J. O. Secrest Seeks Owner Purse Found Near Chicken House

J. O. Secrest has found a bill fold containing a small amount of money. There is no name in the wallet and Mr. Secrest is very anxious to find the owner. In fact, he is holding the purse with its contents and has asked The Stockman to broadcast the facts and urge the owner to call for his belongings.

Mr. Secrest does not promise to return the bill fold "without question." The fact is that he is likely to ask several questions, not the least important of which will be an inquiry as to how that bill fold happened to be at his chicken house door.

After losing several valuable chickens while he was away on his trip to Oklahoma recently, Mr. Secrest installed a lock on his chicken house door, leaving a small opening at the bottom for the chickens to get in and out. It was after this installation that he found the purse near the door of the chicken abode. The lock had not been tampered with and evidently the chickens could not be lured from their roost to come out voluntarily through their own private entrance, as none of them were missing.

But Mr. Secrest is more than a little puzzled over the presence of the bill fold and is anxious to return it to its owner.

$190,000 IN COUNTY ROAD BONDS PAID

Commissioners Order Big Slice Of $375,000 Issue In

$185,000 EXPENDED

Action Taken Under Act Of State Taking Over Roads

Acting on the legislative act which became effective September 17, 1932, whereby the state takes over all outstanding bonded indebtedness of counties for road construction purposes, the Crockett County Commissioners court in special session last Thursday passed an order requiring payment and cancellation of $190,000 worth of the $375,000 road bond issue voted in this county to meet state and federal funds for construction of highways in the county.

The $375,000 bond issue was sold to the Central National Bank of San Angelo at par and the proceeds from the sale were placed on deposit in the same bank. The court's order last week cited the fact that there is on deposit to the credit of the county in the San Angelo bank at present a total of $192,520.61, representing the unexpended total of the issue, plus interest on the sinking fund. In addition the sinking fund now totals $4,173.67.

Interest in the sum of $9,375 for the six months period ending October 10 was due on that date and the court's order providing for retirement of the bonds included payment of this interest. The county clerk was instructed by the court to draw a check for $190,000 on the Central National Bank payable to that bank to pay the principal on the 190 bonds. Two other checks on the bank for $4,173.67 of the sinking fund and $2,529.61 from interest on the sinking fund and a county warrant for $2,680.72 to make up the balance of the $9,375 interest payment were ordered tendered the San Angelo bank.

Under the terms of the legislative act, it becomes unlawful for the county to pay out any money in aid of state highway construction in the county. A total of $185,000 of the bond funds have already been expended in highway construction work, but the balance of $190,000 remained intact after passage of the act.

The state has assumed the payment of interest and retirement of the bonds, but as the money was available in the bank for retiring the bonds, it was the court's idea that the state would concur in the plan to retire them and stop interest payments. The issue provided that retirement of the bonds would be optional after the first five years. As that period has not elapsed since issuance of the bonds, it was necessary to secure the consent of the holders of the bonds to their retirement.

Rev. J. A. Kidd Coming To Baptist Revival Instead Of Rev. Brown

Rev. J. A. Kidd of Pecos, Texas, associational missionary of the Pecos Valley Baptist Association, will do the preaching during the revival meeting at the First Baptist Church in Ozona beginning October 23 and continuing through November 26, it was announced this week by Rev. M. M. Fulmer, pastor.

Rev. George Brown, who it was first announced would conduct the services, notified the local church that he would be unable to fill the engagement, and Rev. Kidd was secured for the period. Rev. Kidd is well known to Ozona people, having been here on several occasions at church meetings and large crowds are expected at each service to hear him.

Over 500 Pounds Of Meat Canned

Steer To Be Canned Friday; More Workers Needed

More than 500 pounds of meat have been canned in the two days operations under the canning program sponsored by the Crockett County Chapter of the Red Cross to meet demands for charity relief here during the coming winter, according to Rev. M. M. Fulmer, chairman of the local chapter.

Approximately 300 pounds of meat were canned in the first session last week from yearling goats donated by Early Baggett and Tuesday another 250 pounds were canned from 14 kids given by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Couch.

The next canning session will be held Friday when a steer donated by Lee Henderson will be put up. The committee has been unable to secure as much help in the canning work as could be used and as even more will be needed when the work of canning the steer starts. An appeal is being sent out for more volunteer workers to assist in the canning operations.

Persons who will volunteer to assist in this work are urged to phone Rev. Fulmer for assignments.

Miss Margaret Deland J. P. Pogue Married In Carlsbad, New Mex

The second surprise marriage of the week became known here last night when Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Deland received a telegram from their daughter, Miss Margaret Deland, announcing her marriage to J. P. Pogue of this city which occurred in Carlsbad, N. M., Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Deland and Mr. Pogue left early Wednesday morning, telling their friends they were bound for San Angelo to spend the day. Instead of going to San Angelo, however, they stole a march and the next heard of them was the telegram from Carlsbad.

Miss Deland was the third member of the 1932 graduating class of the Ozona High School to step off on the matrimonial venture, Phillip Lee Childress and Miss Mary B. Vaughan, both members of the 1932 class, having done so a week earlier.

Mr. Pogue is employed at the local Humble Oil and Refining Company filling station. He has resided in Ozona about two years. After a wedding trip, the young couple will return to Ozona to make their home.

Ozona High To Play Eldorado

Rocksprings Drubbing Puts Locals On Toes For Next Contest

With the sting of a 25-0 defeat at the hands of Rocksprings last Saturday on the Edwards County grid still fresh in their memories, Coach Ted White's Ozona High School Lions will engage the Eldorado Eagles in the second conference fray of the season on the local grid next Saturday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock.

The Rocksprings game last Saturday was a much less one-sided affair than the score indicates, according to Coach White. The Lions battled the heavier and more experienced Rocksprings team with plenty of grit and determination, the Coach said, but the odds were too heavy against them and the result was a four-touchdown margin of defeat.

The locals have settled down to the serious business of training this week and are determined to make a better showing in Saturday's game against the Eagles.

Pascal Northcutt was a San Angelo visitor Saturday.

OZONA APPLIES FOR $2500 OF R. F. C. FUNDS

Relief Funds Sought Through W.T.C. of C. And Governor

GRAVEL STREETS

Committee Would Put Street In Shape To Give Employment

A committee representing the Ozona Lions Club and the charity organizations of the city this week made application for $2,500 from relief funds of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for relief of unemployment in this city during the remaining two and a half months of the present year.

Assuming by appointment the authority vested in T. A. Kincaid, Sr., who was named by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as Crockett County chairman, the committee, composed of Hugh Childress, Jr., president of the Lions Club, Rev. M. M. Fulmer, Red Cross and charity organization chairman, and Rev. J. H. Meredith of the same organizations, gathered date relative to Crockett County needs and prepared the application forms, which will be submitted through the governor of the state.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce and other regional organizations were named by Governor Sterling to be in charge of gathering the relief data and applications of counties over the state, and the West Texas organization named chairmen in each county served to have charge of the matter in their respective counties. Mr. Kincaid was named as local chairman and at his instruction, the committee representing the various organizations took charge of the work.

Under the terms of the federal relief act, all monies secured from the corporation must be used in payment for labor. The Crockett County application was made with the plan in mind of using the fund to gravel the streets of Ozona during the coming winter, providing employment for every idle man in the county in this work.

A long distance telephone conversation with D. A. Banded of Stamford, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, established the fact that funds being distributed by the R.F.C. are in the nature of federal donations for the relief of unemployment through the coming winter. The funds applied to any one state, however, will be repaid to the federal government through withholding of the amount from future federal appropriations for road work or other governmental activities in that state. There is no direct obligation upon the county or community making application, according to Mr. Banded.

It is the plan of the committee to expend $500 of the amount of the federal funds during the remainder of the month of October and $1,000 a month during November and December.

You'll Appreciate the Finer Flavor of Electrically-Cooked Foods

Years ago traditional "Dutch Oven" meals provided wholesome, appetizing and attractive foods cooked in their own juices... with all the delicious flavors, healthful vitamins and vital food elements sealed-in. Memories of these wonderful meals have been handed down in poem, song and prose.

But the "Dutch Oven" method of cookery, marvelous from the standpoint of results, was too burdensome to fit modern living conditions... So Electric Cookery, offering the same delicious and healthful meals with a minimum of work on your part, has skyrocketed to popularity. Deservedly!

With Electric Cookery, scientifically accurate cooking controls do all the cooking! Literally, you do nothing but put the foods in the oven, set the controls, and take out a delicious and piping hot meal when you are ready to serve!

To save work, money and health... to enjoy a clean, cool kitchen... and to serve better and more healthful meals, install an Electric Range TODAY. Ask a salesman for information regarding special prices and terms NOW available.

Call us for an individual investigation of your use of electric service to determine the cost of cooking by electricity in your home. You may be surprised to know that there are many cases where electric cookery actually decreases the total of electric and gas bills.

Off With The Old — On With The New!

CHURCHES — now uniting

Up on the hilltop above my farm stands an old white church with a tapering spire, in which religious services have been held for nearly 150 years. When it was built by the Congregationalists, the few families of Baptists in the village started a little church of their own, but more than a hundred years ago they came to the sensible conclusion that they did not need two churches, so the congregations merged. There have been no denominational differences in that remote corner of New England since then.

In England the other day the three branches of the Methodist church agreed to drop their doctrinal differences and unite in one church organization. The northern and southern divisions of some of the American denominations which were split by the Civil War are beginning to reunite. The Christian denomination and the Congregationalists have lately merged.

Contrary to the prevailing notion, membership in both the Protestant and Catholic churches in America is increasing.

DETERMINATION — girls

When the University of Louisiana announced that the college would accept farm products instead of money for the payment of students' fees, seventeen year old Elena Percy, of West Feliciana Parish, got on her horse, rounded up nine head of cattle and herded them over forty miles of country road, to the university where she enrolled as a freshman student.

To me there is something not only picturesque but refreshing in this girl's demonstration that the old pioneer spirit of America is not dead. I have never met Elena Percy, but she has the spirit that overcomes obstacles, the determination to get an education at what ever cost in hardship and work.

My guess is that Miss Percy will develop into a much more useful citizen than some of the young women I occasionally see riding horses in Central Park or following the fox hounds at the fashionable country clubs.

FRANCE — her dirt farmers

The farmers of France have no such problems about the marketing of their wheat and other staple crops as confront the farmers of the United States. That is because they do not export anything to speak of, and the importation of staples which might bring the French farmers prices down is strictly regulated by law.

Every year the authorities in each department tell each French farmer how many acres of winter wheat and how many acres of spring wheat he may sow. There is no surplus production. Bakers are not allowed to use more than 3 per cent of imported wheat in their bread. That is one reason why the wheat growers of France are getting $1.40 a bushel for their product this year as against the 50 cents or less which the American farmer gets.

Unfortunately, under our American system we cannot exercise any such control over individual farmers. Each farmer will grow what he pleases, regardless of the probable market. Nobody can help the farmers but the farmers themselves. They can only help themselves by co-operative effort for the control of crop production and marketing. Some day the dirt farmers will get together and throw out the political farmers who make their living by keeping the farmers and the nation in a state of unrest.

SECURITY — under foot

One of my friends from back in the hills drove over to my farm the other day to talk about things in general.

"I was born in the city," he told me, "and served eight years in the navy before I fell in love with a country girl and married her and came up to live on the farm. I am milking thirty cows, but although I am only getting two cents a quart at the milk station I am not complaining. Things are going to get better.

New Rules Result In Cleaner Type Of Football, Says Coach

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 13.—A cleaner type of football is being seen in the line of scrimmage at The University of Texas as a result of the new football rules, according to C. J. Alderson, freshman football coach. Some of the rules, such as the frequent substitution of men, has slowed up the game to some extent, but on the other hand, the dead-ball rule tends to speed up the game, he pointed out. The old rule which permitted a liberal use of the hands has been abolished. This year a gridman is allowed to use his hands to shove his opponent and not hammer him. The old method of piling on after the tackle has been done away with. A new rule states that if the ball carrier touches the ground the ball automatically becomes dead. The wedge play which has been a constant cause of injuries has been marked off of the rule book. On the kick-off the drop-kick may be used as well as the old method of place kicking. Another ruling, Mr. Alderson stated, is the option of penalties allowed the captain of an offensive team. If a pass has been interfered with, the penalty attached to this interference may be taken or that penalty given for a foul. Mr. Alderson predicted that in the future substitution rules will be passed requiring substitutes to report to an official on the sidelines. The duties of this official will be to take the substitute's playing number, whereby the official on the field will not be forced to take time to check the new man. Either this method of substitution will be used, or another which requires the coaches to send the number of the player onto the field with the substitution.

Playing equipment has changed, Mr. Alderson said. All players are forced to wear knee-pads. The protection afforded players by the hard material in their uniforms has been changed and the material now used will eliminate a large percentage of injuries sustained by the players.

Andrews Wins Court Fight To Cancel Oil Gas Lease Contract

Judgment for the plaintiff, H. A. Andrews of San Angelo, was entered in district court here Monday in his suit against the Nordon Oil Corporation. The suit was for cancellation of an oil and gas lease on lands owned by Mr. Andrews in Crockett County. The case was tried at a special term of the court called by Judge Joe G. Montague.

The plaintiff alleged that the oil company had broken its lease contract by its failure to pay rentals on time and the court held that the plaintiff was right in his contention and ordered that the lease be cancelled.

Where Does She Get Her "Pep?"

SHE doesn't look seventy. Nor feel that old. The woman who stimulates her organs can have energy that women half her age will envy!

At middle-age your vital organs begin to slow down. You may not be sick, simply sluggish. But why endure a condition of half-health when there's a stimulant that will stir a stagnant system to new life and energy in a week's time?

This remarkable stimulant is perfectly harmless. It is, in fact, a family doctor's prescription. So, if you're tired of trying every patent medicine that comes along, tell the druggist you want a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a bit of this delicious syrup every day or so, until you know by the way you feel that your lazy liver is again active, and your bowels are poison-free.

Men, women, and children who are run-down, who tire easily, get bilious spells or have frequent headaches, are soon straightened out when they get this prescription preparation of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh laxative herbs. (Syrup pepsin is all the help the bowels need, and you do not form the very bad habit of always taking cathartics.)

Keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin in the house, and take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. It is all that a great many people ever take to keep strong and vigorous, and absolutely free from constipation.

Texas Wool Industry

By W. E. TALBOT

Editor's Note.—This is the fifth of a series of articles dealing with the possibilities of the wool industry in Texas. Colonel Talbot, a snazzy director of the Southwest Industrial Development Bureau, is an acknowledged authority on the subject of industrialization for Texas.

Copyright, 1932, Southland Life Insurance Co.

As we previously have pointed out, the wool and mohair crop for 1931 had a value of $12,825,000. This amount, it was shown by James McDowell, textile expert, was increased to a valuation of $187,000,000 after being washed, carded, processed and ready for the manufacturer. This gives a very definite idea of the loss sustained by Texas in labor charges. We should do this work ourselves. Let me remind you the figures concern merely the wool ready to go to the mills to be changed into the finished cloth. There are no manufacturing profits yet added. So it would appear that there is ample opportunity for Texas capital to be invested in an industry that will take our own raw material and at least prepare it for the manufacturer, which eliminates the excessive cost today being paid for scouring by our own people plus the freight rate on dirt and grease. If this dirt and grease were retained in Texas a new industry in the manufacture of soap and a cheap fertilizer for our farmers could result.

These things can be done and should be done. The only question is whether or not the cities that are in the immediate vicinity of the wool raising area are progressive enough to take advantage of this source of added income for their communities.

Big Crowd Out For Lions Play

Receipts Total $100, Comedy Production Pleases Crowd

The lower floor of the big auditorium in the new High School building was almost filled to capacity last Thursday night when the three-act comedy, "The Whole Town's Talking," was presented under the auspices of the Ozona Lions Club.

Gross receipts from the entertainment amounted to slightly more than $100. Proceeds are to be used in charity work by the club.

Under the able direction of Mrs. A. W. Jones, the cast of the home-talent production presented a finished performance of their various roles and the audience was enthusiastic in its reception of the play. A howling comedy from start to finish, the presentation brought gales of laughter from the audience from the rise of the first curtain until the end.

Hugh Childress, Jr., as the scheming husband with a propensity for late evening business conferences and chief "fixer" of his daughter's matrimonial future, and Glenn Rutledge as his slatternly business partner who consented to the former's scheme for marrying the daughter and then became enthusiastic about the prospect, were the central figures in the merry mix-up which followed.

Alma Johnigan as the wife and Carolyn Montgomery as the daughter, held to the idea that the man the daughter married must have a "past" and when the wily partners cooked up a story about an "affair" the prospective bridegroom had had with a famous movie beauty, played by Mrs. Evert White, and when that movie star's fiancée, Jake Young, appeared on the scene and demanded an explanation, things began to happen in a big way. The story was so convincing, however, that the daughter chucked overboard her erstwhile flame, a young Chicago blood, played by Richard Flowers, and then when the young Chicago gallant threw in with the movie star's fiancée things looked black for the fixers, Hester Burger as the gum-chewing dancing teacher of the business man further clouded his horizon by appearing on the scene to demand her purse that had been inadvertently left in his taxi-cab on their ride home one rainy night.

Methodists Plan Picnic Fri. Night

Weiner Roast And Outing To Be On W. R. Baggett Ranch

Members of the Methodist Church and their families and invited guests will enjoy a weiner roast and picnic Friday afternoon and evening on the W. R. Baggett ranch north of town. The site for the outing was decided upon this week by a committee headed by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Meredith, and other committees are completing arrangements for the affair.

The picnickers will gather at the church at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon. Shortly after 5 o'clock, the party will leave for the picnic site. Rev. Meredith, Pon Seahorn and J. A. Fussell compose the transportation and arrangements committee. All who do not have a way to get to the ranch may arrange for transportation by seeing any member of this committee.

In addition to the feast, there will be games for girls and boys and for the old folks too. A committee headed by Miss Norene Allison is charged with the duty of planning games for the girls and John L. Bishop, Ted White and Evert White will have games for the boys.

"All Methodist folks are invited," the pastor said.

ADDRESSES HISTORY CLASS

Rev. M. M. Fulmer addressed a class in history taught by Principal C. S. Denham in Ozona High School Wednesday. Rev. Fulmer discussed the history of the Bible, exhibiting copies of the Hebrew and Greek Bibles and four versions of the New Testament.

Hugh Childress, Jr., as girl friends of the heroine, Wayne Augustine as the maid and Royce Smith as the taxi driver were all splendid in their roles, contributing to the comic situations that tumbled over each other throughout the play.

A highlight of the full evening's entertainment was the between-act performance staged by V. Vanzandt, manager of the West Texas Utilities Company here, and his tumbling team. The acrobatic team was composed of Mr. Vanzandt as the clown, his son, Ernest Vanzandt, Richard Miller, Jr., and little Miss Lorene Townsend. This performance alone was worth the price of admission in the opinion of many in the audience.

Meeting To Be Held In Ozona Next Month By Station Heads

A demonstration of the inoculation method for prevention of sore mouth in sheep and goats will be given in Ozona sometime next month under the direction of a veterinarian from the Experiment Station between Sonora and Rock-springs, it was announced here yesterday by W. R. Nisbet of Sonora, who is connected with the Experiment Station and the A. & M. Extension Service. Mr. Nisbet was here to make arrangements for the demonstration.

A series of meetings throughout the ranching territory will be held in the next few weeks for the purpose of acquainting ranchmen with the method of controlling this dread disease as developed at the experiment station.

A meeting was held at the station recently, attended by county agents, ranchmen and veterinarians at which the results of recent experiments with the serum treatment were recounted and plans made for taking the information thus gained directly to the ranchmen through the proposed series of meetings.

Methods of inoculation, source of the serum and all information relative to the prevention of the disease will be discussed and demonstrated under the direction of a veterinarian, Mr. Nisbet said. Definite announcement of the date for the meeting here will be made as soon as the itinerary of the various groups can be arranged.

Mrs. Jesse Williams, who has been here several weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Smith, has returned to her home in Miles. Mrs. O. W. Smith and Massie Ray Smith took her in the car to Miles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rutledge and Miss Alma Johnigan left Saturday for San Antonio. Mr. Rutledge and Miss Johnigan returned the first of this week, while Mrs. Rutledge will remain in San Antonio for a few days visit. Miss Lorene Mann will be in charge of Mrs. Rutledge's beauty parlor here during her absence.

Music Club Presents Washington Program In Its First Meeting

A combination program including the first and second on the 1932-33 year's program was rendered at the first meeting of the Ozona Music Club held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., Mrs. R. R. Dudley, Mrs. J. M. Dudley and Mrs. Early Baggett were hostesses for the day.

The first program outlined for the new year was devoted to observance of the Washington bicentennial and included patriotic music, readings, music in Washington's day and other appropriate numbers. One of the features was a minuet, a Colonial dance, staged by a group of third grade boys and girls under the direction of Mrs. Royce Smith.

Indian influence was the subject of the second program, which was combined with the Washington program. Appropriate musical numbers and readings constituted the program. The next meeting of the club will be October 20, with the subject "Negro Contribution" as the day's program.
