Oppled Giants Make Shellacking From Iraan Nine

Organized Champs First Half In Poor Form In Series

badly disorganized team, a half pennant of the Permian league, took a pair of beatings from the Iraan crew on the diamond Saturday and lay to remain well down in standing of Permian clubs, only one game won out of starts.

When the old maestro, whose name is J. Fisher is another story, decidedly off key in the week-end turmoil, the Iraan sluggers were giving him for a total of nine in eight innings Saturday, adding two more in the last of the offerings of Manager Harris. The visitors took the first game 9 to 7, the Giants rapping eight hits, with Dorley and Cox getting two each, Weaver and Stuart one each. Monday's game gave the fans money's worth, even though it had a disastrous finale for the club. A free-scoring event, the visitors rapping out a total of 23 safe blows, fourteen off Fisher and nine off Manager Harris, the game went to the eighth when Carl Dorley drove one into the honey-suckle on the left field fence to the ball for a home run with bases loaded.

At the end of the ninth, the Iraan stood ten all. But in the eighth, the Iraan sluggers uncoiled and four hits, a walk and a left field error accounted for four. Dorley started things off with a single, and the Iraan lead could not be over-ruled and the game ended 14 to 11. Whether the Iraan batters were hitting the ball in better light than usual or whether the hurrying was off form could not be ascertained from the grandstand, but the fact remains that there was hitting and costly errors and judged flies by Hogcaller Myer, playing the sun field again, the loss of Vic Montgomery from the line-up, accounted for many of the hits and runs both ways.

The Giants go this week-end to the McCamey for a brace of games. Johnny Lynum, who has been hitting 'em afire down at Center, Texas, will be eligible to chunk the Giants in that series and may get the call in one of the games. The Fisher may be rested by that time and if so, the Iraan stand a chance of getting back in form and into the running again by snatching a couple of games from the Refiners.

The league-leading and undefeated Texon Oilers and Crane Oilers meet for a decision on league leadership at Texon Saturday and Sunday. Both swept their week-end series, Texon measuring the Wink Cats and Crane the McCamey Refiners.

Flowers Grocery Adds Meat Market

Announcement is made this week by Flowers Grocery of the installation of a sanitary meat market department in connection with the grocery. All refrigerating counters and other necessary equipment is being installed this week and Virgil Oden, for several years associated with R. J. Cooke in operation of the Ozona Meat Market, has been employed to be in charge of operation of the market.

Mr. Flowers announced the early installation of one of the Cooke patented barbecue houses. Construction of the new barbecue house, to supply barbecued meats of all kinds for sale in the Flowers market department, will get under way as soon as Mr. Cooke picks up on orders for the patented houses and can start the

HOUND MOTHER OF LITTER OF SIXTEEN PUPS

Overproduction And Dinner
Shortage Problem Solved
By Mercy Killings

Speaking of overproduction, a hound dog owned by Charley Coates paid little attention to Department of Agriculture agitation for crop control when she became the mother of a litter of sixteen puppies the past week.

The big yield presented a major problem for the mother and Mr. Coates. With sixteen mouths to feed and only eight "dinners" available, it looked as if somebody was going to have to go hungry. But a bit of selective mercy killing solved the problem and now mother and octuplets are doing fine, thank you.

Child Recovers After Sucking Quantity Of Kerosene Into Lungs

The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Bengé received emergency treatment here early this week when he drank a quantity of kerosene from a glass. Part of the fluid was sucked into the child's lungs and fears were held for a time that complications might develop, but reports from the home the middle of the week indicate the youngster has recovered from the effects of the incident. Mr. Bengé is the new owner of the Ozona Market, taking over the business by purchase last week from R. J. Cooke.

Diphtheria Victims In Mexican Suburb Reported Recovered

Three Mexican children, all in the same family, who recently developed diphtheria, are reported recovered and the family released from quarantine by Dr. H. B. Tandy, health officer.

The first diphtheria case was discovered during celebration week, and quarantine regulations were applied. Two other children in the family developed the disease, but all were given serum treatment and recovered. No further outbreak of the disease has been reported from the Mexican settlement.

Sale Of Market Closes 37 Years Business Regime

R. J. Cooke Disposes Of Business To Sterling City Man

After 37 years in business in Ozona, R. J. Cooke, veteran meat market operator and creator of the Cooke barbecue houses, a patented barbecue cooker, relinquished control of the Ozona Market the end of last week, selling the business to W. Y. Bengé, Jr., of Sterling City.

Mr. Bengé took charge of the business last Thursday morning. He is rearranging the interior of the concern with a view to putting in a full line of groceries in connection with the meat market. Shelving is being constructed, counters arranged and stock imported to be ready for full operation by the end of this week.

Mr. Bengé has for several years been associated with his father in the grocery and market business in Sterling City. He and his wife and children are occupying the former Charlie Schauer home.

Mr. Cooke will continue to make his home in Ozona, working out of here on contract for construction of the patented barbecue houses. He was in Amarillo this week making arrangements for installation of one of the houses there and has a number of others to be built as soon as he has time to do them.

Little Interest Shown In Allred Campaign Speech

Rep. Petsch Calls Off Talk As Only Hand- ful Present

Whether citizens of Ozona are indifferent to the outcome of the present political campaign in the state, stayed home on account of the rain, forgot the engagement or just plain were not interested in political speakings is an unanswered question, but the fact remains that a bare half dozen persons were present last night in the district courtroom where Representative Alfred Petsch of Fredericksburg was scheduled to speak in behalf of the candidacy of Governor James V. Allred for re-election.

Rep. Petsch, a strong supporter of Governor Allred, is making a swing through West Texas on a speaking tour in behalf of the governor's candidacy. He will speak tonight in San Angelo.

The Fredericksburg representative and newspaper publisher spent the afternoon here, his son accompanying him on the trip. He was to have been introduced by N. W. Graham at last night's rally, but the engagement was cancelled when a sufficient crowd to justify continuing the meeting failed to show up.

BAKERY CLEANED

The Ozona Bakery is undergoing a thorough clean-up campaign this week. The walls of the bake shop are being scrubbed and refinished, all equipment and floors cleaned and polished. John Rochelle, manager, announces.

LEAVE FOR MARKET

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lemmons will leave Sunday for Texas and Eastern market centers to buy stocks of new Fall and Winter merchandise for their store here. Mr. and Mrs. Lemmons will visit in Fort Worth, Dallas, St. Louis, Chicago and New York, buying a complete line of ladies ready-to-wear, misses and children's clothing, men's clothing, and piece goods. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

Ozona Scout Master To Be Life Saving Exam- iner At Fawcett

Camp Fawcett, famous campsite near Barksdale on the Nueces River where many a Boy Scout first heard the cry of the hoot owl and saw the gleam of a cat's eyes at night, will take on new life August 2 when more than 100 Scouts will open a two-week encampment.

Scouts from the Val Verde and Uvalde districts of the Concho Valley Council, from Crystal City, Eagle Pass and other southern Texas cities and Scouts from several towns in the northern end of the Council, San Angelo, Ozona and Sonora, will throng the campsite.

General staff for the period has been announced by Bob Billington, Scout Executive.

Jack O. Stone, assistant Scout Executive, will direct the camp. His aides will be Bucky Lee Burditt, Del Rio medical student who will act as camp doctor; Joe Haddon, Ozona, Red Cross Life Saving Examiner; John Pike, swimming instructor of San Angelo; Audas R. Absentee Voting Sets New Record As 68 Cast Here

All-Time High Set As Period Closed Wed- nesday Night

An absentee voting record has been set in Crockett County with the final tabulation of votes registered here at the close of the voting period last night.

A total of 68 absentee ballots were cast for the Democratic primary next Saturday, George Russell, county clerk, reports. So far as officials can recall, the previous high absentee mark was around 40.

Whether the record absentee vote is indicative of an all-time high in the coming election, or whether it merely indicates Crockett County folk are enjoying vacation trips in greater number at this time than in previous voting years, nobody would hazard a guess, but it is the general opinion that the voting in this county will be unusually heavy Saturday.

Shower Here Is Good For Half Inch Moisture

Reports Indicate Rain Extended West To Ft. Stockton

A heavy shower which registered a little more than a half inch fell in Ozona Wednesday afternoon, dispelling torrid weather that had held the area in its grip for the past several days.

The moisture covered a wider area than was at first thought, tourists coming through reporting the rain covering almost the whole of the area from here to Fort Stockton. Heavy clouds to the east and south indicated moisture in those areas also.

RECORD VOTE EXPECTED IN PRIMARY SAT.

Crockett County May Poll Largest Vote In History

MANY CANDIDATES

23 Aspirants Seek Vote For County, Precinct Offices

County officials and Democratic leaders are looking forward to one of the heaviest votes ever polled in Crockett County next Saturday when voters go to the polls to register their choice for state, district, county and precinct officers for the coming biennium. Two factors are due to contribute to the expected record vote—the fact that Crockett County this year boasts a record voting strength, with poll taxes and exemptions crowding the 800 mark, and the further fact that more candidates are seeking the various precinct and county offices than ever before.

A total of twenty-three candidates are listed on the ballot for nomination to the various precinct and county offices here. This is something of a record for Crockett County.

New interest in the offices of County Commissioner from the four precincts and in the office of justice of the peace in the Ozona precinct account for fourteen of the county candidates.

Interest Mounts

Interest locally is centered in these precinct races and in two races for county office, that of sheriff, assessor and collector of taxes and county treasurer. In the race for the sheriff's post, Sheriff W. S. Willis is being opposed in his bid for re-election by R. F. Powell, filling station operator here. Bob Weaver, bookkeeper at the West Texas Lumber Co. here and centerfielder on Ozona's Permian Basin baseball league team, is contesting the veteran incumbent, Tom Casbeer, for the office of county treasurer.

No less political heat is being generated, however, in the four-sided race for the office of justice of the peace, Precinct 1, and the three-cornered races in three commissioners precincts for the offices of County Commissioner from these areas.

Drennan Slaughter, J. T. Casbeer, Walter Capps and the incumbent, W. M. Johnigan, are the candidates seeking the office of justice of the peace, their names being listed on the ballot in the order named. This race, and that for County Commissioner, are (Continued On Last Page)

THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1936

YOU HAVE A DUTY TO PERFORM SATURDAY

Voters of Crockett County, and of all Texas, have a privilege and an obligation next Saturday to cast their ballots for their choice of candidates seeking election to the various elective offices of state, district, county and precinct.

Voting is a privilege which Americans sometimes discount. Never having experienced a condition of disfranchisement, of dictatorial government in short, they fail to realize the privilege that is theirs in being a part of the machinery of government, being the boss-in-fact, of those who administer affairs of government. Next to the right of free speech and freedom of religion, privileges which come about as a result of the democratic form of government, the right of franchise is one of the greatest gifts of a nation of people. As long as the people recognize this right as the treasure of a free people, the undermining forces that bring about the fall of democracies will never take root in America.

The very obligation of government bespeaks the obligation of the ballot. Government is by the majority, the opinions and wishes of a nation being expressed at the polls. The only way, then, that the actual majority opinion can be expressed is for all the people to make their opinions and wishes known at the polls. Otherwise, rule is by a minority, and that paves the way for the growth of all manner of evil.

The success of government by the people is to be measured by the amount of thought and study given by these people to their obligation at the polls. Study candidates and issues in the light of what information is available, then go to the polls and vote your opinions and wishes and you have discharged your duty as a citizen.

ELIMINATE THE HITCH-HIKER

Denison Herald: According to a report issued by the National highway users conference, one-third of the States have taken measures to keep hitch-hikers off the highways. Fourteen states and the District of Columbia have provisions which prohibit roadside solicitation of rides in motor vehicles. Several States have also enacted laws limiting motorist's liability for the safety of those who become their "guests" thru manipulation of the thumb. Five States adopted such laws in 1935.

The hitch-hiker has not only become a nuisance but he is fast becoming a social menace. Hardly a day passes that we fail to read of someone being robbed or murdered by some hitch-hiker to whom he has given a ride. No less than a dozen Grayson County people have been hijacked by hitch-hikers during the past year. It happens almost every week. More than a dozen Texans have been murdered by these road rats during the past year.

Motorists ought to know better than to give rides to hitch-hikers. But there are always kindhearted motorists who will take a chance and pick up a fellow if he looks worthy. It is to protect such good-natured motorists that Texas needs a law against hitch-hiking. It ought to be a law with teeth in it. The thumb wiggler should be driven from the highways.

FOUR FROM FIVE LEAVES NOTHING

Doubtless Dr. Allen Dafee deserves the fame which has accrued to him through his successful treatment of the Dionne quintuplets. Film producers are not to be unduly censured if they esteem it profitable to invest hundreds of thousands of dollars in the future earning capacity of the five over-publicized infants.

Is there not, however, a question of value here, the kind of question which breeds skepticism in the intelligent young? A current news item refers to "the thousands of people who made unselfish offers of help to the babies in the early days." Those "unselfish offers" indicate a laudable condition of human sympathy. They also indicate the disproportionate generosity of an emotional mob.

Five infants receive wealth such as their parents never dreamed of possessing, simply as a reward for being born. "Neither the babies nor the rest of the Dionne family need worry about their normal requirements for the rest of their lives," announces the Ontario Minister of Welfare. Whether that is fundamentally beneficial remains to be proved. Everyone will agree that it is good to feel financially secure. No need to be apprehensive about the supply of the quintuplets.

Yet—there's a brave little youngster at the corner of Main Street, a lad of twelve, who trudged about in a pair of sneakers in the middle of winter, running errands and shoveling snow after school hours, who would like to go to college some day, but probably won't be able to finish high school. A child with an intellect, his teachers say, a child who should have an opportunity. His mother is a widow and he has two younger sisters.

There's another child on Main Street—a girl of seven, delicate features, with a far too solemn expression in her gray eyes. Her parents are educated, but they are "on relief," and it's very cold when there's no fuel to light the kitchen stove. The last time it was lighted the mother made all the flour they had into doughnuts, which the little girl hawked around the neighborhood.

Sometimes the little boy and the little girl wonder why no "unselfish offers" from a sentimental public come showering down on them. It was a mistake to come singly. They should have come in fives.—Christian Science Monitor.

SAFETY NOT AT HOME

Ft. Worth Star-Telegram: The delusion that the safest place is home receives another factual showup in the accident statistics for 1935 summarized by the National Safety Council. More persons were permanently or temporarily disabled as a result of accident in the home than by accidents in any other classification. The totals in this classification were 140,000 permanently disabled and 4,460,000 temporarily disabled.

For purposes of comparison, corresponding figures for traffic accidents were 105,000 and 1,180,000; for "public" accidents, such as drowning, burning, freezing, falls, 60,000 and 2,100,000; occupational accidents, 63,000 and 1,340,000.

Traffic accidents continued to lead in fatalities, those in this group numbering 37,000 in 1935. But home accident fatalities were not far behind, accounting for 31,500 deaths.

Carelessness, in the home, at work, at play, or on the road, is responsible for most accidents—in 1935 for the deaths of 103,000 persons and the injury of 9,340,000 in the United States.

Swimming Hazards Should Be Heeded

OSTON, July 22.—In Texas, in 1935, there were 371 deaths from accidental drowning, according to records in the State Bureau of Vital Statistics. This is an increase of 54 over the number reported for the year 1934, and an increase of 85 over the number reported for 1933.

While water sports are the best of all sports during the summer season, they present certain hazards which should be heeded," said Dr. John W. Brown, Health Officer. "Accidental drowning would not occur if each individual respected the fact that water is not man's natural element and governed his activities in the water by standards of safety. Certain precautions should be observed by all swimmers:

Never swim alone—especially in deserted places where no rescue is available in case of an emergency.

Do not let young children go into deep water even if they are how to swim, unless some person proficient in life saving is with them.

Do not go in bathing directly after eating. Wait two hours before taking a plunge.

Do not dive in unfamiliar waters until you are sure of the depth of the water and the absence of rocks.

Do not overtax your strength. Work up gradually to a long swim by strengthening the muscles first.

Do not swim when fatigued.

Do not create a hazard for other swimmers by childish stunts and smart tricks.

Accidental drownings, with few exceptions, occur through lack of proper safeguards or in places without adequate supervision.

Take your swim in one of the approved sanitary swimming pools available in most communities, and help reduce the deaths in Texas from drowning."

TENNESSEE RAIN SO HEAVY COLLAPSED FARMER'S POND

McMinnville, Tenn., Paper—Rains of last week that totaled 7.37 inches by official measurement here collapsed a good pond on the farm of C. C. Grooms, live stock breeder and farmer of the Pleasant community, six miles from here in McMinnville-Spencer highway.

Sunday, when Grooms and other farmers were recounting how the heavy rain had filled up walls and stock ponds, he heard a big splash near his barnyard.

Thinking an airplane had fallen, he called a McMinnville garage to send a wrecker.

When the wrecker and a crowd of curious citizens arrived they found Grooms in waiting. He said he discovered a deep hole in the middle with its water much colder than that outside, and the entire pond had sunk about two feet.

All that is left of the once large pond is a big sinkhole, about the size of a large room.

Amateur geologists said an underground ocean running several feet beneath the pond had become swollen by rains and kept washing the bottom until it caved in, taking most of the pond.

WHAT WOULD THEY SAY?

Christian Science Monitor:

If anyone has a shred of capacity left for amazement, shocked he will be over a recent small item of news: Beginning with its September issue, the Atlantic Monthly will publish serially a detective story. It will be the first detective story to bear the imprint of that famous press, also the first such story to be printed serially in the august magazine. One can only ask himself, helplessly, ever and over: What would they say?

They used to meet around a generous, white-spread dinner table at that eminently suitable place, the Parker House, Emerson would be there, Lowell, Motley, Dr. Holmes, Cabot, Underwood and the publisher, Phillips. Their dignified purpose was to discuss, at first, the establishment and, later, the conduct of a literary magazine to be called the Atlantic Monthly, as Dr. Holmes suggested, because those who would contribute to it were endowed already with reputations on two shores of the Atlantic Ocean. On the initial occasion the company sat down at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and did not rise until 8 in the evening. They savored situations in those days, and found them satisfying. Rumor has it, too, that these august members of the Saturday Club used impatiently to tear open the magazine and gloat, each over his own neat columns and impressive signature.

What, indeed, would they say? For that matter, what, one wonders, is Prof. Bliss Perry, seventh editor of the Atlantic, saying in his Cambridge home today? Those classic pages which have first published masterpieces by Aldrich by Mark Twain, by Howells and Henry James, by Lowell, Whittier Mrs. Howe and Bret Harte, now to harbor a Timothy Fuller detective story, to be entitled: "Harvard Has a Homicide."

No doubt, if those men were grouped today about that heavily laden table at the Parker House, they would open their Atlantics as eagerly but with resultant consternation. It had never occurred to them that, in the midtwentieth century, tired business men and political and literary giants alike would possess insatiable appetites for detective stories. The Atlantic has only decided to keep pace with a troubled world.

THEY CAN'T SPELL

Kerrville Mountain Sun—It is reported that among 298 young men and women who took a civil service examination in New York recently all but three failed in spelling.

This is not surprising to those who have had occasion to observe the spelling of the average high school graduate, or even that of some college men and women.

Why our schools do not give more attention to spelling is an unsolved mystery. Hundreds of hours are devoted to subjects which a pupil never thinks of after leaving school, yet the art of spelling, which must be practiced every day of his life, is given scanty consideration.

Perhaps it is thought that everyone should be permitted to develop originality. If so, the works well. Few show great originality in any respect that spelling.

Announcement

To Patrons of

PALACE THEATRE
OZONA THEATRE

The only way to prove a theory is by experiment. The trial and error method is one of the surest ways, though sometimes expensive, to determine what is possible and best.

We have been conducting an experiment for the last six months and are now ready to announce its results—and it is with genuine regret that the conclusion must be what it is.

To meet the admission charges by a competitive show house six months ago, we reduced prices from 15 and 35 cents to 10 and 25 cents. We lost money consistently while the opposition was in operation. When the management of the competitive house folded up and we purchased assets of the concern, we decided to continue the lower prices to determine the question of whether or not one show could be made to pay its way at such prices. Our books will show that it cannot be done. One of two things was left to be done—to close the show entirely or raise the admission prices back to the former level.

Believing that the people of Ozona want a theatre, we have decided on the latter course. Were it possible to continue operation at the lower price, we would have been most happy to maintain that level. But others have experimented and failed; every theatre in West Texas save one, to our knowledge, has found it necessary to charge at least 35 cents admission to stay in business, and we believe that any fair minded person who will give the subject any study or thought will readily see the justice of our position.

Effective Sunday, August 2
Admission Prices Will Be
15 and 35 cents

IT CAN BE DONE

Brownwood Bulletin: Incredible as it may seem in these days of heavy public indebtedness, four States are completely free of debt —Florida, Ohio, Wisconsin and Nebraska. They are free because their constitutions prohibit public debt beyond a small figure.

Nebraska, for instance, reports a surplus of $21,000,000 in her treasury and boasts that she has neither a State income tax nor a sales tax; yet she has borne her share of the relief burden, paid for a new capital and improved her schools. It should be said, of course, that relief is borne largely by the municipalities in this State.
Granting even this exception, however, the point remains that a pay-as-you-go policy can get results. Fortunately, Nebraska and her three debt-free sister States were provided with constitutional set-ups to make this sort of sound economics possible from the first.

Certainly it should not be too late for other States and municipalities to benefit by their example.

In Appreciation--

Of 37 Years of Pleasant Relations

After having spent 37 years of one's life in the same business, serving the people of one community, building friendships that have stood the test of time, one is naturally seized with pangs of regret upon reaching the end of such a long period of pleasant associations.

It is with a feeling of sincere regret that I relinquish ownership and management of the OZONA MEAT MARKET by sale to Mr. Wylie Bengé. I feel that I owe it to myself to give my attention to the business of constructing my patented barbecue houses and I will devote my time to this enterprise, having a large number of orders which I have not had time to fill.

My 37 years of business in Ozona have been most pleasant ones. It has been a real pleasure to be of service to the people I have grown to know and love, and to those same people I owe a debt of gratitude for their friendship and their patronage through the years. If my service has been such that it has pleased them, I am happy, for it has always been my aim to give a dollar's worth of service and merchandise for every dollar spent with me. For the many favors that have been extended me by the people of Ozona during these years, for the liberal patronage I have enjoyed, and for the lasting friendships that have been built up through business relations, I shall always be grateful.

Mr. Bengé is a man of wide experience in the market and grocery business, and I sincerely believe will give the people of Ozona a business establishment of which they will be proud. I sincerely hope and trust that my friends will accord him the same measure of courtesy, support and patronage that it has been my good fortune to enjoy during the years I have spent in your service.

Sincerely,

R. J. COOKE

Greetings--

To the People of Ozona and Crockett County

It gives us genuine pleasure to greet you, the people of Ozona and Crockett County, as a new merchant in your splendid community. We realize that the outset that we have a responsibility doubly heavy in succeeding such an astute business man and community servant unequalled that we know Mr. Cooke to have been in his long years of service to this community. I know Ozona hates to lose him from his familiar position behind the counter of this store, but it was his wish and our good fortune to be able to realize an ambition to become identified with the business life of this fine community.

We believe that our experience in the grocery and market business has fitted us to give you a first class store. It is our intention to offer you complete food service—groceries, vegetables, fresh and cooked meats of all kinds. The interior of the market is being rearranged this week to receive a full grocery stock, and we will have our MARKETING CENTER ready for your needs in the next few days. Under Mr. Cooke's tutelage, we feel sure that we can continue to serve you the delicious barbecued meats with the "Cooke flavor" that is famous throughout the Southwest.

We will welcome the opportunity to become acquainted with you and will be grateful for your patronage.
