REV. GARRISON ACCEPTS CALL LOCAL CHURCH

Bangs Minister To Become Pastor Ozona Baptist Church

COMES THIS WEEK

Regular Services Announced For Sunday By New Pastor

Word has been received by the membership here that the Rev. Ira V. Garrison, former pastor of the Baptist Church at Bangs, has accepted the pastorate of the Ozona Baptist Church and will arrive here tomorrow night to take over his new duties. The coming minister, who fills the vacancy left by the Rev. Gambrell, will preach his opening sermon Sunday morning.

The Bangs minister directed singing for the revival meeting here more than a month ago. He made two addresses during the meeting. At a church meeting later, the Bangs man was called to take over the vacant pastorate here. Arriving with Rev. Garrison tomorrow to make their home here will be his wife and their three children, Joyce, I. V. and Dorothy Nell.

Rev. Garrison was reared on a ranch in Bandera County, attended San Marcos Academy, Baylor University, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and was graduated from these schools in 1915, '20, and '25, respectively. The Baptist pastor received the A.B. degree from Baylor and his Master of Theology degree from the Seminary. Rev. Garrison was first occupied as resident pastor at the Baptist Church in Bandera in 1918.

During his ministry, Mr. Garrison has worked with churches at Carrizo Springs, Birdville, Pecos, Rio Hondo, Medina and Bangs. "We desire the confidence, the prayers, the sympathy and cooperation of the people of Ozona," said the coming minister in a letter to Ozona this week.

Announcement was made last Sunday at the church that an average of one-hundred in attendance had been maintained for Sunday morning classes for the past four Sundays, the goal of the new Sunday School heads elected a month ago.

COLORED WOMAN FINED FOLLOWING KNIFE THREAT

A local colored woman agreed to pay a fine in Justice of Peace court following charges by a Mexican youth which grew out of an alleged threat Saturday night. The woman was charged with drawing a knife on the boy and using abusive language in the balcony of the theatre Saturday night.

Mrs. H. B. Tandy Named To Dist. Music Club Post

Local Club Leader Chosen Recording Secy. at Convention

Mrs. H. B. Tandy of Ozona was elected recording secretary of the Sixth District Texas Federation of Music Clubs at the conclusion of the district convention of the music bodies in San Angelo last week.

Mrs. Tandy, Mrs. Joe Pierce and Miss Wayne Chapman represented the Ozona Music Club at the district gathering. Mrs. L. B. Cox of Ozona was among those named from the Sixth district to serve on the state board.

Mrs. A. H. Johnson of Eastland was elected Sixth District president, succeeding Miss Lucille Skinner of San Angelo.

Announce Early Paving Of Strip Of Sonora Road

Many Promises Also Heard for West Road But No Move to Action

Announcement was made several days ago in Sonora that according to State Highway Department officials, the 19.7 miles on Highway 27, east from the Crockett County line, end of the paving east of here, would be topped in the near future. Advertising for bids on the topping has not been authorized yet by the department, however.

Another sector of road in Crockett County, the strip between McCamey and Iraan, will be paved in the near future if an appeal for a WPA grant is rendered the precinct headed by Commissioner Carl of McCamey.

Efforts of the Crockett Commissioners to bring the attention of the highway department to the unpaved strip of Highway 27 extending west of here for thirty miles have resulted in promised action but no visible substantiation thus far. County officials have visited the department offices in Austin and communicated with the highway commission by mail during the past several months but to date there has been no definite gesture from highway officials in regard to the unpaved strip in Crockett County.

One of the most travelled highway routes in Texas, Highway 27 will be one of the main itineraries of the state for visitors during the Texas Centennial Exposition next year. For that reason, highway officials in the area predict action on the unpaved strip west of here in the near future and probable letting of contracts for laying of the caliche base. To have the road ready for the bulk of Centennial travel which will begin next April, contract will have to be let soon for the caliche work for topping to follow when warm weather begins next spring.

Lions To Meet Big Lake Owls Here Saturday

Locals Confident Despite Loss of Parker From Game

Ozona followers of the autumn grid sport will see the Lions of Coach White perform Saturday without having to leave town. The Lions are hosts to the Owls of Coach Bob Nail of Big Lake on the Powell Field Saturday at 2:30. It will be the first game for the Crockett football machine in two weeks and the first home tangle in exactly a month. The Lions last played at home October 5, when they filtered through a weak Rank in team netting 55 points to the visitors 6.

All things being equal, the Big Lake Owls should stack about even with the Ozona Lions as far as defensive ability of the two teams is concerned. In their first game of the season, Ozona held the Iraan Braves to 14 to 0. Last Saturday the proteges of Coach Nail of Big Lake held the Iraan Braves to a score of 12 to 0. But all things are not equal.

The Ozona machine will begin hostilities Saturday without the service of their captain and all-district lineman, D. A. Parker. The tall wingman suffered a broken vertebra in the game with the Junction Eagles two weeks ago and he will not be able to go against the Owls. The Lion passing attack and defense will be handicapped by the wingman's absence from the game. The handicap, however, does not represent the difference of losing a game. Coach Ted White expects to put a team on the field against the Reagan

Skeleton of Aged Woman, Thought to Be Remains Of Indian, Found In Cave On Noelke Ranch On Pecos, Displayed Here

Ranch Employee Discovers Human Remains In Cliff Side

Its secret fastened in a pot cave near the Pecos River where it was found this week, a portion of a skeleton, supposedly that of an aged woman, was brought to Ozona Tuesday by Sheriff Willis after it had been discovered by a man by the name of McDonald at the Noelke ranch on the Pecos near Sheffield.

In the secluded retreat of a small cave on the Noelke ranch, the explorer stumbled upon a bone protruding from the dusty soil. Examination disclosed the bone to be the shin bone of a human skeleton and the cave visitor soon dug up other parts of the skeleton, including the skull, two ribs, four bones from the legs, shoulder bones and bones from the arms. After digging up the buried skeleton, McDonald notified Sheriff Willis of Ozona, who went to the scene to investigate.

Probably Indian
Brought to the office of Dr. H. B. Tandy here, the skeleton remains were examined and from visible indications were said to be probably those of a woman about 5 feet 3 inches in height. The two ribs, both very small, indicated that the skeleton was that of a woman, and the extremely high cheek bone indicated that the remains might be those of an Indian, buried in the cave when the aborigines inhabited this area. That the skeleton belonged to an aged

Schools Observe Education Week With 'Open House'

Fifteenth Year Of Observance Nationally November 11-17

If You Know Your Okra, You Can Grow It a la Brownrigg

An okra stalk that isn't a stalk—but a tree, was raised by Jim Brownrigg in his own back yard. The "stalk" measures 14 feet and 3 inches and was the king stalk of Mr. Brownrigg's okra patch until he cut it down today. The okra stalk has branches like a tree and has several pods and blossoms on it. If the growth had been straight, it would have towered 15 feet or more.

Besides the giganta stalk, there are other stalks in the Ozonan's back yard which measure up into the air near a man's head.

Okra enthusiasts, who know and like their okra, may witness the "flag pole" stalk in front of the Stockman office.

Texas Furnishes 40 Percent U. S. Oil Production

State Has 50 Percent Of Nation's Proven Oil Reserves

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 29.—Texas is furnishing now more than 40 per cent of the current oil production of the United States, and this State has about 50 per cent of the proven oil reserves of the nation, or some 25 per cent of the proven oil reserves of the whole world, according to Elmer H. Johnson, regional economist for the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

"The total ultimate oil reserves of Texas are thought to be very large," Mr. Johnson said. "Oil reserves of Texas, in brief, are a function of large numbers of factors, including the inclusive groups of formations represented in the geologic column; the diversity of strata, the structural aspects of the various geologic regions and the wide geographic extent of the State's territory. Moreover, the fact that Texas is the whose proven reserves exceed its total past production is one of not only major oil producing states but little significance to the oil industry of the nation as well as to Texas.

"Similar to the case of other minerals, oil production affords a striking example of geographic concentration. The large proportion of the oil produced to date has been furnished from a few fields, whether in the United States or elsewhere. Of foreign fields the great Baku area in Russia is a striking example. In the United States such major fields as Yates, Kettleman Hills, Oklahoma City, East Texas, and Cretaceous come readily to mind—but it is rather remarkable that the United States fields above named were all discovered within a five-year period, 1926-1930. It is all the more remarkable to note that the discoveries in this five-year period amounted to more than one-third of all the oil which has ever been found.

"It may be surprising to note that it was not until after 1914 that the volume of gasoline refined in the United States exceeded that of kerosene. The rapidly growing demands for oil products occasioned by the World War first brought about systematic efforts on a wide scale to find oil reserves; paralleling these movements came the systematic application of geologic principles to oil finding. After 1926 came the use of geophysical methods.

Rest Best Remedy For Common Colds, Doctors Declare

AUSTIN, Oct. 30.—"The 'open season' for the so-called 'common cold' has again arrived. Victims of this general complaint will constantly increase during the winter months, large numbers of persons will become temporarily incapacitated, many will become dangerously ill, while yet others will succumb to complications," stated Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

In spite of the wonderful strides in disease prevention made in the last few decades, the problem of the common cold yet remains to be solved. If the situation lent itself to mass control, there possibly would be no problem. Unfortunately, however, the matter cannot be handled in that way. The solution, in view of present-day limitations, rests somewhat upon the intelligent co-operation of the individual. So far, this has proved to be an insurmountable barrier. The trouble arises because the victim fails to appreciate the possibility of 'only a cold.' In fact, with the day's work to be done, it is difficult to be self-persuaded that one should remain at home, and possibly in bed, if overtaken by such an infection. Feeling quite able to move around, it is hard to realize that rest and care represent the best treatment not only for the cold itself but as a preventive of more dangerous supplemental conditions.

Texas Governor Proclaims Nov. 4 Will Rogers Day

Contributions To Memorial Fund To Start In State On Day

Auguring the Will Rogers memorial fund drive in Texas, Governor Allred recently issued following proclamation set aside Monday, Nov. 4 as Will Rogers Day in Texas.

Friday, August 16, 1935, Rogers died. Idol of America, loved by all who knew him, his early passing brought a great sense of individual loss and sorrow to every American citizen.

the words of Reverend J. Strom Brougher, Sr., who officiated at the Will Rogers memorial services in Glendale, California:

There are many hills, but only here and there a great towering Mt. Shasta;

There are many streams, but only here and there a great Mississippi;

There are many trees, but only here and there a great Sequoia gigantea;

There are many echoes, but only now and then an original voice;

There are many musicians, but only now and then a Mendelssohn or a Mozart;

There are many politicians, but only now and then a great statesman;

There are many people, but only now and then an outstanding individual.

The nation still is stunned and sorrowful. It is impossible to realize that Will Rogers is really gone from us.

Will Rogers needs no monument. He built his own monument, wrote his own epitaph in the arts and affections of people in every walk of life. He was the greatest apostle of sunshine, joyous humor, of fellowship, a world has ever known. He lives because his work lives.

Life in mankind is far, far more than to live in a name. To perpetuate his memory, to singly attest a nation's love for his ideals, Will Rogers represents a nation-wide movement in the right way. It is headed by outstanding citizens everywhere who have agreed to give unselfishly of their time and means, in order to provide a proper foundation for service to human-kind may be permanently established. Every man, woman and child, from the highest to the lowest walks of life, will be given an opportunity to participate.

As but a small part of the program, on Monday, November 4th, a drive bank in the nation will be held. Every man, woman and child who has ever chuckled at the homely philosophy of Will Rogers, whose life has been made a pattern for us, who has been inspired by the cleanliness of his example, who has hungrily searched for his news contribution, who has seen him on the screen, who has passed forward in surging crowds for a personal glimpse of him, will be given an opportunity to make a deposit, quietly, without publicity of any kind, from a single dime to the limit of their means.

I think Will Rogers, if he knew that all who loved him are determined to establish a permanent foundation to his memory, would prefer contributions of twenty-five cents from fifteen million people to a few larger sized donations.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES ALLRED, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby set aside and dedicate.

The LIVESTOCK SITUATION

By J. A. McNaughton

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29—Figures recently released confirm previous estimates of sharply reduced livestock numbers. The sharpest reduction in cattle and calves occurred in the corn belt states, the number being reduced from 32,530,000 in 1934 to 28,010,000 in 1935. The western states show a proportionately smaller reduction, with California showing a small reduction in numbers as compared with a ten year average and the number of cattle in California, 1,985,000 was the same as the 1934 number.

Total number of cattle on farms in the United States this year is 60,667,000, a decrease of some eight million head from 1934.

Figures on hogs indicate much larger decreases, with 37,007,000 head recorded for the United States as compared with 51,177,000 head in 1934 and 61,598,000 head in 1933. The heaviest hog reduction is indicated in the Corn Belt states where the number decreased from 40,935,000 in 1934 to 24,011,000 in 1935.

The sheep and lamb census shows only a slight decrease in numbers with 49,760,000 head recorded for the United States as compared with 52,212,000 in 1934. The 1935 figure, however, is an increase over the years 1920 to 1928 inclusive.

Reports from the Intermountain territory are to the effect that feeder lambs have gone to the feed lots much earlier than usual due to an abundance of feed which is cheap compared with the sheep and lamb market. Our informant states that many lots of feeder lambs contracted early in the season at $5.25 changed hands several times with the ultimate owners paying as high as $7 and refusing bids at higher prices as they wished to keep the lambs to utilize their feeds.

Max Schneemann was a business visitor in San Angelo yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baggett spent Sunday in Austin where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pace and small daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Baggett brought back their grand daughter, little Mary Sue Pace, for a few days visit.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH as WILL ROGERS DAY

I urge all Texans on this day to reflect upon the fine, clean manhood of Will Rogers, the life of service he lived, the good he did. I suggest that all of our schools and civic clubs conduct suitable programs and exercises in memory of our great philosopher humorist.

I especially urge that all of us contribute of our bit to the Will Rogers Memorial Fund.

person was deducted from the fact that many teeth had decayed and other teeth, above parts of the gum where there were no teeth, were worn sharply. There were no marks of violence on the skull.

It could not be determined how long the skeleton had rested in the secluded cave but when found, some of the bones were matted by grass and muscle shells were found embedded in the ground with the remains. On digging in the cave the Ozona Sheriff found a powdery dust which enveloped the room and stifled breathing.

The sheriff's department has not linked the evidence of death found in the secluded Pecos cave with any person missing in this area in earlier times. Two years ago a Mexican became insane and "walked away" over the hill south of town and his fate was never learned but the recently found bones had been lying in the cave on the Pecos long before that.

Sheriff Willis planned to take a Mexican to the Noelke ranch and dig for further bits of the skeleton and perhaps unearth the mystery of the dusty cave on the Pecos.

Hallowe'en—

only a great imaginist would believe that spooks really do visit at the mystic hour of twelve on All Saints Eve and carry away beautiful maidens, fix spells on ugly people and charm night goers who stray too far from the beaten paths.

Tonight the goblins will ride the skies again, stalk the darkened nooks, hide among the tree tops and swish out at the least expected moment when the breeze suddenly rustles through the leaves—and maybe for evidence tomorrow morning you will have to use your imagination because the goblin parade of false faces, polka dot costume and evil headgear isn't likely to convince you—unless you're an urchin, a youngster with ideas about spook night.

Crockett Judge Meets School Friends Of 80's On Recent Tour of West Coast Area

After visiting nine of the western states and viewing many of the scenic points along the western coast, Judge and Mrs. C. E. Davidson, their daughter, Miss Dixie Davidson, and Mrs. Pon Seahorn, a sister of Mrs. Davidson, returned to Ozona last Friday. They spent three weeks away on their tour.

In Boise, Idaho, the Ozona party visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Garver, son-in-law and daughter of Judge and Mrs. Davidson. In Tucson, Arizona, they visited with the W. D. Parker family. The late Mr. Parker formerly was Sheriff of Crockett County.

While at San Jose, California, the group visited an uncle of Mrs. Davidson, Dr. W. D. Coates, and family.

The touring party journeyed from the southern-most part of California through the northern part and into Washington and Oregon. In San Francisco, the group viewed the huge bridge under construction, which will span the harbor. It was the Crockett judge's first visit to San Francisco since he was graduated from the University of California Law School there in 1882. The visit to San Francisco was made doubly interesting to the Ozonan when he found former school mates there whom he had not seen since leaving school.

While gone, the Ozona party visited New Mexico, Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, California and Arizona.

In junior high school, the seventh grade was credited with thirty-six "A's" in various subjects, the fifth grade with twenty-four and the sixth grade with twenty-one. There were three subject failures in the fifth grade, three in the sixth grade and two in the seventh grade.
