CATTLE BUYING RESUMED WITH QUOTA OF 1000

Stricter Rules Set For Government Buying Under New Plan

FUNDS LIMITED

Only Those Not Able To Carry Stock To Be Helped

Resumption of the cattle purchase program in Crockett County under the government drouth relief plans was ordered this week on a limited basis, according to instructions received in the local drouth relief offices.

A quota of 1,000 head of cattle has been fixed for this county, according to instructions received from George W. Barnes of College Station, assistant drouth director, the quota to be purchased between now and October 13. This quota includes both the condemned animals and those accepted for shipment, and all classes, both cows and calves.

Making Survey

Under the ruling from Washington governing the new buying program, purchases of cattle will be made only from those producers who demonstrate "to the satisfaction of the county agricultural drouth committee that their feed supplies are not sufficient to maintain their animals and that such conditions are due entirely to drouth conditions."

A county drouth committee composed of P. L. Childress and Ad Harvick and a third member to be selected by them has been named and is now making a study of conditions in the county with a view to recommending the priority of purchases. As soon as the report of this committee is received, purchases will be resumed and the quota of 1,000 head purchased by the 13th. Approximately 7,000 head were still listed for sale when the purchasing program was suspended recently.

Baptist Men Meet Friday Night For Barbecue Supper

Organization of a men's social group from the membership of the First Baptist Church will be perfected at a meeting of men of the church to be held Friday night of this week, starting at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of the Sunday School.

A barbecue supper will be served. Following the meal, organization of the group for the purpose of monthly meetings for entertainment and fellowship will be discussed and officers elected and a name for the group chosen. All men of the church are urged to be present.

Pettit Infant Died Tuesday

Week-Old Son of Carl Pettits Buried Yesterday

Carl James Pettit, week-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pettit, died shortly after 11 o'clock Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Davis, grandparents of the infant.

Funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Davis residence, the Rev. Leon M. Gambrell, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, conducting services at the graveside in Cedar Hill Cemetery. The Joe Oberkamp funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Pettit ranch near Rankin. She was formerly Miss Eva Davis of this city and Mr. Pettit is a brother of John Pettit of Ozona.

Forty Boys Are For Scout Troop

Boys Enthusiastic As Movement Gets Under Way Here

Approximately forty Ozona boys met last Thursday night with Joe Haddon, band instructor and experienced Scoutmaster, to encourage the renewed efforts to organize a Boy Scout troop in Ozona. All of the boys were enthusiastic in their demands for perfection of the troop and most of them are now at work on Scouting in preparation for the investiture ceremonies to be held here within the next thirty days, when the actual troop will take form. Mr. Haddon has volunteered his service as Scoutmaster and is making every effort to interest men of the town in the movement.

As a start toward perfecting a Scout organization here, to be affiliated with the Concho Valley Council, with headquarters in San Angelo, the Lions Club has named a new Scout committee to forward the move, the committee composed of Ben Lemmons, chairman, C. S. Denham, Hugh Childress, Jr., Richard Flowers and Dr. W. A. Grandy. Mr. Haddon has selected as his assistants Carl Dorley assistant and Charles McGuire, junior assistant.

That Scouting is as much to the interest of the parent as to the boy was urged by Mr. Haddon as reason for wholehearted support on the part of parents and the men in general of Ozona in the Scout movement. The physical, mental and moral training of the boy attained in Scouting is of invaluable aid in his development to useful manhood and the practical knowledge he attains in his advancement and merit badge work will be valuable both to him and to others, Mr. Haddon pointed out. Bob Billington of San Angelo, Scout Executive for the Concho Valley Council, and a number of men, leaders in Scout work at San Angelo, will be here for the investiture ceremony when the Ozona troop is ready to be mustered in, Mr. Haddon said.

To Inaugurate Sunday Movies

First Matinee Sunday To Show "Little Women"

Sunday movies, suspended during the summer months, will be inaugurated again in Ozona next Sunday afternoon with the first Sunday matinee of the season starting at 2:30 p. m., it was announced this week by J. R. Kersey manager of the Ozona Theatre.

The first picture to be offered in the new series of Sunday shows will be "Little Women." Louisa May Alcott's famous novel, starring Katherine Hepburn, "Little Women," on the screen, has proven almost as popular as the nationally famous 65-year-old romance of American life. In fact, it is said that the producers, in response to demands from fans, have screened the story exactly as it was written, shortly after the Civil War, with characters carefully chosen, elaborate settings created and dialogue reproduced without change to catch the whimsically beautiful thrill of the tender romance of the world's most beloved family of girls.

Others in the cast of this great picture are Joan Bennett, Paul Lukas, Frances Dee, Jean Parker, Enda May Oliver, Douglas Montgomery and Henry Stephenson.

LIONS AND MASONS TANGLE IN DONKEY BASEBALL GAME HERE THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Eastern Star, Lions Benefit From Novelty Performance

Donkey baseball, a fun-riot that has been the rage over the country recently and described as "better than a three-ring circus," will come to Ozona Thursday afternoon of next week when teams sponsored by the Lions Club and the Masonic lodge tangle in a free-for-all melee at the Powell park.

A dozen donkeys are being collected from a number of Crockett County ranches this week in preparation for the game, and rival team managers are recruiting players who boast the double talent of donkeymanship and baseball ability.

The game is played with all fielders, excepting the pitcher and catcher, mounted on donkeys. Base runners are also mounted.

Batters take their cuts at the apple with the ground under foot, but when the ball is batted, they mount a charger and fly to first, if the donkey so wills. Fielders must either catch the ball while mounted or ride to where it stops, dismount, get the ball without taking more than one step, remount and throw to another player or ride for a put-out unassisted—except by the mule.

The game is slated for 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon of next week. It was originally scheduled for Friday of this week but the terrain in a 60-mile radius of Ozona was combed for donkeys and more time will be necessary to get the mounts here for the game.

The Lions Club and the Masonic lodge will share in the proceeds the Masons to donate their share to the Eastern Star. An effort will be made to secure a closing agreement among business firms for the period of the game.

Marked Improvement In Lion Grid Tactics Noted As Locals Hold Ft. Stockton Panthers To 13-0 Score

33,000 Sheep Hides, Condemned As Unfit For Shipping, Burned

A remarkable improvement in defensive play and a more synchronized offense that lacked only that final inspired push that makes touchdowns was shown by the Ozona Lions in their second game of the season here last Saturday against the Fort Stockton Panthers, potential district winners in their own balliwick.

The Lions held the touted Stockton huds to a two-touchdown victory, the final score standing 13 to 0 for the visitors. The Panthers were fought to a standstill in the first half as the Lions' defense clicked and the varied attack was stopped cold. The visitors were by no means without their own troubles in defending against the inspired offensive work of the local inexperienced crew, the Panthers making several goal-line stands against the Lion attack.

Penalties cost the Lions more yardage than the Panthers gained from them in play. Penalties throughout the game cost the locals a total of approximately 170 yards.

Expect 100 Here For Zone Meeting

Ozona To Be Host To Missionary Groups Of Five Towns

Between 75 and 100 visitors from five nearby towns, in addition to a number of special guests from the district conference official family, are expected here next Thursday for the Missionary Zone Meeting to be held at the Methodist Church.

Representatives from missionary societies in Sonora, Eldorado, Christoval, Mertzon and Barnhart will be here as guests of the Ozona society for the all-day meeting.

The program is scheduled to get under way at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The conference officers will furnish most of the program numbers at the morning session, a number of out-of-town speakers being listed for talks at this session.

The local society will serve luncheon in the church basement at the noon hour, after which the meeting will reconvene for the afternoon session, expected to continue until mid-afternoon. Mrs. R. L. Flowers, evangelist, will be among the speakers at the afternoon session.

Ladies of the other churches are invited to both the morning and afternoon sessions.

Registration Under Way For Money Prize Night To Start Soon

A Money Prize Night every Wednesday night will be inaugurated at the Ozona Theatre in the near future, it is announced this week by J. R. Kersey, manager. Definite announcement of the first Money Prize Night will be made in next week's Stockman.

Registration of names for the weekly drawing is now under way. It costs nothing to enroll to compete for the weekly cash prizes and every person over 12 years of age is entitled to register.

At the weekly drawings, to be held immediately after the show, the person whose name is drawn must be present to win the prize. Otherwise, the name goes back into the box and the prize is added to that for the following week and so on until a winner is drawn. Registration tickets may be secured at the theatre at any time.

Faculty Men Hosts To Women Teachers At Barbecue Today

Men of the faculty of the Ozona school system will be hosts to the women teachers at a barbecue and picnic to be staged at the W. R. Baggett picnic grove starting at 5:30 this afternoon.

Barbecued goat and the necessary trimmings will be served under the great oaks in the grove.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Kincaid were San Angelo visitors early this week.

Filling Station Is Robbed Of $75

Thief Rifles Couch Cash Drawer And Escapes

While Louis Butler, attendant at the Mike Couch filling station west of the draw, stepped over to the Couch grocery next door for change about 7 o'clock Sunday night, a bold thief rifled the cash drawer of the station, securing a round $75 in cash and escaped.

A number of checks in the drawer were not molested, but all cash in sight, save one nickel, was taken. Tracks of the robber, believed to have been a man, were traced about the premises, but so far officers have been unable to locate him.

HIDE DRYING RULING CUTS SHEEP SALES

Ranchers Decline To Assume Responsibility For Hides

78,269 BOUGHT

Over 68,000 Head Of Total Purchased Are Killed

The recent ruling that ranchers must dry sheep pelts thirty days before delivering them to the government for payment in the sheep purchasing plan has reacted to slow down the sale of old ewes to the government in this county, according to reports from drouth relief headquarters here yesterday.

Many of the ranchers who had listed thousands of head of sheep for sale are cutting the number down to a few hundred or less than a hundred in many cases, contending that it is practically impossible to deliver large numbers of hides in good condition, climatic conditions as they are in Texas. Because the ranchers refuse to be responsible for the hides for thirty days, many are declining to sell under the government's plan until some change is made in the ruling. It is contended that even after the hides are dried for thirty days, it will be impossible to stack them for delivery without their spoiling.

Up to the close of business Tuesday night, a total of 78,269 head of sheep had been purchased in Crockett County, of which 68,097 had been slaughtered and 10,172 accepted for shipment to processors.

A total of 100 producers had signed up to sell animals to the government and purchases had been made from all but 26 of these this week. It is estimated that unless some change is made in the policy of pelting that 90 per cent of the animals to be offered in this county have been bought.

Junior High Grid Teams Match Game

Two Squads To Tangle At Powell Grid Friday, October 12

Two teams, picked from the Junior High School gridiron squad under the direction of M. M. Collins, Junior High principal and coach, will meet for the first game of the schedule for the coming football team at Powell Field Friday of next week, October 12, starting at 4 p. m., it was announced yesterday.

Beecher Montgomery and Leo Williams have been chosen captains of the two opposing squads. On the Montgomery team will be Phillip Schneemann, Howard Lemmons, Dale Walker, Jim Dudley, Leslie Ratliff, Willie Joe Hubbard, Donald Wilson, Bobby Galyon, Bobby Lemmons, Roy Henderson, Jr., and W. C. Brock.

The Williams team will be composed of Leslie Squyres, Ernest Brownrigg, Jack Blair, Tommy Choute, Joe Williams, Purlyn Hodges, George Armentrout, Miles Pierce, Harold Keeton, Walter Escue, and Clifton Talliaferro.

A challenge has been issued to the Sonora Junior High football team for a game sometime this month. Coach Collins announced, but no answer has yet been received. If the Sonora school accepts the challenge, the game will likely be played here October 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Longley spent the week-end in San Angelo visiting Mrs. Cam Longley and Miss Josephine Longley, who are spending the winter there.

Mrs. Charley Butler is in Tucson, Ariz., visiting her sister.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1934. AS MEN THINK, SO IT IS

Seattle Journal of Commerce: A story of a mythical island in the South Seas is being told in White House circles to illustrate certain phases of the gold problem. As the yarn goes, all the nations of the world agreed to pool their gold stocks and ship them to an uninhabited island in the south Pacific, where the metal was stored in great vaults.

The gold was kept there for years without incident. A commission of foremost citizens of the several nations visited the island each year, inspected the gold stock and reported back, that all was well with the world's gold.

Finally, one year, the commission sailed off for the South Seas as usual, but when they arrived at the location of the gold island, there was nothing to be seen but the broad waters of the Pacific. The island and all the gold in the world had disappeared. The commission was in a panic.

If it reported the disappearance to the world, none would predict what might happen—war, revolution and disaster might follow. So the commission returned its accustomed report. The gold stocks were getting along nicely, members told their people at home. And the world, not knowing of its loss, went on as usual. The moral of the story, those who tell the yarn declare, is that, it's not the gold that causes trouble, but the idea of the thing.

Denison Daily Herald: Maybe the reason why so many nations want war is because they have decided that nothing could be worse than the sort of peace we are having.

Pittsburg Gazette: What's the use of saving up for a rainy day if it never rains?

THE MILLS OF THE GODS GRIND SLOWLY

Sterling City News-Record: "The mills of the Gods grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly fine."

This means that the agents of justice move slow, but they get there in time.

Al Capone had a long and bloody career, but they got him and put him where he can do little harm for at least ten years.

Machine Gun Kelley, his wife, Bailey and the others who kidnaped Urschel and extorted a fortune for his liberty, are hard at work in a Federal penitentiary. Only when they die, will they be free.

Clyde Barrow and his companion in bloody deeds, Bonnie Parker, died by the gun. Their trail was long and crooked. It was marked with innocent blood, but justice eventually overtook them and their trail of blood ended. They are now with the evil things that were.

John Dillinger and his gang of cutthroats are resting peacefully under several feet of Mother earth. They sowed bullets and they reaped that which they sowed. Their passing justified the quotation about the slow mills.

Within the last year, more than a score who lived by the gun, have died by the gun. They foolishly thought that they could rob and kill and get by with their crime, but justice, like a hound, followed on their trail, and in spite of cunning and ingenuity, they were overtaken and made to pay dearly for their hellish crimes.

The man who stole the Lindbergh baby and cruelly murdered it, and to add insult to the injury extorted $50,000 from the bereaved parents for the return of their darling baby was fool enough to believe that he could get away with the hideous crime, but like all other beastly crooks, he failed to realize that the Sleuths of Justice would follow him to the end of his days or catch him. And it now appears that after two years of patient trailing, they have run him to earth.

Since the night of March 1, 1932, the killer of that innocent little boy had as well been in hell as for the peace he has enjoyed. The money that he got for his crime, has pestered every waking hour of the hellish brute. He will reap what he has sown.

A sailor, after placing some flowers on a grave in the cemetery, noticed an old Chinaman placing a bowl of rice on a nearby grave, and asked: "When do you expect your friend to come up and eat the rice?"

The old Chinaman replied with a smile: "Same time your friend come to smell flowers."

Wellington Leader: There's a Black Shirt organization in England. Probably composed of men whose wives have been away on a visit with their folks.

Minneapolis Star: Civil service: A merit system that gives the job to the best man who belongs to the right party.

LETTERS FROM READERS

OZONA STREETS

Bones, rags, tin cans, bottle caps, nails, screws, bolts, wire, nuts, stale bread, cigar and cigarette stubs, cuds of tobacco, decayed hay and straw, paper of all kinds, the filth of dogs, dead cats, feathers, old shoes, discarded sox, grease, parts of old auto casings, ice cream cones, orange rinds, lemons on peels, banana peels, and some unnamable objects scattered all along the sidewalks and around the park on Ozona's new streets. Where's our pride? And our decency?

Every year some contagious disease breaks out in the schools and we wonder where it comes from. Itch, ringworm, athlete's foot, to say nothing of scarlet fever, diphtheria, flu and all kinds of communicable diseases. Just take a stroll around the public square and you will know at least one harboring place for any sort of germ.

What won't a barefoot child carry home from the streets? No matter how sanitary your home, just think what may be carried in on your shoes. Then, the looks of the thing. Why not be honest about it and hang under the sign, "The Biggest Little Town in the World," another reading "And the Dirtiest."

And men needing work. Why don't the P.T.A., interest in the health of the town, the Woman's Club, the Lions Club or somebody, raise their voices for cleanliness at least as high as the needs demand.

No, the editor didn't write this. Just an interested citizen who is willing to help keep Ozona and her streets clean.

A Citizen.

CRITICISM WHEN NOBODY KNOWS

Elkton (Md.) Star: Marlen E. Pew, editor of Editor and Publisher, a newspaper man's magazine relates that President Roosevelt has asked some newspaper men, "Where is your criticism?" The President insisted that the government could make mistakes, that officials were certain to blunder and he wanted the newspaper men to know that criticism "is the best kind of backing and the only request we make is that you be prompt about it."

Since the resignation of Mr. Sprague and the opening of the barage laid down by the "gold dollar" group there is no lack of criticism per se. What is lacking, however, is constructive criticism that is able to say "you are wrong, but here is the right course."

Truth of the matter is that nobody knows, least of all the smart boys who run the big banks and handle other people's money. Another fact, that some of this class seem to be forgetting, is that the American people want no more of the leadership of 1929, when bonds and stocks of all kinds were foisted upon the people of this country while the bankers and other selling agents got their profits.

The Nation, admittedly, was in a bad way when President Roosevelt assumed control of the Government. At that time everybody realized that something had to be done and nobody knew what to do. The President acted then and he is continuing to act. Until he proves entirely wrong he will retain popular support, and the only wise thing for us all is for us to give him loyal co-operation as far as possible. He has the leadership in the battle to correct wrongs that we do not wish to be transferred to any special group in this country, whether they be bankers, big business men, farmers, laborers, or whatever there is.

The people of this country must realize today, if they have not heretofore, that the welfare of all the people is superior to the welfare of any group, that any program which "takes care" of a small class at the expense of a larger class is wrong and that, in the long run, we will have to prosper together.

Dallas Perfecting Plans For Staging Texas Centennial

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 2. (Special)—Civic leaders here are working at top speed in perfecting their organization and plans to direct activities for the Texas Centennial in 1936. Aware of Dallas' responsibility to create an exposition worthy of the concurrent celebrations to be staged in San Antonio, Houston, Galia, Brenham, Nacogdoches, Huntsville and other points of historic glamor in the State, those citizens directly responsible for the city's participation in the Centennial's observance rapidly have whipped into shape an executive set-up bringing into active service leaders in every line of civic enterprise in Dallas.

Machinery to finance enlargements and improvements at the State Fair Park, which is to be the nucleus of the proposed exposition grounds, that will make that plant a fit home for the main exposition in Dallas has been set in motion.

Mayor Charles E. Turner announces that an election soon will be held in which $3,000,000 worth of city bonds for Centennial purposes will be voted. Money raised by this means will be utilized to purchase ninety-six acres of ground adjoining the present fair park and to construct suitable approaches to the exposition grounds, and beautification and improvement of the grounds. After the city bond issue has been assured, the Dallas city Centennial Commission will turn its attention to raising an additional $2,000,000 from private business interests of the city, as promised in the city's bid for the location of the exposition in Dallas, to be expended for similar purposes.

Already authorized in a previous election are bonds to the amount of $500,000 for the construction of an art gallery at the fair park, work on which should be inaugurated in the near future.

A permanent program of beautification, including landscaping and construction of gardens and lagoons, is to constitute a part of the improvement program, blueprints for the enlarged fair park already having been prepared. City officials have indicated that they may be expected to expend as much as $750,000 in an ambitious street improvement program, involving widening of thoroughfares leading to the grounds in order that the flow of traffic in that direction from other sections of the city will not be impeded, even when the anticipated crowds of visitors from every state in the nation are at their peak.

Dangers Of Whooping Cough To Very Young Children Recounted

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 2—"There is no other communicable disease as dangerous as whooping cough to the very young, and there is no other disease causing an equal amount of suffering of which parents show such an unaccountable disregard, not only for the safety of their own little ones, but also for the lives of the neighbor's children," said Dr. John W. Brown State Health Officer. "There is no natural immunity against this disease during the first six months of life as there is against measles. It is at this age that whooping cough strikes its hardest blow and over 50% of the deaths occurring in children are under one year of age. The disease is usually transmitted by direct contact with the secretions of the mouth or nose, and only a very short exposure is required to contract the infection. Handkerchiefs, drinking cups and toys also may transmit the infection.

"The infection is communicable from the appearance of the first symptoms and is most contagious at this early period when the nature of the affection can only be suspected. The incubation period is commonly seven days. A slight fever, running of the nose and a cough make their appearance so gradually and insidiously that a diagnosis is practically impossible unless a history of exposure is obtained. When the "whoop" appears there is no mistaking the disease. If there is whooping cough in your community keep other children away from your little children and keep your children at home. Call your physician early. Isolation of all cases for at least two weeks from the development of the characteristic cough should be rigidly enforced."

Enormous Gains In Livestock Movement In Texas Recorded

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 2—Enormous gains were recorded in the movements of various classes of livestock from Texas farms and ranches to Fort Worth and to interstate points during August, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Shipments reached the enormous total of 12,552 cars, against 3,227 cars in August last year, an increase of nearly 300 per cent, Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director of the Bureau said in his monthly livestock report.

"Shipments of the different classes of livestock for the respective periods were: Cattle, 10,090 cars in August, 1934, as compared to 1,648 cars in August, 1933, an increase of more than 500 per cent; calves, 1,787 cars, against 497 cars, an increase of 260 per cent; hogs, 436 cars, against 680 cars, a decrease of 36 per cent; sheep, 239 cars, against 402 cars, a decrease of 41 per cent.

"The foregoing figures do not include intrastate rail movements to Texas points other than to Fort Worth. During August these shipments totaled 1,917 cars against 813 in August last year. The increase was entirely confined to cattle of which respective shipments were 1,681 cars, against 573 cars. The other classes of livestock shipped to intrastate points by rail, outside of Fort Worth, showed decreases. Moreover, a complete statement of livestock disappearance in Texas during August would include also truck movements to government relief canning plants, municipal abattoirs and commercial packing plants, outside of Fort Worth, as well as livestock slaughtered on farms and ranches as unfit for consumption.

"The success of the government so far as volume of purchases is concerned is clearly indicated in the foregoing date to-

$50,000,000 To Be Made Available For Feed Loans By RFC

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Tentative plans to finance feed procurement and conservation plans of the Federal Livestock Feed Agency through a loan of $50,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation were announced today by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

According to preliminary outlines of the plan, the funds advanced through an arrangement with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will be available to secure feeds of a much larger volume than would be possible otherwise, and to make such feeds available through regular commercial channels to livestock producers. It is hoped that the plan will hold down the purchase and slaughter of cattle and sheep through making new feed supplies available.

The financing of a feed procurement plan is merely a part of the entire program of the Government to make available sufficient feed for livestock this winter.

Chester C. Davis, Administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, "Because of the very severe shortage of normal pastures for commercial feeds, every effort must be taken to procure and distribute substitutes. Through the Federal Livestock Feed Agency in Kansas City the needs of such counties are being considered, and directed to the best source of supply. Another measure has been the action of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in underwriting the harvest of a million tons of corn fodder and stover, as well as a quan-

2938 To Be Chosen For C.C.C. Camps In Texas By October 15

AUSTIN, Oct. 1.—Plans for selecting 2938 junior members of the Civilian Conservation Corps in Texas between October 1 and 15 were being completed today as Neal E. Guy, enrollment supervisor for the Texas Relief commission, issued instructions to the county administrators over the state who will actually pick the candidates.

Of the nearly 3,000 selected, it is expected that about half of them will go to camps outside the state in Oklahoma, New Mexico or Colorado. The remainder likely will be absorbed by camps in Texas.

As in past enrollments, unmarried men between the ages of 18 and 25 who are American citizens and who have dependents to whom they are willing to allot a substantial amount of their monthly allowance, are eligible to be selected. They are to be from relief rolls or from families on relief rolls.

No two boys from the same family are eligible. Men with criminal records are not eligible and neither are those with any history of mental derangement. A person previously discharged for any reason is not eligible to reenter a camp.

Each man will receive $30 per month, between $22 and $25 of which must be allotted to his dependents. Although the applicant agrees to enroll in the government service for six months, if unusual circumstances arise, he may be released from his contract and discharged.

Administrators were urged particularly to "select men able to perform ordinary labor without injury to themselves." Strict observance of the minimum age limit also was advised.

Louis Flowers of Houston, a nephew of Mrs. Mary Flowers of Ozona, and Bill Globber of San Angelo, dropped in in Mr. Globber's airplane last Friday for lunch with Mrs. Flowers. Mr. Flowers was visiting friends in San Angelo and flew here for a few hours visit with his aunt before returning home.

BIG CLEANING JOB

An unusual view of the steel scaffolding erected around the Washington monument in preparation for giving the famous shaft its first cleaning and repainting. The scaffolding weighs 600 tons and cost approximately $100,000.

The freight agent on one of the western roads received a shipment on which was a donkey, described on the freight bill as "one burro." After checking his goods carefully the agent made his report: "Short one bureau; over, one jack-ass."

STOCKMAN TO BE THAT "LETTER FROM HOME" FOR STUDENTS AT COLLEGE

A number have taken advantage of the Stockman's special offer of nine months subscription for students away at colleges and universities for $1.25. Ozona parents have ordered the Stockman to go to the following students away at school: Gene Montgomery at Texas University, Marvin and Joe Rape at Texas University, Pauline Williams at C.I.A., Denton, Bill Seahorn at S.M.U., Dallas, and Buddy Moore at Baylor University Waco.

Among those who have recently sent in their subscription renewal checks for The Stockman are S. W. Westfall, V. I. Pierce, Clyde Newberry, Mrs. Laura Hoover for Dr. G. W. Holmesley of Comanche and J. H. Williams. Jesse Ray Chalk is a recent addition to the Stockman family of readers, the paper being sent him at Del Rio. Guinn Carruthers, manual training teacher in the Ozona High School, has ordered the paper sent to his mother, Mrs. W. S. Carruthers at Paradise, Texas.

Mrs. Floyd Henderson, who has been ill in a San Antonio hospital for several weeks, is reported considerably improved this week.

Old Sea Giants In Alabama

NEW YORK—Two 60,000,000 year old sea giants—a sea turtle and a sea lizard, called a mosasaur, have been unearthed from the chalk beds of Alabama.

These latest contributions to historical geology reveal that the present State of Alabama once was the bottom of a prehistoric ocean. Taken from the chalk beds which are associated with the Cretaceous period, they are objects of unusual interest to paleontologists, according to J. J. Renner, who reported his discovery of them in "Rocks and Minerals."

The turtle measures ten feet from stem to stern and has a width of 11 feet between the two forward flippers. From the joint in the shoulder girdle to the tip of the flipper is four feet four inches. With a prow in the form of a six inch pointed beak, its head is 20 inches long. Despite the turtle's weight, which was about two and a half tons, and although it appears to have been cumbersome, it was an able and powerful swimmer.

Compared to the recently acquired ancestor of present-day turtles, the lizard, which once undulated through the shallow seas above Alabama, is not without certain points of interest to those who demand the unusual in prehistoric animals. The lizard's head is five feet long, the jaws of which are about four feet long, with curved, sharp teeth.

Reconstructing the probable habits of the ancient reptile, Renner explained that because of its lack of prehensile limbs, and without teeth which could tear its food apart, the lizard had to swallow its food whole.

Requests For Library Material Shows Wide Centennial Interest

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 2.—Requests from women's clubs, civic clubs, schools and other organizations for material from the Package Loan Library Bureau of The University of Texas, mirror the State-wide interest in the proposed Texas Centennial, according to Miss LeNoir Dimmitt, chief.

Calls for material in the form of bulletins, pamphlets and clippings from newspapers and magazines, have shown an increase during the last few weeks far in advance of the usual seasonal gain, Miss Dimmitt said. This is occasioned in part by the unusually large number of schools which opened early in September, due to the wide-spread crop failure which has permitted children in most sections of the State to leave the fields and return to the school room. Women's clubs likewise are getting into action early in the year.

Among the other subjects on which material is being widely distributed are Caroline Miller's Pulitzer prize novel, "Lamb in His Bosom," since prize winners are always in demand; various phases of the "New Deal," particularly commissions appointed under the New Deal and prominent men who have been and are responsible for the operation of the New Deal; and the eighth amendment to the Texas Constitution to be voted on at the forthcoming general election. These amendments include proposals to abolish the fee system in large counties and make it discretionary in smaller counties; to tax certain West Texas lands for school purposes; to authorize the legislature to combine certain counties and to create others; to empower home rule cities to change the tenure of city officers from two to four years; to permit home rule counties to change their charters once in twelve months; to vest the power of counties in the commissioners' court; to limit the tax powers of the legislature; and to classify real estate property for taxation purposes and to provide for an occupational tax.

TWAS GOOD REASON WHY HE DIDN'T GET THE STORY

HOUSTON, Oct. 2.—Reporters who sometimes resort to ingenious excuses to explain to an irate city editor why they were "scooped" on a particular story might take a tip from one of the rural correspondents of the Houston Post.

County Editor John Yates of the Post's staff addressed a reprimand to the correspondent for failing to protect the newspaper on the death of a local citizen in an automobile accident at East Columbia. He read with interest the following reply.

"I received your letter today, and was glad to hear from you. You asked why I did not send in the Burford death. I want you to know that I did not know of the accident until the day after it happened, and then I saw it in the paper."

Mr. Yates said the explanation was quite satisfactory, since it could not be questioned.

CATTLE BUYING

The following instructions have been forwarded to the local purchasing agents by G. W. Barnes:

Instructions Given
In all cases priority in the purchase of cattle shall be given to those conditions as a result of drought. Purchases shall be made only from those producers who have fully demonstrated their satisfaction of the county agricultural drought committee that their supplies are not sufficient to maintain their animals and such inability is due entirely to drought conditions. Purchases of individual producers shall be in excess of the number of cattle necessary to remove in the fall to make reasonably certain the cattle remaining on the ranch can be maintained. Cattle should be very carefully distributed to meet the need, as far as possible, of stockmen for necessary reduction in numbers and to make purchases of individuals least able to provide for carrying cattle through the winter. Funds available for cattle purchases are being exhausted.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

The evening services change time, Sunday. Preaching begins at 7:30 p. m. and the BYPU meetings are at 6:30. Sunday school starts promptly at 9:45 a. m. and preaching at 11 o'clock.

Special services are announced for this Sunday evening. The pastor Rev. Leon M. Gambrell, will install the new BYPU officers who are to serve the next year. His sermon will be "Some Worthy Aims in the Training Department." The male chorus will sing at this evening service Sunday.

Plans are all set for the barbecue for men of the church and congregation Friday night, October 5th. All friends are invited, especially those who would be in the Bible Class taught by the pastor each Sunday morning. A splendid program will be given and, in fact, nothing will be left undone to make this one of the most enjoyable evenings any one ever had. The supper will be served at 7:30 p. m.

The church will meet in monthly conference and business meeting at 3 p. m. Sunday. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Massie Ray Smith was baptised in to the fellowship of the church last Wednesday evening at the close of prayer meeting. We are happy to welcome Mrs. Smith with us and pray the Lord to bless her throughout a long life of service. Norman Rendall was also received into the church, by letter, last Sunday. We welcome him and are happy because of his coming.

Our hearts are sad and our sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pettit in the loss of their little one. The little body was laid to rest in Cedar Hill Cemetery Wednesday afternoon. Our Lord has said: "My grace is sufficient for thee." In Him there is consolation.

We are happy that the Flowers evangelistic party are to be in our community for a revival beginning Sunday. Let every Christian pray that God will mightily bless His word as it is spoken and sung. We shall cooperate in every possible way to make the meetings a success.

Leon M. Gambrell, pastor.

Football—

The Panthers scored their first marker shortly after the opening of the third quarter when a lateral pass left a runner with an open field and he raced 45 yards for a touchdown. Ray Boyd, playing Ozona safety, missed pushing the runner out of bounds on the 20 yard line by inches when he missed a tackle. Soon after the first touchdown, the Lions made one of their most determined threats of the game when they blocked a kick deep in Fort Stockton territory with a neat defensive trick play. A short pass by which they hoped to cross the goal line was intercepted by the visitors on their own 20-yard line and on the next play, the Lions again blocked the kick and recovered the ball on the 15 yard line.

Here the locals began an attack that looked for sure a touchdown, but after taking the ball to the 5-yard line, the Stocktonites held. Here another kick was blocked by the charging Ozona ends but the visitors recovered almost on their own goal line and kicked out to safety.

Fort Stockton's other marker came in the fourth period when an end run behind perfect interference went the last 15 yards to the stripe. An attempted line buck for the extra point failed.

The Lions journey to Iraan next Saturday afternoon for the third warm-up game in preparation for the opening district game on home soil the following week-end against Menard.

THE BOY SCOUTS AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

By W. B. Gitteau, Supt. of Public Schools, Toledo, Ohio.

The chief aim and ultimate purpose of our public schools is to prepare the youth of the land for efficient and serviceable citizenship. In the following out of this purpose, the schools need and welcome the cooperation of every effective agency which has the same object. The Boy Scouts constitute the most promising and most organization, in my notion, that has been associated with the schools for the past twenty years. The schools teach the theory of out-of-doors and back to nature, and your splendid organization makes possible the carrying out of this teaching. The schools strive daily to inculcate the duties of fidelity to a trust, or honesty without flaw, of truthfulness and of industry; the Boy Scouts endeavor to reinforce these teachings by embodying them in the laws and traditions of their organization, and by enforcing them in practice. The teacher who makes use of the boy's membership in the Scouts only as a text for sarcastic rebuke when that boy misbehaves, will probably not derive any help from this organization. But the great rank and file of our teachers everywhere know how to use Scout membership as an efficient aid in the work which they themselves are striving so earnestly to accomplish. They realize that Scouts will misbehave at times, for membership is not a guarantee against all the mischief which boy nature is capable. It is, however, a guarantee that on many occasions the best that is in boy nature will be called forth, not once by many times; and that the true meaning and full significance of the Scout Oath and the Scout law will in time enter into the warp and woof of the boy's life experience.

Whiskered Players Cancel Game With Ozona Grants Mon.

The bewiskered House of David baseball team threw a curve to the Ozona Giants backers when they wired last Friday cancelling the engagement scheduled for Monday afternoon on the local diamond. The game had been originally set for Thursday afternoon but was postponed on account of the funeral of Jim Chapman, pioneer Crockett rancher who died of injuries suffered in an automobile wreck. The long whiskers had been paid their guarantee on the Thursday game and agreed to the postponed date but "found" after leaving Ozona that they had a previous engagement to meet the San Antonio Missions in Brady on that day.

LOST—Brown purse between her home and Hotel Ozona by Mrs. H. B. Tandy. Reward for return.

Mrs. Peck Miller and daughter, Miss Nancy Lee Miller, are in El Paso where Miss Miller expects to organize a dancing class.

FIRES AT PROWLER

Cecil Hubbard, mechanic at the Donaho Garage, took two shots at a night prowler seen on his premises Friday night. The man was seen near the house and in the cowlot. Mr. Hubbard fired two shots at him with a small double-barreled gun firing .410 gauge shells, but neither shot is thought to have taken effect. The man took to his heels and was not apprehended.
