Lions Even Count With Rankin Crew

Locals Take Two-Game Series On Devils' Court Last Week

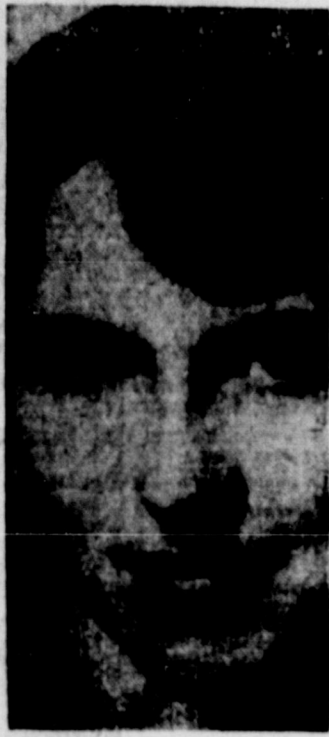

Coach Ted White Lions evened accounts with the Rankin Devils on the latter's own court Friday and Saturday nights of last week when they paid the Devils off in kind with a two-game victory.

A comparison of the scores of the match here the preceding week, wherein the Rankin aggregation swept the series with a narrow margin of victory in each case, shows neither team with much advantage so far as scoring goes, a computation showing the Ozona team with a one-point lead. The first game at Rankin resulted in a victory for the Lions by a score of 39 to 35, a four-point margin. The opening game here the week before resulted in a 28 to 25 victory for the Rankin crew, a three-point advantage.

The score of the concluding game of the series at Rankin Saturday night was identical with the Saturday night games score here, 25 to 24, only in the local contest, it was in favor of Rankin and in the Rankin game it was in favor of the locals.

The Saturday night game there was another thriller like the one here, the two teams being almost evenly matched and a goal in the last seconds of play accounting for victory for the locals there as it did for the Rankin lads here. With only one minute to play, the Lions were leading by a single point when the Rankin quint maneuvered the ball and sacked a ringer, putting them one point out in front and only 40 seconds to play. Then S. W. Westfall of the Lions called time-out and a desperate scoring effort was planned, a cleverly executed pass from the center of the court to the forwards resulting in that goal that meant a game.

Lionesses Take Tournament Cup

Local Girls Team Is Victor In Four-Way Battle Saturday

Unleashing a brilliant attack which swept all opposition before them, the Ozona High School Lionesses, Coach Norene Allison's blue flash, copped the first annual basketball tournament from a field of three opposing sextettes on the High School gymnasium court here last Saturday.

The tournament was sponsored by the local girls basketball aggregation and the cup offered by the team was retained here as a tournament trophy as a result of the Lionesses determined drive for the championship honors.

Four teams were entered for the tourney, representing Ozona, Comstock, Barnhart and Mertzon. The contest opened at 9 o'clock with Ozona and Mertzon in the opening fracas. Ozona nosed out the Mertzon lassies by a 33 to 32 count, clinching a place in the finals for the afternoon.

Comstock eliminated the Barnhart team by a 23 to 12 score to meet the Ozona girls in the championship bout during the afternoon. This final battle was one of the most exciting of the tournament, the match being about a draw during the first two quarters. But the Lioness crew came out with their claws bared in the final half and walked off with the silver statuette by smothering the Comstock lassies 28 to 15.

By reason of a disagreement between the two teams losing in the preliminaries, they did not compete for the consolation cup and it was awarded to Comstock.

The Lionesses again demonstrated their skill on the court Tuesday evening when they trounced a town team, captained by Miss Velma Richardson, to the tune of 35 to 16.

Lions Hear Of PTA Objectives

Mrs. Head, Dist. President, Tells Club Of Assn.'s Work

Members of the Ozona Lions Club heard some of the outstanding features of the work of Parent-Teacher Associations in an interesting address delivered at the club meeting Monday noon by Mrs. Thomas Head of San Angelo, president of the Sixth District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, who was here completing arrangements for the annual Sixth District Conference to be held here the last of next month.

"The Parent-Teacher Association is primarily an educational institution," Mrs. Head declared. "It is concerned with building citizens for the future, pioneering in child welfare work. Its greatest work is in educating parents to recognize the needs of children and to devise ways of meeting those needs."

Mrs. Head, Mrs. Ira Carson, president of the local P.T.A., and Mrs. Albert Kay, vice president of the Sixth District, were guests of the club Monday. Mrs. Head was here to complete arrangements for the annual conference and the Lions Club having joined the local P.T.A. in inviting the conference here for 1933, the officials were invited to the club session to discuss the work and plans for the gathering here.

Mrs. Carson told of plans of the local association for a clinic among the children of the Mexican school and Dr. F. T. McIntire offered his services in putting over the project, which was also endorsed by the Lions Club as a whole.

Glenn Rutledge, local paint contractor, has just completed a job of refinishing the interior of the Couch building between Hancock's Cafe and Joe Oberkamp's.

P.T.A. Celebrates 36th Anniversary

'Founders Day' Program By Local Group Monday Afternoon

A large crowd was in attendance at the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association in the high school auditorium, February 20 at 3:15 o'clock.

The theme of the program was presented in a three act play, "The Spirit of Founders Day," which was given by the seventh grade students under the direction of Mrs. Tom Hunter. In the second act of the play a large three-tier birthday cake was placed on a table in the center of the stage. The 36 candles were lighted and a regular P.T.A. program was enacted.

Children taking part in the playlet were: James Childress, Pauline Wilkins, Ruth Aimonette, Billy Hardberger, Lillian Baggett, Dorothy Fay Drake, Mary Williams, John Childress, Beecher Childress, Athleen Dudley, Ele Bright Baggett, Robert McKillip, Joe Thomas Davidson, Lillian Baggett, Ella Louise Casbeer, Louise Boyd, Allie Mae Armstrong, Clara Mae Danlap, Max Schneemann, Cristell Brock, Elizabeth Coose, Maggie Seahorn, Mrs. Lou Freeman was leader of the program.

Invocation—John L. Bishop. Song—Assembly. Business meeting. Piano Solo—Miss Aileen Hampton.

Address—Mrs. Thomas Head. Birthday offering. Mrs. Thomas Head of San Angelo, sixth district president, gave a most helpful and inspirational address commemorating the founding of the National Congress and setting forth instructional suggestions regarding parent teacher work. She emphasized the splendid opportunity of modern parents and teachers to perpetuate the deeds of those whose ideals and service started this organization thirty-six years ago. "P.T.A.," she stated, "is a great work for a great crisis, for a great hour."

She suggested that for the new situations of a modern civilization education could best bring about new understanding, appreciation and safeguards for the American child.

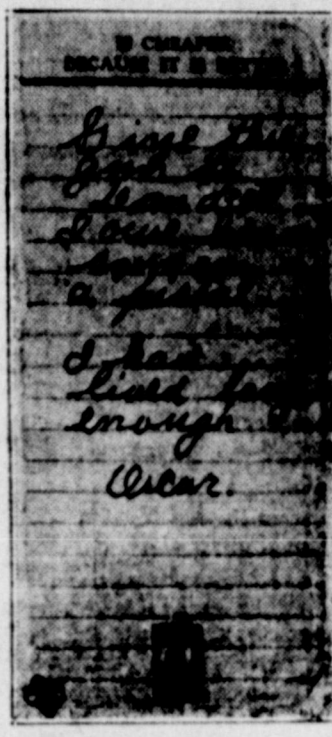

This frontier calls for a challenge to repair past damages; to lay the foundation for industrial economic and social welfare of children of today; to give teachers and pupils security of community support. There can be no back-tracking-education and parenthood must go forward. The P.T.A. exalts the position of parenthood and as a permanent institution exalts ever enduring ideals for equal opportunity for all children.

In her concluding remarks Mrs. Head urged that every member have a place to fill and like a good soldier be at his post of duty in order that the Ozona P.T.A. might keep its good work going forward and keep its ideal of "child welfare" ever in the forefront.

At the conclusion of the program coffee and cake were served to the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Henderson were San Angelo visitors Saturday.

Note Solves Murder

This crude note, left in a gun barrel in the shack of Oscar Robinson, near Brownshoro, Texas, where he was found dead, led to a confession of the murder of W. T. Speer, a neighbor of the slain man. Handwriting experts in Dallas compared the note with the writing of Speer to bring about the confession.

Streets West Of Draw Improved

Grading And Graveling Being Done In R.F.C. Program

Street improvement work, being done with funds advanced by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the relief of unemployment, moved across the draw here this week.

Starting at the intersection of Highway 27 with the street connecting the section across the draw with the main part of town, the graveling crews surfaced the street to the intersection with the main thoroughfare running north and south in that section of the city.

The county grading crew was on the job Tuesday morning putting the north and south street in condition to receive a coat of gravel from one end to the other, this work being started Wednesday afternoon upon completion of the grading work. The street has been given drainage its entire length, ditches being constructed at all cross streets and driveways as has been done in similar work on this side of the draw. When this street is completed, it will furnish an all-weather outlet for nearly every resident of that section of town.

Unless additional funds are available for the next two months, the project across the draw will likely be the last for local unemployed men. Application has already gone through for additional funds and if the application is approved the work will go on here uninterrupted.

Large Crowds Hear Evangelist Busby At Church Of Christ

Evangelist Horace W. Busby is drawing large crowds at services each evening at the Church of Christ in the annual Spring revival meeting now in progress there.

Rev. Busby is preaching twice daily, at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. bringing his usual forceful and helpful messages on Christian living. Song services under the leadership of Ross Hufstetler are proving a blessing to the church. A cordial invitation is extended by the church to all who will to take part in the services. The meeting will continue through next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oberkamp are expected to return today from Marlin where Mr. Oberkamp underwent an operation the first of the week for removal of a growth on his eye.

Athletic Heads Plan Fun Night

Second Annual Festival To Be Held In Gym March 3

The second annual Fun Night program, staged under auspices of the Athletic Department of the Ozona High School will be staged Friday evening, March 3, it was announced this week by Coach Ted White.

The Fun Night program last year was in the nature of a dedication of the handsome new gymnasium of the new high school building. One of the largest crowds ever assembled here witnessed the clever stunt program arranged by athletic department heads, with talent from the entire town taking part.

The program for the second annual fun festival has not yet been definitely arranged, but Coach White promises a program that will rival the first one for entertainment.

Among numbers on the program will be several basketball contests, possibly one between the Junior and Senior boys, the High School girls team and a town team, two town teams of ladies, a town team of men and a liberal sprinkling of stunts to enliven the evening. A tumbling act, something new and different, is one of the promises to patrons of the event. Program features will be worked out and announced definitely next week.

The Lions have been carded for their opening game against the San Angelo quintet at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Big Lake, Big Spring, Ballinger and San Angelo are looked upon as likely favorites for the district championship.

SONORA MAN TREATED HERE FOR BROKEN LEG

Gus Love, ranchman living near Sonora, suffered a broken leg Friday afternoon when he fell from a fence while working cattle in the pens. Mr. Love was given first-aid treatment in Sonora and Dr. F. T. McIntire of Ozona drove to Sonora in his car and brought the injured man here for X-Ray examination and to set the broken bones. Mr. Love is staying at the Hotel Ozona, Mrs. Love being here with him, until he has recovered sufficiently to make the trip back home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Glover were business visitors to Dallas the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Keeton left Wednesday afternoon for Ballinger to be at the bedside of Mr. Keeton's sister, Mrs. Bert Witt, who is reported seriously ill.

SELF SERVICE

Many good folk are lamenting the passing of the era when men and women consecrated their lives to unselfish service and prepared themselves to become ministers, missionaries, teachers or country doctors that they might administer to the spiritual, mental and physical need of humanity without thought of large worldly gain. They are not in error when they charge that modern men and women are choosing vocations today in which they can do the greatest service to themselves.

People of today are coming to the belief that the best way they can help others is to produce much that their profits shall be large and that they shall never become dependent upon society. The old idea of service was direct. The new service is indirect. Twenty years ago it was still thought that only ministers, doctors and teachers served humanity. Today every workman who carries his whole day's wage home is known to have earned that wage in service to society.

Elbert Hubbard's version of the Golden Rule was "Do unto others as though you were the others," but even more up to date version is "Do yourself much good and no bad to others." Getting something for yourself is reprehensible only when it is obtained at the expense of another.—News, Austin, Minn.

SEEK OUT THE FACTS

The war debt problem, in the long run, will not be solved either by supporters of cancellation or by advocates of dollar-for-dollar collection. It will be settled by enlightened and unbiased consideration of all the diverse factors involved.

As The Nation recently observed, refusal to consider would imperil the few foreign trade outlets still open to us, and by provoking the erection of high retaliatory tariff walls would cost us vast sums of money. It is an interesting fact that the decline since 1929 in our annual exports to Europe amounts to four times the 1932 installment on the total war debt.

It avails us nothing if we lose several dollars in order to get one. The problem of war debts is inextricably linked with the problem of depression of unemployment, of industrial stagnation and disturbed monetary systems. To reconsider them is simply to admit that the way to solve a major economic problem is not to argue blindly, but to seek and discover the facts, and use best judgment accordingly.

A social movement will prevail if it meets the needs of the people and is in the direction of their aspirations. A sound economic tendency will become a movement through its own merit. That is the hope of the Share-the-Work movement.—L. C. Walker.

SOMETHING SIMPLE

I wish to ask that no more Plans for solving the economic situation be sent to me. My quota is completed; my files are full. My mental decision to retire from Plan Reading was reached some time ago.

An earnest gentleman with a gleam in his eye got in anyhow the other day. He asked me to read a book in which a new prophet sets forth a new religion. The gentleman assured me that if only all men and women could be led to think the thoughts of this prophet every difficulty would fold up.

While we talked I turned the pages of the book, and after about a minute I assured him that I should not need to read it in order to know that it would have no influence.

He was aggrieved. "You have a closed mind," he charged.

"Not at all," I said. "I happen to know what kind of words move the world. I'll give you an example:

"The Lord is my shepherd," etc. "Four score and seven years ago our fathers founded on this continent," etc.

"Contrast these simple words with a couple of phrases from your book," I said:

"The definitely 'anticipatory' value of the self-protecting mechanism of covenant obligations...

"Expanding consciousness obtainable through the direct application of the method of cyclic evolution..."

"Nobody is going to overturn the world," I concluded, "unless he is able to make his ideas understandable even to a little child. Second-raters are always obscure. But the head man in any department of life, I care not whether it be medicine, theology, science or what, he can make a talk that will fascinate a kindergarten."

John Bunyan explained to his readers that he might have adopted a "style" much more fancy but he wanted his book to be read by common people everywhere. He has his wish: "Pilgrim's Progress" will live as long as anything in our language.

Lincoln's style grew steadily clearer and simpler as he grew in years and wisdom.

"What harm can a book do that costs a hundred crowns?" Voltaire exclaimed. "Twenty volumes folio will never make a revolution; it is the little pocket pamphlets that are to be feared."

I do not know what Plan will lead us to new heights of prosperity or whether, indeed, there will be any one Plan. But if there be, it will consist of things that everybody can understand, such as "the loss you hamper trade the more trade can expand."

TECHNOCRACY

Technocracy is the newest solution offered for the world's economic troubles, according to a statement by Frederick H. McDonald, secretary of the executive committee of the engineering economics division of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

"The project assumes the guise of responsible engineering and scientific approval," Mr. McDonald said, "while using the most unorthodox methods of publicizing an unsubstantiated proposal that smacks of charlatanry and bids fair to rank as the cleverest pseudoscientific hoax yet perpetrated."

"Technocracy is a fanatic fixation on the subject of an otherwise sane and progress-developing term, technology, which is the careful application of science to the production, processing and distribution of goods.

"Undoubtedly there has been a phase of intense economic interdependence that is imposing a slow recovery. Unfortunately there is no panacea for the results of bad judgment. There can be devised no guaranty of individual success. And there is no way of legislating prosperity."

"Technocracy is a misconception of the object of living. Its definition of the technical is a fanatic fixation that makes the term 'technocracy' far more applicable to its magnified fetish of machine domination and materialism.

"The promoters behind this 'techno-crazy' hallucination have made a purported dream into a nightmare of conclusions. Using routine engineering principles for the plotting of routine performance curves they have promulgated unsupported predictions based on the projection into the future of normal processes carried to fantastic extremes.

"This is wildcatting of science in a Ponzi-like scheme for baiting labor with chimerical profits into a despotism salvaged for the gathering unto a self-annointed few

Continuous advertising like continuous work is most effective. If there is any enterprise in the world that a quitter should leave serenely alone it is advertising. Advertising does not jerk, it pulls. It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day, year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power. To discontinue advertising is the same as taking down your sign. If you want to do business, you must let the public know it.—John Wanzmaker.

National Cattle Show Comes To Tex. In 1933

After having been held for seventeen consecutive years at the breed headquarters at Des Moines, Iowa, the annual national show of Polled Hereford cattle will be held this year for the first time at Fort Worth, Texas, March 13 to 19th in connection with the Southwestern Exposition and Stock Show.

This national livestock event comes to Texas at the insistence of Texas breeders of Polled Herefords who number over 700. These men for several years have been urging the officers of the American Polled Hereford Breeders Association, whose home office is at Des Moines, Iowa, to bring the big early show and sale to Ft. Worth as giving to many who could not get to Iowa in mid-winter, an opportunity to exhibit their cattle and to see the best specimens from other herds in all parts of the country.

For several recent years there has been a sale and a sectional show of these naturally hornless bred Herefords held in connection with the Stock Show at Ft. Worth, but never heretofore has the official national exhibition been held at any other point in Texas. Texas breeders are pleased that this first show will be held away from breed headquarters should be held in Texas. The Polled Hereford breed has been making rapid growth in this state for the past several years, and now Texas ranks fourth in number of herds and second in number of members of the national breed association. Nearly all Texas breeders are active members of the American Polled Hereford Breeders Association.

An auction sale of about 35 carefully selected specimens of the breed will be held on the Show grounds at Ft. Worth, Thursday, March 16th in connection with the show. The sale cattle are mostly from prominent Texas herds with few head consigned from northern herds. Texas breeders who have consigned cattle to the show include: Eurlerson and Sons, Whitney, J. E. Epperson, Lane, Wm. Y. Fowler, Jr., Llano, Albert & Hoggett, Mertzon, R. Harvey, Farms, Wichita Falls, S. Kendrick, Albany, Joe LaRoe, Kaufman, Geo. Trenfield, Follett, Hugh H. White, Keller. It is likely that a few more herds will make entries between now and the time of the show.

INSOLVENCIES DECLINE

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Feb. 22—Insolvencies in Texas for the five weeks ending February 1 totalled 78, according to weekly reports to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. While this total made a larger gain over December than could be accounted for as purely seasonal, it should be remembered that the December total was the smallest in fourteen years.

"It should also be emphasized that the number is less than half that for January a year ago and that in the past fourteen years there have been eight cases in which the total for January was higher than it was this year," the Bureau's report said. "Average liabilities per failure, as compared with a year ago, showed a decline of 21 per cent, averaging $17,769, as compared with $22,389 in January, 1932.

"Dry goods and apparel stores accounted for 16 of the failures; groceries and meat markets were second with 11 failures; and drug stores accounted for 10 more. Of the remainder, 7 were women's specialty shops, 5 were general stores, 3 were jewelers, 4 were manufacturers, 3 were shoe stores, and the remainder were in groups not including as many as three failures."

"Does yo' take this woman for thy lawful wedded wife?" asked the colored parson, glancing at the diminutive, water-eyed bow-legged groom, who stood beside two hundred and ten pounds of feminine assurance.

"Ah takes nothing," gloomily responded the bridegroom. "Ah's been' tooked."

That's the happy state of health and pep a man enjoys when he gives his vital organs a little stimulant!

When your system is stagnant and you feel sluggish, headachy, half-alive—don't waste money on "tonics" or "regulators" or similar patent medicines. Stimulate the liver and bowels. Use a famous physician's prescription every drug store keeps. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

This appetizing syrup is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. One dose will clear up almost any case of headache, biliousness, constipation.

But if you want to keep in fine shape, feel fit the year 'round, take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin every few days. You'll eat better, sleep better and feel better. You will never need another laxative.

Give the children a little of this delicious syrup two or three times a week. A gentle, natural stimulant that makes them eat and keeps the bowels from clogging. And saves them from so many sick spells and colds.

Have a sound stomach, active liver and strong bowel muscles that expel every bit of waste and poison every day! Just keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin on hand; take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. See if you don't feel new vigor in every way.

Texas "Exes" To Banquet March 2

Austin, Texas, Feb. 22.—More than one hundred "Texas Ex" banquets will be held on March 2, as thousands of former students of The University of Texas join in reunion programs in various parts of the State and in dozens of other far-away spots. This year marks the mid-century point in the University's history, and it is safe to say that March 2, Texas Independence Day, which has for many years been "Texas Ex" Day, will not pass without each of the more than 40,000 living "exes" giving some thought to memories of their alma mater.

Texas "exes" are scattered in all quarters of the globe, from the frozen north to the tip of South America, from China to Russia, to "gay Paree," and it is a slogan of the Ex-Students' Association that "where two or more exes are gathered together on March 2, they shall break bread and drink in memory of Texas."

Arrangements have already been made for Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the University, to speak at El Paso; for Dr. W. T. Mather, professor of physics, at Victoria; Dr. L. L. Click, professor of English, at Beaumont; and Dr. E. P. Schoch, professor of chemistry, at Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Webb, Proprietors

DO YOU WANT OZONA "RUN DOWN AT THE HEEL?"

Would you like to live in a place where there was no telephone system? Would you care to live in a place where there was no newspaper? Did your little girl ever run home exclaiming, "I got my name in the paper. I've been a good girl at school." Had you realized what a town would be without these institutions? Is it reasonable to believe that a man talented enough to edit a newspaper would stay here just because it is a good place to call home?

If there were no telephone system here you would not want to stay here. Move your laundry, your newspaper, your telephones, your bakery to San Angelo and your dairy and other enterprises will naturally go, and then all you would have to come home to would be a little cross roads grocery store and it would be so measly that its proprietor would tell you that a cracker a day is enough for a man to eat and to feed his children.

A business firm that does not offer its customers even the convenience of telephone connection and so cheap that it refers the number of a neighbor's telephone to those wishing to call it, and while maintaining a "cracker-a-day" existence refuses to support any other institution of the town, does not deserve the support of Ozona people who are proud of Ozona and her heritage.
