18 Lettermen Of 1933 High School Gridiron Warriors Awarded Jackets, Dub Westfall Wins Lions Club Cup

Eighteen letter men of the 1933 Ozona High School football squad and their coach, Ted M. White, received their letters and "service chevrons" on handsome suede leather jackets awarded during an impressive program in the High School auditorium Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

S. W. Westfall, quarterback, ground-gaining ball carrier and spark-plug of the near champions of 1933, was announced as winner of the distinction of "most valuable player" on this year's team and was presented with the beautiful silver loving cup awarded by the Ozona Lions Club to the player chosen for this honor by a secret committee.

The jackets were presented to the players by their coach, while Rev. M. M. Fulmer, on behalf of the Lions Club, presented the loving cup to Westfall. Supt. John L. Bishop presented Coach White the jacket awarded to him by the athletic department for his splendid work as mentor of the Lions.

Thanks Supporters
In opening the gathering, Supt. Bishop expressed appreciation on the part of the school for the team and their coach, and for the cooperation and backing given the team by the community as a whole. Mr. Bishop paid special tribute to the "cannon fodder" or second string squad who did their part toward making the team.

Coach White then awarded jackets to the following players: Morris Miller, Batts Friend, Bill Seahorn, Jake Miller (Captain), Bill Childress, S. W. Westfall, R. J. Everett, J. T. Patrick, B. B. Ingham, D. A. Parker, Leonard Freeman, (Captain-elect), Dennis Coates, Rob Roy Currie, Max Epler, Tom Everett, Albert (Sunshine) Cox, John D. Whatley and Vaughn Brown.

Coach White announced that seven members of the Ozona team have been mentioned for places on the all-district Class B eleven for this district, the mythical team now being in the process of

8 Inches Rain Here During '33

Year Piles Up Near Record For Fair Weather

The year 1933 was famous or infamous for a number of things, but its rainfall record in West Texas at least was nothing to boast about.

Rain gauges in Ozona registered a total fall of a little less than eight inches during the twelve months. The first six months of the year saw an inch and a half of moisture, the month of August contributing the most rainfall of any month of the year.

The year's rainfall record, taken from the rain gauge at Joe Oberkamp's, follows: Jan. 7, 1/2 inch; Feb. 27, 3/8; Mar. 5, 1/8; April 19, 2; May 3, 1/8; May 23, 1/8; July 18, 1/8; Aug. 16, 7/8; Aug. 25, 2; Aug. 28, 1 inch; August 30, 1 1/8; Oct. 12, 5/8; Oct. 14, 8/8; Nov. 1, 1 1/8; Nov. 2, 3/8; Nov. 6, 1; Nov. 10, 25; Dec. 29, 1 1/8.

Joe Thomas Davidson Celebrates His 14th Birthday With Party

Mrs. Joe T. Davidson entertained with a birthday party for her son, Joe Thomas, at her home Monday night. The occasion was the lad's fourteenth birthday. Pit and bounce were the games enjoyed. Each of the fourteen girls present lighted the candles on the beautiful three-tiered birthday cake. Pineapple ice was served with the birthday cake.

Those enjoying the affair were Athleen Dudley, Dorothy Fry Drake, Mary Williams, Lillian Baggett, Maggie Seahorn, Louise Boyd, Frances Tilant, Imogene Baker, Betty Dudley, Florene Adams, Elizabeth Coates, Clara Mae Dunlap, Christell Brock, Wanda LaVerne Dunlap, Ele Bright Baggett, James Childress, Max Schneemann, Fred and James Parker, John Henderson, Martin Harvick, Taylor Deaton, Walter Dudley and John M. Becke.

INFORMAL DANCE

Miss Eda Schneemann entertained with an informal party at her home Monday night. Games and dancing were the order of the evening. Guests present were Dorothy Henderson, Esther Kate Pierce, Willie V. Coose, Margaret Ella Drake, James Baggett, Phil Seahorn, Batts Friend, Billie Baggett, Charles Williams, Jake Miller, Ray Boyd, Bill Buttery, Dennis Coates, B. B. Ingham and S. W. Westfall.

White Collar Jobs Have Their Hazards, Littleton Testifies

Another one of those peculiar accidents that befall those following pursuits which are commonly thought of as safer than safe, has happened.

While the steel riveter who swings by one knee atop the framework of skyscraper and placidly goes about his work, is considered a poor insurance risk by most of us, just plain old hum-drum office work also has its hazards.

Bill Littleton, clerk at the Ozona National Bank, was the victim of this latest freak accident. He was opening a cardboard box at the bank recently when a pocketknife which he was using slipped and the blade plunged into his leg. He was on crutches the first of this week as a result of the accident. The wound was deep and painful but is healing nicely and no complications are expected.

Methodist Mission Bodies Hold Joint Meeting Wednesday

The two missionary societies of the Methodist Church held a joint business and social meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. W. Graham.

A program on "Stewardship" was enjoyed, with Mrs. J. A. Fassel as leader. Mrs. Fassel's interesting talk on "Stewardship" featured the program.

Mrs. John Henderson sang "Close to Thee" with Mrs. Joe Pierce accompanying. Mrs. John Bailey gave a talk on "Christian Growth." Mrs. Pleas Childress, Mrs. Roy Henderson and Mrs. John Henderson acted as hostesses, serving refreshments at the conclusion of the program.

Others present were Mrs. Paul Perner, Mrs. Kate Baggett, Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Mrs. Mary Childress, Mrs. Lee Childress, Mrs. Bright Baggett, Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. Paul Perner, Mrs. Will Baggett, Mrs. Fred Deaton, Mrs. Joe T. Davidson, Mrs. Hugh Childress Jr., Mrs. Ted White, Mrs. Richard Flowers and Mrs. Marshall Montgomery.

Shearing Prices To Be Discussed

Conference Of Ranchers And Others At Sonora Today

A meeting of ranchmen, bankers, warehouse officials and others interested is scheduled to be held in Sonora today for the purpose of discussing rates for shearing sheep and goats during the coming shearing season.

The meeting was called by President T. A. Kincaid of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association joined by warehouse officials.

The conference was occasioned by the recent movement on the part of shearers to raise the price of shearing sheep and goats. It is understood that shearers' unions over this section have agreed on a price of 6 cents a head for sheep and 4 cents for goats. Shearing captains ordinarily split evenly with shearers on the charge made, thus pointing to a possibility of a demand of 12 cents a head for shearing sheep, a price which ranchmen declare is clearly beyond reason.

Present prices do not justify a raise in shearing prices, in the opinion of ranchers, and the Sonora conference will attempt to make some sort of agreement on a uniform price scale.

Mrs. R. E. Hardberger and daughter, Miss Mary Janice Hardberger, of Lubbock spent the week end here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Littleton. Mrs. Littleton, a daughter of Mrs. Hardberger, accompanied them home for a visit.

Miller Family In New Year Reunion

Jones Miller Celebrates Birthday, Anniversary With Dinner

Thirty-two children, grand children and great grandchildren, "in-laws" and all, gathered around the banquet table at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones Miller pioneer Crockett County family, here Sunday for the annual Miller family reunion in celebration of Mr. Miller's birthday and his and Mrs. Miller's wedding anniversary.

The New Year dinner and family reunion is an annual affair, arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Miller, to which the entire connection is invited. The children provided a huge birthday cake and anniversary cake for the occasion.

It has been Mr. Miller's custom every year since the annual dinner was started, to pass out silver dollars and three five-dollar gold pieces, the latter going to the more fortunate in a drawing. This year the government clamp on gold coin, made it necessary to revert to currency for the "grand prizes" but they were as welcome. But the time-honored custom of awarding gold was not departed from too radically, those drawing the lucky envelopes opening them to find a brightly polished penny inside, to represent gold, and a note directing them to another spot where the envelope containing a $5 bill might be found.

Thirty-four Present
The drawings were divided into three sections, as were the tables, the children and their wives and husbands, the married grandchildren and their wives and husbands, and the unmarried grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were seated at the table with their children.

Proposed Bank Code Called Off

Announced Provisions Cancelled On Order Of NRA Chieftain

Provisions of the proposed banking code, announced by the Ozona National Bank and nearly every other bank in the country, to become effective January 2, have been called off and the matter of the banking code adoption again delayed by order of Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of the National Recovery Administration.

The code, which provided for a number of additional service charges to be paid by bank patrons, had presumably been approved by the administration, but it developed that Mr. Johnson had no knowledge of its provisions and an underling was discharged as a result of the misunderstanding.

Bankers have been given until February 1 to prepare and submit another code. Banks generally have adopted an attitude of watching and waiting until final action is taken by the powers that be.

STAGS ENTERTAINED

Billie Baggett entertained with a stag party at the ranch home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Baggett, Friday evening. Those on joying the evening were Aubrey Fussell, Eugene Montgomery, Frank James, Vic' Montgomery, James Baggett, Walter Kyle, Arthur Kyle, Charles Williams, Fletcher Freeman, Bud Kincaid, Carl North, Joe Sellers Pierce, W. T. Childress, Miller Robinson, Conley Cox, Fred Hagelstein, Marvin Rape, Billie Buttery, Joe Rape, George Sanger, Joe Friend, Dock Lee, Hop Hoover, Billie Baggett, Lowell Schwalbe and Chester Wilson.

MORE SEWER EXTENSIONS ARE PLANNED

City-Wide Sanitation Objective Of New Program

SEEK MORE FUNDS

Surface Toilets To Be Condemned, Connections Required

A county-wide program of sanitation, with 100 per cent connections with the city's sanitary sewer system, is to be undertaken by the county as an extension of the present improvements being made on the local system.

Application has been made to the Civil Works Administration for $4,400 additional funds for the employment of those on relief rolls in putting the new sanitary program into effect. Approximately $4,400 has already been spent on the program from the first appropriation and if the additional grant is made, the total investment in the extensions will be $8,800 in labor, the county furnishing the necessary materials.

It is the plan of the county to condemn all surface toilets and to enforce strict sanitary regulations under the direction of Dr. F. T. McIntire, county health officer. The additional funds asked of the C.W.A. will be used in making extensions and connections throughout the town, the connections to be made with C.W.A. labor and the county to advance funds for materials in cases where property owners are unable to pay for the connection.

Beautify School Grounds

The installation of a new main from the fair grounds to the disposal plant and lateral lines serving all of the Mexican sector of the city will be completed within the next ten days, according to Royce Smith, county administrator of relief. Seventy-four men are being given employment on this project with a weekly payroll of around $800.

Application has been made for approximately $3,000 for labor on the program of beautification of the school grounds. It is planned to fill and terrace the grounds of each school building and to plant trees and shrubbery around the buildings. Two thousand yards of dirt will be moved into the school grounds to fill them to the desired level. The county has agreed to do all necessary curbing and to furnish necessary materials.

Must Accept Jobs

The attention of ranchmen and other employers was called by Mr. Smith to provisions of the National Reemployment Service. This agency is what its name indicates, a "re-employment service" If any employers of labor find it difficult to secure workers, they need only to call at the office of the administrator and he will furnish them as many men as they might need from his rolls.

The Civil Works Administration has ruled that if any worker on CWA projects refuses to accept private employment where a living wage is offered, he is immediately discharged from all CWA projects and is barred from further participation in such relief employment and is ineligible for direct relief. Where the wage offered is not considered a "living wage," however, the men are not required to accept offers of employment.

Music Club Meets Today In Study Of Beethoven's Works

The Ozona Music Club will meet today at the home of Mrs. George Bean for its regular program. The day will be devoted to a study of Beethoven and his works.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. L. B. Cox, Mrs. John Bailey and Miss Lois Taylor.

Ozonans To Dallas For Buckner Orphan Home Board Meeting

Mrs. A. C. Hoover, Mrs. D. B. Dunlap and Mrs. A. E. Deland left Sunday for Dallas to visit Buckner Orphan Home on the occasion of the annual board meeting and "open house" observed by this institution on the birthday anniversary of Dr. Buckner, founder of the home, on January 3.

Mr. Hoover, who is a member of a board of directors of the orphan home, was detained on account of business in San Angelo and was to have left there by train Tuesday to attend the board meeting. January 3 is a holiday at an orphan home and it is observed with a big dinner and celebration, the institution being thrown open to visitors during the day and the board meeting set for that day as a part of the activities.

Wool Growers Name Old Officers And Directors For 1934

All officers and directors of the Wool Growers Central Storage Company were re-elected at the annual meeting of stockholders and directors of the company in San Angelo Tuesday.

P. L. Childress, president of the Ozona National Bank and an officer of the wool concern for several years, was re-elected vice president and a director. Ira G. Jones was again chosen president. Miles O'Daniel was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

An optimistic atmosphere was present at the stockholders meeting, according to account. President Yates declaring the outlook for the sheep and goat industry as 100 per cent brighter than a year ago.

GREETINGS TO 1934!

The United States has come to the end of one of the most momentous years in its history. It has been a year in which vast and unprecedented experiments have been tried. It has been a year in which governmental problems and issues have, to a greater degree than at any time since the World War, engaged the attention and in terest of the public. It has been a year of trial and error, of achievement and failure. And finally, it has been a year of astonishing change.

For the first time since government was founded, there has been sweeping legislation to control the wages and hours of the entire working population, and the competitive methods and virtually all industry. A dramatic and frankly experimental effort to solve the farmers' problems has become part of the law of the land. The largest public works program we have ever known has been inaugurated. Everything that the present leaders of government believed would spur recovery, has been done. Advisors who had no previous connection with politics have been called in—and their plans have been adopted. The whole prestige of government, and the immense power of the public treasury, have been used wholeheartedly and sometimes ruthlessly to bring us stability and prosperity.

To say that these efforts have been entire successes is to close our eyes to facts. To say that they have failed is to be unjust. They have fallen between these extremes. Men have been put to work by the hundreds of thousands—men who had had little or no work for two or three years, and had been forced to suffer the ignominy of organized charity in order to keep their families and themselves from utter privation.
Wages have been appreciably raised and the sweat-shop, encouraged by the depression, has been eliminated. Child labor is on the wane. The C.C.C. camps, whatever their shortcomings, have served to provide thousands of young men with useful work under army pay and discipline, and have kept them away from debilitating and demoralizing influences.

And in other fields the Administration has much on which it can honestly pride itself. It has started a program whereby the transportation difficulties of the country may eventually be solved. It has done a good job in solidifying and safeguarding the banking structure. It has attempted to protect the public against stock swindlers and fly-by-night pro-motors, who reaped so fat a harvest in the boom years and even after. It has created machinery seeking to encourage some financing and private construction.

This is all on the credit side of the ledger. The entries on the debit side are not less important —and it does the country and the Administration no service to overlook them. All great experimental movements breed errors—and Mr.
Roosevelt and his advisors would have been a great deal more than human had they avoided them. It is unquestionably true that, in working to bring recovery, methods have been adopted, and laws passed, which will make aid some of the springs from whence recovery must eventually flow. The case of the utilities is one in point. They are great employers and taxpayers. They are, by and large, one of the most progressive influences in the average community. Yet the industry as a whole (owned by millions of investors) is being politically castigated because of the sins of the few—a policy which can profit no one.

Again, in the securities act, certain provisions have made it impossible to issue legitimate industrial securities — thus depriving workers of potential jobs, and depriving the public of a place to put its money where it can do essential work. The law was designed to banish the seller of the wide blue sky—and it seems to have banished the seller of honest shares and bonds as well.

In brief, government, and the voting public, must not forget that private initiative and enterprise are still the most important of national attributes. Government can do much to cure depression but after recovery has commenced, it is industry and capital which will provide jobs, taxes, payrolls, progress. The public purse is not bottomless. It can be more easily exhausted than we know. The Administration should certainly not be blamed for honest mistakes—unless it makes no effort to correct them. And now is the time for that.

In summing up, the American people have the best of reasons for looking to the future with confidence. The country is still here. The land is no less fertile than it was. Its industries are no less great. Its individual spirit is no less potent. Its intellectual capacity is no smaller. Factories, utilities, railroads, insurance companies, mines, banks, farms—they are all still here, and they will be doing business as usual when new forces, new changes, of which we know nothing now, have usurped the center of the stage.

FOREIGN WOOL MARKETS ACTIVE AT FIRM PRICES

Foreign raw wool markets have reported active buying and firm to higher prices at all sales since early December, says the Bureau of Agricultural Economics reporting on world wool prospects.

Price movements in the near future, says the bureau, will probably depend considerably on the extent to which present improved levels of trading and manufacturing activity are maintained here and abroad. "From the standpoint of the world price situation it is not improbable that most of the favorable influence of reduced supplies has been discounted," says the bureau.

Consumption of combing and manufacturers, reporting in the first ten months of this year was

SEWER CHARGES BEGINNING JAN. 1st, 1934

It is the order of the Commissioners Court of Crockett County that beginning January 1st, 1934 users of the County Sewer System will pay monthly the following rates, viz.: For the first connection 50 cents. For each additional connection 10 cents.

Commenting on the above order the Court asks that the patrons give this matter serious consideration. To construct this plant it was necessary for the Court to issue some time Warrants which were sold to one of Crockett County's Sinking Funds; and these warrants must be paid off. There is some expense in keeping the System in good order and repair, and the Court feels that the patrons will not object to or resist the small monthly charge, and will arrange to pay promptly each month. The patrons are asked to pay at the Clerks Office where the Sewer Books are kept, and receipts for all payments will be given by the Clerk. It is thought best to give the patron to the 15th of the month to pay at the Clerks Office and those neglecting to pay by the 15th will be listed and the list turned over to Z. L. Brown who is authorized by the Court to

Patronize Those Merchants Who Ask for Your Business

The Merchant Who Advertises Has Something to Sell and Is Not Afraid to Put His Service, Prices and Merchandise Under the Spotlight of Publicity

Those merchants who use the pages of your newspaper to tell you of their merchandise and service deserve your first consideration in your trading—all else being equal. The merchant who advertises consistently is the progressive, up and coming merchant. He is the astute merchant who knows how to buy and how to build his volume, and knowing that, he is your best bet for savings. The greater the volume of business, the lower profit margins can be made to pay a return to the merchant. Quantity buying throws its power into this combination to make it even more advantageous.

The advertising merchant, the progressive merchant, is the one who has such advantages. Advertising builds his business to where the greater volume makes up and more for the cost of his advertising. The greater volume also makes it possible for him to lower his profit margin, which means lowering prices, and thus the consumer realizes a saving. Who pays for advertising, then, comes the age-old question. Volume pays for it. It doesn't cost you nor the merchant.

The advertising merchant is the town-boosting merchant. His patronage of your newspaper helps that community institution to make a better appearance, to mirror in truth the progressiveness and attractiveness of a community. The fact that you read the advertisements, act on them if they suggest to you some need, and tell the merchant that you saw and read his advertisement and bought his product as a result of the advertisement, would be a double service to your neighbors and your community. It would let the merchant know that his advertising was getting results and would enable him to make further plans to keep you informed on news of his store. It would be a service to your newspaper in helping to convince merchants that not mere chance but well directed advertising was responsible for the sale.

selection by a poll of coaches and officials of the district. Mr. Bishop then announced that Conch White had been selected "All-District Coach" by a vote of coaches and officials of the district. The players mentioned for places on the all-district team are Jake Miller and Dub Westfall in the backfield, and B. B. Ingham, Leonard Freeman, Dennis Coates, Max Eppler and Sunshine Cox in the line.

Ingham Has 4 Letters

A four-year letter man in football, the second in the history of the Ozona High School in comparatively recent years at least, was a star lineman on this year's squad. B. B. Ingham, a senior this year, has won his letter every year since he entered high school, and his jacket shows four chevrons. Fatty Kyle is the only other Ozona High School player to win four letters in football in recent years.

Coach White will have seven lettermen to form the nucleus of next year's Lions. Leonard Freeman will act as captain.

Rev. Fulmer delivered a splendid address on "Playing the Game" before presenting the cup to the "most valuable player." He divided his discussion into three parts, the "Aim of the Game," to win, he said, and to play it to the best of one's ability; the "Rules of the Game," under which head he discussed sportsmanship and the qualities that make both good winners and good losers; and the "Aches of the Game," in which he paid tribute to the players for their earnestness in devoting long hours to practice and in enduring sore muscles and bruised flesh to do their best. Here he also paid tribute to the "cannon fodder" or second team who do their part toward getting the first team in condition for combat.

The selection of the recipient of the Lions Club loving cup, the speaker said, is done by a secret committee appointed by another committee chosen by the club. Members of the awarding committee are unknown even to the club and their choice of the player is based on observation and inquiry into all conditions. Points of consideration in choosing the player are 1. Scholarship, 2. Sportsmanship, 3. Team Work, and 4. Playing Ability.

WEST TEXAS LUMBER COMPANY

The "New Deal" In Groceries

1934 starts off with excellent promise of release from the tentacles of depression. Our own industry—sheep and goats and wool and mohair—faces the brightest prospects in four years. Experts see no cloud in the future to dampen the optimism of the stockman. And our prayer is that none appears the whole year through.

And GROCERIES—We take a new hitch in our trousers to save our customers in a new and better way in 1934. The grocery market is still favorable to the consumer and our volume still enables us to buy to greater advantage and thus to sell at a saving to you. Our long years of study and experience in the grocery business has led us to a conclusion that by serving the interests of our customers, we serve our own interest best. Unequaled service, close margins of profit and experienced care in buying are our advantages in meeting your needs. One trial will convince you.
