This week's games (Saturday and Sunday):

Texon at McCamey.
Irma at Crane.
Wink at Ozonia.

Experience in playing the league diamond showed up in the final score of Saturday's game in which the Ozonia Giants went into a tailspin to lose 6 to 5, having felt out the terrain, the back strong Sunday to force the Irma team 14 to 6, while, the league infant, Wink, swept through for a double

Wink will be here Saturday afternoon for the opening game of the two game series with the Giants, the game called for 4 o'clock Sunday, the two teams will again clash at 3 o'clock. Al Crosswaite, Randolph Field hurler, will probably do mound duty Sunday, with Buchanan up for Saturday's heaving chore.

Off the McCamey nine to go to a tie for first place with the Giants.

Crane and the champion Texoners battled to a draw in their two-game series, Texon grabbing Saturday's game only to fold up Sunday in a ten-inning encounter. Crazy hops that went for extra hits kept the Giants in a lather Saturday while their batting against Maytubby was below par. The outfit was able to garner but few safeties for the afternoon, but even so, they had the opposition one run down until the seventh when Irma pushed over two runs for a one-run margin which they held for the next two frames.

Next Saturday and Sunday, the teams will have a chance to measure the strength of the Wink

Pension Payments Start Not Later Than July First

Federal Participation Assured By Approval Of Texas Law

AUSTIN, April 29—Orville Carpenter, old age assistance director, said today pension payments would start not later than July 1 and earlier if possible.

He returned recently from Washington where federal officials approved formally and warmly commended the Texas pension law.

"A great amount of work must be done before payments can start," he said, "but everything possible, including a night shift in some departments, is being done so that early payments can be had."

He asked Charles Miller, liquor administrator, for a report on the amount of money accrued from the liquor tax for pension payments. The amount unofficially reported to be $1,375,000.

Approximately 160,000 applications have been made, and the work is dropping off, he said.

Flashy Gray And Red Trim Suits Ready For Baptismal

When the Ozonia Giants take the field this week-end against their co-occupants of the top rung in Permian Basin League standing, Wink, they are calculated to dazzle the opposition into submission from the outset with their flashy new uniforms, to be donned for the first time in the coming series.

The new uniforms, the gift of a group of business men and baseball fans generally in the community, arrived early this week. A rich gray, the uniforms are trimmed in a flashing red, with red-billed caps, red braid down the trouser legs and "Ozonia" in red letters down the front of the jackets. Red and gray socks and red belts finish off the ensemble in which the Giants hope to cop the West Texas baseball crown in the good year 1936. The uniforms were purchased through the Ozonia Hardware Co.

O. W. Parker In Race For Prec. 3 Commissioner

Rancher Is Third Entry In Race To Represent Precinct

Plenty of politics is promised residents of Precinct No. 3 of this county in the coming primary election with the entry of a third candidate for the post of county commissioner representing that precinct this week.

O. W. Parker, veteran rancher and long-time resident of Crockett County, made official entry into the race for the post of representative from Precinct 3 on the county board this week, authorizing The Stockman to announce his candidacy for the office.

Mr. Parker is a former commissioner from that precinct, having been a member of the board some fifteen years ago. He has been a resident of that area for the past thirty years. Mr. Parker ranches in the northwest section of Crockett County, his headquarters being near Irma.

Mr. Parker's entry in the Precinct 3 contest makes it a three-cornered battle for that office, the incumbent, J. W. Owens, and Mike Friend having previously cast their names into the hat as candidates.

Rev. Ira V. Garrison, pastor of the Ozonia church, urges a full attendance of the local membership to all sessions of the conference.

More Competition Is Cry Of Two Softball Teams Now In Field

Competition is what the two softball teams that are waging war here each afternoon are wanting. Competition from other teams, a three or four-team league in which they can work up a white heat interest.

Two teams, calling themselves Printers Devils and Hashers are already in the field, at each other's throats each afternoon. But win or lose, it gets monotonous, to play the same aggregation every day.

So the teams moguls are calling on the Baptists, the Methodists, the Church of Christ men, the Lions Club, the business men, the ranchers, the WPA, the Townsend club, missionary societies, sewing circles, poor working girls or any other group with a membership large enough to recruit a softball team to name the day.

Ozonia's fall amounted to a little over an inch, according to the record of the rain gauge in the Joe Oberkamp store.

Harley Sadler Shows Present Epic Texas Play

'Fall Of The Alamo' Is Feature Of 3-Day Local Engagement

When Harley Sadler and His Own Company appear in Ozona for three days, commencing Thursday, April 30, they will feature one night "The Siege of The Alamo" or "A Republic is Born," a stirring four act comedy-drama of Texas history. Mr. Sadler describes this as being more than just another play. It is a sensational, exciting epic of the Texas Revolution, authentic in every detail.

Almost a car-load of scenery is carried for this one production, special costumes, lighting effects and even the furniture for this mammoth production is carried by the company. The first two acts are in the modest law office of James Bonham and William Travis who are closely associated with Sam Houston in fostering the revolution for Texas independence. The story is not without its romance. Love in that day as in this had its part. Beautiful Dolores Veramendi, daughter of the Vice-Governor is pledged to Captain Tenorio who is in command of the Union troops, a political trade that her father may be assured of his position.

Of course, the first shot of the revolution released her from her father's promise and leaves her free to marry Bonham. James Bowie, who was a naturalized Mexican citizen, and married to Dolores' sister, Ursula, also daughter of the Vice Governor, was placed in a rather peculiar position. His sincere friendship for Sam Houston, Travis and Bonham, caused him in rather a feeble way to argue against the possibilities of Texas independence, but once he was convinced of Santa Anna's plan for operation in Texas he immediately became one of the revolution's most ardent supporters. All these interesting facts are disclosed throughout the action of the play. Comedy relief is furnished by John Smith, a red-headed bee hunter from Arkansas, as well as Nacogdoches, Kate and Joe, a negro servant of Travis. The play is climaxed with the fall of the Alamo at dawn, March 6, 1836.

Some of the most dramatic moments in the play are to be seen in this last act: Travis, drawing the line with a sword, and inviting all those who care to stay to defend the Alamo to cross the line, and Bowie, ill and wounded, too weak to walk, asks that his cot might be moved across the line. The desertion of Lieut. Dickenson and Rose, are scenes you will long remember. And finally, the grand climax and battle scene and the supreme sacrifice of the Alamo's courageous defenders followed by a beautiful tableau, will make an evening's entertainment that will live but for this time.

The opening play of the local engagement, sponsored by the Ozona Baseball Club, will be "Merton of the Movies," a rollicking comedy. The Harley Sadler show, usually making only the larger cities, is on a Centennial year tour of all Texas. The big tent theatre will be located on the Adams lot.

Summer Round-Up Of School Children Is Major Health Move

AUSTIN, April 29—One of the most interesting round-ups of Centennial Year in Texas, is the summer round-up of the children who will enter school next fall. The Summer Round-Up of children is the major health project of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The local parent-teacher group of each community endeavors to have parents who have children ready to enter school next fall, take these children to their family physician for a physical examination so that any defects they might have may be corrected during the summer months. It takes the special knowledge which a physician has acquired to discover and remove any physical or mental handicap which threatens a child's well-being. A fall check-up is made of these same children, with the result that the child entering school for the first time may be as free from physical and mental handicaps as possible.

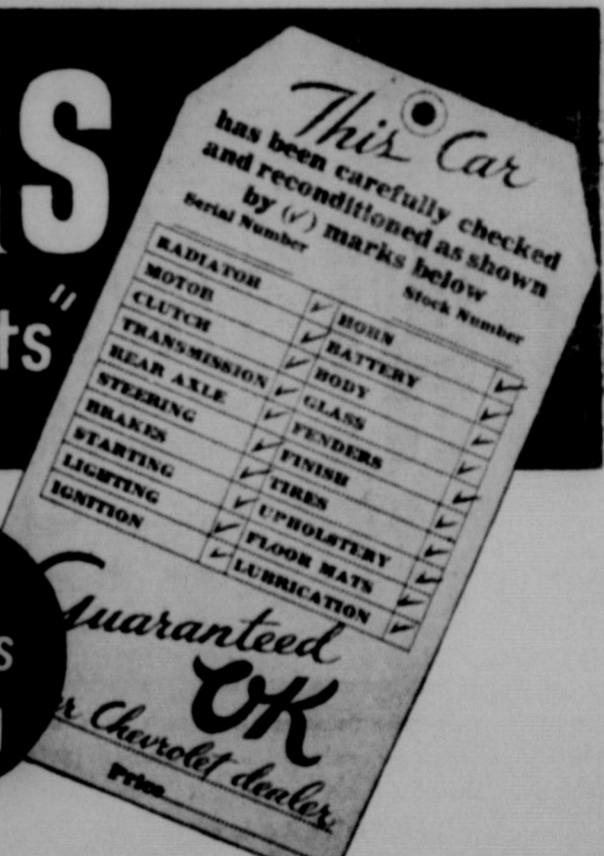

It is a most essential factor in the life of each child that he be free from all physical defects in order that he may do his best work when in school. The child has been allowed to play most of his time until he comes of school age, so it is most important that all handicaps be removed when he is asked to take up that part of his career which has to do with his mental training. The child who does not hear or see well would not be able to get the same benefits from his school work as the child who does not have these handicaps.

Each child entering school should be immunized against diphtheria and smallpox.

As the child begins to mingle with numbers of other children, it is also necessary that he be instructed as to personal cleanli-

'Grand Old Man' Of Texas U. Honored On His Retirement

AUSTIN, Texas, April 29—Tribute will be paid to "The Grand Old Man of Texas U." by hundreds of "his boys"—University of Texas engineering students of today and by-gone days—as well as of other warm personal friends among faculty, student and ex-student circles, when he will be guest of honor at a banquet to be held Thursday evening, April 30.

The honoree is, of course, none other than Thomas Ulvan Taylor, for thirty years dean of the University College of Engineering and a member of the University staff since 1888.

Dean Taylor will this year end a long career of administration, although for a time he will continue part-time teaching, and will be named dean emeritus of the College of Engineering. Aged 78, he is one of the first to be affected by the University's new regulation retiring staff members at the age of 70. For nearly a half century he has been one of the most picturesque and loyal friends of the University and of University students. His hobby, self-styled, has always been "getting boys out of trouble."

The oldest faculty member in point of years of service, Dean Taylor has seen the University grow from infancy and has brought his department into an enviable position as one of the ranking engineering schools in the country. When he came to the University, he was the only teacher of engineering and there were 22 in his class. Today the department has become a college, with more than thirty faculty members and a student body of more than a thousand.

Dean Taylor is a native Texan, born in Parker County January 2, 1858. He received his bachelor's degree in civil engineering from the University of Virginia in 1883, the year the University first opened its doors, and his master's degree in civil engineering from Cornell University in 1896. For five years prior to his return to Texas, he taught as professor of engineering and physics at Miller School in Virginia.

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS HISTORY

WEEK OF APRIL 26

(By T. S. College for Women)

1718—Because of the scarcity of water at the Rio Grande, the San Jose Mission was removed on May 1 to the west bank of the San Pedro about three-fourths of a mile northwest of the present parish church of San Antonio.

1822—On April 29 Stephen F. Austin arrived in Mexico to obtain confirmation of his land grant in Texas from the Congress. He remained there a year.

1832—The state legislature made an entire change in the colonization law on April 28. They repealed the general colonization law of 1825 and modified the terms of sale to Mexicans, extending the rights of colonists and excluding natives of the United States.

Advertising Sends Chevrolet Used Car Sales To New High

Chevrolet dealers' used car sales for the first six months of the current model year will reach the staggering total of more than 900,000 units.

This announcement by W. E. Holler, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, was a highlight of an interview this week, in which Mr. Holler pointed out that his company's record-breaking new car volume is giving used car prospects an exceptionally wide assortment from which to choose. High volume sales of used cars, he said, are the natural outcome of the public's recognition that these offerings are sound transportation values.

"While the figures are remarkable," said Mr. Holler, "they are easily understandable in light of what happened last November when the new Chevrolet was announced. The 1936 models received the most enthusiastic welcome of any new cars in the history of the company. In spite of the fact that dealers had been stocked in advance, it was necessary to maintain production at high levels all winter to keep pace with the demand.

"Such a situation can be accounted for only by the explanation that thousands of owners who would normally have driven their old cars a year or two longer were so strongly impressed by the new Chevrolet that they bought at once. As a matter of fact, the word 'old' in this connection is not at all accurate; for a high percentage of the trade-ins since November 2 have not been old cars at all, but recent models with thousands of miles of satisfactory service left.

"The trading-in of these cars has had the result of increasing the quality, and also the variety, of dealers' used car stocks. Thru the medium of advertising, Chevrolet has gone systematically about the job of acquainting the public with this situation, with special stress on the fact that the Chevrolet Red OK Tag—now, by the way, nearly 11 years old—make it possible to buy a used car with full confidence. The newspapers of the United States have carried the bulk of this advertising, and the schedule is being increased in preparation for further record sales this spring."

Rob Miller suffered an injured leg last week while at work on the ranch. Treatment was given here, examination showing no bones broken.

first state government took place on May 2 in the House of Representatives at Austin. President Anson Jones retired, and J. Pinckney Henderson was installed as first governor.

SHOP and SAVE where QUALITY is "Tops"

The day of the cracker barrel, the open flour bin, the pickle jar and goods boxes around the old wood stove are gone in the grocery business. Present-day shoppers demand clean, appetizing, inviting merchandise. They have learned through advertising to know what is tops and what is second quality "leaders." That's a healthy condition for both the buyer and the legitimate merchant—it means the doom of the chiseler and the shady dealing merchant. We offer only "tops"—the choice selections always. Come see for yourself.

Ranchers Invited To Balmorhea Experiment Station Meet May 8

Substation No. 9 of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Balmorhea, Texas, will be host to farmers and cattlemen, Friday, May 8, when current steer feeding tests which have been under way since November 1935, will be closed.

The Balmorhea station has already made a reputation for producing highly finished beef steers and the steers which have just

A feature of the steer feeding work at Balmorhea has been the use of ground hegart bundles and cottonseed for fattening. Methods of feeding will be explained and results of the tests will be given at a short meeting beginning at 1:30 p. m. J. J. Bayles, Superintendent of the Substation, will be assisted in the meeting by John Simpson, Livestock Agent for the T & P Railway, and G. W. Barnes and J. H. Jones of the Texas A. & M. College. Visitors arriving at the station, four miles east of Balmorhea, before noon will find a light luncheon prepared for them.
