SORE MOUTH MEETING HERE NOVEMBER 18

Experiment Station Veterinarians To Demonstrate Methods

TOUR RANCH AREA

Recently Discovered Method Of Inoculation Discussed

One of a series of meetings to be held throughout West Texas for demonstration of the vaccination method for controlling sore-mouth in sheep and goats will be held in Ozona Friday, November 18, according to notice received from the Extension Division of the A. & M. College.

The series of demonstrations are being put on under the direction of T. B. Wood, district agent, and Dr. I. B. Boughton, veterinarian, of the Agricultural Experiment Station near Sonora.

The inoculation method of controlling sore-mouth in sheep and goats was developed at the Sonora Experiment Station as a result of months of research work and experiments carried on by veterinarians stationed there. That the inoculation against the dread disease is effective has been proven in a series of field experiments, some of them carried on in Crockett County flocks. Animals in infested areas that were inoculated by the new method have proved almost 100 per cent immune against the disease, while animals in the same flocks not so treated have developed the disease in great numbers.

In order to bring the information developed through the station's experiments before the ranchmen, the veterinarians are making tours through the stock raising sections putting on the demonstrations of the method and (Continued On Last Page)

Lemmons Sale To Start Thursday

$50 In Prizes Offered To Early Arrivals On Opening Day

Ben Lemmons, brings to pass the "big event" herald in last week's issue of The Stockman by announcing in a double page spread in this issue what he calls the "biggest bargain event in the history of the store."

Mr. Lemmons has been unpacking new merchandise and arranging stocks since late last week getting in readiness for the opening of this "Heart of the Season Sale" Thursday morning. He is being assisted by a Mr. Deakins of Dallas, advertising man and card writer, and the store force has everything in readiness for the big opening at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

"We are offering greater bargains and bigger prizes in this sale than ever before," Mr. Lemmons said. "This is a cash sale to raise money and to get the money out of hiding we have marked our stock of highest quality merchandise down to lower level than you can find in Dallas or any of the larger cities of the state. We know the people will not be able to beat these prizes anywhere, either now or later in the year, and you are going to see the greatest buying rush ever witnessed in Ozona during the nine days this sale lasts."

Prizes totalling $50 are being offered early arrivals for the opening hour of the sale Thursday morning. The first fifty persons in the store after the doors open at 9 o'clock will be given tickets entitling them to merchandise prizes. In addition to this a handsome pair of blankets will be given away each afternoon at 8 o'clock as long as the sale lasts.

Rev. J. H. Meredith Is Returned For Sixth Year As Pastor Ozona Church By Action Of Methodist Conference

Rev. J. H. Meredith will return as pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church for his sixth consecutive year in that position as a result of the action of the Methodist General Conference which closed in San Antonio last Sunday night with the reading of appointments of pastors for the coming year. "We are coming back to Ozona for another year. Will arrive Friday and preach Sunday," Rev. Meredith said in a note to The Stockman received Monday.

The re-appointment of Rev. Meredith to the local pastorate was a pleasant surprise for members of the church and the citizenry in general, for it was generally supposed that he would be shifted to another post after having been here five years.

Rev. Meredith's return to the Ozona charge further shatters two already broken records. His stay of five years in Ozona broke his own record of time in the services of one church and it also broke the record of the local church in being served by one preacher.

During Rev. Meredith's five years service in Ozona the church and all its departments have shown a substantial growth, according to the pastor's annual report to the fourth Quarterly Conference in October. The membership of the church during that time has been increased from 185 to 270. The enrollment in the Sunday School has grown from 178 to 217 and in the Leagues from 20 to 48. Enrollment in the Woman's Missionary Society has increased from 38 to 59.

"During these years every claim of the church has been paid in full. The church debt has been liquidated and about $1500 has been spent in repairs and furnishings on the parsonage," the pastor's report said. In speaking of the five years he has spent in the service of the Ozona church and its people, Rev. Meredith wrote in his report:

"Many changes have taken place. Some who were in the graduating class of the high school the first year we were here, we since (Continued On Page 2)

Rev. and Mrs. Fulmer To Entertain Lions At Next Monday Meet

Rev. and Mrs. M. M. Fulmer will entertain members of the Ozona Lions Club with a luncheon at their home next Monday noon at the regular luncheon hour of the club.

An invitation to the club, extended Monday by Rev. Fulmer, was enthusiastically accepted and for the first time in the history of the club it will be entertained at its regular meeting hour in a private home. Members are looking forward to the event with anticipation and one of the largest turnouts of the year is expected.

Miss Catherine Childress and Maurice Lemmons entertained the Lions at the regular meeting Monday with a Halloween story and reading. Rev. J. A. Kidd, who is conducting revival services at the Baptist Church this week, was a guest of Rev. Fulmer for the day.

MINISTERS ARE SPEAKERS ON CHAPEL PROGRAM

By Frances Green
The student body of the Ozona High School assembled in the auditorium for the regular chapel program Wednesday morning, October 26, at 9 o'clock.

The program was opened with a Halloween reading given by Maurice Lemmons. Rev. M. M. Fulmer in his introduction of Rev. Kidd related a story of Theodore Roosevelt, as October 26, was the birthday of this great leader. Rev. Kidd delivered a message humorous, spiritual and uplifting in content.

PASTOR RETURNS

REV. J. H. MEREDITH, who will return to Ozona as pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church for another year. Rev. Meredith was re-assigned to the local pastorate for his sixth year at the close of the Methodist General Conference in San Antonio Sunday night.

Baptist Sun. School Breaks Many Records In Missions Program

The Ozona Baptist Sunday School broke several long-standing records Sunday morning when it observed State Mission Day with a rally and special program. At least a five-year record, and possibly an all-time record for attendance was broken at the Sunday rally, a total of 151 being present for the exercises. This was over the goal of 150 set by Supt. A. W. Jones.

The Sunday School also went over the top on its offering goal. The goal had been set at $35 for the day and a check-up showed a total offering of $43.70.

Eight new pupils were enrolled in the various classes. There were only eight visitors, however, making the greater gains come from the ranks of usually absent members. Fully 50 per cent of those who attend irregularly were present Sunday, Mr. Jones said.

A pageant depicting "The Christian Home" in its relation with state missions was presented under the direction of Mrs. A. W. Jones.

Baskets For Poor On Thanksgiving

Lions Club Plans To Spread Cheer Among Unfortunates

Broadening the scope of its annual Christmas cheer program, the Ozona Lions Club will attempt to spread Thanksgiving cheer in Ozona also this year, according to a plan adopted at the club session Monday.

Thanksgiving baskets containing fresh meat, bread and fruits will be distributed by the club among the poor of the city for the Thanksgiving day dinner, it was decided. A select list of needy families whose Thanksgiving board would otherwise be all but bare will be made and these families provided with the holiday dinner. Flour and canned meat from the local stores of the Red Cross chapter may also be included in the contribution to needy families.

Lions To Sponsor Movie Next Monday And Tuesday Nights

"Sky Devils" is the title of a feature talking picture to be presented at the Ozona Theater next Monday and Tuesday nights, November 7 and 8, under the auspices of the Ozona Lions Club.

The picture is a comedy throughout, according to advance notices, and in addition contains some thrilling airplane scenes. It is not a war picture but has a war background that furnishes the thread for an interesting story. Howard Hughes has the starring role. A short comedy feature will be shown in addition.

Regular admission prices will prevail. Proceeds from the performance will go into the community funds of the club.

Bridge Tourney Here November 8

Junior Woman's Club Sponsors Event To Raise Funds

A bridge tournament will be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Ozona next Tuesday afternoon, November 8, under the auspices of the Junior Woman's Club. It was decided at the last meeting of the club last Thursday afternoon at the High School.

A charge of 25 cents per person for four games will be made for the afternoon's play. There will be several tables for forty-two. A charge of 25 cents per person for six games will be made at the forty-two tables.

Proceeds from the game tournament will be used in community work to be carried on by the organization.

About 35 members and guests were present for the program last Thursday afternoon, which was devoted to a study of art. A talk on the subject "Art Through the Ages" by Miss Ethel Childress and one by Mrs. Marshall Montgomery on "Art in the Home" and two minute talks on masterpieces by Miss Leta Powell, Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Mrs. Jake Short, Mrs. Claude Denham, Mrs. Ashby McMullen, Miss Sophie Haug, Mrs. E. H. Gallenkamp, Miss Mary E. Webb, and Mrs. Massie West featured the program.

The next meeting of the club will be held November 10, with the program devoted to Armistice Day.

Crockett Hereford Cattle To Chicago

Davidson Herd To Be Exhibited At International Exposition

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Among the Texas nominations to the Hereford cattle classes of the 1932 International Live Stock Exposition to be held at the Chicago Stock Yards November 26 to December 3, is a herd of ten white-faces that will be exhibited by J. T. Davidson, of Ozona.

E. H. Heide, secretary-manager of the International Live Stock Exposition announces that entries for the individual livestock classes will close on November 1. For the International Grain and Hay Show, a department of the Live Stock Show, but in itself the largest display of farm crops in the world, entries close November 10, and for the carload lot competition of prime commercial cattle, sheep, and swine, November 19th.

The management predicts that the 1932 show will be the largest in point of exhibits ever held. Prize money offered in most departments will remain the same and in a few instances will be even higher. All railroads entering Chicago will grant reduced round trip fares during the week of November 26 to December 3.

Red Cross Roll Call Head Named

I. G. Rape Chairman Of '32 Membership Campaign Here

I. G. Rape, manager of the Ozona Drug Store, has been appointed chairman of the 1932 Red Cross Roll Call drive in Crockett County. It was announced this week by Rev. M. M. Fulmer, county chairman.

The annual Roll Call drive opens on Armistice Day, November 11 and continues until Thanksgiving. The goal of the local chapter has been set at 100 memberships by the national Red Cross headquarters, and the Roll Call chairman is making preparations for a whirlwind drive that will put the local chapter over its goal in a few days after the drive starts.

Memberships are from $1 up, half of the amount remaining in the treasury of the local chapter and half going to the national headquarters for national and international relief work. This marks the second year of the Red Cross organization activity in Ozona, the local chapter having been organized last fall.

Too Much Owls Is Big Lake Verdict

Ozona High Lads Meet Eldorado In Return Match Here Fri.

Having recovered sufficiently from a temporary attack of fallen arches, suffered last Friday afternoon at Big Lake, Coach Ted White's Ozona High School Lions will get down to business again on the home gridiron next Friday afternoon when they meet the Sherwood eleven in what will likely be the last game for the locals on home soil.

In fact, the coach reports all but the slower arches having "fizzed" already and he has no doubt that all will be in readiness for the home game Friday afternoon when the entire squad will see plenty of service while the mentor seeks to save his strongest material for the Armistice Day battle against the Sonora Bronchos on Sutton soil a week later.

The Sherwood lads are coming back for a return match, the locals having trimmed them in the opening game of the season here.

The verdict at Big Lake last Friday afternoon was short and simple—"too many Owl feathers"—13 to 2. Had it not been for a bit of hard luck, the 2 might have been a 6 or 7, Morris Miller plunging the ball over the Owl goal for a touchdown only to be knocked loose from the ball, which Big Lake covered behind its own goal for a safety. That heartbreaking incident came in the fourth quarter with the Owls leading 13 to 0.

The carnage started early in the fracas as White, fast stepping Owl back, took the ball on Ozona's 40 yard line and weaving and side-stepping his way through the entire Lion team crossed the goal line for the first marker. A powerhouse buck pushed the ball over for the extra point.

Missionary Society Chooses China For New Study Program

"The Living Issue in China" is the subject of study for the Young People's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church in its next meeting November 9. Mrs. J. A. Fussell will lead the discussion of this topic at the meeting, which is to be held at the home of Mrs. John L. Bishop at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, November 9.

All members of the society are urged to be present and visitors are invited. This will be the first lesson in a series on this topic.

EXPECT HEAVY VOTE HERE IN GEN. ELECTION

County Will Vote For Bullington, Observers Predict

FEW ABSENTEES

Interest In Gubernatorial Contest May Bring Out Vote

Interest in the heated campaign for the governorship of Texas between Orville Bullington, the Republican nominee, and Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson under the Democratic banner is expected to result in a record vote in this county at the general election to be held Tuesday of next week, November 8.

Crockett County normally polls only 300 or 400 votes in general elections, but this year the total is expected to go well above that figure by reason of interest in the state contest and also the issues in the national presidential campaign.

Absentee voting here has been slow, however, less than a dozen ballots having been cast up to the day of closing of the absentee voting period.

That this county will be in the Bullington column when the votes are finally tabulated after the general election is being freely predicted by observers. Governor Sterling was a strong favorite in this county in both of his races for the governorship of Texas and the majority of the anti-Ferguson vote here is expected to go to Bullington.

Practically the same election judges as acted in the primary elections will see service in the general election according to county officials. John Bailey will be the presiding judge of the Ozona box and will select his assistants. The polls will open at 8 o'clock and close at 7 p. m.

Secret Committee To Pick Grid Hero

Lions Club Cup To Be Awarded To Most Valuable Player

A secret committee composed of three members will be charged with the duty of picking the "most valuable player" on the Ozona High School football squad each year to receive the handsome silver loving cup offered by the Ozona Lions Club.

The cup has already been ordered by the club and as soon as it arrives it will be placed on display at the school building or some public place until the end of the season when the annual award will be announced.

The cup is to be awarded each year to the member of the football team who is selected by the secret committee as the most valuable player. The name of the player thus honored will be engraved on the cup and the trophy will remain on display in the trophy case at the High School building perpetually.

A committee composed of Glenn Rutledge, Frank James and Royce Smith was named by President Hugh Childress, Jr., Monday to select members of the secret committee who will make the annual award. Only these three men and members of the committee themselves will know who composes the award committee. Membership on the award committee will not be limited to members of the Lions Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Embree Hunt and Mrs. Eula Montgomery of San Angelo are the guests of relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Miller are visiting in Abilene.

FERGUSON TACTICS AT HOME

To what lengths the supporters of the candidacy of Jim Ferguson for governor of Texas in his wife's name will go in an effort to steam-roller the election for him has not yet been fully tried out. From all accounts, it would seem that they "went" far enough in the primaries to insure Jim's getting on the general election ballot, what with the help of the Texas courts, and now since Orville Bullington is presenting himself as a real menace to Jim and his "gray train" they are employing the same tactics again.

Ozons people do not need to depend entirely on newspaper accounts of what happened in some east Texas counties in the primaries. They have some fair examples of Ferguson methods in their own town. For instance, following the recent primary a woman came to Ozona from Longview, one of the East Texas oil field towns. Asked if she had voted in the primary election there, she replied that she had not, explaining that she was not entitled to a vote because she had not met the residence requirements.

"But I thought that didn't make any difference there so long as you voted for Ma," the questioner said.

"No, it didn't," she replied. "At least a half dozen men came to me and asked me to go down and vote for Ma, and when I told them I wasn't entitled to vote they said that was all right so long as I voted 'right.' But I wouldn't do it."

But that was in the primaries. Now, for one among our own people and concerning the general election next Tuesday. A Mexican living in the Mexican suburb of Ozona last week reported having been told by a Ferguson supporter that the Mexicans "had to vote for Ma." The man told them, the Mexican said, that they were bound by "some kind of an oath" to vote for Ferguson and if they didn't do it, they "could never vote again."

Such tactics should turn the stoutest Ferguson supporter against a crowd that sanctions such rank deceptions.

LAS AMIGAS CLUB

Miss Jessie Ingham entertained Las Amigas Club with three tables of members and guests at her home Tuesday. Mrs. Clifton Brooks won high score for the club. Miss Edna Billings, guest high and Mrs. Marshall Montgomery, low. Other guests were Mesdames Hugh Childress, Jr., Ted White, John Curry, J. W. Henderson, Gibbons Potest, Miss Mary Childress, and Miss Elizabeth Perner.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. J. W. Henderson entertained the Friday Bridge Club with a Halloween party at her home last week, with four tables of guests present. Mrs. Eula Montgomery, Mrs. Embree Hunt, and Mrs. Grady Mitcham were guests of the club. Hot tamales with chili sauce were served.

THE PHYSICAL JESUS

One day, as Jesus walked in a crowd, a woman pushed forward and touched his garment; and by that single touch was cured. The witnesses acclaimed it a miracle and so it was; but we need some definition of that word. He himself was very reticent about his "miracles." It was perfectly clear that he did not interpret them in the same way that his followers did, nor attach the same importance to them. He was often reluctant to perform them and frequently insisted that the individual who had been healed should "go and tell no man." And on one celebrated occasion—his visit to his home town, Nazareth—the narrative tells us clearly that the miraculous power was powerless, and for a very interesting and impressive reason.

The people of Nazareth were his boyhood acquaintances and they were skeptical; they had heard with cynical scorn the stories of the wonders he had performed in other towns; they were determined not to be fooled; he might deceive the world, which knew him only as a teacher; but they knew him better—he was just Jesus, their old neighbor, the son of the local carpenter. So of that visit the gospel writers set down one of the most tragic sentences in literature. "He could do there no mighty work," they tell us, "because of their unbelief."

Whatever the explanation of Jesus' miraculous power may be, it is clear that something big was required of the recipient as well as the giver. Without a belief in health on the part of the sick man no health was forthcoming. Men followed Jesus, and the leaders of men have very often been physically strong. But women worshiped him. This is significant. The names of women constitute a very large proportion of the list of his close friends. They were women from widely varying stations in life, headed by his mother. Perhaps she never fully appreciated his genius; certainly she was not without her periods of serious doubts as we shall discover later on; yet her loyalty to his best interests remained true. There were Mary and Martha, two gentle maiden ladies who lived outside Jerusalem and in whose home with Lazarus, their brother, he enjoyed frequent hospitality; there was Joanna, a rich woman, the wife of one of Herod's stewards—these, and many others of the type which we are accustomed to designate as "good" women, followed him with a devotion. The important, and too often forgotten, fact in these relationships is this—that women are not drawn by weakness. Since the world began no power has fastened the affection of women upon a man like manliness.

THAT'S ME—

I'm the thing that borrows and never pays back. I touch you for a half dollar, a dollar, or maybe a five, and never pay it back. I always make the borrows small, so you won't be cheap enough to ask me for it. It is really an art, and I have cultivated to a high degree. Please don't put me in the class with beggars, for my intentions are really honorable. I'll pay you back when I have to.

FERGUSON WANTS $11,000,000 MORE

Ferguson now proposes in his platform that one-third of the gasoline tax which was $32,993,614 last year, be placed in the General Fund which is practically under the control of the Governor. Here is how he would cut up this tax that you are paying on every gallon of gasoline that you buy:

One-third would go to the school fund; one-third to the Highway Fund and one-third would go into the General Fund to be spent for the most part as he dictates and sees fit.

Few of us object to paying a gasoline tax when we know that most of it is being spent on good roads and matching Federal Aid. No one will argue that the schools should not be benefitted. But to take one-third of the gasoline tax and put it into the General Fund is not only taxation without representation but it is confiscation to a large number of our citizens.

Orville Bullington believes that the Highway Department should receive two-thirds and the schools one-third. This two-thirds should be expended as the law provides, for the retiring of the outstanding bonds of the counties that have built highways now part of the highway system, complete highways already started, improve lateral roads for the farmers off the highways and have enough left to match the Federal appropriation in order to get this benefit. The farmer driving his model T Ford pays the same tax on a gallon of gasoline as anyone else and his roads should be kept in repair as well as the highways. One-third of this tax should not go into the General Fund but should be kept in the Highway Fund to be used for improving the roads in his own locality.

Ferguson doesn't want this because it would not let him get hold of this eleven million dollars

He knows—or should know—that the Highway Department cannot maintain present completed roads, complete roads under construction, pay off the bonded indebtedness to counties as provided in the taxation law as passed at the special session of the legislature and match the Federal Aid appropriation out of only one-third of the gasoline tax.

Ferguson dominated the Lubbock Convention. This proposal is one of its planks. If Ferguson should win the election, it would be a mandate to the legislature to pass just such a law as he proposes which would mean that the law passed at the last legislature would be annulled and not a single county receive a full year's benefit from the taxation relief at that time.

The total tax burden of the people of Texas last year, including $19,952,685 paid the Federal Government, totaled the stupendous sum of $234,052,685 or $39 for every man, woman and child in Texas.

The people are crying for tax relief. They now see him already reaching for $11,000,000, which the legislature placed in the Highway Fund, and which, under the law, the Governor does not control. Now Ferguson would change the law, take this eleven million dollars away from the Highway Fund, and put it in his General Fund, where he would practically have entire control.

Mr. Ferguson's Plan is not to reduce taxes but to juggle them.

The greater tax burden on hundreds of thousands of people is the gasoline tax. The very object of taxation is to collect from the citizenship money with which to carry on the very government of the citizens, and the special tax, in this case, the gasoline tax, is levied and collected to provide money to build and maintain highways, and improve lateral roads.

Half the gasoline tax collected is paid by persons of moderate means who live on lateral roads and outlying districts with no highways.

Under Ferguson's plan he proposes to take eleven million dollars out of the fund for which the tax payer and the legislature intended it and place it in a different fund under Ferguson control, to be spent for purposes that one-half of the actual tax payers would receive little or no benefit from.

EVERY VOTER'S RESPONSIBILITY

Next Tuesday, for the fortieth time, the United States will elect a President. Thirty-one men have held this high office, nine having been twice elected. Only thirty-two of the Presidential elections, however, have been decided by popular vote, in our present fashion. For that matter, there is no provision in the Constitution of the United States under which the people are either required or permitted to vote for Presidential electors.

In the early days of the republic the idea that everybody should have a vote for President never occurred to the gentlemen who conducted the Revolution and framed the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. Those things were left to the states, and the Constitution reads that "each state shall appoint, in such manner as its Legislature may direct," the required number of Presidential electors. If any state Legislature wished to, it could today pass a law repealing the privilege of its citizens to vote for Presidential electors, and have them appointed by the Governor or chosen by the Legislature.

Presidents Washington, Adams and Jefferson were all elected under the old provisions of the Constitution, changed in 1804, whereby the candidate who got the most votes was president, and the one who got the next highest number was Vice-President.

The present party convention system of nominating candidates and pledging Presidential electors to their support is only a little over a hundred years old. In that

SCANDALS

By THE TOWN GOSSIP

Have you seen the brand new Purple Truck roaming hither and yon about the streets and alleys of the city? It is the one I have been forced to purchase for the purpose of transmitting my Fax Mail from the U. S. Post Office. It really looks as if the Depression is over in Ozona—what with Mr. Kersey being forced to put on a crew of clerks and old T.G. relieving the unemployment situation to the tune of six secretaries and four stenographers. Already I have enough "hope in my files" to cause more than half the male citizens of Crockett County to flee the country.

Joe Pierce sends in this one on himself—one day last week he entertained a sheep buyer at his ranch, El Rancho Bonita; the buyer was of the impression that Joe kinda wanted to get rid of a bunch of muttons, and consequently did not offer anything for what Joe thought they were worth. Joe haggled and dickered until he was more or less exhausted—the hard-hearted buyer remained adamant and finally made this assertion:

"Well, Joe, I make you one more bid."

"What's that," answered Joe. "I'll bid you adieu."

Chas. Schauer says the Blue Sky operators and promoters used to say: "What in the world would we do without the ranchman." Now they have changed the expression to "Who in the world will we do without the ranchman."

T. G. made the assertion that a certain newly married couple in the city seemed to be supremely happy and that the young wife appeared to worship the husband. "I guess she does," retorted a hard-boiled bachelor standing nearby—"anyhow, she places a burnt offering before him three times a day."

And he must think she's a queen, for he threatens to crown her every day.

Browsing around on the streets one notices that the practice of smoking cigarettes is becoming quite prevalent in our community and T. G. hears considerable comment pro and con as to whether or not we men folks should step in and assert ourselves in the matter. Personally, permit me to go on record as saying that if the ladies want to smoke—let them—that is, anything but cigars. As one of our foremost writers and contemporaries says, "I admit that a goodly percentage of women who smoke, light a cigarette as if it were a Roman candle, hold it as if it were a bomb, and blow through it as if it were a blow-shooter" but watinell difference does that make.

The following little incident took place in the office of our Justice of the Peace—A Mexican couple had been haled into court on a minor charge, bringing with them a child of two or three years. The J. P. asked—"Was that child born in wedlock?"

"No, he bin born at Juno" the lady replied.

hundred years state after state has constantly extended the privilege of voting for President until it has become such a commonplace everyday affair that few, especially of the younger voters, realize that it is not an inherent Constitutional right, but distinctly a privilege. It is an honor conferred upon the ordinary man and woman—an honor which carries with it a corresponding responsibility. It is not a privilege to be exercised lightly. The presumption is that every voter will go to the polls with the feeling that he is discharging a solemn duty, for which he has prepared himself by intelligent thought and examination of the programs and policies of the opposing parties.

still an asset... Throughout the depression a friend tells me his country, which is the largest of its kind, has kept all its skilled workers on full pay.

Henry Ford has to train boys in his own great industrial school to have a large supply of highly-skilled technicians, capable of building the automatic machines which enable the unskilled to produce accurately-machined automobile parts.

For every really skilled hand-worker out of a job there are, I venture, a hundred college men looking for work. And when industry picks up again it will be the skilled mechanics who will be put to work first.

Nine high school graduates out of ten, probably 95 out of every hundred, would be better off and have happier, more productive lives if they were apprenticed to one of the trades that require a combination of intelligence and manual skill, instead of going to college.

PRICES on farm products There is only one way in which prices of farm products can be kept at levels which will enable the farmer to earn a surplus above his bare living. That is for farmers to combine and sell their produce only through their own marketing agencies, fixing the price themselves.

Farmers are the only class of people who are permitted to combine to maintain prices under the anti-trust laws. The whole purpose of the Cooperative Marketing Act, under which the Farm Board was created, is to help farmers to do just that.

If politicians would keep their hands off and not try to feather their own nests at the expense of the farmer the plan would work. Common sense and business methods are all the farmers of the United States need.

FOOTBALL then and now At Rutgers University the other day I saw a tablet in the gymnasium recording the fact that on that spot, in 1869, was played the first intercollegiate football game between Rutgers and Princeton. There were 25 men in each team and the game, recently imported from England, was more like soccer than like the 'Varsity game of today.

It was a good many years after that before anybody thought of charging admission to college football games. As soon as that custom became established the game ceased to be a sport and became a commercial enterprise, which has no more proper place in education affairs than horse racing has. But probably more young men go to a particular college because of its reputation in football than are attracted by the quality of its teaching staff.

EXCHANGE how it works I met a friend wearing a new hat the other day, and admired the headpiece.

"The New York store which handles this make of hats wanted $12 for one like this," he told me. "I sent to London and got it for $8, including the duty. With English money more than 30 per cent over than ours, they can sell their goods to us at a profit, but we can't sell to them, because we have to get our pay in money at the full gold value."

Another friend told me that Japan has captured the rubber shoe business of the United States. The Japanese yen is down about half of its par value in gold. That makes no difference to the Japanese workman, whose pay will buy just as much food and clothing as before.

The problem of how to equalize money between the states is more important than the amount of tariff discussion. The gold which is available for the world's trade purposes. The proposal to restore silver to its former position as money is gaining adherents everywhere.

LETTERS from Our Readers

PROHIBITION Don't fool yourself or be misled by what you may see published concerning prohibition and the eighteenth amendment. Roosevelt is for repealing the eighteenth amendment. Hoover is for modification. It doesn't make any difference which is elected; the eighteenth amendment will likely be repealed. Then a few of the states will go anti, and try drinking all they can hold for a while. Then they will adopt Prohibition. The states will pass laws to prohibit the transportation of whiskey from one state into another and so on and so forth. This is in compliance with the doctrine advocated as state rights. The enforcement of these prohibition laws will be left up to local officers. This is my prediction. I may be wrong. Hope I am. M. A. BAILEY. Say "I saw it in the Stockman."

Texas Wool Industry

By W. E. TALBOT

Editor's Note—This is the eighth of a series of articles dealing with the possibilities of the wool industry in Texas. Colonel Talbot, managing director of the Southwest Industrial Development Bureau, is an acknowledged authority on the subject of industrialization for Texas.

Copyright, 1932, Southland Life Insurance Co.

In succeeding articles I am going to endeavor to point out how we may not only scour the wool, but manufacture the cloth and turn it into the finished products of suits, overcoats and dresses. But you must bear in mind that this may receive opposition from those who are interested in continuing to exploit our Texas people.

The idea that they will help us is an erroneous one. They are going to do everything they can to discourage us. I want to quote you from a man who is intimately acquainted with the woolen industries—in fact, he is one of the big men in it today:

"In the first place, you must bear in mind that Eastern people are not keenly anxious to see this industry go to Texas, where, no doubt, it rightfully belongs, because they desire to keep the trade in the East. And, so long as Texas is satisfied to put up with trade conditions as they now exist, you will find no complaint from the manufacturers here."

"I have always wondered why Texas allows this unbalanced economic condition to exist, as Texas is the most important wool and mohair growing State in the Union, producing 50,000,000 pounds of wool and 15,000,000 pounds of mohair annually, which is shipped to the East 'in the grease,' made into cloth and then shipped back to Texas for the Texas people to wear. The amount of wealth lost to the State each year must be enormous. And it seems to us that the Texas people are lacking in progressiveness to allow this condition to persist year after year."

Remember that this man speaking is from the East, that his living depends upon the wool industry, yet he was frank enough to express an indictment that should cause us all to make up our minds immediately to eliminate this loss to our people.

Next Week: "Production."

W. E. Friend, Jr., underwent an operation for appendicitis in a San Angelo hospital last Thursday.

Clayton Bros. recently sold two doubles of lambs at 3 1/2 cents to a Colorado buyer.

How Old?

He doesn't look a day over fifty. And feels like forty.

At the age of 62.

That's the happy state of health and pep a man enjoys when he gives his vital organs a little stimulant!

When your system is stagnant and you feel sluggish, headachy, half-alive—don't waste money on "tonics" or "regulators" or similar patent medicines. Stimulate the liver and bowels. Use a famous physician's prescription every drug store keeps. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

"This appetizing syrup is made from fresh laxative herbs, active pepsin, and pure pepsin. One dose will clear up almost any case of bowels, indigestion, constipation.

But if you want to keep in fine shape, feel fit the year 'round, take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin every few days. You'll eat better, sleep better and feel better. You will never need another laxative.

Give the children a little of this delicious syrup two or three times a week. A gentle, natural stimulant that makes them eat and keeps the bowels from clogging. And saves them from so many sick spells and colds.

Have a sound stomach, active liver and strong bowel muscles that expel every bit of waste and poison every day! Just keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin on hand; take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. See if you don't feel new vigor in every step.

At the Helm—In Time of Need!

the one hand the road leads to honest, responsible government, respect for the law, honor before her sister States and before the world. If we follow this road, no matter where our footsteps may lead, we may throw back our heads and proudly proclaim we are Texans.

"The other road leads to turmoil, disregard of law and proxy government. To express all of these evils—collectively into one word, the world has coined the word "Fergusonism."

"Does there exist a law-abiding, God-fearing citizen anywhere in the whole State of Texas but that will hold his head in shame, whether he be at home or abroad, should the disgraceful chain of Fergusonism be clamped again about our necks?"

"Texas stands today at the crossroads" Mr. Sells said. "It's honor hangs in the balance. On Say "I saw it in the Stockman."

"The Store That Lowered Prices In Ozona"

Former P.T.A. Head Urges Women Voters To Support Bullington

By Mrs. Ira L. Cain
What do you women voters think of the political situation in Texas? Doesn't it discourage you to try to understand conditions and to know what we women and mothers can do about it?

Well—I have discovered what we can do to help clean up affairs and get a new start, and I want to tell you about it. We can wipe the slate clean, restore public confidence and vindicate the good name of Texas all in one simple step, by voting for an entirely new man for Governor. And the MAN we should vote for is Hon. Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls.

Mr. Bullington is a typical Texan, broad of mind as of build—of brain and brawn. Educated in Texas by his own efforts—worked his way and graduated from University of Texas Law School—and has been successful in his business and clean in his life.

Mr. Bullington is not a politician, and that is a distinct item in his favor. The women and mothers of Texas are mighty tired of the special variety of politicians that seem to flourish so perennially under the conditions that exist in our great State.

These politicians, who having once or twice, OR MORE, been trusted with the honor of high office, seem to be obsessed with the idea that they must remain forever before the people, seeking again to bask in the light of public notice and to exercise the power which they have so abused in the past.

I repeat that the WOMEN OF TEXAS ARE TIRED of this thing that must obtrude itself into state affairs every time election time rolls around, so we should get together and put a stop to it once and for all, by electing a Governor who is an HONEST MAN. And we have every reason to believe he would be an honest Governor.

You know we have entirely too much POLITICS in Texas and not enough GOVERNMENT. Well, the women can change this, if they will, and I am writing to tell you how we can help free our own State from the unhappy situation we are in. Just by forgetting these politicians and their empty promises and by electing Mr. Bullington as Governor of Texas.

There is no reason for us to feel bound to any party—but there is every reason for us to be true to conscience and vote for a man of principle and unquestioned integrity.

It will be the finest thing that has happened in a long time for our homes, our children, our schools, our common people, our public affairs and the honor and good name of our Texas.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION OF FINAL ACCOUNT

Henderson, deceased, numbered 79 on the Probate Docket of Crockett County, together with an application to be discharged from said Administration.

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, That by publication of this Writ for twenty days before the return day hereof in a Newspaper printed in the County of Crockett you give due notice to all persons interested in the Account for Final Settlement of said Estate, to appear and contest the same if they see proper so to do, on or before the November Term, 1932, of said County Court, commencing and to be holden at the Court House of said County, in the town of Ozona on the 7th day in November A. D. 1932, when said Account and Application will be acted upon by said Court.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at my office in the town of Ozona this 8th day of October A. D. 1932.

There are twice as many automobile dealers in Brooklyn than on Manhattan Island, New York.

A New York department store is offering a shoe bag to women. It only holds 24 pairs. That's all.

Five times as much amusement and sporting goods are sold in New York City than in Chicago each year.

There are drug stores in New York which cater to colored persons only. A fourth of their business is in cosmetics.

A directory of speakeasies has been published in New York. It's not much good because speakeasy addresses change so rapidly.

TOO MUCH OWLS

of the locals after the Owl touchdown gave Lion fans a thrill. Jake and Morris Miller, Joe Chandler and S. W. Westfall, the reliable backfield combination, behind an inspired line, gained ground consistently on end runs and passes, piling up several first downs and pushing the ball to within scoring distance only to be hurled back by the fighting Owls.

On the kick-off after the half, Lee Dudley caught the ball fairly on his toe and sent it hurtling over the Big Lake goal line, over the park fence and out in the pasture. Time-out was called while the ball was toted back. The Ozona lads, besides playing one of their best games of the season in many other ways, showed some of the most effective kicking and passing they have exhibited during the season.

But that long kick at the opening of the third quarter evidently ruffled the Owl feathers, which, judging from newspaper accounts had already been considerably ruffled the week before by their defeat at Iraan. Anyway, the Big Lakers started a crashing, tearing attack that took them straight down the field for their second touchdown. Then, in the fourth quarter came Ozona's touchdown which turned out to be a safety and it was all over for the Lions.

SENIOR CLASS PICKS CLASS COLORS, FLOWER

By Hubert Westfall

A meeting was held by the Senior Class Tuesday, November 1, to select class flower, class colors and a motto. The class flower is the rose and the colors are red and white. No motto was selected but one will be chosen probably next week.

Before the meeting was over, Guinn Carruthers, sponsor of the class, arrived with the class rings, which were ordered some time ago. These rings are made of yellow gold and trimmed in old gold. The lion insignia is engraved on each side of the center plate. The plate bears the lamp of learning lighted on each side by torches to enclose an old English "O" for Ozona. To prove to Mr. Carruthers the appreciation of the class for his good sportsmanship and council, the class presented him with a ring.
