Hunting Season Opening Finds Many In Field

Bombardment Starts In Area For Deer And Turkey

The male population of Crockett county became victims of an annual epidemic of itch-foot this week, and many took the only cure--filling up the old shooting irons and taking to the hills and canyons in search of deer or turkey. Deer and turkey season opened Wednesday, and many Ozonians were on the hunting ground at the break of day for the first shooting. Duck season opened November 15. Shooting is allowed between 7 a. m. and 4 p. m., the season closing December 27, and the bag limit ten. Quail season opens December 1 and closes January 16, the bag limit being 12.

While hunters are taking to the field, trappers are greasing up the traps and getting things in readiness for the trapping season opening December 1. Local fur buyers report prospects for a slight rise in prices for furs this season, opening quotations indicating a slightly better price than at the opening last year.

Movies To Be Topic For Discussion At PTA Meeting Mon.

Movies and motion picture appreciation will be the topic for discussion at the November meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association Monday afternoon. A talk on "Motion Picture Appreciation: A Problem for Parents and Teachers" will be made by Guinn Carruthers, manual training and science teacher in high school. Mr. Carruthers will also direct his general science students in a demonstration. A piano number by Miss Ruth Graydon will complete the program.

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. L. B. Cox, Mrs. W. N. Hannah, Mrs. L. E. Townsend, Mrs. Ray Dunlap and Mrs. Taylor Word.

An appeal was issued this week by Mrs. Elton Smith, P. T. A. president, to all who have made pledges toward the band uniform fund to pay these pledges as soon as possible. The order for the uniforms has already been placed and the organization will need more than $300 to make the first payment on the order.

Concluding Act Of Grid Season Here Saturday

Lions Entertain Eldorado On Home Field For '38 Finale

Coach Ted White and his Ozona high school Lions will end another football season on the local gridiron next Saturday afternoon when they entertain the Eldorado Eagles, defending District 41B champions, in the closing game of the season for both teams.

The Lions last week dropped a heart breaker to the Sonora Bronchos by the close count of 6 to 9 on the Sonora gridiron on Armistice Day. It was an evenly fought match with the Lions pounding down to the 12-yard line in the closing minutes of play only to be thrown back by the stubborn Bronchos.

Although lacking the scoring punch, the Lions showed a fine brand of football in the Armistice Day encounter, giving local backers new hope that they may be able to disclose the heavier Eldorado squad to finish the season in a blaze of glory. A season's record crowd is expected to be on hand to see the curtain rung down on the 1938 season.

The Monroe Doctrine was announced on Dec. 2, 1823.

Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization opened its first constitutional convention in Pittsburgh Monday. Lewis (left) and Phillip Murray, CIO organizer.

At Least One Demo Nominee Failed Of Election In Texas

Commissioner Black Appointed To New Term; Canvass Shows No Votes In Precinct

A novel situation in the preponderantly Democratic state of Texas developed in Crockett county when County Commissioner Charles S. Black, although selected as the nominee of the Democratic party in the summer primaries without opposition, failed to get elected to the office in the general election last week.

The reason was that there were no votes cast in the general election in Mr. Black's precinct, No. 2. The fault for this situation could be laid at the door of the election judge of the precinct, who failed to open the voting box on the appointed day. But Commissioner Black could not fittingly complain about this negligence for Commissioner Black was also the election judge. And neither Commissioner Black nor Mrs. Black cast a vote nor did any of their neighbors in the precinct.

When the commissioners court met this week to canvass the returns of the general election, the court found Democratic nominees to have won solidly, with the exception of Commissioner from Precinct No. 2, which was left without an elected successor to the present commissioner.

The court, however, cleared up the muddle in short order by appointing Commissioner Black to succeed himself at the expiration of his present term, the appointment being for a two-year period.

Music Club Sponsors Four Programs For '38-'39 Season

Music lovers of Ozona and surrounding territory will have an opportunity to hear some of the nation's outstanding artists in concert in a Musical Arts series to be presented in Ozona this winter under sponsorship of the Ozona Music club.

The appearance of these artists in Ozona is made possible through a cooperative effort on the part of the Federated Music Clubs of Texas and Robert Hollingshead of Hollywood, Calif., formerly program manager for some of the large radio stations of the East, and manager for some of the world's greatest artists, and now active in concert, opera, radio and screen musical promotion on the west coast. The Musical Arts series, conceived by Mr. Hollingshead as a means of bringing outstanding artists to the smaller communities of the nation, was endorsed at the annual state convention of Texas Federation of Music clubs in Beaumont in April, and Federated Music clubs throughout Texas are presenting the Musical Arts series.

The first artist to appear on the 1938-39 series in Ozona will be Beatrix Mayo, mezzo contralto. Miss Mayo is a native American and has received wide acclaim for her work in opera, recordings, on the screen and radio. Her acting is dramatic and outstanding in opera and her work has been especially praised by press and public. She has a large repertoire which includes songs in Italian, German, French, Spanish, Russian and English. Miss Mayo is scheduled for her appearance here on Thursday evening, December 22.

The January concert, on Tuesday, January 31, brings Ho-Te-Ma-We, beautiful Indian mezzo soprano, and Roy Cooper, pianist. Ho-Te-Ma-We is a native of Texas, and her deep, rich, powerful voice and the beauty of her costume recitals have won high praise wherever she has appeared. She sings a group of songs especially for children, and her reputation is high.

Frank James Hurt When Car Strikes Concrete Culvert

Frank James, proprietor of James Motor Co., local agents for Plymouth and Dodge cars, was painfully injured and a new Plymouth sedan he was driving was badly damaged late Thursday evening when he fell asleep while driving and collided with a concrete culvert between Mertzon and Barnhart.

Mr. and Mrs. James had gone to San Angelo to attend a salesman's meeting and to bring back a new Plymouth car. Mr. James was driving the new car and Mrs. James was trailing him. The car collided head-on with the concrete railing of the bridge and skidded to a stop across the highway. Passers-by helped them remove the wrecked car from the highway and Mr. James was brought here for medical attention. He suffered cuts on the face, a chest injury and a badly strained muscle in his shoulder.

Roll Call Total Goes Over 200 In 2-Day Canvass

Workers Still On Job And Lists Held Open For Additions

A preliminary check-up of enrollments up to late yesterday afternoon showed a total of 202 memberships signed up in the first two days of annual Red Cross Roll Call which got under way here Tuesday morning under the direction of Rev. Eugene Slater, Roll Call chairman.

This figure did not include reports from the Mexican and negro committees, named to canvass among local residents of these races. Committees are still at work on the drive and many have not yet completed the canvass of their assigned areas, it was reported to the chairman. Rev. Slater was confident that when all reports are in and the workers have completed the canvass that the 1938 Roll Call will surpass last year's total when Crockett county enrolled 240 members to stand in fourth place among all counties in Texas in enrollment according to population.

The official Roll Call does not close until Thanksgiving and many of the worker teams are leaving their reports open for additional memberships. Workers hope, however, to have all memberships in by the end of this week. Persons who have not yet been solicited and who wish to enroll are asked to leave their dollar at the Ozona National Bank or at The Stockman office.

The Roll Call workers on this year's drive includes Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. Jimmy Blaylock, Miss Mildred North, Mrs. Lovell Littleton, Mrs. Hillery Phillips, Mrs. Roy Henderson, Mrs. Boyd Clayton, Mrs. Massie West, Mrs. Pleus Childress, Mrs. Jake Young and Miss Wayne Augustine. The canvass among the Mexican population is being made by Ed Vitela and among the colored people by Lessie Young.

E. Thomason. The federal allotment for the project is $8,293. It will provide work for 33 men.

County Buys New Maintainer; Hike Salary Of Agent

Court Orders 25 WPA Mattresses For Needy

A new caterpillar tandem patrol road maintainer was purchased by Crockett county at the regular November term of the commissioners court in session this week. The maintainer was bought for a total of $6,100, the county to have three years in which to pay for the new equipment.

Mrs. Grace Roberts, county case worker, advised the court that mattresses for the needy, manufactured as a WPA project, could be purchased by the county at 79 cents each, and the court ordered that 25 mattresses be purchased for distribution here.

The court ordered a raise of $37 a month in the amount being paid by the county toward the monthly salary of County Agent C. J. Van Zandt. The county's portion of the agent's salary has heretofore been $83.33 a month, which amount was raised to $120, effective December 1.

GROWING SOFT

Channing Pollock, widely known lecturer and playwright, is disagreed with America. In St. Louis to deliver a talk he said: "We are growing soft. I know what people will say. I'm a Tory. Well, I'm the worst old Tory you ever saw. I believe people ought to work. Can you imagine that? I know it isn't fashionable. You're supposed to beat everybody out of everything you can. Why? So you can wear paper caps and blow tin horns, and drink too much and think the little, and not even see the world falling in pieces about you. Americans are a funny people. They want to laugh everything off. It would be following the line of least resistance to rise up in righteous indignation and denounce Pollock for being an old-fashioned and pessimistic dabbler. Yet his analysis of a deplorable trend in this country, unarguably, is true. There are, of course, millions who have been displaced of work through no fault of their own. They are ready, willing and able to put their shoulders to the wheel. But there are also millions of others who are stragglers in the idea that the world owes them a living and thus intend to get it with a minimum of effort. Their heads are swelling daily. Somehow they do not understand that a person gets out of life only what he puts into it, that to succeed would one must dig it from the soil with his bare hands. It used to be the country has an unlimited amount of energy. But the stragglers divide it with their shopping and strutting. The politicians and their pettinous politicians waste it in holding with crooked schemes, others join the chase and till away their time chasing him. They can get something for nothing." ENOUGH TO MAKE ANYBODY DIZZY!

STUPENDOUS WASTE

Charles Larson of the Library of Congress has a sound principle in claiming that the government lost $86,058,592 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933, on its 1,291-176,785 tons of franked official mail. That is, this government would have been this much richer had it collected postage on this material, which Mr. Larson says is four times the potential postage bill on official mail in 1932. It is possible, to be sure, that if the Postman bureau which seems to have completed both its filling the mails with their printed and mimeographed matter had been compelled to pay postage, they would not have disposed of so generously. Even to the present regime at Washington, $26,000,000 should seem a sizeable figure. Expended on public health, public education or other general benevolence, alone or in local cooperation, it could help greatly. As things are, most of the verbal fruits of this huge modern wordage industry have merely swollen the nation's wastebaskets.—Philadelphia Inquirer

DON'T MARRY THE BOSS DAUGHTER

Times have changed since Paul Rogers, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, made his now classic statement to "be a son and marry the boss daughter." Marry the boss secretary, and her boss daughter is the latest advice of the college professors. Paul K. Gale Norris, of the department of English at Brown University, gave that advice to one of his classes the other day. He explained: "The government is getting all the boss money, so he'll never give it to his daughter. The secretary, however, has a job."

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—Jeff Burkitt, persistent foe of Mayor Frank Hague, who was recently released from Hudson county jail after serving six months on a disorderly conduct conviction growing out of his long fight with the local authorities, as he was photographed at Grant and Berper avenues here recently. He did not speak as promised, but bore the above sign down Grant avenue from Berper avenue to Jackson avenue to his automobile. Burkitt's wife is with him.

THE NEW TAX PLAN

News comes from Washington that Treasury experts are busy drafting a new tax plan to increase government revenue from income taxes. Just what the new plan will be won't be known until the experts complete their figure juggling. In any event it looks like the government is going to hand Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer another "pay cut."

Current reports are that the income tax base is to be broadened. That will mean a lowering of the present personal exemptions ($1,000 a year for single persons and $2,500 for married couples). Thus persons now escaping income tax payments because of low income will be called upon to help pay the bills. Most of them don't know they are already paying through indirect, hidden taxes.

That another tax "pill" is being concocted for us is, of course, bad news. We wonder, though, if in the long run, the medicine won't be good for us. A bitter pill sometimes makes the patient think and

NOTICE OF REWARD I am offering $500 Reward for apprehension and conviction of guilty parties to every theft of livestock in Crockett County — except that no officer of Crockett County may claim the reward. W. S. WILLIS Sheriff, Crockett County wonder what caused the ailment that necessitated the pill. Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer may soon be demanding that government settle down and lead a more quiet, economical life.

PEACE AND QUIET

It is not a coincidence that the substantial improvement occurring in business since last spring took place during a relatively quiet period, so far as domestic affairs were concerned.

Congress was not in session. Comparatively few crack-pot legislative schemes were being aired. Rumors of new and still more extreme experiments were rare. Generally speaking, the attitude of the government was one of cooperation with business.

There is a hint in this for our lawmakers, now that a new legislative season is just in the offing. American business and industry are ready and eager to go places. They are prepared to spend tremendous sums for expansion and betterment, to reemploy hundreds of thousands of workers, and to provide a profitable and productive place of investment for savings. But this can only be done under sane, stable and reasonable government. Uncertainty is one of the worst enemies of economic progress. It breeds lack of confidence—and lack of confidence means retrogression.

The coming Congress will do well if it attends to essential matters, makes shortshift of what new "wild-eyed proposals are presented to it, winds up its affairs as soon as possible, and calls it a day. We have had enough of chaos—we are now long years of depression simply testifies. Today we need more of that atmosphere of peace and quiet that will enable us to go forward in a normal manner.

Behind The Scenes of American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—BUSINESS—As is usual in a democracy, there are many so-called "interpretations by experts" of last week's elections. But evidently the business world's reaction to the definite trend toward conservatism shown by the electorate is of the era of excessive reforms and regulations by the federal government will soon come to a head. Stock prices reflected this in dramatic fashion, gaining 1 to 4 points on the heaviest day in more than a year. The country's steelmakers stepped up production to over 60 per cent of capacity as orders poured in to their sales offices from the building and automobile industry. Rayon production, which is frequently considered a barometer of business, moved up to a new 1938 peak.

WASHINGTON.—Political Washington was on edge last week awaiting final returns from the non-party elections. At this writing (Friday) the Republicans have finally picked up 81 seats in the House of Representatives and eight in the Senate, the former figure based on a belief that the one-time Democrat Knute Hill (D.) of Washington to Capitol Hill. Thus the G. O. P. holds 170 House seats and a total membership of 345. Little figuring reveals that if 48 Democrats side with the opposition on any measure the coalition will have a majority. As a result of this situation, some political observers see either a legislative move toward conservatism or a two-year governmental deadlock.

Windshields, side and door windows and rear windows are all notably larger. This makes for real improvement in driving vision as many motorists have requested for the past several years, and is a safety step of no mean proportions. Corner posts have been reduced in size, adding further to improved visibility. Many makes feature a fourth and higher gear provided by overdrive which goes into effect at much lower speeds than formerly. The new cars are larger in over-all length, give an impression of lowness to the ground without loss of clearance, and have roomier and more comfortable interior arrangements. One model offers a sunshine top with a sliding panel of heat absorbing glass. Another has placed windshield wipers on the rear window to give better rear vision in bad weather.

Story Of Hysteria Of War Is Told In University Exhibit

AUSTIN.—In the archives of the University of Texas there are filed away increasingly valuable evidences of the activities of people of the state during the time of war. More than fifty filing cabinet drawers in the library archives of the university have been filled with collections made by the Texas war records collection bureau, established in October, 1918, and which functioned for several years. Instigated by the desire of several Texas historians that the war records of the state be gathered and preserved, the bureau selected Dr. Milton R. Gutsch professor of history at university, as director of the work.

The search for material brought to the bureau books, war pamphlets, tags, buttons, war music, photographs, newspapers, war maps, and countless state records. Especially complete and valuable is the collection of war-time propaganda posters from not only United States, but Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Germany, Canada and Russia. Some of these are advertising posters with war mottoes of private corporations, and are regarded as vivid illustrations of the crystallization of public opinion during war years.

Dr. Gutsch, speaking of the collection of printed material, said: "Although much of the war literature is of an ephemeral character, it is certainly of value in the study of war propaganda and war psychology. In collecting this literature, preference has been given to memoirs and diaries."

Probable All-American

KI ALDRICH—SUB CAPTAIN—CENTER T.C.U.

"The best lineman on the field was Ki Aldrich, T. C. U. center." That has been the verdict of every opponent the Christians have met this season, as well as the theme of almost every sports writer's account of the conflicts. Ki is all over the field, offensively and defensively. He passes the ball and then pulls out to run interference, or to protect the passer, on offense. Defensively, he is the team leader, calling signals and tearing here and there to knock down passes and break up running plays. He has an uncanny ability at diagnosing enemy plays. He'll be all-American in a lot of the final compilations for the 1938 season.

Harvest Second Crop Of Oats

CLARINDA, Iowa.—Farmers in southwest Iowa have been cutting oats the second time this season, the grain fully headed out by the middle of last month, up to which time the first killing frost hadn't yet come and summer temperatures had prevailed. This picture shows Hobart Owen, farmer near Clarinda, Iowa, cutting a five-acre field of oats, volunteered after the first crop had been cut on this same field.

Shipment Of Sheep, Goats and Horses Creates Sensation In East Texas Town

Something of a sensation was created in an East Texas town, Frankston, recently when ten stock car loads of livestock were unloaded in the town and the citizens turned out en masse to witness the sight, according to a front page story appearing in a recent issue of the Frankston Citizen.

The livestock shipment was from the Val Verde county ranch of Dim and Tom Patrick, former Ozonans, who moved the stock after recent sale of the place.

Under the heading "Frankston Takes on Western Air When 10 Carloads Stock Unloaded," the Citizen recorded the event as follows: "All the local cowboys, drug-store, synthetic and otherwise, turned out en masse last Saturday when ten stock-car loads of horses, sheep and goats were unloaded at the T. & N. O. stock pens here. H. B. Fields, station agent, says that this shipment is the largest single shipment of livestock handled by the railroad at this point since the establishment of railroad facilities here over 30 years ago. The shipment was composed of one carload of horses and nine carloads of sheep and goats. Four hundred and eighteen goats and approximately 1,200 sheep were included.

"This unusual shipment of livestock was shipped into Frankston from the Patrick Brothers ranch in Val Verde county by Dim and Tom Patrick, who have been partners in the ranching business in that section for the past 16 years. The Patrick brothers recently sold their ranch lands in Val Verde county, and decided to bring their livestock here to be placed on the 800 acre McKee farm about five miles southeast of town until spring at which time they can exercise an option on ranch lands near Stephenville, Erath county.

"At present, the Patricks have a number of men at work on the fence around the McKee farm, making it goat and sheep proof. In the meantime, the animals are being held in large pens or corrals on the farm.

"Tom Patrick is moving to Frankston with his family, consisting of his wife, two sons, Dim Thomas and James, 13 and 9 years old respectively, and one daughter, Estelle, 11. They will make their home in the Quanah Price residence, formerly owned and occupied by Cullen Browning and family in west Frankston. The children will attend school here the remainder of the term. The other brother, Dim, has lived here for several years, having married the former Miss Cara Mae McKee."

The Frankston Citizen carried the slogan under its masthead—"Home of the Famous Possum Dinner." And no doubt a "possum dinner" would be as great a sight for most West Texans as was the livestock to citizens of Frankston.

By MILES PIERCE

We had as our visitor this week, Richard Flowers. He was one of the charter members of the first Scout troop organized here in 1916. The troop, at that time, had only seven or eight members.

The activity of the Scouts has gone very slowly this year, but on Wednesday afternoon a chance was offered to all Scouts to pass second class, first class, or merit badge cooking. Also, to increase interest, a fishing trip has been planned for the first week after Thanksgiving.

The West Texas Scout News has recently come of the press with news that the Concho Valley council will hold an all-district first aid contest during the month of January. The ranch district, including Ozona, will have their meet at Sonora on January 14. There will be first aid men consisting of Scout officials, firemen, highway patrolmen, gas, electric and other utility experts, to judge the contest.

Dudley Ingham was fined $10 and costs in justice court here early in the week on a charge of violation of the trapping laws. Complaint was filed by O. Z. Finley, game warden.

TO BE INTERESTING, BE YOURSELF!

You may fit your talk to the company you're in; but unless you yourself are interested, you are sure to be dull company. Other wise you are not natural. Talk that springs from true conviction is interesting because it is an honest piece of goods. I remember the one time I ever talked with Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth. Not three minutes were necessary to learn the secret of the charm of her conversation. Several women were standing about uttering inane comments and bits of small talk that didn't mean anything, and didn't interest anybody. But what do you suppose Mrs. Longworth and I talked about? Mainly about the difficulty of learning to stand on one's head! That was a subject that happened to interest her at the moment and therefore it was what she started to talk about. Because she was being natural rather than artificial, she made everybody about her feel comfortable.—Fred C. Kelly.

TACT, OR COMMON SENSE

"An acre in Cook County is better than a whole principality in Utopia."

Talent, at the present time, is not a match for tact. We see everywhere the failure of people with real talent; they lack tact. Tact will manage one talent so as to get more out of it in a lifetime than ten talents will accomplish without tact. Talent is power, tact is skill; and what is power without skill. Talent knows what to do; tact knows how to do it.

"Common sense bows to the inevitable and makes use of it." A man with little practical experience finds life hard, and himself unsuited to it.

The triumphs of tact, or common sense, over talent and genius, are seen everywhere. Men who had little education or trained talent, have led countries, because they possessed tact. Tact cuts the knots that it cannot untie. A practical man not only sees but seizes the opportunity.

Uniforms Ordered For Entire Band

Concert To Be Given Upon Arrival Of Uniforms

Upon the arrival of the band uniforms, which date is set at December 15, there will be a free public concert given in the park by the band. The townspeople are cordially invited to attend. At a later date, soon after, the band will appear in a concert at the high school auditorium, at which admission will be charged.

The order for the uniforms has not as yet been sent off. The uniform committee met again last week and decided to get uniforms for everyone in the band, instead of only 45.

Invitations have been coming in rapidly for the Ozona band. Among them are an invitation to the Tri-State Festival at Enid, Okla., and to a band clinic at Alpine to be held Thanksgiving. The band also had an invitation to attend the Texas Tech Band Day held in Lubbock, Nov. 11. All those participating in the band will be admitted to the football game free of charge. Although we would surely like to attend these meetings, it will be almost impossible until after our uniforms have arrived.

It has been definitely decided upon that both the state and national band contests will be held in Abilene in the spring. The Ozona band is already making preparations to attend this contest.

An order was mailed this week to Southwest Uniform Co., Wichita, Kan., for 54 uniforms. The uniform, made of old gold cotton whipcord with purple trim, will bring appearance of our band to equality of that of any in the state. These should reach Ozona by Dec. 20, so that a full uniform concert may be given preceding the Christmas holidays.

Those to receive uniforms are George E. Armentrout, Mary Frances Bean, Ernest Brownrigg, Doris Bunger, Dorothy Lee Capps, Bill Carson, Crystelle Carson, Eloise Carson, Oleta Casbeer, Jayme Chapman, Bette Lou Coates, Naomi Collard, Joe Couch, Laura Graves, Jesse Hancock, Bill Hannah, Mary L. ### RULES FOR STUDY HALL CONDUCT

- First—Run the length of the hall, and jump inside the door as the bell rings. It amuses the other pupils.
- Second—Be industrious and go to the dictionary frequently, for the teachers love to hear the patter of your little feet and your lovely voice when you talk to the librarian.
- Third—Ask to speak to classmates often, for we want the school to be a social center.
- Fourth—When the teacher speaks for order, show your appreciation by loud and vigorous applause.
- Fifth—Piddle around in the mornings so that you are late to school, for the teachers love to keep detention.
- Sixth—Find something to laugh about and giggle in class. This makes the course more interesting.

Sonora Bronchs Beat Ozona Lions In Annual Game

Bronchs Pitch Ozona Lions By Score 6-0

The Sonora Bronchos defeated the Ozona Lions 6-0 in their annual Armistice day battle to chalk up their second win over the Lions in the last 14 years, both coming within the last three years. Sonora struck twice in the third quarter with two aerial throws to produce the only score of the game.

The first-half was a seesaw affair which saw Sonora drive to the 5-yard line only to be held in check by a tight defensive line. Neither team was able to produce a serious scoring threat during the remainder of the first half.

Early in the third quarter, Archer stepped back and heaved a 30-yard aerial to Bricker. He was finally forced out on the Ozona 20. The play netted 40 yards. Three line plays failed to gain, so Archer stepped back and heaved to Bricker again for a touchdown and Bricker's try for extra point was wide. Only once did Ozona threaten to score. With less than two minutes to play, Ozona gained the ball on their own 40 and began an aerial barrage. The drive was halted on the Sonora 12-yard line by the final whistle.

In Junction, the Junction Eagles trumped the Menard Yellowjackets 45 to 0 and Elorado defeated Ricksprings 14 to 6. The last week of district play finds Eldorado at Ozona and Ricksprings at Junction.

Low-Priced Brick Dwelling

This brick dwelling, situated in Fairlawn, N. J., is a typical example of good small housing, planning, and design. It was built through a $3,300 mortgage insured by the Federal Housing Administration. It is valued at $6,000.

The sleeping quarters, segregated from the living quarters and utility rooms and the arrangement of the stairway leading to the second floor are in the interest of privacy.

The attached garage, by means of a set-back, does not interfere with the line of the house proper.

The undeveloped upper floor contains sufficient usable area to permit two bed rooms and a bath to be developed when family needs demand.

Basement Usage Problems Solved

Logical arguments can be presented for and against the matter of a basement in a new house. Climatic conditions, the size of the house, and the type of heating system to be used and deciding factors in the matter.

Frequently space needed for heating equipment, fuel, laundry, storage, and other purposes can be more economically obtained above than below ground and to advantage in convenient usage. Better light and air are available, and upstairs utility rooms also save steps.

On the other hand, basements offer ideal storage space for solid fuels such as coal, coke, or wood, because the fuel can be cheaply delivered by gravity into suitable storage bins. They also offer ideal conditions for storing certain foods where space separated from the heating plant is provided and when proper use is made of the earth temperatures.

Earth temperatures at the level of the ordinary basement in the United States seldom go below the freezing point and seldom rise to more than a few degrees below the average seasonal temperature. This factor can be utilized to good advantage for the storage of foods such as apples, potatoes, beets, winter squash, etc., and for the storage of canned foods and preserves.

Removal of Defective Fireplace Usually Easily Accomplished

A fireplace filled with cheerful crackling flames adds to the joy of living during the long Winter evenings, if it is a well-built, efficient unit. If the home owner is unfortunate enough to have a fireplace that is not properly built, these same crackling flames give off a smothering smoke that makes life miserable for everyone in the room and relegates the fireplace to a strictly decorative capacity.

The usual defective fireplace is one that is not properly built. The only excuse for smoking fireplaces is in a case where a hill or a clump of trees rises higher than the chimney and causes a downdraught.

The cause of improper functioning may be too small a flue or one that does not start directly over the center of the fireplace and has a sharp turn in it. Or it may be that the flue is clogged.

Other causes for inefficient operation may be too high an opening, lack of a smoke shelf, an inadequate smoke chamber, a damper that does not fit the opening, or a chimney that is not tall enough to clear the highest roof ridge.

Painted floors offer an opportunity for working out novel decorative effects.

In a well-lighted room the floor may be painted black. If a tinge of color is added, the effect is heightened.

SECOND STORY OVER GARAGE PROVIDES SPACE

The problem of a small home for a growing family may sometimes be solved with comparatively little expense by adding a second story to the garage.

If the garage is a sound structure, there should be no construction difficulties encountered in raising the roof to accommodate an additional floor. If the building is not wide enough to allow for the installation of an indoor stairway, stairs may be constructed on the outer wall.

A large number of garages already have water connections. These may be used if the second floor is to be adapted for living quarters. If it is to be used solely for recreational purposes, plumbing may not be needed.
