Miss Tommy Smith Becomes Bride Of Earle Chandler In Impressive Home Wedding Ceremony Here This Morning

Young Couple To Live On Chandler Ranch Near Ozona

Miss Tommy Smith became the bride of Earle Chandler, young Crockett County rancher, at a beautiful home wedding solemnized here at 10 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith.

Preceding the ceremony, performed in the living room of the Smith home, Mrs. Joe Pierce sang "I Love You Truly," with Mrs. Vic Pierce accompanying. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Vic Pierce, the bride entered the living room with her matron of honor, Mrs. Brock Jones of Houston, the former Miss Bernice Bailey of Ozona. They were met at the improvised altar by the groom and John Chandler, his brother, acting as best man.

The Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church, performed the impressive single ring ceremony.

Following the rites, coffee and cake were served the guests, which included members of the families and close friends. The dining table was laid with a lace cloth, the wedding cake forming the centerpiece, with silver candelabra, each holding three white tapers, at each end.

The three-tiered cake was frosted in white and decorated with an arbor and wedding bell on top. The cake was cut by the bride, after which it was served by Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. Vic Pierce and Mrs. Joe Pierce.

For the service and traveling, the bride wore an ensemble woolen suit of blue, with accessories in blue. Her corsage was of talisman roses.

Mrs. Jones wore a black crepe frock which was trimmed in white lace. Her accessories were black and her corsage of Pernet roses.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. F. H. Chandler, mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chandler, Joseph Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Colwick, Miss Ina May Tate, all of Stephenville, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Chandler from San Angelo and Miss Helen Lehnberg of Mason.

The bride is a graduate of the Ozona High School and was a student at Texas Tech in Lubbock and also attended C. I. A. at Denton.

Mr. Chandler, who is a son of Mrs. F. H. Chandler of Stephenville, was graduated from Stephenville High School and attended John Tarleton College at Stephenville.

After the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler will be at home on the Chandler ranch in this county.

Store Expansion Is Celebrated By Flowers Grocery

All-Day Party Sat. Management's Plan For "House Warming"

In celebration of its expansion and complete interior renovation, Flowers Grocery is staging an "Expansion Party" all day next Saturday to which everybody is cordially invited. R. L. Flowers, proprietor, announced this week.

The corner grocery has been in the process of complete renovation this week, the store front being enlarged and the interior completely rearranged and refinished. The floor space of the front was almost double with removal of the partition which cut off quarters formerly occupied by the Patrick Electric shop, and the incorporation of this space for display of grocery stock.

A partition was built at the rear of the store to cut off a small storage space between the grocery and bakery department. The meat market division was moved to the north side of the building and housed in a built-in compartment, an off-set into the back partition, presenting an attractive arrangement and a more orderly display of stock in the front.

In celebration of this modernizing project, Mr. Flowers has arranged a "house-warming" party all day Saturday. Coffee and cookies will be served all visitors during the day and everybody is cordially invited to visit the store, inspect the new arrangement and partake of the free refreshments.

Brother Of Ozona Teacher Victim Of Drowning At Waco

James Haug, Girl Companion Lose Lives In Swollen Creek

Tragedy marred the Christmas holiday for Miss Ophie Haug, kindergarten teacher in the Ozona schools, with the death by drowning of her brother, James Haug, 24, in an accident at Waco Sunday which took the lives of two persons.

James Haug and Miss Dorothy Holmes, both of Marlin, Texas, were drowned early Sunday morning when a car in which they were riding with another couple was driven accidentally into swollen Waco Creek during a heavy rain.

Clifton Eskridge of Marlin, driver of the car, managed to get out of the machine after it sank in the stream, and pulled Miss Jane Singletary of Bryan to safety. The four were returning to Marlin after attending a dance in Waco, Eskridge and Miss Holmes on the front seat and Haug and Miss Singletary, who were engaged to be married, on the back seat. The two bodies were recovered a mile down stream.

Young Haug was a graduate of Marlin High School and of A. & M. College. He was home for the holidays from Stillwater, Okla., where he was employed by the Resettlement Administration as a draughtsman in redesigning the famed 101 Ranch into small farms.

Surviving young Haug are the father, George Haug of Marlin, and two sisters.

59 Years Married Life Celebrated By Ozona Couple

Jones Millers Plan Traditional Observance Tomorrow

Tomorrow will be a day of triple significance for one Ozona couple, and a day whose observance has become a tradition in the family.

Not only will tomorrow be New Year's day for Mr. and Mrs. Jones Miller, but it will also be their 59th wedding anniversary. And not only that, but it will also be Mr. Miller's 79th birthday.

In proper celebration of the triply significant day, the pioneer Crockett County ranch couple will stage their annual family dinner, an event which has not been missed in many years. With their six children and their husbands and wives, their grand children and their husbands and wives and the great grand children around them, Mr. and Mrs. Miller will play hosts at the huge family dinner in traditional style, serving a turkey dinner with all trimmings, and awarding cash prizes to the different groups of descendants, as has been the custom for many years.

The six children of the pioneer couple include Mrs. J. W. Owens, Mrs. P. T. Robison, Mrs. Paul Halcomb, Will Miller, Rob and Roy Miller. All of the children and nearly all of the grand and great grand children are expected to be present for the big dinner tomorrow. Last year there were 29 present at the feast and celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were married in Bell County on January 1, 1878. Mr. Miller was born in Gonzales County, January 1, 1858, and Mrs. Miller, who was Miss Amy Willis, was born in Bell County, September 28, 1860. The couple came to Crockett County the year the county was organized, 1891, and have resided here since, amassing huge land holdings and a fortune in the ranching business. Mr. Miller owns approximately 20,000 acres of land south of Ozona.

Schools Resume Classes Monday For Second Half

11-Day Holiday Comes To End As Work To Start Monday

With due apologies to the youngsters, who are still enjoying the aftermath of Christmas and whose minds are as yet far from classrooms and books, it becomes a painful duty to remind that schools will be doing business in the same old stand starting next Monday morning.

With the resumption of classes Monday morning, Christmas, 1936, will definitely and finally pass into history. The opening of the new year will mark the opening also of the second half of the present school term, with the end of the third six-week period only a few days distant. Teachers who have spent the 11-day holiday period with friends and relatives elsewhere will be returning this week-end to be in readiness for the opening of schools Monday morning.

SHEARING ACCIDENT

Max Schneemann, Jr., was brought here for treatment Tuesday night for injuries suffered a few hours before when he accidentally stuck the point of a pair of shears into his leg. Young Schneemann was helping to tag 1100 lambs on the Schneemann ranch. His injury was not considered serious.

Now, Comes The Second Best In Hunting Stories — Buck That Stood Until Pelted Down With Tiny Pellets From .22 Rifle

Ho! Hum! Another deer hunting story!

If you would kill yourself a buck, it would seem the best policy in these parts not to go hunting for him, and to be unprepared should you meet one. A shotgun, a handful of rocks or a .22 rifle — anything will do, just so you don't carry a high powered rifle.

Gilbert Noakes, son-in-law of A. W. Jones, local boot and saddle shop proprietor, came out from Corpus Christi with Mrs. Noakes to spend Christmas here. As always, at this season of the year, Mr. Noakes' consuming ambition was to kill a deer. An all-day hunt in the most likely deer country available, with high powered rifles ready, failed to produce even the sight of a buck.

Defeated in his ambition, Mr. Noakes started home Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Jones accompanying them in their car as far as Sabinal. A few miles south of Ozona on the Del Rio road, Mr. Jones, taking the lead, saw a big buck and doe cross the road, the buck stopping

CONTRACTS TO BE AWARDED IN JANUARY FOR PAVING 18 MILES HIGHWAY IN COUNTY

Surfacing Of Last Unpaved Sections Of No. 27 Provided In Lettings Jan. 15-16; Completes County's Program

Closing of the last unpaved gap in Highway 27 through Crockett County and completion of this county's highway building program begun five years ago will be on the way to final realization on January 15 and 16, when contracts are scheduled to be awarded for caliche base and asphalt surfacing of approximately eighteen miles of Highway 27 west of Ozona.

W. P. A. Financed Street Project Makes Progress

Work Extended To Another Street Early This Week

Work started this week on the second street surfacing project being done here under W. P. A. grant. The first street project, three blocks of the street starting at the West Texas Utilities plant and extending south to the ball park, is nearing completion.

Dirt was broken on the second street to be worked this week, county machinery being used to plow and scrape the dirt, which is loaded on trucks to be hauled away. Gravel and clay from the bed of Johnson draw is being hauled in for a heavy surfacing on the streets, a roller being used to pack the new surface material.

The local W. P. A. project, which calls for an expenditure of $6,300, is one unit of a total contemplated expenditure of $45,000 for lateral roads in this county. The street surfacing project now in progress here calls for improvement of streets in the southeast section of the city. The work is being supervised by C. L. Cameron of San Angelo, W. P. A. supervisor.

The work is progressing slowly by reason of the wage and hour restrictions on workers. Workers are limited to 94 hours a month, or 47 hours every two weeks, and a maximum of $21 a month. These restrictions necessitate the frequent halts in operations.

Mrs. Mike Couch and daughters Bill Grimmer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tot Grimmer and daughter and Mrs. Joe Graham and daughter spent Christmas in Spur visiting Mrs. Sherwood Powell, and for a Grimmer family reunion.

Advertising for bids on surfacing work on this stretch of highway, divided into two projects, starts in this issue of the Stockman. Bids will be received at the State Highway Department in Austin until 9 o'clock January 15 on the first project and at the same hour the following day, when they will be opened and read.

The first project covers a distance of 7.424 miles from a point 30 miles west of Ozona to Bachler Hill, Federal Aid project No. 619-C. This project calls for caliche and limestone base course and sealed double asphalt surface treatment.

The second project is 10.748 miles in length, extending from Bachler Hill to a point nine miles west of Ozona to connect with pavement already completed. This section of road, in addition to receiving the caliche and limestone base course and sealed double asphalt surface treatment, will be equipped with additional drainage structures.

Build New Culverts
Fifteen additional box culverts are to be built on this section of road, according to E. E. Pittman, resident engineer for this division, making headquarters in Sonora. Mr. Pittman was here early this week making arrangements for advertising of bids.

Contractors who bid on the two highway building projects will be required to pay minimum wage scale as specified by statute. This wage scale is 75 cents per hour for skilled labor, 45 cents per hour for intermediate grade labor, and 30 cents per hour for unskilled labor.

Engineer Pittman estimates actual work on the two sections of road, the last in the county's system yet unpaved, will be started about February 1, about two weeks being allowed for work orders to be prepared and the contractor to get on the job. This, however, will depend on what contractor gets the job and how far distant his equipment is located at the time.

Ozonans Observance Christmas Quietly Sheriff Willis Says

One of the quietest Christmas periods in many years was the verdict of Sheriff W. S. Willis following last week's observance. Gaiety was rampant during the holidays, but there was little disturbance, the sheriff said.

Only one traffic accident was reported during the week, two cars smashed a few miles east of town. Although both cars were damaged, nobody was hurt in this crash. Cars driven by Charlie Blair and Ray Boyd figured in the crash, which was declared unavoidable.

SPECIAL ANTHEMS ARE ARRANGED BY CHOIR

Special anthems have been arranged by the Methodist choir for both the morning and evening services Sunday, Mrs. H. B. Tandy director, has announced. The anthem at the morning hour will be "Depth of Mercy" by Thomas, with Mrs. Bascomb Cox taking the solo part. At the evening service, the anthem will be "As Pants the Hart," by Thomas, Mrs. Joe Pierce taking the solo part.

Ambition Of 30 Years Realized By Dr. George W. Cox, Former Ozona Physician In Appointment State Health Officer

Desire To Engage In Public Health Work Satisfied

Austin, Dec. 30—A young man's ambition formed nearly thirty years ago materialized on December 14 when Dr. George W. Cox was chosen State Health Officer. Through busy years in the practice of medicine and surgery Dr. Cox nursed the desire to engage in public health work. Dr. Cox as a youthful physician accepted appointment of Governor Thomas M. Campbell to be in charge of quarantine stations at Brownsville and Corpus Christi. During that four years of service he developed an abiding interest in public health work.

SMALL TOWN'S FUTURE

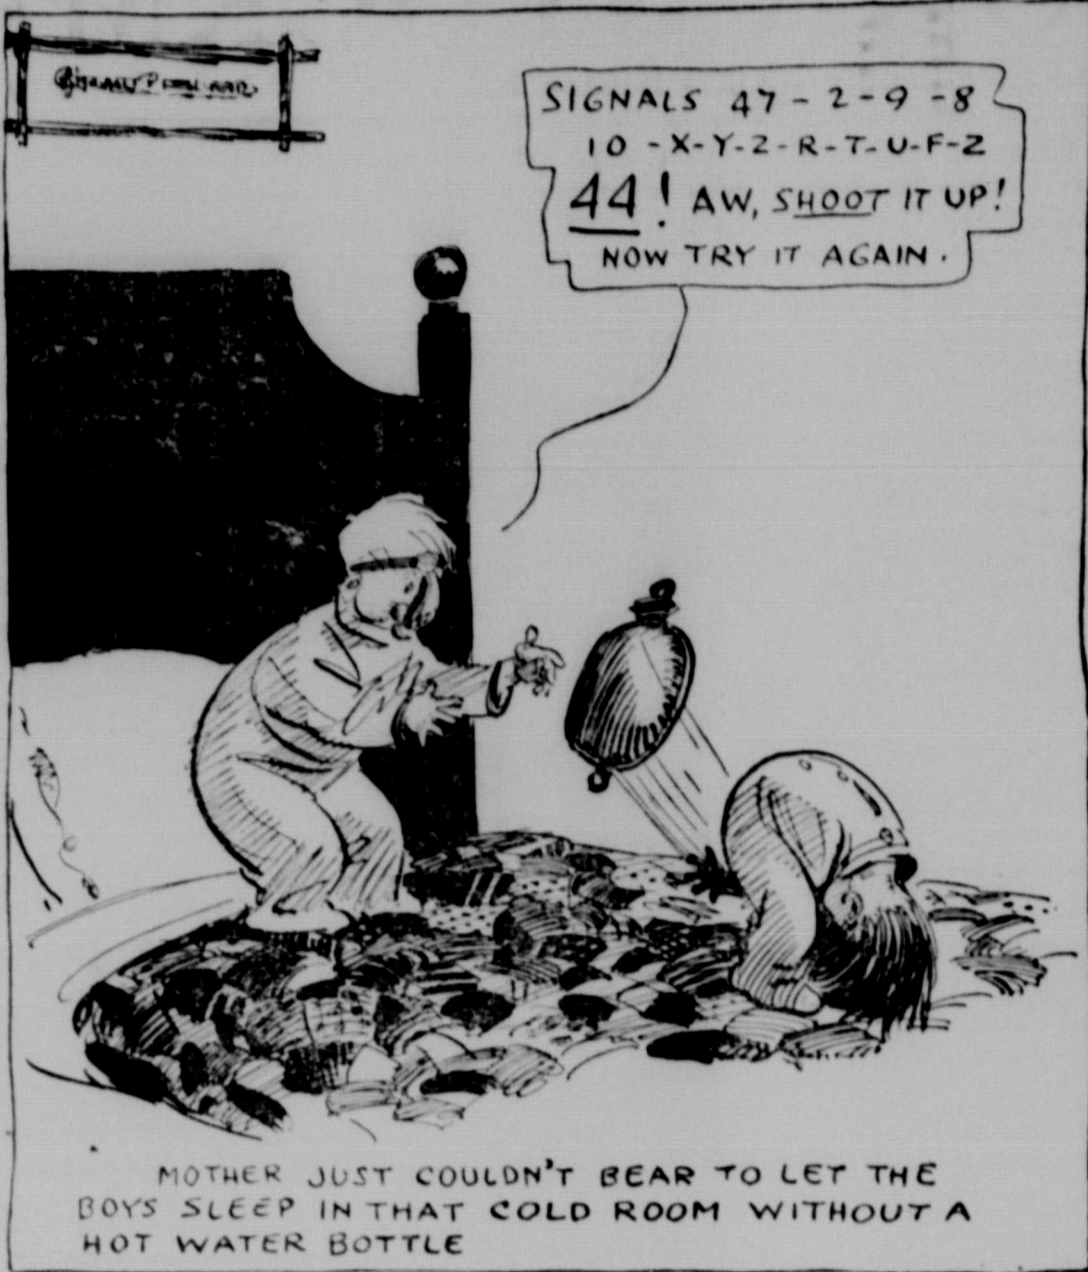

Along about this time of year, with a brand new year just in the offing, is a mighty good time to take stock of this and that. A good time, in fact, for residents of small towns to think something of their town's future. Naturally, the big towns want as much business from the small towns as possible, and they offer some services that are indispensable to the small towners. But, residents of small towns should not overlook the fact that upon them depends the future of their own town, its business. A town with solvent, up-to-date business firms is a good town, and the only way business can remain so is to enjoy the patronage of its people. It would be poor judgment to build a fine home a hundred miles from town. It is equally poor judgment to build a fine home in town and then destroy that town by taking your business elsewhere. If a town's worth living in, it's worth supporting.

THINGS ONE REMEMBERS

Industrial News Review—Reading the daily news, one cannot help but be impressed by the similarity between civil wars and the wars between capital and labor, in their waste and barbarism. For the moment the Spanish civil war is a case in point. If the government wins, Spain will be subjected to an iron-handed communistic dictatorship. If the rebels are victorious, a Fascist military dictatorship will be established, according to rebel leaders, and all newspapers except Fascist organs will be suppressed, and all civil liberties will be abrogated. Thus the old story is repeated—the common people will be the losers. No matter how the war turns out, constitutional government and freedom in Spain will end. Leaders the world over are mad for power, as press dispatches from leading nations indicate.

With such examples to go by, we are threatened with a labor "war" between workers and employers in our own United States. If it comes, both sides will lose no matter who seems to "win." Lost wages, lost opportunities, lost good will and lost morale are never returned. When humans side-track intelligence for tactics of barbarians, the world loses.

Yet, with horrible examples of the folly of blind strife all around us, extremists in our country, on both sides of the labor question, are fanning the labor war flames. Their actions remind one of a couple of dogs circling around for a chance to fly at each other's throats. There is some excuse for the dogs. There is no excuse for the humans today who have every facility at their command for investigating, arbitrating, legislating and settling their controversies in an orderly and intelligent manner.

That old quotation, "The more I see of humans, the better I like dogs," becomes more impressive every day.

ANOTHER NEW YEAR

Tonight we greet a New Year! At the stroke of twelve we turn the page on 1936 and greet the unblemished record of 1937 with high hopes and keen ambition.

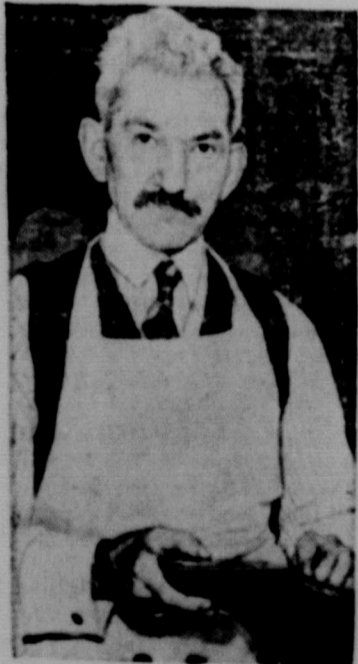

Perhaps tomorrow will be no different from today. So far as one is consciously aware, it will be just another day, no doubt. But the beginning of a brand new year when records are clean, when a new start is in order, when we can put aside the old and take a fresh, new hold on life—the thought is one to inspire a new ambition and a new resolve.

And it is well to have some mark to denote the end of the old and the beginning of the new. How overpowering is the thought of finality, of sameness; how drab the consciousness of unchanging life. New Year represents a new hold, a new start, a new resolve, a cleaning up. It is a time for retrospection, for checking up on ourselves, taking a new toe-hold and resolving to be in the race from now on.

Maybe the idea is drabby, but, nevertheless, it is good for the soul to make a new start occasionally. However silly it may sound to you, make some New Year's resolutions. Break them later, if you will, but make them anyway. You will find it strengthening and refreshing, to check off another milepost and consider a new slate before you, to mark as you see fit.

Milk Labeling Bill Proposed To Legislature

Planning Board Seeks Regulation To Protect Users

Austin, Dec. 30.—A milk labeling bill which will not only throw additional safeguards around the users of milk and milk products in Texas but will enable the small dairyman to compete with big city brothers, will be sponsored at the next session of the legislature by the Texas Planning Board.

Briefly, the bill authorizes the State Health Officer to define and fix the specifications for certain grades of milk and milk products and to supervise and regulate the labeling of milk and milk products; enables cities and counties to require all milk sold within their boundaries to be graded and labeled; forbids the use of certain grade labels except under certain conditions, or other designs and devices misrepresenting the contents of milk or milk products.

At the present time there are in Texas towns and cities which have adopted the Standard Milk Ordinance which defines, and fixes the specifications for each grade of milk. This ordinance makes it difficult for the small dairyman to sell his products in these towns and cities if he must either sell his milk less or he must dispose of it where he can.

But under the provisions of the proposed milk labeling bill the small rural dairyman will be permitted to use standard grade "A" labels on his products, if they measure up to the statewide specifications.

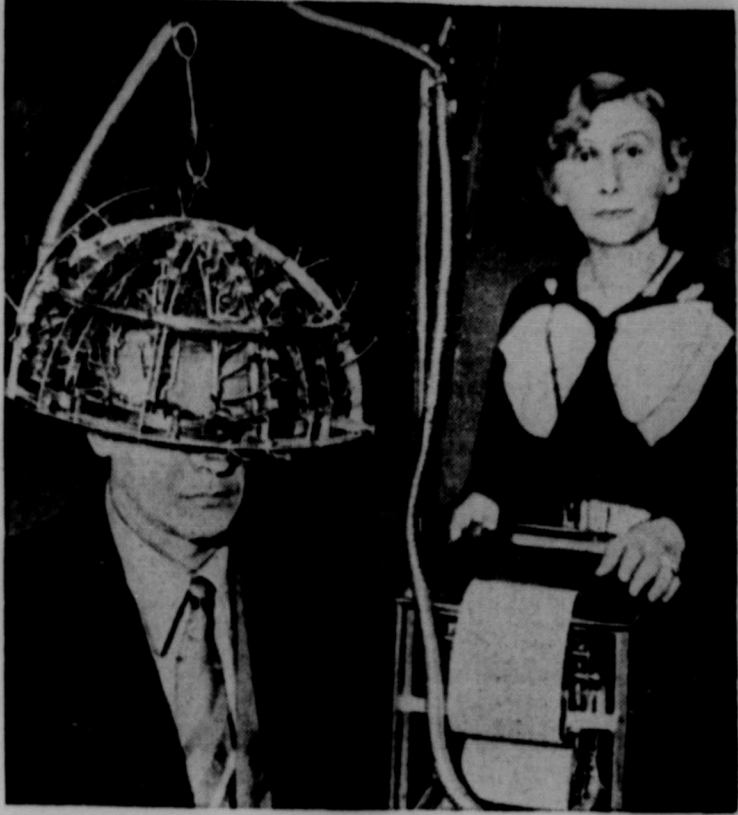

Juice Labels Used

During the last few months state inspectors have found raw milk being sold in bottles capped with a "pasteurized" label, and pasteurized milk has been found in bottles bearing a grade "A" raw milk label. In one community they found milk being sold under a tomato juice label and in another community milk was found in containers capped with an orange juice label. The sponsors of the proposed milk labeling bill feel that this indiscriminate use of labels is undermining the confidence of the public in Texas milk and milk products.

There are many counties and towns in the State which can not adopt the Standard Milk Ordinance because of a law which prohibits counties and unincorporated towns from adopting ordinances. This fact, in many instances, has seriously retarded rural milk sanitation. But under the provisions of the milk labeling bill, the county commissioners court would be able to set up machinery which would afford ambitious dairymen supplying unincorporated towns and cities the opportunity to produce grade "A" milk and to use a grade "A" label legally.

Enactment of this bill into law also would enable Texas producers of milk and milk products to go over the State borders to find a new market for their milk. In the absence of standardized specifications in Texas for milk and milk products this cannot be done.

Two years ago this milk labeling bill passed the Senate without discussion but the measure died on the House calendar although there was no opposition to the measure among the legislators.

THE HEN WINS!

Tuesday afternoon, at the edge of town, north on the Lamesa road, while on his way home to Brown, W. G. Lillard and a white Leghorn hen, collided, the hen getting the better end of the deal. The hen was attempting to cross the road in front of Lillard, saw death was inevitable, so she unfolded her wings and rose up and into the windshield and landing on Lillard's lap as calm and peaceful as you please without a scratch but she smashed the glass in the windshield. Biddy awaited the next move following the surprise attack, and that was Lillard putting her out.

Mr. Lillard had to retrace his steps to town for new glass in his windshield, and kicked himself because he didn't keep the hen for pay.—Stanton Reporter.

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the State and its people. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. What troops constituted Fannin's forces at La Bahia? T. R. E.

A. The New Orleans Grays, the Tennesseans, Capt. Shackelford's Alabamians (Red Rovers), Major Mitchell's Georgians, Major Wallace's LaFayette Battalion and the Kentucky Mustangs.

Q. Why were the Kentuckians who had just reached Texans called the "Mustangs"? T. R. E.

A. They were so named by Mexicans at La Bahia because they were hard to restrain and to become submissive to drill tactics, reminding the natives of the wild horses of Texas.

Q. What induced Lamothe Cadillac, French governor of Louisiana, to send St. Denis to the Nuevas Filipinas (Texas) country? Y. K.

A. Father Hidalgo, disappointed at Spanish procrastination in establishing missions and reoccupying Texas, wrote letters in 1711 to the French governor calling attention to the opportunities for profitable trading in that country. In 1714, Crozat, the Mobil merchant who held the Louisiana trading privileges, sent St. Denis with five boat loads of goods to the head of navigation on Red river to establish a trading point and to find Father Hidalgo.

Q. How many Texans were killed and wounded before the surrender at Coleto, and why did the Texans surrender? S. F. C.

A. Reports vary, but approximately 10 were killed and 60 wounded. At the close of the first day's fight, the Mexicans had sustained heavy losses, but the Texans were without water even for the wounded, food supplies were short, ammunition was running low, and Urrea received reinforcements during the night, and it was thought best to surrender to avoid further losses.

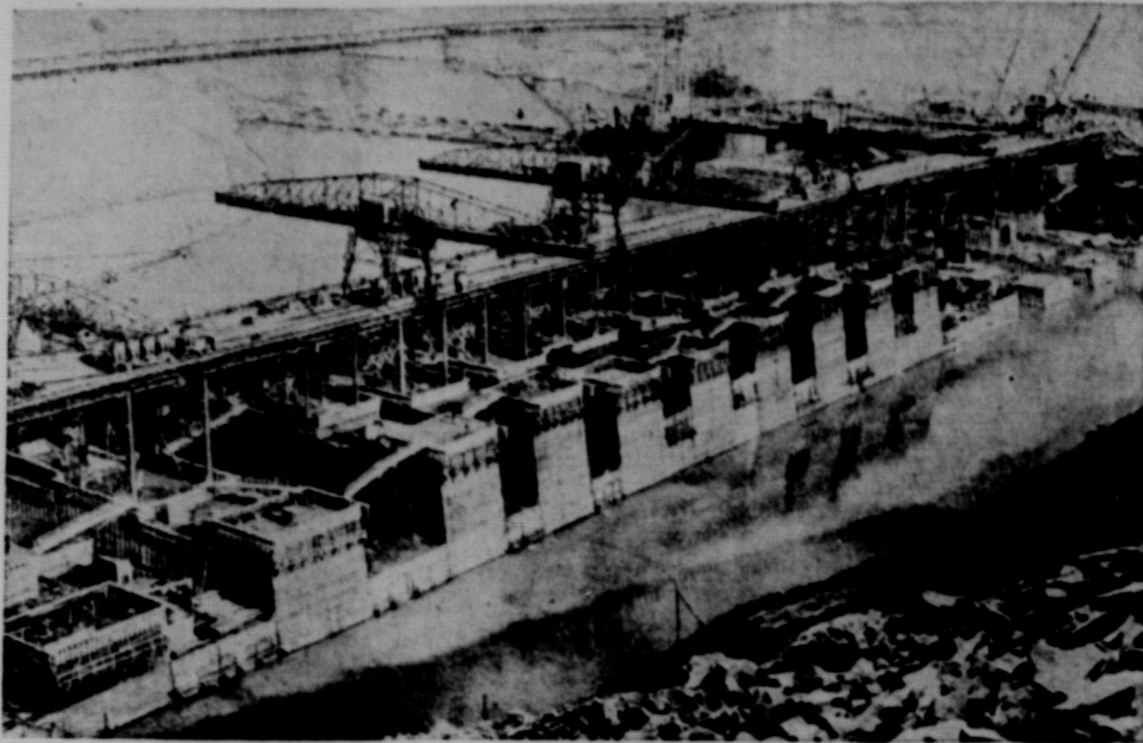

Q. By what name was La Bahia known to Fannin's men? T. R. E.

A. They called it "Fort Defiance."

Q. Why did the St. Denis Expedition stop at the Natchitoches site and why did he go to Bautista? Y. E.

A. The Crozat boats could proceed no farther up river. St. Denis located the town of Natchitoches, made an excursion toward the present site of Texarkana to get a better understanding of the trade possibilities and then proceeded, under guidance of friendly Indians, to San Juan Bautista on the Rio Grande to find Father Hidalgo and induce him to return with them and reestablish the Tejas missions and garrison the Spanish frontier.

Work on World's Largest Dam Progresses Rapidly

View showing the progress made on the Grand Coulee dam project in Washington. The waters of the Columbia river swirl about the partially-completed west bank foundations as the river is being diverted from its course, so that construction may be carried on in mid-channel. It is expected that this task of diversion will take four months. While in progress, the waters will flow over the low sections of the sawtooth-like structure and will rise nearly to the height of the steel trestles.

Q. Where did J. R. Alexander live following his return to Texas from the Mier expedition? K. L.

A. Soon after his return he married and lived in Fayette county, serving for a time as sheriff after the Civil War. In 1878 he moved to Blanco county. He died May 29, 1908, having been totally blind for 27 years. After becoming blind he dictated an account of his experiences with the Mier expedition to his son, Rufus McCormick Alexander, an accepted eyewitness report of that tragic event up to the time of Alexander's escape at Salado.

Q. Will you give the names of those who drew the black beans at Salado? H. L.

SONGS TEXANS SING

Know the songs that Texans sing—songs of the Texas ranches, the Texas trails, the Texas fire-sides, the state song, the University song, the song "Will You Come to the Bower?" that inspired the heroes of San Jacinto, negro spirituals.

The Texas Song Book contains 32 pages of specially selected songs for Texas people, Texas homes, Texas schools, all chosen by a committee of Texas musicians as popular songs of the state that all should know. Mailed post paid for only 25 cents.

Will H. Mayes, 2610 Salado St., Austin, Texas.

I enclose 25 cents in coin securely wrapped, for a copy of the "Centennial Song Book."

GREETINGS

FOR THE NEW YEAR, 1937

As the clock ticks away the dying seconds of the year 1936, we can not refrain from attempting to express to you our appreciation for your patronage during the year. It has been a pleasure, we assure you, to serve you, and it has been our constant aim to please you with quality merchandise at no greater cost.

In 1937, we pledge ourselves to this aim and invite your suggestions.

May the New Year Bring Happiness

C. G. MORRISON CO.
5c to $5.00

Time has again balanced the books on another year, and closed the volume to place it among the inheritances of future generations.

With thankful hearts we bid farewell to 1936. It was a year which opened with great promise, and in its course saw that promise more than fulfilled. It was a year which brought ease from strain, relief from drouth and depression that had hounded the nation for six years. It witnessed economic changes which lifted the basic industry of our section from the doldrums of drouth and depression and set it upon a new and happier plane.

With even greater confidence and hopes do we face the New Year. The nation's march toward recovery has not slackened, and today the livestock producer occupies an enviable position, with every factor in his favor for continued prosperity.

With gratitude, then, for what 1936 has brought and with fervent hopes for what the New Year has in store, we greet you at this, the dawn of a New Year, with our sincere best wishes for your continued happiness and prosperity.

erts Editor Amos Melton of Star-Telegram quotes Coach
h Meyer as follows:
Vic played us a great game out the coast. He's earned the right start. Too, Harold McClure is limping a bit. However, both old and John Hall will see ac-at right half in the course of afternoon."
and Melton adds by way of his opinion:

Dutch is certainly right about man Montgomery. The Senior Ozona hadn't played a down some five games before Dec.
but when McClure and Hall
went out with leg injuries,

KNIGHTED

B. P. Newton, Vice-President of the Gulf Oil Corporation, has just been honored by King Leopold III of Belgium who conferred upon him the decoration "Chevalier de l'ordre de Leopold". Mr. Newton is one of the few Americans so honored since the Order was founded by Leopold I in 1832.

Dr. J. A. Fussell and sons, Aubrey and Jeff, left yesterday to visit Dr. Fussell's ranch in Burnet County. Aubrey Fussell, who is attending the University of Texas, will remain in Austin to resume his University work next week.

Miss Mary Williams, Joe Clayton and Billy Hemphill left this morning for Dallas where they will join young Hemphill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hemphill, to attend the Cotton Bowl football game Friday afternoon between T. C. U. and Marquette University. Billy Hemphill has been here all week a guest at the home of Mrs. Charles Williams.

Miss Elizabeth Fussell and Byron Williams spent the week-end in San Antonio.

Starter In Texas Grid Classic

By the brilliant game he turned in for the T. C. U. Horned Frogs in the Pacific Coast clash with the Santa Clara Broncos, Vic Montgomery of Ozona, a Senior in the Fort Worth school, won a berth in the starting line-up of the Frogs in tomorrow's Cotton Bowl New Year's classic against Marquette University, it was announced Tuesday by Coach Dutch

Texas Unemployment Reports Of Employers Body Gathers Status

Austin, Dec. 30—Status reports from more than 20,000 employers have already been received by the Texas Unemployment Compensation
Commission, R. B. Anderson, chairman, announced today.

The Commission last week mailed status report forms, known as Form TUC 1, to more than 90,000
Texas employers, requesting data on the number of men employed, the type of business engaged in,
the basis of pay for employees and other pertinent information.

"In spite of the Christmas holiday season employers in every section of the State have been very prompt in sending in their filled-out reports," Anderson said.

"While we sought to send these forms to all employers in the State who might come under the Act, we realize that our list is incomplete," he declared. "We therefore urge all persons and firms who have not received these forms and who have employed as many as six (6) people at any time during 1935 or 1936 to write to the Texas Unemployment Compensation
Commission, Austin, Texas, immediately for their forms, specifying the number of employees they NOW have."

"These preliminary reports must be in before we can determine the employer's status under the law," Anderson asserted, "and a delay in filing the reports will penalize the employer."

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Fussell and children spent Christmas in Cisco visiting relatives. Their son, Aubrey Fussell, student in the University of Texas, came home to accompany them to Cisco, the family returning here the end of the week. Aubrey will return next week to resume his studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Brock Jones of Houston were here to spend the holidays with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bailey. Mr.
Jones returned to Houston after Christmas, while Mrs. Jones remained here for the wedding today of Miss Tommie Smith and Earle Chandler.

MRS. BAILEY HOSTESS AT SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Mrs. John R. Bailey entertained at her home here Monday afternoon with a tea and miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Tommy Smith, a bride of the week.

Members of the house party included the honoree, Mrs. Tom Smith, Miss Louise Henderson,
Miss Carolyn Montgomery, Miss Totsy Robison, Miss Blanche Robison, Miss Esther Kate Pierce,

Jones, Mrs. Albert Bailey, Mrs.
Worth Odom, Miss Madye Jo Balley, Miss Ora Louise Cox, Mrs.
Bascomb Cox, Mrs. Joe Sellers
Pierce, III, and Mrs. W. N. Hannah and Ora Louise Cox furnished music during the tea hour.

About fifty guests called during the afternoon.

board, when the captain decided to send up a signal of distress, but hardly had the rocket burst over the ship when a solemn-faced passenger stepped to the bridge.
"Captain," he said, "I'd be the last man on earth to cast a damp-

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS HISTORY

(By T. S. College for Women)

WEEK OF DEC. 27

1834—A meeting of the legislature of Coahuila and Texas was held on January 1 at Monclova, and the Mexican state of Texas was divided into three departments with three representatives.

1836—Stephen F. Austin died on Dec. 27.

1842—On Dec. 30 Captain Thomas Smith removed the archives of the Texas government from Austin to Washington on the Brazos to insure their safety from the Mexican raids.

1845—A joint resolution was passed by the Congress of the United States on Dec. 29 for acceptance of the Constitution and admission of Texas into the Union.

1857—A state school for the deaf and dumb was opened on the South Bank of the Colorado River opposite the city of Austin.

1862—On Dec. 31 and Jan. 1 Galveston was retaken by Confederate soldiers under General J. B. Magruder.

ROBUST LAD

Above is a recent photograph of Kenneth Eugene Phillips, year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Babe Phillips of Ozona. This husky lad, who celebrated his first birthday November 22, tips the beam at thirty pounds.

"Love your enemies and you will have none," said Tolstoi. Not so simply done, perhaps, but what a beautiful world it would make!

OZONA LODGE NO. 747 A. F. & A. M. Regular meetings first Monday night in each month. Next Meeting Jan. 4th Married 59 Years Tomorrow!

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Miller, pioneer Ozona couple, will celebrate their 59th wedding anniversary tomorrow, New Year's day, with traditional family dinner at their home here. The day will also be Mr. Miller's 79th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have been residents of Ozona since Crockett County's organization in 1891.

Band And Orchestra Music Club Study At Meet Next Thursday

Band and orchestra music will be the study topic for the next meeting of the Ozona Music Club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Childress. Mrs. Clarence Nelson will be assisting hostess for the meeting.

The program will be under the direction of Mrs. Charles Williams, and will be as follows:

Excerpts from Fifth Symphony — Beethoven — Mrs. Neal Hannah.

Symphonic Poem — Dance of Death — Saint Seens — Mrs. Ruth Hill.

Goin' Home — Dvorak — From Largo of "New World Symphony" — Mrs. Paul Perner, Miss Ellitabel Tilory and Mrs. V. I. Pierce.

Surprise Symphony — Haydn — Recording.

Band — King Cotton March — Sousa — Mrs. Madden Read and Miss Dixie Davidson.

Paul Perner suffered a dislocated shoulder Sunday evening when he fell while taking a shower at his home. "That's what comes of taking a bath too often," quoth the victim.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pace and small daughter left this morning to return to their home in Austin after spending Christmas here with Mrs. Pace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baggett.

HUNTER

with defiant head raised high as Mr. Jones stopped the car.

While wishing that his son-in-law were on hand, Mr. Jones heard a "pop-pop-popping" to the rear and found young Noakes blazing away with a .32 automatic pistol.

"Here, try this .22 rifle of mine," called Jones as he hastened to the rear compartment of the car to extract the rifle, the big buck trotting off a few yards in the meantime.

At a distance estimated at 125 yards, Noakes blazed away at the big fellow with the small rifle. The first bullet caught the buck behind the ears. He whirled and ran a short distance to hide behind a bush. Noakes followed, popping away with the little gun until the big fellow finally went down, his head punctured fore and aft with no less than a half dozen pellets. The buck had nine points and weighed around 125 pounds dressed.

Young Noakes took off for the coastal city, the buck swung on the fender, that all in the home town might see the successful hunter come home.

TANDYS HOSTS AT DANCE HONORING NIECE

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Tandy entertained with a dance Tuesday night at their home here honoring their niece, Miss Patricia Ellis of Abilene, who is a guest in the Tandy home. Present for the evening's enjoyment were Lurrine Townsend, Mary Williams, Lillian Baggett, Dorothy Drake, Margaret Ella Drake, Elizabeth Coos, Maggie Seahorn, Lela May Phillips, Athleen Dudley, Marcene Billingsley of San Angelo, Martin Harvick, Maurice Lemmons, Joe Clayton, Ele Bright Baggett, Joe Thomas Davidson, John Henderson, Jr., Jack Baggett, James Jordan, James Childress, Dudley Ingnam, and Bob Armstrong of San Angelo.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Tandy had as their holiday guests, Mrs. Tandy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bland, and her two sisters and brother, Marjorie and Bobbie Louise Bland and R. L. Bland, Jr. Miss Patricia Ellis, a niece, also of Abilene, came with the Blands, remaining this week for a further visit. Mr. and Mrs. Bland and children returned to their home Sunday.

Miss Ora Louise Cox is spending the week at the Albert Bailey ranch, the guest of her cousin, Miss Madye Jo Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Peters returned from Lockhart, where they spent Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. Bill Swearingen and family. They brought back their grandson, Billy Scott Swearingen, for a visit.

Mrs. Alvin O'Fields and her small daughter are here from Fort Stockton this week for a visit with Mrs. O'Fields' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Davis.

Luttrell—I'll have you know my friend Helen is getting a man's wages.

Owen—Well, well—I didn't know she was married.

interesting career in medical and health service. He was born at Gonzales and educated in public schools there and at Polytechnic College at Fort Worth. Later he was in the University of Texas and Vanderbilt University, where he studied pharmacy and advanced chemistry. He was for a time a pharmacist and in the drug business at Corpus Christi. He studied medicine two years in the University of Texas Medical College at Galveston and received his degree after two more years of study in Tulane University, in 1906. It was shortly thereafter that he was appointed by Governor Campbell in the quarantine service, then maintained by the State and later taken over by the United States Public Health Service. Later he practiced medicine at Corpus Christi and was at Ozona for a time before moving to Del Rio, where he has practiced general medicine and surgery for the past seventeen years.

Dr. Cox was a charter member and is past president of the Rio Rotary Club and has been active in all civic affairs of town. Since he was appointed member of the State Board of Health in January, 1935, Dr. Cox has devoted much of his time to an intensive study of health problems in America. A few months ago he resigned membership on the Board since then has been engaged in a study of the public health systems in Kentucky and New York and the United States Public Health Service in Washington.

Thank You -- Our Friends

As the old year draws to its close and the new dawns we count our blessings during the past 12 months and find nothing that outshines the good will and friendship of the people of Ozona. It has been a pleasure to live among you and serve you.

In 1937, we shall strive anew to merit your continued friendship and good will, to serve you better, to give you greater values, and in all sincerity wish you Happiness and Prosperity throughout the New Year.
