RECOVER CAR STOLEN FROM STORAGE HERE

Officers Find Rachel Schrader's Car On Lubbock Street

MAN STILL MISSING No Trace of John Thomas, Who Disappeared From Station

A Ford V8 Coupe, belonging to Miss Rachel Schrader, which was stolen from the Stevens Motor Co. building, where it was stored, the night of the mysterious disappearance of John W. Thomas, operator of the filling station in connection with the garage, was recovered in Lubbock last week.

The car was found abandoned on a street in Lubbock last Thursday. Local officers were not notified, however, until Monday. The car was returned here Tuesday morning. It had not been damaged in the least, except for a slight dent on a running board, and it was estimated that it had not been driven more than 500 miles from the time it disappeared here until it was discovered in Lubbock.

Insurance was carried on the stolen car and it was returned to the owner by the insurance company.

A blue serge coat found in the car was identified as an old coat belonging to Clyde Leath, former employe of the station. The coat had been hanging in the office.

No trace has yet been found of the missing filling station operator, Young Thomas, who was associated with his father, W. E. Thomas, in operation of the Magnolia Filling Station, in the same building with the Stevens Motor Co. and the Donaho Garage, was found to be missing from the station early Sunday morning, March 1. Disturbed office equipment and bedclothing on the cot on which the attendant slept indicated the possibility of a kidnapping and robbery. Between $100 and $150 in cash in the cash register was missing.

Baseball Plans To Be Decided At Meet Friday

Ozona's Entry In 1936 Permain League Depends On Action

Whether or not the Ozona Giants will take the field in competition for the West Texas baseball championship in the Permain Basin league for the 1936 season will be finally decided at a mass meeting of fans and all interested citizens to be held at the Hotel Ozona Friday night.

The meeting is called for 8 p. m. Every person interested in the question of maintenance of a baseball team in 1936 is urged to be present.

In an effort to determine, in advance of the meeting, as far as possible, whether or not backers of the team will be sufficiently interested to contribute the necessary amount of financial backing, a committee was making a solicitation this week for monthly contributions covering the period of play. The outcome of this solicitation and the interest displayed at the meeting Friday night will determine the 1936 baseball prospects here.

Practically the same team that copped the second half championship under the Crockett County banner last year will be available as a nucleus this year, officials of the club have indicated. In addition, there is prospect of additional pitching strength and an outfielder or two, handy with the stick, to bolster the team's chances to sweep the field to a championship.

To Demonstrate Cookery Here

Mrs. Johnetta Howard, nationally known home economist, will direct The Ozona Stockman's free cooking school, the "Kitchen Chautauqua," which is to be held at the Hotel Ozona, Thursday and Friday afternoons of next week. Every woman in Ozona is cordially invited to attend this two-day post graduate course in modern cookery and household management. The time is 2:30 to 4:30.

MANY VALUABLE LESSONS IN COOKERY OFFERED IN FREE COOKING SCHOOL NEXT WEEK

Mrs. Howard To Conduct Kitchen Chautauqua At Hotel Ozona

A two-day post graduate course in cooking, kitchen efficiency and home management, all absolutely free of charge, is offered housewives of Ozona in the Kitchen Chautauqua to be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Ozona Thursday and Friday of next week, March 19 and 20.

Ladies attending the school will be privileged to hear the interesting lectures and witness the expert demonstrations of the latest fashions in foods presented by Mrs. Johnetta Howard, nationally known expert on foods and home economics, who is being brought to Ozona to direct the Kitchen Chautauqua by the Ozona Stockman and cooperating business firms and national food distributors.

The cooking class will convene at 2:30 Thursday and Friday afternoons, continuing approximately two hours. In addition to valuable demonstrations on cookery, Mrs. Howard will offer pertinent suggestions, interesting hints and valuable pointers on how to manage the household to best advantage. Every minute of each daily session will be a busy one, filled with informative advice on the hundred and one problems that come up in the busy housewife's day.

An attractive modern electric kitchen, equipped with the newest Hotpoint electric range, Frigidaire, and all the new gadgets to make modern kitchen operations easier will be set up for use of the school director by the West Texas Utilities Company, which is cooperating with this newspaper in bringing Mrs. Howard to Ozona for the benefit of Ozona housewives.

Every woman in Ozona is invited to attend each session of the free cooking school. And the husbands, too, are invited and will be welcomed to the program—and maybe fed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Childers, Jr., and infant son, Hugh Graham, have returned to their home here from San Angelo.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES COMPETE FOR CASH PRIZE AT FREE COOKING SCHOOL

A cash prize of $5 will be awarded by this newspaper to the Ozona missionary society securing the largest registration at the Stockman's Kitchen Chautauqua, free cooking school to be held at the Hotel Ozona next Thursday and Friday afternoons.

Membership in the society is not required for registration in favor of a particular organization. Advance pledging of non-members to register under the banner of your society will enhance your chances to win the cash prize. The contest is simple—the favored society will be noted on each registrant's card and the society having the greatest number of registrants for the two days will be awarded the prize.

P.T.A. Resumes Meetings With Session Monday

Illness Has Caused Organization To Miss Last 2 Meetings

After having missed the last two meetings because of widespread illness in the city, the Ozona Parent-Teacher Association will meet at its scheduled hour next Monday afternoon, it was announced this week by officials of the organization.

Considerable important business has accumulated since the organization has missed the two scheduled meetings, and Mrs. Joe T. Davidson, president, urges that as many members as possible be present for the Monday session.

The program as outlined in the group's year book will not be used in Monday's session, it was announced. The program will be arranged to suit the needs of the session until pressing business matters are untangled.

Car Registration, Drivers' License Applications Lag

Less Than Three Weeks Remain For Securing Plates, License

Despite the fact that less than three weeks remain in which to secure 1936 automobile license plates and the newly required driver's license for every person who operates a motor vehicle, registrations are coming in unusually slow, according to reports from the tax collector's office.

The issuance of drivers licenses has added much to the burden of the collector's office force this year, and unless registrations pick up considerably at once and continue until the deadline, the force will be unable to handle the last minute rush, in the opinion of Tom Casbeer, deputy in charge of issuing auto registrations. Miss Rachel Schrader, deputy tax assessor, is in charge of the work of issuing drivers' licenses.

Less than a hundred motor vehicles had been registered the middle of the week, with an estimated 700 more to be registered in the next three weeks. Between 600 and 700 drivers' licenses had been issued, and an estimated several times that many more to come. A personal application is required for the drivers' license.

"THE MAGIC OF WELL-PREPARED FOOD"

There is a magic something about food—a quality that, conceived in the imagination of the cook, is in subtle and devious ways expressed until food itself catches the power to awaken delight in those who look and partake. To sit down to a dinner bereft of it is indeed a sad proceeding. Unnecessary, to o-

Mrs. Howard for cultivating the thousand and one tricks that make food tempting is the smart housewife's delight, her play to the gallery, so to speak. Making some meat and fish—everyday ordinary varieties—appealing and appetizing is what I call, "putting on the parsley." For parsley is the most widely used garnish there is. However, a sprig of parsley for every drab dish is not the whole story. Food must be brought to its delicious point of discrimination and ingenuity. Nor will parsley, curly, fresh and green though it may be, ever make up for an ill-cooked roast, or still be a festive touch if used too often.

Just consider two effects a dinner of this fare can give—pot roast, potatoes, carrots and bread and butter. Picture it first with no interest taken in it except as sustenance and you will find it rather dreary.

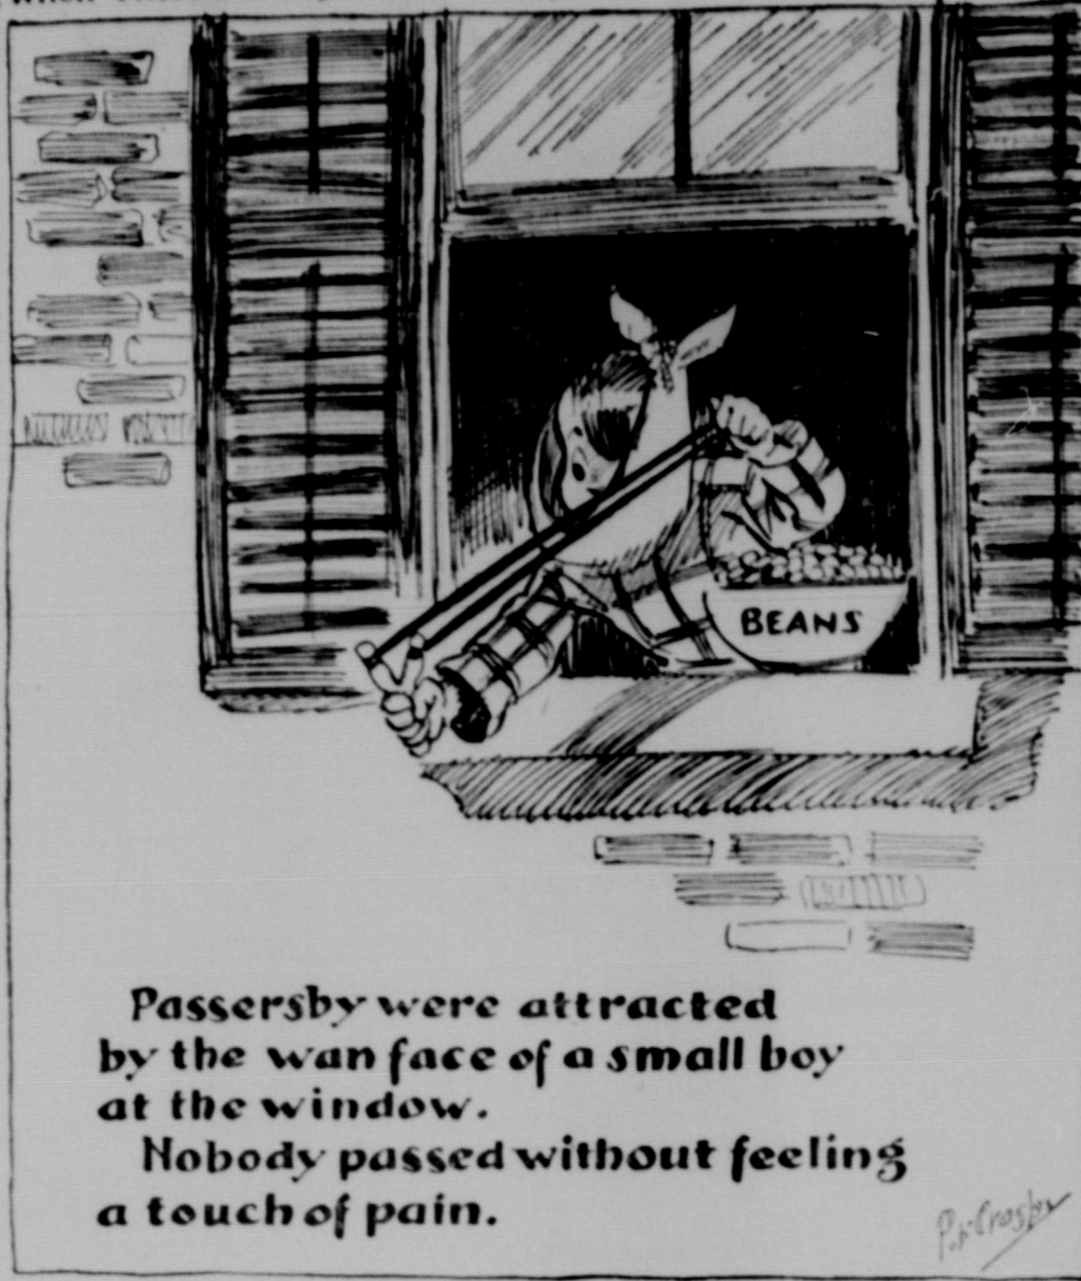

But if you sear the pot roast to a dark brown with slices of onion, and a fraction of a clove of garlic in the pan, then boil it slowly for hours in a small amount of water to which the juice of canned tomato is added to flavor, it will take on an entirely different aspect. Just try it sometime. Then serve it on your very best platter, (if it is silver, all the better) and pour part of this rich gravy around it. Top the meat with parsley and serve the extra sauce separately.

There is nothing quite so good with a pot roast as a baked potato, done to a turn, popped open and sprinkled with paprika and a bit of butter. The carrots, if cut in lattice shape with the wiggly cutter that does it so quickly, or in slender strips, are pleasantly dressy. A compote of watermelon pickle, a dish of celery curls and ripe olives, and bread sticks and butter balls bring to the dinner table an air of festivity. No good cook will allow expensive cuts of meat to come to the table in mediocre fashion. A crackling brown is the fundamental decoration for roasts, steaks and chops. This crispy brown may be enhanced, but not made up for, by parsley. For the sake of variety on different occasions, use water cream, mushrooms, triangles of toast or strips of pepper.

As important as making the most of the meat dishes are the touches the clever chef has for the fish. Wedged-shaped pieces of lemon and parsley are the necessities if you wish to astonish and please your guests with a bit of broiled fish. Hard-boiled eggs and paprika give zest to a cream sauce served with the kinds of fish that are broiled, such as cod, salmon, haddock and red snapper.

SCIENCE POINTS WAY TO PERFECT ROAST

YES, even Friend Husband can now turn out the perfect roast. The experienced cook has no advantage over the beginner.

All because today roasting meat has become a matter of mechanical precision. A better knowledge of cookery acquired through thorough research, plus the very latest in kitchen gadgets, has put this business of roasting on a scientific basis—and it's as easy as falling off the proverbial log, say the experts. In the upper left-hand corner of the illustration above is the meat thermometer which plays a big part in this story of roasting, because it eliminates any uncertainty as to when the roast has reached the proper degree of doneness. The steps in its use are simple, as shown by the pictures.

1. Inserting thermometer in the center of the thickest portion of a lamb roast.
2. Placing roast, with thermometer inserted, in a moderate oven (300°-350° F.)
3. Removing roast from oven when column has reached point marked "Lamb" on metal plate.
4. The perfect roast—a delight to the appetite and to the eye.

THAT GOOD GULF GASOLINE

22-Year-Old Chevrolet, Licensed And Still In Daily Service, Wins Owner, 70-Years-Old, Brand New '36 Model, Millionth Car of 1935

Chevrolet Finds Pennsylvania Owner of Oldest of Make Now In Regular Use In U. S.

Hiram H. Dohner, 70, of Quentin, Lebanon County, Pa., was found to be the owner of the oldest Chevrolet licensed and in daily use in the United States in a contest conducted by Chevrolet Motor Company recently. Mr. Dohner will be presented with the one millionth car built in 1935, a 1936 model.

Mr. Dohner owns and drives Chevrolet No. 470, a 1913 Royal Mail roadster, which he purchased from a Chevrolet dealer in Lebanon, Pa. He has already received official notification from Chevrolet officials, and will shortly give his present 22-year-old car to Detroit, where he will inspect Chevrolet factories and take delivery of his new 1936 model.

Mr. Dohner is a carpenter in Quentin, a hamlet in the valley of the Susquehanna, with a population of 500 people. He has been a carpenter all his life but like the versatile and ingenious people who live in small towns, he can do many things. He can take care of an automobile in a way that would prove surprising to the modern car owner. The fact that his present car has served him and served him well for 22 years, adding up a total of more than a quarter million miles, proves the value of motor car care.

In recent conversations with Chevrolet officials, who appraised him of his good fortune in winning a new car as a reward for his care of his old one, some pertinent facts about America and some tangible things about the results of the machine age were brought out. Chief among these are some elusive shadings concerning that phrase in the Constitution of the United States which reads—"the pursuit of happiness."

Back in 1914 Mr. Dohner, who was born and raised in the little town in which he now lives, needed work and he sought work in the larger towns surrounding his home. One of his jobs at that time was on the new factory of the chocolate company which gives Hershey, Pa. its name. There was a man who drove a horse and carriage over to Lebanon, five miles away, and then Mr. Dohner took the train to Hershey. One day the man stopped his stage line and Mr. Dohner was in a quandary about transportation. He talked it over with his wife, Mary, and they bought the Chevrolet.

That solved his problem. He was still able to live in Quentin and drive to his work with personal transportation, the product of the rising mass production of the machine age, which brought the price of the automobile within reach of nearly everyone.

Hiram Dohner continues to drive the same automobile that he bought in 1914 and it is in excellent condition. He is still a carpenter and he makes a comfortable living.

But it doesn't cost much for living in Quentin. Hiram has a two-and-a-half story frame house on a lot that is about a half acre and he has a chicken house and a dozen or so fruit trees and a garden patch. And his wife has her flower bushes and racks for blooming vines.

MAKE IT UNANIMOUS!

Hauling of trash and rubbish collected during the city-wide clean-up campaign, sponsored by the Ozona Woman's Club and financed by the county, is scheduled to start Monday.

If you have not yet cleaned up the premises, boxed or sacked the accumulation of cans and rubbish convenient to the trucks, put on a whirlwind campaign this week-end to the end that Ozona might go 100 per cent for the clean-up this year—Centennial year when all Texas is dressing up for its millions of expected visitors.

Ozona is going to entertain several thousands of visitors in July for its Rodeo, Race Meet, Stock Show and Sale July 2, 3 and 4. A clean-up now will put the city in shape for presenting its best Sunday appearance when Rodeo time arrives. Your neighbor is cleaning up—get in there and do your part. Let's make it unanimous.

Crockett County's commissioners court is to be complimented on its recent accomplishment in making an advantageous refunding of outstanding road bond obligations of the county. A reduction in interest rate that will mean an appreciable saving to the county over a period of years was accomplished in the deal, and the sorely ridden taxpayer appreciates a saving when one is effected for him.

Gulf Gasoline Made To Suit Different Weather Conditions

A number of interesting facts about gasoline not generally known to the public have been revealed by one of the world's top producers and refiners of oil, in connection with a series of advertisements begun in the Stockman this week.

"In adopting the phrase, 'Kept in Step with the Calendar', as our newspaper advertising theme for 1936," explains W. R. Huber, Gulf's advertising manager, "We believe that few people realize that gasoline is a mixture of more than 1,000 different substances, and that certain of these chemical properties must be carefully controlled according to weather conditions to give the best possible performance.

"It is impossible for anyone to manufacture a single gasoline which will start easily in Maine in February and which will not cause vapor-lock in Texas in July. It is expensive to manufacture and market different gasolines for different climatic conditions, but to properly serve the motorists best interests, this cannot be avoided.

"That Good Gulf Gasoline sold in Massachusetts in summer is not the same gasoline sold there in the spring and fall. And this, in turn, is not the same gasoline sold in winter. Furthermore, our gasoline sold in Ohio in winter is not the same as the gasoline sold in Florida in winter.

"Gasolines that are ideal for quick starting in cold weather may be quite inferior in hot weather. To insure perfect performance and the highest mileage throughout the country and at all seasons, That Good Gulf Gasoline is 'Kept in Step with the Calendar'—hence all of it goes to work—none of it goes to waste."

EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE

An unusual opportunity is afforded Ozona people Saturday of this week to become familiar with the objectives of educational leaders of Texas in the present program of the state department of education and organizations of educators over the state toward curriculum revision in Texas.

West Texas Holds Centennial Stage

SAN ANGELO, Texas, March 11—The first "Western Life" celebration of the Texas Centennial year, opened here Saturday, March 7, moved Centennial observance interest back to the West Texas section. One of the first celebrations of the year was the New Year Day's event held in El Paso.

Centennial activity, centered in South Texas last week in Independence day celebrations, was carried back to West Texas thru three official celebrations, the Stock Show and Rodeo at San Angelo, March 7 to 11, the Centennial Religious celebration at Lubbock on March 12, and the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth from March 12 to March 22.

The San Angelo show and rodeo was the forerunner of numerous Centennial celebrations to be held throughout the year in West and Southwest Texas. Their depiction of cattle land and "Western Life" days and events are expected to make them popular attractions during the Centennial year observance.

Love-Making In Texas, Then To Now, Subject Of Pageant At T.C.U.

FORT WORTH, March 11—A phase of Texas history, neglected to date, is to be given attention at Texas Christian University.

The history of love-making in Texas will be the theme of the annual pageant given by the girls' physical education classes at T.C.U., the date this year being Saturday, May 9.

The name of the pageant has not yet been decided upon, but the book is being written by seven girls who are enrolled in a course in pageantry, taught by Mrs. Helen Walker Murphy, head of the girls' physical education department.

"Oh, Daddy!" exclaimed the six-year-old city-raised child when she saw a swamp of cat-tails while driving in the country, "look at the hot dog garden!"

WEATHER MYTHS

Perhaps many credulous persons are now watching for a verification of their weather predictions, based on whether the ground hog saw his shadow in their localities on Ground Hog Day, February 2. And even if their predictions are not verified, they will doubtless offer some sort of alibi for that venerable forecaster.

Then about March 21 these same folks will watch for the "equinoctial storm" which is supposed to occur about the time when the sun "crosses the line."

Of course no one with any knowledge of meteorology pays any attention to either of these ancient superstitions, but in the popular mind they cling with grim tenacity.

Owing to the erratic habits of the weather, any kind of predictions will come true occasionally, but scientific observers tell us that in the present state of human knowledge it is impossible to predict weather conditions more than a very few days ahead.

From the records of the last 50 years, kept by the United States Weather Bureau, it is shown that storms are no more frequent during equinoctial periods than at other times of the year. In fact, the most destructive of all storms—western tornadoes and West Indian hurricane—occur principally in the summer and fall, at periods farthest removed from the equinoxes.

But old superstitions die hard, and those concerning the weather are among the most persistent—Kerrville Mountain Sun.

T.C.U. Plays Safe By Copyrighting Its College Songs

FORT WORTH, March 11—The Horned Frogs are not going to be caught up in the pother that upset the Longhorns during the last few weeks.

Texas Christian University has officially applied for copyrights on her two college songs, one the Alma Mater hymn and the other the athletic fight song, "Horned Frogs, We Are All for You."

Prof. Claude Sammis, head of the music department, wrote the words and music to the athletic song, while the words and music to the Alma Mater hymn were written by Glenn Canfield, a student. Both were first used in 1928.

LAUNDRY Do It!

MRS. JOHNETTA HOWARD, Nationally famous home economics expert, is a strong believer in eliminating drudgery from the household routine. "Laundry prices are too low to justify home laundry in any home," says Mrs. Howard.

In the interest of sanitation, choose a reliable Laundry, say home economists.

Your health and the health of your family is too important to take chances.

The story of your laundry service, briefly, is one of unlimited quantities of filtered rain-soft water, plenty of pure soap and scientific knowledge of how to use amazingly gentle equipment. Your clothes are washed without rubbing, and are rinsed in many baths until every particle of loosened dirt is removed from the fabric.

There is pronounced difference between professional and domestic laundering—a difference that strongly emphasizes the fact that laundry washed clothes must be cleaner, sweeter and longer wearing.

BIRTH CONTROL FOR BANKS

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: The concern of the American Bankers' Association, lest a deluge of new banks, State and National, follow upon the improved business conditions, is entirely constructive. The association plans to combat the tendency to new banks by effecting a proper relationship between the needs of the community and its existing banking facilities. It was not its wish to deprive any community of banking conveniences; but simply to prevent "overbanking."

Thirty years ago, under loose laws, banks were organized at every crossroads. Second banks were established in one-bank towns. Things went along swimmingly for a time; the country was prosperous and everybody had money. Then hard times struck, and weak banks began to go down. In several cases they took down the strong bank neighbor which had been weakened financially by the establishment of more banks than the community needed.

To prevent a repetition of such a situation, legislatures tightened up the qualifications for establishing banks. These worked to some extent; but the program of the American Banking Association is needed. It is a demonstrable proposition in banking that one bank with a million dollars of resources is vastly more valuable to the community than two with a half million each.

DEAD BUT DIDN'T KNOW IT!

Can a man be dead and not be aware of that fact?

B. W. Hutcherson tells a story of seeing a man's car turn over several times on the road between Ozona and Barnhart several years ago.

When Mr. Hutcherson got along side the car, on its wheels again, the driver was still grasping the wheel. But let the Sutton sheriff tell it:

"I told him—you're dead even though you may not know it. I'll see that your folks are told and that you're given a decent burial. That's the way those things happen. You'll realize in a minute that you're no longer a living, breathing citizen but are just a corpse, ready for old Mother Earth."

The driver hardly knew how to take such words from the stranger for he was uninjured. There hadn't been a sign of a smile on the face of the stranger. Finally he became angry and broke out with: "I'm not hurt and I'll show you I'm not dead, either."

He crawled out from under the wheel and ran about fifty yards out in the pasture, "just to show he wasn't dead," as Mr. Hutcherson tells it.—News, Sonora.

on a limited budget and members of the committee are urging that residents who have trash hauled regularly not disrupt this plan, but have the hauling done as usual to make the available hauling fund go as far as possible toward a thorough clean-up of the city.

Owners of vacant property are being solicited to make arrangements for cleaning of such property. One dirty vacant lot can spoil the effect of an entire block of thoroughly cleaned premises, it was pointed out. Owners of such lots are urged to make arrangements at once to have them cleaned and county trucks will haul off trash. The truck drivers are being instructed to haul nothing that is burnable, residents being urged to burn every bit of trash that can be burned.

'Lemmon-ade Tournament' Waxes Warm As Three Lemmons Brothers Captain Teams In Junior High Basketball Tournament

It's a family matter, this basketball tournament now in full heat among teams of the Junior High School, and things may look a little sour when three Lemmons brothers, captains of their respective teams in the three-way battle for the Junior High championship, lead their teams into the critical forays.

Stanley Lemmons as captain of the fifth graders, Bobby Lemmons as captain of the sixth grade squad, and Howard Lemmons, captain of the seventh grade team, may find it difficult to maintain peace and harmony around the supper table when the round robin tourney, now in progress, reaches the critical stage.

Anyway, the school boys, who have dubbed it the "Lemmon-ade Tournament," are certain that Captain Lemmons is going to pilot his team to victory, and they are rooting for the best team to win, brotherly love go hang.

The next game is at 4 p. m., March 17, Captain Bobby of the sixth grade, engaging Captain Howard of the seventh.

'Crackshot' Missed, Now 'Crackshot' Just Isn't That Any More

The truth is out at last! "Crackshot" is a misnomer for the dusky exponent of the high art of imparting a high gloss finish to shoes of patrons of an Ozona barber shop.

"Crackshot" is not such a crackshot as he was evidently "cracked up" to be, if reports from official sources in San Angelo early in the week are well founded.

"Crackshot" was placed in jail here Monday by Sheriff Willis on instructions from San Angelo officers, who said the negro was wanted there in connection with an alleged knife attack on another negro. In addition to wielding the blade, the Ozona black fell from grace in the eyes of those who applied the nickname to him by missing with several pistol shots he is alleged to have flung at his opponent. The negro was taken to San Angelo by officers from that city who came for him Monday.
