$100 IN CASH PRIZES TO BE GIVEN JUNE 10

Monthly Award Voted Again By New Group Of Merchants

IN THREE PRIZES

First Winner To Get $50; Second, $35; Third, $15

Another $100 in cash prizes will be given away by a group of cooperating Ozona merchants on June 10, it was decided at a meeting of representatives of the various business firms at the Hotel Ozona Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. P. Pogue was awarded the $100 in cash in the May 10th award, last week.

For the next cash prize award a new system was adopted by participating merchants. Instead of awarding the $100 in one cash prize, it will be divided into three different prizes to be given away June 10.

First prize winner will receive $50 in cash, second prize will be $35 and third prize, $15. This system gives everybody three chances at all or part of the award, and was adopted in response to a popular demand that the amount be divided into smaller prizes.

Eleven local business firms are making a bid to keep Ozona money in Ozona by participating in next month's $100 prize contest. Co-operating merchants include Joe Oberkamp, C. G. Morrison Co., Smith Drug Store, Ozona Drug Store, Ozona Hardware Co., Miller Texaco Service Station, West Texas Lumber Co., Slaven Magnolia Service Station, Watts Service, Ozona Tire and Battery Shop and the Ozona Stockman.

Hardware Stores Adopt 5 o'Clock Closing June 1st

System In Vogue Last Summer To Be Followed Again

Ozona's three hardware firms, Joe Oberkamp, Ozona Hardware Co., and the West Texas Lumber Co., will adopt summer closing hours effective June 1, it was announced this week.

On that date, the three stores will close each afternoon at 5 o'clock. This system was adopted by these three firms last summer and the plan proved popular with employees and satisfactory with customers. It's adoption will give employees and managers more time for recreation in the afternoons during the summer months.

While the stores will close at 5 o'clock each afternoon, employees and managers will be available to any customer who desires service after business hours it was explained. Persons who desire to make purchases after the closing hour, need only to call some member of the firm and the service will be given gladly. With this plan in operation, inconvenience to customers will be prevented, service being available any time of the day or night. Customers are urged, however, to co-operate with the stores by making purchases during business hours whenever possible so that employees may have the full benefit of the extra hours for recreation.

Eastern Star To Elect Officers

Election of officers for the coming year will be the feature of a meeting of the Ozona chapter of the Eastern Star at the lodge quarters next Tuesday evening, it has been announced by the worthy matron, Mrs. George Bean.

All members of the order are urged to be present.

Unique Record Of Ozona Constable Still Goes Round

National Magazine Features Gunless Office In Special Feature Column

Listed in this month's American Magazine in the feature, "It Takes All Kinds," the fact that Tom Smith of Ozona has been constable for twenty-three years, never carried a gun nor made an arrest, has not ended in its world circling publicity.

First featured in the Ozona Stockman and then in nearby papers and finally reaching the "Believe It Or Not" column, the unique bit seems to have reached the zenith in publicity as far as the nation is concerned.

A week or so ago the Stockman was requested by the editor of West Texas Today, magazine, to send in a story and picture of the extraordinary constable.

McCamey Coming For Saturday and Sunday Series

Giants Get More New Blood In Attempt To Break Jinx

Strengthened in the weakest part of their game, hitting, the Ozona Giants go into another clash with McCamey in a two-game series on the home lot this week-end.

The first game in the series will be played Saturday afternoon, starting at 4 o'clock, and the second will be staged Sunday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock. This series will be the last at home for the Giants until the final games of the first half, against Texon, here on June 8 and 9.

Bill Rabb, who pitched a superb game against Crane here last Sunday, to lose only because his team could not produce runs, will pitch one of the games against McCamey. Rabb was sent to Fort Worth this week and is expected to bring back three hard hitting fielders for the week-end combat.

Eppenauer Makes New Location In Powell Pool Area

Listed among twenty-one new locations for oil tests in 11 West Texas counties, the Eppenauer No. 1-D Powell is staked out at the location 2,244 feet from the south line and 410 feet from the east line of section 53, block BB, E.L. and R. R. Ry. Co. Survey.

The location is in the same block of the A. R. Eppenauer and others' No. 1-C Powell. No report on the initial Eppenauer test was available this week but last reports indicated a depth of 2,566 with an excellent yield, considerably higher than other wells in the area.

Crane Takes Two Game Series On Home Lot Sunday

Locals Helpless With Bat, But Fans Got Money's Worth

Weakness with the stick in pinches when hits meant runs accounted for a double loss by the Ozona Giants at the hands of the Crane nine on the local diamond Sunday afternoon. The first game was 3 to 0 and the second 4 to 1, in favor of the visitors.

Bill Rabb, recently released by the Fort Worth Cats, pitched a superb game for the Giants in the opening game of the double-header series, letting the visitors down with only four hits in nine innings. But those four hits were good for two runs, one a flake hit to right

TB Testing Of Cattle Under Way In County

Completion Of Work Puts County In Accredited Area

Under the supervision of Dr. J. G. Porters, representing the Texas Livestock Sanitary Commission, and of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, testing of cattle for tuberculosis is going on in Crockett County this week in connection with establishing this county as an accredited area.

The Crockett County Commissioners Court, in session here since Monday, agreed to accept the services of the Texas Commission and of the United States Bureau and to cooperate in the undertaking of cattle tests in this area. It is agreed between the commission and the court here that all expenses incidental to this work is to be borne by the state and national units with an exception of the cost of lariat ropes and marking chalks, not to exceed $25.

In the accrediting undertaking here by the Texas Livestock Sanitary Commission, the test will cover all dairy cattle, all registered cattle, ten per cent of arnge females and all available bulls.

This will make the County an accredited area for three years and all cattle can be moved interstate for the period without further testing. The Bureau will re-accredit the county at the end of the three-year period by testing all premises in which reactor cattle are found in initial testing and ten per cent of the remaining premises of the county.

Indemnity will be paid for reactor cattle at the rate of a graduating scale up to $40 for grade cattle and up to $74 for registered cattle.

6 Letter Men Off Roster For 1935 Gridiron Battles

4 Go Diplomas Route, 2 On Eligibility Rule; 8 Vets Are Left

By the graduation route, Coach Ted White loses four letter men from his 1934 football aggregation and by eligibility ruling, the Ozona mentor will have to drop two more from his football roster for the coming season.

One of the most capable members of the Lions team and outstanding among stars of several seasons, Max Eppler, guard, is leaving off his football togs because of graduation. The Lion star, besides leaving behind a crack history on the football field, has left a grade average for four years to be sought by new comers. He maintained 89.3 grade average for his four years in high school. After graduation also, Batts Friend, Ray Boyd and Sam Glover lay away their togs.

Gene Williams and Albert Cox, both remembered for their neat exploits on the gridiron during the past season, will be ineligible for play next season.

But eight letter men return to bolster the hopes of the Lion coach and some new material will be coming in. The eight returning letter men are, Haskel Leath, J. T. Casbeer, James Childress, Vaughn Brown, D. A. Parker, Leonard Freeman, Tom Everett, and Joe Thomas Davidson.

The new eligibility ruling written down by heads of the Inter-scholastic League making players over eighteen years of age before Sept. 1 ineligible for competition, will affect one Lion player in 1936 and two players the next year. The rule is not in effect the coming season.

Collins Coates, former Ozona ranchman and now residing at Ft. Stockton, was in Ozona this week with his family.

Wood From Historic Oak Tree, Site Of Crockett County Organization Meeting, Goes Into Map Of State Made Of Wood

At the request of officials of Reagan Senior High School of Houston, Superintendent C. S. Denham, of Ozona, this week sent a piece of the old oak tree at the corner of the town park here to the Houston school to be placed into a wooden map of Texas being made there.

Students of wood work in the Houston school are creating a county map of Texas in wood. The wood is being collected from every county in Texas and must have historical significance. The Ozona chip is from Ozona's oldest known tree and the significance of the oak is that the first sheep camp here was at that place, organization of Crockett County was first discussed at a meeting under its branches, and later the first commissioners court of the new county was held beneath it.

Korean Speaks On Habits Of People In Distant Land

S. K. Dong Dons Robes Of Nativity In Address

More than six thousand miles away, beyond the mountain called Fujiyama, on Kipling's road to Mandalay, is the land of Korea, land of rice, of clay idols, and where historical annals date into four thousand years of antiquity. On the map it is called Chosen.

The peninsula of Chosen, called the "land of contrasts," is the home of S. K. Dong, who spoke in Ozona Sunday night. Donning the robes of his native land and exhibiting other clothing accessories, the Korean missionary, who came to America to study law and then embraced Christianity, spoke to Ozonans at the Church of Christ Sunday night.

The gist of the Korean's message to hearers Sunday night was that of the salient march of Christianity into the land of Confucianism, how he himself received enlightenment, and how Christianity, in rooting out the filial worship, has affected the Korean converts. The missionary's own experience of being brought to an understanding of the "perfect religion" has lighted his enthusiasm and his address is a sermon of zeal in which he presents the scriptures with the glow of the mission spirit.

Monday morning just before the missionary left by bus for San Angelo, he was questioned concerning his homeland, missionary work and himself.

The native of Chosen is fifty-two years old and has a wife and three children in Sanki Hoksei, Korea. His family has never seen America although he has made three visits here since his first trip in 1904.

Manifesting a fair command of the English language, the Korean told of coming to America when he was but a youth and of studying law at a northern university with the intention of going to his homeland and practicing. But before he had finished his study he became interested in theological courses and later he was to embrace Christianity and to take up the torch of mission endeavors. He has returned to his homeland and established four churches in Korea and baptized many of his friends and relatives whom he has salvaged from the doctrine of Confucianism. The converts cut from their heads the "top-nots" (long hair) and thus symbolize their cutting away of ancestry worship.

Many Americans do not consult their world maps often nor do they retain their geography, for the missionary has to explain that Korea is a peninsula and not an island. Twenty-one million people inhabit the land of Korea (or, Chosen), which is an area of 84,000 square miles (one-third the size of Texas).

In 1910 Korea was annexed by Japan, just after the Russo-Japanese War. Today the Koreans are ruled by a Japanese governor-general whose lieutenants are Japanese but the lesser offices are filled by Koreans.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baggett entertained at their home with a dinner party for members of the senior class. Coose, Vicky Pierce, Eda Schneemann, Esther Kate Pierce, Alberta Kay, Beatrice Slaughter, Ernestine Watts, Ernest B. Sparkman, Walter Dudley, Batts Friend, Miller Robison, Joe Friend, J. C. Mayfield and James Baggett.

field that bounded under the cars and went for a three-bagger, scoring a man from first base. Another bingle by a subsequent hitter brought in the runner from third. The other score chalked up by the Crane crew, in the second frame, was on two successive errors by Dorley.

The locals gathered six hits off the offerings of Osborn in the first game, but they were widely scattered. Weaver, Dorley and Brown getting two each. The Giants made several spirited threats, when with men on bases, hits would have meant runs, but a general batting slump was on and each threat fizzled out the strike-out, roll-out or pop-out route.

The second game went glimmering when the Crane batsmen hopped on the offerings of Slim Harris, slamming out seven safe blows and pushing in three runs in four innings. Peoples took up the mound duty in the fourth with one man on, retiring the side without a run. One hit and one run off his offerings was all that the Crane lads could take in the next three innings. Ozona scored its lone tally in the ninth when Nugent, pitcher recruited from Trent, Texas, slapped out a double, scoring Brown from second.

Texas Suicides Drop 17 In 1934; Murder On Alarming Increase

AUSTIN, Texas, May 15—A report of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, State Department of Health, says, "Contrary to public opinion, the number of suicides in Texas has decreased during the last few years. There was an increase from 616 suicides in 1930 to 772 in 1931 and a further increase to 828 in 1932, which was the greatest number of suicides that occurred in Texas during the past five years. Following 1932, suicides have decreased from 828 that year to 722 in 1933, with a further decrease to 705 in 1934.

"While suicides have decreased, there has been a gradual increase in fatal accidents, which totaled 3,112 in 1930 as compared with 4,013 fatal accidents in 1934.

"The increase in accidental deaths has been closely associated with the use of motor-driven vehicles. In 1931, there were 23 deaths due to collisions between automobiles and railroads, as compared with 69 similar deaths in 1934. Fatal accidents in air transportation increased from 27 in 1932 to 46 in 1934.

"The greatest increase, however, was found in automobile accidents involving no other vehicles. The records of 1934 show an increase of approximately 70% over 1932, there being 907 deaths due to automobile accidents in 1930 as compared with 1,533 in 1934.

"With the decrease in suicides and the increase in accidents, there has been a more appalling increase in homicides. The Texas mortality records show 576 murders in 1930 and 1,016 in 1934, an increase of 440 or 76% during that five-year period."

RARE WHITE NECK RAVENS ARE COLLECTED IN TEXAS

LUBBOCK—Twenty more white necked ravens from this region have been requested by the National Zoology Park at Washington, some of which may be sent to museums in Europe for study.

Twenty ravens recently were shipped to the park from Lubbock, but four died. They were the first of the species the park had received in twelve years.

The first birds shipped alive from this section were eight for the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, and eight for the Cleveland, Ohio, Museum of Natural History.

18-Year-Old Age Limit Fixed For School Contests

AUSTIN, May 15—A significant change has been made in the rules of the Interscholastic League, following the recommendation of the State meeting of delegates. The State executive committee has adopted the 18-year-old age-rule to become effective September 1, 1936, in all contests, athletic, literary, artistic and commercial. This rule will render obsolete several rules which have cluttered up the rule-book for several years. It was pointed out by Roy Bedichek, chief of the Bureau of Public School Interests at the University of Texas.

"It will do more than any other half dozen rules to guarantee to bona fide high school students the privilege of engaging in the league's program of educational competitions," Mr. Bedichek said. "It definitely places the Texas organization far in the lead of other organizations of similar kind in other states. With the exception of New York, where a 19-year old rule is in effect, all other states permit participation until 20 or 21, irrespective of the fact that the average age of graduation is around 17 years."

Coleman Student Awarded Carnegie Medal For Heroism

FORT WORTH, May 15—Weldon J. Allen, senior in Texas Christian University here, has been named recipient of one of the nation's highest awards for heroism—the bronze medal of the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission. Allen's home is in Coleman, Texas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Allen, both of whom are T.C.U. graduates. The award carries with it $500 in cash, which Weldon thinks he will probably use in spending another year in college. The 20-year-old university student ent war given the award for his heroism in rescuing Mrs. E. P. Williams from the second floor of a burning house in Fort Worth in January, 1934.

The motor car is a good customer of everybody..

"I foresee the time when industry shall no longer denude the forests which require generations to mature, nor use up the mines which were ages in making, but shall draw its raw material largely from the annual produce of the fields... I am convinced that we shall be able to get out of yearly crops most of the basic materials which we now get from forest and mine."
Henry Ford

THE map above tells only part of the story—the little-known story of the inter-relation of the Ford V-8 car and the farm.

The figures in the map are based on what will be used this year if the Ford Motor Company reaches its intended production of 1,000,000 cars and trucks.

- WOOL goes into upholstery, floor coverings, lubricants and anti-rust preparations.
- LEATHER goes into upholstery—and in addition, glues are made from cow hide, and from cow's milk... Other parts of cattle, through other processes, yield stearic acid, greases, glycerine (for shock absorbers and body enamel) and soap chips (used in washing machined parts and bodies before painting).
- HOGS furnish lard oil, oleic acid and brush bristles.
- GOAT'S HAIR (Mohair) goes into upholstery.
- BEEWAX goes into electrical imbedding compounds.

- COTTON goes into tires, batting, cloth, battery box, timing gears, brake linings and, not least important, into Safety Glass. (Every Ford V-8 car built this year will have Safety Glass in every window, at no extra cost to the car buyer... Cotton, in the form of cellulose acetate, is the central part between the two sheets of glass that make up every finished sheet of Safety Glass.)
- CORN yields butyl alcohol (for enamel finishes and other purposes) and starch (for stiffening cotton linings).
- LINSEED OIL is the basis for paint—is used in foundry cores—and is one of the ingredients of the beautiful, synthetic baked enamel finish on a Ford V-8.
- SUGAR CANE yields molasses for solvents, anti-freeze and shock absorber fluids.
- CASTOR OIL goes into lacquers and artificial

- leather suitable for rumble seats, where real leather would be damaged by exposure to the weather.
- TUNG OIL is part of the top material used in Ford cars and is also used in brake linings.
- TURPENTINE is used in paints, adhesives and solvents.
- SOY BEANS are used in making cores for metal castings in our foundry and are also an important part of the baked enamel finish of a Ford V-8 and of the plastic knobs and buttons in the car's interior.
- LUMBER is used for packing purposes. It is not used for any structural part of the Ford car, which has a welded, all-steel body, reinforced with steel, for maximum safety.

American Museum Has Albino Frog

This albino frog, said to be a greater rarity than quintuplets, is being raised at the American Museum of Natural History in New York. It was found on a farm in St. Lawrence county, New York, and is now the charge of Dr. G. Kingsley Noble, curator of herpetology. The frog should be brownish green in color but by a freak of nature it is saffron hued, almost white.

"I want to see the proprietor. Is the gentleman in?"
"Yes, I'm in."
"Are you the proprietor?"
"No, I'm the gentleman; the proprietor is in the back room."
"It's going to be a real battle of wits, I tell you," said the sophomore member of the debating team.
"How brave of you," said his roommate, "to go unarmed."

April Wets Dry Areas And Dries Wet Ones

April did right by the country this year, according to W. A. Mattice of the Weather Bureau. It watered some areas badly in need of moisture and dried those that had too much rain in March.

Precipitation last month materially relieved excessive dryness in the northern Great Plains, including Wyoming and northern Colorado. The drought relinquished still further its stubborn grip on the States from the Dakotas south westward to the Mexican border. It still persists, however, from southwestern Kansas and southwestern Colorado to Texas and New Mexico. Here precipitation, at best, was only one-half normal and less than that in some parts. The signs of drouth in Florida reported in March gave way before adequate April rains.

The Pacific Coast and the western Great Basin had very heavy falls of rain. In parts of California and Nevada it was more than three times normal. Over the rest of the country, Mr. Mattice says, precipitation was adequate. Temperatures, he adds, departed very little from normal, except in Montana, where they were 6 to 7 degrees below normal.

Though in far better shape than at the beginning of April, the Great Plains States still need more rain to replenish subsoil moisture. Precipitation so far has been sufficient only to restore topsoil moisture.

From the standpoint of moisture, Mr. Mattice says, the Great Plains region is much better off today than it was at the end of April in 1934, 1932, or 1931. April, 1931, rains were above normal in parts of Kansas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico and in southern Arizona, but below normal elsewhere, especially in the Dakotas. In 1932 they were above normal in most of the Dakotas, Wyoming, and Colorado and northern New Mexico, but far below in Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, and much of Texas. April, 1933, in the Great Plains was very wet, bringing a above-normal precipitation to western Kansas, Nebraska, and South Dakota and rather generally over Wyoming and Colorado. From Oklahoma south, however, it was very dry. In April, 1934, most of the great Plains area had less than one-half normal rainfall.

LOST FAT Fooled Gossipers

Mrs. J. R. McCausland of Pittsburgh writes: "I took off 8 lbs. in two weeks with Kruschen. I ate as usual and feel fine." You, too, can safely reduce as Mrs. McCausland did if you'll only have a mind of your own. Pay no attention to gossipers who wouldn't want to see you the slender woman you can be if you'll only take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a cup of hot water every morning. (Tastes fine with juice of half lemon added).

Kruschen is SAFE—it's a health treatment and when your body abounds with Kruschen fitness—excess fat leaves. Jar lasts 4 weeks and costs but a trifle—any drugstore. Ozona Drug Store sells lots of it. Adv

What Would YOU Do

In a Case Like This?

A man comes to your door. You answer his knock. You don't know him, and he can't identify himself as a representative of one of the established companies you've come to know and trust.

Question: Would you open the door?

Answer: No. Not if you're like most of the women who keep house and buy things for themselves and their families in this community.

Reason: Experience has taught them that the greatest danger in admitting strangers is the danger of being sold something without a reputation.

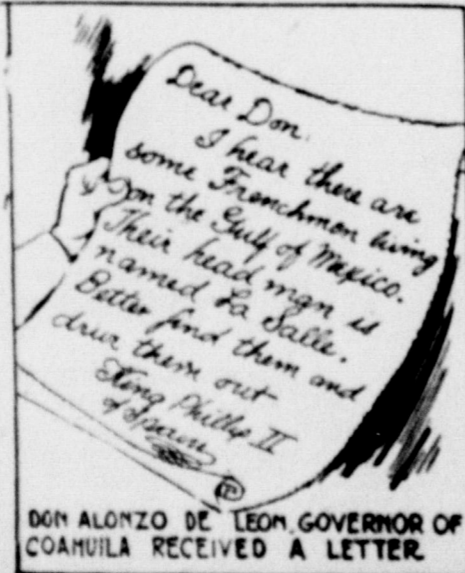

Result: Women who know that a value is as much a matter of dollars and cents, buy through the ads in The OZONA STOCKMAN. They know they get double protection when they do.

Curious Beast Of Spider Tribe Is Captured Here

On display at the Jones Saddlery curio counter is an odd find in the way of the fuzzy tribe of Araneida (spiders). Found in the yard of a residence in town, the velvety spider was busy eating ants. Since his captivity, he has been fed by kind on-lookers on a diet of Muscae Domesticae (in which process he is much more effective than fly paper, or swarms).

The insect has been termed by some who have seen it, as a "Mother of Scorpion," and again as a "Sourweed." At any rate the spider is an ant eater and has two effective antennae in gathering up prey. It has four legs and the head is in three segments.

Mrs. Flynn Sikes of Irwin is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Richardson.

Announcing—

Summer Closing Hours

Effective June 1, The Firms Below Will Close Each Day at

— 5 p.m. —

In order to permit employes to enjoy the freedom of longer free evenings during the summer months, the undersigned stores have agreed to close each afternoon at 5 o'clock—starting June 1 and continuing the balance of the summer.

This plan was placed in operation last summer and was found satisfactory. Our patrons co-operated with us in carrying out the system by shopping early and we hope they will do so again this summer.

Early closing does not mean that customers can not get what they need after hours. Customers will be served ANY TIME OF THE DAY or NIGHT. All that is necessary is a telephone call to managers or employes and your wants will be satisfied. But we ask that all make an effort to help us observe the 5 o'clock closing hour as nearly as possible.
