Life Size Statue Of Davy Crockett To Be Set Up Here

Park Site Of Memorial To Hero After Whom County Named

A life size statue of David Crockett, hero of the Alamo, for whom Crockett County was named, will be erected in the city park here under an allotment of $7,500 grant by the Texas Centennial Commission in a recent meeting.

This was information brought by John V. Singleton of Austin, chief of the Centennial Division, State Board of Control, William McVey of Houston, sculptor, and Donald Nelson of Austin, architect, when these officials visited Ozona Friday.

Answering inquiries of members of the Commissioners Court and citizens, who sought to open discussion of the possibilities of erecting a building or some useful community project with the funds as a memorial to Crockett, Mr. Singleton explained that the money had been earmarked for a statue of bronze on a granite base, and that it could not be used for any other purpose.

Mr. Singleton said, however, that an effort would be made to gain permission of the Commission to carve the statue from Texas granite rather than casting it in bronze. Mr. McVey and Mr. Nelson, who were here primarily to examine the site for the proposed monument, indicated that the center of the south side of the down town park was favored as a location for the statue.

It was estimated that from seven to nine months would be required to complete the monument. The visitors left immediately after a luncheon at the Hotel Ozona at which Judge Charles E. Davidson and members of the Commissioners Court were hosts.

Johnigan Named To Justice Post, Bldg. Custodian

Bill Littleton Shifted To Assessor Office In Shakeup

W. M. Johnigan was appointed by the Commissioners Court the past week to the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, to fill the unexpired term of J. T. Glover, who resigned recently because of ill health.

The Commissioners Court also appointed Mr. Johnigan to the post of caretaker of the courthouse and grounds, making the position in combination with the office of Justice of the Peace. Bill Littleton, who has held the position of caretaker for county property, has been shifted to a position as deputy tax assessor under Sheriff W. S. Willis.

Mr. Johnigan, who formerly held the post as justice of the peace, has recently been employed as driver of the new Powell Field school bus, used in transporting children of the Powell oil field section to school at Big Lake. A. H. Wilson of Ozona has been given the position as driver of the school bus.

Ben Williams Infant Son Buried Here In Services Wednesday

Funeral services were held at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning for Ben Lawrence Williams, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williams, who died at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon eight hours after birth. Graveside rites were conducted by the Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of the Ozona Baptist Church.

Mrs. Walter Kyle is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Broadfoot in McCamey this week.

Have a Banana!

Local Stores Set Record Of Nearly 600 Dozen Sold In Weekend 'Specials'

Have you had your banana today?

A sales record which approached the phenomenal was registered by two Ozona grocery stores during the past week-end when they disposed of forty-five stalks of this popular fruit in a two-day period.

Running bananas in their lists of grocery "specials" for the week-end in Stockman advertising the Piggly Wiggly and J. H. Williams groceries here disposed of enough of the fruit that every man, woman and child in the community could have had (and probably did) four bananas each.

Thirty stalks of the fruit were sold by the Piggly Wiggly store, and fifteen by the Williams grocery, the latter store reporting that many calls were received after their week-end stock had been exhausted. An average of thirteen dozen to the stalk is estimated. The week-end "special" sales, then, reached a total of nearly 600 dozen, or 7,200 bananas.

John Rochelle Is Claimed By Death In Dallas Sunday

Early Day Resident Succumbs At Home Of Daughter

Funeral services were conducted in Dallas at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon for John Andrew Rochelle, 65, resident of Ozona at intervals since 1900, who died at the home of a daughter in Dallas Sunday.

Mr. Rochelle, who had been active in the management of the Ozona Bakery the past year, and an insurance salesman and grocery and meat market employe prior to his bakery connection, was stricken with a heart attack and slight paralytic stroke here last Thursday. He was taken to San Angelo Friday, and from there to Dallas. Death came shortly after the party arrived in Dallas.

Mr. Rochelle made his home in Ozona with his family for several years around 1900, leaving here to open the first cafe in Barnhart. He later moved to San Angelo and then to Dallas. Mr. Rochelle returned to Ozona in 1927 and had lived here since, except for occasional stays with his family in Dallas.

Surviving are the widow, five daughters, Mrs. L. B. Monroe of San Angelo, Mrs. John T. Matthews, Mrs. George H. Werner, Miss Beulah Rochelle and Miss Mary Dane Rochelle, all of Dallas; one son, Dan, of Tulsa, Okla., one sister, Mrs. Homer Smith of Ozona, and one brother, Homer Rochelle of Sanderson.

Mrs. Couch Reviews Bromfield Novel At Woman's Club Meet

A review of the novel, "The Rains Came" by Louis Bromfield was given by Mrs. Bert Couch before the Ozona Woman's Club at its meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Henderson. Mrs. Scott Peters assisted Mrs. Henderson as hostess. A piano number by Jim Ad Harvick constituted the musical program of the afternoon.

Members present included Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. Lee Childers, Mrs. A. E. Deland, Miss Elizabeth Fussell, Mrs. N. W. Graham, Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. Vic Pierce, Mrs. I. G. Rape, Mrs. Johnnie Henderson, Mrs. Bert Couch, and Mrs. W. E. Smith. Visitors were Mrs. Mahlon Robertson, Mrs. Mary Perner and Mrs. Eldred Newton.

Miss Eloise Boyd is suffering from an attack of the flu this week.

New Scout Cabin Dedicated Here

The new $2,500 cabin, recently completed on the hillside east of the school building on a lot donated by Dr. H. B. Tandy, was dedicated at a program Tuesday night which featured Ozona Scouts' observance of the 28th Anniversary of Scouting in America. The new cabin, built of native rock and finished in rustic style, was built by popular subscriptions from local backers of Scouting. A group of Concho Valley Scout officials and prominent Scouters from over the Council area attended the ceremonies here, which included a barbecue supper, flag exercise and a court of honor.

Union Boy Scout Services Sunday Evening Planned

Rev. Slater To Preach Scout Sermon At Baptist Church

National Boy Scout Week observance in Ozona will close with Scout services next Sunday evening at the Baptist Church, with Baptist and Methodist congregations uniting for the special Boy Scout sermon and worship service.

The Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor of the Methodist Church, will deliver the Boy Scout sermon on the topic "The Pull of a Great Tradition." Boys of Ozona Scout Troop 53 will attend the service in a body and will be given special recognition and honor during the evening.

Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of the Baptist Church, will assist in the evening's worship service. Rev. A. C. Nance, minister of the Church of Christ, expressed the regrets of his church that plans previously made in connection with the coming revival meeting would prevent his joining in the service.

Launch Plans For '38 Fair At Meet Set For March 26

Association Heads Fix Date For Organization Meeting

Committeemen and workers will pitch into plans for staging the 1938 Crockett County Rodeo, Race Meet, Stock Show and Sale in Ozona next July when a general meeting of association heads and working committees will be held March 26.

That date was fixed for the launching of plans for the 1938 show at a meeting of association stockholders and interested citizens at the Hotel Ozona Friday afternoon.

A financial report of the association was read by Wayne West, president. Permanent improvements amounting to $2,700 were made on the fair grounds last year, the report revealed. The association indebtedness was cut down slightly as a result of last year's successful show.

At the meeting next month, the association will organize for 1938 and launch definite plans for the show.

Max Schneemann, Jr., a student at Texas Technological College at Lubbock, was among Ozona students who spent the between-terms holidays with his parents here. A classmate, Dennis Taylor of Crosbyton, visited in the Schneemann home during the period.

Death Ends 7 Years Of Wandering For Dog Team Traveler

Seven years of wandering thru nearly every state in the United States, with a score of dogs taking turns at furnishing the motive power for moving his strange "rig" from town to town, had been about sufficient to satisfy the wanderlust of Karl Lindauer, and he was on his way "back East" to settle down.

But death interfered with the old "dog man's" plans a few days ago. Lindauer, whose strange wagon and dog team created a mild sensation in every town he visited, was found dead at his camp in Comfort, Texas, late last week. Lindauer passed through Ozona about three weeks ago — on the way back after seven years of wandering. To interviewers here he announced that he was on his way "back East" to take a job with a concern manufacturing a dog food.

19TH MEETING HERE

Horace W. Busby, veteran Fort Worth evangelist, will open his nineteenth annual revival meeting at the Church of Christ in Ozona Sunday, February 20. The meeting will continue ten days, with services twice daily.

Busby Coming For 19th Consecutive Revival Meeting

Fort Worth Evangelist To Open Ten-Day Revival Feb. 20

Evangelist Horace W. Busby of Fort Worth and Ozona, a regular visitor to this community for a ten-day to two weeks period each February for the past eighteen years, and occasionally for an extra revival period at other times of the year, will be back in Ozona again the end of next week.

Evangelist Busby will open a ten-day meeting at the Ozona Church of Christ Sunday morning, February 20, the meeting to continue through March 1, it was announced. (Continued On Last Page.)

Ozona Troop 53 Boasts 8 Eagle Scouts In Ranks

Troop Holds Record Of Advancement In Four Year History

In a short span of less than four years, Ozona Boy Scout Troop No. 53 has hung up something of a record for advancement of its membership.

In that time, eight boys have advanced to the highest Scout rank of Eagles. Five of these were advanced to Eagle rank at one court of honor last year. Three more attained the high rating in Scouting at the Court of Honor held Tuesday evening when the new cabin was dedicated as a feature of Scout Week, in observance of the 28th anniversary of Scouting.

Eagle Scouts of Ozona Troop 53 are:

Grover Jones
Richard Miller, Jr.
Maurice Lemmons
Howard Lemmons
Clifton Taliaferro
Jack Baggett
Norman Rendall
Joe Williams

Joe Haddon, former Scoutmaster here, also attained Eagle rank along with the first five boys to receive the badges.

San Angelo Men Are New Owners Of Ozona Bakery

Gordon Brinegar And Albert Trowbridge Buy Business

The Ozona Bakery, operated the past year under the management of the late John Rochelle, who died in Dallas Sunday, passed into new hands the end of last week with the purchase of the business by Gordon Brinegar and Albert Trowbridge of San Angelo.

The bakery was purchased by the two San Angelo men from J. R. Kersey, Ozona postmaster and theatre owner, who purchased the business more than a year ago from Richard Flowers.

Mr. Brinegar formerly was employed in both the Mike Couch bakery and the Flowers bakery several years ago. Since that time he has been with the Boehme Butternut Bakery in San Angelo. Mr. Trowbridge has also been connected with the Boehme bakery.

Both of the new bakery owners are experienced in the business. In announcing their purchase of the local business, Mr. Brinegar and Mr. Trowbridge promise local patrons of the concern a new high quality product and urge a trial of their bread, cakes and pastries.

NEW CABIN DEDICATED TO OZONA SCOUTS

Appropriate Ceremonies Mark Opening Of New Structure

HARTE IS SPEAKER

Angelo Publisher Make Address; Court Of Honor Is Held

In the presence of more than a hundred Boy Scouts, their parents and friends and Scout officials and visitors from surrounding towns, Ozona's new $2,500 Scout cabin was dedicated to the Boys of Crockett County in appropriate dedication ceremonies in the cabin Tuesday evening.

The dedication service and Court of Honor was preceded by a barbecue supper served at the back of the cabin, the local Scout Committee and Scouts serving as hosts of the occasion. At sundown, flag exercises were held in front of the cabin, a troop of Scouts standing at attention while the flag was lowered, Miles Pierce sounding the bugle call. After these exercises, the crowd packed the assembly room of the new cabin for the dedication ceremonies and first court of honor in the new Scout quarters.

Ira Carson, chairman of the local committee, acted as toastmaster of the evening. Mr. Carson introduced C. H. Janeway, Scout Executive for the Concho Valley Council, who in turn introduced the visiting Scouters of the area, including Henry Ragsdale of San Angelo, president of the council, J. A. Whitten of Eldorado, Houston Harte of San Angelo, M. R. Williams of Texon, E. J. Meade, Henry Batjer, John E. Robbins, Dr. P. L. Whiffen and Frederick B. Iseley, Field Executive, all of San Angelo, and Col. Keyes, caretaker at Camp Louis Farr.

Rev. Eugene Slater directed the Court of Honor, which followed. Wayne West conferred second class Scout rank on his son Wayne West, Jr., and Stanley Lemmons, V. I. Pierce awarded a group of merit badges to W. B. Robertson and Bobby Lemmons.

Three Scouts were elevated to the rank of Eagles, the highest rank of a Scout. Eagle badges were awarded Joe Williams, Norman Rendall and Jack Baggett. Ira Carson made these awards, parents of the boys pinning the badges on their sons. Illness prevented Jack Baggett from being (Continued on last page.)

All Officers And Directors Hotel Corp. Re-Elected

Stockholders Meet In Annual Session Friday Afternoon

Stockholders of the Hotel Ozona Corporation, meeting in the ballroom of the hotel Friday afternoon, re-elected all old directors for the coming year. The directors, meeting after the stockholders session, then re-elected all the 1937 officers, leaving the corporation governing body exactly as it was last year.

Directors re-elected include Early Baggett, Ira Carson, J. W. Owens, Sherman Taylor, Roy Henderson, H. B. Cox, and Bascomb Cox. Officers chosen to hold their posts another year are H. B. Cox, president; Ira Carson, vice president; and Wayne West, secretary-treasurer.

A satisfactory financial report of the hotel's operation the past year was presented by the secretary-treasurer, Wayne West. The hotel has been operated under lease by Jimmie Blaylock since February 1, last year.

THEY DON'T PLAY SOLDIER!

Those lads marching down the street in khaki shorts and shirts aren't training for war, they're training for life. With a sound mind in a sound body as their goal those youngsters are learning the lore of the woods and the laws of good fellowship. Today, they and thousands like them join to celebrate their national week - Boy Scout Week.

The children of Germany march in goose-step lines, their faces hidden in the cloth of metal of tiny gas masks. The children of Italy march in black-shirted legions, their hands swinging up in automatic salutes. The children of America march, but in their minds are thoughts of camp-fire dinners, woodsman's knots and valiant tales of Indian bravery.

Unlimited by class, creed, or color or political distinctions, the Boy Scout movement has as its primary aim the development of high ideals and high honor in the growing men of the world. If tomorrow's men are better citizens than those of today, a share of the credit belongs to the Boy Scout movement. All of us might well join with the Scouts in saying:

"On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country, to obey the Scout law, to help other people at all times, and to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

MORE INNOCENTS ABROAD

Today, beneath the muddy fields of Spain, lie the bodies of scores of young Americans, killed fighting for the Loyalist forces of Teruel.

In a letter home, one of them recently wrote: "Our last battle looked like those that come out of Hollywood - only IT was real."

Today, those words have come true. For scores of American boys, the Spanish war has been all too real. Today, they are dead!

Hidden in the slime of the trenches, they have heard a man's breath gurgle when a bullet lodges in his lungs. They have heard his calm statement, "I am hit!" and have seen him slip abruptly to the ground.

This is no make-believe scene on a Hollywood back lot. This is bloody Spain, and that lad tearing at his blistered chest once ran up the steps of an American home with a yell of, "Hey, Mom, how about some cake?"

Today, with the bitter dregs of war - the scorching paths of bullets in flesh and the refuse of gas bombs - before their eyes, the survivors know that the reality of war is far removed from the shadows of the cinema.

In past weeks they wrote home: "We're humming a parody of the Bubbles Song - I'm forever dodging bullets!" That was youth, full of the gaiety of living, the zest for song, romance and laughter.

Today, what feeble laughter remains is cracked with tears. The song in the air is sad. They went to fight for their ideal of freedom, and stayed to die for their youth.

More innocents abroad!

A BILLION FOR SICKNESS

"I never missed a day on the job for thirty years!" With a self-satisfied smile, the oldest on the porch tilts back his chair and grins at his crony: "Nope, I never knew what sickness was!"

The fact that the old fellow's boast can be echoed by comparatively few of the state's inhabitants is revealed in figures just released by the United States Health Service. If today holds to the winter average, 282,000 citizens of this state will spend the day in bed because of bad health.

Illness, the survey reveals, is directly proportional to income. The average citizen of Texas will spend seventeen days with pills and poultices this winter. A man on relief will be lucky to get by with a month in bed.

Despite the tremendous advance in medical science, it is evident that this new knowledge is not reaching the ultimate consumer. Doctors today know better than ever before how to keep people healthy, and how to cure them when they become ill. Yet Texas' 6,000,000 inhabitants will lose

THE "HOLDING COMPANY"

103,000,000 days this year thru sickness and accident.

Expansion of medical knowledge, reduction in treatment costs, health education - all these must be speeded if America is to reduce the billion dollar fee charged each year for services rendered by accident and disease.

Say "I saw it in the Stockman."

A LIVING MONUMENT

South of the Rio Grande! Just ninety years ago this week, that cry was finally culminated for Texas and her foster-parent, the United States. By the terms of the Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo, signed with diplomacy, ribbon and wax on February 2, 1848, the area north of the Rio Grande in dispute since 1845, was annexed by the United States.

In those days of '48 the Rio Grande Valley, with its sand hills and coastal plains, was an acquisition of greater sentimental than practical value. Its mesquite covered valleys, sprinkled with the white bloom of yucca sharp against a blue sky, kept alive the deeds of Sam Houston, Stephen Austin, and the war of independence.

Today, though Texas has not forgotten the men who carved her borders from the hulking hills of Mexico, that land ceded by the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo has come to have a tremendous practical value.

Through irrigation and modern farm methods, the lower Rio Grande Valley has developed into one of the most important agricultural areas in the nation. Oranges and grapefruit, the yellow gold of the land, find their way by trainload to the markets of the nation.

The men of Texas, with "Remember the Alamo" sounding in their ears, fought for the Rio Grande Valley. They cared little that its sandy plains and dry gullies had little dollar and cents value. They fought for the earth of Texas, not a dollar sign.

Yet, today, we can be glad that those acres, bought with Texas Texas lives, have proved their worth in building a modern state, a living monument to our pioneers.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Clyde Childers, Pastor

We will observe our regular order of services next Sunday. Our Sunday School goal is 100 and we urge each of our members to cooperate in helping reach that number.

Our hearts go out in tender sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Ben

Williams in the loss of their infant son. We pray God's richest blessings upon them in this hour of grief. While we do not always understand our Heavenly Father's way we know it is always for the best.

We are making our plans for a Men's Brotherhood meeting at the church next Tuesday night and we cordially invite all the men of our church to come and bring a friend. We will serve banquet style all who come and will have an hour of real Christian fellowship together.

We urge you to go to church somewhere Sunday. If you have no church home we invite you to worship with us.

MAMA SAYS 2 OR 3 STICKS A DAY WILL RUN OUR ELECTROLUX!

... An Little as 5¢ per day!

YOUR family needs the protection of Servel Electrolux, the Gas or Kerosene refrigerator, NOW. Taking chances with the foods you eat is dangerous business. 70 Per cent of all sickness is caused by what you eat or drink. Food and milk spoil rapidly at room temperature. They must be kept cold! Servel Electrolux protects your family from sickness - by protecting your food from spoilage. Can you afford to take chances, when Servel Electrolux operates on as little as 2 or 3 cents a day? Protection for the price of a few sticks of gum!

HERE'S WHAT MRS. (DR.) R. P. GLENN, 896 HIGHLAND AVE., ABILENE, TEXAS, thinks of her Servel Electrolux: "We have had an Electrolux in our home for nearly two years; we get from it the most perfect refrigeration we have ever known. Our ice bills averaged $6.00 per month, annually; another type of mechanical refrigeration cost us for a two-year period, about $6.00 per month. Our gas bill has increased only 12c per month average, in these two years. This period included the extremely hot August of 1935. Whether it is dairy supplies, or gascous stuff, or meats; whether the food is cooked or raw, its quality and taste are unimpaired after waiting in Electrolux. This is an especial advantage over wash-ends and holiday seasons. Like all good servants, Electrolux does its work silently; there is neither buzz nor drone to annoy the most susceptible nerves. Electrolux is the most easily cleaned, and the most easily kept clean of any kind of food-storage refrigerator I have known; and the defrosting is simple and adequate. Nor is there a consequent lowering of temperature to the detriment of foods. Nor the faintest of food odors. Who would wonder that we were glad that Electrolux found its place in our kitchen?"

Practical Cookery

Dept. Home of Economics
Texas State College for Women

Denton, Feb. 2.—Even a champion hog-caller might have a little trouble when it comes to cooking that fine animal. There are a few tricks which, though simple, form a necessary addition to the knowledge of any hopeful culinary artist.

Pork requires thorough cooking at slow to moderate temperature. Especial care should be taken in browning or searing; the process should be so regulated that the meat is not dried beyond a thin crust. Pork cooked in water should be simmered just below the boiling point.

Spareribs Baked With Sweet Potatoes and Apples

Place spareribs in large baking pan in moderate oven (350 F.). Surround with small pared sweet potatoes and cored, tart apples, filled with raisins and nuts. Baste occasionally with the drippings. Continue to cook until meat and potatoes are well done and brown and the apples are tender. Serve spareribs on platter with border of sweet potatoes and apples. Fresh pork sausage, shaped into cakes, may be used instead of the spareribs.

Pork Chops Stuffed with Rice

Dredge six thick pork chops with seasoned flour. Melt three tablespoons butter in frying pan and cook chops until well browned. Place chops in baking pan. Fry one fourth cup chopped onion in two tablespoons fat in frying pan until cream cooled. Mix in two cups half done rice and one half teaspoon salt. Place a heap of rice mixture on each chop. Pour two cups tomato (strained) or tomato juice over chops. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350 F.) for forty to fifty minutes.

Baked Ham Slice

Cover with boiling water a slice of ham cut two inches thick. Simmer for thirty minutes. Transfer to a baking dish and cover with one fourth cup peanut butter mixed with one fourth cup brown sugar and one tablespoon vinegar.

Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) about one hour, or until tender. Serve with fried apples.

Fried Apples

Core four tart apples, but do not pare. Cut into thick slices, about one half inch. Melt two tablespoons bacon drippings in large frying pan. When quite hot, place apple slices in. Fry on both sides, cooking until brown and tender. Do not crowd in pan. Take slices out as soon as done and lay on a platter. Sprinkle with brown sugar and set in warm place for a few minutes before serving, so that the sugar is just dissolved. Renew the fat, if more is needed, and make several fryings, if necessary to prevent over lapping of slices.

Ham Loaf

Grind and mix together one and one half pounds ham (cured) and one half pound fresh lean pork. Add one half cup bread crumbs, one fourth cup tomato juice or milk, two eggs (beaten), one teaspoon finely chopped onion, and one fourth teaspoon sage. Form into loaf. Place in greased pan. Bake in moderate oven (375 F.) about one and one half hours. Baste occasionally with one half cup tomato juice and one tablespoon melted butter.

Up-side-down cakes can make a right-side-up menu and dispose of a left over problem at the same time. Left over honey, preserves, crumbs and other things can be worked into a neat bit of cokery.

Gingerbread Up-side-down Cake

(Pan 10 by 10 by 2) Melt 3 tb. butter in pan. Add ¼ c. sugar and 2 tb. honey. Stir until sugar is melted. Sprinkle with 2 tb. chopped pecans. Drain figs, from pint preserves and save juice. Arrange figs, slightly flattened, in syrup in pan. Pour on gingerbread batter. Cream ¼ c. fat. Gradually beat in ¼ c. brown sugar. Add 1 egg (beaten). Mix together ¾ c. juice from fig preserves. Sift 2 c. flour with 2 tb. baking powder, ½ t. soda, ½ t. salt, 1 t. ginger, and ½ t. cinnamon. Add dry ingredients alternately with molasses mixture to fat-sugar-egg mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) 50 minutes or until done. Loosen cake from sides of pan with spatula. Turn out on platter and

War Minister Inspects Guns

Leslie More-Bellaha, British minister for war, peeps down the muzzle of a large-caliber gun during his visit to the Woolwich arsenal recently when he inspected guns and other fighting equipment which England is rushing to completion in its rearmament program.

Crumb Up-side-down Cake

(Pan 10 by 10 by 2) Melt 2 tb. butter in pan. Cover with thick slices of tart apples; then with a thin layer of orange marmalade, using about 1 c. Pour on cake batter: Cream 1/3 c. fat. Gradually beat in ¾ c. sugar. Add 1 egg (beaten). Sift 1½ c. flour with 3 t. baking powder and ¼ t. salt. Mix with 1 c. milk and ½ t. vanilla to fat-sugar-egg mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) 50 to 60 minutes. Turn out of pan with fruit on top.

Peach Up-side-down Cake

Heat 1 c. brown sugar in large, heavy skillet until dark brown syrup forms. Heat ¼ c. water and 3 tb. butter to boiling, and add to caramelized sugar. Arrange cooked dried peach halves on syrup. Cover with Orange Sponge Cake batter: Sift 1¼ c. flour with 1 t. baking powder, and ¼ t. salt. Gradually beat 1 cup sugar into three egg yolks. Mix ¼ c. orange juice, 2 tb. lemon juice, 1 t. grated orange rind, and ½ t. grated lemon rind. Add dry ingredients alternately with liquid to egg-sugar mixture. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) for 45 to 50 minutes. Turn out on platter with fruit layer up.

Sweet Sauce

Mix 2 tb. flour, ¼ c. sugar, and 1 t. salt. Add 1 c. boiling water; stir to prevent lumping. Cook over heat 5 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in 1 tb. butter. Cool slightly before adding flavorings. For Lemon Sauce: add 2 tb. lemon juice. For Orange Sauce: add 1½ tb. orange juice and 1 tb. lemon juice. For Butterscotch Sauce use brown sugar instead of granulated sugar and add ½ t. vanilla. For Vanilla Sauce: add 1 t. vanilla and 1 or 2 tb. water to thin slightly. For Pineapple Sauce: add 2 tb. pineapple juice.

Wisely changing sentiment now allows the staggering figures on venereal diseases to be published, and along with the other states in the union Texas is getting its eyes opened to the need for a concentrated fight against this danger.

Not only do gonorrhoea and syphilis disable more than a half million people in the United States each year, but in Texas alone there are around 50,000 victims annually, according to figures supplied by G. W. Cox, State Health Officer, in the January issue of the "Texas Planning Bulletin." Ranking with cancer, tuberculosis and pneumonia as one of the cases are a hundred times more four great killing diseases, these numerous than infantile paralysis.

Three thousand miles of large irrigatio canals are located in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, a section of four counties which covers about 3,000 square miles. Tabulations in the Mission Times show that 700,000 acre feet of water, meaning enough to cover 700,000 acres with one foot of water, are pumped annually from the Rio Grande for irrigation purposes. The cost of this irrigation is from $1 to $10 per acre, depending on the amount used.

Building Notes

The beautiful new Floyd Henderson residence, constructed of native stone, will be ready for occupancy in the next few days. The residence has been completed with the exception of a few minor finishing jobs and new furniture is being installed this week. The Henderson home is one of the most impressive structures built here in recent years.

A residence on the Roy Henderson ranch is undergoing extensive renovations preparatory to its occupancy by Mr. and Mrs. George Bunger. A room is being added, the kitchen and bathroom modernized and other improvements made, in addition to complete refinishing.

O. D. Busby's new residence is nearing completion. The Busby home is of rock veneer.

A rent house owned by Mrs. Clinton Glover in the north part of town is being repainted and papered this week. The residence is to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin O'Field. Mr. O'Field is manager of the C. G. Morrison Co. store here.

Mrs. Joe Pierce is planning to have the interior of her home re-finished.

A Strikingly Modern Small Cottage

The individuality of this attractive home is at once admired and appreciated by the discriminating builder. It is a small home designed along modern lines and offers as fine accommodations as many a larger home. The large open porch at the right is a much desired feature, particularly in southern sections, where this type home is especially popular. Blueprints provide an alternate arrangement so that a basement can be used if desired. The arrangement of the porch, opening directly into the kitchen and dining room makes the serving of "outdoor" meals easy in a home like this.

By glassing in a porch, Mrs. Lee Childress has added a sun room to her home here. The work was completed this week.

Repairs are being made this week on the roof of the Hugh Childress residence.

Jones Miller is having a servants room constructed at his home here. The building is to be of stucco with asbestos roof.

Ben Jones of Paris, Ark., spends much of his spare time playing checkers by correspondence with people all over the world. He has had as many as 400 games in progress at once.

We have a complete stock of the best varieties for this section in fruit, shade and budded pecan trees. Evergreens for landscaping, roses flowering shrubs, hldge and berry plants.

Peach trees from 15c and up. Roses from 20c each or $2.25 per dozen. And 35c each or $3.50 per dozen. F.O.B. San Angelo.

THE WORLD THIS WEEK

By Robert Patterson

'RIGGERS' RACE

Though mighty ships of iron and steel are today's sovereigns of the seas, let no one think the gallant square-riggers have been dropped forgotten into Davy Jones locker. Very shortly nearly all of the world's trim-lined square-rigged ships will set their sails in the great wheat-loading ports of southern Australia and seek to plough their way in record time to Falmouth, England. Yes, it's time for the big annual grain race again! Between now and April, depending on sailing weather, all 13 of the windjammers entered in this year's contest will head for Falmouth's distant land-fall. Last year's record for the run was 94 days. As today's fleet 'riggers' head "down under" for Australia and a cargo of wheat, it's worth remembering that it was an American clipper whose speed first electrified the world. That was back in December 1850 when the "Oriental" glided proudly up the Thames in the dazzling time of 97 days out of Hong Kong.

THE BIG PARADE

The White House parade swings on unabated. Certainly the biggest and probably one of the most potent, segments of American business to pay a call on President Roosevelt has been the army of 500 small businessmen which descended on Washington a few days ago. While they unburdened their grievances, hopes, and remedies

COUNTY CELEBRATES

The whole of Napa county, Calif., celebrated with Mrs. Mary Harris Steckler her one hundred and second birthday recently. For 85 years Napa has been her home. She left her home in Missouri in 1853 and braved the dangers of plains and mountains to go there. Her children, five in number and ranging in age from eighty-two to sixty-two, were with her on the anniversary.

COWBOY LOU

Not Jack Dalton, but Lou Gehrig, iron man slugger of the New York Yankees, is shown above, as he appears in his first picture. "Rawhide." Lou portrays a two-fisted westerner hot on the trail of a gang of cattle thieves. And while his guns are cooling off, Gehrig rolls himself a smoke—one-handed.

for combating the business ebullience, not a few reassuring signs of an incoming tide have been revealing themselves. More than 90 per cent of America's business men believe the slump in industrial production will end soon, according to a survey conducted by one of the nation's largest security and commodity firms. Corroborating this survey, the Federal Reserve Board announces that the decline in industrial production — which first showed its unwelcome self last Fall — came to a halt in January. Meanwhile, a reliable press survey forecasts an employment pick-up of 150,000 men within the next four to six weeks.

TEN OUT OF TWELVE

This auspicious mark-up in the number of men who will again be punching time clocks and dispersing weekly paychecks into the somewhat drought-stricken trade channels is apparently based on hard-faceted realities. The survey's findings stem, in part, from the trend of many large organizations who have revived "spread the work" policies in preference to payroll cutting. Moreover, the South has been much less affected by the slump than the North's heavily industrialized areas and constitutes a stabilizing backlog. In addition, ten out of the nation's twelve Federal Reserve Districts have good reason to believe that employment's upswing will be registered on the labor chart before April. One philosophically inclined business leader has even gone so far as to opine that this welterweight depression has been of some use. "At least, it has chastened labor, government, and business!" he asserts.

THE HERO RETIRES

An old man at 32 — in the grueling, heart-straining business of boxing, at any rate — James J. Braddock has just retired from active service as a fighter. But the Cinderella man of the fight world has no fear of returning to the $24 a month relief rolls. The tidy nugget of possibly some $300,000 he has salted away suggests that Horatio Alger Jr. might have written the story of his life. Like the hero of "Sink or Swim," Braddock ambled along the rags to riches road of the Alger scenarios, from printer's devil, messenger boy and longshoreman, up the steep hill to world's heavyweight champion. No longer champion, "Rags to Riches Jim" can at least bask in the golden memory that he was once crowned with the precious laurels. And when the cheers which once rang round his head are but a ghostly echo, the Cinderella man can turn for more enduring comfort to that handsome nest egg.

STORM ON THE SUN

If your radio or telephone begins cutting up prankishly along about February 21, don't necessarily think one of the tubes has gone on a sit-down strike, or that the receiver disk has split into smithereens. The trouble may be entirely due to a magnetic storm caused by the creation of titanic volcanoes of gas on the sun's surface. According to Dr. A. G. McNish, a leading authority on the Earth's magnetism and a member of the Carnegie Institution, such a storm is due near February 21. If the full force of the volcanic tides are felt on Earth, radio, telephone, telegraph, as well as compasses, can be expected to do a Suzy Q of madcap capers.

EDUCATION

What good will all this do me? This is a question asked by, I suppose, almost every one who ever went to school.

At times, the struggle for education seems exceedingly useless, but if you will think of it seriously, you will realize, that in present times, one who does not have at least a high school education can not progress very far.

It is true that many great men had very little education, but did you ever stop to think how much greater they might have been, had they even half the education that is offered to the average boy or girl of today?

These men had a desire to learn and a determination to succeed far greater than that of too many people who seek an education today.

These men made the most of their few opportunities for education and made good on them.

Surely the present generation, with all its public schools and opportunities for obtaining a college education, should succeed in their chosen fields.

WHY I AM PROUD OF AMERICA

By Jeane Kinser

Did you ever think of the reasons you are proud of America?

There are a number of reasons, I think, one should be proud of America.

The main reason is that it is just home. Home is always the best place on the world to every one, or should be.

The above, perhaps, is the first reason, but far from being the last or least, America is the land of the free and the home of democracy. It is a land of equal rights. Its people are healthy, well fed and cared for, and, should be, happy.

Of course, it is not perfect, for all good things must have the bitter with the sweet, but the sweet far outweighs the bitter.

Think of the starving people in China. They are starving because their government is not strong enough to protect them from the Japanese Army.

America has no army invading her lands, but she does have to feed the unemployed. She provides for those who can't provide for themselves.

America is truly a wonderful place to call "home."

WILL WAR EVER BE OUTLAWED?

By Jesse Hancock

War is not a thing of the past as a few people think it, and it is not a thing of the future as some people fear it. War will be very hard to be outlawed until all men know each other, and fight for the only thing that can end war, and this is peace. Mr. H. G. Wells has pronounced that there will be another world war about 1940 which will last about fifteen years. He has said that every nation is already prepared for war, and is training young citizens in school to become soldiers. The only way the United States can stay out of war is to keep her citizens at home and try to keep peace with other countries. In the last war, millions were killed, people had to go hungry, and great drafts were in every land. Ever since then the United States has not wanted another war, but has wanted peace. I am hoping that Mr. Wells was wrong.

CAN YOU IMAGINE

Jeff never preparing his lessons?
Sibyl C with a hair out of place?
Ora Louise never talking?
Bobby L. never pestering people?

Mr. Carruthers never assigning any lessons?
Maurice not snooping for the latest gossip?

Miss North, at leisure, without a crossword puzzle close by?

Mr. Nelson not calling Philip down, for some reason or other, at least once a week.

W. B. with a grin on his face all the time?

Lois never blushing in algebra class?

Howard speaking with permission?

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

On February second, the first game of the Junior High basketball season was played. The captains of these two teams are Billy Hannah and Floyd Hokit, the squad members are: Billy's team, Tom Ed, Lloyd, Henry, Ed Cooke, Basil James, and Dim. The members of Floyd's team are: Stanley, Wayne E., Leslie, Wayne W., Gene, Charles, Yancy. The score was 7 to 12 in favor of Hokit's team.

On February third, Bill Carson's team met L. B. Cox's team. Bill's team consists of Roy, Leonard, Mervin, Lorain, Berl, Jim Ad, Muto. L. B.'s team consists of Byron, Jake, Bland, Jack B., Marvin, John, Dick. The game ended with a score of 5 to 15 in L. B.'s favor.

On the fourth Billy Hannah's team met Bill Carson's team, which resulted in a 11 to 10 victory for Billy Hannah's team.

On February ninth, the fourth game will be played. Floyd Hokit vs L. B. Cox. At present both teams are undefeated, so this promises to be a rather interesting game. The games will continue until Feb. 24 by which time 12 games will have been played.

:-: The Prowler :-:

By Maurice Lemmons

It seems as if most all of the gossip was going on around Big Lake, over the week-end.

I wonder who Ora L. C. and Dorothy H. were out riding with over at Big Lake, Sat. What was the reason, is also a question in mind.

It looked like Crystelle C. was having a good time Sun. night. It is a shame that the college boys don't stay home longer. Isn't it Crystelle?

If you have never seen Philip S. getting right down to work, you should have been at the Big Lake tournament. Some little boy seemed to have a jump a head of him which ever way he would move towards Philip's would-be-girl.

They tell me that Mary Alyce S. is sporting a great big ring, of a boy's from McCamey, also that she is receiving regular letters. Is this true, Mary Alyce?

About four or five days before the Big Lake tournament P. C. P. was telling me of some of his troubles, and they seemed to have had him worried, but since the Big Lake tournament he has been feeling pretty gay. I wonder why?

Lois, I wonder if you could help me get to the bottom of all of Howard's talking in his sleep. It all seems to have something about you as the main outline.

I wonder what six little high school boys were so interested in watching the fire engine leave the garage Sun. night?

William B. M. met one of his old friends at Big Lake last week-end that actually recognized him. I wonder if she is super-human or if Beecher hasn't changed so much in two years.

Yea! Did you know that this Hack L. is getting to be a regular ladies man. If you didn't, I'll tell you now, he is.

This Clifton T. must have really been bitten by a love bug. First, I see him in Big Lake with two fair damsels at night, then second I see him early in the morning playing tennis with one of them. Now you try to analyze it.

It seems as if high school is getting "milk minded." There certainly has been a lot stolen lately. Can any one give us a hint as to whom this might be?

TARDIES

The total tardies for the month of January from the Kindergarten to the eleventh grade amounted to 37 out of a possible 11,000. The tardies by grades are as follows: Kindergarten, one; first, three; second, one; third, three; fourth, one; fifth, ten; sixth, seven; eighth, two; seventh, one; ninth, two; tenth, four; eleventh, two.

AN ORCHID TO YOU

An orchid to you who made the tournament a success. Mr. Denham, who is always on the job, Miss North and the pep leaders, who had charge of the rooms, Coach White, who knows how to manage, Junie Johnigan, who is out basketball captain, and many more who should be named. We all think it was a big success and are proud of O. H. S. of '38 because of such work.

OZONA HIGH FORTUNATE

The following report was clipped from the Childress High School paper, "The Corral," concerning Buren Arnn, one of our new students:

"Buren Arnn, a popular member of the senior class and high school band, left this week for Ozona, where he will attend the Ozona High School for the last semester. Buren has attended the Childress High School for three and one half years, where he has been an active participant in music and band since his freshman year.

"On February 1, 1934, Buren took his first lesson on a band instrument—a cornet. After playing on a cornet for one year, he took up the bass horn, which he has played for three years. In the first three years of his band career he did not miss a single band practice, and very few lessons. This and the instructions received from Mr. J. M. Edwards account for his winning first place in the North Texas Solo contest at Amarillo in 1936. Continuing his private lessons in 1937, Buren won first place at Pampa last spring where there were 12 contestants. This was as high as the ordinary high school boy usually goes, but not Buren. On May 21, 1937, Buren entered the tri-state contest at Oklahoma City. After winning first place in this contest in which 21 boys from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico entered, Buren has been recognized by band directors from all over the state as one of the best bass players in Texas.

"While continuing his school work in Ozona, Buren will take private lessons from J. M. Edwards, former band director of the high school band of Childress.

"Buren plans to enter college next year, although he hasn't decided definitely where he will go. But wherever he attends college, he will have a music scholarship."

BOYS SELECTED FOR SENIOR PLAY

At ten o'clock Tuesday morning the Senior boys met with Miss Terry in the English room to select the boys who will take part in the Senior play, "Oh, My Stars." The boys selected were Haskell Leath, Jack Baggett, Maurice Lemmons, and Welton Bunger. John Coates was elected stage manager, J. W. Johnigan and P. C. Perner are to be advertising manager and ticket manager respectively.

The girls are to meet sometime this week and decide who will take the feminine roles in the farce comedy. The play is to be in March.

Watch for the date of "Oh, My Stars."

OZONA BEATS BARNHART

The Ozona Lions smeared Barnhart by a score of 36 to 17. Montgomery was again high point man, making 13 points. Captain Johnigan followed with 12 points, Perner, 6 points, Howard Lemmons, 4 points, and M. Lemmons, 5 points.

Woodruff for Barnhart was high point man, making 6 points, Joslin, 4 points, Bailey, 5 points, and Miles, 2 points.

JUNIORS SCORE AGAIN

The pupils of Junior High and Ozona High School received their term grades several weeks ago. The Juniors led as usual with 33 per cent A's. The seventh grade received 25 per cent A's, the fifth 23 per cent, the sixth 21 per cent, the sophomores 20 per cent A's and the freshmen and seniors each 17 per cent.

SPANISH II STUDIES THE ALHAMBRA

In their study of literature the Spanish II class has studied some about the Alhambra. The Alhambra is a beautiful building on the top of a hill in Granada, Spain. There are many legends about the Alhambra. Washington Irving, as you remember, wrote the famous poem called "The Alhambra."

The business and advertising managers of the annual Senior play, J. W. Johnigan and Pete Perner, wish to announce that the Senior play for 1938 has been selected and cast. The play, a farce in three acts, is a royalty play. All assistance in advertising this play will be greatly appreciated by the Senior class. Watch for the posters and date.

Campus Philosophy

By Mickey Couch

As we advance in life, we learn the limits of our abilities.

When a man gives you his reason for an act, just remember the chances are, nine times out of ten, the reason is a trail blinder.

Remember failure is simply a plan gone to wreck. Remember it's always the man and not the plan we should look at.

If your plans go wrong it is because you couldn't get enough YOU in the plan.

We've come to the conclusion that if you make a mistake it's better to acknowledge the corn than to lie out of it.

Yesterday is gone. We can't change it. But today is here. Let's improve it and put pleasant things in our bank of life that we may draw upon in after years.

Brace your backbone and forget your wishbone.

FIRST GRADE NEWS

The "Ozona Special" is almost ready for operation. Our Achievement Tests show that we shall have several capable engineers.

Because of so much sickness in the room we have postponed our play.

SECOND GRADE NEWS

We made some Valentine men. We made a parade with them across the wall. Monday afternoon we went to visit Piggly Wiggly. Mr. Williams told us where the fruit and vegetables came from.

Billy Hoover and Ann West are still ill. Clyde Terry has been absent, too.

THIRD GRADE NEWS

The third grade pupils are beginning a unit of communication. We have a library partly built. We have catalogued our books, and we are learning to check them out for overnight use. We have collected materials for building a post office, and we shall start it this week. We want to use the post office for mailing Valentines.

When our library and post office are completed, we shall operate a radio broadcasting station for story telling. Then later we shall have a telephone office.

When our unit is complete, we plan to print a newspaper telling about it.

A Trip to the World Peace Meeting By Jimmy Read

I am in Geneva, Switzerland, attending a peace meeting. President Roosevelt asked me to attend this meeting. Many people from all over the world are here for this meeting. We are going to talk over the affairs of the nations. The Swiss are peace-loving people. They think the other nations should spend more to make their countries more beautiful and less on their armies and navies.

We are eager to get to Holland and see the dikes, windmills, and Dutch children.

The Castle of Chillon

By Daphne Meinecke

I went to Geneva, Switzerland, to see the Castle of Chillon. This castle is very old. Prisoners were kept in it long years ago. People often wondered what became of the prisoners. But the truth is, they were dropped down into the water below from the high windows of the castle.

My Trip To China

By Joyce West

Last summer I went to China. My mother and father went also. It took us twenty one days to go to China. It was late in the afternoon when we got there. We had a good supper and went to bed early. We slept on a mat, with a block of wood for a pillow. The next day we went to see my grand mother. There were several children playing in the street. I played with them a while and then ate lunch. I hope to go back to China some time. But I think I will wait until the war is over.

FIFTH GRADE NEWS

The fifth grade is having a contest in Mrs. White's room. It will last until spring. We are copying songs and illustrating them in Miss Dawes' classes, and we are also preparing for the Music Memory Contest in the Spring. We received a letter not long ago from a boy in Iowa. He asked several questions on branding. We are going to write letters to pupils on other stuff.

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

In English the sixth grade is studying about tense which means time; in spelling we are studying notes by numbers; in history we have just finished our history books and have started on geography; in arithmetic we are studying on per cents (%) and having a great deal of fun with everything.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

We are having a round table tournament. The captains and their teams are as follows: Billy Hannah: Tom Ed, Lloyd Henry, Ed Cooke, Basil James, Dim.

Floyd Hokit: Stanley, Wayne Leslie, Wayne W., Gene Charles, Yancy.

Bill Carson: Roy, Leonard, Mervin, Lorain, Berl, Jim Ad, Muto, L. B. Cox: Byron, Jake, Bland, Jack B., Marvin, John, Dick.

The seventh grade had no absents or tardies last week.

Not all of the "Old Master (paintings) are genuine. One dealer says that while there are approximately 2,000 paintings attributed to Van Dyke, it is definitely known that he produced only 10 paintings.

Ferry Boat Passengers Cool Their Heels

An ice jam which formed in the Hudson river off Newburgh, N. Y., trapped the ferryboat Dutchess with 20 passengers aboard for five hours. The ferryboat was bound from Beacon, N. Y., and only a change of tide allowed it to work free and dock.

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the State and its people. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. How did President Mirabeau B. Lamar view annexation?

A. He had always opposed it, and when he succeeded Houston as President in 1838, referred to the subject in his inaugural address in these strong terms: "and if, contrary to the present aspect of affairs, the amalgamation shall ever take place, I shall feel that the blood of our martyred heroes had been shed in vain."

Q. When was the independence of Texas officially recognized by other countries than the United States?

A. By France in September, 1839; by the Netherlands in September, 1840; and by England in November, 1840.

Q. Did Mexico ever concede the independence of the Republic of Texas?

A. Despite the action of other countries, Mexico persistently continued to treat Texas as a rebellious Mexican province, and constantly held over it threats of invasions. Mexican leaders, however privately conceded that Mexico would never be able to reconquer Texas, but held out such a hope to the people to avoid revolts, as far as possible, in their own country. After the United States had passed the Texas annexation resolution, Mexico, at the instance of Great Britain and France, made a belated offer to recognize Texas independence provided Texas would agree to reject the United States annexation proposal.

Q. What demands did Houston make before agreeing to entertain Tyler's proposal?

A. Houston demanded that the United States should agree to use its navy and army pending the negotiations, to protect Texas against Mexico in case that country should renew its efforts at invasion, and that the treaty should be ratified by a two thirds majority of the United States Senate. This treaty was signed at Washington, April 12, 1844, but was rejected by the Senate, June 8.

Q. What followed the 1843-44 failure of annexation negotiations with the United States?

A. General Woll notified President Houston that the truce was ended and hostilities were resumed June 11. Houston called on the United States to fulfill its promise of protection, whereupon, on Sept. 10, John C. Calhoun, then United States secretary of state, informed Mexico that an invasion of Texas would be "highly offensive" to the United States. The Mexican minister at Washington answered in substance that Mexico would not be intimidated in any such way, but the proposed invasion was dropped for the time.

Q. Why did President Tyler, opposed to slavery, favor immediate annexation of Texas, even with authority given it to divide itself into five slave holding states?

A. Annexation of Texas and slavery had become the leading issues in the presidential campaigns and Tyler realized that so long as these were issues there was an increasing danger that Texas might make treaties with other countries even including Mexico, that would be decidedly detrimental to United States business interests.

Q. When and in what way did Texas for the second time withdraw its proposal for annexation to the United States?

A. When Texas and Mexico entered into a truce in 1843, Isaac VanZandt, minister to the United States acting on instructions from Anson Jones, then Texas secretary of state, notified the government at Washington that the "subject of annexation was not open for discussion."

Q. What resulted from the second withdrawal by Texas of discussion regarding annexation?

A. Suspicion was created that England and Texas had a sinister agreement detrimental to the United States, and that country became so alarmed at the indifference shown by Texas that President Tyler hastened to bring about the preparation of an annexation treaty which was rejected, however, by the United States Senate, June 8, 1844.

Q. Who represented the United States and Texas in the final draft of the annexation treaty of 1844?

A. The United States was represented in the final draft by John C. Calhoun, secretary of state, and J. Pinckney Henderson, special commissioner, representing the Republic of Texas.

Q. How did President Polk try to adjust the differences between the United States and Mexico without resort to war?

A. He sent a representative to Mexico with authority to agree that the United States would assume all claims of American citizens against Mexico and would pay Mexico a sum that might be agreed upon if Mexico would acknowledge the Rio Grande as the United States-Mexican border, and an additional sum if it would cede upper California to the United States. This mission failed.

Q. What four American presidents fought in the United States-Mexican War?

A. Gen. U. S. Grant, and Gen. Zachary Taylor of the United States; Gen. Jefferson Davis of the Confederate State of America; Col. Mirabeau B. Lamar of the Republic of Texas.

Q. At what battle in Mexico did President Lamar distinguish himself?

A. At the Battle of Monterey, where he led the charge that brought victory to the United States forces and won for himself honorable mention from Col. George Wood for his "gallant bearing and lofty courage."

Q. Why did Lamar resign from the regular army in Mexico?

A. Although he held the rank of

A. Guadalupe Hidalgo is about four miles from Mexico City.

Q. What options were then open to Texas with the passage of the United States annexation resolution of March 1, 1845?

A. Texas was then in position either to make a treaty with Mexico, with its independence guaranteed by Great Britain or to become a separate state of the United States. The Mexican treaty was rejected by the Texas Congress June 21, and the annexation proposal was accepted June 23, both by unanimous vote.

Poem Of Ozona Woman To King George V Of England Brings Request From London Publishing Firm For More Of Her Works

A poem written to King George V of England several years ago by an Ozona woman has resulted in a request for more of her work and an attractive offer of advance royalty payment in the event she submits enough acceptable material to make possible its publication in book form.

Acting on a whim Mrs. A. W. Jones of Ozona composed a poem to the British king and mailed the manuscript to him on the last Armistice Day before his death. A courteous letter of thanks from a court attaché was received by Mrs. Jones, the letter advising that the king had ordered the poem read publicly. Giving small credit to the report of the king's reception of her effort, Mrs. Jones nevertheless treasured the letter as a souvenir.

A few months ago, however, she received a request from the Vivian Campbell & Co., Ltd., London publishing firm, asking that she submit more of her work on a par with the poem written to George V. When she failed to reply to the first letter the London publishers wrote a second request, which was received last week, urging the Ozona woman to furnish them with manuscripts of her work, either single compositions or enough to comprise a book for publication under their copyright, which covers 45 countries of the international copyright union.

If enough material is furnished to form an acceptable book of poems, the London firm promises royalty on sale of the books. Although still a bit dazed, Mrs. Jones is digging up various of her original manuscripts for editing before complying with the request.

Mrs. Bean Hostess To Girls Auxiliary At Valentine Party

Mrs. George Bean was hostess to members of the Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society at a Valentine party at her home Monday afternoon. Various games and G. A. songs were enjoyed during the afternoon.

Rosele Pharr, retiring president of the organization, was presented with a gift as was the group leader, Mrs. J. S. Whitley. Mrs. Bean was assisted by Mrs. Hugh Gray, co-leader with Mrs. Whitley, and Mrs. Clyde Childers. Present were: Mary Elizabeth Gray, Judith Williams, Melba Collins, Aileen Bokit, Maxine Hausins, Estelle Patrick, Elaine Durbout, Vera McCaleb, Rosele Pharr, Billy Laxson, Bertie Sue Browning, Joy Hubbard, Barbara Sowers, Doris and Louise Bean, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Childers, and Mrs. Whitley.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robinson and daughter, Mozelle, of Monard, spent Sunday in Ozona visiting their son and brother, Lorraine Robinson, clerk at the Piggy Wiggy grocery store.

Walter Kyle will report Friday at Wauwatache where he has secured a position as project supervisor for the Works Progress Administration.

Scout Cabin Dedication

The cabin is finally here and was dedicated on the night of February 4, 1938. The name from the crowd were parked on the hill by uniformed scouts.

A barbecue supper, consisting of bread, pickles, potato salad, beans and coffee, and hot top that off, about 4 or 5 kinds of cakes, was served back of the cabin. After the meal the people looked at the bobble of various scouts.

Among them was a stamp book of Bud Cox, Jr., a printing exhibit of Miles Pierce, some leather playing from Bill Carson and the Jambo Movie films filmed by Miles Pierce.

By then it was sundown and the flag was lowered in a flag ceremony where the Scouts stood at attention, saluting the flag, while the bugler, Miles Pierce, played a call and the flag was taken down.

After the flag was folded by Boyd Baker, Scouts were dismissed.

The band played some pieces, including "Reveille," "Assembly," "Cassion Song," "Slidin' Some," and "Them Bases." The program started with the invocation led by Rev. Eugene Slater, the troop advancement man. The Scouts gave the Scout oath and the Scout Executive, Mr. Janeway, was introduced. He in turn introduced some of the business men of the Concho Valley Council.

Brother Slater was in charge of the Court of Honor for the Cabin dedication. Mr. Wayne West presented Stanley Lemmons and

BEAUTY IN NATURE

By George B. Armentrout

"Oh! What a lovely flower," exclaimed a little girl. "It has red petals with a green stem," she continued.

"That's just a Morning Glory, Susie," replied her mother.

That is an example of the many happenings that go on in the world.

Many people notice nature's wonderful gifts, but still there's some people like the little girl's mother.

People trample nature's gifts under their feet, and never notice the gifts until they are frost-bitten and dead.

Nature has given the people more wonderful gifts than anyone could wish for. Nature has given life to many people that breathe the oxygen the plants breathe off.

Why can't people see more of nature's gifts except the ones around the house? That is a question that has often entered my mind when I walk among flowers and plants.

WHAT EACH SEASON HAS TO OFFER

By Sybil Luther

As winter slips in the back door with its howling wind and beautiful white snow flakes, my mind is filled with happy thoughts of Christmas, New Year, and Valentine, which are winter's happiest events.

Then, before you can hardly turn around, spring, the most wonderful season of the year, is skipping through the air with its odor of beautiful flowers and tells you that school will soon be out.

Next comes summer with its blue skies, golden sunshine, and best of all, its three months of a happy vacation.

And last of all comes the season which opens the long-closed doors of the school house. Fall not only gives us this thought, but it also brightens our minds with its bright colors.

HAVE YOU READ THIS?

"Not long ago the body of a young girl lay crushed on the sidewalk after a plunge from a Chicago apartment window. Everyone called it "suicide" but actually it was murder. The killer was a narcotic known to America as marijuana and to history as hashish. Used in the form of cigarettes, it is comparatively new to the United States and as dangerous as a coiled rattle snake."

This may be found under "Marijuana"—Assassin of Youth" by H. F. Anslinger and Ryley Cooper in "The Reader's Digest" for February, 1938.

present to receive his badge, his father, E. B. Baggett, Jr., receiving the award for him.

In a brief but impressive dedicatory address, Rev. Eugene Slater dedicated the new Scout cabin to the youth of Crockett County, calling it one of the greatest assets ever created by this community. In his opening remarks, Rev. Slater paid glowing tribute to Ira Carson, one of the prime factors in the growth and development of

Scouting in this community. Harte Lauds Democracy

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Houston Harte, publisher of the San Angelo Standard-Times. Mr. Harte who is a member of the National Boy Scout Council, is given a major portion of credit for formation of the Concho Valley Council of Boy Scouts and has been a consistent and liberal backer of Scout activities in the West Texas area.

Declaring it his desire to "strike a blow for the United States of America," Mr. Harte called attention to the privilege of liberty enjoyed in this country which makes such assemblies possible. Most of the civilized world, 250 millions of persons, living under dictatorships, are denied the privilege of free speech, free assembly and free living, he declared. There are no Boy Scouts, no other independent organizations in fact, in Italy, Germany, Russia, etc., the speaker pointed out, and we in America should thank our God for our freedom.

Mr. Harte picked from the Scout ing program, one feature which he called outstanding among all features of the program — the Scouts "good turn." The attribute of service to others, with no hope of reward, he called the greatest teaching of the Scout program, an ideal, which if imbedded in the mind of youth, will prove an invaluable asset to him in later life.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hoover, Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Childers and Mrs. J. S. Whatley attended the Workers Conference of the Pecos Valley Baptist Association held in Crane, Texas, Tuesday.

This will be the nineteenth consecutive revival meeting for the Fort Worth evangelist, according to local church leaders. His popularity among local church goers is attested by the "standing order" of the local church for his return each February. Announcement of his coming is a signal for a revival of interest on the part of the church membership and friends of the church both locally and in nearby towns of the area.

The Ozona Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet in regular session in the lodge rooms Tuesday evening at 7:30. At this meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Baker will receive the degrees of the order. All members are urged to be present.

Alongside the record of the man with the tick-tock head at Edward Hines, Jr., Memorial hospital near Chicago now stands the case of the man with the whistling eye. He is Henry L. Doctors at the hospital said the trouble was caused by a tumor behind the eye.
