5-Section Tract Is Prepared For Bitterweed Test

University Lands To Be Devoted To 6-Year Experiment

Work has been started on fencing of a five-section tract of University lands sixteen miles north of Ozona, along Highway 163, upon which a six-year experiment looking toward a solution of the bitterweed problem is to be conducted by the University in cooperation with the A. & M. Experiment Station.

A house, purchased in the Powell Field section, has been moved to the site and placed in readiness for occupancy of the experiment station employees. A water well is to be drilled and approximately a mile and a half of pipe line laid to water the various pastures and field.

The tract is to be divided into 15 pastures for more convenient experiments in different methods of combatting bitterweed. In addition a 40-acre farm is to be worked in connection with the program.

The experiment work is to be conducted under the direction of W. H. Dameron, head of the A. & M. Experiment Station near Sonora, and his staff. Every different approach to the bitterweed control problem is to be studied in the six-year program, including the sowing of different grass seeds, deferred grazing, different degrees of stocking, etc.

The experimental tract is out of acreage under lease to A. C. Hoover and W. R. Bissett. It is located on the east side of Highway 163. The development of the project is under the direction of E. J. Compton, head of the land lease division of the University.

Marvin Blackburn Of Junction Out For Legislature

Young Attorney Seeks Seat Vacated By Stevenson

Marvin E. Blackburn, Jr., young Junction attorney, this week announces his candidacy for Representative of the 86th district, to succeed Coke R. Stevenson of Junction, who this year is a candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas.

Mr. Blackburn visited in Ozona Tuesday. The following prepared statement of his candidacy was handed The Stockman:

"I hereby announce my candidacy for Representative of the 86th district. In taking this step I am not unmindful of what the office involves, its duties and responsibilities. I know that it means work, investigation, judgment and integrity. I know that a high order of ability is desirable, but I believe that a conscientious application to duty and integrity of character means more. I have spent several sessions in the Legislature in the capacity of an employee and am familiar with legislative procedure. This advantage would be of benefit to my constituents and would enable me to more readily and efficiently discharge the duties of the office.

"I was born and reared in the district and feel that I am conversant with the needs and wishes of the people whom I would represent. My personal acquaintance with our state officials, the members of the House and Senate, would be of material advantage (Continued On Last Page.)

Casbeer Asks Re-Election To Treasurer Post

Veteran Official In Race For New Term In Office

Tom Casbeer, veteran Crockett County treasurer, is again a candidate for office.

Which is a news item that has bobbed up in these parts at two-year intervals for more than a quarter of a century. Mr. Casbeer in 1938 is seeking re-election for another two-year term in the office of treasurer of this county.

Next to Judge Charles E. Davidson, Tom Casbeer has the longest record of service of any county official. His official announcement of his candidacy for re-election this week makes it unanimous with the Crockett County official family with the exception of two. All are out for new terms in office and, so far, all are unopposed.

Longley Acquitted Of Murder Charge In Sanderson Trial

Cam Longley, Terrell County ranchman and former Ozonan, charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of his brother-in-law, Henry Young, September 28, was acquitted by a Terrell County jury in district court at Sanderson Saturday.

The shooting, which followed an argument, testimony revealed, occurred at the Longley ranch, 30 miles east of Sanderson. A self defense plea was offered by the defendant, who presented no testimony in the brief trial. Young, inmate of a state hospital nine years was on parole to Longley for 18 months.

Ozona Lions Are Champs Of Ranch Dist. Cage Loop

Locals Win Six Games Straight To Sack Up Title

By nosing out the Sonora Bronchos Friday night by a one-point margin to take the heated contest 18 to 17, and swamping the Junction Eagles Saturday night by a count of 32 to 14, the Ozona High School Lions emerged with a clean record of six victories and no defeats to clinch the undisputed championship of the Ranch Country basketball league. Sonora and Eldorado tied for second honors with 3 games won and 3 lost, while Junction, fourth member of the loop, finished without being able to chalk up a single win in six starts.

A handsome gold basketball statuette sits in a place of prominence this week in the high school trophy case, as evidence of the prowess of the 1938 Lions in the first organized basketball league in this section. The trophy was awarded by league officials at the conclusion of the week-end combat.

The final standings of teams in the league:

	W	L	Pct.
Ozona	6	0	1000
Sonora	3	3	.500
Eldorado	3	3	.500
Junction	0	6	.000

The Sonora team was able to gain slight satisfaction from a victory of second string players 18 to 11 over Lion second stringers. The visitors from Junction likewise had some compensation when a team of Junction all-stars defeated an Ozona all-star team 32 to 24.

Official In Running For New Tenure In Position

George Russell, who is serving his tenth year as county and district clerk here, this week authorized The Stockman to announce his candidacy for a sixth term in that office, subject to action of the Democratic primary in July.

Mr. Russell was elected to the office of county and district clerk in 1928 and has held the post continuously since, each time, without opposition save one occasion. In offering himself for re-election he points to his record in office and a renewed pledge to voters of the county to continue performance of the duties of the office with diligence and impartiality to recommend him for another term.

Rocksprings Man In Running For Representative

C.H. Gilmer Seeks Post To Be Vacated By Stevenson

The announcement of Coke R. Stevenson of Junction as a candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas was the signal for announcement of a second candidate for the seat to be vacated by Mr. Stevenson, that of representative from the 86th district. He is C. H. Gilmer, practicing attorney of Rocksprings, Texas. Mr. Gilmer this week authorized The Stockman to announce his candidacy for the legislative post.

Mr. Gilmer is a young man who has been highly successful in the legal profession in his home community. He was born in Edwards County in March, 1901, and has made his home there since. Finishing high school in 1918, he was graduated from Meridian Junior College in Basque County, and then attended the University of Texas.

Upon completion of his work at the University, Mr. Gilmer returned to Rocksprings as principal of the Rocksprings High School, in which position he served two years. Voters of his home county then elected him to the position of county judge, which he held for six years, retiring to take up private practice of law seven years ago.

Owens Seeks New Term As Precinct 3 Commissioner

Veteran Of Court Officers For Re-Election In 1938

J. W. Owens, next to Judge Charles E. Davidson the oldest member of the Commissioners Court of Crockett County in point of service, this week announces himself a candidate for re-election to the post he has held more than twenty years.

Mr. Owens represents Precinct No. 3 on the county governing body. He has been so long a member of the Commissioners Court that he is a little hazy on the matter. "Been there a long time, some twenty years or more," he guesses. Long enough, he thinks, as do many of his constituents, to become fairly familiar with the duties of the office. So far he is unopposed.

CROCKETT CO. TAX RATE TO REMAIN SAME

Commissioners Make Early Setting Of Rate For Next Year

HIKE SCHOOL TAX

30-Cent Raise Is Offset By Cuts In Other Funds

In an unusually early setting, the Commissioners Court of Crockett County, in session here this week, fixed the tax rate for 1938 at a total of $1.75 on the $100 valuation for county and school purposes. The court set the levy considerably in advance of the usual date, ordinarily some time in June or later.

The total rate remains the same as that for last year. However, a raise of 30 cents in the school tax rate was made, but this was offset by reductions in levies for benefits of other funds. The school maintenance tax was hiked from 20 to 40 cents, and the levy for school house bonds sinking fund from 20 to 30 cents. Reductions of five cents in the first, fourth, fifth, and sixth class funds and ten cents in the seventh class were made to offset the raise in school taxes.

Valuations for tax purposes were also fixed at the same figure as in the past, land at $1.25 an acre, cattle at $10 a head, sheep at $2.25, goats at $1.00, saddle horses at $20 and stock horses at $5.00.

THURSDAY, FEB. 17, 1938

FORTY YEARS AGO

Forty years ago this month events were moving rapidly toward that short but spirited struggle known to history as the Spanish-American War, which freed Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines from Spanish misrule.

American feeling was running high because of Spanish atrocities in Cuba, when the battleship Maine was blown up in Havana harbor on February 15, 1898, killing 266 officers and men. On April 11 President McKinley told Congress that in the name of humanity and civilization the war being staged against the Cubans by the Spaniards must stop. On April 19 Congress demanded that Spain withdraw from Cuba, and authorized the use of American land and sea forces to accomplish this result. War officially began on April 21.

Regular Army and National Guard troops were mobilized at Tampa, Mobile and other Southern points; Dewey's fleet was ordered from Hong Kong to destroy the Spanish fleet at Manila. Sampson and Schley prepared to meet Cervera's Spanish fleet which was on its way to West Indian waters from Cape Verde Islands.

The end of April thus saw the stage set for action. On May 1 Dewey easily defeated the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay; on July 1 the main assault on Santiago by Shafter's Army began; on July 3 Cervera's fleet was destroyed while trying to escape from Santiago harbor, and the Spanish land forces at Santiago surrendered to Shafter on July 17. Aside from minor engagements in Porto Rico, the fall of Santiago virtually ended Spain's resistance, hostilities being formally ended by the protocol of August 13.

Peace was declared through the Treaty of Paris, signed on December 10, 1898, and later ratified by both nations, whereby Spain acknowledged Cuba's independence, ceded Porto Rico to the United States and received twenty million dollars for the Philippines. These are the high spots in a brief but dramatic war which had far-reaching consequences for many millions of people.

A DIME OR A DOLLAR?

"Can ya gimme a dime for a cup'a coffee?" those words, symbols of unemployment and hopelessness, are heard all too often on the nation's streets these winter months. With seven million men on the idle lists, less than half are now receiving federal aid. The remaining millions face the spectre of unemployment without the helping hand of government.

Such a fact would not have seemed startling in the days of "rugged individualism," but today, whether we like it or not, a new philosophy of relief fills the nation. Such words as "indigent" and "needy" are on their way into the purgatory of forgotten words. Relief has shed its charity rags and donned the robes of social justice. The unemployed of 1938 have learned to ask, not for a cup of coffee, but for a dollar dinner.

The demand for $3 billion in new relief funds just voiced by John L. Lewis is in line with this sort of thinking. The CIO leader reports that only 1,831,961 of the 7,000,000 unemployed are listed on the WPA rolls. What, he asks, is being done to take care of those other millions?

The multi-million dollar relief budget, like the poor, we seem destined to have with us always. The unemployed have come to greet Uncle Sam with an expectant, "Welcome, Godfather!" Having accepted that post, the good uncle cannot now resign the position. The idle millions, taught to reach into the federal pocket for dollars, will never again be satisfied with a "gimme a dime" policy.

A bright side of the picture! There does indeed seem to be a definite rift in the dark clouds of unemployment. With a business up-swing in full sweep, every dollar paid out in wages is a dollar saved in WPA funds. Every new man on the pay roll is one less on the relief roll. With spring time giving every evidence of being up-swing-time, the relief show-ers may soon give way to the flowering growth of spring business.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

In most of the years both before and after that day when Ponce de Leon started the original Florida Boom, man has searched for some thing that will postpone the creaking bones and feeble steps of age — a fountain of youth.

Today, under the guiding hand of medical science, one further step has been made towards a youthful old age. Speaking before the Pan-American Medical Association in Havana, Dr. E. L. Stern recently revealed that synthetic vitamin B1, when injected directly into the spinal columns of aged persons, left them "actually rejuvenated and much younger."

Acting as a food for the nervous system, the synthetic vitamin forges one more link in a chain of body, spirit, and mind that may one day lift mankind into an era of eternal youthfulness.

Dr. Stern's discovery, of course, is just one drop towards filling the mythical fountain of youth. And yet, it would be amusing, wouldn't it, if old Ponce de Leon's pool turned out to be just a shot in the back?

Denton, Feb. 16 — Grandma doesn't have a monopoly on ginger bread any more; her dancing daughter has found some new and exciting ways to make it and some new additions to the recipe that will make grandma sit up and take notice.

Ice-Box Gingerbread

Sift 3 cups flour, 1 cup sugar, one half teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, and 1 teaspoon cloves. Beat 2 eggs and add 1 cup water, 1 cup molasses, and one half cup fat (softened). Add the dry ingredients to the liquid ingredients. Mix thoroughly. The batter may stand in a covered bowl in the ice box almost indefinitely. Do not stir, but "spoon" the batter gently into greased muffin tins. Bake in a moderate oven (325 F. to 250 F.) for 15 minutes to 25 minutes.

These gingerbread muffins may be served with Lemon Sauce: mix one half cup sugar and 2 tablespoons flour. Add 1 cup boiling water gradually. Cook over heat for 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. Stir in 2 tablespoons butter, 1 and one half tablespoons lemon juice, and a few grains salt.

Fruit Gingerbread

(Pan 9 inches by 9 inches by 2 inches) Cream one half cup fat. Add gradually one half cup brown sugar. Stir in 2 eggs (beaten). Add 1 cup molasses and beat until thoroughly blended. Sift three cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ginger, and 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Stir 1 cup sliced dates into flour mixture. Add dry ingredients to fat-sugar mixture alternately with portions of sour milk until 1 and one half cups have been used. After each addition of dry ingredients beat until all is well-blended, but after adding liquid mix slightly. Begin and end with a portion of the dry ingredients. Pour into greased pan and bake in moderate oven (325 F.) for forty to sixty minutes. Cut into squares to serve either hot or cold.

Marshmallow Gingerbread

Split squares of Fruit Gingerbread, using two forks. Place marshmallows between the halves. Return to the oven long enough to melt the filling, just before serving. Top with whipped cream.

Frosted Gingerbread

Use one cup desiccated coconut instead of the dates and omit 2 tablespoons fat in the Fruited Gingerbread. For frosting: Put corn syrup, and one half cup water into sauce pan. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Cook to 240 F. or until the syrup spins a thread 3 inches long. Gradually beat syrup into 2 stiffly beaten egg whites to which a pinch of salt has been added. Beat until mixture is cool and tends to hold its shape. Stir in one half teaspoon orange extract. Spread on gingerbread and sprinkle thickly with coconut.

Billions in Chemistry

More billions are being spent now in the U. S. on the chemical industry than ever before, and research in this field is affecting the life of every individual in countless ways. New York has 1,114 chemical plants, New Jersey 532, Pennsylvania 560, and other north eastern states almost as many. These plants depend to a large extent upon Texas oil, natural gas, sulphur, mercury, carbon black and other mineral products, and yet Texas has but 310 plants of her own.

Leisure Doomed

Denton, Feb. 16—"As useless as a tumbleweed," goes the old saying which refers to the aimlessly wandering plant family to all West Texans. And yet a possible utilization of this weed is under consideration, since the discovery that high grade paper can be manufactured from it. Someone had already found that a very satisfactory Christmas tree can be fashioned by wiring three of the weeds together and spraying them with silver and white paint, so it seems that the tumbleweed's life of leisure is doomed.

Patch of France

Texans don't have to go to France to see funny little villages with narrow roads, houses perched at odd angles, and pigs, guineas, chickens and children running around. About twenty miles from San Antonio is the town of Castroville, most of whose citizens still speak French. That it is a typical little French village is no wonder, since it was established by Henry Castro, close friend and bodyguard of Napoleon, who found France uncomfortable after his leader's defeat and sailed for Texas with 27 boats of Frenchmen

For Out-of-town Calls

Friends and relatives in nearby towns are nickles nearer to you every Sunday. Chats to more distant places are inexpensive, too. All day on Sundays, the same low rates apply that are in effect each evening after 7 o'clock. Give your operator the name of a town where you have friends or relatives. She gladly will quote the low Sunday rates to that point. Plan to visit with an out-of-town friend . . . by telephone . . . this Sunday.

You Wouldn't Take Your Watch To a Blacksmith—!

The blacksmith is an adept at his forge, but you wouldn't expect him to repair a delicate watch. So to whom would you go in illness but to a physician? He has devoted the greater part of his life to the scientific study of medicine.

When you are ill, the professional training and specialized experience of a medical practitioner qualify him to diagnose and prescribe for your particular ailment. And the prescription druggist's training and experience qualifies him to compound medicines under the doctors order to scientific exactness to bring about results desired by the doctor.

Such are the facts, and on them you can well decide, "Better buy Buick!"

But they do not end the tale. There are two points dealing with figures still needed to complete the full picture of Buick value:

TO HAVE, OR NOT TO HAVE THE BOY SCOUT ORGANIZATION?

By Norman Rendall

Last week nearly a million and a half Boy Scouts celebrated the twenty-eighth anniversary of the founding of their organization. This organization has something that appeals to—and gets under the skin of a boy once he becomes a Scout.

A certain judge of a New York juvenile court has asked every offender brought before him if he was a Boy Scout, and the answer has always been negative. Think of it! Not one law-breaker out of over 7,000 that were questioned had ever been a Boy Scout!

After a boy becomes a Scout, he goes on upward in his work. He climbs a ladder of usefulness and education. The rungs of this ladder are: Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, Life, and Eagle.

The Eagle is the most coveted rank in the Boy Scouts. It is the top rung of the ladder, and there have been only about 8,000 Eagle Scouts in the United States out of about 9,500,000 Scouts since they have been organized.

To become a Scout a boy must take the following oath:

On my honor I will do my best—

1. To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout Law.
2. To help other people at all times.
3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

When a Scout swears to obey the Scout Law, he must remember this: A Scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent.

With all the above ideals, a Boy Scout is surely a member of the best, and, certainly, the largest organization of his kind.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

Last week was Boy Scout Week, and every week is Boy Scout Week. It is a magnificent organization to which we are all proud to belong.

There is nothing sissy about being a Boy Scout, as it takes real he-man material to develop into

BY-LAWS AND MICROSCOPE CAMERA DISCUSSED AT SCIENCE CLUB MEETING

The Science Club met on Friday, Feb. 11. The house was called to order by the president, and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary. The question of corrections on the By-Laws and Constitution of the Science Club were brought before the house. It was decided that, to retain membership in the club, a student must present a piece of work to the club once every six weeks, and that he must also be passing in all of his school subjects. If he fails on a subject on the six weeks grades, he is put out of the club and given a chance to raise his grade at the close of the three weeks period; if he does not raise it then, he is not permitted to retain membership in the club until his failing grades are raised to passing.

Bobby Lemmons demonstrated the microprojector that he made, and the pictures that he had taken and developed. These pictures were of a flea's head, a flea's leg, the cells of a plant, and a grasshopper's wing.

The club was then adjourned.

Her husband forced her to hoe in the garden barefooted, Mrs. Neida Beard of Oklahoma City testified at her divorce hearing.

CAN YOU BEAT THIS?

By Welton Bunger

Well, the groundhog saw his shadow all right. Funny how such an insignificant animal — or rodent, as the case might be, can control the underwear industry of a great nation like ours.

Here I had my red flannels all folded and neatly put away in moth balls, because our colored man told me that his pappy told him, that the first thunder and lightning of the year woke up the snakes and insects and told them "Spring is here."

And now, a measly little ground hog says, "Six weeks more winter" so a fellow just doesn't know what to believe any more.

BARNHART GIRLS WIN AGAIN OZONA TO WIN NEXT TIME?

Last Thursday, with a fighting spirit, the Ozona Girls' team faced their hard playing opponents, Barnhart, again. The Ozona girls made no headway until the half, when their score started rolling up.

When the final whistle blew, however, the score was 17 to 25 in favor of Barnhart.

The Ozona Girls' team is hoping for another opportunity to play Barnhart to bring back those six extra points.

MEETING IN STUDY HALL

On Monday morning, Feb. 14, the Ozona High School students held a general meeting in the study hall. Announcements were made concerning Ozona's victory over Sonora in the typing contest sponsored the previous Friday by Miss North, and of Ozona's victory in the Ranch League basketball games.

I wonder what P. C. and Howard were looking over at the drug store in reference to valentine about a week ago.

I wonder what two little sub-fish Bobby had out riding last Sun evening.

Jack Baggett seemed to be enjoying the basketball game last Friday between Ozona and Sonora or the two little dames from Sonora one. Which was it Jack?

Have you heard of this new name that they gave to Philip? Philip, what is the reason for it, and is there really anything to it?

Listen, Ora Louise and Dorothy if you go that party in Iraan tomorrow night, I don't want you to do anything that I wouldn't do.

I don't know what William Beecher would do if Dorothy didn't come back to Ozona every now and then. Do you?

Emogene and Eloise must enjoy finding cars that are parked some where or they wouldn't spend most of their time hunting for them.

I wonder who Lois J. had me mistaken for last Sun. It was a lucky mistake for me because I needed a push.

I would like to know who put that quart of milk in my car last week, because as it is I don't know whom to thank.

OZONA LIONS WIN RANCH COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIP

The Ozona Lions were presented with a beautiful trophy after winning the Ranch Country Championship. The game on Saturday night closed this round-robin tournament between the towns in the Ranch Country District.

Each team played six games which at the end of the series, had these standings:

Ozona	6	0	100%
Sonora	3	3	50%
Eldorado	3	3	50%
Junction	0	6	0%

The trophy was made possible by a contribution from each of the competing teams. The award received is an attractive sun ray figure of a basketball player with the ball standing on an attractive pedestal, which bears the inscription "Ranch Country Championship, 1938". It has been placed in the highly treasured collection of trophies in the Ozona High School building.

Campus Philosophy

By Mickey Couch

We cannot properly understand others unless we have something of like elements in our own natures.

Our faults attract more than our virtues.

We have observed that those who can easily decide questions for their friends can seldom come to a decision in matters of their own.

Don't guy anybody. It doesn't give you much satisfaction and the one you guy will hate you. Some day you may need his friendship.

You can do what you are expected to do. You are expected to do your best, that's all.

MR. CONDON IS HERE AGAIN!

On Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, photographs will be taken of the students. Every class in school will march out in the light to smile for the birdie. Additional pictures will be made of Band, Press Club, Science Club, and Glee Club. Individual pictures for the Seniors have been planned.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

FIRST GRADE NEWS

Most of the first graders are back in school. We are glad to have all of them back.

"The Ozona Special" is nearing completion and we are learning much valuable information on trains. We are writing a play about trains, which we expect to give for our parents. We find that Mr. Pullman names his pullman cars for famous men, so we have named our Pullman after a very famous man. Can you guess his name?

THIRD GRADE NEWS

We have been writing letters to the ones who have been sick. Billy Coase is back again, but J. W. is out.

We are making a library. Any book we read we put a little piece of paper in a little envelope for it.

We are making a postoffice. We want you to come and see our things. — Bessie Gail Phillips.

Six girls and boys are going to do some dances for P. T. A. February 21.

We are learning the dances. One of them is "Lazy Mary"; would you like to come?

— Myrtastine Hokit.

The third grade is building a post office. They are going to use it for Valentine's day. We are fixing Mr. Denham a box. The first, second, and fourth grade must get their mail general delivery. Our post office is nearly finished.

— Jo Nell Coase.

We have a new little boy, his name is Billie Rae Harrison. He is in group one. — Palma Trull.

We made a post office, to mail our Valentines. John Fussell was post master and Doris Bean was post mistress. Tomorrow Buddy Russell will be postmaster.

— Buddy Russell.

FOURTH GRADE NEWS

The fourth grade has been building a Swiss village. We are now building the Alps. We build our mountains out of brown paper and boxes; the mountains have snow on the peaks. We have a tunnel also; it is the St. Gotthard Tunnel. We borrowed Chappo Morrison's electric train, which we use for the tunnel. The train has electric lights in it.

FIFTH GRADE NEWS

The fifth grade has been studying the different songs of Opera and some others. Some of them are: "Who is Sylvia," "Grand March," and "Barcarolle."

OUR VALENTINE BOX

By Nan Tandy

We have a very pretty valentine box. It is decorated with paper doilies and gold crepe paper. The rest is red. It is four feet high and is large enough for the postman to get in and sit down to give out the Valentines. It has a big red heart in the center and curtains at the back so the postman can't see through it. Won't you come to see our box?

A TRIP TO SWITZERLAND

By Barbara White

Today I decided I would take a hike in the mountains. I chose a dog called "Barry" to go with me. My guide took me up the mountains to see a glacier. After a while I saw something that looked like a bright blue ribbon. The guide told me that it was a glacier. My guide said in French, "Come here." He stepped on top of the glacier, and I followed him and found it was hard ice. When I came back, I had a great deal of fun telling Ruth all about it.

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the State and its people. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. Who was Captain Cage, who was killed in the Indian fight of October, 1838, on the Leon River near San Antonio?

A. Capt. Benjamin F. Cage, was a member of the second regiment of Texas volunteers, fourth company, infantry and was in the Battle of San Jacinto. He came to Texas in 1832 and settled in what is now Brazoria County.

Q. When and how was Mrs. Hane Webster captured by Indians and how did she escape from them?

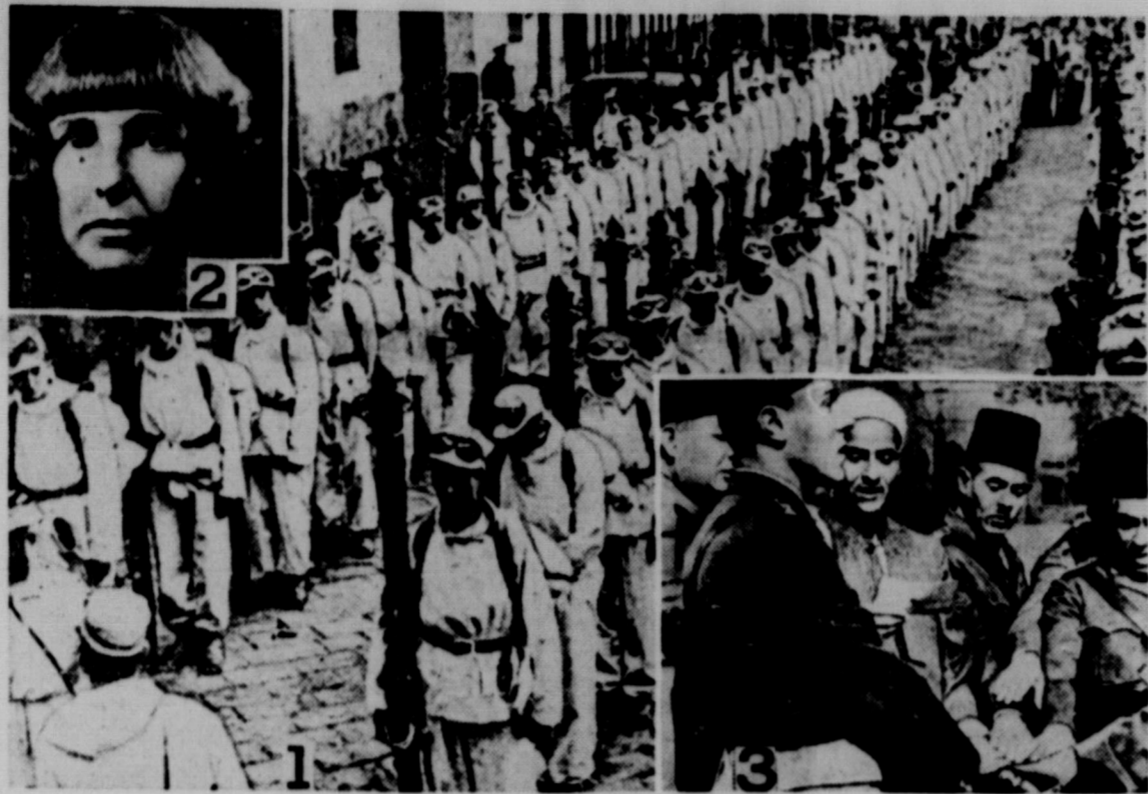

A. She came with her husband from Virginia early in 1838 to settle on a headright league at the fork of the San Gabriel Rivers. On the way from Austin the party was attacked in camp at Brushy Creek by Comanches, the 13 men were killed, Mrs. Webster was captured and threatened with the usual cruelty given Indian captives. She was among the prisoners when the Indians went to San Antonio for the proposed peace treaty in March, 1840, and hearing she would not be taken to San Antonio, she managed to escape on foot, carrying her small child, and reached San Antonio, half starved and footsore, on March 26.

Q. Did Lamar send a commission to Santa Fe in September 1840, as proposed in his letter of April 14?

A. Congress refused to make an appropriation to pay the expenses of such a commission, but early in 1841, President Lamar decided to take the matter in hand and ordered drafts honored to pay for outfitting an expedition.

Q. Was the Santa Fe expedition of a commercial or military character?

A. President Lamar's sole purpose was to divert the valuable Santa Fe trade to the Texas coast. The 270 soldiers of the expedition were for protection against hostile

1—Soldiers of the Spanish Loyalist government specially equipped with skis and snowshoes, ready for mountainous expedition. 2—Miss Dorothy Kenyon, noted American lawyer, recently appointed by the League of Nations to a special committee to report on the legal status of women in various countries. 3—Officers of the Egyptian army shown swearing their allegiance over the Koran to King Farouk.

Indians and Mexicans that might be encountered. The soldiers were instructed not to use force unless it should be necessary to carry out the wishes of Santa Fe business men in establishing commercial relations with Texas, to which purpose the entire party was to devote its utmost efforts.

Q. Did the Santa Fe expedition seriously attempt to follow instructions?

A. They reached the neighborhood of San Miguel so exhausted from starvation and exposure that when Governor Armijo refused to believe that they were on an innocent trade mission and ordered them arrested, they were helpless to resist.

Q. When did the Santa Fe expeditioners surrender and when did the news reach Austin?

A. The advance guard surrendered to Mexican commandant Salazar, Sept. 17, 1841, and the main body shortly afterward at Las Vegas, but the news of their capture did not reach Austin until Jan. 18, 1842.

Q. How were the Santa Fe expeditioners treated by their Mexican captors?

A. They were chained in pairs, their arms and other property confiscated by Governor Armijo, and were marched on foot by way of Santa Fe and El Paso to Mexico City, the guards being under command of Salazar, by whom the Texans were treated most cruelly. They were marched around the public squares of the towns that the people might witness their suffering and humiliation. Many were sick and some died on the way. The ears of those who died were cut off to exhibit as proof that they had not escaped.

Q. When were the Santa Fe prisoners released?

A. All except J. A. Navarro were released June 13, 1842, by Santa Anna that being his birthday. This was done at the intercession of Waddy Thompson, United States minister of Mexico. Navarro made his escape in 1845.

Q. What was the first act of revenge on the part of the Comanches following the Council House tragedy?

A. The Indians followed up the crushing blow received at San Antonio with a destructive raid on Linnville and Victoria, party in revenge, but largely to secure horses and provisions for a still greater raid on Texas settlers.

Q. What plans were in the making for completely wiping out Texas settlements and how were these thwarted?

A. At the time of the Linnville and Victoria raids agreements had been made for some 2000 or more Comanches to destroy the settlements down the Colorado and its tributaries. At the same time the Cherokee, Wacos, Apaches and allied tribes were to descend on the settlements in east Texas, and Mexican forces were to capture San Antonio and the government at Austin. The complete defeat of the Comanches at Plum Creek so crippled their fighting spirit that raids in Texas were abandoned for a time and their attention was turned to Mexico.

Q. How did the Mexican failure to capture San Antonio and Austin in 1840 affect the Comanches?

A. They blamed the Mexicans for persuading them to raid Texas settlements and for failing to join them as agreed. In October, 1840, some 400 or 500 Comanches made their way 400 miles into Mexico, burning ranches and villages, killing inhabitants, capturing women and children, and taking several thousand horses and mules.

Q. When and where should the Texas flag especially be displayed?

A. On all State public buildings, each regular week day and at every school in Texas each school day, except in inclement weather; at homes and other places on special occasions of historical significance.

Q. What features of the Tyler annexation proposal of 1844 were so objectionable to Texas that it likely would have been rejected by the Republic?

A. Texas was to be annexed as a territory, not a state; the United States was to have control of all public lands in Texas and assume the debts of the Texas government.

Q. What were the conditions of the joint resolution afterward submitted by Tyler to Congress that made the new proposal more acceptable to Texas?

A. When the United States Congress met in December, 1844, Tyler suggested the passage of a joint resolution, which required only a majority vote of both houses for passage. This resolution, which was passed March 1, 1845, for submission to Texas as an overture, provided that Texas should be annexed as a state; that it should retain its public lands and pay its own public debts; that it might be divided into as many as five states at its will, and that the United States would adjust all boundary differences between Texas and other countries.

Q. What military service did Lamar render after resigning from the United States Army?

A. He organized a company of Texas Mounted Volunteers (Rangers) and was stationed with this corps by Governor Henderson at Laredo to protect the frontier from Comanche Indians and Mexican marauders.

Unsound Factors Kept From Home Under FHA Plan

One of the advantages of the insured mortgage system of the Federal Housing Administration, to the borrower, according to H. L. Garner, who is secretary of the Anchor Savings, Building and Loan Association of Madison, Wis., is that unwise and unsound steps are discouraged.

"One of the things I have reference to," Mr. Garner writes in the recent edition of "The Insured Mortgage Portfolio," official Federal Housing Administration publication, "is the tendency of some people to inject unusual features into the design of the house they intend to build. It may be some personal idiosyncrasy which the individual considers a master stroke at the time but which the dictates of common sense and good design, to say nothing of the requirements of resale, if such should become necessary, would classify as undesirable.

"There is, for example, the case of one of our customers who had planned his new home as a very long, narrow structure, with the bedrooms at one end and the bathroom at the other, thus making it necessary to go through the living room and kitchen to get from bedroom to bathroom.

"When matters of this kind come up it is often difficult for us, by ourselves, to convince the customer his idea is unsound. The average customer, we've found, considers his judgment as regards construction just as good as ours. But when we explain that this loan application may be declined for insurance by the Federal Housing Administration due to the feature in question, the customer is much more willing to listen."

A young matron drove through downtown Indianapolis with two women friends. Trailing from her motor car were tin cans, old shoes and streamers. A sign said: "Just Divorced."

Not a child has been born in the Scottish village of Kilmuir on the Black Isle, Moray Firth, in the last 24 years, records reveal.

Arrested for driving while intoxicated, Miss Betty Kachmeyer of Milwaukee told the judge: "I had only 25 bottles of beer, judge. I wasn't drunk at all." She was fined $100 or 30 days in jail.

A Small Cottage Featuring Economy

Here is a plan designed to permit those of limited incomes the comforts, independence and satisfaction of owning their own homes. Two floor plans provide a choice of bath and dining space if desired. An outstanding feature of this home is the fact that it is only eighteen feet in width, making it possible to build on a very narrow lot without sacrificing privacy or convenience. The front porch can be screened or glazed to provide additional space if desired.

Builders Devote More Attention To Small Homes

"The little man" and one of his greatest problems — that of finding a livable home at a price his small income can afford — is now getting a greater share of the attention of the nation's builders than at any time before.

Realizing, as most effective purveyors of other merchandise have done, that huge potential sales were more readily possible thru catering to the needs and desires of the great mass market, the nation's major industrial organizations concerned with housing materials and construction, architects, fabricators, and distribution agencies have addressed themselves to the problem. Results are following according to observation of the Federal Housing Administration.

$2000 Incomes

What statistics there are on the subject agree that approximately 70 per cent of the nonfarm families of the United States have incomes of $2000 a year or less. This figure hardly embraces the possible expenditure of any appreciable sum for homes, observers know. Thus, the intense plans to meet the market at what it can pay. The Federal Housing Administration helped matters along thru its development of plans for simple cottage type homes which could be built for several thousand dollars. Specialists engaged by a number of commodity producers and markets — lumber and brick, notable — expanded and elaborated on these elementary plans with the result that a large variety of simple designs for cottages have been effected. These, their proponents ever, can be built at costs ranging from $2,500 to $4,500, pleasing in appearance yet including the conveniences a family of low income expects to find in a residence.

LETTERS from Our Readers

AN UNBEARABLE YOKE

Expenditures of our State Government have increased 670 per cent in the last twenty-one years. In the same period the population of Texas has increased only 38 per cent and property of the State only 43 per cent, but the number of employes in the administrative departments of the State Government has increased 246 per cent. Add to this the fact that similar increases in the cost of local and Federal government have been made, and the seriousness of the situation becomes very apparent.

When Rehoboam, son of Solomon, rejected the advice of the conservatives who counseled moderation, and announced his intention to increase the burdens of the people, his authority was taken from him. Centuries later St. Peter referred to a yoke, "which neither we, nor our fathers, were able to bear." Excessive taxation encourages waste, and waste is condemned in the Bible. Joseph saved the bountiful harvests of Egypt, and Jesus commanded His disciples to "gather up the fragments, that nothing be wasted." Ease the tax burdens and it will automatically eliminate waste in government spending.

Our fathers, under Houston, Lee, and Pershing, offered their all that our lot in life might be better. Can we afford to live just for the present, piling up debts for our children's children to pay?

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Clyde Childers, Pastor

All of our teachers and officers appreciate very much the 81 in attendance for the Sunday School hour last Sunday but we are still working toward our goal of 100 which we hope to have next Sunday. You will be a stronger Christian if you will come regularly to the Bible school and study God's word with us.

Our budget was submitted last Sunday and we hope that each of our members will make a worthy pledge to carry on our Lord's work. We are grateful for the splendid spirit with which it was received and believe it will be only a brief time until it will be subscribed.

We cordially invite you to worship with us next Sunday. "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord."

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy during the illness and at the death of our mother and grandmother.

Scout Notes

By Miles Pierce

The meeting of February 15 was the first in the new Scout cabin. (And are we proud?)

Our program from now on will follow a definite plan. The meetings will be opened with the Scout oath, the flag will be raised by two Scouts and the business of the meeting will be started. This program is recommended in the Scout ing magazine.

This week's meeting followed this program. Scout master Hollon presiding. The Scout master said that every troop should have some spending money so we decided that each Scout should give a nickel at each meeting. This will give enough money to the troop for things for our new cabin.

As new decorations for the cabin, Scouts Wayne West, Jr., and Bobby Lemmons will make twelve plaques, and burn a Scout law on each, join them together and hang them on the cabin wall.

Rev. Slater, the troop advancement man, made a talk on advancements in the troop. He read a list of names of those to whom Scouts can go to pass various merit badges. (The list has been placed on the cabin wall — Scouts, use it to your own advantage.)

Mr. Hollon gave Tenderfoot advancement sheets to six or seven new Scouts. Problems of decoration were discussed.

On the first Wednesday in April from 5 to 5:15 p. m., Ozona Scouts will present a program over radio station KGKL in San Angelo.

The troop committee has ordered a big banner with the words "Honor Patrol." This banner will go to a winning patrol each month, the winner being judged on the basis of attendance, advancement, order, etc.

Mr. Guinn Carruthers has started an Indian unit with the 7th grade boys, and all these are in the same patrol.

both to my constituents and myself. It is but natural for young men to be ambitious, however, that ambition should not be selfish but directed along lines useful to the country and humanity. Of course I want votes, but shall never try to obtain them at the cost of my convictions. Of one thing I feel positive; there is a vital need for greater economy in Governmental affairs; and for this principle I shall stand until the burden upon our people has been brought within reasonable limits. As the campaign progresses and issues are raised, I shall state my position on all questions affecting the 86th district.

Crockett Cooperates In Expansion Program Angelo Police Radio

Crockett County will cooperate with city officials of San Angelo in their program to expand the scope of coverage for the San Angelo police department broadcasting system, according to an order passed by the Commissioners Court in session this week.

The San Angelo department is seeking authority from the Federal Radio Commission to increase the power of its short wave broadcasting station, but in order to secure such permission, the cooperation of a ten-county area must be secured to include enough population to warrant such increase, under rules of the Commission. Each county cooperating agrees to make use of the facilities of the central station and agrees not to seek an individual station of its own.

Evangelistic Team, Known Here, Injured In Auto Accident

News of an auto accident resulting in the serious injury of Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Flowers, evangelistic team, well known to Ozona folk by reason of their two appearances here in recent years, is contained in the following news item clipped from last week's edition of the Devil's River News at Sonora.

"Seriously injured in an automobile accident, the Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Flowers, evangelists who were here last summer, are recovering slowly in a hospital at Brookville, Pa.

"News of the accident was contained in a letter received last week-end by Mrs. E. E. Sawyer from Mrs. John G. Flowers, sister-in-law of the minister, who lives in Lock Haven, Pa.

"The Flowers' car, a large sedan skidded on icy pavement into the path of one coming toward them. They had opened a meeting in DuBois, Pa., the Sunday before the Tuesday on which the accident happened.

"Mrs. Flowers suffered a broken arm, broken ankle, five broken ribs and numerous cuts and bruises. Her husband's jaw was broken, eighteen teeth knocked out and his knee cap shattered. The Flowers' car was badly damaged and the other one was a total loss.

"Although the home of the Flowers is in Denton they have made it a custom to conduct meetings in the eastern section of the United States in the fall and winter and to come to the south in the spring and summer.

There's NEWS in the advertisements. Read them.
