140,000 HEAD OF SHEEP AND GOATS LISTED

Crockett Inventory Is Sent To State Headquarters Office

BUYING DELAYED

Question Of Shearing Causing Concern Among Growers

Approximately 140,000 head of sheep and goats are offered for sale to the government by Crockett County growers in the listing of animals on the government application and inventory forms in preparation for the sheep and goat buying program in drought-stricken area completed here last week.

The total listing by local growers for sale to the government was considerably lower than was anticipated. The total inventory of animals on ranges among signers of the government forms ran to more than a half million head.

Officials in charge of the cattle sheep and goat buying organizations have no information as to the possible date for starting the sheep and goat buying program. The procedure by which county quotas are to be fixed will necessarily result in delaying the start of the actual buying. The blanks signed up here were sent to the state drought relief headquarters at A & M College and from there are to be sent to the Denver offices where all quotas are to be determined upon the basis of needs throughout the nation.

Considerable concern is being voiced in this area over the announced ruling that no freshly shorn sheep will be bought by the government. A large number of sheep in this county and in nearby sections have already been shorn and growers are expressing anxiety over this turn of events, which may cut down on possible sales in the territory.

Massie Ray Smith And Miss Oleta Jo Blackwell Married

Miss Oleta Jo Blackwell of Lometa, Texas, became the bride of Massie Ray Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Smith of Ozona at a quiet wedding at the home of the bride's parents in Lometa last Saturday evening.

After a brief wedding trip, the young couple returned to Ozona yesterday to make their home. The young bride attended Ozona High School last year, graduating with the class of 1933. She is a sister of M. T. Blackwell, former jeweler here, now in business at Lampasas.

High School Pep Squad Of 43 Members Starts Lung Practice To Lift Battle Cry Of Lions On The Football Field

With a total membership of 43 lusty-lunged lassies, the Ozona High School Pep Squad swung into organization and began perfecting plans for the year with the opening of the regular school term Monday morning.

Miss Willie V. Coose was elected assistant Pep Squad leader to work with the leader, Miss Esther Kate Pierce, in directing the group through the year.

The squad will appear in its handsome new uniforms at the opening game of the 1934 football season for the Ozona High Lions, on Monday afternoon, September 24, when the Lions sharpen their teeth for the season on the San Angelo Kittens. The new uniforms now in the making, will flash the school colors of purple and gold in capes, belts and overseas style caps. A whole bag full of new

J. W. Owens Sends First Texas Ram To Natl. Ram Sale

'Cactus,' Native Crockett Yearling, Shipped To Salt Lake

"Cactus," registered yearling Rambouillet ram from the flocks of J. W. Owens and Sons of Crockett County, started on his way by express to Salt Lake City this week where he is to be entered in the national ram sale in that city on September 11 and 12.

"Cactus" will have the distinction of being the first ram from Texas ever to be entered in the national sale. He will have every right to enter, however, because his owner, J. W. Owens, has paid the top price for registered Rambouillet rams at the national sale every year since 1930.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Johnson of San Angelo left today for Salt Lake City to attend the sale.

Fifteen hundred rams, consigned by 60 breeders in the United States and Canada, will be offered in the national ram sale this year. Among consigners familiar to Crockett County people by reason of their annual consignments to the stock show and sale here each summer are J. K. Madson of Mount Pleasant, Utah, Day Farms Co. and L. N. Marsden of Parowan Utah, W. C. Pendleton and others.

Golf Club Plans 2-Day Open House

Free Play Offered Saturday and Sunday To Everybody

All nine holes having been completed and opened to play, the Lions Club Golf Course, on the Will Baggett ranch north of town, will be thrown open to the public in an "open house" to be observed Saturday and Sunday as a get-acquainted move, all those interested in golf being extended an invitation to play the course as much as you care during those two days free of charge.

A crew of workers has been at work on the course this week cleaning up cut grass and putting the course in as good condition as possible. Work of this nature will continue for some time but play on the nine holes will not be interrupted.

The golf committee has announced that a greens fee of 25 cents per day will be charged all non-member players effective at once. Annual dues will remain at $30. All members of a family being entitled to privileges of membership on the basis of payment of annual dues in advance.

Tally is a pitcher and outfielder, 17 years with the team. He has pitched over 400 games and played outfield in the rest. He has traveled over 415,000 miles with the team, is an original colony player and a member of the "Pepper" game.

Coach White Faces Task Of Building New Grid Machine From Raw Material

Backfield Must Be Rebuilt Entirely; Six Lettermen Left

Coach Ted White of the Ozona High School faces the difficult task this year of building a winning football team from almost raw material. With not a single veteran left for any of the backfield positions and only six lettermen from last year's team, all from the line, the coach must build a backfield from the ground up in the short time remaining before the opening of the season, a little over two weeks hence.

Captain Leonard Freeman, D. A. Parker, Max Eppler, Albert Cox, Tom Everett and Vaughn Brown are lettermen from last year's squad that will be available for this year's team. Some likely material in a group of last year's squad members and new additions to the squad this year, however, brighten the prospects and Coach White is confident of developing a smoothly working machine before the season is far advanced.

The squad is being pushed thru daily workouts, offensive tactics being stressed this week. Defensive plays will be started this week and scrimmage and skull practice will toughen and shape the machine for work against the San Angelo Kittens in the opening fracas here Monday, September 24.

P.T.A. To Stage Lawn Party For Teachers Tonight

Hope Raised For Drouth Break-Up With Good Rains

Temperature Drops As Drouth-Parched Areas Are Soaked

Although scattered rains which visited this area early Monday morning were bountiful in some sections, sufficient to go far toward reviving the drouth-parched ranges, and raised hopes that the long-awaited break-up of the long drouth is at hand.

The rain came on the wings of the first norther of the season which swept down in the early morning hours Monday to the accompaniment of violent electrical disturbances. Temperatures that had hung around the 90 degree mark most of the summer and higher in midday, swung down to below the 60 level with the advent of the cool winds from the north. The norther and its accompanying moisture served to relieve the oppressive heat and refresh a dust laden and drouth-stricken land. The fall in Ozona registered slightly over 3 of an inch. To the east of Ozona the fall was heavier, ranchers in that section reporting as much as two inches. The fall was scattered through the stock raising section, ranging from a quarter to two inches.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kersey spent Sunday visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bailey, on the ranch near Sheffield. Their grand daughter, Madye Jo Bailey, accompanied them home for a visit here.

House Of David Team Plays Here

Long-Haired, Bewhiskered Cult Players Engage Giants Sept. 27

The famous Israelite House of David baseball team, composed of long-haired and long whiskered members of the cult of Benton Harbor, Mich., who have played baseball from coast to coast for many years, will be seen in action by Ozona baseball fans here on Thursday, September 27, when they engage the Ozona Giants in an exhibition game on the Powell Field diamond.

The game was matched the first of the week, the Ozona engagement being one of several to be made by the unusual team in its tour thru this section.

The House of David team is composed of many high class performers, including Doc Tally, John Tucker, Flip Flemming, Elmer Ambrose, Dick Wykoff, Roy Hutson, Andy Anderson and other stars, all minor or major league ball players. The team has a record to date of 154 games played and has lost only 31 of this number. They have played and defeated some of the best semi-pro teams of the middle west and the team this year is said to be the strongest ever to represent the Benton Harbor colony.

Lemmons Store To Close Monday For Jewish Holiday

The Lemmons Dry Goods Company store will be closed all day next Monday, September 10, in observance of the Jewish holiday, Rosh Hashonah, or Jewish New Year. Patrons of the store are urged to anticipate their needs and shop Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemmons and children will probably attend special services for the holiday in San Angelo.

1934-35 SCHOOL TERM OPENS HERE WITH ENROLLMENT HIKE OF 21 OVER '33 OPENING DAY

Big Crowd Of Students And Patrons On Hand For Forty-Third Annual Opening Exercises Monday Morning

With a total enrollment slightly in excess of the opening day enrollment last year, the Ozona Public Schools opened for the 43rd annual session with formal opening exercises in the High School auditorium Monday morning.

A net gain of 21 students over the first day enrollment for the 1933-34 term was noted in Monday's enrollment figures as announced by Supt. C. S. Denham. This gain was made entirely in the elementary grades, the High School enrollment being exactly the same as last year.

The enrollment gains were made in the kindergarten, with an increase of four, a hike of four in the second grade, twelve in the fourth grade, one in the sixth grade and fifteen in the seventh grade. The third grade lost seven and the fifth grade lost eight, making a net gain of 21 pupils. The first grade enrollment was the same as last year.

Total Enrollment 285

The opening-day enrollment by grades was as follows: Kindergarten, 18; first grade, 24; second grade, 29; third grade, 19; fourth grade, 29; fifth grade, 18; sixth grade, 28; seventh grade, 30. The high school enrollment was 90, the same as a year ago, the total for the eleven grades being 285. Enrollment figures were not available for county schools outside of the city.

The auditorium was practically filled with patrons and pupils for the formal opening exercises Monday morning. In his introductory remarks, Superintendent Denham called attention to the fact that this is the 43rd annual opening, that the first opening, in 1891, was in a frame structure, with three teachers and approximately 50 pupils. Now the system is housed in two sturdy buildings, with 21 teachers and more than 300 pupils.

All the new teachers for this term were seated on the stage and were introduced to the audience. Four members of the district school board were also on the speakers platform and were introduced. Rev. J. H. Meredith told an interesting story of the supposed magic of the alchemists of old, pointing the moral that success lies not in magic but in self-confidence and industry.

Miss Elitabel Tillory, public school music teacher, presented two violin solo numbers that were enjoyed by the audience. Mrs. Neal Hannah played the piano accompaniment. Judge Charles E. Davidson spoke briefly on the possibilities of the schools this term. The exercises closed with announcements and instruction to the students as to their duties for the day.

Ozona Giants To Play Station A

Game Next Sunday To Be Warm-Up For Game With Cultists

Before finally giving way to football, the fall king of sports, baseball will have one more fling in Ozona next Sunday when the Ozona Giants engage the Station A crew in an exhibition game as a warm-up fracas in preparation for the Giants engagement with the House of David bearded team here on September 27.

The Sunday game has been scheduled for 3 o'clock. Conley Cox will probably be called upon for mound duty, with Arthur Kyle receiving. Manager Carl Dorley is giving the team work-outs this week in preparation for the game and expects to have a team in readiness to pull the whiskers of the House of David crew on the 27th.

"WE MISS YOU, DADDY"

Rockville (Conn.) Journal: Those whose homes are blessed by little children know that the children think the world of their parents and no matter whether Daddy is a business success or a flat failure, in the eyes of those little ones he is the biggest and most important person on earth, except Mother.

Tuesday morning there was a fatal accident on the Minterburn Hill and when the medical examiner was going through the pockets of the dead man, to list what valuables there were, or what papers were on the body, a telegram was found. It was not very long, just the ordinary 10-word length, but it had a message that would make any father happy. It read: "We miss you, daddy. When are you coming home?"

That was all. It was a message sent by one of the children of the man who had been killed. He had received the message and was homeward bound. The clothes were minus money but in his pocket he carried that message.

Those who have little children, and those who were once little children, can think of the great blow to the child when father did return home—dead.

"Daddy" will be missed by those children in the long years ahead. No longer will they have his support, his earnings, and more important, his companionship.

If ever there was a reason for people driving more carefully on the road, it is that they might get in an accident and deprive their own child or some other child of their "Daddy."

More might be written but just let us repeat those words: "We miss you Daddy. When are you coming home?"

Hartford Courant: The racing of turtles, frogs and fish is reported to be popular in Baltimore. It is understood that contests between even lower forms of life, including taxpayers and consumers, are in contemplation.

Hunting Stamp to Help Restore Waterfowl

Authorized by the recent congress, the new federal hunting stamp will be issued shortly by the Post Office Department. The photograph shows Stanley P. Young, head of the division of game management (left), and Col. J. P. Sheldon, of the bureau of biological survey, examining the original drawing for the new stamp which was made by J. N. "Ding" Darling, who was a nationally known cartoonist long before he recently became chief of the biological survey. The sale of the stamps will provide funds to help conserve ducks and geese and every one over sixteen years of age who hunts migratory waterfowl is required to purchase one of the new dollar stamps.

LEAVE NATURE ALONE TO ENJOY IT MOST

Del Rio Evening News: It was an attractive photograph. It showed a wild waterfall, toppling over a rocky ledge and foaming down into a gorge whose banks were covered with virgin timber. Everything in view looked, presumably, just as it did centuries ago, before there was a white man on the continent.

The paragraph of printed matter that accompanied the picture said that this waterfall was on the Tahquamenon River in the upper peninsula of Michigan. A movement was afoot to turn the region into a State park, it was said; and then came this sentence: "The place is difficult to reach at present, but a highway will be built to the falls if the park is O.K'd."

And while all of us who like to go places by auto would be glad to have one more beauty spot put within reach of our summer tours, it occurs to us to wonder if we aren't overdoing this business of putting roads into the wilderness just a little.

A good part of the charm of some of these wild spots is their isolation—the fact that they are not only unspoiled, but that they are so hard to get to that people don't get a chance to spoil them.

We have built so many roads in the last decade that it is hard to think of any beauty spot which the casual motorist cannot reach. And which this is, in the main, an excellent thing, we might reflect that once you make a wilderness thoroughly accessible, it ceases to be a wilderness.

There ought, in other words, to be some areas which can't be reached by car; spots which one must penetrate afoot, or with a pack horse, if one is to see them at all, and which contain no tourist cabins or general stores.

Let there be a few prizes for those who are willing to rough it, a few bits of wilderness which we can never see if we aren't game to park the car and hike a bit.

A recent editorial in Nature magazine stressed this very point.

ADVERTISING GAINS SHOW CONFIDENCE IN BUSINESS

CHICAGO—The confidence of business men that sales opportunities justify steadily increased promotion efforts is reflected in a gain of 17.9 per cent in the volume of general advertising in June, 1934, over June, 1933, according to a survey published in the magazine Advertising Age. The total volume of newspaper advertising in 77 leading cities was almost up to pre-depression levels at 145,327,000 lines for the month. Of a dozen classifications, only financial advertising showed a decrease amounting to slightly less than 6 per cent. Magazine advertising also is going ahead rapidly. Advertising Age reports July lineage of 104 publications totaling 1,636,000 lines, an increase of 45 per cent compared with July, 1933.

Louisville Courier-Journal: A Missouri farmer grew a truckload of turnips from a dime's worth of seed. Yes, but did he get his dime back?

Arkansas Gazette: Middle-Aged Men Best Workers, Ickes Asserts.—Headline. We'll agree heartily for a few years longer, and then we'll contend that old men are the best.

Philadelphia Inquirer: Business has climbed about 40 per cent from the depression low. Which is rather clever of business when you consider how The Professors greased the pole.

Omaha World-Herald: Canada won't let the Dionne babies go to the world's fair. That's tough for Chicago, as the attendance is running a bit below last year's and five at a time would help.

Boston Herald: We see no great objection to the old hands across the sea idea, as long as Uncle Sam keeps his leg beyond their grasp.

Chicago Daily Tribune: "Nudes Banned in Open Air Art Exhibition"—Headline. Oh, well don't cry about it. Let's go down to the bathing beach.

Los Angeles Times: If we ever have another one let's call it a war to end soldiers and cut out the hokey.

Greenville (S. C.) Piedmont: This is National Park Year, but don't go parking anywhere because of that.

New Orleans States: Manufacturers of headache tablets are making more money than heads of any other branches of trade or industry. You must figure out the reason for that for yourself.

Carbon paper at the Stockman office.

It remarked acidly that there are people who won't be satisfied "until the crest of every mountain is scarred by a skyline highway or scenic boulevard," and it pleads for preservation of some wilderness area in their natural, roadless state.

This doesn't mean that we must stop making mountain and forest accessible to the auto. It is simply a reminder that we can build too many roads, and that if we do we shall rob ourselves of something very much worth preserving.

Improved sanitation has tremendously reduced the amount of typhoid fever. And better control of communicable diseases, such as diphtheria and scarlet fever, is gradually lessening the death-rate from these diseases.

Still High Death-Rate There is still, however, a high death-rate from an important group of diseases of middle life. This group includes diseases of the heart, kidneys and arteries. 645 Deaths In Texas Last Year Due To Pellagra

AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 5—Six hundred and forty-five Texans died last year of pellagra, declared Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. Pellagra is a disease that it caused by lack of proper foods. It comes on slowly and may not be recognized until the victim begins to have a sore mouth, stomach trouble and reddening and scaling of the skin. When these symptoms appear the disease has been present for some time.

The longer a person has pellagra the harder it is to cure, so one should be on the lookout for the early symptoms such as nervousness, indigestion, and burning of the feet and hands. The disease may become so severe as to affect the mind.

Pellagra is not contagious. As long as a person eats enough of the right kind of food and is not otherwise diseased, he is in no danger even if he lives with a pellagra patient.

The prevention of pellagra depends upon eating the right kind of food at all times. To make sure that the diet is right, it should always include plenty of milk daily, some fresh meat, and as many fresh vegetables as possible. Tomatoes, whole wheat products, salmon, brewer's yeast and fresh fruits are especially valuable. Having provided these essentials of a proper diet, the rest may be arranged according to family and personal likes. In this way pellagra may be avoided.

Women To End Smoking Craze

Washington, Aug. 29.—The anti-cigarette alliance gazed into its crystal ball Thursday and announced that the tide had turned—that American women were about ready to quit smoking.

Two reasons were given for this revolutionary step:

1. The horsey set which rides to hounds in dead old Devonshire—where women first began to flaunt cigarettes—have given up smoking because it is so old-fashioned; it definitely dates one, you know, as being a post-war debutante which makes one at least 40 years old now.

2. American gals are becoming inclined to believe that cigarettes do something to the complexion.

For 20 years the anti-cigarette people have been trying to scare the daylight out of the lassies by telling them that cigarettes shortened life, increased the tuberculosis rate, made the eyes weak and bloodshot and lead to the imbibing of strong drink. The ladies lit another one and laughed; it goes so that girls starting out on a date said, "Gotta match?" even before they said, "I'm hungry."

It was not until the anti-cigarette folks revised their strategy that they began to get results. Miss Gladys Van Antwerp went at it from this angle:

"Nicotine, in time, tans the skin of the face as it does the fingers. The woman cigarette smoker, at the age of 40 or 50, if not before, is almost certain to have a dry, sallow skin. Her features become sharpened, and her voice becomes coarse. The old saying that a woman is as old as she looks, might well be changed to 'a woman is as old as she smokes.'"

When A Merchant Is Fooling Himself

The merchant who is not advertising and who observes that his competitor is not advertising either, is fooling himself if he believes that competitive advertising is not hurting him.

Daily newspapers from neighboring towns come in to his town every day. Some of his potential customers read them, and note the advertising messages they carry. Unless the home merchant is meeting this competition with similar advertising, he is losing business that he ought to have. If he doesn't think so, he is kidding himself, and the longer he kids himself the more business he will lose.

A certain amount of business will come to a town regardless of the efforts put forth by merchants. But there isn't enough business of this kind to make any town a good business town. It is the business that may come to a town or go to a competing town, depending upon the type of merchandising in the two towns, that keeps a business institution out of the red.

Business recovery for one town may mean business recession for a neighboring town. Which kind of town are you, Mr. Merchant, going to do business in in the future?

Plans For Sheep Buying Announced

Conditions Of Purchase Outlined In A.A.A. Announcement

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 4.—Procedure to be followed in the purchase of sheep and Angora goats in drouth-stricken western states was announced today by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Establishment at the center of headquarters of the sheep and goat buying program, Harry Petrie, chief of the sheep and cattle section in charge, had been announced previously. All animals purchased and all products of the animals will be used for relief purposes. They will be donated to the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation for processing and distribution. In making the purchases, priority will be given to those areas which are in the most distressed condition because of the drouth. Purchases will be made only from those producers who have not sufficient stocks of feed to maintain their full flocks. Such conditions must be due to the ravages of the drouth.

Only Females Bought

The producer who wishes to sell some of his animals must make application to the county drouth director, and the animals offered, under conditions are complied with, will then be classified as fit or unfit for use. Animals, to be classified as fit for use, must be in condition to travel to the designated shipping point and to stand shipment to the point of slaughter, and must carry sufficient flesh and be otherwise suitable for food or for other relief purposes.

Only female animals one year old or older will be purchased and payments will be $2 each for sheep and $1.40 each for Angora goats. The total payment will be divided equally between purchase payments and "service and disposition" payments.

Where animals are mortgaged or there is a joint ownership, the producer must have all lienholders or joint owners present at the time of inspection and classification, or must have their signatures on the voucher and emergency livestock agreement. The "service and disposition payment" will be paid to the producer for delivery of animals and pelts, and the purchase payment will be paid jointly to the producer and the lienholders or joint owners if any. Payment will not be made until animals accepted for use and the pelts of those unfit for use have been delivered to the Government's authorized agent.

Pelts Must Be Unshorn

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration announced that it will require delivery at designated shipping points of the unshorn pelts and skins of sheep and goats found unfit for use, and of the animals fit for use. These skins and pelts, with the wool and hair,

Dorley And Cox Play With Del Rio In Two Games Over Angelo

Two members of the Ozona Giants baseball team figured prominently in the one-sided win of the Del Rio Cowboys over the San Angelo team in Del Rio Saturday and Sunday. The Cowboys won the first encounter 15 to 3 and the last 18 to 6.

Carl Dorley, Giant third sacker and team manager at the wind-up of the West Texas League season this year, and Conley Cox, pitcher and second baseman for the Giants, bolstered the Del Rio team in the two games. Dorley hit a home run in each game and a double in the last game. Cox hit safely once in the first game and three times out of four in the last. Both Ozona players played errorless ball.

together with the pelts, skins, wool, and hair of animals purchased by the government for processing, will be donated to the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation for relief purposes. None of the animals or products therefrom will enter commercial channels.

In view of the interest of the Farm Credit Administration in protecting the wool and mohair market the plan for handling the pelts has been submitted to them and has been approved by the Wool and Mohair Advisory Committee of the Farm Credit Administration.

It is expected that actual buying of sheep and goats will be started by the middle of next week.

Weather Forecaster Sets End Of Drouth For Last Of August

A definite end of the great drouth of the last five years is set for the last week in August in a copyrighted announcement by Herbert Jenyon Browne, private weather forecaster of Washington, D. C., who has to his credit the forecasting of the drouth before it arrived, as well as successful forecasts of many local and other details during its progress.

Browne's forecasts are based on such things as the sunlight received from the sun and the movements of masses of warm and cold water in the oceans. Among five chief causes of the present drouth, Browne lists two such worldwide and cosmic items, an unusually high solar radiation and certain movements of water in the Atlantic Ocean as a result of tidal influences by the moon.

These are believed, however, to have been less important than three other causes due to acts of man. One of these is overdrainage of ponds, lakes and swamps. Another is overcultivation and overgrazing of farm lands. The third is the more complete confining of the Mississippi River by levees, thus reducing the amount of water vapor given off into the air from widespread floods.

After the last week of August of this year Mr. Browne expects a gradual return to normal rainfall beginning with a period of highly variable weather, including both short drouths and heavy storms or cloud bursts. The average rainfall is expected to be relatively high at least until 1939, but it is expected to be at least a year before this increased rainfall can raise to anywhere near their previous levels the badly depleted stores of ground water underneath Middle Western farms. Still longer delays are expected in restoring the low water tables of the great irrigation areas.

Rev. Fulmer Well Received In New Tennessee Charge

One of the largest crowds in the history of the church gathered at the Calvary Baptist Church in Jackson, Tenn., last Sunday to greet the new pastor, Rev. M. M. Fulmer, who resigned as pastor of the Ozona Baptist Church recently to accept a call to Jackson.

A clipping from a Jackson news paper received by friends here devotes more than a column to the account of Rev. Fulmer's opening sermon, the newspaper declaring in its headline, "Rev. M. M. Fulmer Makes Splendid Impression Here."

In another account, the newspaper gave comparative figures to show the Calvary Church with the largest Sunday School attendance of any church in the city. A feature of the report for the day was the fact that the Sunday school set a goal of 600 attendance and $500 collection to pay off an old obligation of that amount, and that both were exceeded. The attendance was 674 and the collection $627.

Institute Subjects To Be Discussed At Faculty Meetings

Institute requirements of teachers in the Ozona school system are to be satisfied through educational programs for the benefit of the teachers to be carried out in the general faculty meetings every six weeks during the present school term, according to C. S. Deunham, superintendent.

The faculty meetings are to be devoted to a general discussion of subjects of interest to teachers. The topics to be discussed are outlined in advance and four teachers assigned to each meeting date to discuss the chosen subject. Visiting speakers from other schools may be brought in from time to time to add interest to the programs.

Among subjects to be discussed are discipline, extra-curricular activities, wise use of the school in the interest of good English plant, cooperation of all teachers and similar topics of general teacher interest.

Bank Gets Signs Showing Federal Deposit Guarantee

The Ozona National Bank received last week from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation at Washington the official signs which will hang at all receiving windows as visible evidence that the depositors of this institution are insured.

The Ozona National Bank is one of more than 14,000 licensed banks in the country which are receiving these signs. Insured banks are able to offer protection to their depositors up to $5,000. Statistic studies have shown that this maximum fully protects more than 97 per cent of all the depositors in insured banks.

A statement by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation declares:

"The purpose of the signs is to let depositors know which banks are insured. Heretofore, although 90% of the licensed banks are insured, depositors have had no easy means of identifying them."
