Schools Open With Complete Teaching Staff

Two Last-Minute Additions; Opening Exercises Monday

By two last-minute additions to fill vacancies created by resignations, Ozona public schools opened Monday with a 100 percent complete faculty, one of the few schools in the state so fortunate.

Opening exercises for the 52nd annual school term were held in the high school auditorium Monday morning, exercises which were captured by the largest assembly of new teachers on the platform and patrons of any previous session, and the unprecedented presentation of a high school diploma to a summer school graduate.

The principal address of the morning's exercises was delivered by the Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of the First Baptist Church here.

A resignation last Saturday left the position of home economics teacher vacant for the opening of schools, but before the first day of school had closed, Miss Katharine Marie Strother of Corsicana, sister of Miss Faye Strother, kindergarten teacher, had accepted the position and was on her way here to assume her duties.

Miss Strother was to have arrived last night and assumed her classroom duties this morning. She is a 1942 graduate of Texas State College for Women at Denton and taught homemaking last year in the high school at Mildred, Texas. A total of 20 pupils, enrolled for the two home economics classes, awaited her arrival.

The last remaining vacancy, one of two new positions created this year in the Latin-American school, was filled at the last minute by employment of Mrs. Nell Smith of Ozona, a former teacher in the school. She will teach the second grade in the Latin-American school.

An unprecedented ceremony in the local school system, that of awarding a diploma at the opening exercises, came about through war-time necessity for streamlining. Jim Ad Harvick, who had completed all required work for graduation by attending summer school in San Angelo and taking some work here under Supt. Denham in the summer months, was awarded his high school diploma by Max

Driver Quits Wild Truck On Run-Away Down Lancaster Hill

By quick thinking and quick action, J. B. Klein of San Antonio, driver of a loaded truck and trailer which ran out of control down Lancaster hill 30 miles west of Ozona Wednesday morning, probably saved his life by jumping from the run-away truck before it had attained too great a speed.

The truck, a C & F Motor Lines truck out of San Antonio, loaded with war goods, was headed west, with Klein driving. As it started down the steep two-mile-long grade into the Pecos valley, the truck's drive shaft broke and since the brakes will not hold a loaded truck down such a grade, it was "free wheeling" from then on and Klein quit the truck, suffering only minor cuts and bruises. He was brought here for treatment and is at the Hotel Ozona recovering from his injuries.

The truck, after bounding back and forth between the rock wall on the outer side of the highway and the face of the rock cut, finally came to rest with the trailer still on the highway and the truck hanging precariously over the 600-foot deep canyon.

Iraan Man, Killed In Plane Crash, To Be Buried Here

Lt. Howard Johnson One Of Five Killed In N. C. Explosion

The body of Lt. Howard R. Johnson, former resident of Iraan, Texas, where he was employed by an oil company before the war, and a son-in-law of Sam Murray, Sheffield rancher, will be laid to rest in Cedar Hill Cemetery here this afternoon, the first service man killed in this war to be buried in Ozona's cemetery.

Lt. Johnson was killed last Saturday in a mid-air explosion of an Army transport plane near Fayetteville, North Carolina. Lt. Johnson was pilot of the plane and he and four other members of the crew were killed in the unexplained accident.

The body of Lt. Johnson was brought by train to San Angelo where it was met by a Joe Oberkamp funeral coach and taken overland to Sheffield, where funeral services are to be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Sam Murray home.

Following the rites at Sheffield, the funeral procession will leave for Ozona and burial services at Cedar Hill cemetery at about 6:00 p.m.

Lt. Johnson was an employe of the old Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas Co., at Iraan before the war. He was married about three years ago to Miss Lucile Murray of Sheffield, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Murray. He entered training as an air force pilot soon after the outbreak of war. He is survived by the widow and his father who resides in Illinois.

Nearly Section Of Ad Harvick Ranch Is Burned Over

Between a half and three-quarters of a section of pasture land on the Ad Harvick ranch north of Ozona was burned over Monday night before fire trucks from the Ozona department and volunteer fighters could bring the blaze under control.

The fire started from the highway, believed to have been from a match or cigarette thrown from a passing car.

Mrs. R. E. Hardberger and son, Billy, of O'Donnell, Texas, were here last week to visit Mrs. Hardberger's daughters, Mrs. Pleas Childress and Mrs. Lowell Littleton. Billy Hardberger was on leave from his duties as flight instructor in the Army Air Corps primary training school at Mustang Field, El Reno, Okla.

Bank Deposits Reach All-Time Peak In Ozona

Ozona National Has $2,400,000; Up $600,000 In 2 Months

War-time prosperity in the ranching section is evidenced by a new peak in total bank deposits reached this week by the Ozona National Bank.

An all-time record high in deposits, totalling more than $2,400,000, was reached by the Ozona financial institution this week, it was announced by Scott Peters, active vice president. And the fall shearing and lamb delivery program is just getting under way.

The bank's deposits zoomed a total of more than $600,000 during the past two months, since the bank's last financial statement made on June 30.

The late summer increase to the new high level is attributed to the prevailing strong livestock prices and the recent beginning of the lamb selling season. Too, Crockett county ranchers have been selling off many thousands of head of old ewes, now in considerable demand, and restocking with younger animals, and that has brought in large amounts of cash, as did the recent appraisal of some 300,000 pounds of 12-months wool stored in the Ozona Wool and Mohair Co. warehouse here.

Crockett County Lambs And Old Ewes Moving Out To Buyers

Harvest time on the West Texas sheep range is at hand and the fall movement of lambs from Crockett county ranches is already getting under way. Lamb and old ewe buyers have been in this section in recent days and have purchased nearly 18,000 head of lambs and between 12,000 and 15,000 head of old ewes.

O. N. Humphrey of Kansas City recently purchased upwards of 13,000 head of lambs at 11 cents from: Floyd Henderson, 2,500 head; Mrs. A. W. Clayton, 1,400 head; Hugh Childress 700 head; S. S. Perner, 800 head; Lee Childress, 5,000 head; and P. L. Childress, Jr., 3,000 head.

Amos Womble has purchased 1600 head of lambs from V. I. Pierce—L. F. Sneed, 2,000 head from J. M. Dudley and 400 head from Hillery Phillips, all at the 11 cent figure.

Rhodes Ingertson of Amarillo and E. S. Campbell of Paint Rock, who last month purchased approximately 12,000 head of old ewes from Crockett county ranchers for the Cook Packing Co. of Scotts Bluff, Neb., were back in Ozona this week hunting more.

Rotary Plans Ladies Night For Faculty Members

Teachers To Be Guests At Dinner, Program Tuesday Evening

A dinner and program honoring all members of the faculty of Ozona public schools will be staged next Tuesday evening by members of the Ozona Rotary Club, it was decided by the membership at the Tuesday luncheon of the club.

The affair will be "ladies night" program for the club and will replace the regular Tuesday noon luncheon. Club members will invite teacher guests, along with their Rotary Anns, and the evening's program will be devoted to honoring the teachers and extending them a cordial welcome to Ozona.

The program will be at the community Center with a Mexican supper served by the Latin-American Parent-Teacher Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ripple are living in the house formerly occupied by the R. H. Garners.

Simmons Loses Finger In Sausage Grinding Machine

Ernest Simmons, who last week launched out in business for himself when he opened the Ozona Market in association with Hubert Baker, suffered the loss of the first joint of the middle finger on his right hand Monday morning when his hand became entangled in a sausage grinding machine.

Mr. Simmons was feeding the power-driven grinding machine when his finger was caught in the mechanism. But for the fact that he shut off the power to stop the machine almost immediately, he would have suffered more serious injury. The finger was amputated at the first joint.

Over 7 Million Gallons Of Water On Ozona Yards

Sizzling Month Of August Record For Volume Of Water Used

If you have tried to keep grass and shrubbery alive in your yard during the blistering month of August, you probably won't need to be told that there was an all-time water use record hung up in Ozona last month.

Records of the Crockett County Water Control and Improvement District here reveal the months total metered water sales at nearly seven and a half million gallons and unmetered users, who pay a flat rate, estimated to have used another million or so. There were several customers who used over 200,000 gallons and many over the 100,000 gallon mark.

A large number of water users have not yet been placed on meters because of the war-time scarcity which interrupted the district's expansion and improvement program, and for that reason an accurate check of gallons pumped is impossible, but Manager Bill Cooper calls August the biggest month for the two big pumps which bring up water from the 400-foot deep wells. A limited number of new meters are being received monthly by the district management and are being installed as received, Mr. Cooper said.

The water company gave a total of 254,000 gallons of water during the record month of August to promotion of Victory gardening in Ozona, the records show. Those who are nursing Victory gardens are granted a concession of 2,000 gallons of free water each month after the first 5,000 gallons is used. There are 127 such gardeners on the company's books.

During August also the water concern sold 159,000 gallons of water for hauling to nearby ranches to relieve water shortages resulting from the excessive heat and lack of wind to turn windmills.

While many Texas cities have faced serious water shortages during the summer, with streams drying and wells failing, Ozona's supply seems inexhaustible. Tests on the two big wells from which water is pumped to supply this city show that the water level remains fairly constant even with the two big electric pumps in operation.

Duquesne Oil Corp. To Drill Wildcat On Shannon Lands

A new wildcat location for Crockett County about 20 miles northwest of Ozona, has been announced by the Duquesne Oil Corp.

The test will be the No. 1 J. M. Shannon estate, 660 feet from the west and north lines of section 11-BB-EL&RR. It is scheduled to go to 2,750 feet with drilling to start on Sept. 5 with rotary tools.

Fred Turner and Phillips No. 1 Shannon, 2,310 from the south, 3,630 feet from the west line of league 3, Archer County school land, was drilling in line at 2,022 with the hole full of water to guard against gas blow out.

Long Awaited Rain Spots Parts Of Crockett Co.

2 1/2 Inch Fall Reported South Of Ozona; Light Sprinkle Here

Although covering but spotted areas, rain, first to touch Crockett county soil in nearly 2 months, visited areas of the county to the south of Ozona last night.

A fall estimated at 2 1/2 inches was reported on the Arthur Phillips ranch. Other ranchmen in that area reported good showers with some in-between spots still dry. Hillery Phillips had received 1 1/2 inches this morning and it was still raining. Massie West and adjoining areas reported falls up to 2 inches. Sherman Taylor reports a good inch. Some draws were running in the area and cars were reported stuck in the mud in the lane at the Miller ranch.

After sweltering through the blistering hot month of August with scarcely a cloud in the sky the whole month, Ozonans were refreshed Tuesday afternoon with a very light shower. None of the Wednesday night fall visited Ozona.

Sharp Drop In Enrollment For High School

Grade School Off Four, Latin-American Has Increase

A sharp drop in high school enrollment, which was offset by a lesser decline in grade school and an increase in the Latin-American school, accounted for an overall decrease of approximately 4 per cent in enrollment for the Ozona school system on the opening day of the new term over last year's opening day, figures released yesterday by Supt. C. S. Denham reveal.

Total enrollment in all schools on the opening day was 371, a decline of 15 from last year's first day. Subsequent enrollment of late pupils has brought this number up from 15 to 20, the superintendent estimated, although no definite check has been made since the opening day.

High school enrollment showed the greatest decline. On the opening day, the high school enrolled a total of 61 pupils, a drop of 19, from an opening day enrollment of 80 last year. In the grade school, the opening day found 144 pupils at their desks, a drop of only four from last year.

The Latin-American school was the only one showing an increase, its opening enrollment being 14 greater than last year. The Latin-American pupils numbered a total of 166 on opening day.

Ranchers May Now Make Applications For AAA Payment

Ranchers who have completed their AAA range improvement work program for 1943, whether they have used up their entire allotment or not, may make application for payment, Miss Betty Bratcher, administrative officer of the AAA in this county, announced this week.

Heretofore, payment applications could not be made before Nov. 30 unless the entire allotment had been used, but now ranchers who have done all they intend to do for the year, may sign a statement to that effect and make applications at once.

So far eight applications have been mailed to state headquarters and ten more will be completed this week. All except one of this number have used their entire allotment for the year. Ranchmen who are ready to make application are asked to call at the AAA office in the courthouse to complete the necessary forms.

COUNTY QUOTA 3RD WAR LOAN DRIVE IS $365,900

Scott Peters Chairman For Biggest Finance Drive In History

A challenge to the patriotism of Crockett county is seen in the announcement from state headquarters of the War Finance Committee for Texas of a quota of $365,900 assigned to Crockett county as its part in the government's 15 billion dollar Third War Loan Drive which is scheduled to be launched all over the nation on September 9.

Scott Peters, active vice president of the Ozona National Bank, has been appointed chairman of the War Finance Committee in this county by Nathan Adams, president of the First National Bank of Dallas and state chairman of the committee which seeks to raise Texas' part of $420,000,000 in the coming Third War Loan Drive.

"This is a big assignment and a challenge to each of us—but I am sure that we can be successful in attaining our goal with the wholehearted cooperation that I am sure you will give us," Mr. Adams wrote in notifying Mr. Peters of his appointment to the chairmanship.

The quota assigned to this county is an increase of $31,900 over the quota in the Second War Loan drive in April, when the county's part was set at $334,000.

Whereas a large part of the Second War Loan drive in April was subscribed by commercial banks, the September drive seeks to dig deep into the pockets of individual investors. All of the $15 billion sought in the treasury war finance drive is to be subscribed by individuals, none by commercial banks. In view of this fact, the quota assigned to Crockett county means that citizens must double and even triple their April purchases if the county is to meet its obligation to the government and to America's fighting men at the front, the county chairman pointed out.

Securities offered by the government as eligible for purchase by individuals in this drive range from the $25 to $1,000 Series E War bonds through Series F and G savings bonds, Treasury sav-

The time is 7:30 at the Scout cabin.

Plans for the year's Scout activities will be made at a meeting following the outdoor supper, it was announced. Boys attending Tuesday night's meeting spent the evening, following a discussion of Scout prospects for the year, in getting the cabin in condition for the weekly meetings planned for the school year. Members of the local Scout committee, under sponsorship of the Rotary Club, are hopeful for widespread interest and support for the boy program this year.

West Texas is in for its biggest fall wool shearing season, likely, for the announced government price is $1.08, clean basis, meaning about 45¢ in the grease—it's a different story from the eight and 12-months basis—Texas chief wool appraiser, Rome Shield, says an average of three appraising committees work daily in Texas and have already appraised around 21,000,000 lbs. this year—Live animals make the big news on the Texas range but Carl Huntington, San Angelo renderer, back from a state meeting of animal renderers in Dallas, has a bit of news: Feeding of tankage (processed dead animals) and meat scraps to Texas livestock last year increased 35%—Huntington says animal tankage has the highest protein content of any feed—running to 50 and 60% and better—he adds that animal renderers see a booming business ahead in tankage and meat scraps, once fed only to hogs and poultry—now they are increasingly being used to feed both cattle and horses and feeding tests in Illinois now are going to prove illuminating—soap and glycerine are the other big by-products of dead animals—Huntington says the drought hasn't caused any deaths on the range in his sector around San Angelo—West Texas isn't the only dry place says (Continued On Last Page)

WHAT NEXT? The OPA has launched a scheme which grants free postage under the franking law to anyone wishing to report price violations.

News reports state that "uniform complaint" forms have been sent to OPA regional offices, and by them distributed to various organizations such as labor unions, veterans' posts, women's organizations and consumer groups.

These forms are official. They need no postage. Of you don't like your neighborhood grocer, all you have to do is look around his shelves for some inadvertent infraction of the inexplicable OPA rules and turn him in—it doesn't cost a cent.

Apparently the OPA is doing its level best to frighten retail distributors out of business, even while paying lip service to the "honest merchant."

Guard Against Loss From Grass Fires With Insurance Coverage. We offer a policy that should be especially attractive to ranchmen—covering loss from grass fires—an ever-present threat in these dry times.

the face of such tactics. How much more stimulating to hard-pressed merchants if the same effort that has been expended to catch a few willful price violators, were put forth to ease the burden on legitimate distributors.

Steady Income Gain For Texas Farmers

AUSTIN, Texas—War time's steady gain in farm cash income was continued in Texas during July, as agricultural income during the month totaled $74,000,000 as compared with $57,000,000 during the same month of 1942.

Higher prices for farm products rather than increased production accounted for most of the gain, Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director of the Bureau, pointed out. Farm cash income so far in 1943 has reached the figure of $464,000,000, or 38 per cent more than that for a corresponding period of last year, Dr. Buechel revealed.

Texas Draft Head Says Fathers Owe As Much As 18-Year-Olds

General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, Friday made public a digest of his remarks at a headquarters staff conference on the subject of the induction of fathers. He said:

"I am asked many times every day—and I know all of you are—and I know all of you are—about the drafting of fathers. If it could be given one convincing argument that 18, 19 or 20 year old boy, unmarried, owes a greater moral obligation to fight for his country than the father of children, then I'd be glad to 'go over to the camp' of those who think fathers should not have to serve in the armed forces.

"This is a young man's war. The older men cannot stand the terrific strain of present-day combat duty. The man in his thirties may stand up to the gaff for two or three or four days, but after that he is done and becomes a liability instead of an asset in the front lines. That does not mean, however, that there are not thousands upon thousands of other jobs in the armed services which can be handled by the older men.

"This drafting-of-fathers controversy, of which so much has been made is a potent weapon in the hands of those who are most interested in slowing up our war effort through creating confusion and unrest among our people. It has even been used to strike a glancing blow on the heads of some of our lawmakers.

"We should analyze carefully the sources from which emanates all of this disturbing propaganda concerning fathers. The great hue and cry does not come from the fathers themselves. From my personal observations I am convinced that the vast, vast majority of the fathers feel it is not only their duty but their privilege to take their place in the armed services in this war to preserve everything which is precious to us. Thousands have already done so. If fathers should not be taken now, then what real right have we to retain the services of those fathers already there? What would the discharge of all fathers now serving mean? It would mean the disruption, in a greater or less degree, of our fighting teams—our fighting units; it would mean prolongation of the war; it would mean that many hundreds of boys who would otherwise come back to their homes will not come back—ever."

The information needed is a copy of your 1942 income tax return; cancelled checks or other evidence of income tax paid on March 15th and June 15th, 1943.

APPLIANCE TROUBLE?

CALL YOUR REPAIRMAN!

Your repairman, if you stop to think, is one of the most essential workers around any industry today. You see, since the manufacture of appliances has stopped, the dealers' shelves are getting mighty empty. And that's where the repairman and you come in! The new ones that would normally be coming off the lines have gone to war. So, it's up to us to make the ones we have on hand last for the duration.

Electric appliances were made to last for many years—and they will if given proper care and servicing. By keeping your refrigerator, range, food mixer, iron, etc. in tiptop working conditions—by keeping them clean, shining, and fit—you can help win the victory on the home front.

And don't forget to call your repairman, when repairs are necessary. He's a busy man—in fact, he is already working overtime, but he'll be glad to help you, because he knows that it's up to you and him to KEEP 'EM WORKING!!

Three From Twice-Champ Lion Squad To Enter Southwest Conference Schools

At least three Southwest Conference football teams of 1943 will share in gridiron material available from the long-to-be-remembered Ozona High School football team which captured the bi-district championship title two successive years, in 1941 and 1942.

Two mainstays of the team's backfield left this week for universities in the Southwest Conference, both to try for football, and both, in the opinion of local fans, likely to make the grade. L. B. (Bud) Cox, ball-carrying quarterback on the champion Lions, will enroll in Southern Methodist University this fall and left early in the week to be on hand for early football practice. Bud is likely to make the Mustangs a hand, since rules have been relaxed in wartime to permit freshmen to play on the Varsity squad.

The T.C.U. Horned Frogs will inherit a speed merchant in fleet Roy Coates, left-handed pass thrower, punter and speedy ball toter, who was an important cog in the smooth-working Lion backfield. Roy also left early this week to get in on early grid workouts.

And, A & M College is to share in the talent from the twice-champion Lion squad. Jim Ad Harvick, a power in the line for the Lions of the last two years, will leave shortly for College Station to enroll for the regular college course and will be out for the first grid workout. Jim Ad was not a Senior last year but speeded up his graduation by taking two credits in summer school this summer, to receive his sheepskin a year early. He was awarded a diploma at the opening exercises of the local schools Monday, the first such award in the history of the school.

County Quota—

ings notes Series C, 2½ and 2 percent treasury bonds and ½ percent certificates of indebtedness, Series E, with maturity values up to a million dollars—a range of securities suitable for every pocketbook.

Although the drive does not officially get under way until September 9, it has been announced that all bond sales beginning September 1 will be counted toward the county's quota.

Within the next few days an active, aggressive county committee will be formed to take the Third War Loan drive message to every citizen in Crockett county. Mr. Peters said. This group of patriotic citizens will make an intensive drive in an effort to make Crockett county one of the first counties in the state to go over the top with its quota.

"This is an opportunity for every citizen who can not get in the fight himself to send his dollars to back up the boys who are fighting for everything we hold dear," the chairman declared. "And we are not being asked to give but to lend our money—to invest it at a generous rate of interest in the safest known securities—backed by the United States Government. I hope that every citizen of Crockett county will put every dollar he can possibly spare into war bonds during this drive."

Schools Open—

Schneemann, president of the school board, Jim Ad will enroll in A & M College this fall.

The public school systems of this nation face their greatest responsibility with the opening of the new terms this fall. Rev. Childers told his audience in an inspiring address which featured the morning exercises. We face difficulties which we have not faced before, he said, and in the present stress of war, youth may be subject to influences which will result in a warped outlook.

"It is the responsibility of the schools to see that the thinking of youth is properly shaped so that the peace we make may be lasting," the speaker said. "It is the youth of today that will step in to lead the world of tomorrow and if their training has been on a firm foundation and well rounded, they will lead wisely."

"It is our responsibility," Rev. Childers continued, "to make the most of this school year. There will be difficulties which all of us must be prepared to face. It is our responsibility to give the strongest support to the school program, to work together toward the common goal—to make this the best school year we have ever known."

Some of the songs, which were fitted into the progressive story of the life of Jesus, included "Glory to God in the Highest," "Teach Me to Pray," "Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me," "Ninety and Nine," "There Is a Green Hill," and "Sweet Peace."
