Senate Votes To Shorten Sessions In Order To Give Committee Time To Consider Stack Proposed Bills

AUSTIN, Feb. 12 (AP).—The senate today voted to orten its sessions for the next thirty days to give commitees leeway in their consideration of bills.

The original proposal, a resolution by Senator Wood-ward of Coleman, asked the senate to meet only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, the senate later adopted an amendment by Senator Greer of Athens calling for short-meetings each day.

Will Rogers is said to haul down $5,000 every time he shoves Oklahoma counténance up nst the mike—unless he's working for charity. A few nights ago there was a special Red Cross program in which many notables participated—Herbert Hoover, Calvin Coolidge, Al Smith, Mary Pickford, Amos 'n' Andy and others. And Will Rogers. Will came last Everybody kept waiting for Will, so they just endured the other air, the family drew their chairs Renaldo to receive the plaudits of right up against the receiving set and glued their ears to the laundspeaker. What a man!

But what is good entertainment? Not jazz, not wisecracks of last year's vintage, not classifical music or grand opera, not symphony orchestras. The other night we dialed in an old-fashioned spelling bee being staged in Chicago, and it was the best entertainment that had been on the air in weeks. The Family let out a howl of disap-pointment when the announcer let it be known that the spelling bee would have to make way for a highbrow musical program.

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and in-heals the inflamed memoranes and in-hibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is rec-ognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creasote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, sttacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the gorms.

Creomulsion is guaranteed astisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

A powder horn used by his great-great-grandfather, Enoch Baldwin, is one of the treasured possessions of William F. Cushing. He has agreed to allow the Episcopal Auxiliary to display it at their Antique party Monday

This old horn was originally an ox horn. The large end has been fitted with a piece of wood on which one can faintly the initials, E. B. and the dim outlines of a date. It is about fourteen inches long. The small end was cut off so the powder could be poured into the flintlock from that end.

It is not a pretty thing, says

Mrs. Cushing, because it is not polished, but it has a sentimental value for Americans out of proportion to its commercial value. With the use of such homely objects as this, was American freedom won.

FOR DISTRICT MEET First Baseball MORE MAJOR MOORES MIGHT Annual Battle Humorist

By CHARLES W. DUNKLEY CHICAGO, Feb. 12. (P)-Charles Dryden, first and perhaps the greatest of all baseball humorists, is dead. The man who originated nearly all the expressions used in writing baseball today, passed on yester-day in his modest little cottage in Ocean Springs, Miss., after being a hopeless paralytic for 10 years.

Is Dead

He was about 71 years old. Dryden, who worked on Chicago San Francisco and New York pa-pers, until about 15 years ago, became famous for the unique manner in which he reported baseball games. He always built his stories around an incident which struck him as humorous. He was nationally recognized as one who could pick a nickname for a baseball player and make it stick, and make the baseball players like him. He job. was the first to call Frank Chance, late manager of the famous Cub team of 1906, the "Peerless Lead- Until a few years before illness

Just a Joke Dryden regarded baseball as a nuge joke, and always wrote hunorously of the games. While employed in New York 25 or 30 years ago the late John T. Brush, owner of the New York Giants, took exception to the facetious way in which Dryden described a ball game, and had him barred from the ball park. That made no difference to Dryden. He climbed a telegraph pole outside the park and of the cross-bars. Finally Brush relented and Dryden was later ad-

MAKE MORE MAJOR MOANING

STEERS, HORNETS SET

CHICAGO, Feb. 12 (AP).—The more Moores able to stick with major league baseball clubs next season, the more moaning by baseball writers.

Seven Moores are under contract. And that's not the worst of it-three of them are James Moore. They are Pitcher James Stanford Moore of the Chicago White Sox; Outfielder James William Moore of the Athletics, and Outfielder James Gregg Moore of the New York Giants.

More Moores are: Pitcher Wilcey William Moore, Boston Red Sox; Pitcher William Austin Moore, Brooklyn; Outfielder Randolph Moore, Boston Braves, and Outfielder John Moore of the Cubs.

If the White Sox had hung on to their Moores, they would have James William, and Randolph, in addition to James Stanford, the two former having worked for Charles Comiskey at one time or another.

The Moores themselves may become apprehensive at the possibility of confusion in the official averages-so it doesn't look as though any more Moores will make it merrier.

Dryden was one of the unique lishing a new New Zealand record characters of the newspaper world.

He was the first to call a forced him into retirement he albaseball park a "ball yard." He ways wrote his copy in longhand. pitcher, and once wrote of Walsh peck out his story with two finas "the only man in the world who gers.
