By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Democrats in Congress rallied behind former President Truman as he prepared to discuss the Harry Dexter White case tonight on radio and television.

Hoover At Meet On Spy's Fate, Truman States

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—Harry S. Truman, ready to tell a nationwide audience his side of the Harry Dexter White controversy, says FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover sat in on a conference at which White's fate was discussed.

The former President replies tonight over radio and television hookups to Atty. Gen. Brownell's charges that in 1946 he kept White in government service despite FBI reports that he was a spy.

Hoover's name came up when Truman was questioned last night about reports his speech would explain White was retained in government work under a plan to trap an alleged Communist spy ring.

The New York Times and the New York Herald Tribune, in dispatches from Kansas City, Mo., said today that Truman's radio-TV talk is expected to be along these lines.

The Times quoted "close associates" of Truman while the Herald Tribune referred to an "authoritative source," saying Truman is not expected to say Hoover approved such a plan but that Hoover discussed it with other administration officials and made no objections.

The Times added that "it was said that Mr. Truman would contend that his (Hoover's) approval therefore, had been assumed."

Associates of the former President have been quoted as saying the case of White, who died in 1946, was discussed at a conference of Hoover, the late Chief Justice Fred Vinson and Tom C. Clark, then attorney general and now a Supreme Court justice.

It was at this conference that a plan to keep White in government work was reportedly agreed upon.

Truman, in stating that Hoover did attend a conference on White, told a reporter: "That's all I'm going to tell you now."

His speech, he said, "will answer all questions that can be answered at this time."

ment that could spell trouble for the Eisenhower administration's program in the next session of Congress.

Atty. Gen. Brownell has promised further disclosures beyond the White case, in which he charged that Truman promoted White to be U.S. director of the International Monetary Fund after the FBI told Truman White was a spy.

Truman, who has said no such thing happened, reports to the nation tonight in a speech which, he has said, will "tell all the facts."

White was named to the monetary fund position early in 1946. He served for more than a year and then, by Truman's account, was fired by being allowed to resign.

The FBI has declined comment, but authoritative sources have told the Associated Press there was no advance agreement by the FBI to allow White to stay in government service so that he could be watched.

Political figures disagreed in weighing the probable effect of the case on next year's elections for control of Congress.

Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee said yesterday the issue of communism in government will be a major one.

Hall, who appeared on a CBS television program, was asked whether Brownell's charges in the White case were the first of a series.

He said that so far as he knew there were no other similar cases pending. Asked if he knew about the White case in advance, he replied that the GOP committee had been informed shortly before Brownell first made the charges Nov. 6.

On Capitol Hill, observers said that if additional charges do develop to prolong the attack on former Democratic administrations, Democrats might be forced into a position of giving President Eisenhower's legislative proposals the kind of cool reception that Truman's got in the GOP-controlled 80th Congress.

It is plain that no major Eisenhower proposal can be enacted in the almost evenly divided Congress without some Democratic votes.

Just how willing these Democrats are to support the Democrats

Five-Power Meet On Trieste Thought Due

By STAN SWINTON
ROME (AP)—A new offer by Yugoslav President Tito to give Italy the port city of Trieste raised diplomats' expectations here that a five-power conference on the disputed Adriatic territory is imminent.

These circles also felt Italy and Yugoslavia were agreed on a number of major points relative to the 285 square miles of territory inhabited by 375,000 persons which each nation has claimed in the past.

Speaking in Belgrade yesterday, Tito dramatically waived his nation's claims to the port city and conceded Italy should have it. But he repeated his demand for the rest of Zone A, the territory of farms and vineyards around the city. The city's 300,000 population is largely Italian, the rest of the zone's 25,000 settlers are mostly Yugoslav-Slovene origin.

Tito also warned that any further Italian expansion at Yugoslav expense would result in a "conflict." He told a parliamentary election rally "Yugoslavia will not go to war for Trieste," but Deputy Foreign Secretary Ales Behler later explained his chief meant just the port city, not all of Zone A.

Yugoslav control of the rest of Zone A would isolate the port from Italy. Diplomats here believed, however, that Yugoslavia also would concede Italy should get a corridor linking her with the city. They anticipate sharp disagreement, however, on how wide this band should be.

Tito's speech represented a moderation of Yugoslav policy. On Oct. 10 he had demanded the city be an autonomous, or self-governing unit under Italian sovereignty, with the rest of Zone A having similar status under Yugoslav sovereignty. He also had demanded internationalization of the city.

Diplomats here hinted that announcement of a five-power conference on Trieste was in the offing. At the conference, the United States, Britain, France, Yugoslavia and Italy would seek to iron out the issues brought to a head by the British-American declaration Oct. 8 that they were withdrawing their occupation troops from Zone A, including the port, and turning the area over to Italy. Tito's threats to march his own troops into Zone A—they already occupy Zone B—if the Italians moved in has delayed the British-American withdrawal.

The fate of any five-power conference on Trieste may be decided this week by Italy's Parliament. Premier Giuseppe Pella must go before the Chamber of Deputies tomorrow with his Trieste policy. The Communists and their Socialist allies plan to demand a vote of confidence.

Both prosecution and defense announced ready for trial and began selection of a jury from the 73 prospective jurors available. A venire of 120 men had been summoned and 42 were either excused or absent.

Defense Attorney George T. Thomas reported ready for trial after filing a motion that the state be required to furnish a list of witnesses it expects to call in the trial. District Attorney Elton Gilliland complied.

December Oil Allowable Cut

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas oil allowable for December was cut $5.854 barrels daily today by the Railroad Commission. It was the fourth consecutive slash in the permissive flow of oil for Texas.

The commission set the allowable at 2,756,906 barrels daily compared with the Nov. 7 allowable of 2,822,760 barrels a day.

The slash was accomplished by leaving the number of statewide producing days at 17 for 31-day December. There are 17 producing days for November, a 30-day month.

The East Texas field was also left on 17 producing days.

The commission put the Pickton Field on 9 producing days; Pantex 16, Spraberry 11, and Kelly, Snyder 15.

New wells should bring a boost of around 17,000 barrels a day in the ultimate production figure, Commissioner Olin Culberson said.

14 Arrested In Klan Floggings

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—FBI agents arrested 14 alleged former members of the Ku Klux Klan in the Carolinas today and charged them with kidnaping and flogging a brother and sister two years ago today.

Thirteen were brought here for arraignment today before a U. S. commissioner. Their arrival coincided with a federal grand jury session here.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, who announced the arrests in Washington, said they were "a continuation of intensive FBI investigation of floggings" in the Carolinas "which already has resulted in 29 convictions on similar charges in the past year and a half."

In addition, 81 have been convicted or pleaded guilty in state courts in the same period to charges of conspiracy and assault that grew out of floggings.

Those taken into custody at their homes early this morning were formally charged with kidnaping, interstate transportation of the two victims and their flogging "in a planned raid."

The Rogers are white. The FBI said Mrs. Rogers is 35 and her brother 31.

Hoover said the victims were Mrs. Christine Rogers and her brother, Ernest Barfield Rogers, who live about one mile apart on Route No. 1, Lake View, S. C.

The two told the FBI they were abducted on the night of Nov. 16, 1951, by armed Klansmen wearing white robes and hoods who broke open the doors of their homes.

Say Reds Demand Defenseless West

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western Powers told Russia today that the Soviet price for entering into negotiations on German unification and Austrian independence is "totally unacceptable."

Notes were delivered by American, British and French envoys in Moscow to the Soviet foreign office.

They replied to Russian demands put forward Nov. 3.

In their reply, the Western Powers said the Russian demands in effect placed non-European problems ahead of even a study of urgent European issues and made "a defenseless Western Europe" part of the price for Soviet participation in a conference.

The Western Powers said "the Soviet government must be well aware" that such demands are totally unacceptable.

Officials said that the American note and virtually identical British and French notes were sent to the foreign office in Moscow.

The Western nations have been negotiating with Moscow since last July regarding a conference on Germany and Austria.

They consider that the note they delivered today probably closes the exchange. However, if Russia now sends a new note it may be answered.

The Western Powers stated that while the whole affair is over as far as they're concerned, the door to a conference along the lines they previously proposed is still open any time the Kremlin is seriously interested.

This is what they formally told the Soviet government in the words of the American note: "The U. S. government can only conclude from the latest Soviet note that the Soviet government does not wish at the present time to enter into any negotiations which might have positive results."

"The U. S. government nevertheless remains determined to seek by all appropriate means agreement on the most urgent question the solution of which is essential to the lessening of international tension. (Presumably this refers to the future of Germany.)"

"Therefore it leaves open the invitation addressed to the Soviet government Oct. 18. The U. S. government is convinced that negotiations on these vital problems (unification of Germany and conclusion of an Austrian treaty) would open the way to broader agreement and would thus improve the chances of reestablishing real peace in the world."

Common stock of Cosden Petroleum Corporation was admitted Monday to trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

Directors, at a subsequent meeting, announced operating profits of Cosden were up 37 per cent for the first half of the fiscal year.

Headed by R. L. Tollett, president, the principal officers and directors of Cosden were on the floor of the exchange when it opened Monday. In keeping with tradition, they made an inspection tour of the facilities of the exchange before convening a regular monthly meeting of the board.

A dividend of 25 cents per share on common stock was declared payable in December.

Directors announced that the consolidated operating profits for the first half of the fiscal year, ending Oct. 31, 1953, amounted to $1,382,816.77. This is approximately $1.71 per share on common stock outstanding since payment of a 20 per cent stock dividend on Aug. 10, 1953.

For the first half of the preceding fiscal year, the consolidated operating profits had amounted to $1,008,751.09, which was the equivalent of $1.40 per share of common stock then outstanding.

Cosden heretofore has been listed on the board of the American Stock Exchange, or the "curb" as it is more commonly known in the trade.

DALLAS (AP)—Mrs. Betty Lee Ray, 21, former Southwest Texas beauty queen, died yesterday of bulbar polio.

She was Dallas' second victim of bulbar polio in a week, and she lived in the same apartment house as the earlier victim, William Behrman, who died Nov. 8.

Born in Kerrville, Mrs. Ray moved to Dallas two years ago after her marriage. She was named Miss Mohar of the World at Kerrville in 1949. She was graduated from Tivy High School in Kerrville and attended Schreiner there.

Supreme Court Says Indictments Against Mississippians Okay

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today called for reinstatement of perjury indictments against five pro-Truman Democrats accused of lying to Senators investigating the alleged sale of federal jobs in Mississippi. The vote was 8-0.

The indictments grew out of hearings by a Senate executive expenditures subcommittee at Jackson, Miss., in 1951.

The U. S. District Court in Jackson dismissed the indictments on the technical ground that they failed (A) to name the officer who administered the oath at the hearing, and (B) to state by what authority such an officer acted.

Mrs. Charles M. Nicholson, the grandmother, was shot in the chest with a .22-caliber pistol, the bullet passing completely through her body. Her condition was not serious.

CIO Meet Opens With Ike Attacked

CLEVELAND (AP)—CIO President Walter Reuther attacked what he called the Eisenhower administration's "service to big business" as the CIO opened its national convention today.

In his annual report, Reuther said: "It is an open secret in Washington that major drives will be under way to undermine much that remains of the New Deal and the Fair Deal."

He called on union members to rally behind the CIO in supporting candidates at all levels who can be depended upon to strive for CIO aims.

Although the report emphasized harmony within the CIO family, one important CIO leader was planning to snub the convention. David J. McDonald, head of the powerful United Steelworkers, reportedly intended to stay away from most of the important sessions.

McDonald, who succeeded the late Philip Murray as head of the Steelworkers Union, kept himself scarce in the CIO's pre-convention corridors. Both his union and Reuther's auto workers group, with more than a million members each, have constantly vied for the CIO leadership.

A year ago, at the CIO convention at Atlantic City, McDonald supported Allan Haywood, who since has died, in an unsuccessful effort to stop Reuther from becoming CIO president as Murray's successor.

McDonald, named as a member of the Eisenhower committee to study tariff problems, was reportedly committed to attending meet-

DEMOS

It was significant perhaps that such Democratic critics of Truman as Senators Russell of Georgia and Ellender of Louisiana have reacted adversely to Brownell's charges. Russell said the White case was revived "in an unseemly dash to catch the headlines."

Ellender said that before the Republicans are through, they are going to find they have committed a blunder, particularly in abortive efforts to require testimony from Truman.

"I'm sure Harry Truman hasn't anything to hide," Ellender declared. From party members more charitable to Truman's political views came new blasts at the Republicans.

Sen. Monroy of Oklahoma said the GOP had picked up the tactics of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) and made them a part of the party's campaign creed.

The child was playing in the yard at the family home and apparently fell from a toy hobby horse, hitting his right eye on a stone.

He was rushed to Webb AFB Hospital where it was found that he suffered a serious penetrating wound which would require special surgery.

He was flown to the USAF Hospital at Lackland AFB. The child's father, who was home for the weekend, accompanied his son on the flight. Sgt. LaRue is attached to the 356th Field Maintenance Squadron at Webb, but has been attending mechanic's school at Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls.

Easement Ok'ed For Water Line

Approval of easement for a water line 100 feet down a county road was the only action taken by county commissioners this morning as a dull-as-usual Monday session got under way.

The commissioners court okayed construction of the line along road right-of-way from the Jimmy Eason farm to T&P Railway roadway.

The line will serve Reef Fields Gasoline Company facilities at Sand Springs.

Judge R. H. Weaver reported commissioners probably will discuss Fourth Street right-of-way, library problems, and the salary of Odell Buchanan of Coahoma this afternoon. Judge Weaver said Buchanan has talked with him concerning possibility of an increase in salary.

Sale of the Yule seals, by mail, is the tuberculosis organization's only means of raising funds to carry on its work toward the elimination of TB.

P-TA Election To See Liberals, Rightists Fight

SAN ANTONIO (U)—Liberal and conservative forces apparently will vie in an election contest at the convention opening tomorrow and the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The presidential election comes Wednesday. A Houston P-TA member charged yesterday she had been "instructed" to vote for Mrs. C. R. Larimer of Houston as president. Mrs. Larimer is to be nominated from the floor.

Her opponent will be Mrs. Leon Price of Dallas, the State Congress' nominating committee choice.

Supporters of Mrs. Larimer have said Mrs. Price is a "liberal" and they want a "conservative." Mrs. Larimer has declined comment. Mrs. Price also has had nothing to say, declaring it's against the rules for her to answer charges or campaign.

Supporters of the two have spoken out. J. C. Perkins of Houston brought the term liberal into the election last month. He said he is a conservative and would like to see a conservative become president. He supports Mrs. Larimer.

Mrs. Robert Framson of Houston protested yesterday after receiving what she said were written instructions from her P-TA unit to vote for Mrs. Larimer. She cited a letter from the organization's parliamentarian, Mrs. W. D. Degrass of Amarillo, that "no person has a right to instruct or tell another person how to vote." She commented:

"Mrs. Price was nominated this summer by a nominating committee headed by E. N. Dennard, the Waco school superintendent. And I have confidence the nominating committee has named a competent and deserving person."

Mrs. Framson also charged that her P-TA chapter has offered to pay the registration fees of delegates attending from that school, which Mrs. Framson said "is intimidating to the delegates and is similar to offering to pay one's poll tax."

Some supporters of Mrs. Larimer said Houston was not represented on the nominating committee.

The retiring president, Mrs. H. G. Stinnett of Plainview, has said she is staying out of the controversy.

Compromise Plan Proposed On Teacher Pay Increase Dispute

By BO BYERS

AUSTIN (U)—The strongest glimmer of possible compromise on the teacher pay raise, since efforts were renewed two months ago, was seen yesterday.

A subcommittee picked by Gov. Shivers and the Texas State Teachers Assn. to resolve conflicting views ordered an analysis of the first specific compromise plan heard this far.

Supt. Joseph Griggs of Huntsville had the idea. He proposed a $402 across the board raise to teachers, an 80-20 division in state-local support of the minimum foundation program, and state aid on buildings.

The tentative plan would have school districts continue to pay their share of the total local contribution according to ability to pay, as measured by the economic index.

The $402 increase is merely a suggestive figure. The subcommittee has not agreed on the amount. If adopted, it would make the 1954-55 school year's minimum foundation program cost about $258 million dollars, roughly 26 1/2 million dollars more than if no raise were granted.

If the 80-20 formula were used, it would increase the total local contribution from the present fixed amount of 45 million dollars a year to $51,000,000 in 1954-55.

The local share would continue to rise, along with the state's, as increasing population pushes the cost of education higher.

ings of that group in Washington Wednesday and Thursday. Tomorrow, he will absent himself from CIO convention sessions to launch a good will tour of steel plants in this area with Board Chairman Ben Fairless of U. S. Steel Corp.

Those saying McDonald will be away from the CIO convention sessions most of the week conceded, however, that he will be around Friday when Reuther is expected to be re-elected to a new term to the CIO presidency.

Others, however, said McDonald may decide on a complete boycott of the convention after its early sessions.

Little opposition appeared concentrated against Reuther. His report to the convention said the Eisenhower administration appeared to "channel its thinking and its actions into a rigid pattern of service to big business."

He said the CIO feared the Eisenhower administration may sponsor some form of sales tax at the new session of Congress. He voiced opposition, too, against measures changing the social security system.

"During the past year," he said, "much of what was accomplished in the two decades of the New Deal and the Fair Deal has either been destroyed or threatened with destruction."

Sen. A. M. Alkin Jr. of Paris said this part of Griggs' plan was right in line with his thinking. Alkin did not say whether it was enough to allay his opposition to a percentage formula for state-local division of costs.

The subcommittee will meet again Nov. 29, when the research staff will submit a report on how the plan would actually affect counties.

Sen. Otis Lock of Lufkin, named to the six-member group by the governor, said he thought that despite strongly conflicting philosophies the two sides are nearer

Two Youths Admit Saturday Burglary

Two youths who admitted burglarizing a northside residence Saturday night are being held in the juvenile ward at county jail. A. E. Long, juvenile officer, reported today.

Long said the pair admitted taking a watch and some jewelry from the home of Frank Alvarado, 1041 NW 3rd Street. They denied taking a pistol which was reported stolen.

The juvenile officer said the watch and jewelry were recovered.

West Turns Down Cotton Compromise

PHOENIX (U)—Three states who have built cotton empires in recent years have rejected an acreage compromise, saying it would mean cutbacks of as much as 40 per cent.

Arizona, California and Nevada took the action at a meeting here over the weekend.

Sen. Anderson (D-NM), a spokesman for the compromise, said New Mexico and West Texas, the other two committee members, were not present.

He said he had heard they were satisfied with the compromise.

Views among the Southwestern growers come up again Nov. 20 at a meeting of Cotton Belt representatives in Fort Worth.

The compromise program would increase the 1954 allotment from the 17,910,448 acres recently set by Agriculture Department Secretary Benson to 21,315,000 acres.

The three Southwestern states charged it would still mean reductions of 24 to 40 per cent under their 1952 plantings while cuts for the south would be only 1 per cent to 16 per cent.

A resolution adopted by the three committee members termed this "unfair and inequitable."

Congress will consider the compromise in January, but the Southwestern rebellion may present difficulties. Anderson has said he would not support cotton legislation not backed by the entire Cotton Belt.

Bristow's Ex-Coach Is Victim Of Death

Local friends here have been informed of the death in Dallas Saturday night of Harry Faulkner, veteran West Texas baseball man. He was 65.

Faulkner was also a well-known football coach. He was the first coach Obie Bristow, big spring legislator and later a grid star at Oklahoma University, ever had.

Faulkner, who also coached at SMU, Texas A&M and Terrell Prep in Dallas, operated baseball clubs at Lubbock in the WT-NM League and Vernon in the Longhorn League.

At one time, he owned the Tyler Big State League Club, along with Hack Miller, one-time Big Spring manager.

Mrs. R. R. McEwen, 703 Texas, reported that the radio was taken from her 1953 Cadillac between 11 a.m. and 12 a.m. while the car was parked at 5th and Runnels streets. Some gas was also siphoned from the tank, she said.

Benson Convinced Rejection Of Supports Plea Was Right

By OVID A. MARTIN SALT LAKE CITY (U)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson heads back to Washington today from a drought inspection tour convinced that he was right in rejecting demands of a recent "cattlemen's caravan" for cattle price supports.

He told newsmen that in talking with several hundred livestock farmers, farm organization leaders, and state and local officials in six western states, he had found no sentiment for direct price floors to bolster and stabilize cattle prices.

"People get here went out of their way," he said, "to tell me they are against supports and that they approve of what we have been doing to help the situation."

Benson flew into the Southwest and West in a military plane last Thursday to make a first-hand inspection of drought conditions, to find out how emergency drought relief programs are operating and to sample farmer thinking on cattle price supports.

Child Is Flown To San Antonio After Eye Is Hurt Here

Little Michael J. LaRue, 16-month-old son of S-Sgt. and Mrs. Wilmeth LaRue, who live on South Monticello, was flown to San Antonio for surgery Sunday after suffering an eye injury.

The child was playing in the yard at the family home and apparently fell from a toy hobby horse, hitting his right eye on a stone.

He was rushed to Webb AFB Hospital where it was found that he suffered a serious penetrating wound which would require special surgery.

He was flown to the USAF Hospital at Lackland AFB. The child's father, who was home for the weekend, accompanied his son on the flight. Sgt. LaRue is attached to the 356th Field Maintenance Squadron at Webb, but has been attending mechanic's school at Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls.

Easement Ok'ed For Water Line

Approval of easement for a water line 100 feet down a county road was the only action taken by county commissioners this morning as a dull-as-usual Monday session got under way.

The commissioners court okayed construction of the line along road right-of-way from the Jimmy Eason farm to T&P Railway roadway.

The line will serve Reef Fields Gasoline Company facilities at Sand Springs.

Judge R. H. Weaver reported commissioners probably will discuss Fourth Street right-of-way, library problems, and the salary of Odell Buchanan of Coahoma this afternoon. Judge Weaver said Buchanan has talked with him concerning possibility of an increase in salary.

Garden City School Visited By Burglars

GARDEN CITY — Theft of $235 from the high school superintendent's safe was reported here today. Sheriff Buster Cox said the money could have been taken any time between Friday evening and early this morning.

Entrance was made to the building after a window was forced open. Cox said. Door to Superintendent W. A. Wilson's office was jammed open with a nail bar. It is believed.

Cox said the safe was not locked, and that the money was the only thing found missing this morning. There are no leads as to who took the money, he said.

Riding THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

The Martin County 4-H Club is sponsoring a turkey shoot at the Stanton Ball Park this coming Saturday between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

A good way to get a Thanksgiving turkey for the one buck charged for five shots, or better still shoot 10 rounds and put another turkey in cold storage for Christmas.

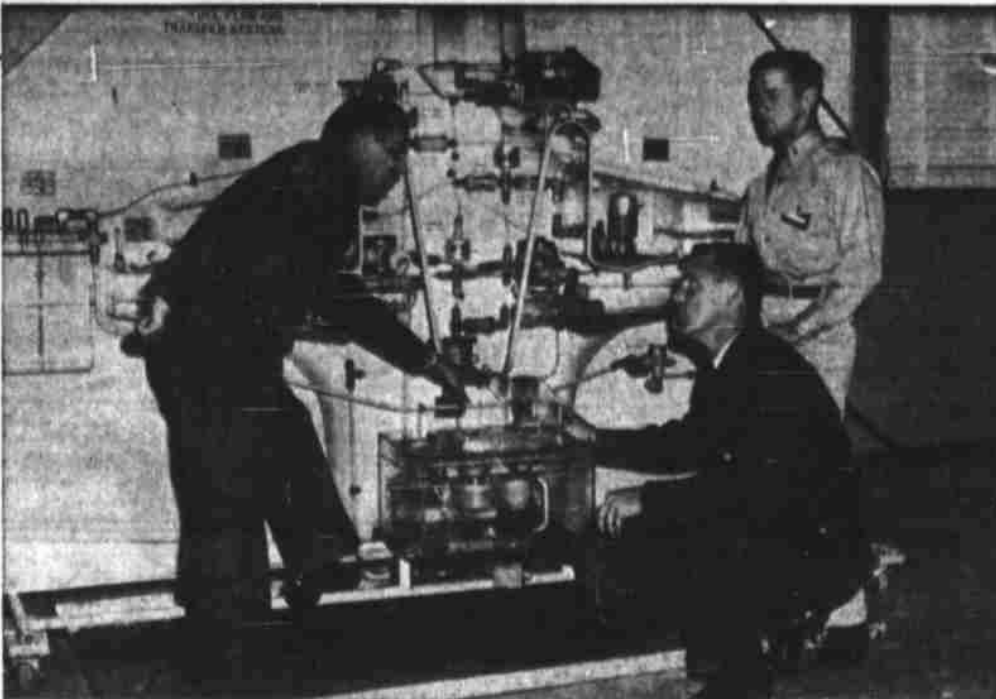

The shooting will be at 50 feet with .22 rimfire ammunition only, and only open or deep sights. No scopes. Shooting will be from standing, kneeling, sitting or prone positions. No sandbag rests. The shooting will also be against the other shooters in your string and not against a possible score.

You may bring your own rifle or use one of the three owned by the 4-H Club.

Oliver West, Glasscock County agent, says his 4-H Club will have a turkey shoot sometime in December.

Next Sunday, Nov. 22, two miles west of Sterling City on Highway 87, the Sterling City 4-H Club will also have a turkey shoot with announced divisions for deer rifles, pistols, shotguns and rimfire .22s. It is scheduled for 2 p. m. and we're trying to get more information on what calibres and sights will be permitted and at what ranges. More about this one later.

Forty Hereford steers, averaging about 400 pounds, and from the Byrd Ranch at Alpine, have been put in the feed pens at the

Save Fuel For Safety

M-Sgt. Fred Hardy, instructor, explains to Cadets L. D. Hart and E. W. Dittman what to do in case there's a leak in the main fuel cell on a T-33. This mock up of a jet fuel system is used in the engineering training all cadets receive at Webb. Understanding of the mechanics of aviation helps pilots bring themselves and their planes home safely.

Safety Is 'Engineered' Into Webb Student Pilots Before Jet Flown

Safety is "engineered" into student pilots at Webb Air Force Base. Cadets get a complete course in the mechanics of the jet craft they are to fly—before they ever stick a foot in the cockpit of one of the complicated planes.

There are two primary reasons for the intensive engineering course. One is to show the fliers how to get the most out of a plane. The other, and probably the most important, is safety. Safety for the pilot and safety for the airplane, which may have set the taxpayers back a $175,000.

Even the manufacturer had safety as a guide when he designed and built the aircraft. He tried to make all of its parts "foolproof" and then put in auxiliary units to take over in case something went wrong.

And for his part, the pilot must understand "how" and "why" the various parts of his craft work, and what to do, automatically, the instant trouble appears. To get this understanding, cadets study aircraft mechanics and engineering during the academic phase of their training at Webb.

M-Sgt. Fred Hardy is the cadet's instructor in the engineering course. "We try to teach them the limitations of the aircraft, the troubles that can be expected, and what to do in an emergency," he says. Sgt. Hardy first familiarizes fledglings with the fundamental parts of a T-33 and the basic theory of jet propulsion. A cut-away jet engine is used to show the future fliers just how they'll get their power, pointing out the turbine and other parts where trouble possibly could develop in flight.

"For instance, if you lose a bucket," he explains, pointing to a "bucket" on the turbine, "the only thing that happens is severe vibration. The best thing to do is throttle the engine down to the point where the vibration is least and bring it home."

The instructor explains about the fuel pump. It's equipped with an auxiliary pump that you can use to try to get the engine started again if it "flames out" because of fuel pump trouble.

The student learns how every thing from engine to trim tab operates, including hydraulically-actuated landing gear and other accessories. The electrical system, fuel system, and a complicated warning system that tells the pilot when something is wrong.

Big "mock-ups" of the various units are used to demonstrate the effects of the pilot's action. One model has transparent fuel tanks and lines, all in their proper relation to each other and the plane. Pump is started and the student sees the system in action, just as when the plane is in flight.

Fuel warning signals are demonstrated at the same time, and the cadet is shown what he can do in case a bullet punctures the main tank. Simply flip this switch, Sgt. Hardy explains, and fuel from the tip and wing tanks bypasses the main tank and goes directly to the engine.

An hydraulic system is laid out on another model, complete with landing gear. The student operates the cockpit controls and sees how the hydraulic fluid actuates gear or the aileron boosters (the power steering for airplanes).

The flier is shown how to bring the emergency hydraulic system into action, should the regular hydraulic power fail. He learns that brakes are operated by a separate system, so that they will work even if the other hydraulic units are out of order.

The flying students also learn how the cockpit pressurization and ventilation systems work, so they'll know what to do in event one of these gets out of order and threatens to roast a pilot or freeze him to the controls. The fire detection network is studied, so the pilot will know what is happening in every area of the plane.

There are hundreds of things a pilot must know about his plane if he is to fly it safely, day after day. As Capt. Jack Q. Kimball, flight instructor, says, "a knowledge of any kind of equipment is basic to its safe operation—on the ground or in the air."

Hirohito Chose Good Time To Be Bored

TOKYO (AP)—Bored with a television show, Emperor Hirohito walked out of his sitting room in his laboratory, where he studies marine life as a hobby.

Just 1 1/2 hours later, the massive plaster ceiling of the sitting room collapsed. The imperial household today reported the incident, which happened 10 days ago. It shocked the Japanese nation.

It carries a significance here not known in the Western world, for the expression "to let the ceiling fall" is almost the same as "to assassinate the ruler."

The imperial household said no negligence was involved, that perhaps summer rains and damp weather were responsible.

"The construction company is ashamed of the incident and is now doing the job all over again on its own cost," the announcement said.

Three FBI Agents Killed In Crash

DECORAH, Iowa (AP)—A car carrying five FBI agents and their dog of five deer from a Wyoming hunt collided with another auto at an intersection north of here yesterday, killing three federal agents.

Another FBI agent and two lawmen, in the other car, remained in critical condition, Decorum Lutheran Hospital reported today. The fifth federal agent and another lawman also were injured.

Killed were Louis Ewing, 27, Robert J. McMichael, 30, and Joseph Hughes Jr., 25, all of Chicago. The other agents were George Davis, 39, in critical condition, and John Medary, 27, both of Chicago.

Wrong Partners Chosen For Holdup

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Robert Fahey and John Leone walked into a tavern Saturday night. A stranger approached Fahey, asking, "How about helping me in a stickup?"

Fahey agreed, asked for particulars, and was told the job "was good for $10,000."

Question of time came up. "I'm ready now," said Deputy Sheriff Fahey, flashing his badge. Fahey and his fellow deputy took Wayne Poor, 32, of nearby Toodburg to the Sangamon County Jail, where Poor was held without charge. Poor said he had been released from a federal penitentiary two days earlier and had come to Springfield to report to a probation officer.

Farmer Confesses Murders, Attempts To Leap To Death

DIGNE, France (AP)—Gaston Dominiel, gnarled old mountain farmer who has confessed the triple slaying of an English family 15 months ago, tried to throw himself over a railroad bridge today during a reenactment of the crime.

Police grabbed the bearded, 76-year-old farmer before he could carry out his apparent attempt at suicide.

Accused by two of his own sons, the old man was charged formally today with the slaying on Aug. 5, 1952, of British nutrition expert Sir Jack Drummond, Lady Drummond and their 11-year-old daughter.

The Drummonds, holidaying in France, were slain at their roadside camp site 200 yards from Dominiel's stone farm home near here in southeastern France.

Police said the old man broke down and confessed the killings after his sons' accusations and 48 hours of police grilling.

The French press agency in a new version of the farmer's alleged confession said he killed the Drummonds after Sir Jack surprised him in an attempt to rape Lady Drummond.

Lord Montagu Sodomy Trial Ruled In England

LYMINGTON, England (AP)—Magistrates committed Lord Montagu of Beaulieu today for trial before a jury on a charge of committing a serious offense against a 14-year-old boy.

Through his attorney, Montagu told the magistrate: "I declare my innocence as I have done from the first."

Montagu was arrested 10 days ago on his return from a lengthy stay on the continent and in the United States at Waco, Tex.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Do 'Much With Little' In Make-Up, Says Star

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Barbara Lawrence started her movie career when, as a child, she was chosen "Little Miss Hollywood."
 It was during World War II that I first met Barbara. She was under contract to Twentieth-Century at the time, and fuming because, even though she was married, they made her have a teacher on the set. "Isn't it ridiculous," she said, "to have a husband and a nurse? I mentioned this to Barbara last one cares what you pay for a dress but they do react to what condition it is in."

"That's very good advice," I said, "but clothes are only half of the appearance picture. What about make-up?"

"I feel that you should try to get as much as you can out of as little as you can," Barbara laughed. "When I'm making up I always ask myself: 'Can I use less with just as much effect?' The trend used to be for heavy make-up, but today you have to try to look natural."

"If you prefer the cake type of make-up, be sure to spread it light. A good trick is to take a sponge and wet it with very cold water or a skin lotion and pat this gently over your make-up. Then take a tissue and blot off the moisture. This will take off that matted-down look and help to highlight your skin."

"But in using tinted make-up," Barbara cautioned, "be sure to look at yourself from the side to make sure that you have not left a line. Failing to blend rouge or powder is deadly and will give away your make-up secrets."

MAKE-UP NEWS

You'll be on the road to better make-up techniques when you get leaflet M-15, "Make-up and Fashion Secrets of the Stars." Here, too, you'll get a lot of valuable tips on dressing for beauty. Your leaflet will be on the way to you when you send 5 cents AND a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of the Big Spring Herald. Remember to ask for M-15.

week when we lunched at MGM where she is making "Paris Model." "You know Hollywood very well," I commented. "How has being a child actress conditioned you?"

"I think it instilled in me a habit of grooming," she said. "This can be overdone so that a girl pays too much attention to her outside and not enough to personality development. But once you discipline yourself to neatness and groove this habit, you can dress, and look immaculate, as fast as the girl who is careless about her appearance."

"The most important thing to remember," Barbara advised, "is to have your clothes in readiness. When you take them off, check for spots, brush your skirts and shoes; send anything that is not fresh to the cleaners or to the laundry. No

Woman's Forum Places First In Art Week Observance

The Woman's Forum has for the second consecutive year been honored with first place in the state for its American Art Week Observance. The award for its 1952 observance was announced in Austin at the recent Texas Federation of Women's Clubs convention.

The 1952 observance program that won the award for the group featured the paintings of Mrs. Myrtle Lee, local artist and teacher, and those of some of her students. A talk by Mrs. Lee was included on the program and a review of the short story, "The Million Dollar Forgery," by Mrs. Clyde Angel.

This marks the fourth year that the forum has been honored by the TFWC for its annual observance of American Art Week. The organization previously won two second places.

The Art Week is observed annually in November in order to promote interest and appreciation in American art and artists. It is sponsored by the American Artists Professional League, Inc.

This year's observance will be held on Nov. 20 at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Omar Jones. Mrs. Emmett Miller will speak on interior decorating. Mrs. Ruthie Miller of Estah's Flowers, will discuss "The Art of Flower Arrangement." Mrs. Willard Hendrick will report on the TFWC which she attended in Austin.

Hospital Course For Auxiliary Is Tonight

American Legion Auxiliary members are invited to attend a volunteer hospital workers school tonight at 7:30 at the VA Hospital.

The course is open to members who have had a previous course as well as to those who have not.

Don't soak any of your wood-handled kitchen utensils; wash them quickly in hot suds and rinse at once with clear water. Dry the utensils thoroughly before putting them away. Soaking will rot the wooden handles and chip their enamel or paint.

Mary Margaret McBRIDE SAYS

A columnist can sit at her typewriter and pour out all her uncertainties and woes, secure in the knowledge that she'll be paid something for the recital while anybody else, for such satisfactory unbending, must turn over a big chunk of her weekly paycheck to a psychiatrist. You can even tell in your column about your operation or the trip you took that no friend would ever listen to you talk about.

When you like somebody or something, you write about him or it. When somebody or something vexes you, you set it all down. This is wonderful.

I've been annoyed at Broadway first nights for years, but I never had a chance to say so until I started columnizing. I feel much easier about them now. Restaurants that served warm water in a cup with a teabag on the side — when I ordered tea — have always enraged me, but now I've got rid of that rage in a column I don't mind so much. I've long been sick of so-called intellectuals who brand every sweet, honest emotion as corny, but I feel more tolerant since I've talked back to them.

In my column I've confessed to all sorts of sins: the bad temper that leaves me limp and gully-feeling after each explosion; my unlovely stinginess in hating to have people use my telephone; the fact that I stole malted milk tablets from my own grandfather when I was nine. Readers write comfortingly that I'm not alone in my peccadilloes and match me, crime for crime.

One of my "confessions" involved me in correspondence with a delightful stockbroker in Michigan who was distressed because I'd rather sock my savings under my mattress than in a bank. I explained that I meant to be funny, and at last reports all had been forgiven and my broker friend is reading me every day.

The most startling benefit of writing a column came after the one in which I wailed that I couldn't find any sausage meat like that my father used to fix every fall on our farm in Missouri. First a nice man named Smith long-distanced me from Baltimore, then a call came from Mr. O'Brien in Waverly, New York. Both gentlemen said the same thing: "Lady, I've got your sausage meat." And the nice part was that they had — almost. I know because they sent samples. And readers from all over sent sausage, recipes, dealer addresses and reminiscences. I never had so much fun nor ate so much sausage in so short a time in my life.

Now I'm going after salt-rising bread. My Aunt Mame, who makes the best in our family used to mail me a loaf now and then, but she broke her leg awhile back and can't get about to cook yet. I know there's no use trying to find salt-rising in New York, for Thyra Samter Winslow, the writer who helps me keep up on food gossip, says the last place that made it had to stop because poor benighted neighbors complained so much about the way it smelled when rising.

As soon as I get the salt-rising issue settled, I think I'll see whether anybody ever gathers hickory nuts in autumn any more. I have a recipe for hickory nut cake that I'm dying to try, but no hickory nuts.

A column is a wonderful thing.

Coahoma, Grandfalls Meet Here In Bi-District Game

Decision Made In Midland

Big Spring will play host to its first bi-district football game in many years Friday night, Nov. 27, at which time Coahoma and Grandfalls come to grips at Steer Stadium. Game time will be 7:30 p.m.

Decision to hold the game in Big Spring was made during a meeting of the coaches in Midland Sunday afternoon.

Fred Salling, Coahoma mentor, made the decision after he had won the toss of the coin. Coach Gene Armistead represented Grandfalls.

Salling said Grandfalls favored holding the game in Monahans, had it won the toss of the coin.

The game will be held the night following Thanksgiving and will not have competition from any contest in this area. Big Spring is booked to play Thanksgiving Day, but in Sweetwater.

Big Spring landed the game because its stands will seat more of the Coahoma park and because of its proximity to Coahoma.

The Coahoma team recently ended a perfect regular season. It is champion of District 5-B while Grandfalls copped 5-B laurels.

The two teams met in a practice game early in the season, at which time Coahoma won a hard-fought 20-6 decision.

Pointing For Ysleta

Local Golfers Nudge Lamesa

A team of Big Spring Country Club golfers won their second straight decision from Lamesa representatives here Sunday afternoon, this time by a score of 8-4.

Previously, the local linksters had invaded Lamesa and won, 13 1/2 to 8 1/2.

Weldon Bryant achieved a win over Joe Alexander while James Lee Underwood prevailed over Gary Mitchell. Bryant and Underwood teamed to gain a third point over their Lamesa foes in that particular match.

James Edwards, Big Spring, lost to Ben Alexander, Lamesa, and Bob Satterwhite, Big Spring, won over Jeff Mitchell, Lamesa, in another foursome. The Lamesa duo won team honors in that one.

Jack Koutz, Big Spring, halved a match with Bob Fleming, Lamesa, in singles play.

Cleve Spence, Lamesa, prodded Jake Morgan, Big Spring, and Buster Tuttle, Lamesa, decided J. R. Farmer, Big Spring, in another foursome. Lamesa also won team honors in that match.

Earl Reynolds and Son Powell, Big Spring, teamed up to add to the local team's margin of victory. Reynolds defeated Mr. Addison, Lamesa, while Powell turned back Bob Van Wie, Lamesa. The two also took team laurels.

Champ Rainwater, Big Spring, defeated Bill White, Lamesa, and Speedy Nugent, Big Spring, nudged Louie White, Lamesa, in still other matches. The Big Spring twosome also copied team honors.

In the absence of Pro C. A. DeWees, ill with the flu, Bob Hodges served as meet director.

Detroit, Cleveland Loom As Playoff Foes Again

NEW YORK (U)—The National Football League standings had a decided 1952 tinge today chiefly because of Lou Groza's toe and Charlie Trippi's arm.

Cleveland's all-winning Browns and the Detroit Lions met for the NFL title last fall and it looks as if they're headed for another clash since they top their respective conferences.

There's little question but what the Browns will be in the playoff. They have won eight games and lead the Philadelphia Eagles by 2 1/2 games in the Eastern Conference. Each has four to play.

But the Lions' hold on the top spot in the Western Conference is not so secure. They hold a half-game margin over the second-place Los Angeles Rams and a full game over the third-place San Francisco 49ers.

Cleveland, with Groza kicking three field goals, played an important role in dissolving the three-way tie for the Western Conference lead yesterday. The 11 points contributed by Groza (the also converted after two touchdowns) were the difference as the Browns defeated the 49ers, 23-21, before 80,888 at Cleveland.

At Chicago, Trippi completed eight passes, seven of them in a row, from a spread formation. The Cardinals tallied in the final minute to tie the Rams, 24-24. The deadlock by a team that hasn't won a game all season really gave the Rams a title hopes a setback for the Lions, throwing up a sturdy defense after Bobby Layne had tossed two touchdown passes, beat the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

None of the other games had any effect on the upper brackets in either conference. The Pittsburgh Steelers did move into third place in the Eastern Conference on a 14-10 victory over the New York Giants. And the Eagles retained a mathematical chance of catching the Browns by thumping the Baltimore Colts, 45-14, after Buddy Young had returned the opening kickoff 194 yards for a Baltimore touchdown. The Chicago Bears tied the Packers for last place in the Western division with a 27-24 decision over Washington's Redskins.

The Browns never trailed against the 49ers but their edge never was large. Otto Graham sat out the parts of the second and third periods with an injured face. He returned in the final period and pitched passes of 33 and 34 yards to Ray Renfro for Cleveland's second touchdown and engineered the drive that placed the ball in position for Groza's third field goal. The 10 points more than offset the 49ers final drive, which ended with Y. A. Tittle scoring at the end of an 84-yard march.

The Cardinals stunned the Rams and 26,574 fans by talking a 17-0 lead in the first period and holding a 17-0 advantage at halftime. But the Rams tied the score in the third period and took the lead on an 80-yard drive in the fourth. Then, with Trippi hitting his receivers from the spread formation, the Cards went 73 yards. The payoff pass was an 18-yarder to Don Paul.

The Lions combined two touchdown passes by Layne—one an 83-yard play involving Deak Walker and the second a 22-yarder to Leon Hart—with Yale Lary's three pass interceptions in the final period to defeat the Packers.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Buddy Cosby, of the Big Spring football team who this corner recalls, but rather how the he ever got in football was the drubbing the Steers handed Brownwood.

Bigger than the touchdown he scored against Plainview, the first of his varsity career?

"Yes," says Buddy, "though I hope to play more offense and perhaps get other chances to carry the ball before I graduate."

Cosby got his kicks out of the outcome of the Brownwood game, which ended with Big Spring on the long end of a 13-6 game, because he remembers all too well the reception he and his mates got in Brownwood last year, when Big Spring experienced a 35-21 lacing.

It wasn't the size of that score, Buddy recalls, but rather how the Lions went about it.

"They tried to talk us out of that one," Cosby says. "They said things that hurt. Why, when we lined up on defense, they even threw grass in our face. It was hard to take."

Buddy and his cohorts bided their time. The set-up was perfect for this year's game. The Lions brought a perfect record to town. Big Spring hadn't won a game. But the Steers, concentrating on Tailback Ray Masters, stopped the Lions in such a convincing manner that Brownwood didn't recover for several weeks. Needless to relate, Buddy played a major role in defending against Masters and Company.

And how would Buddy rate Masters with the great backs he's faced?

"Man, he's great, there's no doubt about it. He performed like a college boy against us last year. I thought he was a senior. When I found out he was coming back this year, I felt like taking up ping-pong."

Cosby (who prefers to be identified with the nickname "Cosmo"—his real first names are Buddy Ray) wasn't too impressed with Kenny Ford, Breckenridge's field general, after having faced him twice.

He conceded he must be good, though, because Kenny has turned in too many consistently good performances.

"I'd never take him for a football player, though," says Buddy, "off the field, that is. Those glasses fool you."

Cosby will be back in 1954, at which time he'll play more offense. He shares the fullback position on the team right now with J. C. Armistead. He likes "to take that ball and run right up the middle."

He has every intention of going to college, if some school wants him. Texas Tech scouts talked to him about a scholarship when he was only a sophomore, thinking he was in his last year in school. He'd like to go to school with Frosty Robison. The two are firm friends.

It might not improve my relations with my Sweetwater friends when I reveal Cosby was born in Sweetwater, went to school there for several years. He later lived in Snyder and played football there a couple of seasons before coming here. At Sweetwater, his father knew both Sammy Baugh and Lew Jenkins real well.

Incidentally, there's another Cosby coming along. Buddy's little brother is now in the fifth grade here. Buddy says he intends to begin teaching the young fellow the things he's learned in football, as soon as time permits.

Tech Fishing For Bowl Bid

By EDDIE LEE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas Tech's Red Raiders, frankly fishing for a football bowl bid, may get hooked themselves this week by the University of Houston, upset conqueror of Baylor Saturday.

Rated the best the Border Conference has to offer, the Raiders will be seeking to land their third prize from the Missouri Valley Conference pond. Tech netted a 27-13 victory over Oklahoma A&M early in the season and a 49-7 rout of Tulsa Saturday.

The line will be the same tough material that has carried the Raiders to their 8-1 record so far. They will attempt to lure the necessary points with a flock of capable backs headed by Bob Cavazos.

But in view of Houston's startling 37-7 victory over Baylor, things may not work out as planned. The Raiders offer an equally pleasing catch to their hosts.

The expedition to Houston tops a heavy intersectional schedule for Border teams. Arizona's flourishing Wildcats entertain Kansas State at Tucson, Ariz. The Sun Devils of Arizona State at Tempe become the fourth Border team faced by Midwestern. Hardin-Simmons plays host to North Texas State.

The only conference game matches West Texas State and New Mexico A&M at Las Cruces, N.M. Each wins in four conference starts, they are fighting to stay out of the cellar.

Saturday, Hardin-Simmons won its fourth league game without a defeat by taming New Mexico A&M, 29-0. Texas Western knocked off Arizona, 28-20 to move into third place in the conference.

Tempe took a 26-18 victory over Brigham Young in a non-conference contest at Tempe while West Texas fell, 35-6, to North Texas in another.

Local Golfers Nudge Lamesa

A team of Big Spring Country Club golfers won their second straight decision from Lamesa representatives here Sunday afternoon, this time by a score of 8-4.

Previously, the local linksters had invaded Lamesa and won, 13 1/2 to 8 1/2.

Weldon Bryant achieved a win over Joe Alexander while James Lee Underwood prevailed over Gary Mitchell. Bryant and Underwood teamed to gain a third point over their Lamesa foes in that particular match.

James Edwards, Big Spring, lost to Ben Alexander, Lamesa, and Bob Satterwhite, Big Spring, won over Jeff Mitchell, Lamesa, in another foursome. The Lamesa duo won team honors in that one.

Jack Koutz, Big Spring, halved a match with Bob Fleming, Lamesa, in singles play.

Cleve Spence, Lamesa, prodded Jake Morgan, Big Spring, and Buster Tuttle, Lamesa, decided J. R. Farmer, Big Spring, in another foursome. Lamesa also won team honors in that match.

Earl Reynolds and Son Powell, Big Spring, teamed up to add to the local team's margin of victory. Reynolds defeated Mr. Addison, Lamesa, while Powell turned back Bob Van Wie, Lamesa. The two also took team laurels.

Champ Rainwater, Big Spring, defeated Bill White, Lamesa, and Speedy Nugent, Big Spring, nudged Louie White, Lamesa, in still other matches. The Big Spring twosome also copied team honors.

In the absence of Pro C. A. DeWees, ill with the flu, Bob Hodges served as meet director.

McHan Retains Lead In Total Offense In SW

DALLAS (U)—It's a hot fight—this struggle for the total offense leadership of Southwest Conference football—but Lamar McHan, Arkansas' man of many talents, seems most likely to win it.

McHan won leads by only 30 yards over Don Ellis of Texas A&M and is just 52 yards to the good over Francis Davidson of Baylor. But the Razorback star has two games to play while Ellis has only one and Davidson is on the injury list.

McHan gained 88 yards passing and 19 rushing last week against Southern Methodist running his season total to 1,149 on 232 plays. Ellis passed for 174 and netted 44 on the ground against Rice, to making his total 1,019 on 274 plays. Davidson played 111 times against University of Houston but still is a fairly close third with 797 yards on 136 plays.

Ellis pushed back into first place in passing, and Davidson fell to third. The Aggie quarterback has thrown 161 passes and completed 70 for 860 yards. McHan is second with 56 of 110 for 801 and Davidson third with 50 of 105 for 795.

The ball-carrying race gets closer and closer. Dicky Moegele of Rice rolled up 88 yards last week against Texas A&M and moved within 69 yards of his teammate, Kosse Johnson, the leader, who got 75. Johnson has gained 681 yards on 141 carries, Moegele 612 on 88.

McHan is the leading punter with an average of 38.8 on 39 kicks. Davidson is second with 38.2 on 25.

Charley Brewer of Texas leads the punt returners with a 13.2 average on nine runs and Frank Eldom of Southern Methodist is second with 12.1 on nine.

Floyd Sagely of Arkansas tops the pass-receivers with 22 catches for 388 yards. Bennie Sinclair of Texas A&M is second with 18 for 285.

Rice is the leading offensive team, averaging 352.3 yards per game. Southern Methodist is far ahead in defense, giving up only 158 yards per contest.

Six 1-AAA Elevens Fight For Left-Overs Friday

While Big Spring concerns itself with a non-conference foe, the six other teams in District 1-AAA fight for the left-overs in the standings.

The Steers clinched the right to represent the conference in bi-district play when they bowled over a good Snyder team last week, 27-14.

Big Spring guns for revenge in its game with Ysleta. The Steers ran the Indians all over the field last year, yet lost, 14-12.

The conference spotlight will be on Vernon, where Breckenridge bids to remain in the running for a tie for first place. The Bucks, though they could tie for the top spot, have no chance to get into the playoffs because they have already lost to Big Spring.

In other games, Sweetwater goes to Snyder and Lamesa plays host to Plainview.

Breckenridge, which banked 47 points against Plainview last week, remains the highest scoring team in the circuit with a total of 240 points.

Big Spring still boasts the best defense, having yielded only 73 points in eight games.

Bill Dendy, Breckenridge, is still the leading scorer in the conference with a total of 99 points. He tallied three touchdowns against Plainview.

Big Spring's Frosty Robison gained on Dendy, however, by counting 24 points against Snyder. Frosty now has 72 points.

MORE DISTRICT CHAMPS TO BE DECIDED FRIDAY

By The Associated Press

Five of the 16 districts in the top classes of Texas schoolboy football have representatives for the state playoffs, and six more are likely to be determined this week.

Already in the playoffs are Bowie (El Paso) and Waco in Class AAAA and Big Spring, Edison (San Antonio) and Edinburg in Class AAA. It is certain that there will be new state champions in both classes. Lubbock, the 1952 AAAA king, already has been eliminated in district play and Breckenridge, which took the Class AAA title, is out of contention for a playoff berth although it might share its district crown.

Big Spring clinched a playoff spot from Breckenridge's district last week as it beat Snyder, 27-14. Big Spring can now lose the remaining conference game on its schedule—with Sweetwater Nov. 27—and still be in the playoffs because it beat Breckenridge, the only team left with a chance to the Big Spring for first place, in regular season play. Odessa appears certain to represent Lubbock's district in the playoffs. The Broncs, unbeaten in District 1, play San Angelo Saturday and a victory or tie will clinch it.

Two other Class AAAA district championships on the line this week. Lamar (Houston) and San Jacinto (Houston) clash for the Dist. 7 crown Saturday. Port Arthur plays at Baytown for the Dist. 8 pennant Friday.

Temple plays at Corsicana Friday night for the Dist. 5 championship in Class AAA. Cleburne will be at Brownwood Friday in Dist. 2 with Brownwood able to win the title with a victory or tie. In Dist. 6 Port Neches can sew up the

Baylor, SMU Meet In Top SWC Battle This Week

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Southwest Conference will trim away at least one-fourth of that jam around the top this week when Baylor and Southern Methodist battle it out at Waco.

This game headlines the most important schedule of the season as four teams—Texas, Rice, Baylor and Southern Methodist—push into the final two weeks docketed for the lead.

Two things are at stake—the conference championship and a spot in the Cotton Bowl that will pay about $70,000. And if there is a tie for the title, which now appears virtually certain, it's according to who does the tying as to which team gets the Cotton Bowl place.

If it's Texas and Baylor, Texas will get it. But if it's Texas and Rice, then Rice will make it. The rule is that the team beating the other in regular season play goes to the Cotton Bowl.

A three-way tie would be something else. Then the conference would have to vote on it.

It's pretty well agreed that Texas will either win the title or tie for it. The Longhorns have only one game left—skidding Texas A&M at College Station Thanksgiving Day. But Rice, Baylor and Southern Methodist have plenty of trouble ahead. Both Rice and SMU must play Baylor while Rice and Southern Methodist still have Texas Christian. Rice tries to take care of the Texas Christian menace at Fort Worth Saturday.

Baylor lost a lot of its backing last week when the Golden Bears took a 37-7 drubbing from University of Houston. It didn't count in the conference race but it accentuated the contention made all season—that Baylor doesn't have the "bench," the reserve strength. Quarterback Cotton Davidson and ace tackle Bob Knowles went out early and other Bear regulars were battered and bruised from their previous week's beating at the hands of Texas—so Baylor was almost like puffy for the fired up Cougars.

Knowles is out. Davidson probably will miss this week's game and Baylor faces its hardest fight of the season in trying to return to the form that made the Bears title favorites until they met Texas. Southern Methodist is capable of ending the Bears' hopes Saturday at Waco.

Rice is really moving now. The only team to hold a victory over Texas, the Owls have rolled up 84 points in two weeks, smashing Arkansas, 47-0, and blasting Texas A&M, 34-7, last week. The Owl defense is like a stone wall. For instance, against A&M, Rice intercepted seven passes—a most unusual number for one game. Finky Nisbet, Rice quarterback, snagged three of them and also threw two touchdown passes as a new man in a starring role. Rice has more good backs than it knows what to do with.

Texas also had its troubles with battling Texas Christian, which wants to win at least one conference game this season so it won't set a low record. The Horned Frogs gave Texas a licking for the first three quarters and led, 24-0, on Ray McKown's field goal. The Longhorns also were obviously not "up," dreaming possibly too much of the preceding week's 21-20 conquest of Baylor, and it was up to the second team to get the job done. They did it in the final period with Bunny Andrews passing for the touchdown that actually won the game.

Angry, Howling Prisoners Give Red Explainers Another Bad Day

By JIM BECKER
PANMUNJOM (AP)—Angry, howling Koreans today turned down, 221 to 6, Communist pleas to come home in another stinging boomerang for the Reds who asked to interview them after 10 days of stalling.

The Communists dragged through the noisy interviews, meeting only 227 of the 471 Korean prisoners called to the explanation area.

One of the six POWs who chose communism sat through five hours of Red wheedling and talk. U.N. observers protested he was worn out and confused and unable to make a rational decision.

The Communist battling average was close to their over-all 3 percent for some 2,400 prisoners interviewed. The almost negligible figure has been a bolt to Red propaganda that all the 22,600 halcyon POWs wanted to come home.

The Reds were scheduled to meet with 50 Chinese prisoners Tuesday.

Meanwhile, Allied and Red diplomats meeting nearby named two subcommittees to begin work tomorrow on the time, place and makeup of the Korean political conference.

Some of the interviews with the Koreans lasted 2 1/2 hours. They were relatively quiet until late in the afternoon, when the POWs began attacking the persuaders as if on signal.

The POWs threw shoes and banners and tried to swing metal chairs at the Reds. But Indian guards, three and four strong in each explanation tent, wrestled them back to their seats.

The prisoners fought with guards until Indian chairmen in each tent ordered a cooling-off period.

The explainers pleaded, shouted, smiled and threatened.

The prisoners listened contemptuously, confidently, sometimes shouted back — and then chose South Korea.

The explanations resumed after the Communist command turned a surprise flip-flop yesterday. The Reds had insisted stubbornly since Nov. 5—the last day explanations were held—on interviewing the remainder of a Chinese compound they failed to finish that day. The Chinese refused to come back for a second try.

They suddenly dropped that demand and asked for the North Koreans.

Republican Financial Angel Attacks U. S. Foreign Policy

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A St. Louis industrialist, once known as the Republican party's "financial angel" in Missouri, charges a foreign policy "based on materialism" has cost this country prestige abroad.

Edgar M. Quency, chairman of the board of Monsanto Chemical Co., leveled his criticism at the administration in a company publication, Monsanto Magazine, released yesterday.

Quency was critical of State Department policy that "sends materialists to win friends in lands where spiritual values rank higher." As a result, he said, the United States has lost instead of gained prestige while government representatives continue the practice of "tossing a handful of money around."

The industrialist recently returned from a worldwide trip that included an extended Korea stop-over for the American-Korean Foundation and was a member of a world tour group headed by Gen. James Van Fleet.

The American-Korean Foundation is a private group suggested by President Eisenhower and headed by his brother, Milton Eisenhower.

Quency, who in the past has made sizable contributions to the state GOP and contributed freely to the party's national fund, cited in his report numerous cases of what he called excess spending by American "diplomats" and "experts" in Korea and elsewhere.

He said the American Mission in Korea staff lodged in 375 of Seoul's "better homes" based by the AMIK and said staff members were provided with two or three servants each, free rent, free household repairs and redecoration, free telephones and taxi service, tax-free gasoline, cigarettes "and liquor—$40,000 a month of tax-free liquor."

Texas Confederate Vet Honored Upon His 111th Birthday

FRANKLIN, Tex. (AP)—Now that the fuss about his 111th birthday is over, Walter W. Williams, oldest of the nation's five surviving Civil War veterans, wants to go fox hunting.

Williams, a wrinkled little man, was chipper at his birthday party yesterday. He sat on the porch of the weather-beaten old farm home where he lives with his 79-year-old wife and grinned as the yard filled with children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

Williams couldn't blow out all the candles but happily gobbled a piece of the four-tiered cake.

He joined the Confederates when he was 22 and became a foreman master for Hood's Texas Brigade. His advice to younger men: "If more of you would get along with your wives better you'll live a lot longer."

Negro Woman Bears Quadruplet Babies

SYLVESTER, Ga. (AP)—Mrs. Robert Dollson, 37-year-old wife of a Negro farmer, gave birth to quadruplets here but two of the babies died about 18 hours later.

The two who died were boys. Worth County Hospital attendants said the surviving girls were in fair condition last night.

Each of the babies weighed about 2 pounds 7 ounces and all were placed in an incubator immediately after their birth late Saturday night.

Mrs. Dollson, the mother of eight other living children, exclaimed, "I couldn't believe it was happening, but when they kept holding up one baby after another I had to believe it."

House Investigators Seek End To Tax Suit Duplicated Efforts

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP)—House tax fraud investigators today urged "immediate and drastic remedies" for costly delays and duplication of effort in federal tax lawsuits.

They asserted that existing divided responsibility for the cases between the Treasury and Justice departments puts "undue burdens" on taxpayers and should be revised to give the Internal Revenue Service greater authority.

In the second of a series of reports on a two-year investigation of the Internal Revenue Service, a ways and means subcommittee said it found duplication of effort "in every activity" in which the Tax Division of the Justice Department participated.

The subcommittee named no names in its report. A featured witness during its hearings was T. Lamar Caudle, former assistant attorney general in charge of the Tax Division. In November 1951 he resigned at the request of former President Truman, who said he had "outside activities" incompatible with his official duties.

The subcommittee recommended, in effect, that the Justice Department's role be cut down and that of the revenue service increased in fixing policy on prosecution of tax cases.

Under the existing setup, the chief counsel of the Internal Revenue Service is charged with processing and screening tax cases prepared by revenue agents.

These cases then go to the Justice Department for prosecution. The department's Tax Division takes jurisdiction over all cases as soon as they go to court.

The subcommittee, however, said that in criminal tax cases the Tax Division's role is limited to approving the proposed prosecution before referring it to a U. S. district attorney.

McCarthy Drawing Up Bill To Penalize Unhelpful Colleges

BANGOR, Maine (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) says colleges that won't fire uncooperative witnesses stand to lose financially under legislation he is preparing.

The Senate investigations subcommittee chairman said his staff has been instructed to draft a bill that would remove tax exemptions from foundation funds given to colleges and universities which employ faculty members who invoke the Fifth Amendment.

McCarthy said "of course many foundations and their expenditures are very fine. This legislation wouldn't affect their good work. But if a foundation gave money to an educational institution that kept on its teaching staff Fifth Amendment personnel or espionage agents, it would lose its tax exemption and any contributions to the foundation by individuals no longer would be deductible for income tax purposes."

Two Children Die From Haystack Fire

MCDONOUGH, Ohio (AP)—Seven children, none more than 6 years old, were building a haystack in a pig pen—and one little boy had some matches.

He set the hay afire. The children were quickly trapped.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oakley McNeely Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Browning, were enjoying a Sunday visit in the McNeely's farmhouse near this southern Ohio town. They heard the children scream.

They ran to the pig pen and pulled the five Browning children to safety. But 4-year-old Oakley McNeely Jr. fell back into the fire as his parents' hands grasped for him. He burned to death.

They managed to get 3-year-old Dolores Ann McNeely from the pen but her dress was burned from her body. She died in a hospital a few hours later.

Woman Needed Aid Of Son, May Now Inherit Fortune

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Bella May McKeon, who has needed financial help from her son for about 15 years, might inherit a half-million dollars from the estate of a wealthy Pittsburgh aunt.

The 67-year-old retired stenographer lives in a small, brick tenement.

John Phelan, 46-year-old son by a previous marriage, said last night his mother has been staying with relatives in St. Louis County because of her nervous condition over settlement of the 3 1/2-million-dollar estate of an aunt, the late Mrs. Sarah M. Weller of Pittsburgh.

Eisenhower Aides Cite Visit As Step In Defense Alerting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Aides to President Eisenhower today sized up his Ottawa visit as a step toward alerting both the United States and Canada to a need for bolstering continental defenses against possible Soviet attack.

These aides, who asked not to be named, were quick to note that actual strengthening of the defenses remains to be achieved. But they voiced optimism it will be done.

The President returned to the White House late yesterday after an overnight train trip from Ottawa, where he and Mrs. Eisenhower were guests of the Canadian government for two days.
