tennis or just day dreaming. One of the outstanding occurrences is the loss of the hand teacher, Mr. Klein, to the Army Air Corps. Of course everyone will miss him, but making sacrifices these days is not all uncommon. In spite of this, however, the American people are even beginning to lose their sense of humor even about the sacrifices. This was illustrated very aptly the other day by one of our esteemed seniors, Jimmy Farr. Jimmy said that he didn't see why anyone didn't like the idea of freezing butter because after all it wasn't frozen, it might ruin! The girls of the gym class have been playing tennis and soft ball during their class. Although it has been a little windy, everyone enjoyed the fresh air and sunshine. And those two things won't ever be rationed!

Cogitations

By MARY PERNER

Our Seniors this year are the smartest things! Take Jimmy Farr, for instance. He was really upset about the butter being frozen for a week, but finally decided that it would keep better frozen. After all, he reasoned that Aunt Clara kept the butter in the ice chest, anyway—And Charles is going to beat that butter freezing, anyway. He's just going to trade some of his extra butter for money—Joyce and Dilly apparently had a big time in Fort Stockton last weekend. Their McCamey stop was profitable, too. Of course, the bus trip going over was pleasant—who has been carving initials on the bench at the tennis court? B. L. A. and C. M. — J. R. My, ay!—Jack Sawyer is sporting a senior ring with a large S on it—Somora, San Angelo, or Sander. You guess!

—Bob, one of the Geodetic crew, has a beautiful picture of Rozelle. He said it wasn't beautiful, and he just gave it to him because he didn't want it. Well, that's a good excuse, Rossie!

—Hey hey, Ella May! What town is this? Now, who's battle cry is this?—

—Honey, I'm in love with you, Austin! Dilly, my goodness— Austin of Fort Stockton, eh?—

—The bell is ringing! School is out! The tennis courts are calling! So long—

GERHART SEGER SPEAKS TO SCHOOL

Gerhart Seger, a former citizen of Germany and now an American citizen and lecturer, spoke to the high school student body, faculty and also a few townspeople in the study hall Tuesday morning at 9:00. Mr. Seger, having lived all of his life but about 8½ years in Germany, and having been a prominent member of the German government, was able to give a good deal of information about life and conditions in Germany. One of the highlights of his talk was his account of his escape from a Nazi concentration camp. Having finished a very interesting talk, Mr. Seger answered questions asked by his audience. Mr. Seger's sense of humor as well as his plentiful supply of information made his talk one of the most enjoyable of the series of talks presented by the Rotary Club.

BIRTHDAY PICNIC

Mrs. Bryan McDonald honored her son, Billy Joe, and members of his Sunday school class with a picnic at the east roadside park Sunday afternoon, the occasion being Billy Joe's 12th birthday. Present were Jane Augustine, Sandra Augustine, Lillian Schneemann, Mary Kathryn Flowers, Nat Reed, Sammy Perner, Ralph Carden, Arthur Runnion, Charles, Dick Lee, Patsy and Donald McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown and Carl and Kenneth Brown, Miss Zelma Scott, Mrs. M. A. Runnion and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kyle and Edith Lou Piner.

Cpl. Martin Harvick, who is due to attach an additional chevron as a technical sergeant on his return to duty, is spending a 15-day furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Strick Harvick. Young Harvick is an X-Ray technician attached to the Nichols general hospital in Louisville, Ky.

Car Washing Job Fails To Stop WAAC McWilliams Of Ozona

This Mac McWilliams, former Ozona girl who is "going to town" as a WAAC, just won't be downed. She breaks into print ever so often, both pictorially and otherwise, but her latest is to make Drew Pearson's daily column, "The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round," a syndicated feature published by daily newspapers from coast to coast.

And a right amusing incident it was that was recorded by Mr. Pearson, showing something of the determination of a Texas gal to make good—a determination, by the way, which has recently brought her rewards in the form of promotion to the rank of sergeant. Here's Drew Pearson's account of the incident:

"Salute To The WAACs"

The colonel in charge of the Army motor pool in Washington was sceptical about WAACs. They were good enough as clerks and stenographers, but driving a car? And servicing it? That was a man's work, grumbled the colonel. Reason he grumbled was that he had to put up with a WAAC, right in his own motor pool. Private Mae McWilliams, of Ozona, Texas, had been assigned to the WAAC recruiting station in Washington as chauffeur. And she had to quarter the car at the motor pool.

"I'll fix her," thought the colonel, and he issued an order that all cars must be washed and serviced by the drivers before going into operation at 8 a.m.

Come 8 o'clock, and Col. Raymond Bailey went out in person to see what had happened. He found Private Mae, smartly dressed in her WAAC uniform, standing at attention beside a spotless car. Her hands were red, but she gave no other sign of having scrubbed that car like a man—wearing a pair of borrowed overalls and boots.

Col. Bailey nodded a grudging approval. Later he really spoke his mind. "That little girl," he said to a fellow officer, "is a wonder. I didn't think she could do it. You know what I'm going to do? I'm going to let the WAACs come in and take over this pool as fast as they are able. That little girl sold me a bill of goods."

Business Session, Art Program Featured At Woman's Club Meet

Ozona Woman's Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Hillery Phillips for a business session and a program on "Modern American Artists."

At the business meeting, five new members were elected. They are Mrs. A. W. Jones, Mrs. Clyde Childers, Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., Mrs. Strick Harvick and Mrs. John Bailey.

Mrs. Stephen Perner was elected delegate to the district convention to be held in Coleman next month. Mrs. Carl Colwick was named alternate.

In the afternoon's program on "Modern American Artists," Mrs. Stephen Perner gave high lights of Boswell's book, in which the author divides the 300-year period of American art into three divisions: 1. The Historic period, 2. The Scenic, and 3. The Social or Political period. The trend of modern American artists is back to the soil, it was pointed out. Prints of grapefruit pickers, Mississippi cotton pickers, western horse scenes and New England manufacturing scenes were among the twenty prints shown during the review.

Mrs. Hillery Phillips assisted Mrs. Perner in giving the life history of outstanding modern artists of America, including Grant Wood, Thomas Benton Curry and Paul Sample. European artists have at last conceded that America has an art all her own, the speakers declared, and America is proud of this art and the important place it is playing in today's war program.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. P. T. Robison, Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Mrs. Carl Colwick, Mrs. W. R. Baggett, Miss Elizabeth Fussell, Mrs. Stephen Perner, Mrs. George Bean and the hostess.

124 VACCINATED

One hundred twenty-four persons were vaccinated against smallpox in a mass vaccination at the grade school building Friday afternoon by Dr. G. L. Nesrsta. Of the number vaccinated, 114 were school students and 10 were adults.

Dr. Fuller, who is president of the Southern Baptist Seminary, and former President of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, and of the Georgia Baptist Convention, will have as his subject, "Making America the Arsenal of Spiritual Democracy." This is the closing message of the present announced series on the general theme, "American Christians Amid World Crises."

The Baptist Hour, now in its third year, presents outstanding religious leaders, both laymen and preachers, in a series of timely messages each Sunday morning at 7:30 a.m. Thirty-seven radio stations in sixteen Southern states are on the independent network.

Children Surprise Mrs. Davidson On Her Seventy-first Birthday

Last Saturday, Mrs. Charles E. Davidson observed her 71st birthday, disappointment mounting hourly as none of her children even so much as called up to offer congratulations.

But the explanation was forthcoming near supper time when they all converged on the Davidson ranch home, bearing all the necessities for a family supper and birthday gifts for "Mother" Davidson.

Making up the "surprise party" group were Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson and Becky, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMullan of Big Lake, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davidson, Jr., Muggins and Charlie Boy, Mrs. Bryan McDonald, Mrs. Pon Seahorn and Houston Smith.

Mrs. T. A. Kincaid, Sr., who has been ill for several months in San Angelo, was reported near death yesterday. Attending physicians offer no hope for her recovery, reports yesterday said.

Husband No Service To Her, She Recommends Army Service For Him

Serving on a draft board is mostly serious business and at best a thankless job, but it does have its lighter moments.

Such a one for the local board was a letter received last week from a Dallas colored woman, wife of a local registrant.

"To the Selective Service board," she wrote in labored print. "My husband is not any service to me. I work for myself and we don't have any children. He be more service in the Army service than he is to me." And there you are, men—they hold the big stick now, and no question about it!

WAAC RECRUITERS VISIT

Lt. Jessie Gardner and Aux. Elizabeth Allread, both stationed at Lubbock with a unit of the WAAC, visited Ozona on a recruiting mission. The WAACs interviewed prospective enlistees during an overnight stop here in an effort to enlist Crockett county's quota of two in the current campaign to raise the WAAC strength to a total of 150,000 as authorized by the president.

task of supervising Germany, felt professional ties with the German generals and, therefore, were on the side of the German militarists against the republic which sought to strip them of their power. The speaker expressed the hope that a better job of disarming Germany would be done by the United Nations this time.

A plan for world peace after this war, a plan which envisages a United States of Europe, just punishment for those guilty of outrages in this war and a complete disarmament of the aggressor nations, and a sort of world council, not on the basis of the League of Nations representation from individual nations, but representation from segments of world populations, such a council to have an international police force to enforce its mandates, was outlined by Mr. Seeger.

He recommended a "cooling off" period as suggested by other world leaders of today and with reference to the war guilty, he placed them in three categories. The ring-leaders of Germany, the "big shots" of the Axis nations, he said, should be tried by an international court because their crimes were against the world. Those who committed crimes against occupied European nations should be tried in those nations where their crimes were committed, he declared, and those in Germany who committed crimes against the German people should be tried in Germany, with proper supervision by the United Nations.

Hitler came into power with only one-third of the people of Germany supporting him, the former Reichstag member declared. He was appointed to the office of Chancellor and after seizing power had 117 members of the Reichstag who opposed him arrested, Seeger being among that group. These former political leaders were the target of the most severe treatment at the hands of the Nazis, he said, and he asked the audience to refrain from asking him questions about his personal experiences during six months in a Nazi concentration camp. In his talk at the school Tuesday morning, Mr. Seeger told how he seized an opportunity to make a break from the concentration camp and make his way across Germany to the Czecho-Slovak border, and eventually to freedom in America.

The use of terrorist methods against the German people is proof that the people are not solidly behind the Nazis, the speaker said. He declared there are 865,000 Gestapo agents, an average of one to each hundred of population, keeping watch on the people throughout Germany.

Mr. Seeger was a pilot in the German air force in the first world war and near the end of the war he was shot down by an American pilot and parachuted from his burning plane at 9,000 feet.

"I've been looking for that guy ever since have been in this country," he said with a wry smile.

The most colossal post-war problem in Germany will be the re-education of the German youth, Mr. Seeger declared. They have been indoctrinated by the Nazi philosophy of the invincibility of the super race to the exclusion of all facts until the idea dominates their whole being. These youths are due for a terrific psychological let-down with the defeat of Germany, the lecturer said, and this very let-down may pave the way for successful military and educational control from abroad.

"I hope that some day the United States of America will be the godfather of a United States of Europe," Mr. Seeger declared.

Pointing out how the program applies to farmers, Vance said if animals were slaughtered for home use only that permits would not be required, but permits would be required if any of the meat were delivered to others. All slaughterers also must keep complete records of all livestock slaughtered.

Under the program, three orders have been issued:

1. All livestock slaughterers who sell meat, including farmers and local butchers, to operate under a slaughter permit system and, as an aid to enforcement, to stamp their permit number at least once on each wholesale cut;

2. All livestock dealers to obtain permits to buy and sell livestock and to keep complete records of their operations. Farmers are not required to obtain dealer permits but they are asked to keep records of their purchases and sales;

3. All slaughterers who operate under federal inspection to set aside for war uses designated percentages of their production.

Under the dealer-permit plan, anyone who buys and sells cattle, hogs and sheep and keeps them for less than 30 days, is considered a dealer and is required to obtain a permit from his county USDA war board.

He is also required to keep a complete record of his livestock purchases and sales, including the date he bought the animals, from whom he bought, their weight, the price he paid for them, to whom he sold them, and the price received.

A similar record of sales also will be required of all producers who sell livestock, regardless of whether they are classified as dealers. A dealer in livestock receives no stamp of any kind nor are his operations restricted since he can sell to anybody he chooses.

"In connection with the new slaughterer's permit regulations, it was pointed out the OPA price control and grading regulation will apply," Vance said.

Applications for permit have been delivered to all slaughterers and dealers that the Administrative Officer knew and they are requested to have them executed and filed in the AAA Office not later than Saturday 2:00 p.m. If you have not received an application and need one you may secure same by calling at the AAA office.

All interested persons are urged to attend this meeting, Miss Bratcher announced.

Corp. and Mrs. Larry Albers and infant son are here from Brownsville to visit Mrs. Albers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne West.
