Crockett Nears Goal in Seventh War Loan Drive

Only $1,400 Needed To Reach $120,000 Individual Quota

Citizens of Crockett county had almost "done it again" this week! Only a comparatively few hundred dollars this week stood between them and the goal of $120,000 in "E" bond purchases assigned in the Seventh War Loan drive. Total sales of "E" bonds yesterday stood at $118,600, just $1,400 short of the mark, Scott Peters, county War Finance Committee chairman reported. The drive was expected to go over the top momentarily.

This county's over-all quota in the Seventh War Loan is $310,000. Sales of the larger type securities which will make up the $190,000 balance of the county's quota are going well, the chairman reported, and he is confident that the quota will be subscribed in full by the end of this month when the Seventh comes to its official close.

Walter E. Yaggy, one of the foremost business and civic leaders of San Angelo, has been named regional chairman and will direct the October campaign of the National War Fund in this area, Wayland D. Towner, general manager of the United War Chest of Texas, announced today.

As chairman of Region 15, one of 19 regional campaign divisions set up in Texas, Mr. Yaggy will lead 20 Texas counties toward an "over-the-top" achievement in the fall campaign. His task is one of the most important in the nationwide drive through which the National War Fund raises funds for USO, USO-Camp Shows, War Prisoners Aid, United Seamen's Service, Philippine Relief and 18 other agencies serving our own fighting men, our allies and war victims throughout the world.

In appointing Mr. Yaggy to the post of regional war fund chairman, Judge Powell declared: "As one of Texas' top civic and patriotic leaders, Mr. Yaggy will play an important part in our annual campaign, through which Texas will raise approximately $4,500,000 for the National War Fund. ## Sgt. Lee Dudley Member 10th Armored Division, Hero of Bastogne and Steel Claw of Both 3rd and 7th Armies Serving with a little heralded but nevertheless heroic unit, the 420th Armored Field Artillery Battalion of the 10th Armored Division, which played a major role in the now historic stand of encircled American forces at Bastogne, Belgium, during the "Battle of the Bulge" in December 1944, for which a Presidential Unit Citation was awarded the battalion, was Sgt. Lee Dudley of Ozona, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dudley.

Even ahead of the 101st Airborne Division, which was heralded for its heroic stand at Bastogne and whose colorful commander made military history with his laconic reply of "Nuts" to the German surrender demand, was the 420th A.F.A. Battalion, cut off a day and a half before the 101st landed in the area to help in the defense.

"I was plenty scared," the Ozonan admitted in a letter to his family after the close of the European war, in which he was able to tell them something of his experiences. Sgt. Dudley, who drove a half-track, said that the outfit was down to its last round of ammunition when the weather finally cleared enough that the Air Force could deliver supplies by parachute.

The story of the heroic part played by the 10th Armored (Tiger Division) in its eight months of savage fighting from one end to the other of the Western Front in Europe, is told in a tabloid supplement to the "Beachhead News," "Founded on Anzio" and "Printed in Austria," issued May 27, 1945, a copy of which has been sent to Sgt. Dudley's wife here. The supplement is titled "Tigers," and is devoted to an account of the blazing action in which the Tenth Armored participated.

"Blazing their way across the battlefields of Europe when there were still battlefields to roar to a dizzying stop in Austria, the "Tigers" of the 10th Armored Division in some eight months of crushing action have rolled from the ships which brought them to Europe into the pages of history forever in a chapter full of victories," began the front page account of the division's activities written by Ty Cross.

"The 10th, under the command of Maj. Gen. William H. H. Morris, Jr., was first blooded last Autumn in the bitter struggle for Metz," the account continued, "played a big part in the historic stand at Bastogne and finally spearheaded one of the greatest operations of the war when it led the VI Corps knock-out from the Rhine to Italy, to the mountains guarding Innsbruck and the Brenner Pass . . ."

"Despite its late entry into the war, the 10th quickly made up for lost time and scored three firsts of world-wide interest:

"It was the first division of the 3rd Army to enter Germany in November; it was the first 3rd Army division to be rushed north after the breakthrough in Luxembourg and Belgium, in mid-December; and the division's CCB was the first unit to stop the Nazi advance near Bastogne.

"The last two weeks of December alone might have been enough to entitle the 10th Armored Division to a niche in the history of World War II. But Tiger men wanted more than a niche.

"So, in the course of that action filled fortnight, the Tigers made two vital contributions toward the ultimate defeat of the Germans in the Battle of the Bulge.

They absorbed the full force of the initial attack at Bastogne, and provided the steel backbone without which Bastogne never would have held; and they provided the Tiger claws of armor that kept the hunter at bay northeast of the city of Luxembourg — his prey — an achievement that undoubtedly saved the city from capture.

"After Bastogne, the division got a brief rest and was sent to the 7th Army for a short tour of duty in the Forboch-St. Avold sector. Back to the 3rd Army, and in February the Tigers leaped into the strategically and tactically important Saar-Mozelle triangle and in four days cleaned up the entire area. Said General Patton when the Tigers swept on to take Trier. . . . an extremely audacious operation."

"They then roared across the Rhineland, knocking off Kaiserlautern, Neustadt, Edenkoben and Landau and found themselves back in 7th Army territory again."

Early this Spring the Tiger division was assigned to spearhead the VI Corps in its attack to Austria, the paper recounted, and the writer commented that the operations "would fill a good-sized book," recounting its dash to the south which at times carried it so far ahead of the main body that it had to dodge our own artillery.

Cut off and encircled by the swift German advance in the December break-through, the 420th Battalion of the Tenth won the unit citation for its heroic stand. That citation, authorized "By command of Lieutenant General Patton," itself tells a dramatic story of that heroic stand:

"These units distinguished themselves in combat against aggressive enemy forces composed of elements of 8 German divisions during the period from 18 December to 27 December, 1944, by extraordinary heroism and gallantry in defense of the key communications center of Bastogne, Belgium. ## Parents Urged to Watch After Small Children at Pool

Parents of very small children who are allowed to go in swimming at the Ozona pool should be on hand, or have some other adult on guard, to watch out for the child during the time he or she is in the pool, Bill Cooper, manager of the local Water District, sponsors of the pool, declared yesterday.

The warning was issued after reports from the pool manager, Carlton Smith, that some parents of children two years old and younger, were placing them in the wading pool and leaving them, either swimming in the other part of the pool or leaving the vicinity entirely.

The pool manager is also on hand as lifeguard, Mr. Cooper said, but too much responsibility should not be placed on him. A very small child could fall down in the water, become strangled and drown in a very few minutes, and should be watched constantly while in the pool, he said.

Commanding Officer Writes Condolence to Kin of Ismael Najar

Pfc. Ismael Najar, a veteran of two years of combat against the Germans through North Africa, Sicily, Italy, France and into Germany, died of wounds received from machine gun fire in Germany on April 20, 1945, his commanding officer, Capt. L. W. Maxwell, of Co. B, 636th Tank Destroyer Battalion, has written the soldier's sister, Elvinda Najar of Ozona.

"You have been informed by the War Department that your brother, Private First Class Ismael Najar, died of wounds received in action during military operations in Germany on 20 April, 1945," Capt. Maxwell wrote in a letter of condolence to the sister.

"As his commanding officer, I want to extend to you the sincere sympathy of myself and the officers and men of this company. His loss as a friend and a splendid soldier is keenly felt by all. Our country shall forever be indebted to him and the thousands like him who have made the supreme sacrifice.

"Private First Class Najar died of wounds received from machine gun fire. He was buried in accordance with the Catholic practice and full military honors were bestowed. His body now rests in a beautiful U. S. Military Cemetery in Germany.

"However inadequate these few words of condolence may seem, kindly accept them. If there is any service I can render I would be pleased to have you let me know."

Contract Let For Repair of Fair Grand Stand

Sunday Roping Matches Draw Interest of Rodeo Fans

Contract has been awarded by the Crockett County Fair Association for repairs to the fair park grandstand, unroofed in a recent windstorm, it was announced this week by association officials. The grandstand top is to be rebuilt, using all materials salvaged from the damaged top plus necessary new material. The contract calls for a labor bill of $700 on the job.

If the grand stand repairs can be completed in time, the association plans to stage a two-day rodeo and show here sometime in August.

Meanwhile, the damaged grandstand is not interfering with the Sunday afternoon roping matches being sponsored by the Ozona Roping Club, a group of roping enthusiasts who have purchased a string of 39 Brahma calves for use in the weekly matches.

Last Sunday a number of out-of-town ropers were on hand in addition to the home-talent group and some spirited jack-pot roping and special matches were reeled off.

In the first round jack-pot roping, George Teague of Crane was first place winner with a time of 19.5 seconds. Kay Black was second in 24.8 and Vic Montgomery third with 27.9.

The tempo was speeded up somewhat in the second round, however. The veteran Howard Westfall of Sheffield, a familiar figure in the arena for many years, set a fast clip of 14.5 seconds but Otto Pridemore of Ozona clipped off three-tenths for a time of 14.2 to win first place. Westfall was second and Curtis Short was third with 15.2.

Another visitor from Crane, Ralph Scott, took the money in the third go, looping and tying his calf in 15.7. Vic Montgomery was second in 16.7 and Jim Westfall, Howard's son was third in 21.5.

The final jack-pot event was a calf belling which Kay Black capped in 10.3 seconds. Ralph Scott was second with 12.2 and Tom Powers third in 12.5.

Five mat-hed ropings topped off the afternoon's entertainment. In the first, Howard Westfall edged out George Teague in a six-calf match 113.4 to 135.3. Vic Montgomery in a similar match, took Ralph Scott with a total time of 114.6 to 165.3.

Tom Powers and Curtis Short were matched in a four-calf go, Powers winning with a total time of 67.3 to 85.9 for Short. A junior match, with Billie Tteague of Crane against Max Word of Ozona, resulted in a victory for the visitor, 171.7 to 214.1. Vic Montgomery nosed out Tom Powers in a three-calf match 46.7 to 69.1 in the final match of the day.

WHETHER it's baseball or business, Americans expect fair play all the way.

In baseball, the umpire sees to it that the game is played according to the rules. But he is not a player.

In business, government should be the umpire who enforces fair rules.

But when government goes into business and competes with its own citizens, the American tradition of fair play is set aside. The umpire then becomes a player, and he enjoys advantages that are denied to all the other players.

For example, government and municipal power-plants are not required to pay federal taxes; often get money from the U. S. Treasury at little or no interest; make up losses out of the pockets of the taxpayers.

Maybe you run a store or service station or beauty shop. Would you like to have a next-door competitor who has little or no rent, or taxes, or interest to pay, and who is kept in business partly by your tax money?

Fortunately for America today, over 80% of the tremendous electric power in this country is produced by tax-paying, self-supporting electric light and power companies, owned and operated by several million folks like you.

These business-managed companies are a big reason why there is enough electricity to meet even the gigantic demands of war—and why, when most things cost more, electricity is still delivered at low pre-war prices.

Don't Worry About Us! We'll do it!

THEY tell us that the fat salvage problem has got to be licked in the small cities, the towns and on the farms.

Our country has to have one hundred million more pounds of used fats this year over last. And we're the people who must save it.

We've rolled up our sleeves! We'll save every drop and bit it is possible to scrape—and keep on doing it till the last Jap is licked.

HOW TO DO IT: Save all used fats in a tin can. Keep it handy to the stove. Scrape your broilers and roasting pans, skim soups and gravies, for every drop counts. Keep solid pieces of fat, such as meat trimmings and table scraps, in a bowl. Melt down when your oven's going, add the liquid fat to the salvage can. Take the can to your butcher as soon as it's full. He will give you four cents and two red points for every pound. Your County Agent or Home Demonstration Agent can give you full particulars.

100,000,000 More Pounds of Used Fat's Are Needed This Year!

Approved by WFA and OPA. Paid for by Industry.

HOW MUCH TO MOVE A WAR?

AS SOON as we can, we'll bring to bear on the Japs all the additional might we've been using against Germany.

What will it cost, this Moving Day of War?

Estimate it in these terms: The job of moving millions of men from one front to another. Thousands of ships to carry the supplies of battle. Swarms of new-type aircraft to blast the path into enemy territory.

You can get an idea of the cost from the fact that Uncle Sam needs 7 billions from us in the mighty Seventh War Loan—now!

The Seventh War Loan will call for the greatest bond buying we have ever done.

If you have an income—whether from work, land, or capital—you have a quota in the 7th War Loan. Be sure to make it!

How long will it take to beat JAPAN?

One Year? Three Years? Five Years? Look at these Facts... From the Army and Navy. Then Figure it Out for Yourself!

In spite of Midway, Bougainville, Tarawa, Saipan, Leyte, Manila, Iwo Jima, Okinawa, and all the other American victories, Japan now controls an area and population far larger than the United States, and with many natural resources greater than ours.

Her home islands are industrialized and organized to the last rivet, the last kilowatt of power, the last pair of human hands.

Japan can put in the field over 4,000,000 well-trained, battle-hardened troops, many with ten years of war behind them. This force is twice as large as all the German armies which defended France, the low countries and the Western front of the Reich against the combined armies of the United States, Britain, Canada and the Free French.

Back of these soldiers are more than 70 million civilians on the Jap home front, firmly indoctrinated in emperor worship—every man, woman and child ready and eager to die for the man they believe is a god.

Japan is fighting on "interior" lines. It's true that its fleet is now much smaller than ours. But never forget that the U. S. Navy has a much bigger job to do.

The Japs have stated, and no thinking man or woman doubts it, that they are prepared to sacrifice 10,000,000 men to hold their empire. To the Japanese, life is cheap. The emperor and the state mean everything—the individual, nothing.

If the war were to end tomorrow, Japan would have put the seal on a conquest greater than Napoleon's.

"But," you say, "the war with Japan won't end tomorrow."

Well, what about it? Will it end "tomorrow," or next month or next year, for you?

Are you planning to quit your war job, stop your blood donations, slacken your Bond buying, use more gas, have more fun, ease up generally?

Before you do, remember that many a gallant American boy, now vibrant with the breath of life, will die at the hands of the Japs.

How many?

Thousands? Certainly. Hundreds of thousands? Probably.

Well, how many?

That's up to you.

How you can help

- 1 Keep that war job!
- 2 Keep buying Bonds!
- 3 Keep doing all your country asks!

Sgt. Lee Dudley —

Essential to a large scale exploitation of his break-through into Belgium and northern Luxembourg, the enemy attempted to seize Bastogne by attacking constantly and savagely with the best of this armor and infantry. Without benefit of prepared defenses, facing almost overwhelming odds and with very limited and fast-dwindling supplies, these units maintained a high combat morale and an impenetrable defense, despite extremely heavy bombing, intense artillery fire and constant attacks from infantry and armor on all sides of their completely cut off and encircled position. This masterful and grimly determined defense denied the enemy even momentary success in an operation for which he paid dearly in men, material and eventually morale. The outstanding courage and resourcefulness and undaunted determination of this gallant force is in keeping with the highest tradition of the service.

Sgt. Dudley has been in the service nearly four years. He is still with the Tenth Armored, now stationed near Munich in Austria.

Developer and Top Producer of Synthetic Toluene

Baytown Orinance Works, designed and operated for the Government by Humble, was the first plant in the world to make toluene synthetically from petroleum. Forty-five days before Pearl Harbor the first shipment of toluene was made; and since that time Humble has produced toluene for at least one out of every two bombs used by the United Nations. For this feat Humble has five times been awarded the Army-Navy "E". This is one of the four important FIRSTS* in Humble's war production record.

Research and development in progress long before the war, backed by Humble's vast resources made possible these achievements. From this same combination of research and resources come top quality products for your car.

*FIRST to produce a billion gallons of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline at one refinery

FIRST in crude oil production

FIRST in U. S. production of toluene for TNT

FIRST in transportation of oil by pipe line

SCIENTIFICALLY DEVELOPED PRODUCTS

Esso-Extra, Humble 997 Motor Oil, and other quality Humble products are the culmination of years of intensive research, development and constant improvement.

Look for the Humble sign when you shop for your car's needs. Behind that familiar red, white and blue oval lies the experience of a great name and a great organization.
