New Fund Bill Submitted To Finance War

Latest Supply Measure Boosts Total To 228 Billions

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The house appropriations committee fired another financial salvo in the war program today, sending to the floor a $1,810,487,615 supply bill which it estimated would boost to approximately $228,000,000,000 the amount projected for national defense since June 1940.

The new bill carries funds for almost a score of war agencies for the fiscal year starting July 1. Most of them have been operating in the past on emergency allocations.

While more than one-half the total, $1,100,000,000, is for the war shipping administration, a $75,000,000 item for Leon Henderson's Office of Price Administration was expected to be the only part of the bill over which a controversy of any consequence would develop.

The committee more than halved Henderson's original request and shaved $88,000,000 from the budget bureau's recommendation. To make certain the $75,000,000 would be all that Henderson's agency would have to spend during the new year, the committee wrote into the bill a restriction that the OPA funds "shall not be augmented by allocations or transfers of funds from any other appropriation."

The OPA item was almost certain to bring into the open the contention that it has been considering in some congressional quarters since Henderson began appointing state administrators without consulting the patronage views of Capitol Hill. House economy bloc leaders promptly announced they would seek to cut the $75,000,000 at least in half.

Amounts approved by the committee included: President's emergency fund, $100,000,000; board of economic warfare, $13,818,000; office of censorship, $28,500,000; division of central administrative services, $9,000,000; office of civilian defense, $7,447,075; co-ordinator of inter-American affairs, $28,628,000; defense health and welfare services, $2,440,000; office of defense transportation, $7,216,515; national war labor board, $1,167,000; office of scientific research and development, $78,000,000; war manpower commission, $3,114,000; war production board, $68,548,800; war relocation authority, $70,000,000; civil service commission defense activities, $4,147,478; federal communications commission defense work, $2,149,878; public roads administration, $5,000,000; office for agricultural war relations, $475,000; civilian pilot training, $38,677,450; office of petroleum coordinator, $3,585,000; office of solid fuels coordination, $820,000; Federal Bureau of Investigation, $9,200,000; smaller war plants corporation (capital stock), $150,000,000.

Younger Men To Register

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Uncle Sam tomorrow will register some 3,000,000 youths of the 18 to 20 year age group for possible military service under the selective service system.

When that registration is completed, the government will have a record on about 43,000,000 men—every male in the country between 18 and 65 years of age.

Tomorrow's registration will be for youths 18 and 19 years old and for 20 year olds born between Dec. 31, 1921, and June 30, 1922. The 20 year olds are subject to the draft. An amendment to the selective service law would be necessary before the 18 and 19 year olds could be drafted.

Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, has indicated they may be needed.

The youngsters registering tomorrow will be given the same set of questions already answered by their elders. They will be asked their name, residence and mailing addresses, date and place of birth, and their employer's name and address.

There will be no lottery to determine the classification of the new 20 year olds. Local draft boards will simply classify them by the date of birth. The oldest will be called first.

Similarly equipped was the group of four which landed at Ponte Vedra Beach near Jacksonville, Fla., June 17, Hoover said, listing these as Edward John Kerling, 33, group leader; Herbert Haupt, 32; Werner Trel, 35, and Hermann Neubauer, 32.

"We have their full statements of confession," Hoover declared. "We have all the plans they brought with them."

Some Licenses Up For Renewal Now

Tuesday is the deadline for renewing driver's licenses numbering from 900,001 to 1,850,000, and all those above those numbers may start their renewals on July 1.

Nazis Nabbed—These FBI photos show six of the eight men described by the Federal Bureau of Investigation as Nazi agents who were landed in the U.S. from submarines with full equipment for wrecking war factories. All eight have been seized, according to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Others Caught In Saboteur Roundup

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—Seizure of "several contacts and associates" of the band of Nazi spy-saboteurs landed by U-boats on the east coast was announced last night by the FBI, which promised more arrests within a few days.

New developments in the startling case of the eight German agents submarine-borne to Long Island and Florida beaches with explosives intended to wreck vital American industries included the discovery of an additional cache of $20,000, increasing the total of "pay-off money" carried by the saboteurs to $170,000.

Neither the number nor the names of the persons arrested as aides of the invading saboteurs were disclosed by Earl J. Connelley, assistant to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, in announcing the new roundup 24 hours after Hoover had revealed the capture of the agents bent on a two-year campaign of destruction against the American war effort.

Some arrests of the suspected accomplices were made in Chicago, and some here. Those here were believed to have been made from among a group of German people living on Long Island not far from the deserted beach at Amagansett, where the first group of four Nazi terrorists landed June 13.

Hoover gave the names of those in this group as George John Desch, 39, leader; Ernest Peter Burger, 38, who in 1931 was a private in the Michigan national guard; Heinrich Harm Einick, 35, and Robert Quirin, 34.

They came ashore in a rubber boat with their store of money and explosives, together with lists of key railroad centers, bridges and war plants which Hoover said they planned to blow up. They also were equipped with forged selective service and social security cards, Hoover said.

Similarly equipped was the group of four which landed at Ponte Vedra Beach near Jacksonville, Fla., June 17, Hoover said, listing these as Edward John Kerling, 33, group leader; Herbert Haupt, 32; Werner Trel, 35, and Hermann Neubauer, 32.

"We have their full statements of confession," Hoover declared. "We have all the plans they brought with them."

Instructor Here For Red Cross Course

Elmo Low, special field representative of the Red Cross headquarters in St. Louis has arrived in Big Spring and will conduct the last half of instruction for life saving course for instructors here.

The instructors' course has been underway for two weeks with County Judge Walton Morrison of the local chapter in charge. Low will hold his first session with the class this afternoon at 5. He is a former Abilene resident.

Representatives from the Odessa chapter may come to Big Spring this week to take examinations to be given by Low.

Disappointing Results To Date -- Rubber Drive Extended Ten Days

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—President Roosevelt extended the rubber salvage drive an additional ten days because collections through Saturday had brought in a disappointing total of 219,000 tons.

Axis Claims Capture Of British Key Base

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—The Axis declared today that Matruh, 130 miles deep in Egypt and a key to Britain's defenses, had fallen to their forces swiftly pressing eastward toward Alexandria and the Suez.

There was no confirmation in London of the claim, which came from Berlin and Rome, but British reports indicated that the situation was perilous, with the Eighth Army avoiding any frontal clash with Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's superior weight of armor.

There was little doubt in London that the Axis claims were true, but a British military commentator declared that Matruh was "not the last bastion between Tobruk and Alexandria."

Alexandria itself, base of the British Mediterranean fleet, was bombed during the morning by Axis planes believed now to be operating from air-dromes only 200 miles away.

The desert struggle had been in progress without a break since Saturday afternoon, when an axis armored force from the west, taking advantage in the glare of the sun in the defenders' eyes, struck at positions southwest of Matruh.

Marshal Rommel loosed the full fury of his forces against the British at 3 p. m. Saturday—his favorite hour for launching attacks to the east.

The battle then developed into fast moving fights between tanks and mobile artillery, the latter being shifted from position to position the better to strike at opposing tanks. The great Egyptian moon, shining on the glistening sands, makes it bright enough to read a newspaper, but produces curious shadow effects which pose problems for gunners and tank crews.

Today's dawn found the battle for Egypt now in its third day, moving deeper toward the valley of the Nile with one big battle swirling into the desert southeast of Matruh, British headquarters here announced.

British and United States bombers, blasting hard and often at the rear, the British over the advancing axis forces, ranged over the eastward moving axis columns all weekend, setting afire numerous fuel tanks between Sidi Barrani, near the Libyan border, and Matruh.

The RAF also bombed moving axis transport and tanks, and RAF fighters provided a protective cover for the British over the battle area. RAF headquarters here said eight British craft were lost Saturday and Sunday.

General headquarters said details of the fast developing ground action were not immediately available, thus leaving the general situation in doubt.

The axis claim that only 6,000 British troops were captured at Matruh—compared with 38,000 claimed at Tobruk—indicated the main British forces escaped and fell back, playing for time until the arrival of tank and gun reinforcements.

The German high command said Matruh was taken by storm despite stubborn resistance. In addition to the troops, it said a large quantity of war material fell into axis hands.

British headquarters in Cairo, acknowledging that the enemy had advanced to the southeast—that is, to the inland side and beyond the coastal anchor—said that the struggle was spreading over a "very large area" and that details were not available.

Nazis Nabbed—These FBI photos show six of the eight men described by the Federal Bureau of Investigation as Nazi agents who were landed in the U.S. from submarines with full equipment for wrecking war factories. All eight have been seized, according to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

County Demo Ballot Fixed

Delayed a week by court action on an injunction filed by James Eldred in connection with one of the railroad commission races, the Howard county executive democratic committee went ahead with its drawing of names for places on the local ballot.

Since the ballot could not be printed until the state office mix-up was straightened, there was no point in drawing for local places, Chairman L. S. Patterson pointed out. The committee, however, got together Monday and attended to the job.

This is the way the local ticket will stack up: Representative in congress 19th district, George Mahon; associate justice court of civil appeals of 11th supreme judicial district, Clyde Grissom; state representative 61st district, Dorsey B. Hardeman; district judge 7th judicial district, Cecil Collins; district attorney 7th judicial district, Martelle McDonald; county judge, Walton Morrison, J. B. Gerlington; county attorney, H. C. Hooser, George Thomas.

District clerk, Hugh W. Dunning, George C. Choate; county clerk, Lee Porter; sheriff, Andrew J. Merrick; assessor and collector, John F. Wolcott; county treasurer, Mrs. Ida L. Collins; county superintendent, Walker G. Bailey, Herschel Summerlin, Anne Martin.

County commissioner precinct No. 1, Roy Williams, W. W. Long, J. E. (Ed) Brown; county commissioner precinct No. 2, W. W. (Pop) Bennett, H. T. Hale; county commissioner precinct No. 3, R. L. (Pancho) Nall; county commissioner precinct No. 4, C. E. Prather, E. E. Eden, Akin Simpson.

Justices of peace, Walter Grice; county surveyor, R. W. Baker; constable precinct No. 1, L. A. Coffey, Dick Adams, J. F. Greenhaw.

The state ticket is the same as drawn by the state democratic executive committee. About the only race of burning interest is that for U. S. senator in which W. Lee O'Daniel draws the top spot. Dan Moody second and James V. Allred third among the "big three."

SHIP FROM LISBON

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The Swedish steamer Drottningholm is expected to arrive at New York tomorrow, it was learned here today, with several hundred passengers from Lisbon. Most of them are understood to be American citizens or dependents of American citizens.

Nazis Drive To Cut Soviet Railway Line

Defenders Counter-Attack At Kharkov, Cling To Sevastopol

By HENRY C. CASSIDY MOSCOW, June 29 (AP)—Probing the long, resilient Russian line for a weakness, the Germans were smashing out from Kursk, about 280 miles south of Moscow, today in a new drive presumably aimed at cutting the vital railway connecting the southern and central fronts.

The new offensive—the fourth started by the Germans this spring—came as the battered and weary Soviet defenders of Sevastopol fought off a succession of brutal axis blows at the Black Sea fortress, now under attack for the 28th day. Other Red army units were counter-attacking fiercely in the Kharkov region and winning back some lost ground, front dispatches said.

Today's mid-day Soviet communique gave no details of the fighting east of Kursk, saying merely that during the night "in the Kursk and Sevastopol directions our troops engaged the enemy in battle."

A supplement to the communique said the Germans had opened 25 field hospitals at Simferopol, northeast of Sevastopol in the Crimea, to handle the large number of wounded from Sevastopol.

A German breakthrough east of Kursk would not only threaten vital Russian communications, but also could be maneuvered to bring the Russian forces in the Kharkov sector into reach of an encirclement movement from the north.

Dispatches from the Kharkov front said last week's German drive through Kupyanok, 60 miles southeast of Kharkov, had been blunted and that Russian troops had taken the offensive, throwing tanks, planes and even an armored train into the battle.

The Germans were retreating in some areas, the reports said. The Hitler command declared that German and Romanian troops had forced a crossing of the Tobochna valley and infiltrated to Mount Sapun at Sevastopol. This prominence forms part of the natural semi-circular defenses southeast of Sevastopol.

The city and harbor, Crimean base of the Red fleet in the Black Sea, was still in Russian hands.

Ship Sinkings Go Up To 323

By The Associated Press Three small merchant ships, a Norwegian, a Yugoslavian and an American, have been sunk in the Atlantic, the navy announced today, bringing the unofficial Associated Press toll of western Atlantic sinkings since Pearl Harbor to 323.

The Norwegian vessel went down first May 14 off the northern coast of South America, survivors at a gulf coast port said, with a loss of two of the crew of 33. The survivors were picked up 20 miles away by the Tuscarora ship which was sunk the following day. Two out of 41 crew members were lost. Survivors of both ships have reached the United States.

Crew members said the same submarine sank both ships and re-provisioned itself with supplies from the sinking ships by raking in goods floating in the water.

The United States ship was torpedoed off the Atlantic coast June 24 with 33 men rescued, three missing. Their ship settled slowly, crew members said, and they were able to leave in a leisurely fashion. They were rescued 30 minutes later and landed the following day at an east coast port.

RESTRICTIONS LIFTED

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The War Production Board today lifted all restrictions on sales of safety razors by jobbers and manufacturers.

Sadler Says He's Back On Job As RR Commissioner

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Lieutenant Jerry Sadler of the U. S. Army, who recently asserted he had resigned his office as a member of the Texas railroad commission, today declared he was "back on the job" as a commissioner.

The army officer, first attending a meeting on the motor transportation division staff of the commission, later called newspaper men into his office and gave them this statement. "I am glad to be back home and on the job. I have advised the state comptroller and the attorney general that I do not expect any more resignations."

Nazi Sub Base Hit By RAF

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—The German submarine base at St. Nazaire on the occupied French coast was attacked sharply last night by RAF raiders in a follow-up to the devastating Saturday night assault on the port of Bremen, where many of the undersea raiders are constructed.

British fighter planes also blasted German airfields and railway objectives in northern France during the night, the air ministry said. Loss of one plane was acknowledged.

The Saturday night assault on Bremen was the second raid on that city in three nights, and was reported to have left the port—Germany's second largest—a mass of charred ruins.

In retaliation the Germans bombed the British southwest coast last night for the second successive night, striking sharply at one town for 40 minutes, but the government indicated the raids were insignificant in comparison with the RAF's.

Air Force Training Command Moves To Ft. Worth July 1

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The war department announced today that headquarters of the army air force flying training command would be transferred from Washington to Fort Worth, Tex., effective July 1.

Major General Barton K. Yount, commanding general of the flying training command, said the necessary liaison between the flying training command and the office of the commanding general, army air forces, would be continued here but that actual command of all flying training activities would be directed from Fort Worth.

Downtown Stroller

Driving downtown to work early this morning were Mrs. IDA COLLINS and her daughter, DOROTHY. Also ran into CECIL BELL, who seems to hit work early on a Monday morning.

DAVE TOBOLOWEY, who used to be ERNEST WISDOM'S room mate, hears pretty regularly from ERNEST he says, who is now at Camp Polk, La. ERNEST is getting along just fine he says.

It couldn't have been the army that Mrs. FRED HALLER and GEORGIA LANGFORD were talking about the other day do you think? FRED has just been inducted into the army and HUGH LUMAGAN, who used to squire Georgia around, is now at Camp Callen, Calif.

Mrs. PAT HALEY says there must be something about her that causes it, but everytime she goes to get a quiet meal some place, folks start dropping dishes. She claims other people don't have this trouble but it happens to us too, practically all the time. But we don't jump anymore even when the crash is practically in our laps.

Out at the swimming pool was Mrs. ROYCE SATTERWHITE, who was trying to figure out how to enjoy the swim and yet keep her hair dry. That's a mystery nobody ever figured out.

Apologies to PEARL CUTRINGER. She's leaving town, you know, for a new job, but we had her going to San Antonio and she's really going to Corpus Christi.

State's Bond Quota In July $33,677,000

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The New York state will be asked to buy $17,500,000 of war bonds in July, slightly more than one-sixth of the national quota of $100,000,000, Secretary Morgenthau announced today.

The New York goal for the month is more than double the $8,925,000 set for Illinois, which has the second largest quota.

July is the first billion dollar quota month. The war bond sales campaign was put on a quota basis in May, with an initial goal of $600,000,000, which was increased by $200,000,000 in June and by a similar amount for July.

Quota by states include: Arkansas $5,079,000; Louisiana $8,623,000; New Mexico $1,771,000; Oklahoma $8,865,000; Texas $33,677,000.

Louise Ann Bennett Places Fifth In Snyder Rodeo

Louise Ann Bennett, Big Spring's cowgirl sponsor for the year, looked forward to her major rodeo appearance this week, when she goes to Stamford to participate in events for women at that city's annual rodeo and cowboy reunion.

The Stamford shows will be on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Louise Ann, in her second year of rodeo competition against many more experienced West Texas girls riders, placed fifth in the sponsor's event at the Snyder rodeo last week. Her award was $2.50 in war savings stamps.

Wife Gets Mad, Tells His Secret, Now Man Has To Serve Prison Term

OSARK, Ark., June 29 (AP)—James Manley, 64-year-old north-west Arkansas farmer, was on his way back to prison last night after more than 23 years of law-abiding respectability.

His wife, in a burst of anger, had given away his secret and had cost him his freedom. In the Texas state penitentiary, Manley will serve the unexpired one year, four months and 10 days of a four-year robbery sentence. He escaped from a Texas prison in 1909.

Mrs. G. H. Zachary, above, will be hostess to the cowgirl sponsors from various West Texas towns and cities at the Thirtieth Annual Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held in Stamford July 2, 3 and 4. Mrs. Zachary is a daughter of Chas. Brewington of Dallas, who was a leading Stamford citizen in the early days of the town. She is an ardent golfer, rides horseback, and is active in social and Red Cross activities.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Hitler found out that his high powered mechanized and motorized army bogged down in the snow and mud of the Russian Winter. Although our Army is largely mechanized the cavalry horse is still a highly essential factor in his mounted division and in the Field Artillery. The Army also maintains remount farms where many cavalry horses are bred and raised.

These select horses cost from $100 to $160 and our crack cavalrymen are expert riders and carry on the traditions which have followed the cavalry from the earliest days of the Army. Purchase of War Savings Bonds will insure good mounts for the Cavalry. You and your neighbors buying War Bonds and Stamps regularly every pay day can help buy these horses for the U. S. Cavalry. Invest at least 10 percent of your income in War Bonds.

Junior Misses Find Plenty To Do These Days In Leisure Time

By BETTY BOB DILTZ
In the good old summer time junior misses don't spend the day lolling around resting their lazy bones but wake up bright and early ready for the day's work which stands before them.

Take the life of a working girl for instance, her hours are from 8 to 4 and this gives her plenty of time for the much wanted activities after she leaves her career for the day.

Swimming seems to be the place where she would like to spend the next two hours. Then of course

Odessa Couple Honored With Barbecue

Chicken barbecue and picnic honoring Captain and Mrs. Manley and daughter, Jean of Sloan Field, Odessa, was held Sunday at the city park.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rix, Carol and Connie, of Odessa, Mrs. G. C. Victory, Sara and Whitney of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rix and Mrs. Carl Svensen of Lubbock, all out of town guests.

Those from Big Spring were Mrs. Harvey Rix, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rix and Lewis, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Randall Pickle, Joan and Don, Mrs. C. D. Matheny, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pickle and Tommy.

The famous "Bottomless Pit" of Carlsbad Caverns National Park in southeastern New Mexico is 700 feet deep.

Storage Volume Grows For J. B. Sloan's Firm

Storage, something that requires both trust and confidence of patrons, is a specialty of the J. B. Sloan Transfer and Storage Company, and their ever-increasing volume of business indicates that the confidence placed in the firm by those transacting business there has been well founded.

During this time of national emergency many people have become engaged in defense work and are frequently on the move. Where they have established homes it is necessary much of the time for them to store their furniture and other valuables, often for the entire emergency. The Sloan company prides itself on the fact that their services have been utilized in many such instances.

The J. B. Sloan Transfer and Storage Company operates a complete state bonded warehouse as well as taking care of all kinds of local transfer work. The business is five years old in Big Spring, and 18 years of experience in storage and transfer work before launching a business of his own. Prepared Sloan for giving the excellent service his company renders in Big Spring today, Sloan has been a Big Spring citizen for Comfort— This is the watchword for bedrooms and apartments to be found at the Coleman Tourist courts, operated on the eastern edge of Big Spring by I. E. Coleman. Popularity of these living accommodations is demonstrated in an expansion through the years which has resulted in 68 living units, ranging from single bed rooms to three-room apartments with bath. Each of the units is well furnished, is kept clean and in good repair. This view shows a part of one of the living rooms, looking into the adjoining bedroom. (Kelsey Photo).

Bonnie Lee Shop Has New Air Conditioner

Getting hair sets and beauty work done in the comfort of an air conditioned building is just one of the advantages that the patrons of the Bonnie Lee Beauty shop, 306 Austin, find when they make their appointment there.

The conditioner, installed just about a week ago, is fast making the shop a popular place to go for both customers and operators alike.

The shop, owned and managed by Mrs. Ida Sinclair, recently moved from its old location on 806 Johnson to the new spot on Austin. Mrs. Sinclair bought the shop last August when she returned here to try and "buy the oldest shop in Big Spring."

Since Mrs. Sinclair has lived in Big Spring for 15 years, this was naturally her destination when she and her sister, Maud Cole, finished their beauty course in San Angelo. Mrs. Sinclair and her sister and Bonnie Mae Smith, who formerly owned the shop, are the experienced operators who are in charge.

Since permanent waving is one of the shop's specialties, Mrs. Sinclair was eager to point out that she had just purchased a new permanent wave machine to give her customers the latest in machine improvements.

The new "Victory bob" or feather waves that has swept busy American women off their feet with its popularity, is also a specialty of the shop and expert hair cutting and styling assure a pleased customer.

Parts, Service Emphasized By Big Spring Motor Co.

Through two of its bulwark departments, the Big Spring Motor Co. is doing all that it can to help keep Big Spring automobiles going during binding war times.

Primarily this is being accomplished through the service department, long one of the strongest parts of the company. Before the shadow of war spread over the nation's automotive stocks, Big Spring Motor had installed the most modern of equipment in its service department under the direction of Guy Howie, service manager.

To match best equipment, Big Spring Motor Co. has obtained skilled mechanics and given them factory training. The result is efficient, quality work whether in tiny maintenance items or major overhauling or repair jobs.

Added to this, the company maintains day or night service and had tow and wrecker service that goes almost anywhere, anytime.

In the second field, Big Spring Motor is helping people to have needed automotive transportation during the emergency.

"We have what we believe to be the best stock of used cars in West Texas," said J. E. Fort, general manager. "Besides being checked and put in top mechanical shape by our service department, each of these cars has been furnished with as nearly new tires as is possible. Properly treated, any of our cars have thousands of miles on the road left in them."

Big Spring Motor Co. dates its history back almost to the beginning of the automobile business in Big Spring. More than a score years ago the Stokes Motor Co. was selling Fords in Big Spring.

John F. Wolcott, a partner in this firm, later took over and operated the concern under the name of Wolcott Motor Co. until 1933 when the present Big Spring Motor Co. was incorporated and continued as the Ford and Lincoln dealer. This arrangement continued until June 1940 when J. E. Fort, one of the officials bought half interest in the concern. Today it is owned by V. A. Merrick, president, and Fort, vice-president and general manager.

HELPING ALICE UP.—Alice, pet elephant of the Brommoo in New York, had such difficulty getting up one morning that a six-ton crane had to be brought into play. Nobody knows for sure, but some say it's old age.

THE NAVY OPENS ANOTHER SCHOOL.—Spectators look out across the University of Georgia's football stadium as cadets group themselves during dedication of the U. S. Navy's pre-flight school at Athens, Ga. There were 175 in the first class.

STROLLER.—Nadia Petrova, Russian actress, wears this colorful Mexican costume for stroll in Beverly Hills, Calif.

'DOME OF SAFETY' DOWN UNDER.—Constructed of 66 tons of concrete, this "dome of safety" built for protection against possible air raids in Sydney, N.S.W., comfortably seated 60 persons. Victor G. Steer, architect at Sydney Technical College, developed the shelter, using this design as affording greatest strength with use of least material.

HEALTHY.—Bathing suit makers picked Janet Blair (above), movie starlet, as ideal girl to show benefits of "swim for health" week campaign.

CHURCHILL.—Britain's prime minister inspired this Alaska sealskin coat with brass buttons and huge rounded revers. Matching hat is of seal.

FANCY TOPPER.—Jimmy Demaret, known for his fancy headgear on the golf course, wore this knitted, tasseled tam in the Hale America tourney at Chicago. It didn't bring him luck, though for he weakened and saw Ben Hogan win.

'FIRST' SUBMARINE.—This rusty old New Orleans relic is described by Stanley G. Arthur of the Louisiana state museum as the first successful underwater craft of iron.

GUNNER.—Mrs. Potter Palmer (above) of Chicago is new women's Great Eastern skeet champion. Her score: 122x125.

START.—Worker in Naugatuck, Conn., plant strips metal from old tires to start rubber reclaiming process.

'BLACK SPAGHETTI.'—After undergoing several processes, scrap rubber being reclaimed is put through this machine, in which screws force bits of chopped-up rubber through a screen, much as a meat grinder operates. The rubber comes out like strings of black spaghetti, and is then cut by knives in lengths of one to two inches to prepare it for the final stage.

WATER AND STEAM.—Ground up and devulcanized, scrap rubber is cleaned with hot water and steam in the Naugatuck, Conn., plant of a big rubber company. With impurities and excess chemical removed, it is now elastic.

FINISHED SHEETS.—Here is the completed product as it comes from the scrap rubber plant — flat slabs a yard square, shown being piled up by a workman. In this form it can be used to replace some natural rubber.

Hospital And WOW In Fight For Top Spot

A battle for first place and the breaking of a tie for fourth and a place in the playoff series will be the main issues in city softball league games tonight.

In the first tilt the ABC-Lions will square off against Vaughn's, and the winner will be in undisputed fourth place. At present they are tied with four victories and eight losses each.

Feature battle of the night will be between the W.O.W. and the State Hospital. W.O.W. wound up last week's play just a game and a half in the lead, with the hospital in second and a tie game yet to be replayed. The result of tonight's contest may have an important bearing on the first place winner.

By winning their church league game tonight the recreation department would move into a tie for second place with the First Methodist. The recreation meets East 4th Baptist in the only game scheduled for tonight in the church loop.

Yanks On Downgrade? Beaten Twice By Chicago

Kovacs Deferred For Tennis Meet

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—Who says a draft board doesn't have a heart?

Frank Kovacs, Oakland, Calif., clown who sometimes plays high-grade tennis, has been given permission to remain in New York until Saturday after originally being instructed in report to his home selective service board on Wednesday.

The delay enables Kovacs, who is married and a recent father, to compete Saturday for the national professional doubles crown along with Bruce Barnes of Austin, Tex., against Donald Budge and Bobby Riggs.

Kovacs and Barnes eliminated Robert Harman of Long Beach, N. Y., and John Nogrady of Wilmington, Del., yesterday in straight sets. Riggs and Budge advanced by defeating Wayne Sabin and Berkeley Bell of New York.

Betty Modest About Her Golf Victory

CHICAGO, June 29 (AP)—"We're homeward bound," Sports Writer Betty Jameson wired today to her paper, the San Antonio Evening News, "with an extra item in our suitcase—the cup symbolizing a win in the women's Western Open golf championship.

"It is a very sweet victory, one of the biggest thrills in golf the writer has ever had. Our only regret is that Phyllis Otto's play Saturday was far off form—certainly far from a fair comparison of our games."

By that Texas' Miss Jameson, winner of the 1942 biggest women's golf tournament, explained her smashing 9 and 7 victory Saturday over Miss Otto of Atlantic, Ia., in the final of the six-day competition.

Ruffing And Bonham Take Lickings

By HUGH FULLETON, JR., Wide World Sports Columnist
NEW YORK, June 29—Thomas Kay, who writes from Washington, D. C., suggests launching a campaign to have all baseball clubs and college teams turn in their home plates for scrap rubber.... Wood or stone could be substituted.... Most clubs could whitewash a nice ivory plate from the over-supply found in the players' domes.

Today's guest star—John Drebringer, New York Times: "When Frank Frisch enters his clubhouse these days he goes through a series of ritualistic maneuvers that scarcely varies. First he takes off his coat and gives it a good shaking. Then he looks at his lineup and gives that an even more thorough shaking."

Gloria Callen, whose big collection of swimming trophies seldom is noticed when Gloria is around, has two more medals she can contribute to the scrap metal drive. When she was graduated from high school at Nyack, N. Y., last week she received one from the Rotary club and one from the Daughters of the American Revolution in recognition of her scholar-athlete achievements.

Success story—For a good many years, the most ardent supporter of the Rocky Mount, N. C., high school football team has been a local restaurant owner. He accompanied the team on its trips and personally fixed up the soups, steaks and salads for the gridder. Finally the players voted to award him a school letter; businessmen in Rocky Mount paid for the sweater and Coach Henry House, in presenting it, asked him to continue sitting on the bench as long as he had a football team...Which definitely made Spiro Kounoukhis a letter man.

Service Dept.—Last time the folks around Pittsburgh saw Ensign Herbert (Babe) Bonn, former Duquesne basketball biggie, he was heading for San Diego and said he had a hunch something was brewing just west of there. That was Nov. 30. A recent letter indicates Babe was somewhere in the midst of the Coral Sea scrap....Another veteran of the Coral Sea affair is Ensign John I. Drew, former Marquette U. hurdler, who was one of the last to leave the Lexington. He rode a raft 45 minutes before a destroyer picked him up.

As a result, the Yankee lead shrank to five and a half games and would have dropped to four and a half if the Cleveland Indians had not become fed up with the treatment they were receiving from the second-place Boston Red Sox and salvaged the final contest of a four-game series.

To make matters worse for the Yankees, Manager Joe McCarthy was put to bed with a recurrence of the internal ailment that plagued him last season and wasn't able to leave with the team last night for Philadelphia.

At Cleveland, the Red Sox took the first game, 8-3, but the Indians took the second when pinch-hitter Chubby Dean singled the winning run across for a 2-2 decision.

The Detroit Tigers also split a pair with the Philadelphia Athletics and missed a chance to climb over the Indians into third place. The Tigers took the first, 3-2, dropped the nightcap by a count of 3-0.

Washington's Senators nosed out the St. Louis Browns, 14-13 and 7-6, in a pair of games that saw 13 pitchers bombarded for 60 hits, including 18 doubles, two triples and two home runs.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, leaders of the National league, narrowly escaped the Yankees' fate when Joe Medwick tripled to give them a 2-1 triumph over Cincinnati in the second game after the Reds had bagged the opener, 6-3.

Seven home runs carried the Pittsburgh Pirates to a double victory over the New York Giants, 8-7 and 9-3.

Tommy Hughes pitched the Philadelphia Phils to a 2-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in 15 innings, but the Cards took the second game, 3-1, behind the five-hit hurling of Lon Warneke and stayed nine games behind the Dodgers.

Jim Tobin tossed a three-hitter as the Boston Braves blanked the Chicago Cubs for the second straight time, 3-0, but after 21 scoreless innings the Cubs rallied to win the nightcap, 5-1.

Exporters In Slump, Drop 4th In Row

By The Associated Press
Beumont's Exporters not more than a week ago were rated by baseball experts as the finest young team in minor league history.

The Exporters, they said, should finish the season ranked as the greatest the Texas league ever produced.

But the Shippers just couldn't stand prosperity.

They do not have to worry immediately about losing their leadership but they do have to worry about a very dangerous slump—a slump that saw the Exporters win only two games while losing six during the past week.

Today, they are five and one-half games ahead of the field but Shreveport, Houston, San Antonio and Fort Worth are closing in.

Yesterday the Exporters lost their fourth straight game as George Kleins pitched Houston to a 6-1 decision. Kleins gave up only five hits while the Buffs were pounding out fourteen.

In other games yesterday, Shreveport defeated San Antonio 4-2; Dallas lost a doubleheader to Oklahoma City 4-3, 2-6 and Ft. Worth split a twin bill with Tulsa 5-3, 3-4.

In beating San Antonio, the Sports went one-up on the Missions in the first of crucial three-game series, with the Texas league's second place hanging in the balance.

The only point in the United States, common to four states, is at the intersection of the boundaries of Utah, Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado. It is marked by a monument.

Poloists Whip Lamesa Team

Big Spring's polo aggregation, now a Coden-sponsored unit, added another to its victory list Sunday, winning 7-4 over the Lamesa "Black" team at Lamesa. Lewis Rix and Gus White, Jr., each batted across three goals, while Rip Smith added another. Doc Bennett and Lloyd Wasson completed the lineup.

All the Lamesa scoring was done by Elmo Smith, who had as teammates Bryan Fulkerson, Walter Lawrence, Charley Smith and John Dublin.

In another game at Lamesa, the Lamesa Whites bested a team of younger players, 6-5. Johnny Dublin of Midland, Bobby Wiley of Lubbock, Gus White, Jr., and Rip Smith made up the opposition.

Bennett and Rip Smith, with the senior and junior Gus Whites, will journey to Dallas this next weekend for a brace of games — on Saturday and Sunday—with Major Bill Long's team. The tilts will be played on a new grass field. On the Long lineup are Jim Cochran, Dr. Rayworth Williams and Billy Skidmore. The last named is a seven-goal man.

New World Series Plans May Make It 'Road Show'

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—Will the world series rules be revamped—even to permitting the annual classic to wind up on the Pacific coast?

Ford Frick, president of the National league, was due in Chicago to for a conference with K.M. Landis, baseball commissioner, and the New Yorker's journey immediately revived talk heard in every major league dugout the past few days.

Plan No. 2 has the pennant winners deciding the world title in seven tilts before going on a barnstorming tour of the country.

Most revolutionary is plan No. 3 which would have the competing nines play two games in the home park of each before opening a road journey of nine to 11 games, each contest to count toward the championship.

Under that setup the deciding battle might be played in such places as Toledo, Denver or San Francisco.

Three changes in the rules have been proposed and all have as their objective the gathering of funds for Army and Navy relief and for USO.

Under plan No. 1 the series would be extended to nine games from the present seven with the service funds benefitting from the extra contests.

Trans-Miss Players Rebuffed By Par

KANSAS CITY, June 29 (AP)—In the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament, completed yesterday on the difficult Blue Hills course, 53 players in the championship flight shot nearly 100 rounds, but only twice was the par 72 for the course broken.

Glenn Outman of Kansas City won medal honors the first day with a 72, and John Kraft of Denver, who won the title, clipped two strokes off par in the quarter-finals Friday.

We are limited to filling "War Orders" for telephone service here

It wasn't so long ago that we took pride in installing your telephone at the time you set.

But everywhere you turn, war has changed the peacetime picture. At hotels, travelers often find every room taken or reserved. Aboard trains, passengers sometimes have to stand. At many of your favorite markets, you encounter restrictions. New cars and tires are out of the question for most of us.

The telephone picture has changed, too. Metals and rubber can be spared from direct war needs only when it is necessary to build telephone lines essential to defense, public health, welfare, or security.

The telephone system here is carrying a heavier load of calls than ever before, and is working near its full capacity. This means that we can no longer promise to furnish telephone service here except where it is classified by the War Production Board as essential to defense or public health, welfare, or security. Even if you move into a location where a telephone seems to stand ready for use, the line that served it may have been taken over for service so classified.

When materials to expand the telephone system become available, or when it is possible to serve additional "civilian" customers, we shall be glad to do so. Please leave your application with us. Be sure that we will furnish you with service the moment we can.

We are sure that you agree that it is the job of all of us to help win this war as quickly as possible. Like you, we look forward to the day when the war will be over... when sooner or later we can get back to our peacetime job of furnishing you the kind of telephone service you want, when you want it.

Juvenile Delinquency Problem Is Renewed

Several months ago we were up in arms, demanding that we do something about a juvenile delinquency problem to which we had suddenly awakened. This, of course, eventually wore itself out in a series of ineffectual moves to grapple with it. We would have complacently continued with few worries about the juvenile situation had not some recent developments occurred.

In one week three youngsters have run afoul of the law, and in each case the boys, operating separately, have confessed to burglaries of business houses and residences. This clearly establishes that the delinquency wave is not at an end.

Not long ago an interesting case was broken when two youngsters tried to make off with a truck. These lads, unfortunately, had been involved in so much that under our system there was nothing to do but to send them to the school for correction.

But there's something about this case that you ought to know. They signed statements showing that they had relieved a local store of (please note carefully) 60 radio tubes, 11 car heaters, 10 new tires, 11 new radios and four new sewing machines!

How did two boys sell all of this—and where? They sold it, according to their story (which checked out wherever officers could pin it down) right here in Big Spring and they didn't have any difficulty in doing it. New tires, they said, were placed on used cars and shuttled, along with some of the other stolen goods, to the West Coast.

This may not be big time crime ring stuff, but it is about as good an approach as Big Spring wants to see. The essentials of the crime-honored plans are there—boys to take the risk of stealing, adults to get the stuff to markets or "fences."

One indictment has been returned in connection with this particular case. We hope others may be justified, and that we and you, as citizens, will not only lend our influence against those who encourage juvenile delinquency, but that we also not permit emotional appeals and flimsy technicalities and circumstances stand in the way of doing our duty as jurors.

That won't solve our problem, but it will ease our pain.

MRS. MURDOCK TAKES A CASE

by George Harmon Cox

Chapter 13 THE BONDS

But there was something else Joyce said to know.

"Haven't you any idea who killed Perry Clarke, Kent?"

"No."

"Not even a wild one?"

"No."

"Are you going to try and do anything about it?"

"Why should I?"

"Well, you have helped the police before, you know."

"But not this time. Too many headaches in fooling around with murder cases."

"You don't think Hester is mixed up with it?"

"No."

"But if you should find out that she is, would you—"

"Oh, Lord," Murdock groaned, and his voice sounded as though he'd buried his face in the pillow.

"Well, would you?"

"No. Why should I? Clarke was a rat. You said so yourself."

"Not that, darling. I said—"

"You know what I mean. Probably he had it coming to him. I don't care who killed him, and I don't care and I'm not going to try and find out." He sat up; she could see his silhouette against the window. "And neither are you. You keep out of it."

She made no answer, but after he had flopped down again she did a lot of thinking. That slip of paper Kent had mentioned. Hester's name led the list and that $100,000 opposite it meant something. In the back of her mind the conviction grew that Hester knew a great deal about the death of Perry Clarke, and she was glad now that she had promised Della Stewart to keep her secret. Kent's reaction to her inquiry about Hester settled that much for her.

than one hundred times that amount later on."

"It's a lot of money," Bacon said. "He figured you owed it and he was going to collect. You didn't want to pay it—"

"On the contrary," Hester said. "I had already paid it."

Bacon sat up. "When?" he snapped.

Hester glanced at Dean Thorndike, who shrugged well-tailored shoulders and eyed her sardoniously before he spoke.

"Yesterday," he said. "Didn't you find them when you went over Clarke's room?"

"Find what?"

"The bonds. Negotiable bonds. One hundred thousand dollars' worth."

Jolt For Bacon

Bacon's neck got red and he opened his mouth, closed it and would have opened it again had it not been for the telephone which rang at his elbow.

"Just a minute," he scooped it up. "Bacon speaking," he said, and then did quite a lot of listening before he added: "Okay, keep digging," and hung up.

"Now," he said. "I want this straight. Who's going to tell it?"

"Mr. Thorndike," Hester said.

"The bonds were delivered yesterday afternoon," Thorndike said.

"The evening before Mrs. Losado telephoned me and told me what she wanted me to do. I got in touch with Clarke and he came in yesterday morning. I told him I'd have them for him by the end of the day. Ward delivered them."

He glanced at Allen. "You have the receipt, haven't you?"

Ward Allen took an oblong slip of paper from his pocket, unfolded it and passed it to Thorndike.

Bacon stood up.

"I'd like to see that." He accepted it from Thorndike, scowled at it, adding: "Can I keep it for a few days?"

"I think so, yes," Thorndike said. "Carry things like this around in your pocket, do you?" Bacon asked.

Ward Allen met the lieutenant's gaze steadily. "It was late—around five—when I delivered the bonds. I didn't go back to the office. I haven't been back this morning either, as you know."

Hollywood Sights And Sounds—Major Sacrifice For Film: Elimination Of Screen Credits

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — This is the most unkindest cut of all. This is a body-blow at the life-blood, the sustaining ego of Hollywood.

The projected elimination of screen credits—as a film conservation measure—will be a war sacrifice of a high order comprehensible only to those who know that film-mighty and film-midgets alike live and breathe on their credits.

Stars, featured players, directors would still live and breathe, but others, including the innumerable technicians, would be unheeded.

Softening of the blow would be incorporation of the suggestion that, in the Hollywood area where credits bring jobs, the whole list be retained. Elsewhere (and patrons may rejoice at it) the show will go on—and without the interminable, usually meaningless distribution of the bouquets...

"Casablanca" is a reunion of actors Humphrey Bogart, Peter Lorre and Sydney Greenstreet, who contributed much to the solid bit of "The Maltese Falcon." Bogart is co-starred with Ingrid Bergman, but Lorre and Greenstreet have roles important but minor. Mike Curtis, the director, must have heard the one about the ham and eggs ("if we had some ham we could have ham and eggs for we had some eggs") for he used that technique in persuading Lorre and Greenstreet to take their bit.

He went to Lorre: "Peter," he said, "I have a small part so important to the story that you're the only actor in town who can play it. And there's another bit, too, that's worrying me. If I can get Syd Greenstreet for that one, will you take the other?"

Lorre agreed. Mike went to Greenstreet, made the same speech with the names reversed, and won his point there too...

Joel McCrea, Preston Sturges and Jimmy Conlin were talking about their dogs between scenes of "Great Without Glory," each bragging on their respective dog's intelligence. Conlin topped them all: "My police dog knows that when I take my little black make-up box with me in the morning, I've got a job. When I bring it home, I'm between pictures. And the only way I can get the dog to speak to me between pictures—the snob—is to walk out with that box and hide it, as if I'd left it at the studio!"

Dan Tobin (K. Hepburn's male secretary in "Woman of the Year") observes to the same point: "An actor can't afford to get too good a sun-tan—it's a walking ad that he's not working..."

Paul Muni, in "The Commandant," will not be MR. Paul Muni. Columbia is dropping the fancy billing — to Muni's relief, for he figures it has been a barrier between him and the audience...

Man About Manhattan - Exploring America

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK — The sporting goods stores around New York are making the most of the ban on shipping and the subsequent dim-out of sea travel for summer vacations.

Why not buy a canoe, they urge, and do a Henry Hudson by following the old Hudson to its source? Buy yourself a row-boat with an outboard motor, which comes under no gas rationing head, and explore the inland waterways of the east.

You walk along Chambers street and the big tackle stores make a point of reaching for the man who, as a rule, takes his fun in foreign travel. "Get hep to America," they say. "Get yourself a rod and go fishing. Get yourself a gun and do some shooting."

I think maybe they've got something. If I had the time I'd like to get into a canoe and float down the Mississippi to the gulf. I'd like to follow the Hudson to its source. I'd like to take the inland waterway and go to Chesapeake, with just a companion, and a fishing rod, and sleep out nights.

There are points within 45 minutes of Broadway so wild and dense that you would think you were in a different part of the country. It's deer and fox country. There are sea-marshes that are unsafe to explore, because of their quicksand bottoms. There are mountain trails and streams that are fed by cold, natural springs. All within a few minutes of Times Square. Not too many people know of these places, so perhaps the sporting goods people are doing a public service by calling attention to them.

Jane Froman gives indoor picnics, now that she has garaged her car. The sandwiches and boiled eggs are served on the front room floor. They pretend it's a picnic grove, or Coney Island.

Nice to see-Sammy Kaye again. The Swing and Sway kid is at the Essex House, and a nice band he has too. It would be hard to choose music more pleasant to dance to... or to dine through... or to mediate by.

Frazier Hunt, the commentator and writer, is making a survey of war work in American cities from coast to coast... James Carlton has contributed three radio dramas (on the war) gratis, to service programs... More attendants should be stationed in that big Chambers street subway station... You can wander around for days without finding the train you need...

Washington Daybook—Keeping Secrets From The American People

By JACK STINEIT

WASHINGTON — The capital can keep a secret.

Rumors run rife. Tales are told out of school. Gossip splashes all over the place. But put the press, radio, government officials, and that portion of the general public in the know on their honor to keep a military secret until such time as it should be released, and the tight lips in this democracy make the totalitarians, constantly under the threat of death for talking too much, seem like a bunch of garrulous back-fence tattlers.

I'm talking about the "mysterious" visit to Washington of that No. 2 man in the Soviet government, M. M. Vyacheslav Mikhailovich Molotov.

There wasn't a man or woman who didn't know whom he was talking about. There must have been thousands of people who knew that Molotov was in the United States and in Washington, but not once behind closed doors or out of them did I hear the subject discussed.

When it was all over, the Office of Censorship commended the press and radio, mentioning that in all the United States only one paper had even hinted at this on-your-honor secret.

This recapitulation is important because it demonstrates how the kind of wartime censorship we have can work when it is at its best. The question was NOT one of withholding news but only of converting it into the time channel where the enemy could not benefit nor the government be embarrassed.

His week visit here was nobody's secret — except America's. The giant Russian bomber in which he and his party came flew over New York and landed there. It flew over Washington and landed here.

He was four hours earlier than expected and the State Department and White House went into a tailspin to make connections at the airport. Once arrived in all that hustle and bustle, Molotov calmly took daily constitutional on the White House grounds. Once he inadvertently popped up in front of newswall cameramen, waiting for the Duke and Duchess of Windsor. He went off the reservation far enough to buy a bag of peanuts from Steve Vasilakos, the White House corner vendor.

He flew up to New York, wandered around Rockefeller Center and dropped in to see the movie at Radio City Music Hall.

When it became necessary for Steve Early, White House secretary, to account to the news and radio correspondents for the President's time, he said he was in conference with "Mr. Brown."

Maneuvers Slated For August 3rd

SAN ANTONIO, June 29 (AP) — Soldiers of the second infantry division will take to the field for intensive maneuvers Aug. 3, division headquarters at Fort Sam Houston has announced.

Aug. 3 to Sept. 20 has been designated by the war department as the maneuver period for troops of the VIII Army Corps, or which the division is a part. The Louisiana area has been selected as the scene for the war games.

Eagle Pass Man Dies

EAGLE PASS, June 29 (AP) — Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Dr. Van Earl McFarland, 69, originator and for 12 years president of the Maverick County Irrigation district, who died Saturday from a heart attack.

Cops Weren't Asked

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP) — Magistrate John Mason, confronted with 50 negro men and women arrested on charges of disorderly conduct growing out of noisy dances held in two Queen dance halls, asked if they were invitation affairs and was told that they were.

"But they wasn't all invited, Your Honor," spoke up one defendant.

"Who wasn't invited?" queried the court.

"The cops, stuh."

The magistrate suspended sentence.

Foreign Correspondent—Cassidy - - Russia

If Henry C. Cassidy had taken the advice of a Harvard vocational advisor, he would be a school teacher now—instead of a war reporter for the Associated Press in Russia.

The advisor told Cassidy he was "too bashful" to be a newspaperman and suggested a career in teaching.

Cassidy lined up a job as a teacher of English and French in a small Maine preparatory school, then rebelled at the last minute. The more he thought about it the more determined he became to get into the newspaper business—and prove the advisor wrong.

News jobs were scarce, but Cassidy finally landed a spot on the Boston (Mass.) Traveler.

In April, 1933, he joined the Associated Press at New Haven, Conn., transferring to AP's general headquarters at New York City in April, 1934, and to the Paris bureau in June, 1938.

He helped to cover the events leading to the outbreak of World War II and the first months of the Truck Soars 50 Ft.

SANTA FE, N. M., June 29 (AP) — Sixty-two-year-old Art J. Hewitt flew in his ton-and-a-half lumber truck for 50 feet. Capt. A. B. Martinez of the state police reported that Hewitt dived at the wheel.

The truck sped down a grade, jumped a culvert and "actually flew through the air 50 feet," he said.

Hewitt escaped with minor cuts. The truck was demolished.

ANTI-NAZI RIOT

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, June 29 (AP) — In the second anti-Nazi riot within a week in Sweden, more than 1,000 persons broke up an attempt to hold a Nazi meeting yesterday in Raettvik, 150 miles northeast of Stockholm.

Stevenson Gives Review Of Record

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Gov. Coke
R. Stevenson today summarized his record as a public official, listing three measures which he wrote and introduced in the legislature—the auditor's law, the budget law and the road bond servicing law—as "three outstanding illustrations of what government can do in behalf of all the people."

In his third radio campaign address, Stevenson emphasized that his record "is an open book" and urged the public "to inquire into any phase of that record which you consider of importance in this campaign."

"I have always voted for measures which would assist law enforcement," the governor declared,
"and destroy the enemies of good society."

"My position on every moral question has been in accordance with the views of my church and the Christian people with whom I associate."

Stating he has been asked to discuss matters of business connected with state government, Stevenson explained that he was talking to the voters by radio because of the increased volume of work attached to his office as a result of the war.

"I think all of you realize that it is far more important for us to win this war than it is for any man to be elected governor," he said.

Rubber Pile Still Grows

The local rubber salvage collection campaign moved nearer the new goal of 800,000 pounds, reports compiled by the chamber of commerce showed at noon Monday.

Since the Saturday report was made, 8,635 pounds had been received by local service stations and scrap dealers, boosting the total collected to date to 294,718 pounds.

Although the nation-wide drive for scrap rubber has been extended, local dealers were extremely anxious that all persons, in town or on the farm or ranch, gather and send in their old rubber goods quickly so that the campaign will not lag. Stations still pay one cent a pound for the material.

Although the bulk of the old tire supply had been gathered, leaders felt that there were still hundreds and hundreds of pounds still to be had from this source if they were brought to town. Many farmers, too, would add to their pocket change and to the county's total by bringing in ruined tractor tires, it was pointed out.

Here 'n There

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Burleson, and particularly Mrs. Burleson because she did the talking, were thrilled by a telephone call from their son, Wayne, who is in Honolulu, Hawaii. He is well, likes the place better all the time, and is getting "plenty" of work with the navy. The operator's precautionary message was almost as long as the conversation with Wayne, said Mrs. Burleson. She was warned twice not to refer to the weather, to the time, then not to mention receiving or sending letters on any given date, to mention no military matters or projects. Also there was considerable information to give on where and for whom Mr. Burleson works.

In the new Powergram magazine for Texas Electric, is a picture and story about Mrs. G. N. Crosthwaite of Wichita Falls, and former Big Spring resident, and her bowling progress. Seems in a contest she rolled a 230-pin game, which set an all season high score for women in a single game, as 235 was the previous high score. A prize was given Mrs. Crosthwaite for her score which for the evening's three games was 543, making an average of 181 for each game.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Trice, Jr., whose daughter was born last week at Cowper Clinic, has been named Carolyn Gwynne. The Gwynne is for her aunt, Ann Gwynne, Hollywood actress. Mrs. J. B. Trice, Sr., who has been here visiting from Hollywood, Calif., is scheduled to return within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vines received a cablegram Sunday from their son, Staff Sgt. Charles Vines, who is stationed now in Australia. This marked the first word the Vines had heard since Easter from their son. He mentioned that he was well and said "hello" to everybody here. He also mentioned he would like to have some more letters from home.

Another call for June has been received by the Howard county selective service board. It is a white quota for June 24, bringing to four the total for the month. Negro calls are for July 1 and 28, and whites for July 14 and 24.

Keep 'em flying posters will grace the sides of American Railway Express trucks for the next two or three months, Sgt. Troy Gibson, recruiting officer for the army, reported Monday. Express officials said the posters were going in place as of Tuesday as a company contribution to the enlistment campaign.

O. B. Parker, Dallas, foreman for Joe Steinberg, contractor, arrived Monday to prepare for work in painting the exterior and certain parts of the interior of the postoffice building. The work will be started this week.

Business definitely picked up Monday on the sale of 45 federal automobile use tax stamps. In the first three hours of business Monday, more than 400 of the stamps had been sold, but this was still about half of what had been expected. These stamps must be on cars and trucks operated after Tuesday midnight.

Hugh Loran McReynolds, Colorado City, has been enlisted through the local sub-station for V. A. hospital apprentice, USNR, A. H. Walker, recruiter for the U. S. Navy, announced Monday.

A small car fire on NE 12th street, near the E. Polacek home, occasioned a run by the fire department Sunday evening. Little damage was reported.

Nolan Baptist Church Formed

Started a year and a half ago as a mission project, the North Nolan Baptist Mission cut loose on its own Sunday by organizing itself into the North Nolan Baptist church.

The Rev. J. D. Holt, who has been serving the mission as pastor, was issued a call by the 22 charter members immediately after the organization vote, and C. V. Warren was named clerk of the church.

Included in the list of charter members was Mrs. S. H. Morrison (known to many as Kate Morrison), who holds the unusual distinction of having been charter member of two other Big Spring churches—the East Fourth Baptist and the Mexican Baptist church which she started as a mission.

Warren, Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Webb were selected as a nominating committee to suggest a list for deacons and other church officers.

The East Fourth Baptist church, to help the fledgling church, offered use of the former mission buildings and equipment with the understanding that the debt-free holdings, valued at around $2,000, would be given outright when the North Nolan Baptist church is admitted to the association as a cooperating Baptist church.

Bombers Hit Wake Island

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The navy announced today that United States bombers had attacked Japanese-occupied Wake Island in the Pacific last Saturday, damaging the enemy's air field and various shore installations.

The navy's communique, based on reports received up to 2 p. m. (Eastern War Time), today, said: "Central Pacific Area:

"1. U. S. bombers attacked Japanese-occupied Wake Island on June 27.

"2. Under favorable condition of weather and visibility our planes, attacking in formation, damaged the air field and various shore installations.

"3. Enemy anti-aircraft and fighter defense was weak and, although one bomber suffered minor damage during the attack, all of our planes returned safely."

Catalogues May Be Used In Some Inventory Lists

Catalogues with March prices may be used by concerns in lieu of base inventory lists in certain instances, the Howard county rationing and war price board was advised Monday by the district OPA office.

The ruling was interpreted as a life saver for businesses which deal in a multiplicity of items such as wholesalers, jobbers, and even retailers who are suppliers.

"Lists to be prepared by merchants under section 11, sub-section B of the general maximum price regulation may be in the form of a catalogue if all commodities are listed where such catalogue shows this to be their March 1942 price and also shows all their customary allowances, discounts, and other price differentials," Leon O. Moses, acting chief attorney for the OPA office, wired in response to local requests.

Each page of such catalogues, however, should bear the stamp, "ceiling prices." Where discounts, allowances, and differentials are not carried incidental to the items listed, they should be attached in a supplemental page, it was held.

Meanwhile, merchants were feverishly busy in most instances preparing their cost-of-living lists, which must be filed with the local rationing board by Tuesday midnight. They were really getting serious about this Monday.

Cheap Machine Gun For Saboteurs

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—The British are producing an $8 sub-machine gun to arm saboteurs and patriots expected to help the allies open a second front in Europe, it was disclosed today.

The weapon, which looks like a dime-store version of the tommy gun, can shoot nine-millimeter German, Italian and French ammunition and has already been tested in commando raids on the French coast.

The gun is regarded as highly useful for shock troops and home guards, but its cheapness, military experts point out, makes it an ideal weapon for big-scale distribution to saboteurs.

Work On Water Line To Start Tuesday

Work is scheduled to start Tuesday morning on excavation for water lines from the city park reservoir to the U. S. Army Flying School supply tank, but city officials were doubtful that there would be enough men assigned to the WPA job to make possible the work.

Work on WPA projects now have better jobs and rolls are reportedly at low ebb.

City Manager E. J. McDaniel said that if work was not underway when he returned from Dallas later this week, he would order city crews to the task of laying the line. He and Capt. Earl R. Hury, post utilities officer, were to confer in Dallas with Maj. Vogelsang, corps area utilities contract officer, concerning water contract for the local school.

Church To Be Free Of Debt In November

Debt of the Church of the Nazarene was underwritten Sunday and Nov. 24 was set as the time for burning the mortgage.

By that time, 21 weekly payments will have whittled away the $700 obligation and the church will be debt-free, said the Rev. Ernest E. Orton, pastor.

Unconscious As Plane Circles, Girl Pilot Revives, Brings Ship Down

ANN ARBOR, Mich., June 29 (AP)—An airplane with an unconscious girl pilot inside circled the Ann Arbor city airport crazily for an hour last night while spectators below watched in frozen fright.

Miss Joan Tesh, 19, of Ann Arbor, an employe of the Willow Run bomber plant, took the ship aloft in the early evening and floated while still in the air.

With the rudder and elevator fixed so it would go in approximately level circles, the plane continued to fly. Robert Young, an airport instructor, took another ship up and saw that Miss Tesh was unconscious at the controls.

For almost 60 minutes, the plane continued its wild perambulations. Then the girl revived.

Two efforts at landing were unsuccessful, and as she was about to try a third her gasoline supply ran out. She glided the plane to a stop at Elsworth road and State, striking a fence in the effort.

Miss Tesh stepped out of the cabin, uninjured, and fainted again. She was treated for shock in St. Joseph's Mercy hospital today.

Many Young Men Already Have Registered Here

With around 75 young men already registered and prospects that more still would take advantage of the pre-registration service at the county treasurer's office, demands of the fifth national selective service registration set for Tuesday were considerably lessened here Monday.

Hours of the registration Tuesday for all young men born on or after Jan. 1, 1922 and on or before June 30, 1924, will be from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Several volunteers have offered to help in the registration, and members of the Texas Defense Guard will aid.

Young men need to have answers to these questions in order to speed the registration: name, address and mailing address if different; age, date and place of birth; name of person who will always know registrant's address, place of employment, employers name.

Approximately $60 are due to sign up in the registration Tuesday at the courthouse.

Word From FD Needed To Save Funds For CCC

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—President Roosevelt's aid was sought today in an effort to save the Civilian Conservation Corps from extinction as congress works feverishly to complete action on several important appropriation bills before the end of the fiscal year tomorrow at midnight.

Practically assured of quick senate approval was a $42,820,000 military supply bill, but last minute haggling was in prospect over a $76,829,000 fund for the CCC, and supporters had almost given up hope of enacting the $680,000 farm appropriations measure before the deadline.

The CCC allotment, approved by the senate when Vice President Wallace cast the deciding vote to break a 32 to 32 tie, was included in a $1,157,000,000 measure to supply funds for the labor department and the social security administration for the forthcoming year.

With a joint senate-house conference committee scheduled to meet during the afternoon, Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) said he hoped some expression would be forthcoming from President Roosevelt in support of the senate's action in voting the CCC funds, which had rejected by the house, previously rejected by the depression agency liquidated.

Texas U. Teachers Get Walking Papers

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Contracts of three instructors in economics at the University of Texas were not renewed by the board of regents because of "their conduct incident to the patriotic mass meeting held in Dallas March 22."

After interviewing four economic instructors and the department of economics budget council, the board issued a brief formal statement, saying:

"The board of regents was unanimously of the opinion that Messrs. Fagg Foster, Wendell Gordon and W. N. Peach, by their conduct incident to the patriotic mass meeting which was held in Dallas on March 22, 1942, and in which Reverend George W. Truett and Mr. Karl Hobbittell were the principal speakers, have violated the rules and regulations of the board of regents for the government of the University of Texas. They were not re-employed."

May Restrict Use Of Telephones

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Reporting an increase of more than 50 per cent in long distance telephone calls during the last 18 months, Chairman James Lawrence Fly of the federal communications commission said today that the country faced "some undesirable alternatives" unless it voluntarily cut down on use of telephones.

The alternatives, he told a press conference, were the use of more critical materials to expand the communications system or "the adoption of definite means to lessen demands on the system."

Asked what means might be used, Fly said that while he hesitated to speculate, they might entail banning certain classes of business which use telephones extensively, shifting some types of business to certain hours, or instituting a system of priorities.
