Christmas Seal Sale Opens Here

Canvassers Meet General Response In Business Section

The annual sale of Christmas Seals, proceeds from which are used in the state and national fight against tuberculosis, got underway in Ozona this week under the direction of the Parent-Teacher Association. Committees chosen to canvass the business section of the city were on the job Monday and reported a liberal response on the part of the business firms of the city. The sale in the business section was made in time for the seals to be used on December 1.

Sale of the seals will be continued in the schools and homes of the city from now until Christmas. The local P.T.A. has been furnished with $150 worth of the seals and the organization hopes to be able to dispose of at least $100 worth of them.

Ninety-five per cent of the money raised in the Christmas Seal Sale in Texas is used for tuberculosis work in this state. Five per cent goes to maintain the nationwide campaign against tuberculosis.

In communities where a local group has signed a contract to retain a portion of the funds raised in a county-wide seal sale, a certain percentage (not less than 50%) remains in the county for health work in that county. In counties where Christmas seal chairmen send the entire amount of their seal sale to state headquarters of the Texas Tuberculosis Association, this Association will give to the county, without cost, such service as school nursing, tuberculosis clinics, tuberculosis surveys, health work among Mexicans, health work among Negroes, health work in schools, etc.

Injuries Fatal To Luella Blair

14-Year-Old Girl Injured Here Died In San Angelo

Injuries suffered in an unusual automobile accident here November 13, proved fatal early Thanksgiving morning for Luella Blair, 14-year-old daughter of J. D. Blair, highway worker and former resident of Sheffield. The girl died in a San Angelo hospital where she was taken following the accident, suffering from internal injuries.

Miss Blair was injured when the accelerator of a car in which she was riding stuck, the machine backing over a ditch, through a fence and into a tree before the driver, J. B. Blair, brother of the dead girl, could bring it under control. The girl and Otis Faught were riding in the rumble seat of the car and when it crashed through the fence the lid of the rumble seat was slammed to on their bodies, injuring the girl internally and inflicting a deep gash on Faught's head. Other occupants of the car were not injured.

It was thought for several days that the injured girl would recover, and encouraging reports concerning her condition were received here. Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blair, who are making their home here while he is engaged in highway work, three brothers and four sisters. She was a member of the Missionary Baptist Church and a pupil in the 6th grade of the Sheffield school.

Funeral services were conducted at the Robert Lee cemetery at 2 o'clock last Thursday afternoon. The Rev. N. W. Merredith, pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church of Robert Lee, officiating.

Four sisters staged a happy reunion in Ozona Sunday, the first time all four had been together in forty years.

Mrs. X. E. Cox of San Angelo,

Mrs. A. A. Billings of Langtry, and Mrs. A. A. Smith of Hope, N. M., were the three sisters of Mrs. Schwalbe who were here for the reunion, the first in nearly a half century. Relief Program Awaits Grading County Agrees To Put Streets In Shape For Topping

Work of graveling Ozona streets, made possible through receipt of unemployment relief funds of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, has been temporarily held up pending grading and drainage of streets to be surfaced.

Approximately $150 of the first allotment to the county, totalling $321, had been expended in making necessary repairs on some of the principal streets of the town, when further work was suspended until the county grading machinery is available to put other streets in condition to drain properly before the surfacing material is applied. This action was taken at a meeting of the local committee Saturday night.

County officials have agreed to use of the county grading machinery for this purpose and it was expected that the equipment would be available for use here the last of this week. George Brown, operator of the grading machine, is at present engaged in making repairs on the Del Rio road, but this job was expected to be completed by today.

Exline Martin, resident engineer for the State Highway Department, stationed here, has offered the facilities of his office in making the necessary surveys of the town streets to secure proper drainage, and the committee hopes to effect permanent improvement of at least a part of the streets and at the same time provide employment to men of needy families as was contemplated in the grant of the federal money. A second check for $400 is due this county for December expenditure.

Progress Made On Johnson Bridge

Work Being Rushed On Structure Spanning Big Draw

Rapid progress is being made on construction of the bridge across Johnson Draw at the intersection of Highway 27. Crews are at work night and day on the bridge work now and concrete is being poured daily. The bridge is to be approximately 200 feet in length and will be one of the most needed improvements ever made in Ozona, connecting an important residential section of the city with the main business area in flood times.

LIONS TO PLAY SANTA TO KIDS AT CHRISTMAS

Donation Of Used Toys And Dolls Asked By The Club

SANTA VISIT POOR

Children & Grown-Ups To Be Remembered On Christmas Eve

Old Santa Claus—doing business as usual—in the same old stand.

And, as usual, Santa Claus is coming to Ozona with just as large a sack of toys and things as in previous years, maybe larger, and he isn't going to overlook any children in Ozona so far as it is possible for him to find them.

The Ozona Lions Club is going to see to it that Santa visits every child in Ozona by directing him to the homes of poor families, he might otherwise overlook.

Plans for the annual Christmas cheer for the underprivileged were started at the regular club meeting Monday noon. The plan followed last year will be adopted again this year, it was decided. Used toys will be collected from now until Christmas and Santa Claus will take time out on his rounds Christmas Eve to visit the Lions Club list of families, dropping off toys, candies, fruit, and maybe a dinner basket for the whole family.

Persons who have used toys or dolls of any description and who are willing to donate them to the Lions Club for Santa's visit to the poor children of the city are asked to leave them at the Ozona Drug Store or send them by the children to the school building. Receptacles are to be provided at the drug store and at school to receive the toys.

Boys of the manual training classes of the Ozona High School and girls of the Home Economics department have volunteered their services in putting the toys and dolls in condition for Santa's delivery Christmas Eve. The Boys of the manual training department will take all broken or damaged toys, recondition them, put them in good shape again and they or a club committee will apply a new coat of paint to the toys needing it, paint for that purpose being donated by Lion J. H. Miller, manager of the West Texas Lumber Company here.

The girls of the Home Economics department sent word to the club Monday through Supt. John L. Bishop that they would be glad to make new dresses for all the dolls donated for this purpose. The girls are anxious to get started on this work as soon as possible, as are the manual training group, and those who have dolls or toys to contribute to the collection are asked to send or bring them in at once in order that they may be put in good condition in time for distribution on Santa's annual visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Short and Mrs. Peters left Tuesday for Camden, Ark., upon receiving word of the critical illness of the Newton child.

John Skeets of San Angelo, bank examiner, is ill at the Hotel Ozona, suffering from an attack of the flu. Mrs. Skeets is here at his bedside.

BEGINNING . . . and enroute Professor Einstein has figured out that the earth is at least ten billion years old.

In those two million years there have been no important change in our human bodies. We are shaped exactly like the earliest primitive men and women.

Mankind's power to think, to learn and to use what he learns to change his environment and so make life easier and safer, is the only important difference which science can detect between ourselves and the other animals.

Our brains are not yet large enough to enable us to master and apply all the facts about the world we live in, but each generation knows a little more than the last about the best way to live comfortably and happily.

UVALDE, Texas.—Realizing the success of this year's sale of Christmas Seals is more imperative, perhaps, than it has ever been before.

Relative to this important work, Mr. Garner had this to say in part: "Knowing the great work done by the tuberculosis organizations of the United States during the past quarter of a century, through whose efforts the saving of thousands of lives a year is accomplished, I urge every citizen to make his contribution, large or small, through the purchase of Christmas Seals.

Belligerent Amazon Breaks Into Print Via Classified Ads

Stories, both humorous and sad, are plentiful in the classified columns of any newspaper. One in particular that exploded several tickle boxes when it was discovered in the course of perusal of exchange columns coming to this newspaper was published in a West Texas Weekly in a town not a hundred miles from Ozona.

"There is a rumor going around about a certain crowd on Hallowe'en night. It is being said I was fighting in front of —'s store. That is a falsehood and will the gossipers keep quiet about it. And it is a falsehood about myself being indecent about my conduct and if there had been a fight there certainly would not have been any running."

Had it happened in Ozona, it probably would have appeared in the Scandals and an innocent editor would have had a black eye while old Town Gossip laughed up his sleeve behind his secure cloak of anonymity.

Largest Steer Wins Grand Championship At Wool Exposition

While great crowds stood at the ringside Tuesday afternoon, Judge Walter Biggar of Dalbeattie, Scotland, chose Texas Special, shown by C. M. Largent & Son of Merkel, Texas, for the supreme honors in the world's greatest live stock exposition.

The splendid Hereford steer had previously won first place in the class for steers weighing between 1,150 and 1,350 pounds. The smooth, blocky steer weighs 1,241 pounds and was born May 6, 1931.

A Bag of Calf Chow Let's You Sell Ten More Cans of Cream

Every time you feed a bag of Purina Calf Chow you save ten cans of milk. That's 800 pounds of extra milk you can sell. Or, if you are selling butterfat and your milk tests 4 per cent, it's 32 pounds of extra butterfat you can sell.

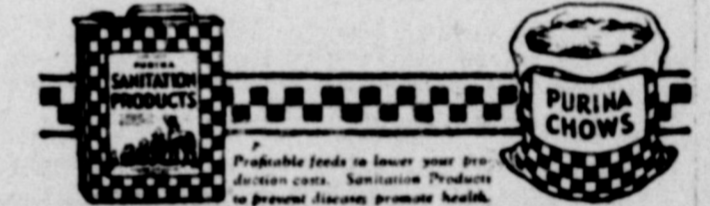

Here's how Calf Chow saves that milk: A pound of Calf Chow takes the place of a gallon of milk. This means that ten pounds of Calf Chow takes the place of a ten-gallon can of milk. A hundred pound bag of Calf Chow will replace ten cans of milk. With milk at $2 a hundred, those ten cans of milk will bring you more than three times the cost of a bag of Calf Chow.

You can't afford to raise calves on whole milk when Calf Chow raises them for one-third the cost. Feed Calf Chow and put the difference on your milk check.

U. S. Must Consider Foreign Relations In Fighting Depression

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 30.—Before real progress can be made toward business recovery and before the damage wrought by the economic cataclysm of the past three years can be repaired, the problems presented by international debts, tariff barriers, and exchange restrictions must be solved or at least ameliorated, declared Dr. F. A. Buechel, statistician in the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, in his monthly survey of business conditions.

Dr. Buechel's analysis follows: "Restoration of commodity prices to a higher level, re-employment of those out of work, and the re-vitalization of the entire industrial and financial structures of the leading industrial nations require that effective and speedy action be taken upon these fundamental problems."

Marcus Nadler, professor of banking in New York University, states that three principal lines of procedure appear open to the various governments in formulating their economic policies during the coming months:

"First, the adoption of inflationary currency and credit policies. Such a policy would undoubtedly result in an immediate sharp upswing in business accompanied by a rapid contraction in the number of unemployed. In the long run, however, such policies are bound to fail and in the end lead to depreciation of the exchange and economic chaos.

"Second, the continuation and accentuation of the present policies of economic nationalism and self-sufficiency. Such policies would necessitate serious economic readjustments, accompanied by an increase in the number of foreign bond defaults and by further exchange and trade restrictions. It might eventually result in an economic system in which each nation would be economically self-sufficient (with the exception of a few raw materials). Such a system would tend to press down the standard of living and the revival of industry and commercial activity would be very slow. It would mean a reversion to the economies of the Middle Ages.

"The third procedure, and the one which appears to the writer to be the sanest, is the adoption by all countries of a policy of economic common sense based on realities. Such a policy involves the economic solution of the war debts problem, the scaling down of tariff walls, the arrangement of temporary settlements with governments in default, the funding of short term debts, and the co-operation of the central banks with the view of eliminating the various foreign exchange restrictions. Such a procedure would require sacrifices on the part of all but it would lay a firm foundation for economic recovery throughout the world.

"Which procedure the various countries will follow is impossible to foretell. The first leads to inevitable chaos and the second would set back the clock 500 years. The third would be a rational attempt to liquidate the economic disasters of the war and post-war period and aid the world to a new start.

"A report recently submitted by a committee headed by Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors Corporation, composed of business men, farm leaders, labor leaders, and economists, contained the following recommendations:

PICNIC OF THE DEAD

ON A MOUNTAIN TOP OF LUZON, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS THE BODIES OF THE DEAD ARE LEFT IN GROUPS, SITTING UPRIGHT AND FULLY CLOTHED. AS IF THEY WERE ENJOYING A PICNIC

THE HOT DRY AIR MUMMIFIES THE BODIES

THE MEAT FROM OVER 125 000 HORSES IS USED FOR FOOD EVERY YEAR IN THE UNITED STATES

"First, that elected representatives of the American people recognize the problem of inter-governmental debts as a non-partisan issue to be settled strictly in the interests of the United States; second, that Congress authorize, by recreation of the world war Foreign Debt Commission or otherwise, such reconsideration and readjustment of debt-funding agreements as would best advance the interests of American trade and promote prosperity; third, that Congress extend the moratorium for a sufficient period to give time for these negotiations.

"Among the factors which have contributed to the changed capacity of foreign debtors to pay (not to mention the Lausanne settlement), the report emphasizes the following: "First, the decline in wholesale prices which means that to pay every thousand dollars of the debt as originally funded our debtors must now sell half as much again in commodities; second, reduction of foreign trade of debtor nations to 60 per cent of the 1929 level because of tariff barriers and low prices; third, transfer difficulties in buying American dollars to meet debt payments in a demoralized exchange market; fourth, the difficulties of national finance in debtor countries whose revenue are now being obtained only with the greatest difficulty from already overtaxed people."

Mrs. J. C. Littleton returned last week to her home in Abilene after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Ingham, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Harrell took her to Abilene in their car and went from there to Fort Worth where they visited relatives. Mr. Harrell attending the Texas A. & M. football game in Austin Thanksgiving day.

Joe Sellers Pierce and Hop Hoover, students at Texas Tech in Lubbock, spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with their parents.

National Co-Op Sees Strengthening Wool Market This Winter

The country has spoken—the suspense is over. Sufficient time has not yet elapsed to permit a dependable appraisal of the effects the change of administration will have on wool or commodity markets in general, but the National believes that food, clothing and shelter will continue to be the three prime requisites to human comfort and happiness. Disappointments over the outcome of the election will be many. New faces will be seen in post offices, foreign legations, and other branches of the Federal service; Republicans must "share work" with Democrats. For a time, uncertainty may rule, but let us not forget that the one important promise made by both political parties was to work for business recovery.

Agricultural commodity prices which advanced sharply a few weeks ago, thus stimulating hopes for business recovery all along the line, have again declined until wheat and some classes of live stock have reached an all-time low, and corn is cheaper fuel on the farm than coal. Wool alone has held its strength fairly well. But in spite of political uncertainty and the deplorable condition of agriculture, general business has continued to improve. The Annalist Index of Business Activity showed an increase for September of 15.2% over July. Cotton came first with an increase of 55.1%, wool being second with 48.1%. Automobile production declined 21.4% during the same period. The deduction is that people must be fed and clothed while waiting for the new car and the dawn of a better day.

In the meantime the reservoir of deferred needs, already at the breaking point, is being steadily augmented; automobiles and trucks, railway equipment and rails, building materials for new construction and repairs, industrial plant rehabilitation, machinery and tools, etc. In order to supply these needs, when expressed in actual orders, mines and smelters must be reopened, the wheels in manufacturing plants set in motion, the lumber industry revived. This will gradually draw upon the army of the unemployed and create a better market outlet for all agricultural products. We can see no reason now for changing our oft-repeated belief that the present offers a splendid opportunity for the sheep raiser who has fighting blood coursing through his veins. As indicated above, the wool market is still in a waiting mood. Unquestionably, it is weaker in spots, but sales at price concessions during the period under review have not represented volume. We admit the possibility of somewhat lower quotations for the near future, but have every confidence that this situation will right itself before this eventful year draws to a close. Foreign markets are very strong.

Fifty and Fit

A MAN is as old—or as young—as his organs. At fifty, you can be in your prime.

Why go along with "fairly good health" when you might be enjoying vigor you haven't felt for years? There's a simple little thing anyone can do to keep the vital organs stimulated, and feel fit all the time. People don't realize how sluggish they've grown until they've tried it. The stimulant that will stir your system to new life is Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. It will make a most amazing difference in many ways.

This famous doctor's prescription is a delicious syrup made with fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. It starts its good work with the first spoonful. That's all you need to drive away the dullness and headache of a bilious spell, and rid the system of that slow poison that saps your strength. It's better than a tonic for tired bowels, and unlike habit-forming laxatives you can take it freely, or give it to any child. And it isn't expensive.

Get some syrup pepsin today, and take a little tonight. Don't wait until you're sick to give your system this wonderful help. You can avoid those spells of biliousness or constipation. A spoonful every now and then is better than constant worry about the condition of your bowels, or fear of auto-intoxication as you grow older. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin protects the system. All druggists keep this preparation.

The tea table was lovely with its center piece of fruit and red tapers at either end of the table. It was laid with a lovely lace cloth. Mrs. J. W. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, Mrs. Will Baggett, Mrs. R. R. Dudley and Mrs. Scott Peters.

Louise Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Henderson, who is a member of the Senior Class at Ward-Belmont School in Nashville, Tennessee, has recently been elected Secretary of the Ozonon Club, one of the ten social clubs on the campus.

Depressions may come and depressions may go, but Santa Claus will go on forever. Christmas has already started in Ozona and merchants are beginning to dress up their stores in Christmas attire. It's a great institution, this Christmas, the most lasting joy that has ever come to the world, and the greatest gift of God to man. It is in truth for giving thanks and doing honor to the Savior of men.

Hope has not altogether been abandoned for securing a natural gas distributing system in Ozona. Persons interested in the project are still making an effort to put it over and it is understood now that an appeal is to be taken to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for a loan of the necessary capital. If this is successful, the system may be installed this winter. If so, it will be to the interest of the people of Ozona to get behind the men who are putting in the system and make it worth while.

Ramsley's Nursery, Austin, Texas, has been selling home-grown trees of the highest quality for 57 years. Their products give returns in health and beauty, and help fight the depression. This is a good time to plant Fruit Trees, Pecans, Berries, Shade Trees, Evergreens, Roses, Flowering Shrubs, Bulbs. Write for their free catalogue of reduced prices. 34-13c

METHODIST NOTES

For several years the American Bible Society, which prints more Bibles than any other establishment in the world, has asked that the first Sunday of December of each year be set aside as Universal Bible Sunday, by all the churches of the nations regardless of denominational lines. They now print and circulate the Bible in 175 languages and dialects. The New Testament can be bought for five cents, the whole Bible for thirty cents. A good service Bible may be had for one dollar. It is still the best seller of all books.

Its influence on our civilization is of such a force that we can scarcely realize what a blessing it is to us. It has given us our laws. It is the authority for the marriage tie. It is the foundation of the home. We get the motto for our dollar from the Bible. It has been the universal national use of the Bible that gave the German people their language. Our own English language was perfected that the Bible might be known to all. It was the first book to come from the printing press, in fact printing was developed for the express purpose of printing the Bible. It is the hope of international peace, the joy of the individual citizen of all nations where it is read.

Therefore—it is in keeping with the love and reverence which we have for the Book that we designate our worship next Sunday to the Bible, The word of God, the light of the world, and the hope of mankind. We invite all interested to come worship with us. At eleven o'clock next Sunday morning.

J. H. Meredith, pastor.
