Body Of Mrs. Mary Childress Buried Beside Husband's

Pioneer Resident Laid To Rest In San Angelo Sunday

Funeral services were held from the Methodist Church here at 2:30 noon Sunday for Mrs. Mary Childress, another of Crockett county's pioneer citizens, who died at 6:30 Saturday evening at the home of a son, Hugh Childress, with whom she had made her home the past few months.

Following the services here, the body was taken to San Angelo, where the funeral procession leaving the church for Fairmount Cemetery in San Angelo, where graveside services were conducted by the Rev. P. P. Barton, pastor of the First Methodist Church of San Angelo. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Joe Oberkamp's funeral home.

The body was buried beside that of her husband, William F. Childress, one of the pioneer ranchers of this section, who died in San Angelo in 1902.

Mrs. Childress was 79 years old. She had been in failing health for several months. Recently she moved from her home here to that of her son, Hugh Childress, where she was constantly under the care of physicians and nurses. Her condition became critical late last week and relatives living elsewhere were notified.

Mrs. Childress was born in San Antonio Feb. 3, 1857, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leasel Harris, natives of Tennessee, who migrated to Texas in the early days of the state's history. She was married in San Antonio to William F. Childress, a native of North Carolina, in December, 1875. Two years later, the couple moved to San Angelo to enter the ranching business in this section. At the time of his death, Mr. Childress had extensive land holdings in the section, the children strengthening these holdings as they took over the interests after his death.

Surviving are three sons, Walter, Hugh and Lee, all Crockett County ranchmen, and one daughter, Mrs. Beecher Montgomery, of Houston. Another son, Pleas L. Childress, died about two months ago, and a daughter, Mrs. Roy Henderson, died early this year. Other survivors are two brothers, Ralph and Frank Harris of San Angelo, and a sister, Mrs. Eugene Cartledge of Austin. Sixteen grand children and four great grandchildren also survive.

Chilling Blasts Send Temperature To New Low Level

Killing Frost Blankets Ozona as Thermometer Registers 22

Old Man Winter himself made his debut in West Texas Tuesday night when temperatures sank to a new low for the season as an icy blast swept down from the polar regions on the heels of a two weeks period of drizzling rains and murky skies which cleared to a brief Indian summer just before the frigid onslaught set in.

The first killing frost of the season blanketed this area during the night as temperatures reached a reported low of 22 degrees. Residents arose Wednesday morning to find the landscape a glittering white, and leaves and tender plants distended in icy stiffness only to melt and sag to the ground at the first peep of the sun.

The chill continued last night with forecasts for some moderation today.

Mrs. Warren Clayton of Ozona and Mrs. A. W. Clayton of San Angelo returned Sunday from a visit to the Centennial celebrations in Dallas and Fort Worth.

Poor Prophets!

Faculty Men, Guessing Election Outcome, Fail To Click With Even Close Guess

Along with several million other folk, many from the ranks of the victorious Democrats themselves, the men of the faculty of Ozona schools proved themselves poor prophets of the election outcome in a game of guessing staged the day before the general election Tuesday.

Guessing the outcome in terms of electoral votes for each candidate, the learned professors sealed their figures in envelopes to be opened when the count was made. Guinn Carruthers, science and manual training teacher, took top rank over four other prophets, although his estimate was not one to brag about from the standpoint of prophetic accuracy in the light of returns. He gave Roosevelt 384 electoral votes to 147 for Landon.

Supt. C. S. Denham was next best with an estimate of 352 Roosevelt votes to 179 for Landon. Principal C. E. Nelson was still farther from the outcome with a guess of 304 for Roosevelt and 227 for Landon. Coach Ted White was the most optimistic for the Republican chances with a guess of 290 Democratic electoral votes to 241 Republican. There being no entry fee, the Stockman editor joined in the guessing contest and emerged in third place among the professors, with an estimate of 319 Roosevelt votes to 212 for Landon.

Anyway, none of the group prophesied Landon to win—and that beats the Literary Digest poll.

Schools Observe Education Week With 'Open House'

Patrons Invited To Visit Classrooms During Period

"A major purpose of American Education Week is to induce the average citizen to investigate one of the world's largest businesses in which he is a stockholder with voting power."

Thus J. W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education, sums up the purpose of the annual observance of this period, which is to be observed throughout the nation during the week starting Nov. 9.

In observance of Education Week, the Ozona school system will maintain "open house" during the entire week. Supt. C. S. Denham announced yesterday. Patrons of the system are cordially invited and urged to visit the schools during the week, and to observe the work being done.

"So frequently we take democracy for granted and forget that this public business belongs to us," the U. S. Commissioner declared in his statement. "We find things going on which we do not fully understand or approve and then speak as if some force outside the community had control of our schools." The statement continues with a plea for more interest on the part of patrons and a better understanding of the school program.

American Education Week was designated so by proclamation of President Roosevelt.

ENJOY WEINER ROAST

A picnic and weiner roast was enjoyed by a group of fifteen young people here Tuesday evening. The outing was held west of town. Present were Rev. I. V. Garrison, Miss Joyce Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Glyn Cates, Mrs. Mildred Crowder, Miss Louise McClure, Miss Louise Crowder, Miss Dorothy Thurman, J. W. Keeton, Hartley Johnson and Howard Graves.

They Rode Democratic Landslide

By one of the most impressive margins of victory in the nation's history, the Democratic party under the leadership of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Vice President John N. Garner, was swept back into power for the next four years in the national election Tuesday. Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas, Republican nominee for president, and Frank Knox of Chicago, his running mate, were snowed under in the unprecedented Democratic landslide vote. Late tabulations of returns gave the Republican nominees only eight of the 531 electoral votes.

Armistice Day To Be Observed As Holiday Here

School Program Tuesday, Football In Sonora Attract Fans

Armistice Day, Wednesday of next week, will be observed here by a holiday for school children and the closing of many of the city's places of business during the day.

For local football fans, it will be a trek to Sonora where the Ozona High School Lions are slated to meet the Sonora Bronchos in a district conflict. The game will be called at 2:30 on the Sutton County field, and the school band and Pep Squad and a large contingent of rooters will accompany the team.

Observance of Armistice Day in the schools will take the form of a four-act play, appropriate to the occasion, to be presented in the High School auditorium Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This Armistice Day program will supplant the regular Thursday afternoon assembly, it was announced.

The public is cordially invited to this special program. The play, "America Remembers" will be presented by the History department of the High School, under the direction of Principal C. E. Nelson. The play will run about forty minutes. Music will be furnished by the school band, directed by Joe Haddon.

The first three acts of the play center about an American home from which a son goes to give his life for his country. The last act is a tribute to those who made the supreme sacrifice in the great conflict.

The cast of characters in the play includes the following students: Ele Bright Baggett, Walter Escue, Doris Bunker, Joe Perry, Clifton Tallafarro, Posey Baggett, Ted Anderson, Janice Watts, Jennie V. Schwalbe, Margaret Owens, Willie Joe Hubbard, Warren Reeves, Ora Louise Cox, Bobby Lemmons, Joe Williams, Mary Louise Harvick, Athleen Dudley, Betty Lou Coates, Jeff Fussell, Crystelle Carson, Phillip Schneemann, Beecher Montgomery, Mary Frances West, Mary Alice Smith, Helen Armentrout, Neta Lewis, Muriel Luther, Maurice Lemmons and Miles Pierce.

Casbeer Quits Tax Collecting Deputy's Post

Veteran Treasurer Retires From Post He Held Many Years

Tom Casbeer, veteran Crockett County treasurer, and office deputy in charge of tax collections under a succession of sheriffs for more than twenty years, tendered his resignation the past week to Sheriff W. S. Willis as office deputy.

Mr. Casbeer resigned from the position he has held for so many years on account of his health and to rest from its confining duties, he said. He will continue to serve as treasurer of this county, an elective post he has filled without interruption the past thirty years.

Mr. Casbeer will be succeeded by Claude Russell, who assumed the duties of the office the first of this week. Before turning over the office to his successor, Mr. Casbeer spent several days going over all tax records and forms with the new deputy that he might become familiar with his duties and take over the work without interruption.

Miss Rachel Schrader, who has been in charge of assessment of property and preparation of the tax rolls, recently completed the task and the start of tax collections now awaits approval of the rolls by the state comptroller at Austin.

Lions Thump Big Lake's Owls For Second Straight

Ozona Team Shows Marked Improvement In 12-0 Win Sat.

Ozona High School gridiron crew made it a clean sweep for the season when they thumped the Big Lake Owls 12-0 here Saturday afternoon in the second meeting of the season between the two teams. Earlier in the season, the locals nosed out the Big Lake eleven by a count of 7 to 6 on the Big Lake grid. Both were non-conference engagements.

The Lions showed a remarkable improvement in offensive power over previous starts this season and in all departments of the game showed the seasoning of the past few weeks that has welded

Dallas Announces Reopening of Texas Centennial In 1937

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 4—Reopening of the Texas Centennial Exposition for a five month's period in 1937 was assured today. The Exposition, through its president, Fred F. Florence, served formal notice on the City of Dallas it would exercise its option for the use of the Exposition grounds during the coming year. Tentative plans for the 1937 World's Fair are for its opening June 12 with closing set for October 31.

The decision of the Board of Directors of the Texas Centennial Exposition to reopen next year is the result of a general demand by the business interests of Dallas and Texas that the Exposition should carry on during 1937.

It is the plan of the Exposition management to make many drastic changes at the Exposition grounds.

Only in its general layout will the 1937 World's Fair resemble that of 1936. There will be new shows, new concessions, new exhibits and new buildings. A majority of the large exhibitors are anxious to continue through the coming year. They point out that during the year 1937 there will not be any major Exposition in the United States with the exception of the Exposition at Dallas.

"We are going to reopen in 1937 with a better and more extensive World's Fair," said Director General, Harry Olmsted. "It will be an entirely new show, better and more smoothly run by virtue of experience gained through the operation of 1936. Immediately after the close of the Texas Centennial Exposition November 29 full plans for the 1937 World's Fair will be announced."

There isn't much difference between life in a big city and in a small town. In the city the autos run down a lot of people, and in the town the gossips do the same things.—Olivia (Mo.) Times.

HOW MUCH TODAY?

How much will you spend for taxes today?

Perhaps you will answer "Nothing, there are no taxes due"—but you're wrong.

Taxes are due every day—and you pay them every day.

For example, if you buy a pair of $5 shoes, you pay about a dollar in taxes—taxes temporarily paid for you by manufacturer, distributor and retailer, and then collected by adding to the price of the product.

If you buy 25 cents worth of meat, you pay at least six cents in taxes. If you use two gallons of gasoline, you pay ten or twelve cents in taxes. So it goes with everything you buy or do—from your morning coffee to the movie show you attend this evening.

Nothing escapes taxation. Almost all taxes are indirect—they are part of commodity service costs. Direct taxes—such as taxes on income, property, and total tax burden. So—how much will you spend for taxes today?

BIRD DENOUNCED. SNAKE IN GRASS

The well-known sap-sucker, a local bird heretofore held in high esteem as an aid in control of alleged borers preying on trees, has been labeled as a snake in the grass, or a wolf in sheep's clothing.

Dr. R. R. Reppert of College Station, entomologist with the Texas Extension Service, stated Tuesday on a visit here that instead of aiding the trees, the sap-sucker instead does all the damage.

A series of round holes in the tree trunk have heretofore been blamed on the borer, and the sap-sucker, in the act of drilling the hole, was always thought to be seeking the ravaging insect.

Dr. Reppert doubts the existence of the borers and recommends a shot-gun as the only effectual treatment for the pestiferous bird.—Ft. Stockton Pioneer.

What appeared to confirm Spanish fear of Nolan's intent to take possession of Texas?
 A. Mercedes Richards, who defied Nolan's last expedition, testified before a Spanish tribunal, purportedly disclosing Nolan's plan to build a fort among the Caddo Indians, explore the country thoroughly and then return and get authority to conquer Texas. This was strengthened by correspondence between Nolan and Jefferson, then vice president and Nolan in regard to the capture of wild horses.

What was the Aaron Burr conspiracy and what became of G. S.
 A. In 1806, Burr planned with James Wilkinson, who had been in command of the Spanish army since 1805, to overthrow Spanish authorities in both Texas and Mexico. Before the expedition was organized, Wilkinson revealed the conspiracy to both governments, resulting in Burr's trial and treason.

What American was the first to be suspected by Spanish authorities of coming to Texas to forward designs of the United States for acquiring the Texas territory?
 A. Phillip Nolan, who came to Texas about 1799 with a passport purchase or capture horses, was charged with being the agent of Gen. James Wilkinson of the U. S. Army to make maps of the country and incite the Indians to rebel against Spain. His arrest was ordered if found in Spanish territory.

When was Texas without either civil or military government?
 A. In May, June and July, 1865, between the time that Gov. Pendleton Murrah fled to Mexico and Andrew J. Hamilton became provisional governor, July 25.

When did Noah Smithwick come to Texas and from where?
 A. In 1827, when 19 years of age from Hopkinsville, Ky., landing at the mouth of the Lavaca River.

What bid did the consultation of November 3, 1835, make for other colonization of Texas?
 A. It boldly proclaimed that Texas and citizenship awaited all who would come to Texas and assist in the "struggle against tyranny."

Where can the latest high-quality map of Texas be obtained?
 A. From the State Highway Department, Austin.

How did the Cee Vee postoffice in Cottle county get its name?
 A. From the C. V. ranch, on which it was located, the initials being spelled out.

Where, when and for what purpose was Fort Saint Louis built?
 A. It was built by La Salle, as a temporary settlement near the head of Lavaca Bay about 1685-86 and consisted of five or six mud-plastered huts within an equally platted palisade.

How long were the Pineda and Cortez explorations in Texas and Mexico after the discovery of America by Columbus?
 A. Twenty-seven years—from 1492 to 1519.

Performance, Beauty and Safety Mark Chevrolet's Completely New Cars

Chevrolet's 1937 engine is completely new, but adheres closely to time-proved Chevrolet engineering principles. It is of six-cylinder valve-in-head type, smoother, more powerful, more economical, and lighter.

A representative model from Chevrolet's new line, typifying its beauty and grace—the Master De Luxe Sport Sedan with trunk. Note the distinctive "speed line" extending back from the side of the hood.

Luggage capacity in Chevrolet's new trunk models has been greatly increased, as has interior luggage space in other models.

Unisteel construction joins the floor, cowl assembly, panels, and Turret Top of Chevrolet's all-steel body, to form one integral structure, welded in all joints, and reinforced and braced for permanent silence and safety.

Beauty and utility mark the new Chevrolet instrument panel. The windshield is of greater area, with narrow corner posts, affording better vision.

New power, economy, durability, safety and comfort, coupled with striking new beauty, characterize Chevrolet's new models for 1937. They are offered in two series, Master and Master De Luxe, virtually identical in appearance.

Chevrolet's fully-enclosed Knee-Action is furnished at no extra cost on the Master De Luxe models; and new Syncro-Mesh transmission, and safety plate glass all around at no extra cost, feature all models of both series.

Majority Of Workers, Employers Must Pay Tax Under Social Security Act

Payments Toward Annuity Plan To Begin January 1

AUSTIN, Nov. 4.—Nearly all Texans except those engaged in agricultural pursuits, domestic service and on public payrolls will be affected by the taxes to be levied and collected under the Social Security Act next year, according to a statement issued here by Frank Scofield, collector of internal revenue for the First Texas District. These and a few others are specifically exempted by the act.

There are two separate and distinct taxes, according to Mr. Scofield. One went into effect on the first of this year and is payable on or before the last day of next January and annually thereafter. This tax is on employers of eight or more persons who are employed for any portion of a day or more in twenty weeks, consecutive or otherwise, during the calendar year. The rate for 1936 is 1 per cent, for 1937 it will be 2 per cent and for 1938 and thereafter it will be 3 per cent. This tax is paid wholly by the employer and must not be deducted from the wage or salary of the employe. The return must be filed on Form 940.

The other tax, which is paid jointly by employer and employe, but for which the employer is held liable and must be remitted by him, becomes effective on January 1, next year, and the first return is due on or before February 28 and monthly thereafter. Under this title of the act the employe must deduct 1 per cent from the employe's wage, add 1 per cent to it and remit the 2 per cent to the collector of internal revenue every month.

The exceptions under this title include all those listed above and in addition it excepts the labor of persons 65 years or more of age and casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business. All seamen are likewise excepted under this title while under the other only those members of crews of vessels on navigable waters of the United States are excepted.

Where the remuneration is not all in cash the cash value of all considerations for services must be calculated and an appropriate tax paid.

Mr. Scofield's office here has built up an extensive mailing list of probable taxpayers, and as soon as the proper forms are received from Washington they will be distributed to this list. No forms are available for distribution now.

"The fact that a man's name is not on the list does not mean he is not an employer, however," said Mr. Scofield. "It is going to be up to each employer to determine if he is liable for the tax, and failure to do so may subject him to penalties when it is determined that he was liable."

"The title going into effect next year affects both the employer and the employe in such places as a country store with one clerk, the small newspaper with one compositor, meat markets, abstractors lawyers and any other employer who has even a part-time bookkeeper, stenographer, office boy or part-time janitor."

"I want to urge that inquiries and communications addressed to my office be limited in subject to tax matters. The administration of other features of the Social Security Act is in other hands and we will not undertake to answer questions not pertaining to taxes."

"It is also important that potential taxpayers address inquiries to the collector of the district in which they live, and that they likewise file returns with that collector or in the district where they have their principal place of business."

The annual rainfall if evenly spread over Texas would cover the state to a depth of 26 inches, according to the Texas Planning Board's engineers who are making a study of the water resources of the state.

Waco Lauds Work Of Red Cross In Flood Rehabilitation Work

An account of the work of the American National Red Cross in rehabilitating flood sufferers at Waco, Texas, recently, is given in a letter received this week by J. H. McClure, Crockett County Roll Call chairman from George J. Rohan, Waco-McLennan County Red Cross chairman. The first-hand picture of the work of the mercy organization in our own state was sent out by the Wacoan as an added stimulus to the coming membership drive of the organization starting Armistice Day.

With over a thousand families homeless in the greatest flood in Waco's history, business men of the city started a drive for funds and opened relief work. It was soon recognized that this work should be carried on by experienced workers and the national chapter was notified.

"The request was immediately complied with," Mr. Rohan said, "and a staff of trained workers came into Waco to handle family needs incident to the flood. In a surprising short time order was brought out of chaos and today, with three-quarters of the need met and the other quarter of permanent needs still to be taken care of, there is little or no indication of the ravages of the flood.

"We are so gratified with results that we want you to get this picture first hand. Costs of relief will exceed the fund locally contributed. These additional costs will be borne by the National Red Cross from funds derived from Roll Call memberships. Waco, I feel confident, will express its appreciation of the task well done through a substantial increase in annual memberships."

[QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING]

"Why do Banks return overdrawn checks?"

To put the question another way, we are occasionally asked, "Why can't you hold up a check of mine for a few days until I can make a deposit to cover it?"

We are naturally anxious to accommodate customers whenever we can, but to hold up checks is not sound banking practice. If we cashed a check for a customer when he had insufficient funds to cover it we would, in effect, be giving him money that belonged to someone else. If we did this for him, other depositors of our bank would be entitled to the same consideration.

Banks are required to list all overdrawn checks on their books as overdrafts. Such overdrafts are discouraged by all banking authorities and banks which permit them are subject to censure by the bank examiners. Conscientious, fair service to all customers, is the basis of all bank rules.

Lions Thump—

them into a serious threat to district contestants in the remaining games of the year.

The locals scored their first counter in the second period after taking the ball in midfield on downs. Casbeer skirted the wing for three yards, and Leath flipped a pass to Parker for 15 more. Casbeer picked up three more and then Montgomery shot a pass to Childress who took the ball on the 20 and galloped over for the touchdown standing up. Davidson's boot for the extra point was wide.

The second score came in the third period, again via the airways. After driving the visitors deep in their own territory and taking a punt on the Big Lake 39, the locals opened up with an air attack that carried to the goal. Montgomery shot one to Perner who took it on the 25 with an open field in front, but the slippery muddy field caused him to fall just after receiving the ball and the touchdown was delayed. Montgomery carried for three yards and then Leath tossed one over the goal line and Perner, fast stepping Lion end, gathered it in for the touchdown. An attempt for the extra point with an end run failed. And the score stood 12-0.

The Big Lake lads made their most serious threat in the last frame when they backed the Lions to their own five yard line, where they held the invaders to take the ball on downs. Leath's excellent kick, plus a 15-yard penalty drawn by the Owls put the ball well out of dangerous territory, and at the end of the game the locals were again on a rampage, with Montgomery flipping one to Perner to reach the Big Lake 21 as the game ended.

and visitors from twelve of the fifteen clubs in the district were present for the Brownwood meet, the local delegates reported. Mrs. Inez Rudy, state president of the federation, was an honored visitor at the convention. Mrs. Rudy outlined the Federation's two aims for this year, a music education endowment fund, of which the Sixth District's quota is $500, and a music club in every county of the state.

Nineteen of the thirty-three junior clubs in the district were represented. A group of 150 pupils from Abilene, composing the Central grade choral club, was present for Junior Day. The next state federation convention will be in San Antonio April 7, 8, 9 and 10.

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS HISTORY

(By T. S. College for Women)

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 1

1806—The territory between the Sabine River and the Arroyo Hondo was named neutral ground on Nov. 6 until the boundary between the United States and Texas could be more clearly established.

1835—A meeting of the colonists was held at San Felipe on Nov. 3 at which time the provisional government was formed. Sam Houston elected commander of the army, and a delegation selected, headed by Stephen F. Austin, to seek aid from the United States.

1841—The sixth Congress assembled at Austin on Nov. 1.

1878—A former chief justice of the Supreme Court, Oran M. Roberts, was elected governor of Texas on Nov. 5.

Correct Posture Held Essential

AUSTIN, Nov. 4—Correct posture in school children, and adults as well, is necessary to proper physical and mental development, says a warning from the Texas State Department of Health. "Good posture is a sign of self respect and plays an important part in winning the respect of others," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

"Many of the ills of childhood and the deformities of adult life have their beginning in poor posture acquired during childhood," he said, "and it is particularly important that the child's posture conform to nature's dictates. Most children are born in good physical condition and yet examination of large groups of school children show a high per cent to be suffering from poor posture. Malnutrition and fatigue are productive of poor posture. These lessen the size of the chest and decrease the lung capacity. Abdominal organs may also be pushed out of natural position, which may seriously interfere with their action. These conditions must be corrected before the body is able to attain normal weight and nutritional standards.

"School children who have poor posture are said often to average lower in attendance and in school mental and physical activities than those who have good posture. A child may be forced to hold his body in an unnatural position by a desk that is too high or too low. Desks and work tables should be just high enough to allow the feet to rest on the floor and the forearms and hands to rest upon the tops without the shoulders being hunched up.

"Begin early in life to teach your children to stand straight and sit straight for health and self-confidence, and they should grow into strong, well-built men and women."

New Chevrolet Is Scheduled To Be Shown Saturday

The new Chevrolet line is declared to be an entirely new car, completely new in design but adhering to the time-tried engineering principles that have made for Chevrolet popularity in years past.

Tessie—Isn't it strange that marriage should be such a failure?

Lynch—Why, no—not when you reflect that so many people go into it without any experience.
